

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 211

Recognizing the Aviation Cadet Museum in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, as “America’s National Aviation Cadet Museum”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 15, 2019

Mr. BOOZMAN (for himself and Mr. COTTON) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the Aviation Cadet Museum in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, as “America’s National Aviation Cadet Museum”.

Whereas, in 1994, former Aviation Cadet and United States Air Force First Lieutenant Errol Severe founded the Aviation Cadet Museum;

Whereas the flying cadet and succeeding aviation cadet programs served as the primary production source of nearly 500,000 United States Air Force pilots, navigators, and bombardiers from 1917 to 1961;

Whereas the bravery, courage, dedication, and heroism of United States aviators from across the Air Corps and Army Air Forces were critical factors in defeating the enemies of the United States during World War I and World War II;

Whereas the Aviation Cadet Museum in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, exists to exclusively preserve and promote an understanding of the role of aviation cadets in the 20th century; and

Whereas the Aviation Cadet Museum is dedicated to celebrating the spirit of the United States and recognizing the teamwork, collaboration, patriotism, and courage of the individuals who trained and fought and the individuals on the homefront who mobilized and supported the national aviation effort: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved, That the Senate recognizes the Aviation
- 2 Cadet Museum in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, as “America’s National Aviation Cadet Museum”.
