The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Cuellar).

DESIGNATION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC, July 24, 2019.

I hereby appoint the Honorable Henry Cuellar to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

NANCY PELOSI,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MORNING-HOUR DEBATE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the order of the House of January 3, 2019, the Chair will now recognize Members from lists submitted by the majority and minority leaders for morning-hour debate.

The Chair will alternate recognition between the parties. All time shall be equally allocated between the parties, and in no event shall debate continue beyond 11:50 a.m. Each Member, other than the majority and minority leaders and the minority whip, shall be limited to 5 minutes.

RECOGNIZING RALPH AND CHRISTINE BROWN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from North Carolina (Ms. Foxx) for 5 minutes.

Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate Region IX of the North Carolina State Organization of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society on their achievements at the State convention in Hickory, North Carolina. Region IX makes up eight chapters across North Carolina’s Fifth District and took home five achievement awards, three communications excellence awards, and two newsletter and website awards.

These recognitions speak to the chapter’s success in its mission to promote the professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education.

As an educator myself, I know the incredible difference it makes to have opportunities for mentorship, professional development, and scholarships. The society invites members who are dedicated to education in different fields, both active and retired, to build up future leaders at the local level. As we all know, the local level is where the best practices and policies in education come from.

Knowing that young educators in the Fifth District have such talented and locally engaged women behind them makes me very proud. These women are shining examples of the powerful impact that organizing within our communities has on future generations.

NAACP AGAIN MAKES HISTORY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas (Mr. Green) for 5 minutes.

Mr. GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, and still I rise, proud to be an American and, today, I would also say, proud to be a member of the Nation’s oldest and still I rise, proud to be a member of the Nation’s oldest civil rights organization, the NAACP.

I am especially proud to be a member of the NAACP today because, yesterday, the NAACP became the first of the civil rights and human rights organizations to take a stand against bigotry, xenophobia, homophobia, Islamophobia, hatred, and racism by passing a resolution at its national convention calling for the impeachment of the President.

And still I rise, proud, Mr. Speaker, to be associated with this organization. This is not its first time taking a stand on behalf of the American people.

It was the NAACP that filed Shelley v. Kraemer and Barrows v. Jackson, outlawing restrictive covenants that prevented people of color from living in certain neighborhoods.

It was the NAACP that filed and won Brown v. Board of Education, which, literally, took on and eviscerated segregation—lawful segregation, I might add—in this country.
It was the NAACP that guided the Supreme Court of the United States of America for almost a quarter of a century under the leadership of Associate Justice Thurgood Marshall. He was the lawyer who took Brown v. Board of Education before the Supreme Court. He was the lawyer who was the chief legal counsel for the NAACP. He sat on the Supreme Court. He guided the Supreme Court.

The NAACP, again, makes history, and I am proud to be associated with this program.

Mr. Speaker, I would also add that we are now some 98 days since the Mueller report was called to the attention of the public, 98 days since it was made public, 98 days since the Chief Executive has been above the law.

Mr. Speaker, we are living in some very challenging times—very challenging times—but Dr. King reminded us that the truest measure of a person is not where you stand in times of comfort and convenience but where you stand in these times of challenge and controversy.

I am proud to know that the NAACP stands for liberty and justice for all, stands for the people of the United States of America, as it has historically. And I shall continue to stand and be a member of the NAACP.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to refrain from engaging in personalities toward the President.

KANSANS WANT CONGRESS TO SOLVE PROBLEMS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. MARSHALL) for 5 minutes.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, the circle is back in town. I can hear the music all the way over here in the Capitol, the music of that merry-go-round going on in the Judiciary Committee right now, as we speak.

Yes, Mr. Mueller is here now for the fifth congressional hearing on this same issue, on this witch hunt. This is a cheap, made-for-TV television movie fifth congressional hearing on this controversy.

Mr. Speaker, the frustration is that, back home, we have done over 63 town halls, and I can count on one hand the number of times somebody has ever asked me about the Mueller report or Russiannaia.

What Kansans want is for Congress to stand up and solve the problems in front of us.

The USMCA agreement, the NAFTA-2.0 agreement, is sitting on the Speaker of the House’s desk. Nothing would make this effort to ensure peace and increase stability in the region.

USDA RULE CHANGE WILL KICK MILLIONS OFF SNAP

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. COSTA) for 5 minutes.

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call attention to the administration’s proposal, its recent attack on some of the most vulnerable Americans, the 38 million people who rely on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, otherwise known as SNAP. The USDA, United States Department of Agriculture, announced yesterday a rule change to the eligibility for the program. This change would kick millions of Americans—seniors, children, and their families—off a program that provides critical assistance. It is a safety net.

Mr. Speaker would weaken our ability to provide support for working people who are struggling to get by month to month.

It would have a huge impact in my district. Unfortunately, 25 percent of my constituents depend on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program monthly to provide nutrition for themselves and their families.

As a member of the conference committee that negotiated the 2018 farm bill, I urge my colleagues to oppose this proposal.

That is why I fought to expand the employment and training programs that we do in SNAP in the Fresno Bridge Academy, to equip recipients with the necessary tools to get back on their feet, to make them self-sufficient. That is what we should be doing.

Guess what: The President supported it when he signed the farm bill into law last December. He needs to remain consistent.

I will fight for families, for seniors, and for children. The bottom line is this: SNAP is a helpful program to support people in their time of need with achieving self-sufficiency. It is part of America’s safety net.

We must block this egregious attempt to administratively do what Congress did not do last December. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to stand with me and oppose this attack on one of our Nation’s most vulnerable populations.

HIGHLIGHTING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE HOURSE IN THE LAST 6 MONTHS

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I call to the attention of the House of Representatives what we have achieved in the last 6 months, many of these pieces of legislation on a bipartisan basis.

We have passed 10 bills to reduce the price of healthcare; lower prescription drug costs, which millions want us to do; and strengthen protections for people with preexisting conditions—reducing the cost of drugs and strengthening protections for pre-existing conditions to protect those individuals.

We passed the Equality Act to ensure that every American enjoys the same rights and is protected equally under the law. The Equality Act is so important.

I fought to improve our water infrastructure, to address the strain on this precious resource brought by drought and climate change to ensure that we have clean, safe drinking water for all of our communities.

In the San Joaquin Valley, sadly, we have many communities that don’t enjoy clean, safe drinking water standards.

I have worked hard to implement the funding bills to help alleviate the humanitarian crisis at our border and advanced legislation to secure a pathway to citizenship for millions of undocumented immigrants currently living in the United States; our Dreamers, over 800,000, who have lived here through no choice of their own, and for them America is the only country they have ever known. They need and deserve legal status.

I am proud that, in the last 6 months of work, this week we will consider H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act.

Many of us have been to the borders, and we do have a humanitarian crisis there, and we need to do what is right. We need to ensure that those individuals receive good standards of water, beds, and access to healthcare, and that they are treated humanely. That is the American way. These are basic living standards.

Finally, the budget deal that was agreed to on a bipartisan basis over the weekend is important, not only as it relates to our discretionary and non-discretionary spending for the next 2 years lifting the budget cap, but in addition to that, to ensuring that we produce a budget on time; that we avoid a government shutdown; that we ensure that our men and women serving in the Armed Forces have the adequate funding that they need; that our veterans get the support and our VA hospitals that we have promised them.

These are the things that are part of an overall budget deal. It avoids the kind of circus that we had over the last year where we had a government shutdown, a government shutdown we should never have. We should never have that impact on our economy; our Federal employees to be expected—whether they be in air traffic control or food safety—to go to work and not to receive a check. That is irresponsible.

So the budget deal is good. It is a bipartisan effort. It, frankly, gives the sort of discretion that Congress needs to make budget decisions to prioritize our needs in America.

So, for that, I thank the Congress.

CONGRATULATING SAINT FRANCIS UNIVERSITY ON THEIR APPALACHIAN REGIONAL COMMISSION GRANT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. THOMPSON) for 5 minutes.

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Saint Francis University on a well-deserved grant from the Appalachian Regional Commission, otherwise known as ARC.

ARC recently announced Saint Francis University as the recipient of a $150,000 grant to support advanced patient simulation training equipment for the university’s new Health Science Experiential Learning Commons that will open this October.

The Commons will include much-needed space for a simulation laboratory, and clinical education, including five state-of-the-art simulation suites where students can practice real life clinical scenarios on computer-controlled mannequins with the assistance of their instructors through two-way audio feedback.

The grant will be used to invest in this cutting-edge technology to provide students with the technology needed to close the skills gap and better prepare them for situations they will likely encounter in their professional careers.

Saint Francis University has committed itself to career and technical education in the health science field, and this grant will help provide hundreds of students with the training necessary to prepare for rewarding careers and, quite frankly, service to their community.

Investments like these are playing a critical role in developing the 21st century American workforce, in developing a workforce full of talented individuals who can help meet today’s ever-growing demand for healthcare professionals.

Pennsylvania’s 15th Congressional District, in particular, is in need of healthcare professionals and Saint Francis students are rising to the occasion. The grant will not only support current Saint Francis students; ARC rightly noted, “local employers will have access to a pipeline of highly-skilled healthcare professionals to meet labor demands, help create jobs and expand the local economy, and provide quality healthcare to citizens in Appalachian Pennsylvania.”

Reverend Malachi Van Tassell, President of Saint Francis University, noted the value that this grant adds for the students who are seeking an education in health science. He said, “This equipment will allow our students to practice hands-on patient care procedures in a simulated environment and to learn how to work in an interprofessional, team-based setting. Beyond the benefit to our students, it will also enable us to provide advanced training opportunities to area emergency medical services personnel and first responders.”

Mr. Speaker, this grant is not just an investment in Saint Francis, it is an investment in Pennsylvania’s 15th Congressional District. It is an investment in the lifeblood of our local communities.

When we empower learners and provide them with the necessary resources for a conducive, innovative learning environment, our students will thrive personally and professionally, and will provide the best possible care to Pennsylvanians in need.

COMMEMORATING ASSYRIAN GENOCIDE MEMORIAL DAY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. HARDER) for 5 minutes.

Mr. HARDER of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate August 27, Assyrian Genocide Memorial Day.

Many Americans are already familiar with the horrors of the Armenian genocide. But not nearly as many know about the genocide of innocent Assyrian civilians by the Ottoman Empire; which is why I am leading a resolution to finally recognize the genocide of Assyrians in the Middle East.

Many of my Assyrian friends and neighbors in California’s Central Valley still carry the weight of this horrific event.

Beginning in 1914, the Ottoman Empire is estimated to have slaughtered 300,000 innocent Assyrians; but some experts believe the true death toll is even higher. On August 27, Shovah b’tabakh, we remember those who were lost, and we say never again.

My resolution would take simple steps to do both. It would assert that Turkey, the inheritor of the Ottoman tradition, must recognize the genocide; and it would condemn any efforts to associate the U.S. with genocide denial.

My resolution would recognize the resilience of the Assyrian people who endured the genocide, the Simele massacre, and are now threatened once again by holdings in ISIS. And they have survived all of this without a homeland to call their own.

Today, we remember the Sadih, the martyrs. We think of their families. We recommit ourselves to upholding the rights of all people to live freely and in safety.

AMERICA IS AN AMAZING PLACE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. MITCHELL) for 5 minutes.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, America is an amazing place, and we too often, as Americans, take that for granted. Opportunities exist in this country that simply aren’t available in much of the world. And my life is an example of the extraordinary possibilities in the United States of America. I ask you, where else can a kid, born in poverty, have the chance to graduate from college, build a career, become the CEO of a major workforce development company and, after retiring, be elected to Congress? America is a truly unique and special place that we must love and respect with all our heart and soul.

My mother raised me to believe that those with talents and resources were expected by God to make a difference in the world. I tried to do that in my career throughout my life.

My mission for 35 years was to assist people in identifying and securing career opportunities. My professional career had a dual purpose: While assisting adults of all ages and backgrounds to develop the skills to support their families and build careers, I assisted individuals ranging from laid-off steel workers and auto workers, to long-term public assistant recipients, develop the skills they needed to build a career and support their families.

I worked with individuals requiring literacy education, English as a second language, and adults that had worked their same job their entire lives, and suddenly found their jobs and industries evaporated, and their lives turned upside down.

I worked some way or another, with tens of thousands of people searching for assistance in securing a job and a career path. I believed then, and I continue to believe, that most Americans find value and opportunity in working. Sometimes they just need a hand and assistance to overcome adversity.

I brought that passion and commitment to Washington. My mission was to make a difference in the world. I literally spent my 60-year career being a Member of Congress like my career, full tilt, leaving no stone unturned to have a meaningful impact and to make a difference.

It is an honor to stand on this floor, debate issues, and represent the people of Michigan’s 10th District. I am proud to be among the 12,500 or so that have had the privilege to serve in Congress.

But I have also begun to ask myself about making a difference in my family. My children of all ages, the young-est just 9, have accepted their dad traveling the country, working a demanding schedule, frequently interrupted by text messages, emails, and phone calls. My spouse, Sherry, has been so supportive and more patient than probably warranted.

A career in Washington was never my objective. My mission has always been to simply address significant challenges this Nation faces: Trade, healthcare, immigration, and infrastructure just to name a few.

However, it appears to me that rhetoric overpowers policy, and politics consumes much of the oxygen in this city.

The time has come to make a difference for my family, to focus my time and energy upon them, their needs, their goals.

George Washington is quoted as saying: “I would rather be on my farm than emperor of the world.” As a result, I have decided I will not seek to represent Michigan’s 10th Congressional District next term. After serving out the remainder of the 116th Congress, I will return to my family and to our small farm.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF LARRY N. OLINGER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. RUIZ) for 5 minutes.

Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Larry N. Olinger, Vice Chairman of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians, a dedicated, inspiring leader who passed away July 15, 2019, at the age of 80.

Vice Chairman Olinger grew up in Palm Springs and, later, in Orange County, where he spent many years breeding and racing horses.

From a young age, Vice Chairman Olinger was drawn to enacting positive change in his community through public service.

Vice Chairman Olinger was first elected to Tribal Council in 1961, where he began his 60-year career. He went on to serve as chairman of Tribal Council, including secretary, treasurer, chairman, and eventually vice chairman in 2012.

As the first chairman of the Agua Caliente Development Authority, Olinger championed gaming as a Tribal business enterprise, stimulating economic growth and strengthening Tribal sovereignty.

His leadership also spanned from the Native American Rights Fund to the State of California and the Coachella Valley Mountains Conservancy, where he advocated for the protection of our communities’ natural and cultural resources.

Our communities have lost a great man and generational leader in Vice Chairman Olinger’s passing. His passion, class, and concern for the wellbeing of others, including his Tribe and our surrounding communities, was admirable.

I have always admired Chairman Olinger’s strong character and lifelong commitment to learning; and I will deeply miss his caring nature and dry sense of humor.

HONORING SERGEANT MIKE STEPHEN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. CRAWFORD) for 5 minutes.

Mr. CRAWFORD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor one of our Nation’s fallen first responders, Sergeant Mike Stephen, who was killed in the line of duty on July 18.

Sergeant Stephen was a true public servant, having served Arkansas and our Nation as a law enforcement officer, firefighter, and soldier.
Sergeant Stephen began his career as a first responder when he was just 16 years old, following in his father’s footsteps by joining the Calico Rock Fire Department.

As a soldier, Mike Stephen rose to the rank of sergeant first class. As a firefighter, Mike Stephen led the Pineville Volunteer Fire Department while he served as a sheriff’s deputy. He instilled his values and dedication to public service and his family, all of whom served as volunteer firefighters. When his cell came to the Stephens home, the entire family responded.

As a career law enforcement officer, Sergeant Stephen served in the Mountain View Police Department, Arkansas Department of Corrections, and, ultimately, the Stone County Sheriff’s Office. Beloved by his colleagues, Sergeant Stephen viewed public service as more than a job. He was always on call 24/7, ready to assist his community in any way. He advocated for first responders by testifying before the Arkansas General Assembly.

On Thursday, July 18, Sergeant Stephen responded to his final call. Early that morning, Sergeant Stephen responded to a domestic welfare call in Leslie, Arkansas. As Stephen performed his duties, shots were fired, and Stephen was struck fatally, as was the suspected shooter.

As Arkansas mourns the loss of Sergeant Mike Stephen, I ask my colleagues to this body to extend my condolences to the Stephen family and honoring the life of a true public servant who gave his life protecting the community he loved.

OUR COUNTRY’S ATTENTION IS FOCUSED ON THE MUELLER REPORT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. KENNEDY) for 5 minutes.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, today much of our country’s attention is focused on the hearing happening across the street from where we stand. For weeks, pundits have been speculating: What else would the special counsel reveal? Where is that smoking gun or the viral moment? These questions are understandable, but they also obscure a powerful tool already at our disposal—a tool we can consider whether or not to hold the President accountable: what we already know. And for that, we turn to the special counsel’s report.

Volume I details a “sweeping and systematic” attack by the Russian Government on our democratic process. The special counsel concludes that the President did not witness a crime on any of the 11 occasions investigated.

The special counsel instructs, on page 9 of Volume II, that “three basic elements are common to the most relevant obstruction statutes: one, an obstructive act; two, a nexus between the obstructive act and an official proceeding; and three, a corrupt intent.”

In a few of the occasions investigated, the special counsel indicates that the evidence is not sufficient to reach that standard. In several others, however, his analysis is crystal clear.

On page 84, the report begins to detail how the President directed White House Counsel Don McGahn to remove the special counsel. “Mueller has to go.”

“Call me back when you do it.” The special counsel then applies the law:

One, an obstructive act: page 88, “Substantial evidence supports a conclusion that the President . . . directed McGahn to call Rosenstein to have the special counsel removed.”

Two, a nexus: page 89, “Substantial evidence indicates that . . . the President knew his conduct was under investigation by a Federal prosecutor.” In fact, the President had tweeted about it.

Three, corrupt intent: page 89, “Substantial evidence indicates that the President’s attempts to remove the special counsel were linked . . . most immediately to reports that the President was being investigated for potential obstruction of justice.”

Substantial evidence to show that all three elements of the offense are met; substantial evidence that the President obstructed justice; substantial evidence that the President of the United States committed a crime.

There are countless other troubling facts which the special counsel indicates may meet the obstruction threshold.

Page 91, just days after pressuring McGahn, President Trump directs his former campaign manager Corey Lewandowski to deliver a message to Attorney General Jeff Sessions to limit the scope of the Mueller investigation to future election interference alone.

Page 92, the President follows up with Lewandowski with the same request a month later.

Page 96, the President writes Chief of Staff Reince Priebus, “Did you get it?”—referring to Sessions’ resignation. “Are you working on it?”—which leads Mr. Mueller to conclude, on page 97, that “taken together, the President’s directives indicate that Sessions was being instructed to tell the special counsel that the sitting investigation into his campaign.” And, the same page, that “substantial evidence indicates that the President’s efforts to have Sessions limit the scope of the special counsel’s investigation . . . was intended to prevent further investigative scrutiny of the President’s and his campaign’s conduct.”

These are the findings of the report. The facts as they were uncovered and applied to the relevant statutes of our criminal law. This is the information already in our hands today.

Summed up by Mr. Mueller’s devastating conclusion: “Our investigation found multiple acts by the President that were capable of exerting undue influence over law enforcement investigations, including the Russian interference and obstruction investigations.”

The special counsel has done his job. We must do ours.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to refrain from engaging in personalities toward the President.

HONORING BOYD W. SORENSON

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. EMMER) for 5 minutes.

Mr. EMMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Boyd W. Sorenson for receiving France’s highest distinction, the Legion of Honor, for his service during World War II.

As a fighter pilot in the U.S. Army Air Corps, he flew 88 missions in the European theater during World War II, assisting in the liberation of France.

Mr. Sorenson’s service didn’t end after World War II. In fact, Boyd went on to fly 72 missions during the Korean War.

Mr. Boyd is no stranger to recognition for his bravery. He has already been awarded the European African Middle Eastern Medal with three oak leaf clusters, the Distinguished Flying Cross with two oak leaf clusters, and the Canadian Operational Service Medal with maple leaf cluster. As a hero, and a lawman, he helped further the cause of freedom we enjoy today. Mr. Speaker, I thank Mr. Sorenson for his service and congratulate him on another well-deserved award.

CONGRATULATING VIOLET HALVERSON

Mr. EMMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Violet Halverson of Sartell, Minnesota. At 94 years old, Violet has just earned herself the silver medal in shuffleboard at the National Senior Games. The National Senior Games were created to promote healthy lifestyles for aging adults through education, fitness, and sport.

Violet began playing shuffleboard in the 1960s. Over the years since, she has participated in recreational leagues and competitions. When she heard about the National Senior Games, she knew she had to compete. Violet won gold her first year, and this year she took home a silver medal.

Mr. Speaker, I congratulate Violet and can’t wait to see how she performs next year.
CONGRATULATIONS TO FOREST LAKE HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. EMMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Forest Lake Area High School for being named a Green Ribbon School by the United States Department of Education. This award is given to schools that have recognized the environmental impact of their facility, promote health, and ensure high-quality environmental education programming that prepares students for sustainability skills.

Forest Lake Area High School is among only 35 schools, 14 districts, and 4 postsecondary institutions across the country to receive this award. I look forward to welcoming the honorees to Washington, D.C. in September for a ceremony to recognize their wonderful achievement.

Congratulations to Forest Lake Area High School for the Green Ribbon School award.

THE GROWING RACIAL WEALTH GAP IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. RUSH) for 5 minutes.

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to address the crisis that is the growing racial wealth gap in the United States.

A recent report from the Institute for Policy Studies noted that the median wealth for Black families, adjusted for inflation, declined from $7,323 to $3,557 between the years 1983 and 2013.

Mr. Speaker, if these alarming trends continue, the average Black household is on track to own $0 in wealth by the year 2053.

This stands in sharp contrast to the average wealth of White households, which increased by nearly $14,000 during the same period, to an average of $137,000 by the year 2053.

Zero dollars for the Black families, $137,000 for the White families by the year 2053.

The wealth disparity between Black and White families persists across nearly all levels of income and education.

White middle-class households have almost eight times more wealth than a Black household in the same income bracket.

Mr. Speaker, even a 4-year degree cannot remedy these disparities. A 2014 census survey found that a Black family whose head of household has obtained a master's degree owns an average of $37,600 of wealth, compared to an average of $181,220 in a comparable White household, a difference of nearly $150,000.

Mr. Speaker, the racial gap in our Nation cannot be addressed as it is a critical concern for all of our Nation.

The barriers between Black families and White families must be addressed. The barriers preventing Black families from accumulating wealth drive up poverty rates and stifle America's economy. This is not just a Black issue; it is an American issue.

The inability to secure your future no matter how hard you work runs contrary to our basic American principles. We must do more in this House of Representatives to alleviate this critical issue, this crisis, and we must continue to make our Nation, these United States of America, the land of opportunity for all of its citizens.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB MISSOURI STATE YOUTH OF THE YEAR

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Missouri (Mrs. HARTZLER) for 5 minutes.

Mrs. HARTZLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Boys & Girls Club 2019 Missouri State Youth of the Year, Ms. Jazzmine Jones.

Jazzmine is a member of the Boys & Girls Clubs of West Central Missouri’s Cole Camp Site, where she serves as a junior staff member. In her position, she helps run programs and mentors the younger club kids.

Earlier this year, Jazzmine was named the Missouri State Youth of the Year at a 2-day event in Jefferson City, Missouri, marking the first time a student from the Boys & Girls Club of West Central Missouri was awarded this title.

Last week, on July 18, Jazzmine represented Missouri at the Boys & Girls Clubs of America Midwest Regional Youth of the Year competition. She made Missouri proud with her speech highlighting the importance of a healthy lifestyle, education, and the impact of one's actions.

I am so thankful to have such a talented young lady in Missouri’s Fourth Congressional District working hard to be the best person that she can be and sharing her knowledge with younger kids as a mentor.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in commending Jazzmine for her hard work and dedication in using her actions to inspire others. I also want to wish her well in her future endeavors as she begins her freshman year at the University of Missouri.

Go, Tigers.

A 2014 census survey found that a Black family whose head of household has obtained a master's degree owns an average of $37,600 of wealth, compared to an average of $181,220 in a comparable White household, a difference of nearly $150,000.

Mr. Speaker, the racial gap in our Nation cannot be addressed as it is a critical concern for all of our Nation.

The barriers between Black families and White families must be addressed. The barriers preventing Black families from accumulating wealth drive up poverty rates and stifle America's economy. This is not just a Black issue; it is an American issue.

The inability to secure your future no matter how hard you work runs contrary to our basic American principles. We must do more in this House of Representatives to alleviate this critical issue, this crisis, and we must continue to make our Nation, these United States of America, the land of opportunity for all of its citizens.

It is organizations like the Optimist Club that create the backbone of our American communities and help preserve their treasured culture.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating the Optimist Club of Fayette, Missouri, for their hard work and dedication to the youth of the community for the last 50 years.

COMO FIRE CHIEF RANDY WHITE

Mrs. HARTZLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Columbia, Missouri, Fire Chief Randy White on his retirement.

Since joining the department in 1998 as a firefighter, Chief White has dedicated his life to the safety of mid-Missouri families. He has saved countless lives and led his department to new heights.

During his time as fire chief, Randy’s department became one of only 258 in the world to achieve accreditation through the Commission on Fire Accreditation International. His hard work and leadership have been a blessing to the Columbia Fire Department and a true role model for other departments to follow.

I join with many Missourians, families, and friends to wish Chief White a fulfilling retirement. I hope Randy enjoys the days he has worked so hard to earn and wish him continued health and happiness in this new phase of life.

WE ARE A COUNTRY OF BRAVE AND BEAUTIFUL CITIZENS AND IMMIGRANTS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. CUMMINS) for 5 minutes.

Mr. CUMMINS. Mr. Speaker, let me set the record straight. The way President Trump talks about women, minorities, immigrants, and pretty much every American who does not look like him is fueling hate in our great country.

Last week, in a series of tweets, President Trump attacked four Congresswomen, all of whom are American citizens and women of color. The President doubled down on his attacks and singled out one of my colleagues from Minnesota in a rally, during which the crowd chanted, “Send her back,” which he seemed to relish.

Mr. Speaker, watching that clip made me sick to my stomach, and I am concerned about the direction President Trump is leading our country.

Mr. Speaker, President Trump appears to be encouraging Americans to assume patriotism by the color of one’s skin and not the content of one’s character. This is, in fact, the opposite of what American heroes like Congressman John Lewis, Dolores Huerta, Cesar Chavez, and Dr. King fought and bled for.

Mr. Speaker, make no mistake: our President is stoking the flames of hate and division in our great country.
President Trump, his America is an America where Congress does not include Native Americans, Latinos, African Americans, Asian Americans, or LGBTQ Americans. His vision for America is one where people like my parents and grandparents are not welcomed.

What I find ironic about Donald Trump’s anti-immigrant vision for this country is that it contradicts his own family’s history. Donald Trump’s grandfather, Friedrich Trump, moved to the United States in 1885 for many reasons, including to escape poverty. Today, President Trump is hurting our reputation by denying entry to asylum seekers who are fleeing many of the hardships his very own grandfather was escaping.

In 1905, after making his fortune in the United States running a brothel, Grandfather Trump attempted to go back to Germany, only to be denied entry for failing to complete military service in his own country of Germany, something that apparently runs in the family.

After attempting to appeal the denial in a flattery letter to the Prince of Germany, addressing him as the much-loved, wise, and righteous sovereign and sublime ruler, Friedrich Trump’s request to return to Germany was denied for a second time.

My father and mother moved to the United States in 1946 seeking a better life for their family because they heard of the promise of the United States of America, that if you work hard and play by the rules, you can succeed and your children can have a better life.

I stand before you today an American-born citizen and a Member of the United States Congress because my parents worked hard and played by the rules. I wasn’t handed a fortune like President Trump. I was taught the values of keeping my word, being kind to others, and working for what I earn.

Mr. Speaker, this President would like us to believe that he is more patriotic than the Congresswomen he has repeatedly attacked, not because of anything he has done for this country, but because he believes that this country’s rights and protections only apply to the privileged, like himself.

Honor and patriotism exist in some more than others. My brother-in-law, Hector, who was born in Mexico and is American-born citizen and a Member of the United States Congress because my parents worked hard and played by the rules. I wasn’t handed a fortune like President Trump. I was taught the values of keeping my word, being kind to others, and working for what I earn.

In her own words, she said, "We worked hard. We worked Saturdays. We worked afternoons and evenings until we got it right."

The rest is history. Now, Ms. Johnson's name is enshrined in the Apollo Saturn V Roll of Honor at the Smithsonian and Library of Congress. I could not have been prouder to have someone like Ms. Johnson from the First Congressional District of Georgia contributing to this engineering marvel that changed the history of our country.

RECOGNIZING BLACKSHEAR TIMES' ROBERT AND CHERYL WILLIAMS

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Cheryl Williams, who are retiring after nearly 50 years of running the Blackshear Times in the First Congressional District of Georgia.

The oldest business in the area, the newspaper is 150 years old this year. Under Mr. and Mrs. Williams' leadership, the Blackshear Times has become one of the top papers in Georgia, receiving over 400 awards. Nearly everyone in Pierce County gets their news from the newspaper, exemplified in the Blackshear Times tag line, "liked by many, cursed by some, read by them all."

Mr. Williams edited and published, his dream job since he was a young child. Mrs. Williams continually kept the paper's financials in check.

"To prosper, first, you have to be a good business," Mr. Williams said in praise of his wife's work.

I am proud to have the Blackshear Times in my district, and I am thankful that Mr. and Mrs. Williams dedicated 50 years to the paper and keeping the Blackshear community informed.

Mr. Speaker, I congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Williams on their retirement. They both will be missed.

RECOGNIZING HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR SAM WEINREICH

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Dr. Sam Weinreich, who is celebrating not only his 100th birthday in August but also his 73rd wedding anniversary with his wife, Frieda.

Referred to as Zadie, from Yiddish, Mr. Weinreich is a Holocaust survivor who spent time in both the Auschwitz and Dachau concentration camps. He was the only survivor from his family, which included nine of his siblings. His hometown, Lodz, Poland, once contained over 200,000 Jews and the second-largest Jewish community in Europe.

After the Nazi occupation ended, Mr. Weinreich was one of only 6,000 to survive. Mr. Weinreich survived in part because he was a good paper cutter and received more privileges than other prisoners, but he also had a beautiful voice and would sing songs in front of the guards for food.

Now living in Memphis, Tennessee, Mr. Weinreich has dedicated his life to sharing his story and ensuring that a tragedy of this magnitude will never happen again.

CONGRESSIONAL INTERNS SHARE CONCERNS ABOUT NATIONAL DEBT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. Brooks) for 5 minutes.

Mr. BROOKS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, President Herbert Hoover once stated, "Blessed are the young, for they will inherit the national debt."

Four young interns in my office—Nathan Olsen, Jill Oxley, Austin Snell, and Tyler Wiley—recently shared their concerns about the debt burden they will inherit from debt-addicted Washington politicians. These remarks reflect their concerns.

Ironically, their concerns coincide with a massive $2 trillion deficit bill Congress will soon vote on that bequeaths at least $24 trillion in debt to America's future generations. Bequeathing this dangerous debt is the greatest disservice ever done by one American generation to another.

My interns itemize three ways in which excessive debt endangers America.

First, excessive government debt and borrowing compete with and crowd out private borrower investment opportunities by decreasing available credit, increasing mortgage rates, and reducing effective incomes. According to the Congressional Budget Office, when the government borrows, it borrows from people in businesses, which limits American business and citizen opportunity, which, in turn, drives them to do less productive, cuts their compensation, and makes them less inclined to work. In sum, excessive government debt stunts future growth and hurts the American economy and people.

Second, excessive debt hurts Congress' ability to respond to challenges and emergencies. The Peter G. Peterson Foundation warns that high levels of debt reduce our government's flexibility concerning "future emergencies, unanticipated challenges, wars, or recessions."

Third, second, America's debt becomes more unmanageable. Our creditors become increasingly concerned about government default and additional bank- ruptcy, and make them less likely to lend more money. The Congressional Budget Office warns that with the debt-to-GDP ratio projected to grow to "unprecedented levels, it is increas- ingly likely that . . . investors will become concerned about the risk of default."

America has clearly entered dangerous, uncharted financial waters. The greater the debt, the greater the risk.

How do we safely navigate these dangerous waters? Washington must learn from history and heed the advice of President John F. Kennedy, who said we cannot choose to cut spending because it is easy, but because it is hard. Unfortunately, today's Washington politicians reject President Kennedy's wisdom because they are as hopelessly addicted to debt as a junkie is to heroin.

As a result, America faces a mountainous $22 trillion debt and a bipartisan debt agreement that adds yet another $2 trillion in debt in just 2 years. If America is to soar to new heights rather than crash and burn on a mountain of debt, Washington politicians must act like adults. Our choice is clear.

Washington can rack up obscene deficits, accumulate debt, and pay hundreds of billions of dollars each year in debt service costs, with the ultimate catastrophe being debilitating national insolvency and bankruptcy. Or Washington can protect America's future, stop unnecessary spending, and bequeath future generations economic freedom and prosperity.

Mr. Speaker, I choose the path of economic freedom and prosperity for future American generations. That is why I vote against so many unnecessary and excessive spending bills that we don't have the money to pay for. And that is why I will vote against the proposed spending deal that creates a short-term debt junkie high while badly risking America's future and health.

HONORING WAR HERO TOM "PINKY" FUNDERBURK

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. Norman) for 5 minutes.

Mr. NORMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate a man who is part of the Greatest Generation, Tom "Pinky" Funderburk of Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Mr. Funderburk has been awarded the French Legion of Honor. Pinky flew 17 bombers, known as the Flying Fortress, with the Mighty 8th United States Air force during World War II.

The Legion of Honor was established by Napoleon in 1802 as the highest French order of merit for military and civil merits.

The first dangerous missions for which Pinky was awarded the Legion of Honor took place on the 14th, 15th, and 16th of April 1945 over Roon, and Augiers. His crew's mission was to bomb the 30,000 encamped German troops concentrated around Roon on the coast of France.
One day, they approached their target from an altitude of 25,000 feet and noticed an absence of antiaircraft activity in the skies, so they dropped down to 17,000 feet. The formation circled three times to drop their bombs more accurately when a small flare used to follow bombs to their targets ignited in their bomb bay, filling the aircraft with thick, sooty smoke that covered all the windows. Fearing they were hit by ground fire, the crew grabbed their parachutes and prepared to abandon their plane over enemy territory. Before jumping out, the crew made one last check to see if the pilots were able to make it out safely. They yelled through the intercom to see if they were coming but received no reply. Just as they were ready to bail out, copilot Funderburk yelled out, “Wait.”

The smoke was so thick that the pilots were worried about crashing into the other planes in the formation and were too busy flying the plane and clearing the smoke to worry about bailing out. The pilots were able to clear the smoke and fly the airplane and crew safely back to their home base.

The final mission took Pinky deep into enemy territory into Horsching, Austria, where French prisoners of war had recently been liberated from a POW camp. Pinky’s crew reconfigured their B-17 bomber to carry 31 prisoners of war back to Paris and their homeland.

Mr. Speaker, for these heroic duties and his selfless service, Pinky Funderburk honors all South Carolinians, and I am proud to recognize him today for receiving the prestigious French Legion of Honor.

CAHOKIA MOUNDS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Bost) for 5 minutes.

Mr. Bost. Mr. Speaker, southern Illinois is home to one of America’s great civilizations in history, many years before this was the United States of America. Its center was at Cahokia, and it was once the largest civilization in today’s United States. By 1200 A.D., the community numbered 10,000 to 20,000 strong.

What remains today are the Cahokia Mounds, a 2,200-acre site with more than 70 earth mounds, upon which many of their buildings once stood. This treasure is visited by schools, families, and history buffs, everyone who wants to see this wonderful part of history. It is a critical part of history.

That is why I introduced a bill to make Cahokia Mounds a national park. My bill would help preserve this amazing piece of history for generations to come.

I thank Congressmen Clay, Shimkus, and Davis for cosponsoring this bill. This legislation preserves the mounds in their districts, as well.

I also thank the State and local leaders who support our efforts in Illinois, and I thank the Heartlands Conservancy for its hard work and for being guardians of our history.

I thank my staff for working so hard with other issues that are going on but understanding how important this issue is to future generations, to the opportunity for our children and grandchildren to understand the history of this area in the world. I am proud to be part of these efforts to preserve our past well into the future.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until noon today.

Accordingly (at 11 o’clock and 13 minutes a.m.), the House stood in recess.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Langevin) at noon.

PRAYER

Rabbi Mark Getman, Temple Emanuel of Canarsie, Brooklyn, New York, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly One, our protector and redeemer, guardian of life and liberty, we ask for Your continued blessings as we open this session of the House of Representatives.

May our Nation and its leaders be blessed with Your protection as they continue their work for their constituents across these United States.

May our Nation and its citizens always work towards world peace and harmony as part and party representing this great Nation.

God of peace and prosperity, bless this House of Representatives and all those who lead, serve, and defend our Nation as they continue to serve with honor, and remember those who have died in defense of our ideals and values.

May the One who makes peace in the universe make peace for all of us, for all the United States, for all the world.

God bless America.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day’s proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof. Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Florida (Mr. Dunn) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. Dunn led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

WELCOMING RABBI MARK GETMAN

(Miss Rice of New York asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Miss Rice of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to welcome Rabbi Mark Getman of Temple Emanuel of Canarsie, Brooklyn, and thank him for leading us in prayer this morning on the House floor.

I was proud to invite Rabbi Getman to give the opening prayer today, and I am even more proud to call him a constituent of New York’s Fourth Congressional District.

Rabbi Getman is a military veteran, a cancer survivor, a community leader, and a man of deep faith. He embodies the strength, leadership, and patriotism that we look for in every American.

I can’t express how grateful I am to Rabbi Getman for making the trip down to Washington today to represent our community and to deliver a message of harmony and compassion. I believe that is a message that our country needs to hear, perhaps now more than ever.

