House of Representatives
FRIDAY, MAY 3, 2019

The House met at 2:30 p.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Brown of Maryland).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
The Speaker pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

I hereby appoint the Honorable Anthony G. Brown to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

NANCY PELOSI,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER
The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer:

Eternal Father, we give You thanks and concern for us all. In turn, You ask for giving us another day.

You require us to be faithful to our commitments, to Your commandments, to each other, and those we serve in Your holy name.

As the Members visit their districts and encounter constituents, forgive any faults or failures in the difficult work of legislating. May they, and may we all, recognize personal shortcomings so as to make us all the more understanding of others.

May Your forgiveness free us to love a new life and be more forgiving ourselves. Thus may Your compassion for the poor, the weak, and the alienated guide us now and forever.

May all that is done this day be for Your greater honor and glory.

Amen.

DISCHARGE PETITIONS

Petition 2, May 1, 2019, by Mr. HICE of Georgia on House Resolution 132, was signed by the following Members: Mr. Rice of Georgia, Mr. Calvert, Mr. Higgins of Louisiana, Mr. Dunn, Mr. Biggs, Mr. Rorer, Mr. Johnson of Ohio, Mr. Hudson, Mr. Armstrong, Mr. Mast, Mr. Comer, Mr. Duncan, Mr. Thompson of Pennsylvania, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Babin, Mr. Weber of Texas, Mr. Burchett, Mr. Olson, Mr. Rutherford, Mr. Wright, Mr. Budd, Mr. Gonzales of Ohio, Mr. Flores, Mr. Walden, Mr. Baird, Mr. Smith of Nebraska, Mr. LaTutta, Mr. Walberg, Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Steube, Mr. Bishop of Utah, Mr. Fleischmann, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Rodney Davis of Illinois, Mr. Austin Scott of Georgia, Mr. Riggleman, Mr. Hagedorn, Mr. Bost, Mr. King of Iowa, Mr. Wenstrup, Mr. Cook, Mr. Pence, Mr. Fulcher, Mr. Davidson of Ohio, Mr. Carter of Georgia, Mr. LaMalfa, Mr. Tipton, Mr. McKinley, Mr. Reschenthaler, Mrs. Miller, Mr. Gosar, Mr. Griffith, Mrs. Lesko, Mr. Meuser, Mr. Yoho, Mr. Scalise, Mr. Mooney of West Virginia, Mr. Norman, Mr. Williams, Mr. Kevin Hern of Oklahoma, Mr. Bucshon, Mr. Guthrie, Mr. Estes, Mr. McCaul, Mr. Buck, Mr. Gaetz, Mr. Mullin, Mr. Palmer, Mr. Banks, Mr. Jordan, Mr. Spano, Mr. Roy, Mr. Cline, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Collins of New York, Mr. Marchant, Mr. Arrington, Mr. Bergman, Mr. Joyce of Pennsylvania, Mr. Schweikert, Mr. Masie, Mr. Timmons, and Mr. Watkins.
FRANCE, under Louis Napoleon’s rule, had the world’s most powerful army, and sent more than six thousand men to invade Mexico.

But the courage and the love of freedom impelled the Mexican people to fight back.

General Ignacio Zaragoza led 5,000 ill-equipped Mestizo and Zapotec Indians called Zacapoaxtla.

On the 5th of May 1862, the forts of Loreto and Guadaloupe, in the city of Puebla, became the scene of the historic defeat of the great army of France.

Against overwhelming odds, they managed to drive the enemy back, achieving a total victory over the best trained and equipped soldiers in the world and ending the era of European domination of the Americas.

For Mexico, this day has come to represent a symbol of Mexican unity.

In the United States, Cinco de Mayo is also a celebration of the rich cultural heritage Mexican Americans have brought to the United States.

Hispanics are the fastest growing minority group in the United States.

According to the most recent data available, the estimated Hispanic population in the U.S. is 57.5 million—constituting 17.8 percent of our nation’s population.

Hispanics now own a record number of small businesses—1.6 million, with annual revenues of more than $221 billion.

Small businesses create two-thirds of American jobs, and the fastest-growing small business sector is Latino-owned firms.

Today, there are 40 Hispanic Members in the United States Congress, including 4 Senators and 36 House Members, many of whom are Mexican-American, representing constituencies in all regions of the country, from California to New York, from Arizona to Illinois, from Colorado to Florida.

