2 tain work in competitive integrated employment;

3 (2) ensure individuals with disabilities, families,
4 local and State governments, and other stakeholders 5 are involved in the transformations described in 6 paragraph (1);

7 (3) ensure individuals employed in programs
8 using such special certificates transition to competi-
9 tive integrated employment positions and, as needed, 10 to services that support them as needed in inte-
11 grated home and community-based settings;

12 (4) identify models and processes for shifting 13 business and program models from such special cer-
14 tificates to competitive integrated employment mod-15 els and integrated community participation and 16 wraparound models, and to share that information 17 with other such special certificate holders, State and 18 local entities, and other service providers for those 19 with intellectual, developmental, mental health, and 20 other disabilities; and

21 (5) support State and local governments as they 22 revise and implement their Olmstead plans to im-23 prove integrated employment options and home and 24 community-based services options for all people with 25 disabilities.

5 SEC. 101. PROGRAM AUTHORIZED.

6 From the amounts appropriated to carry out this 7 title, the Secretary of Labor shall award grants under sec-8 tions 102 and 103, on a competitive basis, to States and 9 eligible entities to assist such States and entities to trans-10 form their business and program models from providing 11 employment using special certificates issued under section 12 14(c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C.
 13 214(c)) to models that support individuals with intellec-14 tual, developmental, and other disabilities by—

15 (1) operating competitive integrated employ-16 ment businesses;

17 (2) assisting such individuals in finding and re-
 18 taining work in competitive integrated employment; 19 and

20 (3) providing integrated employment and inte-
 21 grated community participation and wraparound 22 services (in this Act referred to as “integrated serv-23 ices”) for such individuals.

24 SEC. 102. STATE GRANT PROGRAM.

25 (a) APPLICATION.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—To be eligible to receive a
2 grant under this section, a State shall submit an ap-
3 plication to the Secretary at such time, in such man-4 ner, and including such information as the Secretary 5 may reasonably require.

6 (2) CONTENTS.—Each application submitted
7 under paragraph (1) shall include—

8 (A) a description of the status of the em-
9 ployers in the State providing employment 10 using special certificates, including—

11 (i) the number of employers providing 12 employment using special certificates;

13 (ii) the number of such employers
14 that provide competitive integrated employ-
15 ment, which shall include employers pro-
16 viding such employment in combination 17 with integrated services;

18 (iii) the number of employees em-
19 ployed under a special certificate,
20 disaggregated by employer;

21 (iv) the average number of hours such 22 an employee works per week (including the 23 range and median of hours), disaggregated 24 by employer, and reported for the State as 25 a whole; and

1 (v) the average hourly wage for such 2 an employee (including the range and me-3 dian wage), disaggregated by employer,
4 and reported for the State as a whole;

5 (B) a description of activities to be funded 6 under the grant, and the goals of such activi-7 ties, including—

8 (i) the process to be used to identify 9 each employer in the State that will trans-
10 form its business and program models
11 from providing employment using special 12 certificates to providing competitive inte-13 grated employment or a combination of 14 competitive integrated employment and in-15 tegrated services, which, by the end of the 16 6-year grant period for the State, results 17 in the discontinuation of employment using 18 special certificates in the State, with the 19 exception that any individual employed
20 under a special certificate as of June 4, 21 1997, may continue to be employed in the 22 employment setting in which such indi-
23 vidual was employed as of the day before 24 the date of enactment of this Act, without 25 regard to whether such setting provides in-

1 tegrated employment or a combination of 2 integrated employment and integrated 3 services;

4 (ii) the number of such employers in 5 the State that will carry out a trans-
6 formation described in clause (i);

7 (iii) the service delivery infrastructure 8 that will be implemented in the State to 9 support individuals who have been em-
10 ployed under special certificates through 11 such a transformation;

12 (iv) the integrated employment and 13 integrated services that will be imple-
14 mented in the State to support such indi-
15 viduals;

16 (v) the timeline for phasing out em-17 ployment using special certificates in the 18 State;

19 (vi) a timeline for the expansion of 20 employers that will provide competitive in-
21 tegrated employment or a combination of
22 competitive integrated employment and in-
23 tegrated services for individuals who have 24 been employed under special certificates;

1 (vii) a description of the expanded in-
2 tegrated employment and integrated serv-3 ices to be provided to such individuals as 4 a result of a transformations described in 5 clause (i); and

6 (viii) a description of the process to be 7 used to engage stakeholders in such trans-
8 formations;

9 (C) a description of how the activities
10 under the grant will coordinate and align Fed-11 eral, State, and local programs, agencies, and 12 funding in the transformations described in 13 subparagraph (B)(i);

14 (D) a description of the State's evaluation
15 plan to determine the impact of the grant;

16 (E) assurances that—

17 (i) the activities carried out under the 18 grant will result in each employer in the 19 State that provides employment using spe-
20 cial certificates to transform as described 21 in subparagraph (B)(i);

22 (ii) individuals with the most signifi-
23 cant intellectual and developmental disabil-
24 ities who will be impacted by such a trans-25 formation will be given priority in receiving

1 the necessary supports and services to suc-
2 ceed during and after such a trans-
3 formation;

4 (iii) each individual in the State who 5 is employed under a special certificate will, 6 as a result of such a transformation, be 7 employed in competitive integrated employ-8 ment or be so employed and receive the in-9 tegrated services desired by the individual;

10 (iv) the State agencies responsible for 11 developmental disability services, Medicaid, 12 education, vocational rehabilitation, mental 13 health services, and other supports agree 14 to be partners in the goals of the grant;

15 (v) the State will comply with require-16 ments of the Secretary with respect to the 17 collection of data and will require employ-18 ers providing employment under special 19 certificates in the State to comply with 20 such requirements;

21 (vi) the State will cooperate with the 22 evaluation under title IV by providing all 23 data required and allow the evaluation of 24 activities under the grant;

1 (vii) the State will create an advisory 2 council described in paragraph (3) to mon-
3 itor and guide the process of transforming 4 business and program models of employers 5 in the State; and

6 (viii) the State will cooperate with the 7 nonprofit entity carrying out technical as-8 sistance and dissemination activities under 9 title III; and

10 (F) such other information and assurances 11 as the Secretary may reasonably require.

12 (3) MEMBERS OF THE ADVISORY COUNCIL.—A 13 State receiving a grant under this section shall cre-14 ate an advisory council composed of the following:

15 (A) At least 25 percent of the members are 16 individuals with disabilities.