Rabbi Getman graciously reminded us today that we are a country united under God, in our pursuit of prosperity and peace for all people, and he reminded us that this shared purpose is more powerful, more important than any political division we may have, and I couldn’t agree more.

As a member of the Committee on Veterans’ Affairs, I am beyond appreciative that Rabbi Getman paid such a touching tribute to the brave men and women who wear our uniform today and to those who paid the ultimate sacrifice in defense of our great Nation. As a veteran himself, I know that Rabbi Getman understands that sacrifice better than most.

I want to thank Rabbi Getman once more for his service to our community and to our country and, above all, for taking the time to be here with us today and delivering a much-needed message of unity.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to 15 further requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

ANNIVERSARY OF DEATHS OF CAPITOL POLICE OFFICERS

(Mr. Hooyen asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, this is a sad day in the history of the House. Some 21 years ago, a deranged individual came through the door that we now call the Memorial Door and took the lives of two of our officers.

I rise to pay tribute to my constituent Officer Jacob Chestnut and Detective John Gibson from the State of Virginia. Both of them were shot and killed defending this Capitol 21 years ago today, July 24, 1998.

A lone gunman burst through what we now call the Memorial Door and attacked this sacred home of American democracy. These brave officers, whom we remember today, placed themselves in the line of fire and gave their lives to protect Members, staff, and visitors in the building that morning.

Memorial Door, Mr. Speaker, is right outside for the otherwise, their degth it almost every day. Every time I pass through it, I look at the memorial plaque and remember these two extraordinary and brave men whose sacrifices will not be forgotten by those who serve in and work in this House, by their brothers and sisters in the Capitol Police force who still stand sentry and watch over it, and by their grateful fellow Americans.

Today, let us pay tribute to Officer Chestnut and Detective Gibson and give our thanks to all the men and women of the U.S. Capitol Police and, indeed, to all law enforcement officers who, every morning, get up and put on their belt or in their wallet and go out to protect us, their neighbors, their friends.

Let us thank all law enforcement officers in communities across this country for their dedication, and their sacrifices, which make the exercise of democracy possible.

HONORING MELINDA WALKER UPON HER RETIREMENT AS CHIEF REPORTER OF DEBATES

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I just spoke about two who served our Capitol and our country. Unhappily, they lost their lives.

I now speak about one who has served our House of Representatives as an institution much more happily, because she has served so well and so faithfully and so long and is now retiring, hopefully, to a very happy retirement.

We could not do our job representing the American people without the tireless and, at times, thankless labors of the men and women who make this House function behind the scenes.

They sit at the desk behind us. They sit at the upper rostrum. They make a difference. And they record what we have said.

From the Clerk’s Office to the Parliamentary staff, from the C-SPAN crew to the stenographers, the nonpartisan, professional staff who enable the work of the House and its Members are central to the success of our constitutional mission.

The House has relied on the services of shorthand reporters of debates for almost 200 years, and the verbatim proceedings of House business have been published as the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD since 1873.

We have a young woman who is now taking down my remarks, which may or may not be profound, but somebody will be able to tell "What did Hoyer say?" "What did my Representative say?"

A division of the Office of the Clerk, the Office of Official Reporters is charged with providing nonpartisan, professional, stenographic services for the House floor, committees, and leadership.

It has grown from a 5-person shop in the 19th century to a diverse 43-person operation today. They work extraordinarily long hours; they work very hard; and they are extraordinarily competent.

Today, I join all my colleagues in thanking one of those outstanding, wonderful individuals who is retiring as the Chief Reporter of Debates, Melinda Walker.

Melinda is with us on the floor today. Melinda, thank you very much.

And I know, Mr. Speaker, if it weren’t out of order, I would mention that her family is in the gallery, but because that is not in order, I won’t do that.

Melinda will step down in August, after more than 20 years of service to the House of Representatives.

A proud native of Texas, Melinda came to the House in 1999, after serving as a court reporter for the U.N. International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda in Arusha, Tanzania.

Her career began after graduating from the Stenograph Institute of Texas in 1989, and her work took her around the world, with positions in the United Kingdom, the Caribbean, and South Africa.

Melinda has reported both House committee hearings and floor proceedings. She has taken down committee testimony from two Chief Justices of the Supreme Court and three Secretaries of State, among many others.

On the floor, Melinda has reported the State of the Union messages for three Presidents, as well as the remarks of numerous foreign dignitaries during joint meetings of Congress.

Upon Melinda’s promotion to Chief Reporter in 2015, she led the team of reporters and staff in charge of the production of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD. Under her watch, the office has been successful in meeting its daily production deadlines, while capturing the intricate parliamentary nuances of House proceedings.

Melinda has contributed a fully revised and updated style and formatting manual, more than 200 pages long, for the Office of Official Reporters. Americans will be advantaged by that work for decades to come.

She has been recognized by the National Court Reporters Association as a Registered Professional Reporter and a Certified Manager of Reporting Services, and she remains a certified shorthand reporter in her native Texas.

Melinda plans to return to her hometown of San Saba, Texas, and spend more time with her family and faithful dog, Bleu.

Lucky dog to have Melinda back.

Mr. Speaker, I hope my colleagues will join me in thanking Melinda Walker for her many years of distinguished and dedicated service to the House and in wishing her the very best in retirement.

Melinda, we owe you and your colleagues a debt of gratitude. You silently serve and sit and listen to verbal after noun after adjective after word after word after word—and you stay awake. It is amazing. And you do it so well, to the advantage of all of us who serve here, but, much more importantly, to the advantage of the people of the United States, who will know what their Representatives say on their behalf and will be, therefore, able, in a democracy, to make a sound judgment as to whether those words are the words they want intoned on this floor on their behalf.

So, Melinda, to you and to all of your colleagues, we say thank you. Godspeed. Be well.

RECOGNIZING EDD SORENSON OF JACKSON COUNTY, FLORIDA

Mr. DUNN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize a local hero from Jackson County, Florida.

Mr. EDD SORENSON is known internationally for his courageous and skillful ability to rescue and retrieve cave divers. Just this past March, he was called upon in the Dominican Republic to retrieve two bodies that were on the brink of never being recovered due to the dangerous conditions.

His most recent courageous rescue took place in Tennessee, where he was called upon, in the middle of the night, to save the life of a professional cave diver, Josh Bratchley, widely known as the man who saved the Thai soccer team last year from their cave incident.

When Edd is not answering a call for the next cave rescue, you will find him managing his cave diving business in Marianna, Florida, where he is a cave dive instructor.

Edd is a truly remarkable individual. Mr. Speaker, please join me in recognizing Mr. Edd Sorenson for his heroic and selfless actions that have saved the lives of many and brought closure to families that, otherwise, would never have been possible.

THE PLIGHT OF ETHIOPIAN ISRAELIS IN ISRAEL

Mr. PAYNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAYNE, Mr. Speaker, I rise today to highlight the suffering of Ethiopian Israelis. A couple of weeks ago, a young Ethiopian Israeli man was killed by an Israeli police officer, setting off another wave of massive demonstrations.

After this tragedy, there have been massive protests against police brutality. Unfortunately, these protests have turned violent. While I do not condone violence, I believe people have the right to protest systemic racism.

The Ethiopian community in Israel has been treated like second-class citizens for decades. In the 1990s, Ethiopian Israelis had their donated blood secretly disposed of by Israeli officials because they believed it may contain the HIV virus.

Just 4 years ago, an Ethiopian Israeli IDF soldier was brutally beaten by an Israeli police officer, setting off another wave of massive demonstrations.

Now, there are reports that the protests against police brutality are being cast as anti-Israeli. This is nothing more than an attempt to delegitimize their cause by not taking it seriously, and neither should any Member of this body.

NEW SNAP PROGRAM RULING

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, last week the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced and published a new rule that would address “broad-based categorical eligibility” through the SNAP program, formerly known as food stamps.

Under current law, SNAP recipients in dozens of States have been automatically enrolled into the program, despite not really demonstrating financial need; simply by receiving other minimal welfare services, even just receiving a pamphlet in the mail.

Now, let me be clear that these changes—anyone who truly is economically distressed and eligible will continue to receive SNAP benefits. But through the loophole that has been in existence, some recipients were enrolled in the program without meeting its asset and income tests. The asset and income tests are critical metrics to ensure program integrity and prevent benefits from going to those who would not normally qualify or truly need the assistance.

This new regulation attempts to fix this problem by limiting categorical eligibility for SNAP recipients only to those recipients who receive substantial welfare benefits, rather than nominal ones.

As the former chairman of the Nutrition Subcommittee, I rise in strong support of this proposal. Enacting this rule will not only address waste and abuse within SNAP, but will also encourage the continued availability of the program for our friends in need who truly find themselves food insecure.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF PAUL HANEY

(Mr. MORELLE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MORELLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Paul Haney, a longtime leader in Rochester and Monroe County, and my very dear friend, who passed away on Sunday.

As a former county legislator and city councilman, Paul was a fixture in our community; a man who truly embodied the high ideals of public service.

Paul was kind, honest, smart as a whip, and deeply passionate about improving the community he loved. He devoted his life in service to his neighbors and was always the first to lend a hand to those in need.

Paul Haney’s contributions have left a profound and lasting impact on his beloved city. His legacy will never be forgotten.

I join all of Rochester County and Monroe County in mourning his loss, and extend my thoughts, prayers, and deepest sympathies to the Haney family.

CONGRATULATING CHANDLER WASHBURN AND THE UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY MIXED CREW TEAM

(Mr. RUTHERFORD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RUTHERFORD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Midshipman Chandler Washburn and the entire United States Naval Academy mixed crew team for their victory at the historic King’s Cup this past July.

The King’s Cup is a prestigious race between eight allied military forces, and has only been held twice, once in 1919, and this year on the 100th anniversary. The U.S. Naval Academy defeated countries like Canada, France, and Germany on their way to winning the cup.

The Northeast Florida community is incredibly proud of Chandler and his fellow midshipmen on this extraordinary accomplishment.

Chandler graduated from the Episcopal School in Jacksonville and is now a sophomore at the Naval Academy. Like all those representing us at service academies across the country, his commitment to both academics and military service inspire us all.

On behalf of the Fourth District of Florida, congratulations to Chandler and the Naval Academy mixed crew team for a victory they will remember for the rest of their lives.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 397, REHABILITATION FOR MULTIEMPLOYER PENSIONS ACT OF 2019; PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 3239, HUMANITARIAN STANDARDS FOR INDIVIDUALS IDENTITY AND BORDER PROTECTION CUSTODY ACT; PROVIDING FOR PROCEEDINGS DURING THE PERIOD FROM JULY 29, 2019, THROUGH SEPTEMBER 6, 2019; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I ask for the immediate consideration of H.R. 509 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. Res. 509

Resolved. That upon adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 397) to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to create a Pension Rehabilitation Trust Fund, to establish a Pension Rehabilitation Administration within the Department of the Treasury to make loans to multiemployer defined benefit plans, and for other purposes. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. In lieu of the amendments in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committees on Education and Labor and Ways and Means now printed in the bill, an amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of Rules Committee Print 116-24 shall be considered as adopted. The bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. All points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended, are waived. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill, as amended, and on any further amendment thereto, to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate equally divided among and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and Labor and the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means shall be considered as ordered for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question; and (2) one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

S. 2. At any time after adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule XVIII, declare the House recessed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 3239) to require U.S. Customs and Border Protection to perform an initial health screening on detainees, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary. After the general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. In lieu of the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on the Judiciary now printed in the bill, it shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the
Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the previous question be considered as adopted, and that the Clerk be directed to report the same to the House.

Mr. Speaker, today I stand up to emphasize the importance of raising the minimum wage. Just a few years ago, the House passed the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act, which guides a bill that reneged on the promise that the House of Representatives. We have seen that on $4.25 an hour. We have seen the American families, American values.

Finally, the rule provides suspension of the Whole to the bill or to the amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of Rules Committee bills. The Raise the Wage Act repealed a shortsighted Republican measure that allowed employers to pay Puerto Ricans under the age of 25 a measly $4.25 an hour for up to 4 years. I don’t know about my colleagues’ backgrounds, but at 20 years old, I was raising my family to buy medicine, to buy groceries, and I would not have done that on $4.25 an hour.

And we proclaim to all the American women, whether you are a supervisor at a fast-food restaurant, a nurse at a hospital, or a World Cup-winning soccer player, women deserve equal pay for equal work.

And for Dreamers without permanent legal status who came here as children and just want to contribute to the greatness that makes America, Democrats passed the Dream Act so that they can have a pathway to citizenship. My Republican colleagues refused to bring up the Dream Act when they were in charge, even when, clearly, we had enough votes to pass the bill.

Mr. Speaker, the kind of progress Americans wanted to see. That is why elections matter.

Today, we are also voting on the Raise the Wage Act, to protect the pensions of hardworking Americans. I come from a produce worker household. For 17½ years, I worked as a 911 dispatcher, and my husband was a member of the building and construction trades for 20 years. We taught our children, our sons, to work hard and save for their future, and we showed them the honor of public service.

Mr. Speaker, in December of 2014, this body passed the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act of 2014, a misguided bill that reneged on the promise that we make to retirees that they will get the benefits they worked and negotiated for. And here we sit, almost 5 years later, and the multiemployer pension system is still on the brink of a real and disastrous crisis.

While these plans have historically been a safe and secure retirement option, many plans now face financial shortfalls because of the Great Recession and other structural challenges, like a lack of new workers, an increase in the number of retirees, and employees abandoning the commitments that they made to their employees.

Around 130 of these plans covering over a million Americans are rapidly running out of money to pay benefits that were promised to their employees. Truck drivers, electricians, ironworkers, steelworkers, coal miners, and many, many others participate in multiemployer pension plans. More than 5,000 of my constituents, alone, participate in multiemployer pension plans. These hardworking individuals are staring down the possibility of losing their retirement through no fault of their own.

I know that some of my colleagues are going to try and defeat this bill. They are going to call it a bailout. They are going to say that it is fiscally irresponsible. But this bill only authorizes loans, loans for multiemployer pension plans, if it is clear that those loans can be repaid with interest.

This is not a bailout; this is a loan. And I am happy to have my staff provide a dictionary if any of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle are still confused about the difference and the meaning of each.

Hardworking American workers and retirees are counting on us to protect the benefits that they have earned and keep them on a solid financial footing. H.R. 397 does that exactly, and all without forcing workers and retirees to pay a single cent more for the benefits that they have earned.

Now, I would like to turn our attention to H.R. 3239, because it sets standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act. I have had the opportunity to witness the horrendous conditions at our southern border, children jailed in freezing cold cages, toddlers going without nutritious food. They need to grow up and be healthy and strong. Six-year-olds who are not allowed to shower. Border Patrol agents parading asylum-seeking children with degrading messages hanging from their necks.

This is the greatest country in the world, and no child—no child—should die in our custody and in the greatest custody in the world. Jakelin Caal should not have died. Felipe Gomez Aldape should not have died. And Carlos Hernández should not have died.

We cannot bring these children back from the dead, but we can try to prevent the next child from dying. And we must do it because we have a moral responsibility to these children.

Today we have the opportunity to act. The Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Act would protect the health and safety of children in CBP care. It will bring medical expertise to the border so that children receive the care that they need, and it will ensure that children have access to the basics: nutritious food, a shower, toothpaste, and clean clothes.

I urge all my colleagues to support this important legislation. Vote “yes” on the rule for the children. Vote “yes” on the bill for the children.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I thank Mrs. Torres for yielding me the customary 30 minutes, and I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, today we are considering two bills that will never become law. They are not going to be taken up by the Senate. If they did, they would not pass, and the President likely would not sign them.

The first bill, H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act, was drafted by the majority as an attempted fix of the multiemployer pension crisis. Unfortunately, the bill does nothing but create more government, increase confusion, and kick the can down the road for another generation that will have to ultimately deal with it.

So let’s examine the facts. Multiemployer pension plans are pensions run jointly by a union and multiple companies whose employees are members of that union. These are defined benefit plans that guarantee employees a specific retirement regardless of the funding available. These plans must comply with collective bargaining agreements and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act and pay into the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, the Federal insurer of the plans.

Over 1,300 multiemployer plans cover more than 10 million participants, and well over a million are in plans that are either insolvent or will be within the next two decades. This means that more than 1 million retirees may have their retirement plan benefits cut if no action is taken.

Multiemployer pension plans are currently underfunded by $638 billion, and the figure increases by $15 billion each month. The plan under consideration is the Central States Pension Fund, which has been sponsored by the Teamsters. It has approximately 385,000 participants and is underfunded by $41 billion.

To ensure struggling pension plans would be balanced, Congress created the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation to provide financial assistance to pay participant benefits. The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation is funded through premiums paid by plan funds and is currently not backed by the taxpayer.

Since 2003, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation has held a deficit when comparing its current multiemployer pension assets to its outstanding liabilities due to these insolvent union-managed pension plans. Today, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation has a deficit of $54 billion. The entity Congress created to protect insolvent plans is estimated to be insolvent itself.

This crisis did not materialize suddenly. During the 2008 recession, retirement plans throughout the country lost nearly 30 percent of their value, but the weaknesses of the multiemployer system were not conceived in an unsustainable fashion. However, the weaknesses of the multiemployer system were not conceived in an unsustainable fashion. However, the weaknesses of the multiemployer system were not conceived in an unsustainable fashion. However, the weaknesses of the multiemployer system were not conceived in an unsustainable fashion.

At the end of the day, these plans were mismanaged in a way that has increased costs and decreased revenue.

So how are our colleagues across the aisle hoping to fix this tremendous situation? The Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act would create a trust fund called the pension rehabilitation trust fund that would be administered by a brand-new Federal agency within the Department of the Treasury called the Pension Rehabilitation Administration.

This new agency would provide unsecured, federally subsidized 30-year loans to multiemployer plans that are, in the words of H.R. 397, “cure deficient multiemployer plans without requiring the plans to make any actuarial changes to bring them back to solvency.” If the plan cannot certify that it can repay the loan, the plan would also receive a grant from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation to pay benefits and to pay back the loan, essentially double-dipping Federal support.

If a plan cannot make interest or principal payments on the loan, payments can be forgiven to pay retiree benefits.

Finally, H.R. 397 would reverse reforms made in 2014 that allowed certain plans greater flexibility to regain solvency.

Earlier this month, the Congressional Budget Office published a report on the estimated budget impact of a previous version of H.R. 397. The new subsidies and the expanded assistance would increase the Federal deficit by $641 billion without truly addressing the underlying financial issues.

If this bill were signed into law, it will be the first time that the Federal Government has placed United States taxpayers on the hook to subsidize private pension plans. It is important to note that many taxpayers who would finance this subsidy have not, themselves, been included in a pension plan.

As presented today, H.R. 397 would result in a large balloon payment due in year 36 of the pension rehabilitation trust fund loan. And if a plan cannot afford loan payments without cutting benefits, the new Pension Rehabilitation Administration would be allowed to forgive these debts. This is the definition of a taxpayer bailout.

Mr. Speaker, the only way we know this bill will never move in the Senate, and I do urge my colleagues to reconsider this legislation. There, perhaps, are ways to fix this crisis and address it in a fiscally and actuarially sound manner. A bipartisan agreement is the only way for a solution to this crisis that will actually make it to the President’s desk.

The second bill in this rule is another attempt to fix the crisis at our southern border without addressing any root cause. H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act, is a reactionary bill attempting to restructure Customs and Border Protection through overly prescriptive, one-size-fits-all mandates that actually ignore what CBP has as resources and its core mission.

If this legislation were to be signed into law, Customs and Border Protection would be required to provide health and medical screenings to all migrants who entered their custody. Customs and Border Protection must provide individuals 1 gallon of water... per day, access to safe and clean toilets and showers, diaper changing facilities, and provide sanitation products. CBP will also be required to provide three meals a day totaling 2,000 calories, interpreters, video monitoring, adequate lighting, and to keep facilities within a specific temperature range.

Medical staff are required to be on-site to conduct medical screenings, regardless of the number of staff or apprehensions, and specialty physicians are required to, at the very least, be on call. These physician specialties include pediatrics, OB/GYN, family medicine, geriatric medicine, infectious diseases, mental health, and dieticians. Immediate access to such specialists is not even available to some of our veterans, yet we are mandating it be there for undocumented migrants.

The bill also requires adult chaperones for children receiving medical exams. Allowable adults will consist of parents, legal guardians, and/or adult relatives. However, “adult relative” is not defined, meaning that a very distant relative or someone who simply states they are a relative could pose as the child’s guardian in the absence of a parent or legal guardian.

This is concerning for identifying trafficking victims. When children are victims of trafficking, often the only chance they get to be apart from their trafficker is while receiving medical care, and sometimes then the trafficker will refuse to leave the child alone. If we mandate the presence of an adult relative during the child’s medical exam, in fact, we may never learn that the child is a victim.

Additionally, children who arrive with a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative to be kept together in Customs and Border Protection custody. Under current law, the Office of Refugee Resettlement has custody of and must provide care for each unaccompanied alien child, defined as a child without lawful immigration status under the age of 18 without a parent or legal guardian to provide care.

If children who arrive with an adult relative are not allowed to be transferred to the Office of Refugee Resettlement, this bill is simultaneously mandating that ORR violate current law.

Customs and Border Protection’s mission is to safeguard America’s borders to protect the public from dangerous people and materials while facilitating legal trade and travel. Due to the migrant crisis, more CBP agents and officers are concentrated on the southern border, taking them away from their other lawful responsibilities.

If Customs and Border Protection is required to implement the mandates that are in this bill, customs inspections will be limited, and lines at ports of entry will become much longer.

Customs and Border Protection inspects our agriculture and food, checks for counterfeit or defective consumer products, and searches for and seizes illicit drugs, much of which is currently fuelling the opioid crisis. If they are not on the line to do their job, these things don’t happen.

Customs and Border Protection officers are also the first to welcome Americans home from abroad and foreigners with legal documentation into the country. Mandating them to refuse to deal with our southern border crisis, these important functions will also suffer.

We must also remember that Customs and Border Protection facilities do not just exist along the southern border. Customs and Border Protection is located in every State and territory, in addition to several overseas preclearance facilities. Mandating the presence of specialty medical personnel and care there and anywhere else is not only unfeasible in some of these remote locations, but it would also cost an enormous amount of money.

The cost to comply with the provisions in this bill because we don’t have a Congressional Budget Office score, but it is likely to be high.

Customs and Border Protection currently has around $3 billion in unmet funding needs due to the crisis on our southern border. Requiring updates to hundreds of Customs and Border Protection facilities, increasing personnel and equipment, and providing training would add significantly to this shortfall.

Here is the really amazing part: This bill contains no authorization for appropriations. Last night at the Rules Committee, it was asked how Democrats were planning to pay for the mandates in this bill. The response was that there is money there, that it has previously been appropriated in the recent border supplemental.

Remember that is the very same supplemental that the House Republican leadership told us last May was not necessary because this was a manufactured crisis. Then suddenly, right before the Fourth of July recess, it became a very real crisis, and the Congress did step up to provide the additional funding that was required. But this funding was provided for specific purposes, not for new requirements upon Customs and Border Protection.

The answer is that there is no funding precedent this bill, which amounts to an unfunded mandate. That diminishes the likelihood that any of it would actually happen, should it become law.

Most importantly, this bill does nothing to stop the flow of irregular migrants, including vulnerable children, to our southern border.

Placing overly burdensome and unreasonable standards of care on Customs and Border Protection will only exacerbate the security and humanitarian crisis on our southern border.

Let me just say this: Having been at the Clint facility last Friday, the men and women of the Customs and Border Protection are doing the job that Congress asked them to do. Congress didn’t ask them to do; they told them to do. We passed laws. They are delivering on what we told them to do.

But the men and women at Customs and Border Protection are good people who are driven to do the right thing. They care, but at the same time, we complicate their lives so much by not funding the needs that they actually have and then adding on top of it all of these unfunded mandates.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my Democratic colleagues to work across the aisle to find and implement real solutions rather than unfunded mandates. I urge opposition to this rule.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, if my colleagues had read the bill, they would know that not only are there numerous incentives for plans to repay the loans, there is a statutory requirement for plan actuaries to demonstrate that the plan will be able to pay the loan back with interest.

Let’s talk about how we got in this situation. After the 9/11 attacks, the airline industry was in desperate need of help, and Congress stepped up and approved loan assistance. We acted because it was seen as an emergency.

In 2008, during the greatest financial crisis in our lifetimes, Wall Street banks and the auto industry were in trouble and in desperate need of help. Congress again acted because it was seen as an emergency.

Mr. Speaker, what makes this situation any different?

Congress disbursed approximately $624.6 billion in taxpayer money during these emergencies, and roughly $699.7 billion has come back: revenue, interest, fees, and asset sales. Ultimately, it earned taxpayers more than $75 billion in profit.

To the 898 retirees of Texas’ 26th Congressional District, I say to you: Democrats have your back, and Democrats are fighting for you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to address their remarks to the Chair.

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from Ohio (Ms. KAPTUR).

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure today that I rise in support of strong bipartisan passage of the Butch Lewis Act and this rule. I thank Congresswoman Torres for yielding me this time and Chairman Neal of the Ways and Means Committee for moving this legislation expeditiously.

The Butch Lewis Act will provide the economic security this body ripped from under millions of hardworking Americans in past Congresses.

Across our country, 1.3 million workers—truck drivers, candymakers, coal miners—and retirees face serious and significant threats of cuts to their hard-earned multiemployer pension plans through no fault of their own.

Several of these plans are large enough to take down the entire Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, threatening the security of another 10 million hardworking Americans. I have heard the message time and again from retirees in our district and across this Nation: They worked for decades to earn these pensions, and they need them for the future. Now, they are too old or their health too unstable to return to the workforce. The stress and anxiety are sapping their will, and some have even taken their own lives.

The Butch Lewis Act will ensure they receive their much-needed and long-overdue pensions, again, which they earned.

The Butch Lewis Act keeps the promises made to retirees, guaranteeing their pensions for the future. It does so by allowing impacted pension plans to borrow the money needed to remain solvent over a 30-year period of time, with low-interest loans that they must pay back.

Yes, we need to help those workers. They were the real victims. The culprits? The unions and the employers making benefit promises that they knew good and well they couldn’t deliver on. We are bailing out $100 billion worth, about 300 plans irresponsibly managed—grossly, irresponsibly managed. It is our children who will pay for this.

This is the first $100 billion. There is $650 billion, roughly, underfunded liabilities in multiemployer pensions. Of the 1,300 pension plans, whereby 10 million workers are covered, 75 percent of the workers are in plans that are less than 50 percent funded.

This is a disaster. This is a terrible precedent. This is a moral hazard if I have ever seen it because we will do this for $100 billion, but we won’t fix the problem. We don’t do anything to stop the irresponsible behavior. We write-off of irresponsible behavior. We average pension plan that we have, and there will be a line as long as the eye can see to bail out the next $100 billion and the next $100 billion. It won’t be the multiemployer pension. It will be State pensions and local pensions.

We are bankrupt, Mr. Speaker. We are bankrupt in this country, and this is the most irresponsible way to try to solve this problem of underfunded and unfunded liabilities for these workers.

Hold the people who are responsible accountable. Don’t just give a blank check from the taxpayers to bail out this program and be right back here doing the same thing.

I was a regulator at the FDIC. We would close down a bank that gave these so-called loans so fast that your heads would spin.

This is not a loan. This is a complete write-off of irresponsible behavior. We shouldn’t have anything to do with this.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to reject this bill. I oppose it. I hope they will, too.

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield the gentlewoman for yielding. I am on the Ways and Means Committee. I was at the markup for this legislation, Mr. Speaker, and I do want to correct the RECORD from the previous statement that my colleague on the other side of the aisle made that this was a bipartisan legislative initiative. Not one Republican voted for this bill.

We offered up several amendments. None of them were taken. One of them, for example, was one that I proposed whereby these employees would take out a guaranty policy that would ensure that taxpayers get paid back for these employees.

They call them loans, and the gentlewoman says that they must be paid back. That is not true. Read the fine print, my fellow Americans. It says that they can be forgiven, that they can be converted into grants.

This is a bailout. This is one of the most reckless, fiscally irresponsible pieces of legislation I have ever seen.

Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the rule for H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in CBP Custody Act, my legislation to ensure CBP upholds basic standards to meet the humanitarian needs of children, women, and families.

My bill is an American-values-based, public health approach to prevent the deaths of children under CBP’s custody and responsibility, and to develop a professional, humane response to the humanitarian challenges at our border.

Why are these humanitarian standards needed, you might ask?

Because when I visited the border, I saw open toilets in crowded cells with sick kids in overcrowded cells, and I didn’t have diapers sleeping on cold cement floors; because these inhumane and unsanitary conditions threaten the mental and physical health of CBP agents; and because six children have now died in the custody and responsibility of CBP.

To address this crisis, we need to do more than send money to an administration that has urged, in court, that children in CBP custody do not need soap and toothbrushes for basic hygiene needs.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield an additional 30 seconds to the gentleman from California.

Mr. RUIZ. Passing this rule is the first step to ensure CBP facilities have basic necessities like humane sleeping conditions, private and clean bathrooms, sufficient water and nutrition, and showers.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my fellow representatives to support my bill, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in CBP Custody Act, to protect the health of our agents, prevent the deaths of children, and restore human dignity to the treatment of children and families seeking asylum.

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, if we defeat the previous question, Republicans will amend the rule to add H. Con. Res. 54 that will reconstitute the Joint Select Committee on Multiemployer Pensions through February of 2020. The select committee worked to find solutions to reestablish the solvency of multiemployer plans. While a draft proposal was released, ultimately, no legislative solution was achieved.

By reconstituting the select committee through February of 2020, we will build upon the work of a previous committee to finally ensure the solvency of the multiemployer pension plans. This is an opportunity to work across the aisle on an issue that affects millions of Americans.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a no vote on the previous question so that we can come together to protect Americans in retirement.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to insert the text of my amendment in the RECORD, along with extraneous material, immediately prior to the vote on the previous question.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. STEIL).

Mr. STEIL. Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleague for yielding.
Mr. Speaker, I came to Washington to fight for workers. I also came to Congress to make tough choices, not easy ones. That is why we are here today: to stand up for workers throughout Wisconsin and across the country.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the previous question so that my resolution, H. Con. Res. 54, can be voted on. My resolution, H. Con. Res. 54, will reestablish the congressional joint select committee to address the multiemployer pension crisis, bringing together a nonpartisan group to take this problem head on.

Pension plans for nearly half a million Americans are in jeopardy. Roughly 1.3 million workers, covering over 1.3 million workers, are severely underfunded. This accounts for more than 23,000 workers from the Central States' plan in Wisconsin alone. In just 5% years, their pension fund may become insolvent. Unfortunately, the actions of a few have resulted in uncertainty for many.

We all know that Central States and other pension plans are in crisis. These underfunded plans pose a threat to workers and the economy. We need to address this now.

I have offered H. Con. Res. 54 as a real solution to this problem. This is a good-faith effort to protect pensions. This is an opportunity to make real change in Americans' lives. This is a path for Democrats and Republicans to protect pension benefits for thousands of Americans.

The joint select committee will be required to come to a legislative solution no later than April 30, 2020. This holds Members accountable and gives the issue the urgency it requires.

Like many Federal programs, we should look at the States. For example, in Wisconsin, the State's public employee pension system is designed to avoid the challenges that we see in today's multiemployer pensions. Contributions to the State's pension fund are required and yearly to ensure the pension fund continues to be funded.

Wisconsin's retirement system is fully funded. It isn't reliant on political wins, and it has a formula that protects retirees by making proactive, not reactive changes. This is one of many possible solutions that should be on the table.

H.R. 397 does not solve the actual problem. Why? Because it does not prevent this crisis from happening again in 5 years, or 10 years, or 20 years. We owe it to workers to provide them with the certainty that they will have a retirement living in dignity. H.R. 397 does not do that.

Democrats and Republicans agree: the retired and future retirees are the victims here. We need to protect them. These are men and women who have or are currently working and supporting their families. They have planned for retirement and, through no fault of their own, their financial future is at risk.

Are we capable of working together in the House? We must.

However, throughout this process, the majority did not allow other voices to be heard. H.R. 397 did not even receive a public hearing. We can do better. We must do better.

My resolution would require us to work together. As my resolution says, we should establish the select committee focused solely on this issue. We should support hardworking Americans who are vested in the system. Democrats and Republicans should protect workers and retirees and ensure new benefits are adequately funded. Reforming the broken system to prevent this from occurring again. And use this as an opportunity to work together.

Just like the pension system is broken, so is our political system. We can do better. We must do better. The clock is ticking. This is an opportunity to protect retirees and workers. They deserve it.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote against the previous question so that we can consider my resolution and reconstitute the joint committee and fix this problem for the long term.

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, the joint select committee held five hearings. Enough with the talk. These hardworking American retirees are demanding action. They want Congress to act.

We are here because of failed IRS regulations in the eighties and nineties that deterred employers from increasing contributions in times of surplus. We are here because when a contributing employer went bankrupt, the remaining employers got saddled with the unfunded liabilities.

Most importantly, we are not here because of the millions of Americans participating in these plans. They did nothing wrong.

I want to point to one plan in Wisconsin's First District. There are 3,285 retirees. And, to them, I want to repeat and say: Democrats in Congress have your back.

Mr. Speaker, I am prepared to close, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. SPEAKER. Mr. STEIL has 3 minutes.

Mr. STEIL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 3 minutes.

Mr. Speaker, I want to talk on reconstituting the select committee that Mr. STEIL just spoke of on the issue on the previous question.

Mr. Speaker, I want to bring the House's attention to the editorial in The Washington Post from April 25. Before we initiated this discussion today, they wrote that the retirement livelihood of hundreds of thousands of working-class Americans is in jeopardy. So, too, are many businesses for which pension obligations have become a growth-stifling burden.

Quoting The Washington Post:

"A meltdown must be avoided, but so, too, must a massive federal bailout that would soak the rest of society, including many taxpayers who do not even have pensions. Between those poles lie inevitable shared sacrifices: a significant but finite injection of public funds, offset by limited benefit reductions, conditioned on long-term reforms to stabilize the system."

And they go on to say:

"A crisis actually adopted such a proposal on a bipartisan basis in 2014, but the Obama administration balked at implementing the required benefit haircut for Central States' retirees on the eve of the 2016 election, which sent Congress back to the drawing board. Last March, after both Chambers formed a committee to write a new bill, which would have gotten expedited consideration on the floors of both Chambers. Unfortunately, the committee missed a self-imposed November 30, 2018 deadline."

Leaving The Washington Post for a moment, now we are talking about reconstituting that select committee. And, in fact, that is what the editorial board of The Washington Post was suggesting last April. We find ourselves at that juncture now.

Mr. Speaker, again, I urge my colleagues to vote against the previous question and defeat the previous question so we can consider the amendment brought by Mr. STEIL.

Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mrs. TORRES of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. LIPINSKI).

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act, also known as the Butch Lewis Act.

Without this bill, millions of retired workers, including truck drivers, electricians, steelworkers, locomotive engineers, boilermakers, machinists, and others will lose their earned pension benefits. We should all agree that these pensions should not be cut.

This is about basic fairness. These hardworking people who agreed to exchange some of their pay during their working years for the promise of a secure retirement. This bill will provide loans to pension plans in need of help to pay these benefits. These are loans.

Many of us remember the dark days of the financial crisis. During this crisis, pension plans took a big hit. Back then, Congress bailed out Wall Street. Although I did not support that bill, I think we should all agree now that we should help support pensions for retirees. Let's do right by the everyday families who count on these plans. Let's pass this rule and pass the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act. It is the right thing to do.
Reps. agree that there is a multipurpose pension crisis, but as my Republican colleagues on the committees of jurisdiction have stated many times before, it has to be addressed through reforms to the financial structure of these plans to ensure that the plans will not be underfunded in the future.

The security humanitarian crisis on the southern border continues. At least we are to a point right now that we admit that it is a crisis. Republicans will keep working on solutions to secure the border and help stabilize Central American countries in order to eliminate the surge in irregular migration.

These are not problems that can be solved on a partisan basis alone. I hope our Democratic colleagues will join us in finding a long-lasting solution.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a “no” vote on the previous question, a “no” vote on the underlying measure, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. Torres of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, at the core, how we choose to vote on these bills reflects our values.

This morning, I read a report that a school district in Pennsylvania tried to create a family separation program in order to collect school lunch debts. Imagine that. Family separation because children are too poor to pay for their lunch.

This maltreatment at our southern border is spreading across our Nation, dehumanizing people because they are poor. This is how we want to treat the weakest among us?

Will we lock children in cages and allow babies to sit in dirty diapers for days, give asylum-seeking toothbrushes but no toothpaste, and deny children regular showers and proper medical care?

Will we turn a blind eye when children are dying at the hands of the CBP today on motions to suspend the rules at a later time.

COAST GUARD AUTHORIZATION ACT OF 2019

Mr. DeFazio. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 3409) to authorize appropriations for the Coast Guard, and for other purposes, as amended.

consideration for promotion and for promotion under this subchapter, if that officer is in an active status.

'(b) EXCLUSION.—A Reserve officer who has been considered but not recommended for retention in an active status by a board convened under subsection 372(a) of this title, is not eligible for consideration for promotion.

(c) ELIMINATION.—

'(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commandant may provide that an officer may, upon the officer's request and with the approval of the Commandant, be excluded from consideration by a selection board convened under section 370(b) of this title to consider officers for promotion to the next higher grade.

'(2) APPROVAL OF REQUEST.—The Commandant shall approve a request under paragraph (1) only if—

'(A) the basis for the request is to allow an officer to complete a broadening assignment, advanced education, another assignment of significant value to the Coast Guard, a career progression requirement delayed by the assignment or education, or a qualifying personal or professional circumstance, as deter-determined by the Commandant;

'(B) the Commandant determines the exclusion from consideration is in the best interest of the Coast Guard; and

"2514. Career flexibility to enhance retention of members

(a) PROGRAMS AUTHORIZED.—The Commandant may carry out a program under which members of the Coast Guard may be excluded from active service to meet personal or professional needs and be returned to active service at the end of such period of inactivation from active service.
"(1) CANCELLATION.—In the case of a member participating in a program under this section, a member who participates in the program shall be in basic pay in an amount equal to two-thirds of the amount of basic pay to which the member would otherwise be entitled under section 204 of title 37 as a member of service at active service in the grade and years of service of the member when the member commences participation in the program.