These gains and numbers tell us that Hispanics are a driving force in our country—economically, socially and politically.

Hispanics share the common goals with all other Americans of freedom, opportunity, and a chance to build a better life.

In pursuing these aspirations, Hispanics have made important contributions to life in the United States in the fields of culture, sports, entertainment, business enterprise, science, politics and others.

Today, millions of Americans will join our neighbors to the south in celebrating Cinco de Mayo.

On this day, we are reminded that all people—regardless of their race, color, or gender—have enriched cultures and are worthy of respect and self-determination.

I am happy to be here today to celebrate this momentous day and to recognize the values, traditions, and positive contributions of the Mexican culture.
President Jimmy Carter, Governor Jerry Brown, Senator Edward Kennedy, Senator John Kerry, and Secretary Hillary Clinton.

Mr. Barbaro’s proudest accomplishment are his two sons, Brett and Casey. His oldest, Brett, graduated from Harvard in biochemistry and is working in La Jolla, mapping atoms and cells in a worldwide network to find a cure for devastating diseases. His youngest son, Casey, graduated from Stanford, attended Albert Einstein School of Medicine, graduating Alpha Omega Alpha, and is now a lead trauma surgeon at Ventura County Hospital.

Frank Barbaro is truly a legend in the history of Orange County and I am proud to honor my good friend, Frank Barbaro, a giant among men.

IN RECOGNITION OF JOANNE HAYES-WHITE
HON. JACKIE SPEIER
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 3, 2019

Ms. SPEIER. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor Joanne Hayes-White as she responds to her final call as Chief of the San Francisco Fire Department. Chief Hayes-White will be retiring after 29 years with the department. Here is a long and storied career that spans the transformation of the department from an all-male bastion to a modern department in which merit is measured by your capacity to save lives and property through working as part of a team, and celebrating the differences that make this nation great.

Joanne Hayes-White was born in San Francisco. She graduated from the University of Santa Clara with a degree in business and immediately applied to the San Francisco Fire Department. She was hired in April 1990. She climbed the career ladder almost as quickly as the ladder on a truck. In 1993 she was promoted to Lieutenant and in 1996 to Captain. Also in 1996, she was assigned as the Acting Battalion Chief with oversight of the department’s dispatch and communications systems. The department selected Battalion Chief Hayes-White to oversee the installation of the Computer-Aided Dispatch system (CAD) and the Automated Information System (AIS). Along the way, Chief Hayes-White combined the communications functions of police, fire, and emergency response, improving response times and inter-agency communications.

Firefighters live and die based in part on their training. As Director of Training, Joanne Hayes-White developed the Battalion-Based in Service Training Program which almost tripled the number of training hours for all members of the department, with almost no fiscal impact. As Chief, she has implemented random on-duty alcohol and drug testing, reconfigured emergency medical services, and restored promotional exams, all steps that have increased accountability within the department.

The fire department is noticeable in the community through the training of civilians and even school children. Ninth graders in San Francisco learn CPR. The department is committed to reducing pedestrian deaths and works to right-size equipment to San Francisco’s streets.

In April of 2010, the Chief was offered a fellowship to attend the Harvard Kennedy School Senior Executives in State and Local Government Program in excellence, as evidence a few years later. In 2018, Chief Hayes-White was named as the 2018 Career Fire Chief of the Year by the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

San Francisco is a complex city to protect. The department is among the most famous for valor and for protecting the forty-nine square miles of dense community that constitutes the city. The fire department goes beyond fighting fires and preventing death and injury due to medical emergencies. Under Chief Hayes-White’s leadership, the department was a leader in environmental and sustainability initiatives, such as transitioning the fleet to renewable diesel, composting and recycling.

It has been a privilege to work with Joanne Hayes-White during my time in the State Legislature and in Congress. She is an inspiration to girls and young women throughout San Francisco. She has attended multiple of my When I Grow Up events and spoke before 600 girls and family members at Grenen Tech. During her remarks, she noted that it was not easy to make her way to the 1990's-era department. The department only began hiring women in 1987. As of 2017, 30 years later, 15% of firefighters were women. Yet the department is also a close-knit community. Even as Chief, she knows every firefighter by name.

As a human being, Joanne Hayes-White excels. Her ready smile, respect for traditions that strengthen the department, and love of community are second to none. She is a native of San Francisco’s winding streets, fog-shrouded hills and beautiful beaches. She has managed the department when its budget was cut and fought hard to get positions and capabilities restored as the economy recovered. We are all safer because Chief Hayes-White assumed the helm of the San Francisco Fire Department.

