The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

STRENGTHENING AMERICA'S SECURITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST ACT OF 2019—MOTION TO PROCEED—RESUMED

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate resume consideration of the motion to proceed to S. 1.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the motion.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

Motion to proceed to the consideration of S. 1, a bill to make improvements to certain defense and security assistance provisions and to authorize the appropriation of funds to Israel, to reauthorize the United States-Jordan Defense Cooperation Act of 2015, and to halt the wholesale slaughter of the Syrian people, and for other purposes.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 2019

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it recess until 11 a.m., Wednesday, January 23, 2019, and that following the prayer and pledge, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER FOR RECESS

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that it stand in recess, under the previous order, following the remarks of the Democratic leader.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

GOVERNMENT FUNDING

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, I thank the Republican leader.

The Republican leader has just announced an agreement we have reached about the schedule for the two votes on Thursday, both of which will be amendments to the House-passed continuing resolution. First, the Senate will vote on the President's proposal, and then we will vote on an amendment that is identical to the underlying bill.

The President said his proposal was a reasonable compromise. In fact, it is neither reasonable nor a compromise. There was no serious negotiation with any Democrat about what went into the proposal. That is because the proposal was never intended to pass. It is only a thinly veiled attempt by the President to save face. Anyone who looks at the legislation can tell it was designed to fail. In exchange for the wall, the President offers only limited temporary protections for DACA and TPS—protections he single-handedly removed. So it is sort of like bargaining for stolen goods. On top of that, he has proposed new, radical changes to our asylum system without consulting any Democrats—changes that controvert our Nation's most fundamental and precious values. I hope that it will be roundly defeated on Thursday.

The good news is that after that vote, we will have a second amendment that could break us out of this morass we are in. The Senate will proceed to an amendment to the House bill that is identical to the underlying legislation. In other words, for the first time, we will have a vote on whether to open up the government without any decision, one way or the other, on border security. The proposal also adds necessary disaster aid to several States that were recently ravaged by natural disasters.

People are asking: Isn't there a way out of this mess? Isn't there a way to relieve the burden on the 800,000 Federal workers who are not getting paid? Isn't there a way to get government services open first and then to debate what we should do for border security?

There is a way, and that will be the second vote that will occur on Thursday. It would reopen all of the portions of the government until February 8—open them briefly, but open them it will—and it would allow workers to get paid and get their backpay. It would allow us to then debate—without hostage-taking, without temper tantrums, without anything—how we can best do border security. We would get that done, hopefully, by February 8 and keep the government open.

If you are looking for a way to open up the government, this is the way. I hope my Republican colleagues—many of whom were circulating a letter that does, basically, the same thing as does this proposal but without the disaster aid—will sign, will vote yes. The American people are looking for a solution. I am glad that we will have a vote that will bring us nearer to that solution, much closer to that solution. That will be the second vote here, which will open up the government and then will allow us to debate border security.

Again, I urge enough of my Republican colleagues to join us Democrats in voting for the proposal, which has already passed the House, that could open up the government.

I yield the floor.