(2) NOT TREATED AS FAILURE TO PERFORM SERVICE.—The inactivation from active service of a member participating in a program shall not be treated as a failure of the member to perform any period of service required in connection with an agreement for a special or incentive pay or bonus where the member is otherwise entitled under an agreement entered into by the member as the member's residence during the period of participation in the program—

(i) any agreement entered into by the member under section 5 of title 37 or section 1902 of this title that is in force when the member commences participation in the program; and

(ii) any special or incentive pay or bonus otherwise covered by that subparagraph with respect to any member who participates in a program—

(A) beginning on the date of the inactivation of the member from active service under the program; and

(B) ends at such time after the return of the member to active service as determined by the Commandant.

(3) RETURN TO ACTIVE SERVICE.—

(A) SPECIAL OR INCENTIVE PAY OR BONUS.—Subject to subparagraph (B), upon the return of a member participating in a program after participation in the program, to the location in the United States designated by the member as the member's residence during the period of participation in the program; and

(B) RETURN TO SERVICE.—Upon the return of an officer participating in a program after participation in the program, to the duty station of the member.

(4) LEAVE BALANCE.—A member who participates in a program is entitled to carry over to any subsequent period of service required in connection with an agreement for a special or incentive pay or bonus that was in force when the member participates in such a program shall not, while participating in the program under chapter 5 of title 37 or section 1902 of this title, be in basic pay in an amount equal to the bonus that was in force when the member returns to active service as described in subparagraph (a)(1).

(B) LIMITATION.—

(i) any agreement entered into by the member under section 5 of title 37 or section 1902 of this title that is in force when the member commences participation in the program; and

(ii) any special or incentive pay or bonus otherwise covered by that subparagraph with respect to any member who participates in a program—

(A) beginning on the date of the inactivation of the member from active service under the program; and

(B) ends at such time after the return of the member to active service as determined by the Commandant.

(5) LEAVE BALANCE.—A member who participates in a program is entitled, while participating in the program—

(i) to the travel and transportation allowance authorized by section 474 of title 37 for travel performed from the residence of the member to the duty station of the member which is the duty station of the member upon return to active service at the end of the period of participation of the member in the program.

(ii) to basic pay for purposes of—

(A) the entitlement of the member and of the dependent of the member to medical and dental care under the provisions of chapter 55 of title 37; and

(B) the entitlement of the member and of the dependents of the member to medical and dental care under the provisions of chapter 55 of title 37.

(iii) to the travel performed to the residence of the member as the member's residence during the period of participation in the program.

(6) EXCLUSION.—An allowance is payable under this paragraph only with respect to a travel of a member to and from a single residence.

(7) CANCELLATION.—In the case of a member participating in a program under this section, a member who participates in such a program shall not, while participating in the program, be entitled under section 701 of title 10, but not to exceed 60 days.

(8) DETERMINATION.—In determining which recommendations in the RAND gender diversity report can practically be implemented to promote gender diversity in the Coast Guard; and

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The analysis for such chapter is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 2721 the following:

"2713. Employment assistance."

SEC. 210. REPORTS ON GENDER DIVERSITY IN THE COAST GUARD.

(a) GENERAL.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall—

(A) determine which recommendations in the RAND gender diversity report can practically be implemented to promote gender diversity in the Coast Guard; and

(B) submit a report to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate on the actions the Coast Guard has taken or plans to take to implement such recommendations.

(2) DEFINITION.—In this subsection, the term "RAND gender diversity report" means the RAND Corporation's Homeland Security Operational Analysis Center 2019 report entitled "Improving Gender Diversity in the U.S. Coast Guard: Identifying Barriers to Female Retention".

(1) ADDITIONAL FORMS OF TRANSACTIONS AUTHORIZED.—The Commandant may enter into transactions (other than contracts, cooperative agreements, and grants) in carrying out basic, applied, and advanced research projects. The authority under this subsection is in addition to the authority provided in section 717 to use contracts, cooperative agreements, and grants in carrying out such projects.

(2) ADVANCE PAYMENTS.—The authority under subsection (a) may be exercised without regard to section 3324 of title 31.

(3) RECOVERY OF FUNDS.—Any project to subsection (d), a cooperative agreement for performance of basic, applied, or advanced research authorized by section 717, and an arrangement authorized by subsection (a), may include a clause that requires a person or other entity to make payments to the Coast Guard or any other department or agency of the Federal Government as a condition for receiving support under the agreement or transaction, respectively.

"(4) AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS.—The amount of any payment received by the Federal Government pursuant to a requirement imposed under paragraph (1) may be credited, to the extent authorized by the Commandant, to an appropriate appropriations account.

"(5) CONDITIONS.—(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commandant shall ensure that—

(A) to the extent that the Commandant determines practicable, no cooperative agreement containing a clause described in subsection (c)(1), and no transaction entered into under subsection (a), provides for research that duplicates research being conducted under other projects carried out by the Coast Guard; and

(B) to the extent that the Commandant determines practicable, the funds provided by the Federal Government under a cooperative agreement containing a clause described in subsection (c)(1), or under a transaction authorized by subsection (a), may be used for a research project only if the use of a standard contract, grant, or cooperative agreement for such project is not feasible or appropriate.

"(6) EDUCATION AND TRAINING.—The Commandant shall—

(1) ensure that management, technical, and contracting personnel of the Coast Guard involved in the administration of transactions under this section or other innovative forms of contracting are afforded opportunities for adequate education and training; and

(2) establish minimum levels and requirements for continuous and experiential learning for such personnel, including levels and requirements for acquisition certification programs.

"(7) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall, if necessary, to carry out this section.

"(8) PROTECTION OF CERTAIN INFORMATION FROM DISCLOSURE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Disclosure of information described in paragraph (2) is not required, and may not be compelled, under section 5 of title 5 for five years after the date on which the information is received by the Coast Guard.

"(2) LIMITATION.—(A) Paragraph (1) applies to information described in subparagraph (B) that is in the records of the Coast Guard only if the information was submitted to the Coast Guard.

"(3) DEADLINE.—An election for coverage under this subsection shall be filed not later than 90 days after the enactment of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2019, may elect to be subject to section 834 or section 486 of such title (as the case may be).

"(4) COVERE.—If an employee files an election under this subsection, coverage... shall be effective beginning on the first day of the first applicable pay period beginning on or after the date of the filing of the election.

(b) APPLICATION.—Paragraph (1) shall apply to an individual who is eligible to file an election under such subparagraph and does not file a timely election under clause (i).

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of contents of chapter 11 of title 14, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 1110 the following:

“1111. Acquisition workforce authorities.”.

SEC. 214. REPORT ON COAST GUARD DEFENSE READINESS RESOURCES ALLOCATION.

(a) REPORT REQUIRED.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General of the United States shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate, a report on the allocation of resources by the Coast Guard to support its defense readiness mission.

(b) EXEMPTIONS.—The report required by subsection (a) shall include the following elements:

(1) Funding levels allocated by the Coast Guard to support defense readiness missions for each of the past ten fiscal years.

(2) Funding levels transferred or otherwise provided by the Department of Defense to the Coast Guard in support of the Coast Guard’s defense readiness missions for each of the past ten fiscal years.

(3) The number of Coast Guard detachments assigned in support of the Coast Guard’s defense readiness mission for each of the past ten fiscal years.

The data in subsection (a) shall be made available to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(2) Exemptions.—Section 8107 of title 46, United States Code, is amended by—

(1) striking “RIDING GANG MEMBER” and inserting “or a non-operating individual”;

(2) inserting “or a non-operating individual” before the period.

SEC. 302. PASSENGER VESSEL SECURITY AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS; APPLICATION;

SEC. 302. NON-OPERATING INDIVIDUAL.

SEC. 316. REQUIREMENT FOR SMALL SHIPYARD GRANTEES.

Section 5410(d) of title 46, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking ‘Grants awarded’ and inserting the following:

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Grants awarded;” and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(2) BUY AMERICA.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), no funds may be obligated by the Administrator of the Maritime Administration under this section, unless each product and material purchased with those funds (including products and materials purchased by a grantee), and including any commercially available off-the-shelf item, is—

“(i) an unmanufactured article, material, or supply that has been mined or produced in the United States; or “(ii) a manufactured article, material, or supply that has been manufactured in the United States substantially all from articles, materials, or supplies mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States.

“(B) EXCEPTIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding paragraph (A), the requirements of that subparagraph shall not apply with respect to a particular product or material if such Administrator determines—

“(I) that the application of those requirements would be inconsistent with the public interest;

“(II) that such product or material is not available in the United States in sufficient and reasonably available quantities, of a satisfactory quality, or on a timely basis; or “(III) that inclusion of a domestic product or material will increase the cost of that product or material by more than 25 percent, with respect to a certain contract between a grantee and that grantee’s supplier.

“(ii) FEDERAL REGISTER.—A determination made by such Administrator under this subparagraph shall be published in the Federal Register.

“(C) DEFINITIONS.—In this paragraph:

“(i) COMMERCIALLY AVAILABLE OFF-THE-SHELF ITEM.—The term ‘commercially available off-the-shelf item’ means—

“(I) any item of supply (including construction material) that is—

“(aa) a commercial item, as defined by section 2.101 of title 46, Code of Federal Regulations; and

“(II) does not include bulk cargo, as that term is defined in section 4002(2) of this title, such as agricultural products and petroleum products.

“(iii) PRODUCT OR MATERIAL.—The term ‘product or material’ means an article, material, or supply brought to the site by the recipient for incorporation into the building, work, or project. The term also includes an item brought to the site preassembled from components, materials, or supplies. However, emergency life safety systems, such as emergency lighting, fire alarm, and audio evacuation systems, that are discrete systems incorporated into a public building or work and that are produced as complete systems, are evaluated as a single and distinct construction material regardless of when or how the individual parts or components of those systems are delivered to the construction site.

“(iv) UNITED STATES.—The term ‘United States’ includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Virgin Islands.”.
SECTION 317. INDEPENDENT STUDY ON THE UNITED STATES MERCHANT MARINE ACADEMY.

(a) In General.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Transportation shall seek to enter into an agreement with the National Academy of Sciences, a national nonprofit organization (referred to in this section as the “Academy”) to carry out the activities described in this section.

(b) Study Elements.—In accordance with the agreement described in subsection (a), the Academy shall conduct a study of the United States Merchant Marine Academy that includes:

(1) A comprehensive assessment of the United States Merchant Marine Academy’s systems, training, facilities, infrastructure, information technology, and stakeholder engagement.

(2) Identification of needs and opportunities for modernization to help the United States Merchant Marine Academy keep pace with more modern campuses.

(3) Development of an action plan for the United States Merchant Marine Academy with recommendations for:

(A) Improvements or updates relating to the opportunities described in paragraph (2); and

(B) Systemic changes needed to help the United States Merchant Marine Academy achieve its mission of inspiring and educating the next generation of the mariner workforce.

(c) Deadline and Report.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the agreement described in subsection (a), the Academy shall prepare and submit to the Administrator of the Maritime Administration a report containing the action plan described in subsection (b)(2), including specific findings and recommendations.

SECTION 318. CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE FOR DOMESTIC MARITIME WORKFORCE TRAINING AND EDUCATION.

Section 5102 of title 46, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (b), by inserting “or subsection (d)” after “designated under subsection”;

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(d) STATE MARITIME ACADEMY.—The Secretary of Transportation shall designate each State maritime academy, as defined in section 5102(b)(4) of this title, as a center of excellence under this section.”.

SECTION 319. REGISTRATION OF MERCHANT MARINER LICENSES AND DOCUMENTS.

Section 7007 of title 46, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(d) RENEWAL.—With respect to any renewal of an existing mariner credential that is not an extension under subsection (a) or (b), such credential shall begin the day after the expiration of the credential holder’s existing credential.”.

TITLE IV—MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 401. COASTWISE TRADE.

(a) In General.—The Commandant of the Coast Guard shall review the adequacy of and continuing need for provisions in title 46, Code of Federal Regulations, that require a United States vessel documented under chapter 121 of title 46, United States Code, possessing a coastwise endorsement under that chapter, and engaged in coastwise trade, to comply with regulations for vessels engaged in foreign voyages.

(b) Briefing.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall provide the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a briefing on the findings of the review required under subsection (a) and a discussion of how existing laws and regulations could be amended to ensure safety of vessels described in subsection (a) while infringing as little as possible on commerce.

SECTION 402. UNMANNED MARITIME SYSTEMS AND SATELLITE VESSEL TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES.

(a) Assessment.—

(1) In General.—The Commandant of the Coast Guard, acting through the Blue Technology Center of Expertise, shall regularly assess unmanned maritime systems and satellite vessel tracking technologies for potential use to support missions of the Coast Guard.

(2) Consultation.—The Commandant shall make the assessment required under paragraph (1) after consultation with the Department of Defense, other Federal agencies, the academic sector, and developers and manufacturers of unmanned maritime systems and satellite vessel tracking technologies.

(b) Report.—

(1) In General.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, and biennially thereafter, the Commandant shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report on the actual and potential effects of the use of then-existing unmanned maritime systems and satellite vessel tracking technologies on the mission effectiveness of the Coast Guard.

(2) Contents.—Each report submitted under paragraph (1) shall include the following:

(A) An inventory of current unmanned maritime systems used by the Coast Guard, an overview of such systems and a discussion of the mission effectiveness of such systems, including any benefits realized or risks or negative aspects of such usage.

(B) An inventory of satellite vessel tracking technologies, and a discussion of the potential mission effectiveness of such technologies, including any benefits or risks or negative aspects of such usage.

(C) A prioritized list of Coast Guard mission requirements that could be met with additional unmanned systems, with satellite vessel tracking technologies, and the estimated costs of accessing, acquiring, or operating such systems.

(c) Definitions.—In this section:

(1) UNMANNED MARITIME SYSTEMS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The term “unmanned maritime systems” means remotely operated or autonomous vehicles produced by the commercial sector designed to travel in the air, on or under the ocean surface, on land, or any combination thereof, and that function without an on-board human presence.

(B) EXAMPLES.—Such term includes the following:

(i) Unmanned surface vehicles.

(ii) Unmanned underwater vehicles.

(iii) Unmanned aerial vehicles.

(iv) Autonomous underwater vehicles.

(v) Autonomous surface vehicles.

(vi) Autonomous aerial vehicles.

(2) AVAILABLE UNMANNED MARITIME SYSTEMS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The term “available unmanned maritime systems” includes systems that can be purchased commercially or are in use by the Department of Defense or other Federal agencies.

(B) EXAMPLES.—Such term includes the following:

(i) Available unmanned surface vehicles.

(ii) Available unmanned underwater vehicles.

(iii) Available unmanned aerial vehicles.

(ii) Satellite vessel tracking technologies.—The term “satellite vessel tracking technologies” means shipboard broadcast systems and satellite vessel tracking systems that use satellites and terrestrial receivers to continually track vessels.

SECTION 403. EXPEDITED TRANSFER IN CASES OF SEXUAL ASSAULT; DEPENDENTS OF MEMBERS OF THE COAST GUARD.

Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall establish a policy to allow the transfer of a member of the Coast Guard whose dependent is a victim of sexual assault perpetrated by a member of the Armed Forces who is not related to the victim.

SECTION 404. TOWING VESSELS; OPERATION OUTSIDE THE BOUNDARY LINE.

(a) Interim Exemption.—A towing vessel to which this section applies is exempt from any additional requirements of subtitle II of title 46, United States Code, and chapter I of title 33 and chapter I of title 46, Code of Federal Regulations, that would result solely from such vessel operating outside the Boundary Line (as such term is defined in section 103 of title 46, United States Code) if such vessel—

(1) is listed as a response vessel on a vessel response plan and is operating outside the Boundary Line solely to perform duties of a response vessel; or

(2) is operating outside the Boundary Line solely to perform operations necessary to execute the vessel’s existing limitations.

(b) Application.—This section applies to a towing vessel—

(1) that is subject to inspection under chapter 33 of title 46, United States Code, and subsection M of title 46, Code of Federal Regulations; and

(2) with only “Lakes, Bays, and Sounds” or “Rivers” routes recorded on such vessel’s certificate of inspection under section 136.230 of title 46, Code of Federal Regulations; or

(c) Definitions.—In this section:

(1) TOWING VESSEL.—The term “towing vessel” means—

(A) a vessel, whether owned by a coastal State or owned by a foreign State, that is engaged in towing, ii. assists in a towing operation, or iii. assists in a vessel response operation; and

(B) a vessel engaged in a vessel response operation.

(2) RESPONSE VESSEL.—The voyage of a towing vessel exempted under subsection (a)(1) shall—

(A) be less than 12 hours, or in the case of a voyage in the territorial waters of Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, and American Samoa, have sufficient manning as determined by the Secretary; and

(B) originate and end in the inspection zone of a single Officer In-Charge, Marine Inspection, as defined in section 3305(d)(4) of title 46, United States Code.

(d) Flutter Vessel.—The voyage of a vessel exempted under subsection (a)(2) shall—

(A) be less than 12 hours in total duration; and

(B) originate and end in the inspection zone of a single Officer In-Charge, Marine Inspection, as such term is defined in section 3305(d)(4) of title 46, United States Code; and

(C) occur no further than 10 nautical miles from the Boundary Line.

(e) Termination.—The interim exemption provided under subsection (a) shall terminate on July 22, 2023.

(f) Restriction.—The Officer In-Charge, Marine Inspection, as defined in section 3305(d)(4) of title 46, United States Code, for a vessel described in paragraph (1) of subsection (a) for safety purposes. and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate regarding the following:

(1) The impacts of the interim exemptions provided under section (a) and any

(2) Any safety concerns regarding the expiration of such interim exemptions.

(3) Whether such interim exemptions should be extended or made permanent in the interests of safety.

SEC. 405. COAST GUARD AUTHORITIES STUDY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report on vulnerabilities of Coast Guard installations and requirements resulting from climate change over the next 20 years.

(b) ELEMENTS.—The report under subsection (a) shall include the following:

(1) A list of the most vulnerable Coast Guard installations based on the effects of climate change, including rising sea tides, increased flooding, drought, desertification, wildfires, thawing permafrost, or any other categories the Commandant determines necessary.

(2) An overview of:

(A) measures that may be necessary to ensure the continued operational viability and to increase the resiliency of the identified vulnerable installations; and

(B) the cost of such actions.

(3) A discussion of the climate-change-related effects on the Coast Guard, including:

(A) the increase in the frequency of humanitarian assistance and disaster relief missions; and

(B) campaign plans, contingency plans, and operational posture of the Coast Guard.

(4) An overview of actions that may be necessary to ensure mission resiliency and the cost of such mitigations.

(c) DOCUMENTATION OF LNG TANKERS.—Section 202(b)(2) of the命名 Act (Public Law 112–121) shall be amended by inserting the following:

Not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall—

(1) develop a plan to standardize Coast Guard facility condition assessments;

(2) establish shore infrastructure performance goals, measures, and baselines to track the effectiveness of maintenance and repair investments and provide feedback on progress made;

(3) develop a process to routinely align the Coast Guard shore infrastructure portfolio with mission needs, including disposing of underused assets;

(4) establish guidance for planning boards to document inputs, deliberations, and project prioritization decisions for infrastructure maintenance projects;

(5) employ use of the Coast Guard infrastructure asset life cycles.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding section 202(b)(5) of the American Fisheries Act (Public Law 105–58; 16 U.S.C. 1661 note), a vessel eligible under section 202(b)(2) of such Act that is replaced under section 202(g) of such Act shall be subject to a sideboard restriction catch limit of zero metric tons in the Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands and in the Gulf of Alaska unless that vessel is also a replacement vessel under section 202(e)(21) of such Act that is replaced under section 202(g) of such Act.

(b) BRIEFING.—Not later than December 31, 2020, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall brief the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate on the status of the actions required under subsection (a).

SEC. 409. PHYSICAL ACCESS CONTROL SYSTEM

Not later 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act and annually for each of the 4 years thereafter, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report regarding the status of the Coast Guard’s compliance with Homeland Security Presidential Directive 12 (HSPD–12) and Federal Information Processing Standard 201 (FIPS–201), including:

(1) the status of Coast Guard efforts to field a comprehensive Physical Access Control System at Coast Guard installations and locations necessary to bring the Service into compliance with HSPD–12 and FIPS–201;

(2) the status of the selection of a technological solution;

(3) the estimated phases and timeframe to complete the implementation of such a system; and

(4) the estimated cost for each phase of the project.

SEC. 410. COASTWISE ENDORSEMENTS.

(a) “SAFARI VOYAGER”.—

(b) BRIEFING.—Notwithstanding sections 12112 and 12132 of title 46, United States Code, the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall issue a certificate of documentation with a coastwise endorsement for the vessel Safari Voyager (International Maritime Organization number 9896753).

(2) REEVOCATION OF EFFECTIVENESS OF CERTIFICATE.—A certificate of documentation issued under paragraph (1) is revoked on the date of the sale of the vessel or the entity that owns the vessel.

(c) DOCUMENTATION OF LNG TANKERS.—Section 7(b)(4) of the命名 Act (Public Law 112–61) is amended by—

(1) striking “the coastwise endorsement issued” and inserting “No coastwise endorsement will be issued”

(2) striking “shall expire on” and inserting “after”.

(d) REPLACEMENT VESSEL.—Notwithstanding section 202(g)(5) of the American Fisheries Act (Public Law 105–58; 16 U.S.C. 1661 note), a vessel eligible under section 202(b)(2) of such Act that is replaced is replaced under section 202(g) of such Act shall be subject to a sideboard restriction that is not eligible to be a catcher/processor under section 202(b)(2) of such Act.

SEC. 411. POLAR SECURITY CUTTER ACQUISITION REPORT.

Not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall submit a report to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure and Armed Services of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate on—

(1) the extent to which specifications, key data, and detailed plans for the Polar Security Cutter are complete before the start of construction;
SEC. 412. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS ON THE NEED FOR A NEW GREAT LAKES ICEBREAKER.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

(1) The Great Lakes shipping industry is crucial to the American economy, including the U.S. manufacturing base, providing important economic and national security benefits.

(2) A recent study found that the Great Lakes shipping industry supports 237,000 jobs and tens of billions of dollars in economic activity.

(3) United States Coast Guard icebreaker capacity is inadequate to fulfill utilization of the Great Lakes shipping system, as during the winter icebreaking season up to 15 percent of annual cargo loads are delivered and many industries are unable to reduce their production if Coast Guard icebreaking services were not provided.

(4) Six of the Coast Guard’s nine icebreakers in the Great Lakes are more than 30 years old and are frequently inoperable during the winter icebreaking season, including those that have completed a recent service life extension program.

(5) During the previous 10 winters, Coast Guard Great Lakes icebreaking cutters have been inoperable for an average of 65 cutter-days, with a high of 246 cutter-days during the winter of 2017–2018.

(6) The 2019 ice season provides further proof that current Coast Guard icebreaking capacity is inadequate for the needs of the Great Lakes shipping industry, as only six of the nine icebreaking cutters are operational and millions of tons of cargo was not loaded or was delayed due to inadequate Coast Guard icebreaking assets during a historically average winter for Great Lakes ice coverage.

(7) The Congress has authorized the Coast Guard to acquire a new Great Lakes icebreaker, the Great Lakes Freighter MACKINAW (WLBB–30), the most capable Great Lakes icebreaker, and $10 million has been appropriated to fund the design and initial acquisition work for this icebreaker.

(8) The Coast Guard has not initiated a new acquisition program for this Great Lakes icebreaker.

(b) USE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress of the United States that a new Great Lakes icebreaker as capable as Coast Guard Cutter MACKINAW (WLBB–30) is needed on the Great Lakes and the Coast Guard should acquire this icebreaker as soon as possible.

SEC. 413. COAST GUARD PREFERENCE STUDY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Comptroller General of the United States shall conduct an audit regarding the enforcement of the United States Cargo Preference Laws set forth in sections 55302, 55303, 55304, and 55305 of title 46, United States Code, and section 2831 of title 31, United States Code, as in effect prior to the date of enactment of such Act, the Comptroller General shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report detailing the results of the audit and providing recommendations related to such results, to include—

(1) a listing of the agencies and organizations required to comply with the United States Cargo Preference Laws;

(2) an analysis of the compliance or non-compliance of such agencies and organizations with such laws, including—

(A) the total amount of oceangoing cargo that each such agency, organization, or contractor received for a select time period, and for which financing was in any way provided with Federal funds, including loan guaranties;

(B) the percentage of such cargo shipped on privately owned commercial vessels of the United States;

(C) an assessment of internal programs and coordination and communication plans with the United States Cargo Preference Laws, to include education, training, and supervision of its contracting personnel, and the procedures and controls used to monitor compliance with cargo preference requirements by contractors and subcontractors; and

(D) instances in which cargoes are shipped on foreign-flag vessels under non-navigability determinations but not counted as such for purposes of calculating cargo preference compliance; and

(3) an overview of enforcement activities undertaken by the Maritime Administration from October 14, 2008, until the date of the enactment of this Act, including a listing of all bills of lading collected by the Maritime Administration during that period.

(c) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report detailing the results of the audit and providing recommendations related to such results, to include—

(1) actions that should be taken by agencies and organizations to fully comply with the United States Cargo Preference Laws; and

(2) Other measures that may compel agencies and organizations, and their contractors and subcontractors, to use United States flag vessels in the international transportation of ocean cargoes as mandated by the United States Cargo Preference Laws.

EC. 414. INSIDER THREAT PROGRAM.

Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall brief the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate on plans required under subsection (a).

SEC. 415. FISHING SAFETY GRANTS.

The cap on the Federal share of the cost of any activity carried out with a grant under subsections (i) and (j) of section 4502 of title 46, United States Code, as in effect prior to the date of enactment of the Frank LoBiondo Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2016, shall apply to the activities under the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2017 (Public Law 115–31) for the purpose of making such grants.

SEC. 416. PLANS FOR DEMONSTRATION PROGRAMS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Commandant of the Coast Guard shall develop plans for demonstration programs that will assess the feasibility and safety of using unmanned maritime systems for surveillance of marine protected areas, the transit zone, and the Arctic to—

(1) gather regular marine domain awareness of marine protected areas, the transit zone, and the Arctic; and

(2) ensure sufficient response to illegal activities in marine protected areas, the transit zone, and the Arctic.

(b) COLLABORATION WITH LOCAL AUTHORITIES.—The Commandant of the Coast Guard shall collaborate with local, State, and Tribal authorities and international partners for surveillance permissions over their waters in conducting any demonstration program under subsection (a).

(c) REQUIREMENTS.—The plans required under subsection (a) shall include—

(1) discussion of the feasibility, safety, and cost effectiveness of using unmanned maritime systems for the purposes of enhancing maritime domain awareness in marine protected areas, the transit zone, and the Arctic;

(2) coordination and communication plans to facilitate coordination with other relevant Federal, State, Tribal, and local agencies, and international partners;

(3) consideration of the potential impacts of the demonstration program on the Coast Guard’s existing unmanned vehicle programs;

(4) an overview of areas that could be surveilled under such programs;

(5) a timeline and technical milestones for the implementation of such a program;

(6) resource requirements to implement and sustain such a program; and

(7) the operational benefits of such a program.

(d) CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS.—The Commandant of the Coast Guard shall consult with relevant stakeholders including the Department of Defense, other agencies, the academic sector, and manufacturers of unmanned maritime systems on the appropriate technologies for successful implementation of any demonstration program under such plans.

(e) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant shall brief the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation on the plans required under subsection (a).

SEC. 417. WATERS DEEMED NOT NAVIGABLE.

Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to mean that the waters of the United States for certain purposes are—

The Coalbank Slough in Coos Bay, Oregon, is hereby deemed to be not navigable under the laws of the United States for all purposes of subchapter J of Chapter I of title 33, Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 418. COAST GUARD HOUSING; STATUS AND AUTHORITIES BRIEFING.

Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall provide to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a briefing on Coast Guard housing, including—
(1) a description of the material condition of Coast Guard housing facilities;
(2) the amount of current Coast Guard housing construction and deferred maintenance backlog;
(3) an overview of the manner in which the Coast Guard manages and maintains housing facilities;
(4) the discussion of whether reauthorizing housing authorities for the Coast Guard similar to those provided in section 208 of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 1996 (Public Law 104–181) is advisable.
(5) recommendations regarding how the Congress could adjust those authorities to prevent mismanagement of Coast Guard housing facilities.
SEC. 419. CONVEYANCE OF COAST GUARD PROPERTY AT POINT SPENCER, ALASKA.
(1) Section 533 of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2016 (Public Law 114–120) is amended by adding at the end the following:
"(f) REMEDIAL ACTIONS.—For purposes of the transfers under this section, the remedial actions required under section 120(h) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. 9620(b)) may be completed by the United States Coast Guard after the date of such transfer and a deed entered into for such transfer shall include a clause granting the United States Coast Guard access to the property in which remedial action or corrective action is found to be necessary after the date of such transfer.
(2) Section 59(a) of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2016 (Public Law 114–120) is amended by—
(A) striking "Nothing" and inserting "After the date on which the Secretary of the Interior conveys land under section 533 of this Act, nothing"; and
(B) by inserting ", with respect to contaminants on such land prior to the date on which the land is conveyed" before the period.

SEC. 420. PROHIBITION.
(a) In General.—The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall not establish anchorages on the Hudson River between Yonkers, New York, and Kingston, New York, under section 3317 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1291) in subsection (a) of such section.
(b) Restoration.—The Commandant may not establish or expand any anchorage grounds outside of the reach on the Hudson River in subsection (a) until first providing notice to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate not later than 180 days prior to the establishment or expansion of any such anchorage grounds.

SEC. 421. CERTIFICATE EXTENSIONS.
(a) In General.—Subchapter I of chapter 121 of title 46, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:
"12108. Authority to extend the duration of vessel certificates
(b) CERTIFICATES.—Provided a vessel is in compliance with inspection requirements the Secretary of the Department of Transportation or the Secretary of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating may, if he makes the determination described in subsection (b), extend for a period of not more than one year an expired certificate of documentation issued for a vessel under section 12101(b) and a certificate of financial responsibility required for a vessel under section 12104(b) or (b) MANNER OF EXTENSION.—Any extension granted under this section may be granted to individual vessels or to a specifically identified group of vessels.
(c) EXTENSION.—The analysis for such subchapter is amended by adding at the end the following:
"12108. Authority to extend the duration of vessel certificates.

SEC. 422. HOMELAND SECURITY ROTATIONAL CYBERSECURITY RESEARCH PROGRAM AT THE COAST GUARD ACADEMY.
(a) In General.—Subtitle E of title VIII of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 411 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following:
"SEC. 846. ROTATIONAL CYBERSECURITY RESEARCH PROGRAM.
"To enhance the Department’s cybersecurity capacity, the Secretary may establish a rotational research, development, and training program for—
(1) detail to the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (including the national cybersecurity and communications integration center authorized by section 2209) of the Coast Guard Academy;
(2) detail to the Coast Guard Academy, as faculty, of individuals with expertise and experience in cybersecurity who are employed by—
(A) the Agency (including the center);
(B) the Directorate of Science and Technology; or
(C) institutions that have been designated by the Department as a Center of Excellence for Cyber Defense, or the equivalent.
(b) CIRCULAR AMENDMENT.—The table of contents in section 1(b) of such Act is amended by adding at the end of the items relating to such subtitle the following:
"Sec. 846. Rotational cybersecurity research program.

SEC. 423. TOWING VESSEL INSPECTION FEES.
Notwithstanding section 9701 of title 31, United States Code, and section 2110 of title 46, United States Code, the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating may not charge an inspection fee for towing vessels required to have a Certificate of Inspection under subchapter M of title 46, Code of Federal Regulations, until—
(1) the completion of the review required under section 815 of the Frank LoBiondo Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2018 (Public Law 115–222); and
(2) the promulgation of regulations to establish specific inspection fees for such vessels.

SEC. 424. SUBROGATED CLAIMS.
(a) In General.—Section 1012(b) of the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 (33 U.S.C. 2712(b)) is amended—
(1) by striking "The" and inserting the following:
"(1) IN GENERAL.—The"; and
(2) by adding at the end the following:
"(2) SUBROGATED RIGHTS.—Except for a guarantor claim pursuant to a defense under section 1016(a)(1), Fund compensation of any amount by an insurer or other indemnitee of a responsible party or injured third party is subject to the subrogated rights of that responsible party or injured third party to such compensation.
(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This section and the amendments made by this section shall take effect 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 425. LOAN PROVISIONS UNDER OIL POLLUTION ACT OF 1990.
(a) In General.—Section 1013 of the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 (33 U.S.C. 2713) is amended by striking subsection (f).
(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—Section 1012(a) of the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 (33 U.S.C. 2712(a)) is amended—
(1) in paragraph (4), by adding "and" after the semicolon at the end of paragraph (3);
(2) by striking "; and" and inserting a period; and
(3) by striking paragraph (6).

SEC. 426. LIABILITY LIMITS.
Section 1004(d)(2) of the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 (33 U.S.C. 2704(d)(2)) is amended to read as follows:
"(2) DEEPWATER PORTS AND ASSOCIATED VESSELS—
(A) In General.—If the Secretary determines that the design and operation of a deepwater port results in a lower risk of oil pollution than the design and operation of such deepwater ports as existed on the date of the enactment of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2019, the Secretary may issue a rulemaking pursuant to section 911(c)(6) to lower the limitation of liability under subsection (a)(4) for such deepwater port and each other deepwater port which achieves such lower risk level through such port’s design and operation.
(B) RISK DETERMINATION.—In determining the risk of oil pollution, the Secretary shall take into account—
(i) the size of the deepwater ports and associated vessels;
(ii) the oil storage capacity of the deepwater port and associated vessels;
(iii) the oil handling capacity of the deepwater ports and associated vessels;
(iv) oil throughput;
(v) proximity to sensitive areas;
(vi) type of oil handled; and
(vii) history of oil discharges; and
“(viii) such other factors relevant to the oil pollution risks posed by the class or category of deepwater port and associated vessels as the Secretary determines appropriate.

“(C) LIMIT LIABILITY; TRANSPORTATION OF NATURAL GAS.—For deepwater ports used in connection with the transportation of natural gas, the Secretary may establish a limitation of liability under subparagraph (A) of not more than $350,000,000 and not less than $50,000,000.

“(D) LIMIT OF LIABILITY; TRANSPORTATION OF OIL.—For deepwater ports used in connection with the transportation of oil, the Secretary may establish a limitation of liability under subparagraph (A) of not more than $500,000,000 and not less than $1,000,000.

SEC. 427. REPORT ON DRUG INTERDICATION IN THE CARIBBEAN BASIN.

(a) Report.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Commandant of the Coast Guard shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report on drug interdiction in the Caribbean basin.

(b) Content.—Such report shall include—

(1) a statement of the Coast Guard mission requirements for drug interdiction in the Caribbean basin;

(2) a marine security of maritime surveillance hours and Coast Guard assets used in each of the fiscal years 2016 through 2019 to counter the illicit trafficking of drugs and other related threats to the security of the Caribbean basin; and

(3) a determination of whether such hours and assets satisfied the Coast Guard mission requirements for drug interdiction in the Caribbean basin.

SEC. 428. VOTING REQUIREMENT.

Section 305(e)(1)(G)(iv) of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (16 U.S.C. 1851(e)(1)(G)(iv)) is amended to read as follows—

“(iv) VOTING REQUIREMENT.—The panel may act only by the affirmative vote of at least five of its members.”.

SEC. 429. TRANSPORTATION WORK IDENTIFICATION CARD PILOT PROGRAM.

Section 70105(g) of title 46, United States Code, is amended by striking “shall concurrently” and all that follows and inserting the following:—

“(C) built after February 8, 2016.”

§ 4501. Application

“(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subsection (b), this chapter applies to an uninspected vessel that is a fishing vessel, fish processing vessel, or fish tender vessel.

“(b) CARRIAGE OF BULK DANGEROUS CARGOES.—This chapter does not apply to the carriage of bulk dangerous cargoes regulated under chapter 37.

§ 4502. Definitions

“In this chapter:

“(1) The term ‘accountable vessel’ means a vessel to which this chapter applies that—

“(A) was built after December 31, 1988, or undergoes a major conversion completed after that date; and

“(ii) operates with more than 16 individuals on board or

“(B) in the case of a fish tender vessel, engages in the Aleutian trade.

“(2) The term ‘auxiliary craft’ means a vessel that is carried on board a fishing vessel and is normally used to support fishing operations.

“(A) The term ‘built’ means, with respect to a vessel, that the vessel’s construction has reached any of the following stages:

“(i) The vessel’s keel is laid.

“(ii) Construction identifiable with the vessel has begun and assembly of that vessel has commenced comprising of at least 50 metric tons or one percent of the estimated mass of all structural material, whichever is less.

“(B) In the case of a vessel greater than 79 feet in overall length, for purposes of subparagraph (A)(i), a keel is deemed to be laid when a marine surveyor certifies that the structural material is in place that the vessel is in place and identified for use in the construction of such vessel.

“(C) The term ‘subject vessel’ means a vessel to which this chapter applies that—

“(A) operates beyond 3 nautical miles from the baseline from which the territorial sea of the United States is measured or beyond 3 nautical miles from the coastline of the Great Lakes;

“(B) operates with more than 16 individuals on board; or

“(C) in the case of a fish tender vessel, engages in the Aleutian trade.

“(D) The term ‘substitute-eligible vessel’ means a fishing vessel or fish tender vessel that is—

“(A) a subject vessel;

“(B) at least 50 feet overall in length, and not more than 180 feet overall in length as listed on the vessel’s certificate of documentation or certificate of number; and

“(C) built after February 8, 2016.