Now, it’s time for Joanne to take time to smell the roses. She will see more of her sons, Riley, age 25, Logan, age 21, and Sean, age 19. They grew up with the department with her, and now they get to reclaim some of the time she offered to the city by the bay.

For those of us who have lived in and grown up around San Francisco, there are two bells that immediately trigger an image of the city that we love: Cable car bells and the bell bells that immediately trigger an image of the city that we love: Cable car bells and the bell...
HONORING LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENTS OF CHARLOTTE EGAN

HON. J. LUIS CORREA
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
FRIDAY, MAY 3, 2019

Mr. CORREA. Madam Speaker, I would like to honor the achievements of one of my constituents, Charlotte Egan, who is celebrating her 50th year of service for the OC Health Care Agency and her well-deserved retirement.

Mrs. Egan began her career at the OC Health Care Agency as a Public Health Microbiologist Trainee in 1969, after seeing an ad for the opening in a newspaper. Since then, she has worked her way through every section of the HCA laboratory. In 1985, she was promoted to Public Health Microbiologist II in the Virology/Serology section where she served as the lead microbiologist. Mrs. Egan has played an instrumental role in the research and identification of viruses such as Influenza, Mumps, Chicken Pox, and Rubella. She has also been at the forefront of combating outbreaks of HIV, H1N1 Influenza, and Measles. Charlotte is known for the quality and standard of her work and was an outstanding model to her trainees and peers. In the words of Mrs. Egan, “Find work that you’re passionate about and do it well. Serve your community with patience and have respect for patients.”

Today we celebrate not only her decades-long career, but her future beyond the laboratory. She looks forward to spending more time with her grandchildren, volunteering at the Hollywood Braille Institute and the Aquarium of the Pacific, traveling, and maybe even pursuing her dream of qualifying for a mission to the International Space Station.

Madam Speaker, I am honored to recognize Mrs. Charlotte Egan for her commitment to excellence and dedication to serving our community.
from their experiences will last a lifetime and prove invaluable to them as they go about making their mark in this world.

Because of persons like them the future of our country is bright, and its best days lie ahead. I wish them all well. Madam Speaker, I arise today to congratulate Anna Diaz-White as she is honored by 180 Turning Lives Around at their annual celebration on May 3, 2019. Ms. Diaz-White’s exemplary leadership and contributions to 180 Turning Lives Around are truly deserving of this body’s recognition.

For over 40 years, 180 Turning Lives Around has provided a safe outlet for victims of domestic and sexual violence, providing shelter, resources, counseling, and core subjects of any young woman seeking to act and the course of western civilization. Parliament was roused to act and the course of western civilization was sharply and famously revised. We know that the music of Sister Suzanne Toolan, both famous and less so, inspires millions. Our country is bright, and its best days lie ahead. I wish them all well.

IN RECOGNITION OF KIM GARZA TURNER

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS
OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 3, 2019

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the achievements of Kim Garza Turner, an outstanding North Texan. A dedicated advocate for civic participation, Kim selflessly serves her community in all that she does.

As a young student at the University of North Texas, Kim interned in my Washington, D.C. office in 2004. This opportunity, facilitated by UNT’s North Texas in DC Internship Program, commenced Kim’s long and rewarding career in public service. From the U.S. Capitol, Kim was chosen as the sole intern for the West Wing of the White House during President George W. Bush’s 2004 re-election.

After returning to Texas to continue her studies at UNT, she kept pursuing a career in politics. For more than a decade, I have relied on Kim as a leader, collaborator, and trusted advisor. She has a proven track record of success as a consultant and strategist.

In addition to her work in politics, Kim is an active member of her North Texas community. She teaches Sunday school volunteers as a member of the Junior League of Dallas, and recently completed her term on the Board of Trustees for the Dallas Historical Society.

This evening, Kim will receive the NTDC Program’s Legacy Award in recognition of her many achievements. I am thankful that NTDC connected Kim with my office 15 years ago, and tonight I am glad to add my voice to this well-deserved praise.

From Capitol Hill to the White House and beyond, Kim has dedicated much of her life to serving her fellow North Texans and the American people. I congratulate my fellow UNT alum on this honor, and look ahead to many more years of excellence.