§ 4503. Safety standards

“(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall prescribe regulations that require that each vessel to which this chapter applies shall be equipped with—

“(1) readily accessible fire extinguishers capable of promptly and effectively extinguishing a flammable or combustible liquid fuel fire;

“(2) at least one readily accessible life preserver or other lifesaving device for each individual on board;

“(3) an efficient flame arrester, backfire trap, or other similar device on the carburetor of each inboard engine that uses gasoline as fuel;

“(4) the means to properly and efficiently ventilate enclosed spaces, including engine and fuel tank compartments, so as to remove explosive or flammable gases;

“(5) visual distress signals;

“(6) other equipment required to minimize the risk of injury to the crew during vessel operations, if the Secretary determines that a risk of serious injury exists that can be minimized or mitigated by that equipment; and

“(7) a placard as required by regulations prescribed under section 1663(b).

“(b) Nongrant Vessels.

“In addition to the requirements of subsection (a), the Secretary shall prescribe regulations requiring that § 4506. Training

(a) In General.—The individual in charge of a subject vessel must pass a training program approved by the Secretary that meets the requirements of subsection (b) and hold a valid certificate issued under that program.

(b) Training Program Requirements.—

(1) The training program shall—

(i) be based on professional knowledge and skill obtained through sea service and hands-on training, including training in seamanship, stability, collision prevention, navigation, firefighting and prevention, damage control, personal survival, emergency medical care, emergency drills, and weather forecasting;

(ii) require an individual to demonstrate ability to communicate in an emergency situation and understand information found in navigation publications;

(iii) recognize and give credit for recent past experience in fishing vessel operation; and

(iv) provide for issuance of a certificate to an individual who has successfully completed the program.

(c) Exempt Vessels.—

(1) Notwithstanding subsection (b), vessels subject to an individual having past experience in fishing vessel operation; and

(2) A fishing vessel, fish processing vessel, or fish tender vessel built before July 1, 2013, that undergoes a major conversion completed after the date the Secretary prescribes an alternate safety compliance program.

§ 4507. Vessel certification

(a) In General.—A vessel to which this section applies may not be operated unless the vessel—

(i) meets all survey and classification requirements prescribed by the American Bureau of Shipping or such other similarly qualified organization approved by the Secretary.

(b) Vessels Required to Comply.—

(1) The Secretary shall establish an alternate safety compliance program approved by the Secretary.

(2) A substitute-eligible vessel shall be overseen and certified as being in accordance with its design by a marine surveyor of an organization accepted by the Secretary.

(c) Accountable Vessels.—In addition to the requirements described in subsections (a) and (b), the Secretary may prescribe regulations establishing minimum safety standards for accountable vessels, including standards relating to—

(1) navigation equipment, including radars and fathometers;

(2) lifesaving equipment, immersion suits, signaling devices, bilge pumps, bilge alarms, life rafts, and grab rails;

(3) fire protection and firefighting equipment, including fire alarms and portable and semiportable fire extinguishing equipment;

(4) use and installation of insulation material;

(5) storage methods for flammable or combustible material; and

(6) fuel, ventilation, and electrical systems.

§ 4504. Vessel construction

(a) In General.—A vessel to which this chapter applies shall be constructed in a manner that provides a structural and safety equivalent to the minimum safety standards the Secretary may establish for recreational vessels under section 4302, if the vessel is—

(1) a subject vessel;

(2) less than 50 feet overall in length; and

(3) built after January 1, 2010.

(b) Vessels Required to Comply.—

(1) A substitute-eligible vessel shall—

(i) be based on professional knowledge and skill obtained through sea service and hands-on training, including training in seamanship, stability, collision prevention, navigation, firefighting and prevention, damage control, personal survival, emergency medical care, emergency drills, and weather forecasting;

(ii) have written stability and loading instructions on file that is at least 50 feet overall in length and is built after July 1, 2013.

(2) A fishing vessel, fish processing vessel, or fish tender vessel shall undergo a major conversion completed after the date the Secretary prescribes an alternate safety compliance program established by the Secretary under section 4308.

§ 4508. Alternate safety compliance program

(a) In General.—The Secretary shall establish an alternate safety compliance program developed in coordination with the commercial fishing industry.

(b) Program Established Under Paragraph (a) May Include Requirements for—

(1) a specific region or fishery (or both); and

(2) any combination of regions or fisheries (or both).

§ 4509. Substitute safety compliance program

(a) In General.—The Secretary shall establish an alternate safety compliance program for substitute-eligible vessels that includes the following requirements:

(1) A substitute-eligible vessel shall be designed by an individual having past experience in fishing vessel operation; and

(2) A fishing vessel, fish processing vessel, or fish tender vessel shall be considered as being in accordance with its design by a marine surveyor of an organization accepted by the Secretary.

(b) A substitute-eligible vessel shall—

(1) Meet a stability test performed by a qualified individual;

(2) Have written stability and loading instructions from a qualified individual that are provided to the owner or operator; and

(3) Be substantially altered without the review and approval of an individual licensed by a State as a naval architect or marine engineer before the beginning of such substantial alteration.

(c) A substitute-eligible vessel shall be subject to a condition survey at least every 5 years, with not more than 3 years between surveys, to the satisfaction of a marine surveyor of an organization accepted by the Secretary.

(d) A substitute-eligible vessel shall undergo an out-of-water survey at least once every 5 years to the satisfaction of a marine surveyor of an organization accepted by the Secretary.

(e) Once every 5 years, and at the time of a substantial alteration to a substitute-eligible vessel, the vessel shall meet the requirements of paragraph (3) as reviewed and updated as necessary.

(f) For the life of a substitute-eligible vessel, the owner of the vessel shall maintain records to demonstrate compliance with this subsection and make such records readily available for inspection by an official authorized to enforce the requirements of paragraph (3).

(g) Compliance.—Section 4507 of this title shall not apply to a substitute-eligible vessel. that complies with the requirements of the program established under this section.

(2) May order the individual in charge of a vessel at any time if the official observes the vessel being used in violation of this chapter or a regulation prescribed under this chapter, or if the official believes creates an especially hazardous situation, to immediately take reasonable steps necessary for the safety of the vessel and its occupants.

§4510. Enhanced substitute safety compliance program

(a) IN GENERAL.—If the report required under section 4509(c) includes a determination that the substitute safety compliance program prescribed under section 4509(a) is not adequate or that additional safety measures are necessary, then the Secretary may establish an enhanced substitute safety compliance program for fishing vessels or fish tender vessels (or both) that are substitute-eligible vessels and that comply with the requirements of section 4509.

(b) REQUIREMENTS.—The enhanced substitute safety compliance program established under this subsection shall include requirements for—

(1) vessel construction;
(2) a vessel stability test;
(3) vessel stability and loading instructions;
(4) an assigned vessel loading mark;
(5) a vessel condition survey at least twice in 5 years, not more than 3 years apart;
(6) an out-of-water vessel survey at least once every 5 years;
(7) maintenance of records to demonstrate compliance with the program, and the availability of such records for inspection; and

(8) such other aspects of vessel safety as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(c) COMPLIANCE.—Section 4507 shall not apply to a substitute-eligible vessel that complies with the requirements of the program established under this section.

§4511. Prohibited acts

(a) A person may not operate a vessel in violation of this chapter or a regulation prescribed under this chapter.

(b) TERMINATION OF UNAUTHORIZED USE OF SAFETY TRAINING AIDS.—If, after 90 days following the elevation to the Chief Acquisition Officer of a request by the Commandant to resolve an issue under section 4507, the dispute remains unresolved, the Commandant shall provide to the appropriate congressional committee or committees with jurisdiction over acquisition, the underlying decision taken by the Chief Acquisition Officer to resolve the issue.

§4512. Termination of operations

An official authorized to enforce this chapter—

(1) may direct the individual in charge of a vessel to which this chapter applies to immediately cease activities necessary for the safety of individuals on board the vessel if the official observes the vessel being operated in an unsafe condition that the official believes creates an especially hazardous condition, including ordering the individual in charge to return the vessel to a mooring and to remain there until the situation creating the hazard is corrected, or ended; and

(2) may order the individual in charge of an unexpected fishing vessel that does not have on board the certificate required by section 4505 to return the vessel to a mooring and to remain there until the vessel is in compliance with such section, unless the vessel is required to comply with such section.

§4513. Penalties

(a) CIVIL PENALTY.—The owner, charterer, managing operator, agent, master, and individual in charge of a vessel to which this chapter applies that is operated in violation of this chapter or a regulation prescribed under this chapter each may be assessed a civil penalty by the Secretary of not more than $5,000, and with respect to which a penalty is assessed under this subsection is liable in rem for the penalty.

(b) CRIMINAL PENALTY.—An individual willfully violating this chapter or a regulation prescribed under this chapter shall be fined not more than $5,000, imprisoned for not more than 1 year, or both.

§4514. Compliance; Secretary's actions

(a) TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS CHAPTER, THE SECRETARY—

(1) shall require the individual in charge of a covered vessel—

(A) to keep a record of equipment maintenance and required inspection and drills;

(B) examine at dockside a subject vessel at least once every 2 years, but may require an exam at dockside every 2 years for certain subject vessels if requested by the owner or operator; and

(C) shall issue a certificate of compliance to a vessel meeting the requirements of this chapter and satisfying the requirements of paragraph (2);

(2) EXEMPTIONS.—The Secretary may exempt a vessel from any part of this chapter if, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary (including regulations on special operating conditions), the Secretary finds that—

(A) good cause exists for granting an exemption; and

(B) the safety of the vessel and those on board will not be adversely affected.

§4515. Regulations; considerations and limitations

In prescribing regulations under this chapter, the Secretary—

(1) shall consider the specialized nature and economics of the operations and the character, design, and construction of the vessel; and

(2) may not require the alteration of a vessel or associated equipment that was constructed or manufactured before the effective date of such regulation.

§4516. Regulations; considerations and limitations

An individual may appeal a decision of the Secretary to the Review Board.

§4517. Fishing safety grants

(a) SAFETY TRAINING GRANTS.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall establish a Fishing Safety Training Grant Program to provide funding to municipalities, port authorities, other appropriate public entities, not-for-profit organizations, and other qualified persons that provide commercial fishing safety training.

(2) USE OF FUNDS.—Entities receiving funds under this section may use such funds—

(A) to conduct fishing vessel safety training for vessel operators and crewmembers that—

(i) in the case of vessel operators, meets the requirements of section 4506; and

(ii) in the case of crewmembers, meets the requirements of sections 4506(b)(1), 4506(b)(3), and 4506(c), and such requirements of section 4506(b)(2) as are appropriate for crewmembers; and

(B) for purchase of safety equipment and training aids for use in such fishing vessel safety training programs.

(b) AWARD CRITERIA.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services, in consultation with and based on criteria established by the Commandant of the Coast Guard, shall award grants under this subsection on a competitive basis.

(c) LIMITATION ON FEDERAL SHARE OF COST.—The Federal share of the cost of any activity carried out with a grant under this subsection shall not exceed 50 percent.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There is authorized to be appropriated $3,000,000 for each fiscal year 2020 and 2021 for activities under this subsection.

(2) recruitment and retention:

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DeFazio) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. Gibbs) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Oregon.

Mr. DeFazio. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may occasion.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to rise today and speak in strong support of H.R. 3409, the Coast Guard Reauthorization Act of 2019. This is genuinely bipartisan legislation which will reauthorize funding for the United States Coast Guard Federal Maritime Commission for fiscal years 2020 and 2021.

The bill also advances other important provisions to help both the economic competitiveness and effective regulation of the U.S. maritime industry.

It is the latest in a long line of major legislation from this committee, reported to the House on a bipartisan basis and underpinning essential functions of government such as, in this case, the United States Coast Guard and the Federal Maritime Commission.

I couldn’t have better partners than I had: my ranking member, SAM GRAVES; the chair of the Subcommittee on Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation, SEAN PATRICK MALONEY; and the ranking subcommittee member, Representative BOB GIBBS. They worked hard on this legislation, and I am proud to continue to support this bipartisan legislation which will reauthorize the Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation Act of 2019. This is genuinely bipartisan legislation which will reauthorize funding for the United States Coast Guard Federal Maritime Commission for fiscal years 2020 and 2021.

We have also worked with other members of the committee on both sides of the aisle and the House to include provisions that address concerns raised by them or their constituents.

We all know that, over the last few years, the Coast Guard budgets have been inadequate, mostly by a byproduct of mandatory cuts imposed by the so-called Budget Control Act. This inadequate funding has left the Coast Guard, as Admiral Schultz has said, at a tipping point. This legislation, at long last, begins to reverse that downward spiral.

Mr. Speaker, there is $11 billion for the Coast Guard’s discretionary budget for fiscal years 2020 and 2021. This tracks the recently increased appropriations of the last 2 fiscal years and builds in a percent inflation adjustment to arrive at the highest authorized funding levels for the Coast Guard in recent memory.

Is that totally adequate? No, it isn’t. But it is at least incremental progress in a time where we aren’t seeing a lot of progress on a lot of things these days.

I am particularly pleased that the top-line numbers for procurement, acquisitions, and improvement have been pushed to $2.8 billion. That means the Coast Guard should be able to maintain its ongoing recapitalization programs including the critically important offshore patrol cutter; the new fleet of polar security cutters, which will be absolutely vital to deal particularly with the opening of the Northwest Passage; and, also, to continue critical support for our assets and activities in Antarctica.

It wasn’t a great year for the Coast Guard when we had the stupid government shutdown. They were continuing to carry out their critical homeland security duties in addition to their daily lifesaving duties and their drug interdiction duties, many in a high-risk profession, and yet they weren’t being paid.

They were escorting the subs out of Bremerton. The sailors were being paid. The Coast Guard, which was providing critical surface support and protection, was not being paid.

I had originally included in this legislation provisions to assure that the Coast Guard would be paid in case of another government shutdown. Unfortunately, the very stupid budget rules we have around here say that we will pretend that they will never be paid—and if that is the case, then we won’t have a Coast Guard anymore—therefore, to mandatorily pay them during a government shutdown would count as new deficit, like we are never going to pay them.

It is a pretty dumb rule, but those concerns were raised by people above my pay grade, and I reluctantly removed the provision from the bill. I am going to continue to support this provision as we move forward through the appropriations process and elsewhere. I will look for any opportunity I can to recognize the service of the Coast Guard.

There is also, in this bill, a modest $1.4 million increase in the budget of the Federal Maritime Commission. This will help them implement the most extensive package of amendments to the Ocean Shipping Reform Act since 1998, particularly focusing on anti-trust oversight of foreign-flag commercial carrier alliances that transport nearly 98 percent of U.S. foreign commerce.

Our overreliance on foreign-flag carriers to move the commerce of the United States is a growing liability and, yet, unintended consequence of our trade policies. Only now are we beginning to recognize and grapple with the implications of this dependence on our national and economic security.

The increased authorized funding of $29 million for the operating budget should provide them with the additional resources they need to actually be a cop on the beat and ensure foreign carriers abide by fair shipping practices and compliance with all U.S. anti-trust requirements.

I am also pleased with provisions that would boost coastwise trades and, potentially, our shipbuilding industry.

We are reaffirming, yet again, long-term support for the Jones Act, including clarifications as to how the Jones Act applies to maritime transportation and heavy-lift activities that occur offshore.

I believe the language in this bill strikes a sensible path forward. I look forward to resolving any outstanding questions and concerns in conference with the United States Senate.

Just as important, the bill provides new authorities to address new or emerging ocean technologies, including unmanned systems, to ensure Coast Guard has enough competence to either use, or regulate the use of, said systems; amendments to build on progress made last Congress to improve maritime safety requirements; and it strengthens standards to prevent discrimination, sexual harassment and promote gender equity in the Coast Guard at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy and across the U.S. maritime industry.

This is vital legislation to the Coast Guard, and the maritime shipyard workers across this country. Again, I want to thank my colleagues.
Mr. Speaker, I urge an “aye” vote, and I reserve the balance of my time.

HON. PETER DEFAZIO
Chairman, Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

Mr. CHAIRMAN DEFAZIO: I write to you regarding H.R. 3409, the “Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2019.”

H.R. 3409 contains provisions that fall within the jurisdiction of the Committee on Homeland Security. I recognize and appreciate your desire to bring this legislation before the House in an expeditious manner and, accordingly, seek a supplemental referral of the bill. However, agreeing to waive consideration of this bill should not be construed as the Committee on Homeland Security waiving, altering, or otherwise affecting its jurisdiction over subject matters contained in the bill which fall within its Rule X jurisdiction.

Further, I request your support for the appointment of Homeland Security conference during any House-Senate conference convened on this or similar legislation. I also ask that a copy of this letter and your response be included in the legislative report on H.R. 3409 and in the Congressional Record during floor consideration of this bill.

I look forward to working with you as we prepare to pass this important legislation.

Sincerely,

BENNIE G. THOMPSON, Chairman
House of Representatives, Committee on Homeland Security, Washington, DC.

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON
Chairman, Committee on Homeland Security, U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 3409 represents the Coast Guard Reauthorization Act of 2019, which was ordered to be reported out of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure on June 26, 2019. I appreciate your willingness to work cooperatively on this legislation.

I acknowledge that by foregoing a sequential referral on H.R. 3409, the Committee on Homeland Security does not waive any future jurisdictional claims to provisions in this or similar legislation. In addition, should a conference on the bill be necessary, I would support your effort to seek appointment of an appropriate number of conferees to any House-Senate conference involving provisions with which the Committee on Homeland Security has a valid jurisdictional claim.

I appreciate your cooperation regarding this legislation, and I will ensure that our exchange of letters is included in the Congressional Record during floor consideration of H.R. 3409.

Sincerely,

PETER A. DEFAZIO, Chair

Mr. GIBBS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 3409 represents the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure’s commitment to the men and women serving in the Coast Guard and lays the groundwork for maintaining their mission capability in the future.

It also represents the bipartisan spirit that so often falls below the radar on Capitol Hill. At a time when the issues dominating the headlines fuel political fighting, it is refreshing to work with colleagues from both sides of the aisle. H.R. 3409 recognizes that ports and coastal security, maritime safety, and drug interdiction are not Republican or Democrat issues. This Coast Guard authorization addresses priorities important to both East and West Coasts, the inland river system, and the Great Lakes. All these regions are well-represented by the chairs and ranking members of the committee and subcommittee.

The Coast Guard plays an important and unique role in national security and maritime safety. It is a critical component in carrying out drug interdiction efforts, keeping our ports and coast safe, and combating icebreaking operations. H.R. 3409, the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2019, helps the Coast Guard better perform their missions and encourages the use of cutting-edge technology to improve operations. Utilizing drone technology and upgrading computer systems will help the Coast Guard personnel complete their missions.

I am also proud of the commitment made to the Great Lakes in this bill. Working with Congressman MIKE GALAGHER of Wisconsin, we emphasized the economic importance of the Great Lakes and the necessity for new, dedicated icebreakers on the lakes to keep commerce moving.

It is uncommon to see that the provisions in this bill to ensure the Coastguarders were paid during lapses in appropriations were stripped from the bill. Nonetheless, I commend Chairman DEFAZIO and the 186 cosponsors of the bill, and the Bipartisan Group for working diligently toward a bipartisan fashion to give the Coast Guard the resources it needs to accomplish its missions.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this bill, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Florida (Ms. MUCARSEL-POWELL).

Ms. MUCARSEL-POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this bill which incorporates the Coast Guard Shore Infrastructure Improvement Act that I introduced with Representative GARRET GRAVES of Louisiana. It directs the Commandant of the Coast Guard to tackle the maintenance backlog of its shore infrastructure.

The Coast Guard currently has a $2.6 billion project backlog, and 25 percent of its assets have exceeded their service lives.

We must rebuild our Coast Guard in a strategic way, one that accounts for stronger storms that will only worsen with climate change.

This bill will ensure that the Coast Guard has the processes in place to carry out crucial shore infrastructure repairs. Coastlines often spend their personal time working on infrastructure improvements. It is unacceptable that they have to sacrifice their rest time and family time to repair crumbling buildings.

Passing this bill will ensure America’s security, the success of our Coast Guard, and the well-being of our servicemembers.

Mr. GIBBS. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. GRAVES), who is the ranking member of the full Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, the Coast Guard is one of the Nation’s five armed services, and this bipartisan bill is going to provide the resources to help them carry out their vital missions more effectively. These missions are critical to ensuring maritime safety, stopping the flow of illegal drugs, and maintaining our country’s borders, enforcing U.S. laws at sea, and protecting our Nation’s borders.

In order to carry out the tens of thousands of operations each year, the Coast Guard must also replace and modernize their asset fleet from icebreakers to helicopters. This bill is going to help them do that.

This legislation also takes steps necessary to provide the men and women of the Coast Guard, as has been pointed out by my colleagues, with the same benefits received by other servicemembers.

I agree with the chairman on the bipartisan nature of this bill and how it was put together. I commend Chairman DEFAZIO and Subcommittee Chairman MALONEY, and Subcommittee Ranking Member GIBBS for working diligently and coming up with a very good piece of legislation and a very good bipartisan agreement that we have here today.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. THOMPSON), who is the chairman of the Committee on Homeland Security.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Oregon for yielding me time.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 3409. I am glad to have worked with Chairman DEFAZIO to integrate major provisions from legislation that authorized these long-overdue reforms at the Coast Guard Academy.

Our armed services should reflect the diverse fabric of this Nation. Unfortunately, the Coast Guard Academy has struggled to attract and retain a diverse student body and faculty. The absence of diverse voices at the Coast Guard Academy has contributed to what many acknowledge as a hostile environment for cadets and faculty with diverse backgrounds punctuated by hateful incidents. I have engaged with the Commandant regarding conditions at the academy and, to his credit, he is open to change. To that end, H.R. 3409 directs the Commandant to secure the services of outside experts to carry out an independent, top-to-bottom review of conditions at the academy with an eye to issuing recommendations to foster a more inclusive and supportive environment.

Additionally, the independent body would be directed to assess the academy’s admissions processes and consider the potential benefits of congressional nominations to increase diversity. The true test for the Coast Guard will come when recommendations are issued. At that point it will be clear if, as an organization, the Coast Guard is willing to abandon its historically insular ways and embrace real reform.

Other noteworthy provisions of my legislation reflected here include requiring a Coast Guard strategy to increase the representation of cadets, faculty, and staff from diverse backgrounds, and authorizing both the Academy Minority Outreach Team Program and the College Student Pre-Commissioning Initiative.

I am pleased that the bill also includes language authored by Congressman RICHMOND to enhance the Coast Guard’s capacity to combat and defend against cyber threats.

Before I close, I would like to thank Chairman DEFAZIO, Chairman CUMMINGS and their staffs, particularly Dave Jansen on the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee staff, for partnering with me and my staff to put the academy on a positive trajectory.

Mr. GIBBS. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from Puerto Rico (Miss GONZÁLEZ-COLOM).

Miss GONZÁLEZ-COLOM of Puerto Rico. Mr. Speaker, I thank Chairman DEFAZIO and Ranking Member GRAVES for bringing this important bill to the floor. I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 3409, the Coast Guard Authorization Act.

The men and women who protect our seas; they are our brave men and women who protect our shores and our coastal communities.

This comprehensive bill authorizes critical funding to upgrade and modernize our fleets and improve offshore navigation safety. It requires a report on the effects of climate change and directs the use of drone installations, directs the use of drone technology for potential use to support missions and operations, and orders the Commandant of the Coast Guard to brief Congress on the conditions need for Coast Guard housing.

Mr. Speaker, I thank Chairman DEFAZIO and Ranking Member GRAVES for bringing this important bill to the floor and urge my colleagues to support H.R. 3409, the Coast Guard Authorization Act. We owe our brave men and women who protect our seas.

Mr. GIBBS. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. GRAVES).

Mr. GRAVES of Louisiana. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman from Ohio, our ranking member of the subcommittee, for all of his work on this. I want to thank Congressman SEAN PATRICK MALONEY from New York, our chairman; Chairman DeFazio and the ranking member of the full committee; SAM GRAVES, for all their work on this.

Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that is a bipartisan bill, and I do appreciate everyone working together to make sure that we are doing the right thing.

The Coast Guard, in many cases, is not held to the level of regard and respect that they deserve.

Let’s think about all of the things that the Coast Guard is responsible for:

- Borders; defense readiness; port and coastal security issues; search and rescue; marine safety; maintaining aids to navigation; icebreaking; marine environmental protection; oil spill prevention and response; and many other things.

Mr. Speaker, I often refer to them as the Swiss Army knife of the Federal Government. They have an incredibly broad jurisdiction. These are men and women who are serving their Nation on a daily basis.

I want to thank all of the leaders of this committee for the work in the committee, where we took the Coast Guard Parity Act and added it to this bill. The Coast Guard Parity Act recognized that the men and women of the Coast Guard were treated differently from all of the other armed services whenever the Federal Government goes into a shutdown.

Mr. Speaker, when the government shuts down, it is because Congress fails to do its job and work in an administration. The men and women in the Coast Guard do not deserve to be punished.

There is something that is really important to point out: the men and women of the Coast Guard do not deserve to be punished.

We need to address this issue. Let me say it again: the men and women of the Coast Guard are not responsible for the Federal Government and they should not be penalized for it either. I hope that we can continue to work together to solve this.

But going back, Mr. Speaker, the Coast Guard does an incredible job in an incredibly broad mission. This bill helps to recapitalize an antiquated network or system of equipment, antiquated vessels that have lasted well beyond their intended service life. It helps to ensure that we can authorize the appropriate vessels. It is the national security cutter, the offshore patrol cutter, the fast response cutter, and the helos and winged aircraft that the men and women of the Coast Guard depend on on a daily basis.

We know that the other side—the drug traffickers and the alien smugglers and others—are using new and updated technology. We need to make sure that we continue to provide the men and women of the Coast Guard with the upper hand with the best tech and the best equipment to deal with their daily mission of protecting our Nation and enforcing all laws on the seas of the United States.
Mr. Speaker, again, I want to thank Mr. DeFazio, Mr. Graves, Mr. Gibbs, and Mr. Maloney for all of the work that they have done to ensure that this bill moves forward. It is a bipartisan bill, and I urge adoption.

Mr. Speaker, this is a very strong bipartisan bill. We need to support the efforts of our men and women out there who are doing the daily work to protect this country, the Coast Guard.

I urge my colleagues to support this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DeFazio. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, just expanding a little bit on the former speaker, Representatives Graves of Louisiana, I would recommend. In the video that became available last week of the Coast Guard boarding a semi-submersible smuggling drugs. It is an extraordinary video and extraordinary and precarious undertakings by the Coast Guard, jumping from a Zodiac onto the top of this vessel, pounding on the hatch to get the people to open the hatch and surrender.

And again, just reiterating what I said earlier, what they do with drug interdiction far exceeds all of the other Federal agencies combined, and yet they weren’t paid during the shutdown doing these dangerous activities, and what they do for Homeland Security, what they do on a daily basis to provide search and rescue activities, keep our mariners safe and maritime safety inspections.

So again, I regret that the technicalities around here didn’t allow us to move forward at this time, but I am determined that we will do that.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to raise another issue, and I would hope that the Coast Guard is listened to.

I am very concerned. The largest acquisition program—I mentioned earlier about the acquisition budget for recapitalization—is the Offshore Patrol Cutter. Twice now, Representatives and Senators from Florida have attempted to end-run the contracting process. They have a shipyard that claims, that because of the hurricane, they didn’t underbid the contract.

No, no, no. They didn’t. They didn’t. But they need hundreds of millions of dollars more to do the contract without going through a bidding process, without any scrutiny, and without any information being provided to this committee justifying those increases.

In fact, they are saying: Well, we can’t get workers because of the hurricane; it is just impossible. Well, we are rebuilding Tyndall Air Force Base. Armed Services hasn’t heard anything about that.

And then, also, they say: Well, it is going to take 1.3 million more man-hours.

Well, what does that have to do with not being able to get skilled labor? The allegations by some others in the industry are that they underbid the contract, and now they are trying to come up with a rationale.

It is further disturbing that a former Commandant of the Coast Guard runs this organization. And I am very concerned that the Coast Guard is now contemplating asking Homeland Security to invoke a law they have never used before, claiming national security to renegotiate between the current Commandant of the Coast Guard and the past Commandant of the Coast Guard running this shipyard the terms of this contract.

That is not right. It doesn’t protect the taxpayers. It doesn’t protect the contracting process. I am going to be pushing very, very hard on this issue.

That said, there are many meritorious things in this bill, and I will yield back the balance of my time after recognizing again the vote by the House of Representatives. Hopefully, the Senate won’t take 1½ years to get the bill done this time, so actually it will be a 2-year authorization instead of a 2-year-1-year authorization.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. Jackson Lee. Mr. Speaker, as a senior member of the House Committees on the Judiciary, Homeland Security, and Budget, I am in strong support of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2019.”

H.R. 3409 is bipartisan legislation that reauthorizes appropriations for the Coast Guard and Federal Maritime Commission through the 2021 Fiscal Year.

This legislation contains improvements to promote the U.S. maritime industry and offshore renewable energy development, authorization of funding for new heavy ice breakers, and provisions to increase diversity at the United States Coast Guard Academy.

Additionally, this legislation will enhance recruitment and retention of merchant vessels, along with advancing new opportunities to strengthen the competitiveness of the U.S. maritime and shipbuilding industries.

Earlier this year the Department of Homeland Security, which oversees the United States Coast Guard, was adversely affected by the Trump Administration’s government shutdown.

The shutdown affected the pay of over 40,000 active duty Coast Guard members, 6,000 reservists, and 8,500 civilian employees.

It took 35 days for Congress and the White House to agree on a FY 2019 funding bill.

During this time the brave men and women of the Coast Guard endured the cold winter weather while conducting life-saving rescues, drug interdiction operations, environmental protection missions, and coastal security operations.

This bill will guarantee that the Coast Guard’s active duty and civilian personnel are paid in the event of another federal government shutdown.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting H.R. 1649 “Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2019” in order to ensure that the Coast Guard has all of the resources required to carry out their missions and maintain safety along our coastal borders.

Mr. Seán Patrick Maloney of New York. Mr. Speaker, I would like to express my support for the Coast Guard Authorization Act and the inclusive and bipartisan agreement that the Members of the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee reached.

The robust funding for the Coast Guard in this 2-year authorization is indicative of this body’s strong support for the men and women serving in the Coast Guard and the important mission they undertake. I recently visited our Colleges in District 24 to see the professionalism and skills on full display—they make the impossible look routine on a daily basis.

From drug interdictions to search and rescue, the Coast Guard continues to prove its effectiveness while operating with limited resources. The passage of this bill sends the message that every dollar is a dollar well spent with respect to the U.S. Coast Guard.

This important legislation includes provisions that will further strengthen the Coast Guard by expanding the use of unmanned systems and integrating new and existing technologies developed both inside and outside of the service.

I am pleased that the bill contains a number of provisions aimed at increasing cultural competence in the Coast Guard and at the Coast Guard Academy. The world will only realize its full potential once it instills a culture that welcomes all people regardless of gender, race, or sexual orientation.

The bill also includes several provisions aimed to bolster the U.S. maritime industry. By clarifying certain requirements of domestic vessels, it sends a strong signal of support for the Jones Act and our coastwise maritime industry. By clarifying cargo preference requirements, we begin to address losses in the internationally trading U.S. fleet and rebuild the American mariner base.

The bill also contains important protections for the Hudson River in my district and will ensure this natural treasure is preserved for future generations to come.

I am proud to be one of the original sponsors of this important legislation and I look forward to ensuring that this important legislation is signed into law.

The Speaker pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DeFazio) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3409, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3409, as amended, was agreed to.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

DISCLOSING AID SPENT TO ENSURE RELIEF ACT

Mr. DeFazio. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1984) to amend chapter 11 of title 46, United States Code, to require the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to annually submit to Congress a report on all disaster-related assistance provided by the Federal Government.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.
The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 1984

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Disclosing Aid Spent to Ensure Relief Act’’ or the “DISASTER Act’’.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress finds the following:

(1) At a time of constrained budgets, it is fiscally prudent to understand the amount and the scope of the Federal Government’s involvement in providing disaster-related assistance to communities in need.

(2) The Federal Government does not provide a single, publicly available estimate of the amount it is spending on disaster-related assistance.

(3) Because recovery is a long-term process, providing disaster-related assistance requires significant Federal resources to support a multi-agency, multi-year restoration of infrastructure and commerce in affected communities.

(4) Understanding the expenditures of individual Federal agencies for disaster-related assistance will help better inform the congressional appropriations process, as well as presidential budget requests.

(5) Knowledge about disaster-related expenses will illustrate opportunities for reducing these expenses through efforts to reduce vulnerabilities to future natural disasters.

SEC. 3. PURPOSE.

The purpose of this Act is to require the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to annually compile and Budget to annually submit to Congress a report on all disaster-related assistance provided by the Federal Government.

SEC. 4. REPORTING OF DISASTER-RELATED ASSISTANCE.

(a) In General.—Chapter 11 of title 31, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

“(k) Reporting of disaster-related assistance.

“(a) In general.—On the same day that the President makes the annual budget submission to the Congress under section 1105(a) for a fiscal year, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall submit to Congress a report on Federal disaster-related assistance obligations during the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which the annual budget submission is made. Disaster-related assistance encompasses Federal obligations related to disaster response, recovery, and mitigation efforts, as well as administrative costs associated with these activities, including spending by the following agencies and programs:

“(1) Department of Agriculture:

“(5) Disaster-related assistance by disaster type.

“(6) Response and recovery spending.

“(7) Mitigation spending.

“(8) Spending in the form of loans.

“(9) Spending in the form of grants.

“(10) Availability of Report.—The report shall be made publicly available on the website of the Office of Management and Budget and should be searchable, sortable and downloadable.’’.

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of chapters for chapter 11 of title 31, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new item:

“(1127. Reporting of disaster-related assistance.

SEC. 5. EFFECTIVE DATE.

The reporting requirement under the amendment made by section 3(a) shall take effect with the budget submission of the President for fiscal year 2022.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon for 20 minutes?

Mr. GRAVES. I object to the rule, the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO) and the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. GRAVES) each will control 20 minutes. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Oregon.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 1984.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1984, the Disclosing Aid Spent to Ensure Relief, or DISASTER Act, introduced by the gentleman from California (Mr. PETERS).

In 2018 alone, there were 14 natural disasters that each resulted in more than $1 billion in losses. Already in 2019, the President has granted over 50 major disaster emergency or fire management declarations under the authorities of the Stafford Act.

While insurance partially covers the cost of disaster recovery, the Federal Government, along with State, local, Tribal, and territorial partners, is spending billions of dollars annually to respond to and recover from these events across more than three dozen departments and agencies. That results in the fact that there is no clear and consolidated information regarding Federal spending on disasters.

The DISASTER Act would change that by requiring the Office of Management and Budget to annually compile and publicly release a report on disaster-related spending across the Federal Government.

I thank the gentleman from California (Mr. PETERS) for introducing this bill so that we can obtain, in the future, this vital consolidated information and have it also be available to taxpayers of the United States.
Mr. Speaker, I urge all Members to support this commonsense measure. It will do more to shed light on how limited taxpayer resources are being spent. Doing so will help better inform how we prioritize policies and spending to drive down disaster-related expenditures in the future and more effectively provide relief.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly support this bill. I urge my colleagues to join me in support, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 1984, the DISASTER Act, is a bipartisan piece of legislation that requires the Federal agencies across the government to report on how much they simply spend on disasters.

I want to thank the gentleman from California (Mr. PETERS) and the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. MEADOWS) for their work on this legislation.

Mr. Speaker, you would think that we would know how much the Federal Government spends, actually spends, on disasters. We have estimates, but we simply don't know what the actual costs are across the Federal Government.

This bill is going to help us get some real numbers. It is going to help us increase transparency for the taxpayer. It is going to help Congress make some much better-informed decisions.

Mr. Speaker, I do support this legislation. I would encourage my colleagues to do the same, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from California (Mr. PETERS), the author of this excellent legislation.

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO) for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, as we in California and the West prepare for more scorching wildfires, the Southeast is in the heart of hurricane season, and the Midwest is still drying out from historic flooding. Across the country, natural disasters have taken the lives of loved ones, destroyed livelihoods, and caused irreparable damage to communities and businesses.

Disasters are becoming larger, more dangerous, and frequent. And significantly more expensive. According to the Federal Emergency Management Agency, there have been more than 2,800 federally declared disasters since 2000, totaling hundreds of billions of dollars in relief aid.

However, when the Federal Government helps communities recover from these disasters, it does not calculate one comprehensive number of how much we spend on disasters per year. Those funds could come from 29 different agencies. This exacerbates delays in disaster recovery and hinders future planning and future accountability.

That is why I introduced the bipartisan Disclosing Aid Spent to Ensure Relief, or DISASTER Act with Representative MARK MEADOWS of North Carolina.

This transparency bill is common sense. It requires the Office of Management and Budget, OMB, to publish an annual total of disaster-related assistance categorized by disaster type, location, and purpose.

With this and other smart reforms Congress is considering today, taxpayers will know where their dollars are going, and the Federal Government can be a better steward of those resources and will be better able to plan for the next disasters.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to pass this legislation today before the next big natural disaster hits.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentlewoman from Puerto Rico (Miss GONZÁLEZ-COLON).

Miss GONZÁLEZ-COLON of Puerto Rico. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I want to thank Representative PETERS and Ranking Member MEADOWS of the Subcommittee on Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management for working on this critical legislation.

As coming from one of those places that actually was impacted by a hurricane, I think this is one of the best ways to be accountable for the money that has been approved. I am a cosponsor of H.R. 1984, the DISASTER Act, which requires the Office of Management and Budget to submit an annual report to Congress on all disaster-related assistance provided by the Federal Government. The report must include all Federal obligations related to disaster response recovery, mitigation efforts, and administrative costs associated with these activities for specified agencies and programs.

This will let us know how much money has been allocated to many jurisdictions across the different Federal agencies, so having this tool will help us understand how much in funds have been approved and where that money is going.

To date, Puerto Rico has been appropriated $42 billion in disaster funding; $20.6 billion has been obligated; and only $13.6 billion has been outlaid or reached the disaster areas.

Having this information in a single report will help Congress and the public better understand the real cost of natural disasters and the benefits of investing in mitigation and adaptation efforts as well.

This legislation will also provide transparency and accountability when it comes to disaster relief costs. That is the reason I am a proud cosponsor.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all of my colleagues to support this legislation. I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, again, you would think that we would have a better idea of what we actually spend on disasters. We obviously don't. This legislation is going to provide the transparency.

Mr. Speaker, I think it is a good piece of legislation. I urge my colleagues to support it, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all of my colleagues to support this excellent legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.R. 1984, the Disclosing Aid Spent to Ensure Relief Act', or "DISASTER Act", which directs the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to submit to Congress a report on all disaster-related assistance provided by the Federal Government.

Mr. Speaker, this legislation is not only a reasonable exercise of Congress' power of oversight but it is also fiscally prudent.

To understand the scope of disaster-related spending and expenditures by the Federal Government, Congress must have a comprehensive understanding of the various multi-agency and multiyear efforts in helping disaster-stricken areas recover.

Additionally, having estimates of these expenditures for individual Federal agencies will also help inform the congressional appropriations process as well as presidential budget requests.

Mr. Speaker, knowledge about disaster-related expenses will also yield opportunities for reducing these expenses through mitigative and preventative efforts.

Because transparency and open government are important, it is essential that Congress has a single, publicly available estimate of spending on disaster-related assistance.

The American people deserve to know how their tax dollars are being spent and how these dollars are being used to help them when disaster strikes.

This report would also be crucial in helping educate the public about the numerous agencies involved in disaster relief efforts.

While many would immediately recognize agencies such as FEMA and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, less conspicuous agencies such as NOAA, EPA, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, play a crucial role in disaster relief.

In short, H.R. 1984 will better inform both Congress and the public about what the Federal Government is doing to help those affected by disaster.

I strongly urge all members to support this necessary and vital legislation.
RESTORE THE HARMONY WAY BRIDGE ACT

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 3245) to transfer a bridge over the Wabash River to the New Harmony River Bridge Authority and the New Harmony and Wabash River Bridge Authority, and for other purposes.

The Speaker pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

The Speaker pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DeFazio) and the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Rodney Davis) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Oregon.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. DeFazio. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 3245.

The Speaker pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

Mr. DeFazio. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for helping make this bill a bipartisan success, and I rise in support of H.R. 3245.

I really want to thank my colleagues, the ranking member of the committee, Mr. Graves, and also our other colleague, my former boss, Congressman John Shimkus, who allowed me to work on this project as one of his staff members back in the early 2000s.

To be able to stand on the House floor and see this solution be put forth by my other colleague from Indiana (Mr. Bucshon), with the support of Mr. Shimkus, Mr. Graves, and the Illinois and Indiana delegations in a very bipartisan way for me to be able to manage this bill today.

Who would have thought that two kids from Christian County, Illinois, would one day stand here on the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives and have a bill that is going to help both the constituents of Indiana and Illinois, but that is exactly where we are today with my good friend Mr. Bucshon, who grew up about 8 miles from where I grew up.

This bill is a long time coming. It is going to convey the Harmony Way Bridge from the Federal Government to the designated entities within the States of Illinois and Indiana. This is what the States of Illinois and Indiana have asked us for.

The bridge is currently managed by the White County Bridge Commission, which was created by Federal legislation in 1941. In 2012, this bridge was closed because of the inability of that commission to support its safety measures and to support the improvements that were necessary.

By conveying this bridge and repealing the 1941 legislation, the two States are going to work together for a new vision, which is a very important link between Illinois and Indiana as it crosses the Wabash River.

A companion bill has already been introduced by the four Senators from Illinois and Indiana. Last week, that bill, S. 1833, was approved by unanimous consent. Additionally, the House passed a similar bill last Congress by unanimous consent.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 3245 and allow the States of Illinois and Indiana, and the community residents surrounding the Harmony Way Bridge, to determine the future of the bridge.

Mr. Rodney Davis of Illinois.

Madam Speaker, again, I rise in support of H.R. 3245, and I thank Representative Bucshon for his hard work on this important issue.

H.R. 3245 is going to enable entities within the States of Illinois and Indiana to chart a whole new course for the Harmony Way Bridge, which is closed currently.

The bridge is not only a critical link between these States, but it is also representative of that strong bond between the people of Illinois and Indiana. That connection is further demonstrated by the fact that all members of the Indiana and Illinois delegations cosponsored this bill.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 3245.

Mr. Rodney Davis of Illinois.

Madam Speaker, again, this is a bipartisan success story and a bistate success story.

Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. Pence).

Mr. Pence. Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 3245, legislation sponsored by my colleague, friend, and fellow Hoosier, Dr. Larry Bucshon.

The Harmony Way Bridge connects Indiana to Illinois over the Wabash River. The bridge currently managed by the White County Bridge Commission, which was created by Federal legislation in 1941.

The bridge closed in 2012 due to structural deficiencies, and current Federal law blocks local officials from taking action to repair the bridge.

I am proud to join my colleagues in both the Indiana and Illinois delegations as a cosponsor on this critical legislation.

H.R. 3245 would allow the two States to determine the future of the bridge.

Madam Speaker, supporting this bill is common sense.

A companion bill, S. 1833, was introduced by the four Senators from Indiana and Illinois and passed by unanimous consent.

Last year, the House passed a similar bill overwhelmingly. In addition, both Indiana and Illinois created State commissions to manage the bridge, and it is now our responsibility to complete the transfer.

I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 3245 and allow the States of Illinois and Indiana, and the community residents surrounding the Harmony Way Bridge, to determine the future of this treasured landmark.

Mr. Rodney Davis of Illinois.

Madam Speaker, again, I am proud to stand here next to my good friend Dr. Bucshon, who was born in my hometown of Taylorville, Illinois, raised in Kincaid, Illinois, and went on to become a heart surgeon.

I don’t know if I would trust him operating on me, but, hey, I know a lot of patients in Indiana did.
July 24, 2019
CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — HOUSE
H7291

This is a guy who promised to get things done. This project, I can tell you firsthand, was not moving anywhere until Mr. BUCHON took the lead. This is why I am proud to be able to recognize him now and thank him very much for his support of this bill.

Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUCHON).

Mr. BUCHON. Madam Speaker, it is an honor to rise today in support of H.R. 3245, the Restore the Harmony Way Bridge Act.

The Harmony Way Bridge is a local landmark and was an engineering marvel when it opened in 1930. Throughout the 20th century, the bridge connected Posey County, Indiana, and White County, Illinois, creating an access point for commerce and recreation for Hoosiers from the New Harmony and surrounding communities, as well as those from White County, Illinois.

Unfortunately, in 2012, the bridge was permanently closed due to safety concerns related to structural issues. While the community has pushed to refurbish and reopen the bridge, until now, Federal law has stood in the way.

That is why the Restore the Harmony Way Bridge Act is important. It will convey the bridge to the Indiana and Illinois bridge authorities and remove the Federal conditions set out on the bridge.

I am glad to see this bill on the floor today. I want to give thanks to all those who have helped in the effort. First, I thank Susie Davis, from my staff, for her work on this bill. I thank Lora Arneberg from the New Harmony, Indiana, community, whose hard work has been invaluable in promoting the bridge restoration.

I also thank Indiana State Senator Jim Tomes and State Representative Wendy McNamara for their efforts at the State level.

Furthermore, I thank my colleagues: Congressman SHIMKUS, Indiana Senators BRAUN and YOUNG, Illinois Senators DURBIN and DUCKWORTH, and all the members of the Indiana and Illinois House delegations, who are all cosponsors of this bill, for helping me lead this effort in Congress and finally solving this problem.

The Restore the Harmony Way Bridge Act will breathe life once more into the Harmony Way Bridge.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me on this monumental occasion and support this bill.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I have no further speakers, and I reserve the balance of my time to close.

Mr. RODNEZ DAVIS of Illinois.

Madam Speaker, I am prepared to close. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, again, this is a bipartisan success story. This is an issue so many of us have worked hard on together. To get a bill pass today with the support of Republicans and Democrats is something that I can tell you a few years ago I didn’t think would happen.

This is an opportunity, too, for me, again, to thank the hardworking people in Congressman Shimkus’ office.

I remember learning about this project from my fellow staffer who lived right near the New Harmony Way Bridge, Holly Healy, who gave me the lowdown on why it was important to pass this legislation. That was back in 2003.

I am proud to thank Holly today for her dedication and the hard work that she has done on behalf of Congressman Shimkus over the years. Today is the day we finally get to make this happen so that bridge can be repaired and that bridge can be reopened.

Madam Speaker, I urge a “yea” vote on this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I urge that the House do support and pass this legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. TURAS of California). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DeFazio) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3245.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

POST-DISASTER ASSISTANCE ONLINE ACCOUNTABILITY ACT

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1307) to provide for an online repository for certain reporting requirements for recipients of Federal disaster assistance, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 1307
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Post-Disaster Assistance Online Accountability Act”.

SEC. 2. SUBPAGE FOR TRANSPARENCY OF DISASTER ASSISTANCE.

(a) ESTABLISHMENT OF REPOSITORY FOR REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—The Director of the Office of Management and Budget, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Administrator of Federal Emergency Management, shall establish a subpage within the website established under section 2 of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006 (31 U.S.C. 6101 note) to publish the information required to be made available to the public under this section.

(b) SUBMISSION OF INFORMATION BY FEDERAL AGENCIES.—Not later than 30 days after the end of a calendar quarter, each covered Federal agency that made disaster assistance available to an eligible recipient during such quarter shall, in coordination with the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, make available to the public on the subpage established under subsection (a) the information described in subsection (c), and ensure that any data asset of the agency is machine-readable.

(c) INFORMATION REQUIRED.—The information described in this subsection is, with respect to disaster assistance provided by the agency during such quarter:

(1) the total amount of disaster assistance provided by the agency during such quarter;

(2) the amount of disaster assistance provided by the agency that was expended, obligated, or used, including—

(A) the name of the project or activity;

(B) a description of the project or activity;

(C) an evaluation of the completion status of the project or activity;

(D) any award identification number assigned to the project;

(E) any other information the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Director, if necessary for purposes of transparency, may require.

(3) the following information, to the extent that the agency has data on such information:

(A) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter;

(B) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(C) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(D) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(E) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(F) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(G) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(H) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(4) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter;

(5) any assistance provided by the agency during such quarter that is not currently available to an eligible recipient during such quarter.

SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

In this Act, the following definitions apply:

(1) COVERED FEDERAL AGENCY.—The term “covered Federal agency” means—

(A) any agency providing assistance under title I of the Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq.);

(B) the Small Business Administration;

(C) any agency providing assistance under title II of the Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5122 et seq.);

(D) any agency providing assistance under title III of the Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5123 et seq.);

(E) the Department of Housing and Urban Development;

(F) the Federal Emergency Management Agency; and

(G) any other Federal agency that the Director determines to be a covered Federal agency.

(2) ELIGIBLE RECIPIENT.—The term “eligible recipient” means—

(A) any person who is eligible to receive disaster assistance provided by a covered Federal agency under this Act;

(B) any person who is eligible to receive disaster assistance provided by a covered Federal agency under this Act and who is not entitled to receive disaster assistance provided by a covered Federal agency under any other provision of law; or

(C) any other person the Administrator of the Department of Housing and Urban Development determines to be an eligible recipient.

(3) ANNUAL REPORT.—The term “annual report” means—

(A) the most recent annual report to the Congress pursuant to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 4001 et seq.); and

(B) any other annual report the Administrator of the Department of Housing and Urban Development determines to be an annual report.

(4) FEDERAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM.—The term “Federal flood insurance program” means—

(A) any program established under section 2001 of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 4001 et seq.); and

(B) any other Federal flood insurance program the Administrator of the Department of Housing and Urban Development determines to be a Federal flood insurance program.
Madam Speaker, I rise in support of this measure sponsored and introduced by the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. ROUZER). The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. GRAVES) each will control 20 minutes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 1307.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1307, the Post-Disaster Assistance Online Accountability Act, introduced by the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. MEADOWS).

When a major disaster strikes, the American people should know how and where their disaster funds are spent without wading through reams of in-scrutable government paperwork. H.R. 1307 would simplify the data collection process for Federal disaster recovery projects and activities by establishing an online repository to which agencies could submit information on projects and spending.

In order to increase transparency to the public, the bill would also create a page on USAspending.gov for the public to track agency disaster recovery activities and the amount of assistance expended, on a quarterly basis.

Federal agencies need to be accountable to the victims of disasters so that they can have peace of mind when they are at their most vulnerable— I strongly support the bill, and I urge my colleagues to join me.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, H.R. 1307, the Post-Disaster Assistance Online Accountability Act, is going to improve our oversight of Federal disaster assistance and projects.

By increasing the accountability and transparency in Federal spending following disasters, this bill is going to help ensure that funds are invested more wisely and better able to help Americans who are trying to recover and rebuild their lives.

H.R. 1307 is going to require various agencies that offer disaster assistance to publicly report data on disaster spending and obligations. It is critical, as we continue to work to reform and improve our disaster response and recovery programs, that we have the most accurate data available. That is important for our oversight, as well as for the taxpayers in holding agencies accountable.

I want to thank the Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management Subcommittee Ranking Member, Mr. MEADOWS, and Mr. PETERS, for their work on this legislation. I encourage my colleagues to support it.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I re-serve the balance of my time.

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker, I thank the chairman and the ranking member for their support and work on this bill as well.

I certainly rise today in support of this measure sponsored and introduced by my friend and colleague, Mr. MEADOWS, also from North Carolina. We know firsthand how badly this legislation is needed.

In my district alone, which has been a victim of two major hurricanes in the last 3 years, Matthew in 2016, and Florence just this past fall, after both hurricanes, Congress distributed disaster aid funding for rebuilding and recovery efforts. To date, very little of that money, quite honestly, has been channeled to the State.

Taxpayers in North Carolina and across the rest of the country deserve to know how the Federal Government is spending these recovery funds, or whether they are being spent at all.

More transparency means more accountability and making this disaster funding data available online to the public will help ensure that these dollars that Congress has appropriated are being spent in a timely and effective manner.

As we continue to recover from Hurricanes Matthew and Florence, and prepare for yet another hurricane season this year, it is more important than ever that we make sure we are getting the most out of every single dollar that Congress appropriates. This bill will go a long way in helping to ensure just that.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I have no further speakers. I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

As has been demonstrated by the last four bills, the Transportation Committee is doing good work, and we produced four good, bipartisan bills. I am very proud of that.

I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 1307, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I want to thank the gentleman from Missouri. He has been a great partner in these and other ongoing efforts by the committee.

I urge the positive adoption of this legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Miss GONZALEZ-COLON of Puerto Rico. Mr. Speaker, I rise as a cosponsor to H.R. 1307—the Post-Disaster Assistance Online Accountability Act, which establishes a centralized location where Federal Agencies will publish information on disaster assistance.

This legislation requires reports every 3 months, that are available to the public regarding the total amount of assistance provided by agencies, the amounts that are obligated, and where the funds are going, including all projects or activities that received funding.

To date, roughly 32 percent, or $13.6 billion, of all funding, $42 billion dollars, Congress has appropriated to Puerto Rico has actually been received by the communities and families who are trying to rebuild their lives on the island.

With this legislation my constituents will know exactly how much funding is still expected to come to Puerto Rico and to their communities. They will be able to see the process that agencies are making for timely dispersals of funding and holding them accountable.

Again, I want to thank Rep. PETERS and Ranking Member MEADOWS again for their work on this Disaster recovery related bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1307.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate by Ms. Lankford, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate has passed a bill of the following title in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. 2289. An act to allow the Deputy Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration on the date of enactment of this Act to continue to serve as such Deputy Administrator.

STOPPING BAD ROBOCALLS ACT

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 3735) to amend the Communications Act of 1934 to clarify the prohibitions on making robocalls, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 3735

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
This Act may be cited as the “Stopping Bad Robocalls Act”.

SEC. 2. CONSUMER PROTECTION REGULATIONS RELATING TO MAKING ROBOCALLS.

Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, and as appropriate thereafter to ensure that the consumer protection and privacy purposes of section 227 of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 227) remain effective, the Commission shall prescribe such regulations, or amend such existing regulations, regarding calls made or text messages sent using automatic telephone dialing systems and calls made using an artificial or prerecorded voice as will, in the judgment of the Commission, clarify the prohibitions under such section, for such calls and text messages, for paragraphs (1), (2)(B), or (2)(C) of subsection (b) of such section.

(1) consumer protection and privacy purposes of such section are effectuated;

(2) calls made and text messages sent using automatic telephone dialing systems and calls made using an artificial or prerecorded voice are made or sent (as the case may be) with consent, unless consent is not required under or the call or text message is exempted by paragraph (1), (2)(B), or (2)(C) of subsection (b) of such section;

(3) persons can withdraw consent for such calls and text messages;

(4) circumvention or evasion of such section is prevented;

(5) consumers maintain records to demonstrate that such callers have obtained consent, unless consent is not required under or the call or text message is exempted by paragraph (1), (2)(B), or (2)(C) of such section, for each call and text message, for a period of time that will permit the Commission to effectuate the consumer protection and privacy purposes of such section; and

(6) compliance with such section is facilitated.

SEC. 3. CONSUMER PROTECTIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 227(b)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 227) is amended—

(1) in subparagraph (G)(ii), by striking “;” and inserting “; and”; and

(2) in subparagraph (B), by striking the period at the end and inserting “.”;

(b) DEADLINE FOR REGULATIONS.—In the case of any exemption issued under subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 227(b)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 227(b)(2)) before the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commission, shall, not later than 1 year after such date of enactment, prescribe such regulations, or amend such existing regulations, as necessary to ensure that such exemption contains each requirement described in subparagraph (i) of such section, as added by subsection (a). To the extent such an exemption contains such a requirement before such date of enactment, nothing in the amendment made by this section shall be construed to require the Commission to prescribe or amend regulations relating to such requirement.

SEC. 4. REPORT ON REASSIGNED NUMBER DATABASE.

(a) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commission shall submit to Congress, and make publicly available on the website of the Commission a report on the status of the efforts of the Commission pursuant to the Second Report and Order in the matter of Advanced Methods to Target and Eliminate Unlawful Robocalls (CG Docket No. 17–59; FCC 18–177; adopted on December 12, 2018).

(b) CONTENTS.—The report required by paragraph (1) shall describe the efforts of the Commission, as described in such Second Report and Order, to ensure—

(A) the establishment of a database of telephone numbers that have been disconnected, reassigned, or text messages that a party using such database represents that a particular telephone number has been disconnected, reassigned, or text message is exempted by paragraph (1), (2)(B), or (2)(C) of subsection (b) of such section;

(B) that a person who wishes to use any safe harbor provided pursuant to such Second Report and Order with respect to a call, the current subscriber or answering party has hung up and inserting “; and”;

(1) is an interconnected VoIP service (as defined in section 3 of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 153)); or

(b) Interim Rule.—Not after than 18 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commission shall submit to the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate a report that—

(1) a description of what process, if any, the Commission may use to determine whether, and if so how, any Federal law, including regulations, protests, and practices, or budgetary or jurisdictional constraints inhibit the enforcement of such section;

(2) the benefit and potential sources of additional resources for the Federal enforcement and prevention of the violation of such section;

(3) whether memoranda of understanding regarding the enforcement and prevention of the violation of such section should be established between—

(i) the United States; and

(ii) the States and the Federal Government; and

(4) whether regulations or other laws that encourage and improve coordination between countries in the enforcement and prevention of the violation of such section (and laws of foreign countries prohibiting similar conduct); and

(5) the Federal Trade Commission.

(c) Additional Resources.—In this Act, the term ‘‘additional resources’’ means a service that—

(1) is an interconnected VoIP service (as defined in section 3 of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 153)); or

(b) Interim Rule.—Not after than 18 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commission shall submit to the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate a report that—

(1) a description of what process, if any, the Commission may use to determine whether, and if so how, any Federal law, including regulations, protests, and practices, or budgetary or jurisdictional constraints inhibit the enforcement of such section;

(2) the benefit and potential sources of additional resources for the Federal enforcement and prevention of the violation of such section;

(3) whether memoranda of understanding regarding the enforcement and prevention of the violation of such section should be established between—

(i) the United States; and

(ii) the States and the Federal Government; and

(3) the Federal Government and foreign governments; and

(4) whether a process should be established to allow States to request Federal subpoenas from the Commission with respect to the enforcement of such section;

(5) whether increased criminal penalties for the violation of such section (including increasing the amount of fines and increasing the maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed to a period greater than 2 years) are appropriate;

(6) whether regulation of any entity that enables a person to place a call with a Foreign Provider, thereby subjecting the called party to carrier-initiated blocking;

(7) work with the governments of foreign countries to address the violation of such section; and

(8) the extent to which the prosecution of certain violations of such section (which result in economic, physical, or emotional harm) pursuant to any Appellate Court may inhibit or otherwise interfere with the prosecution of other violations of such section.

(d) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 9 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall submit to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a report on the status of the proceeding required by subsection (a).

(e) Members.—The interagency working group shall be represented by—

(1) the Department of Commerce (including the National Telecommunications and Information Administration);

(2) the Department of State;

(3) the Department of Homeland Security;

(4) the Federal Trade Commission; and

(5) the Federal Trade Commission.

(f) Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.

(g) NON-FEDERAL STAKEHOLDERS.—In carrying out the study under subsection (a), the interagency working group shall consult with such non-Federal stakeholders as the Attorney General considers appropriate, which may include—

(1) the Department of Commerce (including the National Telecommunications and Information Administration);

(2) the Department of State;

(3) the Department of Homeland Security;

(4) the Federal Trade Commission; and

(5) the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.

(h) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 9 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the interagency working group shall submit to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate and the Committee on Energy and Commerce and the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives a report on the findings of the study under subsection (a), including—

(1) any recommendations regarding the enforcement and prevention of the violation of such section; and

(2) a description of what process, if any, relevant Federal departments and agencies have made in implementing the recommendations under paragraph (1).

SEC. 12. CLASSIFICATION DEFINED.

In this Act, the term ‘‘Commission’’ means the Federal Communications Commission.

SEC. 13. ANNUAL ROBOCALL REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Commission shall make publicly available on the website of the Commission, and submit to the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate, a report on the status of private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls by the registered consortium and the participation of voice service providers in such efforts.

(b) CONTENTS OF REPORT.—The report required under paragraph (a) shall include, at a minimum, the following:

(1) A description of private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls by the registered consortium and the actions taken by the registered consortium to coordinate with the Commission.

(2) A list of voice service providers identified by the registered consortium that participated in private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls through the registered consortium.

(3) A list of each voice service provider that received a request from the registered consortium to participate in private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls.

(4) The reason, if any, each voice service provider identified by the registered consortium provided for not participating in private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls.

(5) A description of how the Commission may use the information provided to the Commission by voice service providers or the registered consortium that have participated in private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls in the enforcement efforts by the Commission.

(c) INFORMATION.—Not later than 210 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Commission shall issue a notice to the public seeking additional information from voice service providers and the registered consortium of private-led efforts to trace back the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls necessary for the report by the Commission required under subsection (a).

(d) REGISTRATION OF CONSORTIUM OF PRIVATE-LED EFFORTS TO TRACE BACK THE ORIGIN OF SUSPECTED UNLAWFUL ROBOCALLS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commission shall establish a methodology for determining the origin of suspected unlawful robocalls.

(2) R EQUISITE.—The term ‘‘registered consortium’’ means the consortium registered under subsection (d).

(3) SUSPECTED UNLAWFUL ROBOCALL.—The term ‘‘suspected unlawful robocall’’ means a call that the Commission or a voice service provider reasonably believes was made in violation of subsection (b) or (e) of section 227 of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 227).

(4) VOICE SERVICE.—The term ‘‘voice service’’—

(A) means any service that is interconnected with the public switched telephone network and that furnishes voice communications to an end user using resources from the North American Numbering Plan, or any successor to the North American Numbering Plan adopted by the Commission under section 251(e)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 251(e)(1); and

(B) includes—

(i) transmissions from a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to a telephone facsimile machine; and

(ii) without limitation, any service that enables real-time, two-way voice communications, including any service that requires internet protocol-compatible customer premises equipment (commonly known as ‘‘CPE’’) and permits out-bound calling, whether or not the service is one-way or two-way voice over internet protocol.

SEC. 14. HOSPITAL ROBOCALL PROTECTION GROUP.

(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commission shall establish an advisory group to be known as the ‘‘Hospital Robocall Protection Group’’.

(b) MEMBERSHIP.—The Group shall be composed only of the following members:

(1) An equal number of representatives from each of the following:

(A) Voice service providers that serve hospitals.

(B) Companies that focus on mitigating unlawful robocalls.

(C) Consumer advocacy organizations.

(D) Providers of one-way voice over internet protocol services described in subsection (e)(4)(B)(ii).

(E) Hospitals.

(F) State government officials focused on combating unlawful robocalls.

(2) One representative of the Commission.

(3) One representative of the Federal Trade Commission.

(c) ISSUAL OF BEST PRACTICES.—Not later than 180 days after the date on which the Group is established under subsection (a), the Group shall issue best practices regarding the following:

(1) How voice service providers can better combat unlawful robocalls made to hospitals.

(2) How hospitals can better protect themselves from such calls, including by using unlawful robocall mitigation techniques.

(d) How the Federal Government and State governments can help combat such calls.

(e) PROCEEDING BY FCC.—Not later than 180 days after the date on which the best practices are issued by the Group under subsection (c), the Commission shall conclude a proceeding to assess the extent to which the voluntary adoption of such best practices can be facilitated to protect hospitals and other institutions.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) PRIVATE-LED EFFORT TO TRACE BACK.—The term ‘‘private-led effort to trace back’’ means a methodology for determining the origin of suspected unlawful robocall.

(2) R EQUIRED.—The term ‘‘required’’ means the required under subsection (d).

(3) ANNUAL NOTICE BY THE COMMISSION SEEKING REGISTRATION.—The Commission shall issue a notice to the public seeking the registration described in paragraph (1).

(4) V OICE SERVICE.—The term ‘‘voice service’’—

(A) means any service that is interconnected with the public switched telephone network and that furnishes voice communications to an end user using resources from the North American Numbering Plan or any successor to the North American Numbering Plan adopted by the Commission under section 251(e)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 251(e)(1)); and

(B) includes—

(i) transmissions from a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to a telephone facsimile machine; and

(ii) without limitation, any service that enables real-time, two-way voice communications, including any service that requires internet protocol-compatible customer premises equipment (commonly known as ‘‘CPE’’) and permits out-bound calling, whether or not the service is one-way or two-way voice over internet protocol.

SEC. 15. DETERMINATION OF BUDGETARY EFFECTS.

The budgetary effects of this Act, for the purpose of complying with the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010, shall be determined by reference to the latest statement titled ‘‘Budgetary Effects of PAYGO Legislation’’ for this Act, submitted for printing in the Congressional Record by the Chairman of the House Budget Committee, provided that such statement has been submitted prior to the vote on passage.
The rising tide of unlawful, unwanted robocalls started as a nuisance, but now threatens the way consumers view and use their telephones. These calls are undermining our entire phone system, and that is something we all need to take very seriously.

Last year, there were an estimated 47 billion robocalls made to Americans. It is no wonder that the American people have lost confidence in answering their phones. The Stopping Bad Robocalls Act will restore that confidence, and that is very important, in my opinion.

Madam Speaker, Americans use their phones at some of the most important times of their lives. They use their phones to get help from first responders by calling 911; to hear important medical test results from their doctor; to connect with or reassure a family member or friend; to learn that school is closed tomorrow; or just to conduct daily business.

Illegal, unwanted robocalls threaten the foundational ways that we communicate with one another and, that, in my opinion is dangerous.

Each time the consumer chooses not to pick up the phone out of fear that a scam robocall is on the other end of the line, it chips away at our community and public safety. Too frequently, consumers feel their best option is to not answer their ringing phone, which may lead them to miss an important call.

It is truly unfortunate that consumers feel they must take that risk in order to proactively defend themselves against these unlawful calls. Some studies estimate that nearly half of all calls this year will be scam calls; and these calls are not only harmful to the American people, but they are also harmful to business.

The Chief Information Security Officer of the Moffitt Cancer Center recently testified before our committee that scammers were calling his hospital, disguised as Department of Justice officials, demanding to speak with a physical medical license. Robocalls are dangerous to public health and to people’s privacy, using this as an example.

We have heard similar stories of scammers disguised as the IRS looking to collect a debt; scammers disguised as local governments or police departments; and scammers disguised as loved ones in trouble looking for help. We are even seeing new scams, such as the one where fraudsters try to trick consumers into calling back international numbers in the hopes that the consumer will rack up large charges.

All of these scams are different, and there is no silver bullet to fix them all. For that reason, this legislation takes the comprehensive approach to cut off robocalls at many different points.

For example, the bill would implement a nationwide caller authentication system, free for consumers, so they can again trust that the number they see on their caller ID is actually the person calling them.

In that same vein, consumers need more help controlling the calls they have asked not to receive. Consumers need to be in charge of their own phone numbers, and scammers or telemarketers must have a consumer’s consent before making calls. Consumers need to block illegal and unwanted calls. But with blocking, there needs to be transparency and effective redress so that we ensure the calls people want are actually getting through.

Madam Speaker, we need to ensure that law enforcement and the Federal Communications Commission have the tools, information, and incentives to go after robocallers that break the law.

This bill takes all these steps and more. It also includes the text of many important proposals that would help address the onslaught of robocalls that consumers face.

And I just want to mention some of the other bills that were introduced that we have tried to incorporate in this bill. One is the Ending One-Ring Scams Act; the Tracing Back and Catching Unlawful Robocallers Act; the Locking Up Robocallers Act; the Spam Calls Task Force Act; and the Protecting Consumers from Unlawful Robocalls Act. I will thank the sponsors of those more specifically later during this debate.

But ours is a strong and comprehensive bill that puts consumers first. I want to thank my colleagues that have shaped this bill with me, specifically, Mr. WALDEN, Mr. DOYLE, Mr. LATTAN of course. But I also want to thank all the consumer advocacy organizations and the carriers that worked hard to reach a consensus piece of legislation that will take tough and meaningful steps to protect consumers from these annoying and illegal robocalls.

Madam Speaker, the legislation now has 237 sponsors, and I am hopeful that it will garner strong bipartisan support today when we vote.

I urge all of my colleagues to put consumers first and join us in passing the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 3375, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act. I want to apologize to my colleagues who have spoken before me, as I’m a little late in my contribution on this legislation, but I congratulate the authors of this legislation, both the majority and the minority.

The American Association of Retired Persons sent us a letter yesterday urging the conclusion by stating: ‘All Americans will benefit from the provisions of H.R. 3375 that promote an accurate call authentication framework and prevent consumers from being charged for blocking technology.

The story is not only with them, but it spans the consumer and industry groups that have seen the impact of this. This bill incorporates the best of the private sector solutions, at the same time putting the call out to crack down on these illegal actors for the criminals that they are.

We are going to shut these scammers down. This legislation establishes a transparent and enforce structure to shut down illegal robocalls. It empowers the Federal Communications Commission with additional enforcement. It also sets the path for providers to implement new caller ID technologies, with no new line-item charges to the consumers.

The fraud committed on Americans by illegal robocallers is going to stop. This bipartisan legislation creates a robust framework designed to protect consumers from the fraud and nuisance of these calls.

Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. WALDEN), the ranking member of the full committee.

Mr. WALDEN. Madam Speaker, I want to thank my colleagues for their work on the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act.

As To Chairman PALLONE, to Chairman DOYLE, to Congressman LATTAN, and everybody that has been involved in this, I think we have come to a really good agreement here, and it will help stop the illegal robocalls; hopefully, all 47.8 billion. Let that number sink in.

Last year, in America, 47.8 billion calls were made to all of us, and they were mostly all illegal, and we are going to do our best to stop them.

This will be harsher, it will be stricter, and a technology that is more personal than your phone; whether it is the phone you carry in your pocket or, for some, a landline at home, and how we communicate on these devices is essential in the way that we connect to one another.

Yet that personal connection is being violated by bad actors that have compromised our country’s communications networks and who hide their true faces with their own hardware and software.

These criminal parties have done significant harm to Americans, both personally and professionally. Those that engage in such illicit behavior should be treated and prosecuted for what they are, criminals.

From the outset of our legislative effort to address this problem, I stated we must make a clear distinction between parties that have something to do with them and those who do not. After all, we don’t want to shut off legitimate uses of these new technologies, such as protecting the anonymity of a woman’s shelter assisting at-risk individuals or alerting you to a fraudulent use of your credit card or providing you the simple convenience of interacting with your ride-share service. Those are legitimate purposes.

Our clearest and quickest path for passing legislation, along with our friends in the Senate and, ultimately, to become law, is to go after those that have malicious intent; and to go beyond that could undermine services Americans depend on every day. So I think we found the right balance here.

By taking all this into account, we can achieve the same kind of bipartisan, bicameral success as exemplified by the RAY BAUM’S Act last Congress, which, notably, provided us with the launching pad for where we are today. Now that we provided the FCC with more authority to go after bad actors who utilize calls and texts. Our work from then was echoed by a broad bipartisan group of attorneys general from across the United States calling for the FCC to move on updating its own rules.

Now, we know communications and technologies are constantly evolving, and, unfortunately, the bad actors’ tricks have evolved beyond our Do Not Call Registry, and I am sure they will continue to find a way to get around this effort. However, the more friction we can create against illicit behavior, the more focused public-private partnerships we can create among industry, consumer groups, and government that will help us root out this problem, prosecute these criminals to the fullest extent of the law, and make great strides in regaining Americans’ confidence in their communication devices.

Now, in the 35 townhalls I have held in my district this year and phone calls I get to my office, people ask one question. I bet they ask it of you, Madam Speaker. What are you going to do to stop these robocalls? I will tell you what. This is a number you can answer, 3376. That is the number of the bill. Pick it up; answer it; vote “yes”; and we will put an end to these robocalls—a way to get around this effort. Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from California (Ms. ESHOO), who chairs our Health Subcommittee.

Ms. ESHOO. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I urge all of my colleagues to support this bill. It is a bipartisan effort that will help us root out this problem, prosecute these criminals to the fullest extent of the law, and make great strides in regaining Americans’ confidence in their communication devices.

Ms. ESHOO. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I thank the chair of the full committee; the ranking member, Mr. WALDEN; the ranking member of the subcommittee, Mr. LATTA; and the distinguished chairman of the subcommittee, Mr. DOYLE, for bringing forward this bipartisan legislation.

I hope when the vote is taken on this bill, so it is really going to cost them, and it is not simply paying because it is a cost of doing business. I urge all of my colleagues to support this bill.

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. LATTA), the ranking member of the Communications and Technology Subcommittee on the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

Mr. LATTA. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I rise today because robocalls have to stop. With the help of our phone carriers and the FCC, we have crafted solid legislation in the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act, which is bipartisan legislation. It is one they loved had been hurt. They told me, if there was a way for them to one they loved had been hurt. They told me, if there was a way for them to remain vigilant to ensure that the statutory and the regulatory protections are sufficient to protect the consumers.

There are heavy fees for violators in this bill, so it is really going to cost them, and it is not simply paying because it is a cost of doing business. I urge all of my colleagues to support this bill.

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from California (Ms. ESHOO), who chairs our Communications and Technology Subcommittee.

Mr. MICHAEL F. DOYLE of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, today the House will vote on the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act, introduced by Chairman PALLONE, Ranking Member WALDEN, Ranking Member LATTA, and me. This bill addresses a problem that we all have firsthand experience with: persistent, annoying, nonstop robocalls.

In 2018, Americans received nearly 48 billion robocalls last year, a 60 percent increase from the year before. That number is expected to increase to 60 billion this year. In June alone, in my hometown of Pittsburgh, we received an estimated 34 million robocalls. On average, everyone in this country receives 14 of these calls every day.

This bill is a comprehensive, bipartisan solution that I believe will help seriously reduce the onslaught of illegal robocalls that Americans face.

The bill before the House today is the result of bipartisan negotiations, which included industry and public interest stakeholders. This bill was reported unanimously out of the Communication and Technology Subcommittee, which I chair, as well as the full Energy and Commerce Committee.

I am also pleased that the language from the STOP Robocalls Act, which Ranking Member LATTA and I introduced, was included in this bill. These provisions allow phone carriers to automatically enable robocall blocking services by default on phone lines.

While these technologies have been available on an opt-in basis, too many other seniors and elderly people, too many people in general just don’t know about these services and how to sign up for them.

Allowing these services to be enabled by default allows all consumers to benefit from these technologies without having to go through the onerous signup process, particularly for seniors and those most vulnerable to scam calls.

These provisions also include requirements that the new opt-out robocall blocking services do not result in new consumer fees. The bill also requires all carriers to adopt call authentication technology, which would enable...
I rise in support of H.R. 3375, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act. Today, Californians and Americans across the country are receiving more unwanted robocalls than ever before. This is something I often hear about from my constituents.

Nearly 48 billion robocalls were made in 2018, an increase of 17 billion calls in just 1 year. More than 40 percent of these calls are illegal scams. They are defrauding consumers; they are disruptive; and they are costing victims an average of $1,500.

I am worried that the real risk here is that we are making our phone system obsolete, because people just don’t want to pick up their phones anymore. Part of the problem is that our current legal framework doesn’t go far enough in deterring these harmful practices. That is why I am pleased that H.R. 3375 includes an amendment that I offered with my colleague Mr. Flores, during our full committee markup.

Our provision will create disincentives for the most egregious violators of the law. Specifically, our provision will empower the Federal Communications Commission to assess an additional $10,000 penalty for robocall violations where the offender acted with intent to cause the violation.

Creating these disincentives is critical for protecting consumers and putting abusive practices to an end. I am proud to cosponsor this bipartisan, commonsense legislation, and I urge my colleagues to vote ‘yes.’

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. JOHNSON). Mr. JOHNSON of Ohio. Madam Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.R. 3375, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act. These unwanted and annoying robocalls, which are increasing at an alarming rate, need to end.

I am very pleased that the House has set aside partisan differences and worked together on legislation to benefit all Americans and address this serious issue. This important legislation would require service providers to implement new technology that ensures caller ID is authenticated and establishes additional protections for consumers receiving unwanted and sometimes fraudulent—robocalls.

I am also pleased that H.R. 3375 includes legislation that I sponsored with my colleague, Representative BUTTERFIELD, which would require the FCC to publish an annual report on the private-led efforts to trace the origin of unlawful robocalls, an important step in stopping these bad actors from reaching consumers.

This kind of illegal, annoying, and harassing activity must stop, and I encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting this legislation.

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New York (Ms. CLARKE), vice chair of our committee.

Ms. CLARKE of New York. Madam Speaker, as vice chair of the Energy and Commerce Committee, I rise today to thank the House Energy and Commerce Committee, and I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this legislation.

I rise in support of H.R. 3375, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act. While the illegality of these calls is an issue, the insistent presence of them is causing American citizens to no longer view their phone as a legitimate form of communication, thus impacting legitimate business.

Adding to this, robocalls are actively hurting the pockets of Americans, as multitudes are scammed daily, costing the American public millions of dollars.

During committee markup, I introduced the Clarke-Bilirakis amendment based on the base bill, Ending One-Ring Scams Act of 2019, and, Madam Speaker, I thank Mr. BILIRAKIS for his leadership.

This was a bipartisan effort to ensure that the American people are protected from this harmful culture of one-ring scams.

The nature of these one-ring scams may seem ridiculous. However, they have been effective in scamming the American people. With one-ring scams, the goal of the scammer is not for you to answer, but, rather, for you to make the call back. One-ring calls may appear to be from phone numbers somewhere in the United States, including initial digits that resemble U.S. area codes. If one calls back, these citizens risk being charged a fee for a phone number outside the state of the United States, thus resulting in one being charged a fee for just connecting.

Ad nauseam, the good people of Brooklyn’s Ninth Congressional District have voiced their outrage with the state of their security and privacy as the threat of one-ring scams grows more prevalent.

Madam Speaker, before I conclude my remarks, I would be remiss if I did not thank my colleagues who helped lead on today’s effort, Congressman BILIRAKIS and Congressman VAN DREW.

Madam Speaker, I want to say to those who are fraudulent: Today, game over.

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Montana (Mr. GIANFORTE), a valuable member of our Energy and Commerce Committee.

Mr. GIANFORTE. Madam Speaker, Madam Speaker, before I conclude my remarks, I would be remiss if I did not thank my colleagues who helped lead on today’s effort, Congressman BILIRAKIS and Congressman VAN DREW.

Madam Speaker, I want to say to those who are fraudulent: Today, game over.
Too many robocalls are deceptive and destructive, from bogus insurance offers to threats of legal action. Scam artists scheme to steal hardworking Montanans’ private, personal, and financial information. Sometimes, they go even farther.

A young woman from Bozeman received a call from her little brother’s phone number. She picked up the call, but it wasn’t her brother. It was a scammer using her brother’s number. Tragically, her little brother had died of a heart attack a few months earlier. She was devastated and shaken. This is disgusting and should not happen.

Today, we are taking a big step forward. We are empowering consumers. Phone companies will provide consumers with call authentication tools and blocking services at no cost. Illegal callers will face more jail time.

Let’s get robocall relief across the finish line for the American people.

Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. CARTER) for his leadership on this important legislation, and I thank the ranking member.

The American people are fed up with spam calls. They are predatory, incessant, and an invasion of privacy.

We need a comprehensive approach to root them out, and our Federal Government plays an important role in that. Whether it is the FCC, Department of Justice, Homeland Security, or FBI, these agencies should have the authorities and tools to shut down these spammers’ calls, and these powers are maximized when they are coordinated.

That is why I included in this legislation the creation of the Spam Calls Task Force. The task force will coordinate the Federal response.

Madam Speaker, I also thank Representative DARREN SOTO for his help with this.

I am confident that by working together, we can all put a stop to spam calls once and for all, and Americans will no longer have to fear robocalls.

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I am pleased to yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Washington (Mrs. Rodgers).

Mrs. RODGERS of Washington. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of this legislation, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act.

We all agree that robocalls are annoying, and they are a nuisance. What is worse is that these calls are often scams—scams that are becoming more and more sophisticated each day. When our phone rings, we are just one answer away from being a victim of identity theft. That needs to change.

This legislation will restore trust that Americans can again answer their phones.

Madam Speaker, I have a constituent who calls my office nearly every time he receives a robocall. He has begged us to do something. After today, I look forward to sharing with him that we listened and took action to solve this problem.

Madam Speaker, on his behalf and on behalf of all those whom I have the privilege of representing in eastern Washington, I urge support of the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act.

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Florida (Mr. CRIST).

Mr. CRIST. Madam Speaker, I thank Chair Pallone for his leadership on this important legislation, and I thank the ranking member.

The American people are fed up with spam calls. They are predatory, incessant, and an invasion of privacy.

We need a comprehensive approach to root them out, and our Federal Government plays an important role in that. Whether it is the FCC, Department of Justice, Homeland Security, or FBI, these agencies should have the authorities and tools to shut down these spammers’ calls, and these powers are maximized when they are coordinated.

That is why I included in this legislation the creation of the Spam Calls Task Force. The task force will coordinate the Federal response.

Madam Speaker, I also thank Representative DARREN SOTO for his help with this.

I am confident that by working together, we can all put a stop to spam calls once and for all, and Americans will no longer have to fear robocalls.

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I am pleased to yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. CARTER) for his leadership on this important legislation, and I thank the ranking member.

The American people are fed up with spam calls. They are predatory, incessant, and an invasion of privacy.

As a former U.S. attorney, I am really proud that the Justice Department, working with the FTC and local law enforcement, has already taken enforcement actions in over 94 cases, which has yielded blocking of more than 1 billion robocalls so far.

Madam Speaker, I am reassured that with this bill, they will be able to more efficiently and consistently pursue robocaller abusers. For these reasons and many more, I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, can I inquire as to the amount of time on each side?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from New Jersey has 3 minutes remaining. The gentleman from Texas has 6 minutes remaining.

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from Illinois (Ms. UNDERWOOD).

Ms. UNDERWOOD. Madam Speaker, 64 is the number of robocalls that the average Illinoisan has received in 2019 alone, over 1 billion total. Nationwide, half of all calls to cellphones are robocalls.

Yesterday, in my staff meeting, our discussion of floor consideration of the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act: were literally interrupted by two different robocalls.

Robocalls aren’t just annoying; they can be dangerous. They are used by fraudsters and unscrupulous debt collectors to scare hardworking Americans to fall for their scams.

I am so proud to cosponsor the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act. This bill ensures that consumers can block calls they receive with no extra charge. It ensures that every call Illinoisans receive is verified by caller ID, and it strengthens enforcement against scammers and robocall operators.

I am especially glad the bill includes a provision to require the FCC to establish a Hospital Robocall Working Group to ensure that robocalls don’t threaten hospitals’ ability to provide timely, lifesaving care.

Madam Speaker, I strongly urge my colleagues to support the bill.

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I am prepared to close. I yield myself the balance of my time.

Madam Speaker, robocalls have moved beyond a simple nuisance. Sophisticated actors are now using robocalls to trick people into providing sensitive information by posing as legitimate organizations.

When this happens to hospitals, patients have no reason to believe that there is a fraudulent actor on the other line. That is the danger of these calls and jeopardizes the relationship between the patient and their provider. Even more challenging than explaining to consumers that the calls from your phone number are not always from your organization is the response time required.

According to testimony by Dave Summit of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center, in a 90-day period, they received over 6,600 external calls identified as a Moffitt internal phone number, requiring 65 hours of response time. This is time that could have been used to support the hospital rather than respond to these calls.

During the Energy and Commerce Committee markup, I offered an amendment with Mrs. DINGELL of Michigan to establish a hospital robocall protection group at the Federal Trade Commission. This group will issue best practices to help combat unlawful robocalls made to hospitals, as well as those made spoofing a legitimate hospital phone number.

The hospital robocall protection group will assist any hospital to combat these fraudulent robocalls so that they may focus on serving patients. A patient should not have to worry about whether they are speaking with their real doctor or their real hospital when discussing sensitive health information, and providers should not have to deal with disruptive false claims.

This amendment was adopted in committee, and I look forward to the best practices being put forward in the hospital robocall protection group.

The fraud committed on Americans by illegal robocallers is going to end. This bipartisan legislation creates a robocall framework designed to protect consumers from the fraud and nuisance of these calls.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a yes vote on the underlying legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. PAGTOM. Madam Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, I thank all of the members who were able to work together to produce this great legislation, and there are a lot.

I thank Mr. MCEACHIN, Mr. OLSON, Mr. KIM, Mrs. BROOKS, Mr. BRINDISI, and Mr. KUSTOFF for introducing the Locking Up Robocalls Act, which was added to this legislation in section 9.

I thank Ms. CLARKE, Mr. BILIRAKIS, Mr. VAN DEWE, Mr. ROUDA, Ms. FOXX, and Mr. WALBERG for introducing the Ending One-Ring Scams Act, which was added to this legislation in section 10.

I thank Mr. CRIST for introducing his Spam Calls Task Force Act, which was added to this legislation in section 11.

I thank Mr. BUTTERFIELD, Mr. JOHN-son, Mr. SOTO, and Mr. GIANFOTE for introducing the Tracing Back and Catching Unlawful Robocalls Act, which was added in section 13.

I thank Mrs. DINGELL and Dr. BURGESS for introducing their Protecting Patients and Doctors from Unlawful Robocalls Act, which was added to the bill in section 14.

And I thank Mr. FLORES and Mr. MCNERNEY for offering their amendment to increase the financial penalties for illegal robocalls.

Mr. Speaker, I also thank my partners—Mr. WALDEN, Mr. DOYLE, and Mr. LATTA—for working with me to introduce the bill, which included at introduction Mr. LATTA’s and Mr. DOYLE’S STOP Robocalls Act in section 8.

I would also like to quickly thank the staff—Alex Hoehn-Saric, AJ Brown, Jennifer Eppeerson, Dan Miller, Robin Colwell, Tim Kurth—for all their hard work, and, in particular, Gerry Leverich, who is here, for his work and energy to get this bill to the floor today. I am very proud for all our members and staff for this important bill.

Mr. Speaker, I include in the Record a few letters and statements for the RECORD: a letter from AARP on behalf of its nearly 38 million members urging a vote in favor of the bill; a letter from more than 80 organizations representing consumers throughout the U.S., including Consumer Reports and the National Consumer Law Center, among others, urging strong support by members of the bill; and a list of supportive statements from carriers and relevant associations, including CTIA, The Wireless Association; NCTA, The Internet & Television Association; Charter Communications, and Verizon.

Hon. NANCY PELOSI, Speaker, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

Hon. KEVIN MCCARTHY, Republican Leader, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

Dear Speakers Priolos and Leader McCarthy,

On behalf of nearly 38 million members and all older Americans nationwide, AARP is writing to urge a vote in favor of H.R. 3375, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act. This bipartisan legislation will help fight back against illegal robocalls.

AARP has a long history of fighting for consumer protections for older Americans. Unwanted robocalls are a rich playground for scammers to deceive victims into paying money under false pretenses. Through our nationwide Fraud Watch Network initiative, we work to empower consumers to spot and avoid scams, and we provide support and guidance to victims and their families when fraud occurs.

AARP is pleased that H.R. 3375 appropriately emphasizes consumer consent regarding the receipt of automatically dialed calls and expands the enforcement provisions of the Communications Act by extending the statute of limitations. The bill specifies that consumers should not face additional charges for having robocalls blocked through authentication technology and sets reasonable deadlines for the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) to implement the reassigned number database, which will reduce the incidence of repeated calls to innocent customers based on the telephone number’s previous owner. Likewise, we support the requirement of an annual report to Congress on the FCC’s enforcement actions.

All Americans will benefit from the provisions of H.R. 3375 that promote an accurate call authentication framework and prevent consumers from being charged for unwanted technology. We again urge you to enact H.R. 3375, and we look forward to working with you on a bipartisan basis to combat unwanted robocalls against older Americans. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me, or have your staff contact our Government Affairs staff.

Sincerely,

NANCY A. LEAMOND,
Executive Vice President and Chief Advocacy & Engagement Officer.

SUPPORT STRONG LEGISLATION TO STOP ABUSIVE ROBOCALLS
(July 23, 2019)

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE: The undersigned organizations representing consumers throughout the United States strongly urge your support for H.R. 3375, the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act, and the bipartisan legislation that seeks to stop unwanted robocalls against older Americans. It would direct the FCC to oversee creation of a database that callers can check in order to avoid making robocalls and texts to a different consumer who has not given consent, and would clarify that the caller must have consent from the person actually calling.

Robocalls are an ever-increasing plague. Last year, Americans received an estimated 47.8 billion robocalls. They harassing us, disrupt our personal lives, and import information about us, and interfere with important communications. Many of these annoying automated calls are to sell products or to collect debts. They also enable scammers to enter our homes. Truecaller found that consumers had lost an estimated $10.5 billion to robocalls. AARP shared that illegal robocalls continue to place all Americans at risk of scams and fraud. New AARP Fraud Watch Network research shows that consumers are more likely to answer a call if it is coming from a familiar area code or telephone exchange, which is precisely what scammers are exploiting. Older Americans are particularly vulnerable to phone scam victimization, which can wipe out their life savings. AARP looks forward to working with you and Congress on a bipartisan basis to combat unwanted robocalls against older Americans.

We strongly urge your support for H.R. 3375.

Sincerely,

Allied Progress; Americans for Financial Reform; Center for Responsible Lending; Consumer Action; Consumer Federation of America; Consumer Reports; Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC); Justice in Aging; National Association of Consumer Advocates; National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys; National Consumer Law Center on behalf of its low-income clients; Public Citizen; Public Knowledge.

STATEMENTS OF SUPPORT

Maureen Mahoney, policy analyst for Consumer Reports: “Robocalls are a pervasive, persistent problem, and consumers are desperate for relief from these unsolicited messages. These calls are disturbing to consumers—they interfere with the phone service for which we pay dearly, and they subject people to scams. By one estimate, consumers lost $10 billion to phone scams last year. We commend Chairman Pallone and Ranking Member Walden for introducing the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act, which will help ensure that all consumers get the protections from deceptively spoofed calls, including calls from scammers. The bill will also help get rid of loopholes in order to stop illegal robocallers from reaching the line. We look forward to working with legislators to ensure that consumers get the protections they deserve.”

Margot Saunders, Senior Counsel for National Consumer Law Center: “This bipartisan bill is an important step forward in the fight to stop unwanted and illegal robocalls. There’s still more to be done—there is a lot of responsibility placed on the FCC to protect consumers. Robocalls plague voters of all political stripes so we are especially pleased to see a bipartisan bill. We hope this is the first of several positive steps that Congress will take.”

STATEMENTS OF SUPPORT

Julie Painter, Director of Public Policy for American Friends of Israel: “The Stopping Bad Robocalls Act is needed to combat the rampant use of robocalls to harass and intimidate Jewish Americans. Enough is enough—it’s time for Congress to address this pervasive and abusive problem.”

‘It is time for Congress to act and to put an end to illegal robocalls. By passing the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act, Chairman Pallone and Ranking Member Walden have stepped up to stop illegal robocalls and are to be commended. We commend Rep. Doyle and Ranking Member Latta for their continued efforts to protect consumers from disruptive and harassing robocalls. We applaud Chairman Pallone and Ranking Member Walden for their continued efforts to protect consumers from disruptive and harassing robocalls.”

Henry J. Waxman, Chairman of the Committee on Energy & Commerce: “The Stopping Bad Robocalls Act is needed to combat the rampant use of robocalls to harass and intimidate Jewish Americans. Enough is enough—it’s time for Congress to address this pervasive and abusive problem.”

‘Chairman Pallone and Ranking Member Walden have stepped up to stop illegal robocalls and are to be commended. We commend Rep. Doyle and Ranking Member Latta for their continued efforts to protect consumers from disruptive and harassing robocalls.”

Chairman Pallone: “It is time for Congress to act and to put an end to illegal robocalls. By passing the Stopping Bad Robocalls Act, Chairman Pallone and Ranking Member Walden have stepped up to stop illegal robocalls and are to be commended. We commend Rep. Doyle and Ranking Member Latta for their continued efforts to protect consumers from disruptive and harassing robocalls.”

Chairwoman Ewel: “I applaud Chairman Pallone, Ranking Member Walden, and the rest of the Energy and Commerce committee co-sponsors of this bill for their continued efforts to protect consumers from disruptive and harassing robocalls. Enough is enough—it’s time for Americans to hang up on abusive robocallers once and for all. Verizon has already begun...”

[End of congressional record excerpt]
With the aid of spoofing, scammers can take on phone numbers that are the same as or very similar to the numbers of health care providers.

Robocallers use the names and numbers of these organizations, to aid their scam of telling people that they owe money and requesting private information.

We are all aware of the difficulty millions of Americans face in attaining affordable health care.

Robocallers are maliciously taking advantage of these circumstances and seek to profit from the excitement of the stress that families are challenged with.

The federal government as well as multiple large telecommunications corporations are equipped with information on these robocallers and the groups they seek to take advantage of.

The virulent aspirations of these callers must be met with the commitment of our government to protect our citizens by placing the responsibility on these corporations to protect consumers.

I urge all members to join me in voting to pass H.R. 3375, the “Stopping Bad Robocalls Act.”

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. DELGADO). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3375, as amended.

The motion was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yea and nay votes.

The yea and nay were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

AUTISM COLLABORATION, ACCOUNTABILITY, RESEARCH, EDUCATION, AND SUPPORT ACT OF 2019.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1058) to reauthorize certain provisions of the Public Health Service Act relating to autism, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 1058

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Autism Collaboration, Accountability, Research, Education, and Support Act of 2019” or the “Autism CARES Act of 2019”.

(i) community-based behavioral supports and interventions;”;
“(ii) nutrition, recreational, and social activities; and
“(iii) personal safety services related to public safety agencies or the criminal justice system for such individuals;”;
“(E) recommendations that seek to improve health outcomes for such individuals, including across their lifespan, by addressing—
(i) screening and diagnosis of children and adults;”;
“(ii) behavioral and other therapeutic approaches;”;
“(iii) primary and preventative care;”;
“(iv) communication challenges;”;
“(v) aggression, self-injury, elopement, and other behavioral issues;”;
“(vi) receipt of services;”;
“(vii) treatment for co-occurring physical and mental health conditions;”;
“(viii) premature mortality;”;
“(ix) caregiver mental health.”;
(e) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—Section 399EE of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 280-4) is amended—
(1) in subsection (a), by striking “$22,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2015 through 2019” and inserting “$23,100,000 for each of fiscal years 2020 through 2024”;
(2) in subsection (b), by striking “$46,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2015 through 2019” and inserting “$50,599,000 for each of fiscal years 2020 through 2024”; and
(3) in subsection (c), by striking “there is authorized to be appropriated $190,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2015 through 2019” and inserting “there are authorized to be appropriated $296,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2020 through 2024”.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) and the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BURGESS) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New Jersey.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 1058.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

There was no objection.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to rise in support of H.R. 1058, the Autism CARES Act, which will continue critical research, surveillance, education, early detection, and intervention programs for people living with autism spectrum disorder, also known as ASD, and their families.

The number of children diagnosed with ASD has risen dramatically over recent years. While 1 in every 150 children was diagnosed with ASD in 1992, that number grew to 1 in every 59 children born in 2008.

While some of this increase may be attributed to an overall higher number of people with ASD, a significant portion is likely due to increased efforts to diagnose people to get them the treatment they need. As efforts to identify individuals with autism have improved, so has the ability to intervene and treat them. Early intervention for children with ASD is associated with a positive outcome on developmental concerns.

It is important that we continue to improve outcomes for children and all individuals with ASD, and that is what we are doing with this reauthorization of the Autism CARES program today. This bill would reauthorize funding for programs at the National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and Health Resources and Services Administration through 2024.

The bill also expands efforts to conduct
Mr. Speaker, I am confident that this legislation will improve health outcomes and quality of life for millions of Americans living with ASD, as well as their families. For that reason, I urge all of my colleagues to join me in supporting the bill today.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. Burgess. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak in favor of H.R. 1058, the Autism Collaboration, Accountability, Research, Education, and Support Act of 2019, also known as the Autism CARES Act. H.R. 1056 builds upon a strong foundation that Congress laid by passing the Combating Autism Act in 2006.

This legislation, in 2006, expanded research, surveillance, and treatment of autism spectrum disorder, and it has equipped federal agencies with enhanced resources to expand its knowledge of this complex disorder.

The number of children diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder has increased. It is even more imperative that we increase this programming and ensure the continuation of the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee. As families across our Nation navigate raising children with autism, the Autism CARES Act would provide hope by authorizing funding for continued research, surveillance and education at the National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and Health Resources and Services Administration, and it would continue this through calendar year 2024.

I thank Representatives Chris Smith and Michael Doyle for their tireless work to reauthorize this program and better the lives for individuals with autism and their families.

As Dr. Amy Hewitt pointed out at our hearing, the number of autism spectrum disorder diagnoses has risen more than 600 percent in the past few decades.

In 2018, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention determined that 1 in 59 children is diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder, and that boys are four times more likely to be diagnosed with autism than are girls. As more individuals are diagnosed, it becomes even more important for Congress to ensure that there is adequate research and support services for these individuals and their families.

Early detection and intervention for individuals with autism and their families is crucial to help increase communication and social skills, preparing children for a successful future. The Autism CARES Act reauthorizes these early detection and intervention programs, in addition to workforce programs for health professionals. The Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and Related Disabilities, LEND, programs provide training for healthcare professionals to address intellectual disabilities, including autism.

As we continue to support research efforts at the National Institutes of Health and through the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee, we will work to understand how and why to best address it. As we gain knowledge, our healthcare system needs to stand ready to implement the best practices obtained, which is why workforce programs are important.

It is critical that we reauthorize the Autism CARES Act on time so that the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee does not lapse, and so that our Nation’s research can seamlessly continue.

Mr. Speaker, I urge Members to support this bill, and I hope that the Senate will swiftly take up this legislation after its passage here today.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. Pallone. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Michael F. Doyle), the Democratic sponsor of the bill.

Mr. Michael F. Doyle of Pennsylvania, Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Autism CARES Act of 2019.

My good friend and colleague, Chris Smith, and I formed the Autism Caucus in 2001 to raise awareness in Congress about autism spectrum disorder. ASD for short, advocates for greater Federal involvement in understanding ASD, and to help individuals and families get the support they need.

Nearly 20 years later, we have made significant progress, but we are still far behind where we would like to be and where we believe we need to be. In 2000, the CDC reported approximately 1 in 150 children with ASD. The latest report found that number had increased to 1 in 59 children.

Similarly, even though ASD can be diagnosed as early as 2 years old, most children are not diagnosed with ASD until after age 4. Children and adolescents with ASD have had average medical expenditures that were $4,000 to $5,000 higher than children without ASD.

We also don’t have a reliable estimate of autism’s prevalence among adults. As autism is a lifelong condition, an estimated 50,000 teens and young adults with autism age out of school-based services each year. That is why it is so important that we pass this bill: to continue to close the gaps in knowledge and services surrounding ASD.

The Autism CARES Act of 2019 increases authorized program levels to match our recent success in the Appropriations Committee: $296 million annually at NIH, $23 million at CDC, and $55 million at HRSA. This money will be used for research, surveillance, education, detection, and intervention for individuals with autism spectrum disorders of all ages, not just children.

The bill also supports training the healthcare workforce to better understand and treat individuals with autism, and it prioritizes awards to medically underserved areas.

It also directs HHS to submit a report to Congress on the health and well-being of individuals on the autism spectrum, an often-overlooked aspect of ASD.

The bill also adds important voices to the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee, including representatives from the Department of Labor, the Department of Justice, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and the VA.

Finally, it increases the minimum number of self-advocates included in the public membership of the committee, an important step for a community whose voices are invaluable.

I am proud of the progress that we have made over the last 20 years, but I know we have to do more. Autism CARES Act of 2019 takes important steps toward our ultimate goal to ensure that every individual has access to the treatment and support that is a right for them.

I thank Congressman Smith, Chairman Pallone, Ranking Member Walorski, Chairwoman Eshoo, and Ranking Member Burgess, as well as Autism Speaks, Autism Society of America, Association of University Centers on Disabilities, Autistic Self Advocacy Network, and other stakeholders for their input and support for this legislation.

Mr. Speaker, reauthorization of the Autism CARES Act means a great deal to millions of Americans affected by autism spectrum disorder. I urge my colleagues to give this bill their wholehearted support and vote in favor of this legislation.

Mr. Burgess. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. Smith), the principal author of this bill and the intellectual driving force behind getting this legislation reauthorized.

Mr. Smith of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I thank my good friend, Dr. Burgess.

Mr. Speaker, the Autism CARES Act of 2019, I say to my colleagues, is a comprehensive reauthorization and strengthening of America’s whole-of-government autism spectrum disorder initiative.

As the prime author of the bill, let me extend very special thanks to co-sponsor Mike Doyle from Pennsylvania for his extraordinary leadership, his partnership, and his friendship over these many years; to Health Subcommittee Chairman Anna Eshoo for expertly shepherding this bill through her subcommittee with Ranking Member Dr. Burgess; and my deep
Mr. Speaker, I also thank staff, including Kelsey Griswold, Kate Werley, Rachel FYbel, Dr. Kristen Shatynski, and Stephen Holland, for their tremendous help and assistance on this legislation.

Frankly, we couldn’t have done this without so many autism advocates, including and especially Stuart Spielman of Autism Speaks and Scott Badesch of the Autism Society.

Mr. Speaker, this bipartisan legislation powerfully supports and pursues durable remedies and effective interventions for the approximately 1.5 million children with ASD. That is an estimated 1 in 59 children in the U.S. In my home State of New Jersey, that is 1 in 34. We do have the highest rate, according to the CDC.

This bill also helps adults with autism who were and are today often misdiagnosed, underdiagnosed, and overlooked. Language throughout the bill emphasizes that causes, diagnosis, detection, prevention, and treatment of autism spectrum disorder must be throughout the lifespan of that person.

Autism Speaks is a leader in the autism center—and this is a very important number—in our last bill that the gentleman, Mike Doyle, and I did just 5 years ago, it pointed out that the number of young people who become adults is increasing every year. Now, it is about 50,000 to 60,000 children who age out every year, creating challenges for education, housing, employment, and access to healthcare.

This legislation also assists parents, families, and caregivers who deeply love and cherish their children and want the brightest future for them. In addition to its groundbreaking prevalence studies and crafting a whole myriad of intervention work, CDC’s “Learn the Signs. Act Early.” program is just one more amazing tool for parents.

At its core, the bill authorizes a little over $1.8 billion over 5 years for NIH, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and HRSA.

Looking back, Mr. Speaker, it was two dedicated parents from New Jersey who helped launch the comprehensive Federal policy we are now reauthorizing. In September 1997, Bobbi and Billy Gallagher of Brick, New Jersey, my constituents, parents of two constituent autistic children, walked into my Ocean County office looking for help.

They believed that Brick had a disproportionate number of students with autism and wanted action, especially for their son Austin and daughter Alana.

I invited the CDC, the ATSDR, and other Federal agencies to Brick for an investigation, only to learn when they did the study that prevalence rates were high in other communities as well.

Believing we had a serious spike in prevalence everywhere, I introduced the ASSURE Act, cosponsored by 199 Members, which was incorporated as title I of the Children’s Health Act of 2000.

Progress, Mr. Speaker, has been made over the many years, particularly in the area of looking at risk factors, but also the overwhelming importance of early intervention.

Mr. Speaker, as my colleagues have pointed out, this legislation reauthorizes and expands the interagency coordinating committee, or IACC, mandating an effective and professional way by Dr. Susan Daniels, the director of the Office of Autism Research Coordination.

Speaking to this, the Director of the National Institute of Mental Health, Dr. Joshua Gordan, said yesterday:

The National Institutes of Health is proud to work hand-in-hand with the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee to ensure the coordination of research efforts focusing on critical topics related to autism, such as developing early detection and screening tools, understanding the genetic and biological underpinnings of autism, and developing and testing the effectiveness of services and supports to improve functional and health outcomes of individuals with autism.

As my colleague, Mr. Doyle, said a moment ago, we have expanded IACC. The Department of Education, Justice, Veterans Affairs, and HUD are now part of it, and there has been an expansion from two to three members for self-advocates, parents, legal guardians, and advocates.

Let me remind Members, and I encourage them even to go online and check this out.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I yield an additional 30 seconds to the gentleman from New Jersey.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, IACC has a strategic plan that is updated every year, so there is no duplication of efforts. Let me ask several essential questions, and all the research revolves around trying to find answers to those seven questions.

HRSA is all about helping the geographically isolated and economically or medically vulnerable. There are 52 Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and Other Related Disabilities, or LENND, training programs and 10 developmental-behavioral pediatric training programs.

They are reauthorized, and we have one at Rutgers right in my home State. They are doing an amazing job. There are 38 organizations that support this, and I hope all Members will support it as well.

Mr. Speaker, autism spectrum disorder (ASD), is “a neurodevelopmental condition characterized by persistent impairments in social communication and social interaction, as well as restricted and repetitive patterns of behavior, leading to difficulty in developing, maintaining and understanding relationships with others.”

As Autism Speaks notes “it is often accompanied by sensory sensitivities and medical issues such as gastrointestinal (GI) disorders, seizures or sleep disorders, as well as mental health challenges such as anxiety, depression and attention issues.”

As prime author of the bill let me extend special thanks to cosponsor Mike Doyle of Pennsylvania for his extraordinary leadership, partnership and friendship and to the Chairwoman of the Health subcommittee Anna Eshoo for expertly shepherding this through the committee with ranking member Dr. Michael Burgess and my deep gratitude to full committee chair Frank Pallone and ranking member Greg Walden.

I also want to thank staff including Kelsey Griswold, Kate Werley, Rachel FYbel, Dr. Kristen Shatynski, and Stephen Holland for their tremendous help and assistance.

And frankly, we couldn’t have done this without so many autism advocates especially Stuart Spielman of Autism Speaks and Scott Badesch of Autism Society.

Mr. Speaker, this bipartisan, bicameral legislation powerfully supports and pursues durable remedies and effective interventions for the approximately 1.5 million children with ASD—approximately 1.5 million children in the United States, in my home state of New Jersey, 1 in 34 children, the highest rate in the CDC study.

This bill also helps adults with autism who were and are today often misdiagnosed, underdiagnosed and overlooked. Language throughout the bill emphasizes that causes, diagnosis, detection, prevention and treatment of autism spectrum disorder must be throughout the lifespan of a person.

According to Drexel University’s Autism Collaboration, Accountability, Research, Education and Support Act, or Autism CARES Act of 2019.

The Autism CARES Act of 2019 assists the parents, families and caregivers who deeply love and cherish children with ASD and want the brightest future possible for them. In addition to its groundbreaking prevalence studies and early intervention work, CDC’s Learn the Signs. Act Early is an amazing tool for parents.

The legislation also robustly supports the dedicated physicians, scientists and support teams who daily strive to treat, research and provide meaningful answers.

The Autism CARES Act of 2019 authorizes a little over $1.8 billion over five years for the National Institutes of Health (NIH), the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA).

Looking back, Mr. Speaker, it was two dedicated parents from New Jersey who helped launch the comprehensive Federal policy we seek to reauthorize today.

In September of 1997, Bobbi and Billy Gallagher of Brick, New Jersey—parents of two small autistic children—walked into my Ocean County office looking for help.

They believed Brick had a disproportionate number of students with autism and wanted action, especially for their son Austin and daughter Alana, so I invited the CDC, ATSDR and other Federal agencies to Brick for an investigation, only to learn that prevalence rates were high not only in Brick, but in nearby communities as well.

Believing we had a serious spike in prevalence, I introduced the ASSURE Act, cosponsored by 199 members, which was incorporated as Title I of the Children’s Health Act of 2000.

Mr. Speaker, much progress has been made. Too often, evidence suggests there is no single cause of autism or type. Genetic risk, coupled with environmental factors, including advanced parental age, low birth weight, and prematurity—among other factors—may be triggers. Other studies have identified ASD risk factors including pesticides, air pollutants, dietary factors.

Early intervention is making a major positive impact in the lives of children with ASD but parents need more support. In 2016, Bobbi Gallagher wrote a book: A Brick Wall — How a Boy with No Words Spoke to the World. In this highly personally moving book Bobbi must read account of raising two children with autism, Bobbi writes: “This mom thing is hard.”

Mr. Speaker, Autism CARES Act of 2019 ensures that the federal government continues to help hundreds of thousands of parents like the Gallaghers—funding research and programs and sharing best practices. The bill authorizes and expands the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee (IACC) managed so effectively and professionally by Dr. Susan Daniels, Director of the Office of Autism Research Coordination (OARC). Coordination is key to maximizing outcomes. The Director of the National Institutes of Mental Health (NIMH) Dr. Joshua Gordon—who also serves as IACC chair—said yesterday: “The National Institutes of Health is proud to work hand-in-hand with the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee to ensure the coordination of research efforts focusing on critical topics related to autism, such as developing early detection and screening tools, understanding the genetic and biological underpinnings of autism, and developing and testing the effectiveness of services and supports to improve functional and health outcomes of individuals with autism.”

New members of IACC added by our new bill are representatives from the Departments of Labor, Justice, Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development as well as two to three members who are self-advocates, parents or legal guardians and advocacy/service organizations.

IACC not only includes a cross section of knowledgeable leaders, but periodically develops the IACC Strategic Plan for ASD and most recently the 2018 update.

The IACC strategic plan asks the seven most essential questions and helps steer research projects and resources to find answers including: How can I recognize the signs of ASD, and why is early detection so important?; What is the biology underlying ASD?; What causes ASD, and can disabling aspects of ASD be prevented or preempted?; Which treatments and interventions will help?; What kinds of services and supports are needed to maximize quality of life for people on the Autism spectrum?; How can we meet the needs of people with ASD as they progress into and through adulthood?; and How do we continue to build, expand, and enhance the infrastructure system to meet the needs of the ASD community?

Also, each year since 2007, IACC has published a Summary of Advances in Autism Spectrum Disorder Research. Dr. Ann Wagner does an extraordinary job as National Autism Coordinator—created by Autism CARES Act of 2014—ensuring the implementation of national autism spectrum disorder (ASD) research, services, and support activities across federal agencies.

As my colleagues know, the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) is the “primary federal agency for improving healthcare to people who are geographically isolated, economically or medically vulnerable.” The work begun under Autism CARES Act of 2014 continues and is expanded with this legislation including the training of health care professionals “to provide screening, diagnostic and early, evidence-based intervention services . . . .” This includes the 52 Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and other Related Disabilities (LEND) training programs across the country.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentlewoman from California (Ms. Eshoo), chairwoman of our Health Subcommittee.

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman of the full committee. I want to acknowledge the ranking member of the Health Subcommittee, Dr. BURGESS. I want to salute Mr. DOYLE and Mr. SMITH for their passion and their advocacy inside the Congress and all the advocates and their organizations outside the Congress, without whom we wouldn’t be on the floor today on this bill.

I am so proud that our Health Subcommittee advanced this bipartisan legislation, sponsored by Mr. DOYLE and Mr. SMITH.

The legislation extends the Autism CARES Act for 5 years, and that is very important. The other very important bookend is that the bill funds research into understanding the biology behind autism. It will help to build the infrastructure at CDC to advance our understanding of autism, and it trains medical providers on screening, on diagnosis, and on intervention. So what is so important in the paragraph that I just stated is understanding the biology behind autism. There is so much that we still don’t know today. This act renews the Federal Government’s commitment to getting the answers.

During the hearing on the bill at our Health Subcommittee, we heard how critical the Autism CARES programs are. Researchers, physicians, parents, and patients rely on Autism CARES to fund the support, services, research, training, and surveillance programs to get people the diagnoses and the services they need.

The act expands research, and it provides services to people who are autistic, with an important focus on addressing racial disparities. Black and Latino children tend to go diagnosed later than White children and are often misdiagnosed. They have less access to services, and they are underrepresented in research. The 5-year renewal addresses these disparities, as well as other challenges related to autism research, education, and detection.

My congressional district benefits directly from the act. I am proud that Stanford University reported CARES funding to research how certain innovative treatments can improve social behavior. Between 2014 and 2017, California received $237 million from the NIH to study autism.

With the Federal Government investing in research, the return on investment can improve the lives of all Americans. I hope that the House votes
Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. CARTER).

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, reauthorizing the Autism CARES Act will continue the scientific development in understanding autism and support those with autism spectrum disorder.

Since its original passage in 2006, we have invested over $3 billion for the National Institutes of Health, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and Health Resources and Services Administration to help the autism community.

We provided services through programs and grants to benefit individuals with autism. We have improved training for those working with autistic patients, including how to better detect and diagnose autism.

We have expanded prevalence monitoring to improve our understanding of our population, and we have also invested in research that transforms our understanding of autism spectrum disorder and how we were able to treat and care for that community.

In Georgia, we are able to see up close what a big impact these programs can make in our children’s lives. Children’s Hospital of Atlanta’s Marcus Autism Center is one of the largest autism centers in the U.S. Since opening, they have treated more than 40,000 children from Georgia and across the country, and we are blessed to have them in our State.

This reauthorization builds on our good work from the past, ensuring that places like the Marcus Autism Center can continue helping our children moving forward. I encourage my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Rhode Island (Mr. LANGEVIN).

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, I thank both the chairman and the ranking member of the committee and the sponsors of this important piece of legislation. I am proud to rise in support of the Autism CARES Act.

This issue is very personal to me. As an uncle of a young man with autism, my nephew, Joshua, I know how challenging this condition can be. I also know that, unfortunately, we still do not know the causes, let alone how to cure autism. It underscores the importance of why this legislation is so important to continue to invest in research and, at best, treatments for the condition.

We do know, Mr. Speaker, that early intervention and early treatments do make a difference in the long-term outcomes.

So the provisions in this bill, the Autism CARES Act, are right on point. It is well thought-out and, again, encourages both research through NIH and the talented researchers who do this important work and, again, those who also treat both children and adults with autism. It is essential we pass this bill.

We also need to pay attention to the long-term care components. There are long-term care challenges that families have to contend with. We need to do our best to support them, and Mr. Speaker, I urge passage.

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Once again, I want to thank my colleague, Mr. Serrin from New Jersey, for being a leader in this legislation and I urge all colleagues to support this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I don’t think I can stress enough how important this legislation is. I do want to thank my colleague from New Jersey, the chief sponsor, and also our Democratic sponsor, Mr. DOYLE, for pushing very hard to make sure that this bill went through regular order in a timely fashion. I agree with Dr. BURGESS that, hopefully, this is something the Senate will take up and will get to the President quickly.

Mr. Speaker, I ask support by all of our colleagues for the bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. WALDEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 1058, the Autism Collaboration, Accountability, Research, Education, and Support Act, or Autism CARES Act. This important bill, led by Representatives Chris SMITH and Mike DOYLE, reauthorizes the Interagency Autism Coordinating Committee along with funding for research, public health surveillance, and workforce development programs that directly impact patients with autism spectrum disorder. Reauthorization of these important initiatives demonstrates our commitment to provide a coordinated federal response to the needs of individuals diagnosed with autism and related neurodevelopmental disabilities. I’d like to thank Representatives SMITH and DOYLE for their tireless work on this important legislation and I urge my colleagues to vote yes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1058, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The title of the bill was amended so as to read: “A bill to amend the Public Health Service Act to enhance activities of the National Institutes of Health with respect to research on autism spectrum disorder and enhance programs relating to autism, and for other purposes.”

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

LIFESPAN RESPITE CARE REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 2019

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 2035) to amend title XXIX of the Public Health Service Act to reauthorize the program under such title relating to lifespan respite care, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 2035

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act of 2019”.

SEC. 2. REAUTHORIZATION OF LIFESPAN RESPITE CARE PROGRAM.

(a) DATA COLLECTION AND REPORTING.—

(1) DATA COLLECTION.—

With respect to the Lifespan Respite Care Program established under section 2906(a) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 300ii–3) as amended, the Secretary—

(1) shall collect, maintain, and report such data as the Secretary determines to be necessary to monitor the effectiveness of services provided to individuals with disabilities under such program, including data on the quality of services provided, the extent to which services are provided to individuals with disabilities (including individuals with developmental disabilities), and the extent to which services are provided to individuals with disabilities and their families;

(2) to evaluate, and to compare effectiveness to other programs and activities funded pursuant to such law, the effectiveness of services provided to individuals with disabilities under such program;

(3) to conduct evaluations to determine the extent to which services provided under such program have reduced the need for institutionalization or other costly interventions for individuals with disabilities; and

(4) shall report to Congress on the effectiveness of such program.

(b) FUNDING.—

The Lifespan Respite Care Program established under section 2906 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 300ii–4) is amended to read as follows:

(H.R. 2035) to amend title XXIX of the Public Health Service Act to reauthorize the Lifespan Respite Care Program established under section 2906 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 300ii–4) is amended by striking paragraphs (1) through (5) and inserting the following:

“(1) $20,000,000 for fiscal year 2020;

“(2) $30,000,000 for fiscal year 2021;

“(3) $40,000,000 for fiscal year 2022;

“(4) $50,000,000 for fiscal year 2023; and

“(5) $60,000,000 for fiscal year 2024.”.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) and the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BURGESS) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New Jersey.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material in the Record.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

There was no objection.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 2035) to amend title XXIX of the Public Health Service Act to reauthorize the program under such title relating to lifespan respite care, as amended.

Mr. Speaker, I move in support of the Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act of 2019, sponsored by my colleague from Rhode Island, Congresswoman LANGEVIN. I am proud to support this program because it provides much-needed respite services and critical financial resources to family caregivers of children and adults with special needs.
Caring for a loved one can be incredibly rewarding but also demanding work. Surveys have shown respite is among the most frequently requested services by family caregivers. However, only a small percentage of caregivers can afford respite care. By reauthorizing and expanding this program, we can help family caregivers to balance their time helping their loved ones with their own needs and interests.

States who receive grants under the Lifespan Respite Care program have the flexibility to support family caregivers in a variety of ways. For example, some States use funds for consumer-directed vouchers or for the training of volunteer and paid respite providers.

My home State of New Jersey received a grant in 2011 and today still offers robust scheduled and emergency respite services to family caregivers. Without this program many families cannot afford these services.

In addition to helping to relieve the emotional and financial stresses associated with caregiving, respite care can also save families and the healthcare system money. Research has shown that supporting caregivers with respite services reduces the odds of hospital admissions and nursing home stays for the loved one.

We know that more than 43 million adults are family caregivers of an adult or child with a disability or chronic condition, and the estimated economic value of family caregiving is approximately $470 billion annually. As our population ages, the need for long-term services and supports delivered in the home will continue to increase and, as a result, so will the burden on family caregivers.

The Lifespan Respite Care program is the only Federal program that supports respite services for all ages and types of disabilities. Respite care is critical to the well-being of the caregivers and the individuals they care for. By expanding funding for this program through fiscal year 2024, which is important because this authorization had technically expired but continued to receive appropriations. Respite care is a critical resource for our caregivers who spend much of their time helping their loved ones each day.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Rhode Island (Mr. LANGEVIN), who is the sponsor of this legislation.

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for yielding his important leadership on this bill and on the committee.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 2035, the Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act of 2019. As many of us know from personal experience, being a caregiver for a loved one is a challenging and exhausting job, and for many Americans, it is a second full-time job. As our population ages, there will be an increasing number of caregivers who are struggling to balance the demands of caregiving with the rest of their lives.

The Lifespan Respite Care program aims to assist caregivers by providing them with the opportunity for a small, much-needed break from their responsibilities. H.R. 2035 would reauthorize funding for this program through fiscal year 2024, which is important because

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield the gentleman from Rhode Island an additional 1 minute.
Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, on my staff, I am indebted to my health and disabilities LA Katie Lee and also Todd Adams, my Chief of Staff, who has been intimately involved in these issues for more years than he probably would like to admit.

I also want to thank again Chairman PALLONE and his staff, as well as Ranking Member WALDEN, for supporting this effort through the committee.

I also must acknowledge the leadership of Senator COLLINS. I hope that our action today will help her in her effort to get this important bill through our sister Chamber.

Finally, again, I want to thank the gentlewoman from Washington State, my colleague, Mrs. RODGERS, for partnering with me on this bill when we first attempted to reauthorize this program in 2011 and for her continued leadership on this issue in Congress and on many others in the disability community.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support family caregivers and vote in favor of the Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentlewoman from Washington State (Mrs. RODGERS).

Mrs. RODGERS of Washington. Mr. Speaker, I want to first just say how much I admire and appreciate the leadership of Mr. JAMES LANGEVIN from Rhode Island on this important legislation. I am proud to have joined with him partnering to lead the legislation this year, the Lifespan Respite Care Act of 2019.

This is important legislation. I think he laid it out really well. It is supported with bipartisan support. It would authorize $200 million in funding over the next 5 years for improved respite care services for families caring for loved ones battling chronic, debilitating conditions.

Today more than 43 million people are providing long-term care for family members in America. The role these caregivers play cannot be understated. They ensure that their loved ones receive the care that they desperately need in their homes and often at a lower cost.

Respite care providers relieve their family caregivers, and it is an essential part of our comprehensive healthcare approach. This legislation will support respite care agencies so that they can support family caregivers in communities across the country.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support it. It expands services and access to care, and it will improve healthcare outcomes.

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, most insurance plans do not cover respite care, but the Administration for Community Living at the Department of Health and Human Services works with the ARCH National Respite Network and Resource Center to provide respite care to caregivers across the United States of America. This legislation is vital to ensuring that we maintain our access to respite care for our caregivers and their loved ones.

Mr. Speaker, I urge Members to support H.R. 2035, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time and just urge support for this legislation. Again, this is bipartisan, and I thank everyone who worked on it.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. WALDEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 2035, the Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act. This legislation, led by Representatives JAMES LANGEVIN and CATHY MCMORRIS RODGERS, reauthorizes critical grants to states to implement coordinated systems of respite services for caregivers, provide planned and emergency respite services for caregivers and volunteers, and provide information to family caregivers to help them access these critical services.

Many of us have had a loved one with a caregiver—this bill provides those caregivers with the support they need and deserve. I urge my colleagues to vote yes on this legislation.

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 2035, the Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act. I am proud that my Subcommittee on Health advanced this bipartisan bill, authored by Representatives LANGEVIN and MCMORRIS RODGERS.

This legislation is now being extended for five years and the funding for the program is being increased. The program is administered by the Administration for Community Living and has provided grants to 37 states and Washington, D.C., since it was created in 2009.

More than 40 million Americans serve as family caregivers and this program is their lifeline. Being an unpaid caregiver for a loved one can be physically and emotionally exhausting and isolating. The average family caregiver is a woman who works full-time and is providing care to both aging parents and children living at home.

This bill allows caregivers to take a break from their caregiving responsibilities. About 85 percent of family caregivers of adults are not receiving any respite services whatsoever but through the Lifespan Respite Care Program, caregivers can receive support services from highly qualified, well-trained staff.

Grant programs through the program support day care, transportation and summer camp for Americans living with disabilities. For their caregivers, these programs give them much needed time off, time to do chores around the house or just take a breather.

These programs are critical to the many Americans, mostly women, who are taking care of their loved ones every day. I’m proud to support this important legislation and I urge my colleagues to vote for H.R. 2035.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2035, as amended.

The question was taken: and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Proceedings will resume on questions previously postponed. Votes will be taken in the following order:

Ordering the previous question on House Resolution 509;
Adoption of House Resolution 509, if ordered; and
The motion to suspend the rules and pass H.R. 3375.

The first electronic vote will be conducted as a 15-minute vote. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, remaining electronic votes will be conducted as 5-minute votes.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 397, REHABILITATION FOR MULTIEmployER PENSIONS ACT OF 2019; PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 3239, HUMANITARIAN STANDARDS FOR INDIVIDUALS IN CUSTOMS AND BORDER PROTECTION CUSTODY ACT; PROVIDING FOR PROCEEDINGS DURING THE PERIOD FROM JULY 29, 2019, THROUGH SEPTEMBER 6, 2019; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on ordering the previous question on the resolution (H. Res. 509) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 397) to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to create a Pension Rehabilitation Trust Fund, to establish a Pension Rehabilitation Administration within the Department of the Treasury to make loans to multiemployer defined benefit plans, and for other purposes; providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 3239) to require U.S. Customs and Border Protection to perform an initial health screening on detainees, and for other purposes; providing for proceedings during the period from July 29, 2019, through September 6, 2019; and for other purposes, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on ordering the previous question.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 234, nays 198, not voting 0, as follows:

House of Representatives alone the authority to establish its rules governing the procedures and methods for the conduct of oversight and investigations, as well as to determine the persons, entities, and organizations specified in this resolution;

Whereas those powers delegated to the committees include the power to conduct oversight investigations, pursuant to the legitimate legislative purposes of the respective committees, matters involving, referring, or related, directly or indirectly, to the persons, entities, and organizations specified in this resolution;

Whereas committees of the House, pursuant to the authority delegated by clause 2(m) of rule 1(d) of rules X and XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, have undertaken investigations and issued related subpoenas seeking personal, financial, banking, and tax information related to the President, his immediate family, and his business entities and organizations, among others;

Whereas the validity of some of these investigations and subpoenas has been incorrectly challenged in Federal court on the grounds that the investigations and subpoenas are authorized by the full House and lacked a “clear statement” of intent to include the President, which the President’s personal attorneys have argued in Federal court is necessary before the committees may seek information related to the President, and

Whereas these arguments are plainly incorrect as a matter of law, it is nevertheless in the interest of the institution of the House of Representatives to avoid any doubt on this matter and to unequivocally reject these challenges presented in ongoing or future litigation: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives ratifies and affirms all current and future investigations and subpoenas issued or to be issued in the future, by any standing or permanent select committee of the House, pursuant to its jurisdiction as established by the Constitution of the United States and rules X and XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, concerning or issued directly or indirectly to:

(1) the President in his personal or official capacity;
(2) his immediate family, business entities, or organizations;
(3) the Office of the President;
(4) the Executive Office of the President;
(5) the White House;
(6) an entity within the White House;
(7) any individual currently or formerly employed by or associated with the White House;
(8) any Federal or State governmental entity or current or former employee or officer thereof seeking information involving, referring, or related to any individual or entity described in paragraphs (1) through (7); or
(9) any third party seeking information involving, referring, or related to any individual or entity described in paragraphs (1) through (7).

REPORT ON H.R. 3931, DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY APPROPRIATIONS BILL, 2020

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD, from the Committee on Appropriations, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 116-259) making appropriations for the Department of Homeland Security for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2020, and for other purposes, which was referred to the Union Calendar and ordered to be printed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 1, rule XXI, all points of order are reserved on the bill.

ELECTING A MEMBER TO A CERTAIN STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. CHENEY. Madam Speaker, by direction of the Republican Conference, I offer a privileged resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 516

Resolved, That the following named Member be, and is hereby, elected to the following standing committee of the House of Representatives:

(1) COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE, SPACE, AND TECHNOLOGY.—Mr. Rooney of Florida.

Ms. CHENEY (during the reading).

Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Wyoming?

There was no objection.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REQUEST TO CONSIDER H.R. 962, BORN-ALIVE ABORTION SURVIVORS PROTECTION ACT

Mr. HUNTER. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on the Judiciary be discharged from further consideration of H.R. 962, the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under guidelines consistently issued by successive Speakers, as recorded in section 956 of the House Rules and Manual, the Chair is constrained not to entertain the request unless it has been cleared by the bipartisan floor and committee leaderships.

Mr. HUNTER. Madam Speaker, I respectfully urge the Speaker to immediately schedule this important bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is not recognized for debate.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 3299
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
This Act may be cited as the “Promoting Respect for Individuals’ Dignity and Equality Act of 2019” or as the “PRIDE Act of 2019.”

SEC. 2. EXTENSION OF PERIOD OF LIMITATION FOR CERTAIN LEGALLY MARRIED COUPLES.

(a) In General.—In the case of an individual first treated as married for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by the application of the holdings of Revenue Ruling 2013–17—

(1) if such individual filed a return (other than a joint return) for a taxable year ending before September 16, 2013, for which a joint return could have been made by the individual and the individual’s spouse but for the fact that such holdings were not effective at the time of filing, such return shall be treated as a separate return within the meaning of section 6013(b) of such Code and the time prescribed by section 6013(b)(2)(A) of such Code for filing a joint return after filing a separate return shall not expire before the date prescribed by law (including extensions) for filing the return of tax for the taxable year that includes the date of the enactment of this Act, and

(2) in the case of a joint return filed pursuant to paragraph (1), the period of limitation prescribed by section 6511(a) of such Code for any such taxable year shall be extended until the date prescribed by law (including extensions) for filing the return of tax for the taxable year that includes the date of the enactment of this Act, and

(b) AMENDMENTS, ETC. RESTRICTED TO MARRIAGE STATUS.—Subsection (a) shall apply only with respect to amendments to the return of tax, and claims for credit or refund, relating to a change in the marital status of an individual for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 of the individual.

SEC. 3. RULES RELATING TO ALL LEGALLY MARRIED COUPLES.

(a) In General.—The Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended—

(1) in section 21(d)(2)—

(A) by striking “HIMSELF” in the heading and inserting “HERSELF”;

(B) by striking “any husband and wife” and inserting “any married couple”; and

(2) in section 22(e)(1)—

(A) by striking “husband and wife who live” and inserting “married couple who live”; and

(B) by striking “the taxpayer and his spouse” and inserting “the taxpayer and the spouse of the taxpayer”;

(3) in section 38(c)(6)(A), by striking “husband or wife who files” and inserting “married individual who files”;

(4) in section 42(e)(5)(C), by striking clause (i) and inserting the following new clause:

(i) MARRIED COUPLE TREATED AS 1 PARTNER FOR PURPOSES OF CODE—For purposes of paragraph (3), individuals married to one another (and their estates) shall be treated as 1 partner.”;

(5) in section 62(b)(3), (A) in subparagraph (A)—

(i) by striking “husband and wife who lived apart” and inserting “married couple who lived apart”; and

(ii) by striking “the taxpayer and his spouse” and inserting “the taxpayer and the spouse of the taxpayer”; and

Ms. JUDY CHU of California, Madam Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 3299) to permit legally married same-sex couples to amend their filing status for income tax returns outside the statute of limitations, to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to clarify that all provisions apply to married same-sex couples in the same manner as other married couples, and for other purposes, as amended.
(B) in subparagraph (D), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple”; (6) in section 125— (A) in subsection (b)(2), by striking “husband and wife who makes” and inserting “married couple who makes”; and (B) in subsection (d)(1), by striking “husband and wife make” and inserting “married couple makes”; (7) in section 165(b)(4)(B), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple”; (8) in section 170(b)(4), by striking “a husband and wife filing” and inserting “individuals married to one another who file,” and inserting “individuals married to one another who file”; (9) in section 213(d)(8), by striking “status as husband and wife” and inserting “marital status”; (10) in section 219(g)(4), in the matter preceding subparagraph (A), by striking “A husband and wife” and inserting “Married individuals”; (11) in section 27(b)(2)(B), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple”; (12) in section 643(f), by striking “husband and wife” in the second sentence and inserting “married couple”; (13) in section 761— (A) in paragraph (1), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple”; and (B) in paragraph (2)(A), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple” (14) in section 911— (A) in subsection (b)(2), by striking subparagraph (C) and inserting the following new subparagraph: “(C) TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY INCOME.—In applying subparagraph (A) with respect to amounts received from services performed by a married individual which are community income under community property laws applicable to such income, the aggregate amount which may be excludable from the gross income of such individual and such individual’s spouse under subsection (a)(1) for any taxable year shall equal the amount which would be so excludable if such amounts did not constitute community income; and (B) in subsection (d)(9)(A), by striking “where a husband and wife each have” and inserting “where both spouses have”; (15) in section 124(b)(2), by striking “a husband and wife” and inserting “a married couple;” (16) in section 1272(a)(2)(D), by striking clause (iii) and inserting the following new clause: “(iii) TREATMENT OF A MARRIED COUPLE.—For purposes of this subparagraph, a married couple shall be treated as 1 person. The preceding sentence shall not apply where the spouses are separated at all times during the taxable year in which the loan is made;” (17) in section 1313(c)(1), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “spouses;” (18) in section 1313(c)(1)(A)(ii), by striking “a husband and wife” and inserting “a married couple;” (19) in section 2940(b), by striking “CERTAIN JOINT INTERESTS OF HUSBAND AND WIFE” in the heading and inserting “CERTAIN JOINT INTERESTS OF MARRIED COUPLE”; (20) in section 2513— (A) by striking “Gift by Husband or Wife to Third Party” in the heading and inserting “Gift by Spouse to Third Party”; and (B) by striking paragraph (1) of subsection (a) and inserting the following new paragraph: “(1) IN GENERAL.—A gift made by one individual to any person other than such individual and the spouse of such individual is not the type of gift described in this chapter, be considered as made one-half by the individual and one-half by such individual’s spouse, but only if at the time of the gift each spouse is a citizen or resident of the United States. This paragraph shall not apply with respect to a gift by an individual of an interest in property if such individual creates in the individual’s spouse a general power of appointment, as defined in section 2514(c), over such interest. For purposes of this section, if an individual is married to the individual’s spouse at the time of the gift and does not remarry during the remainder of the calendar year, then— (A) in section 2516— (i) by striking “Where a husband and wife enter” and inserting “Where a married couple enters;” and (ii) by adding at the end the following new subsection: “(b) SPOUSE.—For purposes of this section, if the spouses referred to are divorced, wherever appropriate to the meaning of this section, the term ‘spouse’ shall read ‘former spouse.’;” (22) in section 5733(d)(2), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married individual;” (23) in section 603— (A) by striking ‘JOINT RETURNS OF INCOME TAX BY USDANTS OR DISTRIBUTORS’ in the heading and inserting ‘JOINT RETURNS OF INCOME TAX BY MARRIED COUPLE’; (B) in subsection (a), in the matter preceding paragraph (1), by striking ‘husband and wife’ and inserting ‘married couple;’ (C) in subsection (a)(1), by striking ‘either the husband or wife’ and inserting ‘either spouse;’ (D) in subsection (a)(2)— (i) by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “spouses;” and (ii) by striking “his taxable year” and inserting “such spouse’s taxable year;” (E) in subsection (a)(3)— (i) by striking “executor or administrator” and inserting “the decedent’s executor or administrator;” (ii) by striking “with respect to both the surviving spouse” and inserting “with respect to both the surviving spouse and the decedent;” and (iii) by striking “constitute his separate return” and inserting “constitute the survivor’s separate return;” (F) in subsection (b), by striking paragraph (1) and inserting the following new paragraph: “(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), if an individual has filed a separate return for a taxable year for which a joint return could have been made by the individual and the individual’s spouse under subsection (a) and the time prescribed by law for filing the return for such taxable year has expired, such individual’s return may nevertheless make a joint return for such taxable year. A joint return filed under this subsection shall constitute the return of the individual’s spouse, any amount, credit, refund, or other repayment made or allowed with respect to the separate return of either spouse may be taken into account in determining the extent to which the tax based upon the joint return has been paid. If a joint return is made under this subsection, any election (other than the election to file a separate return) made by either spouse in a separate return for such taxable year with respect to the treatment of any income, deduction, or credit of such spouse shall not be changed in the making of the joint return where such election would have been irrerevocable if the joint return were not made; and if a joint return is made under this subsection after the death of either spouse, such return with respect to the decedent can be made only by the decedent’s executor or administrator.;” (G) in subsection (c), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “spouses;” (H) in subsection (d)(1), by striking “status as husband and wife” and inserting “the marital status with respect to each other;” (I) in subsection (d)(2), by striking “his spouse” and inserting “the spouse of the individual;” (J) in subsection (f)(2)(B), by striking “such individual, his spouse, and his estate shall be determined as if he were an individual who is married to the individual, and such individual’s estate shall be determined as if the individual were alive; and (K) in subsection (f)(3)— (i) in subparagraph (A), by striking “for which he is entitled” and inserting “for which such member is entitled;” and (ii) in subparagraph (B), by striking “for which he is entitled” and inserting “for which such employee is entitled;” (24) in section 6014(b), by striking “husband and wife” in the second sentence and inserting “a married couple;” (25) in section 6017, by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple;” (26) in section 6096(a), by striking “husband and wife having” and inserting “reporting;” (27) in section 6166(b)(2), by striking subparagraph (B) and inserting the following new subparagraph: “(B) CERTAIN INTERESTS HELD BY MARRIED COUPLE.—Stock or a partnership interest which—(i) is community property of a married couple (or the income from which is community income) under the applicable community property law of a State, or (ii) is held by a married couple as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or tenants in common, shall be treated as owned by 1 shareholder or 1 partner, as the case may be.”; (28) in section 6121(b)(2), by striking “return filed by husband and wife” and inserting “return;” and (B) by striking “his last known address” and inserting “the last known address of such spouse;” (29) in section 7428(c)(2)(A), by striking “husband and wife” and inserting “married couple;” (30) in section 7701— (A) by striking paragraph (17); and (B) by striking “in section 7701(b) by inserting “in section 7701(b);” (31) in section 7727(f), by striking paragraph (7) and inserting the following new paragraph: “(7) MARRIED COUPLE TREATED AS 1 PERSON.—A married couple shall be treated as 1 person.”; (32) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.— (A) The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by striking the item relating to section 2513 and inserting the following new item: “Sec. 2513. Gift by spouse to third party.”. (B) The table of sections for subpart II of subchapter A of chapter 61 of such Code is amended by striking the item relating to section 6013 and inserting the following new item: “Sec. 6013. Joint returns of income tax by a married couple.”.; SEC. 4. RULES RELATING TO THE GENDER OF SPOUSES, ET CETERA.— (A) IN GENERAL.—The following provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are each amended by striking “his spouse” each place

SEC. 5. INCREASE IN PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO FILE.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The second sentence of subsection (a) of section 6651 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by striking “$330” and inserting “$435”.

(b) INFLATION ADJUSTMENT.—Section 6651(a) of such Code is amended by striking “$330” and inserting “$435”.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to returns required to be filed after December 31, 2019.
The budgetary effects of this Act, for the purpose of complying with the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010, shall be determined by reference to the latest statement titled “Budgetary Effects of PAYGO Legislation” contained in Appendix A of the Congressional Record by the Chairmen of the House Budget Committee, provided that such statement has been submitted prior to the vote on passage.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New York (Mr. REED) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York.

Ms. JUDY CHU of California. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Ms. JUDY CHU of California. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I rise today in strong support of the PRIDE Act, the bill I authored with Congressman ANDY LEVIN of Michigan, to bring equality to our tax law.

Last month, we celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall riots, which marked the launch of a pivotal movement for gay rights in our country and across the world. Since then, the LGBT movement has fought battles on the local and Federal level to gain the equal rights that all Americans deserve. To the enormous joy of millions of American families, the Supreme Court ultimately ruled that same-sex marriages are equal.

"Love is love" went the cry, but you would not know it by looking at our Tax Code. Today, a same-sex couple filing their taxes is still forced to contend with out-of-date references that no longer reflect what marriage looks like in this country.

Filing taxes can be unpleasant enough as it is. No family should feel excluded in this process. Most importantly, our Tax Code should not be defining families in outdated and discriminatory ways. That is what this legislation addresses.

With a simple change to gender language removing requirements for "husband and wife," instead using words like "they" and "married couple," we can put the equality promised by our Constitution into the Code.

This bill corrects a second injustice, as well.

For years, the Defense of Marriage Act prevented the Federal Government from recognizing same-sex marriage, even as States began allowing for it. That means that married couples were being denied the Federal tax refunds they earned simply because of whom they loved. That was blatantly wrong, which is why DOMA was struck down by the Supreme Court in 2013.

But though DOMA was gone, many of the impacted families were unable to amend their tax returns because of a restriction in the Tax Code that only allows married couples to amend returns from 3 years ago. That restriction was keeping money out of the pockets of families who had earned it.

That is why my bill corrects this, to allow the IRS to provide refunds to same-sex couples who married in States that recognized same-sex marriage before DOMA was overturned. This is expected to give over $50 million back to the families who should never have had to file separately in the first place.

These are commonsense changes that recognize the reality that marriage does not just mean one man and one woman. That is a lesson already recognized by children across the country who know that no matter who their parents are, they are a family. They should not be told otherwise by an outdated Tax Code.

I urge my colleagues to support this measure, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. REED. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, first, I rise to thank my colleague, Ms. CHU, on the other side of the aisle for her efforts on this legislation.

As we are proposing this legislation, Madam Speaker, we recognize that discrimination in any form is never acceptable and that also the PRIDE Act would remove that gender language in our Tax Code of "husband and wife," consistent with that of the U.S. Supreme Court and now as recognized as the law of the land.

As we have expressed previously in some of our comments on this matter, there are some administrative concerns that we still hold on our side of the aisle in regard to this legislation, in regard to the audit function, the look-back opportunities that are there in regard to the removal of IRS tax records after 6 years, and some issues technical in nature that deal with compliance with this legislation.

We hope that those concerns can be dealt with administratively, but at its heart, I personally stand here and join with my colleague from California in support of this legislation and look forward to the adoption of it, as I anticipate the passage of it here on the floor.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. JUDY CHU of California. Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. NEAL), the chair of our committee who has led us in such an excellent way.

Mr. NEAL. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from California (Ms. JUDY CHU) for the really extraordinary job and leadership that she offered on this legislation.
Mr. SCHWEIKERT. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman from New York (Mr. REED) for yielding.

Madam Speaker, the reason I am behind the microphone is because, in the committee, we actually asked the question of states and others who were testifying to this look-back to be able to file for the marriage deduction and benefits would not create a new avenue of audit, would not create a new channel for opening up someone's tax records for a new line of investigation. The feedback we received as a committee was saying, no, this was very specifically just to this benefit.

Did the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. NEAL) hear the same thing?

Mr. NEAL. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. SCHWEIKERT. I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts.

Mr. NEAL. Madam Speaker, that was carefully tailored, yes.

Mr. SCHWEIKERT. Madam Speaker, I just thought it is important for all of us to hear it on the Record that we are not opening up a new avenue of investigation because I need to be brutally honest that the language of the legislation, I don’t think, is crisp enough on that point. Let’s make sure it is cleanly in the judgment of the IRS we have produced here today.

Mr. NEAL. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his friendly inquiry.

Mr. REED. Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. JUDY CHU of California. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. LEVIN), who is the coauthor of this bill and introduced this bill with me.

Mr. LEVIN of Michigan. Madam Speaker, I yield to myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to rise in strong support of the Promoting Respect for Individuals’ Gender and Equality (PRIDE) Act, which I have been privileged to colead with Congresswoman CHU.

This bill is about moving our country closer to true equality and equity for the LGBTQ community. We have an opportunity today to send a message to LGBTQ married couples across America that their unions are recognized, valued, and dignified by the U.S. Government.

I am especially proud that this bill includes the text of my bill, H.R. 1244, the Equal Dignity for Married Taxpayers Act, which addresses the glaring problem that the Tax Code is replete with out-of-date references to marriage that no longer reflect the institution of legal marriage in this country.

One of all of our laws, should accurately represent and include all the people to whom it applies.

Gendered language in the Tax Code represents a time when LGBTQ couples could not get married. Fortunately, those days are over and marriage equality is the law of the land.

We need to ensure that our laws reflect the vibrant diversity of our democracy, and this legislation will remove another vestige of discrimination from our country’s code of laws.

Including language that is inclusive of LGBTQ couples and families is a small change that will have a huge impact, affirming loud and clear to all of our brothers and sisters in spirit in the LGBTQ community that we love them, that they are part of our Nation.

We also have an opportunity with the PRIDE Act to correct an injustice experienced by LGBTQ couples who married in States before marriage equality was finally recognized nationwide in the Supreme Court’s Obergefell v. Hodges decision.

For years, LGBTQ couples in States that recognized legal marriage were wrongfully denied Federal tax refunds. The PRIDE Act will allow those couples to amend their past tax returns and receive the corresponding benefits.

Protecting LGBTQ families is not just about tax equity. It is about our never-ending pursuit to move America closer to freedom and justice for all.

Madam Speaker, I thank Congresswoman CHU for her tremendous leadership in her partnership, and I thank Chairman NEAL for prioritizing this effort.

Madam Speaker, I also thank my predecessor and my dad, Congressman Sandy Levin, who first introduced the Equal Dignity for Married Taxpayers Act in 2015.

Madam Speaker, I urge strong support for this legislation across the aisle, both sides, and I look forward to the day when it becomes law.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. LEVIN of Michigan. Madam Speaker, I thank my colleague from California (Ms. JUDY CHU) for yielding.

Madam Speaker, I rise today to join my colleagues in affirming the dignity and respect for married LGBTQ couples. be made in advance, or by reimbursement, from funds of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration in such amounts as may be agreed upon by the Director and the head of the Federal agency providing the services.

(b) SUBJECT TO APPROPRIATIONS.—Contract authority under paragraph (a)(i) shall be effective for any fiscal year only to the extent that appropriations are available for that purpose.

SEC. 3. PENSION REHABILITATION TRUST FUND.

SEC. 3. PENSION REHABILITATION TRUST FUND.

(a) CREATION OF TRUST FUND.—There is established in the Treasury of the United States a trust fund to be known as the ‘Pension Rehabilitation Trust Fund’ (hereafter in this section referred to as the ‘Fund’), consisting of such amounts as may be appropriated or credited to the Fund as provided in this section and section 9620(b). The Fund shall be used only for the purposes of this section and shall not be subject to any fiscal year limitations.

(b) TRANSFERS TO FUND.—

(1) AMOUNTS ATTRIBUTABLE TO TREASURY BONDS.—There shall be credited to the Fund the amounts transferred under section 6 of the Pension Rehabilitation Act of 2019.

(2) LOAN INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Director of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration established under section 2 of the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act of 2019 shall deposit in the Fund any amounts transferred under section 7 of such Act as provided in this section and section 9620(b). The amounts transferred under section 7 of such Act shall be credited to the Fund as provided in this section and section 9620(b).

(B) IN GENERAL.—The plan shall make payments of interest and principal on a loan under section 4 of such Act.

(C) INTEREST.—For purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subparagraph (A), the term ‘interest’ includes points and other similar amounts.

(3) AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS.—Amounts credited to or deposited in the Fund shall remain available until expended.

(4) EXPENDITURES FROM FUND.—Amounts in the Fund are available without further appropriation to the Pension Rehabilitation Administration.

(5) FOR ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.—Amounts in the Fund are available for administrative expenses of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration.

SEC. 4. LOAN PROGRAM FOR MULTIEmployer DEFINED BENEFIT PLANS.

(a) LOAN AUTHORITY.—

(I) IN GENERAL.—The Pension Rehabilitation Administration established under section 2 is authorized under section 4 of the Pension Rehabilitation Act of 2019 to make loans to multiemployer defined benefit plans, and for other purposes, and shall make such loans and other payments as necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and section 9620(b). The amounts transferred under section 7 of such Act shall be credited to the Fund as provided in this section and section 9620(b).

(b) LOANS AUTHORIZED BEFORE PROGRAM DATE.—Without regard to whether the program established under subparagraph (A) is in effect, a plan may apply for a loan under this section before the date described in such subparagraph, and the Pension Rehabilitation Administration shall approve the application and make the loan before establishment of the program if necessary to avoid any suspension of the accrued benefits of participants.

(c) Loan Terms.—

(I) IN GENERAL.—The terms of any loan made under subsection (a) shall state that—

(A) the plan shall make payments of interest on the loan for a period of 29 years beginning on the date of the loan (or 19 years in the case of a plan making the election under subsection (c)); and

(B) final payment of interest and principal shall be due in the 30th year after the date of the loan (except as provided in an election under subsection (c)); and

(C) as a condition of the loan, the plan sponsor stipulates that—

(i) except as provided in clause (ii), the plan will not increase benefits, allow any employer participating in the plan to reduce its contributions, or accept any collective bargaining agreement which provides for the reduction of contributions, during the 30-year period described in subparagraphs (A) and (B); and

(ii) in the case of a plan with respect to which a suspension of benefits has been approved under section 432(e)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and section 305(e)(9) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, or under section 418E of such Code, before the loan, the plan will reinstate the suspended benefits (or will not carry out any suspension which has been approved but not yet implemented); and the plan sponsor will continue to pay all premiums due under section 4007 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; and

(v) the plan and plan administrator will meet such other requirements as the Director of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration provides in the loan terms.

The terms of the loan shall not make reference to whether the plan is receiving financial assistance under section 4261(d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1431(d)) or any adjustment of the loan amount under subsection (d)(1)(A)(ii). The Pension Rehabilitation Administration shall not require the plan sponsor of any plan with respect to which a suspension of benefits has been approved under section 423(e)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and section 305(e)(9) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or under section 418E of such Code, before the date of the enactment of this Act, to apply for a loan under section 4261(d) of such Act.

(2) INTEREST RATE.—Except as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph and subsection (c)(5), loans made under subsection (a) shall have as low an interest rate as is feasible. Such rate shall be determined by the Pension Rehabilitation Administration and shall—

(A) be lower than the rate of interest on such date, and

(B) shall have as low an interest rate as is feasible. The rate charged on such loans shall be determined by the Pension Administration Authority and shall—

(i) a rate 0.2 percentage points higher than

(ii) the rate necessary to collect revenues sufficient to administer the program under this section.

(c) LOAN APPLICATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—In applying for a loan under subsection (a), the plan sponsor shall—

(A) demonstrate that, except as provided in subparagraph (C)—

(i) the loan will enable the plan to avoid insolvent the 30-year Treasury securities on the first day of the calendar year in which the loan is issued, and

(ii) the rate necessary to collect revenues sufficient to administer the program under this section.

(d) LOAN AMOUNT AND USE.—

(1) AMOUNT OF LOAN.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B) and paragraph (2), the amount of any loan under subsection (a) shall be, as demonstrated by the plan sponsor on the application, the amount which—

(i) the plan is reasonably expected to be able to pay benefits and the interest on the loan during such period and to accumulate sufficient funds to repay the principal when due;

(ii) the plan is reasonably expected to be able to pay benefits and the interest on the loan during such period and to accumulate sufficient funds to repay the principal when due;

(iii) the suspension of benefits shall not be taken into account in applying subparagraph (A); and

(iv) the amount shall be the amount sufficient to provide benefits and the interest on the amount under subsection (d).

(B) PLAN WITH SUSPENDED BENEFITS.—In the case of a plan in which a suspension of benefits has been approved under section 423(e)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and section 305(e)(9) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1065(e)(9)) or under section 418E of such Code—

(i) the suspension of benefits shall not be taken into account in applying subparagraph (A); and

(ii) the loan amount shall be the amount sufficient to provide benefits and the interest on the amount under subsection (d).

(C) COORDINATION WITH PBGC FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.—In the case of a plan which is also applying for financial assistance under section 4261(d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1431(d)) in combination with the loan to enable the plan to avoid insolvent the loan and to pay benefits, or is already receiving financial assistance as a result of a previous application;

(D) state in what manner the loan proceeds will be invested pursuant to subsection (d), the person or entity that will purchase any annuity contracts under such subsection will be purchased, and the person who will be the investment manager for any portfolio implemented under such subsection;

(E) include such other information and certifications as the Director of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration shall require.

(2) STANDARD FOR ACCEPTING ACTUARIAL AND PLAN SPONSOR DETERMINATIONS AND DEMONSTRATIONS IN THE APPLICATION.—In evaluating the plan sponsor’s application, the Director of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration shall accept the determinations and demonstrations in the application unless the Director, in consultation with the Director of the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of Labor, concludes that any such determinations or demonstrations in the application (or any underlying assumptions) are unreasonable or are inconsistent with any rules issued by the Director pursuant to subsection (g).

(3) REQUIRED ACTIONS; DEEMED APPROVAL.—The Pension Rehabilitation Administration shall approve or deny any application under this subsection within 90 days after the submission of such application. An application shall be deemed approved unless the Director notifies the plan sponsor of the denial of such application and the reasons for such denial. Any approval or denial of an application by the Director of the Pension Rehabilitation Administration shall be treated as a final agency action for purposes of section 704 of title 5, United States Code.

(3) USE OF LOAN FUNDS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding section 422(c)(2)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and section 305(c)(2)(A)(ii) of such Act, the loan received under subsection (a) shall only be used to purchase annuity contracts which meet the requirements of subparagraph (B) or to implement a portfolio described in subparagraph (C) or (D) of the Act, and the purchase of such contracts shall meet all applicable fiduciary standards under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

(B) PORTFOLIO.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—A portfolio described in this subparagraph is—

(1) a cash matching portfolio or duration matching portfolio consisting of investment grade (as rated by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization) fixed income investments, including United States dollar-denominated public or private debt obligations issued or guaranteed by the United States or a foreign government, government agencies, or foreign government agencies and are issued at fixed or zero coupon rates; or

(ii) any other portfolio prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury in regulations which has a similar risk profile to the portfolios described in subclause (I) and is equally protective of the interests of participants and beneficiaries.

Once implemented, such a portfolio shall be maintained until all liabilities to participants and beneficiaries in pay status, and terminated vested participants, at the time of the loan are satisfied.

(ii) FIDUCIARY DUTY.—Any investment manager of a portfolio under this subparagraph shall acknowledge in writing that such person is a fiduciary under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 with respect to the plan.

(C) ACCOUNTING.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Any portfolio contracts purchased and portfolios implemented under this paragraph shall be used solely to provide the benefits described in subparagraph (1) until such benefits have been paid and shall be accounted for separately from the other assets of the plan.

(D) OVERSIGHT OF NON-ANNUITY INVESTMENTS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Any portfolio implemented under this paragraph shall be subject to oversight by the Pension Rehabilitation Administration including a mandatory triennial review of the adequacy of the portfolio to provide the benefits described in paragraph (1) and approval (to be provided within a reasonable period of time) of any changes made to the investment and the plan.

(ii) REMEDIAL ACTION.—If the oversight under subparagraph (I) determines that inadequate, the Director may take action to change the investment manager of the portfolio.

(E) OMBUDSPERSON.—The Participant and Plan Sponsor Advocate established under section 4004 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 shall act as ombudsperson for PENSION REHABILITATION LOANS.—

(i) by applying section 4219(c)(1)(D) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 as of the end of the 30-year period beginning on the date of the loan, the withdrawal liability of such employer shall be determined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974—

(ii) by applying section 4219(c)(3)(C) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 as of the end of the 30-year period beginning on the date of the loan, the withdrawal liability of any employer under subparagraph (A), but the amount equal to the greater of—

(ii) the benefits provided under such contracts or portfolios to participants and beneficiaries, or

(iii) the remaining payments due on the loan under section 4(a) of such Act.

(2) COORDINATION WITH FUNDING REQUIREMENTS.—In the case of a plan which receives a loan under section 4(a) of the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act of 2019—

(A) annuity contracts purchased and portfolios implemented under such Act, and the benefits provided to participants and beneficiaries under such contracts or portfolios, shall not be taken into account in determining the withdrawal liability of such employer.

(3) by adding at the end the following new subsection:

SEC. 6. ISSUANCE OF TREASURY BONDS.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall from time to time transfer from the general fund of the Treasury to the Pension Rehabilitation Trust Fund established under section 5952 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 such amounts as are necessary to fund the program under this Act. For purposes of subsection (c) of this Act, the Secretary's issuance of obligations from the Secretary's issuance of obligations under chapter 31 of title 31, United States Code.

SEC. 7. REPORTS OF PLANS RECEIVING PENSION REHABILITATION LOANS.

SEC. 6059A. REPORTS OF PLANS RECEIVING PENSION REHABILITATION LOANS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subpart E of part III of subchapter A of chapter 61 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

PORTFOLIOS PURCHASED WITH LOAN FUNDS.—Annuity contracts purchased and portfolios implemented under section 4(d)(3) of the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act of 2019 shall not be taken into account as plan assets in determining the withdrawal liability of any employer under such Act, but the amount equal to the greater of—

(i) the benefits provided under such contracts or portfolios to participants and beneficiaries, or

(ii) the remaining payments due on the loan under section 4(a) of such Act.

SEC. 9. MODIFICATION OF REQUIRED DISTRIBUTION RULES FOR DESIGNATED BENEFICIARIES.

(a) MODIFICATION OF RULES WHERE EMPLOYEE DIES BEFORE ENTIRE DISTRIBUTION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by adding at the end the following new subparagraph:

"(H) SPECIAL RULES FOR CERTAIN DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PLANS.—In the case of a defined contribution plan, if an employee dies before the distribution of the employee’s entire interest—

"(i) in general.—Except in the case of a beneficiary who is not a designated beneficiary, subparagraph (B)(ii)—

"(I) shall be applied by substituting ‘10 years’ for ‘5 years’, and

"(ii) shall apply whether or not distributions of the employee’s interests have begun in accordance with subparagraph (A).

"(ii) EXCEPTIONS FOR ELIGIBLE DESIGNATED BENEFICIARIES.—Subparagraph (B)(iii) shall apply only in the case of an eligible designated beneficiary.

"(iii) RULES UPON DEATH OF ELIGIBLE DESIGNED BENEFICIARY.—If an eligible designated beneficiary dies before the portion of the employee’s interest to which this subparagraph is applied is entirely distributed, the exception under clause (ii) shall not apply to any beneficiary of such eligible designated beneficiary and the remainder of such portion shall be distributed within 10 years after the date of death of such eligible designated beneficiary.

"(iv) APPLICATION TO CERTAIN ELIGIBLE RECOGNIZED COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS—For purposes of applying the provisions of this subparagraph, and determining amounts required to be distributed pursuant to this paragraph, all eligible recognized collective bargaining agreements that are in effect on the date of enactment of this Act shall be treated as if they were collective bargaining agreements to which the amendments made by this paragraph are applicable and that were in effect on such date.

"(v) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this paragraph—

"(I) the term ‘collective bargaining agreements’ means any collective bargaining agreements in effect on the date of enactment of this Act;

"(II) the term ‘eligible designated beneficiary’ means any eligible designated beneficiary designated in accordance with paragraph (A)(ii) or, if earlier, the date the collective bargaining agreement is in effect;

"(B) COLLECTIVE BARGAINING EXCEPTION.—In the case of a plan maintained pursuant to 1 or more collective bargaining agreements between employee representatives and 1 or more employers before the date of enactment of this Act, the amendments made by this subsection shall apply to distributions with respect to employees who die in calendar years beginning after the earlier of—

"(i) the later of—

"(I) the date on which the last of such collective bargaining agreements terminates (determined without regard to any extension thereof agreed to on or after the date of the enactment of this Act), the amendments made by this subsection shall apply to distributions with respect to employees who die in calendar years beginning after the earlier of—

"(II) December 31, 2019, or

"(ii) December 31, 2021,

"(C) GOVERNMENTAL PLANS.—In the case of a governmental plan (as defined in section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), the amendments made by paragraph (A)(ii) (or, if earlier, the date the collective bargaining agreement is in effect) shall be treated as if they were in effect in the case of a plan amendment (as defined in section 402(c)(8)(B), other than a defined benefit plan, and no defined benefit plan under subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting—

"December 31, 2021” for “December 31, 2019”,

"(D) EXCEPTION FOR CERTAIN EXISTING ANNUITY CONTRACTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The amendments made by this subsection shall not apply to any amendment to any plan or which is made—

"(I) pursuant to any amendment made by this subsection or pursuant to any regulation issued by the Secretary of the Treasury under section 401(a)(9)(H) or section 4261(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as in effect after such amendments,

"(ii) on or before the last day of the first plan year beginning after December 31, 2021, or such later date as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

"(B) CONDITIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to any amendment unless—

"(I) beginning on the date the legislative or regulatory amendment described in paragraph (A) takes effect in the case of a plan amendment not required by such legislative or regulatory amendment, the effective date specified by the plan; and

"(II) ending on the date the plan is amended or amended and restated by the employee or any designated beneficiary.

In the case of a governmental or collectively bargained plan to which subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 401(a)(9)(E) applies, clause (ii) shall be applied by substituting the date which is 2 years after the date otherwise applied under such clause.

(2) AMENDMENTS TO WHICH SUBSECTION APPLIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—This subsection shall apply to any amendment to any plan or which is made—

"(I) pursuant to any amendment made by this subsection or pursuant to any regulation issued by the Secretary of the Treasury under section 401(a)(9)(H) or section 4261(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as in effect after such amendments,

"(ii) on or before the last day of the first plan year beginning after December 31, 2021, or such later date as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(B) CONDITIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to any amendment unless—

"(I) beginning on the date the legislative or regulatory amendment described in paragraph (A) takes effect in the case of a plan amendment not required by such legislative or regulatory amendment, the effective date specified by the plan; and

"(II) ending on the date the plan is amended or amended and restated by the employee or any designated beneficiary.

In the case of a governmental or collectively bargained plan to which subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 401(a)(9)(E) applies, clause (ii) shall be applied by substituting the date which is 2 years after the date otherwise applied under such clause.

(2) AMENDMENTS TO WHICH SUBSECTION APPLIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—This subsection shall apply to any amendment to any plan or which is made—

"(I) pursuant to any amendment made by this subsection or pursuant to any regulation issued by the Secretary of the Treasury under section 401(a)(9)(H) or section 4261(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as in effect after such amendments,

"(ii) on or before the last day of the first plan year beginning after December 31, 2021, or such later date as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(B) CONDITIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to any amendment unless—

"(I) beginning on the date the legislative or regulatory amendment described in paragraph (A) takes effect in the case of a plan amendment not required by such legislative or regulatory amendment, the effective date specified by the plan; and

"(II) ending on the date the plan is amended or amended and restated by the employee or any designated beneficiary.

In the case of a governmental or collectively bargained plan to which subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 401(a)(9)(E) applies, clause (ii) shall be applied by substituting the date which is 2 years after the date otherwise applied under such clause.

(2) AMENDMENTS TO WHICH SUBSECTION APPLIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—This subsection shall apply to any amendment to any plan or which is made—

"(I) pursuant to any amendment made by this subsection or pursuant to any regulation issued by the Secretary of the Treasury under section 401(a)(9)(H) or section 4261(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as in effect after such amendments,

"(ii) on or before the last day of the first plan year beginning after December 31, 2021, or such later date as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(B) CONDITIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to any amendment unless—

"(I) beginning on the date the legislative or regulatory amendment described in paragraph (A) takes effect in the case of a plan amendment not required by such legislative or regulatory amendment, the effective date specified by the plan; and

"(II) ending on the date the plan is amended or amended and restated by the employee or any designated beneficiary.

In the case of a governmental or collectively bargained plan to which subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 401(a)(9)(E) applies, clause (ii) shall be applied by substituting the date which is 2 years after the date otherwise applied under such clause.

what the bill fails to do. This legislation fails to include any reforms that would ensure responsible funding of future benefit promises or prevent a similar situation from recurring.

The bill also fails to address the chronic underfunding that has caused the entire union multiemployer system and passively accepts that plan trustees and actuaries may continue to underestimate pension promises—to the detriment of workers and retirees. In fact, under H.R. 397, the situation could become far worse.

The nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office, CBO, now estimates that H.R. 397 could increase the Federal budget deficit by more than $16 billion. But that estimate is based on last-minute, bogus Democrat pay-fors and covers only the bill’s first 10 years. If we look at the 30-year scheme created by the bill, we will find a price tag of hundreds of billions of dollars. And remember, it is American taxpayers who are on the hook.

Madam Speaker, Congress was set up to be in this position years ago because Democrats and unions and employers knew that Members and the public would feel sorry for the union members who were not taken care of by those they trusted to take care of them. Every Member here should feel angry about being put in this position. H.R. 397 is a fiscally irresponsible and careless approach that will cause far more harm than good.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I yield myself 15 seconds to remind the ranking member that CBO estimates that the 30-year cost of this bill is about $55 billion of money that will not be paid back, or we can pay up to $400 billion over 30 years. We have a choice. I would pick the $55 billion.

Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from Florida (Ms. WILSON).

Failure to do so will have dire consequences for at least 1.3 million Americans who did everything right. They put in decades of hard work to ensure that their retirement years would be secure, so many of them in physically grueling jobs in mining and construction and on ships and the Nation’s highways.

They often sacrificed wage increases, choosing instead a contribution to their pension plans so that they could live in their golden years with dignity and peace, a life well planned. Yet, after all of that, retired people and future retirees are now living in fear of losing everything they worked so hard for, and that is a shame.

Failure to pass this legislation also will have dire consequences for tens of thousands of current workers and regional economies and could cost American taxpayers between $170 billion and $240 billion.

There is a huge risk, so we must act now. This is an issue on which both Democrats and Republicans should agree. This issue has no party, no race, no religion. We are all in the same boat, and we are running out of time.

Our failure to take action to protect retirees and American taxpayers, our constituents, is not an option. It is a necessity, and we must act now. There is no time to waste. Let’s do the right thing and pass the Butch Lewis Act of 2019 today.

Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from South Dakota (Mr. JOHNSON).

Mr. JOHNSON of South Dakota. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act. It is funny, in this town, rehabilitation is a word we use to kindly describe a bailout. For normal people, rehabilitation is a word that conjures up the idea of someone working today on what we are attempting to fix or improve the $638 billion pension problem before us.

This bill would, more accurately, be called the bailout for multiemployer pension plans. The bill does not contain any of the needed reforms to change the unsustainable trajectory of these plans.

What does the bill do instead? It creates a new Federal Government bureaucracy. It allows for billions of dollars of loans to be just forgiven. It provides loan terms that actually encourage not paying down the principal of these loans.

So to be clear, and to make no doubt, we do have to fix this pension problem, but real progress will only come from a careful, deliberate, and bipartisan process, and this bill was not designed to be bipartisan.

In committee, Republicans were actually blocked from offering amendments that would have improved this bill. So here we are today, taking up floor time for a one-sided bill that does not fix the problem and that will not become law.

When the majority wants to make real progress, I will be here, ready to fix the problem, ready to roll up my sleeves, ready to invest the bipartisan effort needed to make meaningful reforms. Until then, I will vote “no” on the bailout.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I yield ½ minutes to the gentlewoman from Michigan (Mrs. DINGELL).

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I thank Chairman SCOTT for yielding me the time.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank both Chairman SCOTT and Chairman NEAL for their leadership on this issue.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.R. 397, the Butch Lewis Act. This is a historic moment for working men and women in this country, and it has been a long time coming because people have been working on this for a long time.

Today, we are telling millions of Americans who have worked hard, not knowing what was going to happen. They have given up pay raises. They played by the rules. They thought they would have a safe and secure retirement. By passing the Butch Lewis Act, we are sending a loud message that we hear them and are taking steps to ensure that their retirement that they worked for, for a lifetime, will be there when they need it.

This is money hardworking men and women earned and counted on to retire safely, to afford to stay in their homes, to afford food on their table, and to afford their medicine. American workers have done their part. The House will soon do its part. I hope the Senate will also act quickly because I know the men and women, they have come to my door at 7 a.m., they have threatened suicide. They are scared.

Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD two letters in support of this legislation. One is from the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and one is from UNITE HERE.

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF TEAMSTERS, July 18, 2019.

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE: The House of Representatives will soon have the opportunity to ensure that more than a million retirees and workers who have played by the rules and received the pensions they have earned through years of hard work. On behalf of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, its retirees and working families, I urge you to support the Butch Lewis Act. As you know, this legislation is of the highest priority for the Teamsters Union.

The multiemployer pension system has for many decades been an essential foundation for providing financial security for retirement for millions of Americans and their families. Now, through no fault of their own, the earned pension benefits of millions of retirees and workers that have been threatened due to the “critical and declining” (financial) status and the impending insolvency of a number of multiemployer pension plans. No doubt you have heard from retirees and families who live with this uncertainty and whose lives have been turned upside down. H.R. 397 will ensure that we meet our obligations to current retirees and workers for years to come and to do so without retiree benefit cuts. It will strengthen these plans and provide a path forward for financial stability and solvency. It will provide improved security for both workers and retirees. And, it will lessen the financial pressure on the Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation (PBGC) which also faces insolvency.

The bill creates a Pension Rehabilitation Administration (PRA) which would sell
Treasury-issued bonds on the open market and then loan money from the bond sale to these critical and declining multiemployer pension plans. Plans borrowing from the PRA can use the money to separate investments that match pension payments for retirees. Retirees and their families are guaranteed their promised benefits. It will also free up the plan’s pension contributions to protect the benefits for active workers.

The financial distress many of these plans face were and are beyond the control of these retirees and workers. Multiemployer pension plans have been buffeted by economic turbulence over the decades—from deregulation to financial melt downs to recessions. Pension statutes and legislation are extraordinarily complex, none more so than multiemployer and Taft–Hartley pension plans. They are both unique in their structure, and the choices they face have to be made. If these plans fail, it will not only impact the retirees receiving the benefit, there will be a broader impact on their communities and the employers who have supported these plans for years. These financial meltdowns cost local and federal governments.

H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act, provides a mechanism for “critical and declining” multiemployer pension plans to address their serious underfunding problem. It will strengthen these plans and attract forward financial stability and solvency. Importantly, the bill does this while avoiding retiree benefit cuts.

I hope that I can report to our retirees and members in your district that you stood honorably worked hard for yourselves and their families, we strongly urge your support for H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multi-Employer Pensions Act.

At a time when hard working American’s are already anxious about an economy where one job should be enough but often isn’t to keep ends meet, we should also be very concerned about the retirement security of millions of Americans.

H.R. 397, also known as the “Butch-Lewis Act”, includes a modest, common sense approach to bringing stability and reassurance to the retirement pensions of over a million Americans. Only a small number of multiemployer plans are facing financial difficulty, but that does not ease the pain and potential devastation for the millions who have worked hard for themselves and their families. We are talking about auto workers, truck drivers, iron workers and other impacted workers who live, work and retire in our communities.

If we do not offer the means to see those impacted plans through to solvency, we will all feel the pain of their distress during their retirement years—a time they have worked hard to attain.

On behalf of our members, I again urge you to support H.R. 397 and stand up for millions of middle-class Americans who should be able to retire in dignity.

D. TAYLOR, International President.

Mrs. DINGELL. I thank Chairman SCOTT and Chairman NEAL for their leadership and taking a lot of words and putting it into real action.

Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, the gentlewoman from Michigan is correct. The union members are not at fault, and hardworking, nonunion taxpayers should not be bailing out the union bosses for their mistakes.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. DAVID P. ROE).

Mr. DAVID P. ROE of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in opposition to H.R. 397 because it is nothing more than a huge step backwards in our work to save failing multiemployer pensions.

It is the government picking retiree winners and retiree losers. Our work in Congress, until now, has been bipartisan with both sides realizing that the excessive costs to taxpayers are too important of an issue to play politics with. I and others have been willing to work across the aisle for a bipartisan solution that works for retirees and for taxpayers.

I yield back. That Congress should bail out union-negotiated pension plans, but not the retirement plans of millions of other Americans who have seen their companies go under and had their benefits reduced as a result, is the most unfair proposal that I have ever seen on the House floor.

The Democrats are telling hard-working Americans that they should not only get stiffed in their retirement, but that their taxpayer dollars should be used to bail out someone else’s retirement. To make matters worse, the bill itself is deeply flawed. It requires no fundamental changes to pension plans in poor financial shape, and no reforms to ensure that troubled plans and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation don’t wind up in the same situation.

Again, instead, the bill gives these plans a so-called loan, and then allows the loan principal to be forgiven if the plan cannot repay the loan. Simply put, this is not a loan. It is a taxpayer-funded gift. Why would anybody pay it back? This doesn’t have to be partisan.

In 2014, as chairman of the Health, Employment, Labor, and Pensions Subcommittee, I worked with the full committee chair, Chairman Kline, Ranking Member Miller, and the Obama administration to develop a bipartisan solution to save these plans. Our plan, the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act gave plans the tools they needed to avoid insolvency and continue offering benefits to retirees.

If we passed such a good bipartisan bill, why are we here today? Unfortu-
Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. GROTHMAN).

Mr. GROTHMAN. Madam Speaker, I have a great deal of sympathy for the people who are trying to help in H.R. 397, and that is why I am a member of the multiemployer task force to get this to the floor.

Obviously, the pension plans are in such horrible shape that to continue with the current system and to continue with this bill would be a very expensive bailout for the taxpayers.

Unlike some of my colleagues, I realize that the taxpayer will ultimately have to put something in these plans. And the reason I say that is the multiemployer pension plan system was set up by Congress in the 1950s, and my guess is, the way it was set up, it is not surprising that it will fail. While the Congressmen who are at fault for this have long since retired and left us, we, as a successor Congress, are supposed to do something.

However, first of all, I don’t think this is a sincere proposal. If it was a sincere proposal, it would have been passed when President Obama was President, and when the Democratic Party was in total control around here, about 10 years ago.

We are going to have to, as part of this plan, change things in the future so we don’t begin to run up more debt immediately. We are probably going to have to have the taxpayer do something eventually, because not only do we have these workers hanging out there, but the way this multiemployer pension plan is set up, a lot of businesses are going to go out under too unless something is done.

But I am saddened today that the bill before us, I don’t believe it is a bill that, for all their talking, people really believe is a serious solution. Because if it was a serious solution, they would have passed that bill 10 years ago.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. NORCROSS).

Mr. NORCROSS. Madam Speaker, first of all, I want to thank Chairman Neal and Chairman SCOTT for bringing this bill to the floor, and my colleague, Debbie Dingell, and Dr. Roe who sat on the subcommittee last time to address this.

The Butch Lewis Act is a bill that makes sure that those Americans receive the wages that they earned. This is not a handshake. These are deferred wages that the said they will put aside during their active career so that they can live out the American Dream; those golden years, those pension years. They are deferred wages.

I know firsthand. Over 3 years ago, my very first speech on the House floor was right here talking about pensions. For 37 years, I have been a member of a multiemployer plan, as a rank-and-file worker. I understand how they work.

But the cost of doing nothing to the taxpayers is far greater than the loans we are giving out now. We bailed out the banks, gave them billions of dollars, but the people who earned these, who did nothing wrong, you are saying no to. We cannot screw the people who earned the wages. It is important for us to pass this because they did nothing wrong. They played by the rules. That is what we do in America.

This is not a grand conspiracy. This is about doing the right thing for the right people, for America. Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. ALLEN).

Mr. ALLEN. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 397. You can call it a sincere proposal, but the taxpayers are going to bail out an underwater multiemployer pension plan. It is just that simple, based on this legislation.

Since my time in Congress, my colleagues and I on the House Education and Labor Committee have held numerous hearings on multiemployer pension plans. I have learned a few things. These plans currently are underfunded by $638 billion.

How in the world did that happen? The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, PBGC, multiemployer insurance program has a $54 billion deficit and is expected to become insolvent by the end of fiscal year 2025. According to the PBGC data, 75 percent of multiemployer multiemployer plans are in examples. These plans are underfunded more than 50 percent funded.

I think we can all agree that the system has failed, and these retirees, I agree, deserve better.

How were they so misled to believe their contributions would cover their retirement? In fact, this is just another example of unions overpromising and underdelivering. The union says, hey, if you pay this, you are going to get this retirement.

As the owner of a small business, I like to think of myself as coming to the table, negotiating, and solving the problem. However, both parties must be willing to find a reasonable solution that works for everyone.

The Democrat vision on the multiemployer pension program is shortsighted and partisan. In the business world, we don’t call that problem-solving. We call that another massive taxpayer giveaway.

Mr. Speaker, I implore my colleagues to abandon this bill and instead work with us so we can achieve forward-looking solutions to protect workers and prevent future insolvencies. Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the remainder of my time.
Mr. Speaker, the bottom line is that retirees and workers in multiemployer pension plans deserve better than a political statement disguised as a legislative proposal.

Advancing this highly flawed bill, which has no chance of being passed on the Senate floor, only renews the delay rather than solutions for workers and retirees who are so rightfully concerned about the state of their pensions.

Mr. Speaker, the individuals in the union did trust those in charge. They are not at fault for what has happened, but I urge all of my colleagues to join me in opposing H.R. 397, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD the following five letters in support: AARP, AFL-CIO, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, Service Employees International Union, and the United Steelworkers.

Dear Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD the following five letters in support: AARP, AFL-CIO, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, Service Employees International Union, and the United Steelworkers.

On behalf of our nearly 38 million members nationwide, and all Americans age 50 and older, AARP is pleased to urge House passage of H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act. This bipartisan legislation would help enable eligible multiemployer pension plans to continue to pay earned pensions to retirees and fund their long-term pension commitments.

Over ten million workers, retirees, and their families are counting on these earned retirement benefits for their retirement security. As part of the FY 2015 Omnibus Appropriations Act, the multiemployer pension plans did not receive any new money. Congress permitted underfunded multiemployer pension plans to cut the earned pensions of current retirees. Congress’ action broke the agreement that was in place for 50 years.

Congress permitted underfunded multiemployer pension plans to cut the earned pensions of current retirees. Congress’ action broke the agreement that was in place for 50 years.

The Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act proposes creating a federal loan program to adequately fund all earned multiemployer retiree pensions and the Pension Guaranty Corporation. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

NANCY A. LEAMOND, Executive Vice President and Chief Advocacy and Engagement Officer.

AFL-CIO.

Dear Representative: The AFL-CIO is pleased that the “Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pension Plans” (H.R. 397) will be on the House floor this week. We urge you to support this bill, as it is the first step towards establishing to address our nation’s looming pension crisis.

Absent federal action, the retirement income security of over one million American workers and pensioners across the country will be in jeopardy because of the impending failure of their multiemployer pension plans. By establishing a federal loan program for troubled plans meeting certain criteria, H.R. 397 reflects the fact that allowing these plans to fail will have a devastating impact not only on individual retirees and their families, but also on their communities and their employers.

The working men and women whose retirement income security is at risk have not forgotten the benefits they earned from the same Wall Street banks that caused the financial crisis of 2008. Many of these Wall Street banks, they played no part in either the industry deregulation or financial panic that weakened many multiemployer pension plans.

Congress has the ability to avert the impending financial crisis by acting expeditiously. The “Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act” is an important bill because it is the only legislation that, thus far, offers a solution to that crisis. On behalf of the AFL-CIO, I urge you to support it.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM SAMUEL, Director, Government Affairs Department.

Dear Representative: On behalf of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers (IAM), I strongly urge you to vote “Yes” on H.R. 397, The Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act of 2019. Commonly referred to as the “Butch Lewis Act,” this highly important and innovative legislation would help save those multiemployer pension plans which are financially-troubled while protecting the earned and vested benefits of current and future retirees.

The multiemployer pension system is on the brink of a real and disastrous crisis. While the majority of multi employer pension plans are financially sound, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (the PBGC) estimates that over 100 multiemployer pension plans, covering more than a million participants, are in “critical and declining status.”

Fortunately, none of SEIU’s plans are classified as “critical and declining.” Neverthe- less, we have followed the developments in plans that are facing possible insolvency as we believe that such a development would cause serious harm to thousands of workers and retirees, to employers, to the economy and to the multiemployer pension system as a whole.

The Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pension Plans Act addresses the problem by creating a federal loan program for all plans that are financially-troubled, but not yet insolvent. In order to be eligible for the loan, the plan would have to demonstrate that the loan would enable the plan to remain solvent, pay all retiree benefits and loan interest, and repay the loan principle when due. During the loan period, contributing employers would have to maintain their contribution levels and the plan would not be allowed to make any increases to retiree benefits.

In the wake of the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act of 2014, a brutal scheme to steal the pension promises made to retirees, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act provides a much needed correction and reparation to the pension reform legislation passed during the 113th Congress. The overwhelming majority of multiemployer pension plans are financially sound. The PBGC itself has stated that it will not need to use its funding to rescue any of the healthy plans. The PBGC does not have the authority to use government-provided funding to pay benefits that are already earned by retirees and workers.

The Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act is the only solution put forth to date which appropriately and adequately addresses the multiemployer pension crisis. By providing a lifeline to plans in critical financial status while maintaining the integrity of the PBGC’s multiemployer pension guarantee program, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act provides a pathway to accomplishing these venerable goals without stealing from retirees, workers, and their families.

Dear Representative: On behalf of the two million members of the Service Employees International Union, I urge you to support H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act. Improving the solvency of troubled multiemployer pension plans and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (“PBGC”) are the two critical issues that need to be addressed, and this legislation will accomplish that without jeopardizing plans that are already solvent.

SEIU and its Locals sponsor 19 multiemployer pension plans covering over 800,000 retired and active participants and their beneficiaries. The health of the multiemployer pension retirement community is very important to our union, our members, and the employers from the health and service industries which participate in these funds. We support a resilient multiemployer pension system that provides continued retirement security to millions of American workers and their families.

Fortunately, none of SEIU’s plans are classified as “critical and declining.” Nevertheless, we have followed the developments in plans that are facing possible insolvency as we believe that such a development would cause serious harm to thousands of workers and retirees, to employers, to the economy and to the multiemployer pension system as a whole.

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 22, 2019.

Sincerely,

ROBERT MARTINEZ, Jr., International President.

SEIU.
The loan program which the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act would establish should maximize the chances that troubled plans avoid insolvency. Thousands of workers and retirees in these plans will be able to avoid devastating benefit cuts. Also, the legislation would dramatically reduce the expected liabilities of the PBGC and can save the PBGC’s insurance program for all multiemployer plans.

We thank you for your support for workers and their retirement security.

Sincerely,

Mary Kay Henry
International President

House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Representative: On behalf of the 1.2 million active and retired members of the United Steelworkers, I urge you to pass H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act. Otherwise known to most as the “Butch-Lewis Act” scheduled for the floor this week. The legislation will reassert our national commitment to millions of retirees in the multi-employer pension system, and ensure that they receive the benefits they have earned without needless cuts to pensioner incomes.

Pensions are one of the most secure forms of long-term retirement if government, industry and workers operate in a cooperative manner to ensure long-term sustainability. Unfortunately, small subsets of plans, battered by federal deregulation, changing industries, and unfair trade, have fallen into decline. After a decade of effort by these pension plans to recover since the Great Recession, plans which by inadequate federal policy could cause almost 1.5 million to lose their retirement and impact all of the 10 million participants who are enrolled in multi-employer pension plans.

Representative Neal’s bipartisan legislation is the guidepost to ensuring millions of retired Americans receive the benefits they are promised. The legislation will create a Pension Rehabilitation Administration under the Department of Treasury and permit the sale of bonds to finance long-term, low-interest loans to troubled pension plans. By shoring up critical and declining status pension plans, millions of retirees will be assured of a continued secure retirement without forced cuts to retirees benefits.

During the loan period, employers may not reduce contributions and the plan may not increase promised benefits. The plan must demonstrate that receipt of the loan will enable the plan to avoid insolvency, pay benefits and loan interest, and accumulate sufficient funds to repay the loan principal when due. Providing federal oversight and access to capital, multi-employer pension funds will be able to manage the long-term commitments to retirees which in turn will reduce long-term government risk of default at the Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation (PBGC).

For these reasons, I urge you to pass H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Conway
International President

Mr. Scott of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, when it comes to the multiemployer pension crisis, the most expensive and harmful thing the Congress can do is nothing. Over the course of 4 years and multiple hearings, including five hearings of a joint select committee, we have repeatedly heard the need to address this issue.

We have also heard about process. Let me tell you about the process. We had 1 year of a select committee—no plan from the Republicans. This bill was introduced in January—no plan. We had a hearing in March—no plan. We had a markup in June—no plan or something before the markup occurred. Then, instead of seriously considering those amendments, they required us to read the whole bill.

Mr. Speaker, we have a choice to make. Members of Congress can continue to write letters and listen to complaints while the catastrophe continues to unfold and unnecessarily adds hundreds of billions of dollars in costs to the Federal budget, or we can act on this bipartisan solution.

The only bipartisan solution pending in Congress today is the Butch Lewis Act. This bill addresses the immediate crisis, protects hard-earned pensions, protects many businesses from bankruptcy, avoids misery, and saves the taxpayers money.

In fact, according to the CBO, this bill, over 30 years, will cost less than $50 billion. Doing nothing over 30 years will cost $300 billion to over $400 billion.

Mr. Speaker, I am voting for the solution. I urge my colleagues to do the same to ensure that all workers can retire with stability and dignity.

Mr. Speaker, I yield the balance of my time to the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. NEAL), and I ask unanimous consent that he may control that time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Virginia?

There was no objection.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act, commonly referred to as the Butch Lewis Act.

Contrary to what you have heard, Mr. Speaker, this is a bipartisan bill. It has Republican sponsors. Peter King is about to speak next. At different intervals, there have been up to 20 Republicans who have signed on to this legislation.

This addresses a real problem that, for 2 years, Congress has talked about and not moved on. For 2 years, we have worked on this. I sat on the special committee for 2 years. It became a debating society rather than an opportunity to act on a measured response to a crisis that is now pending that could be averted by the work that we undertake today. There are 200 bipartisan sponsors of this legislation in this House.

Ten million Americans participate in multiemployer plans, and about 1.3 million of them are in plans that are quickly running out of money. And, yes, we have a plan.

These are American workers who planned for their retirement. Now, after working for 30-plus years, they are facing financial uncertainty at a time when they are often unable to return to the workforce.

It is worth noting that we have not arrived here because of malfeasance or corruption. These are forces of the marketplace that have caused this distortion.

When I heard the gentleman from South Dakota say earlier that this is a bailout, this is not a bailout. This is a backstop.

Do you know what a bailout is? It is the savings and loan crisis. That is a bailout.

Do you know what a bailout is? Wall Street. That is a bailout.

Do you know what a bailout is? When Enron made sure that the people at the top of the corporation kept their money and that the people at the bottom lost their pensions. That is a bailout.

We are talking about a sensible plan. As I have noted, I have worked for almost 2 years to build with the Department of the Treasury an opportunity for a super-administrator to help to nurse these plans back to good health.

Rita Lewis is in this gallery today, and she is a beneficiary of the Central States Pension Plan. She is one of the largest of the underfunded multiemployer pension plans.

She and Butch Lewis did nothing wrong. They played by the rules, precisely as we would ask people to do.

So then we hear that this is about union bosses. Then we hear that this is about malfeasance. This is entirely about people who have been circumpect in the manner in which they have treated their pension plans.

She is looking at a significant cut in her pension after years of hard work and when retirement is finally in sight. Many workers and retirees have stories very similar to Mrs. Lewis’. These are real people with a very real problem if Congress doesn’t act.

The American people sent us here to address problems like multiemployer pension plans, and the legislation before us today, despite what anybody and everybody says, accomplishes that. It would give millions of workers and retirees like those who have joined Mrs. Lewis in the gallery today the security and the retirement that they have worked and planned for in their golden years.

The Butch Lewis Act would allow pension plans to borrow money they need to remain solvent—borrow, emphasis on “borrow”—and continue to provide retirement security for retirees and workers for decades to come while the plan is nursed back to health.

Let me remind my colleagues: Plans that receive loans under this bill are subject to numerous requirements and ample oversight. They are not permitted to increase benefits or to reduce contributions, and loan proceeds must be invested in conservative investments, grade-A instruments. This is not a bailout. This is a loan program. It is a commonsense solution. It is the private sector coming together with public-sector opportunities to address this crisis.

Mr. Speaker, I will have more to say about it when I close, and I reserve the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to avoid references to occupants of the gallery.

Mr. BRADY of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in opposition to H.R. 397, which is truly unfortunate because I know the authors' goals here are very well-intended.

I have worked as a meatpacker; I have worked as a sheet metal worker; and I have worked construction. I know how hard these union families work, both for their wages and for their retirement.

It is why Republicans and Democrats agree we are in a multiemployer pension crisis. When there are over 1.3 million workers covered by these union-managed plans whose pensions are set to be drained entirely over the next decade, that is a crisis. These figures only scratch the surface. If we are to look at the bigger picture of every union-managed pension, less than half the promises made by trustees to these union workers are actually funded—less than half.

To put it simply, there is $638 billion promised to workers' retirement that is absolutely imaginary. That is wrong. That is double counting, and that is what gets people in trouble.

I believe our union workers deserve better. The companies in these plans deserve better.

This bill doesn't make these plans more stable. It doesn't end underfunding. It doesn't make them secure for the long term. And our biggest worry as Republicans, it doesn't solve the problem. So these same workers, years down the road, are going to be in the same problem. We haven't helped them.

I think our union workers deserve better, which is why I strongly urge all my colleagues to vote 'no' on this bill, I give my personal support to the Ways and Means Republicans to work with you, Mr. Chairman, to find a real solution. Our workers really do deserve this.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New York (Mr. KING), and I believe he is a Republican demonstrating that this is a bipartisan piece of legislation.

Mr. KING of New York. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman for yielding, and I address this to my Republican and Democratic friends.

I am the proud Republican sponsor of this bill and I am very proud to be, as far as I am concerned, this bill protects and helps the men and women that we Republicans claim to care about: hardworking, middle-income people who play by the rules.

They are not looking for welfare. They are not looking for a free ride. They have played by the rules. They are the backbone of our communities.
Mr. Speaker, I want to thank Chairman Neal for working with me to make this important change, and I urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. Brady. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Kelly), a key member of the Ways and Means Committee, a businessperson, and who funds retirements and know how hard these workers work.

Mr. Kelly of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman for yielding.

Listen, I share the same concerns. I don't think there is anybody I agree with, probably, on 99 percent of what we talk about than Mr. Neal; and I have been, for the last couple years, trying to figure out how to fix this.

If this would actually fix it, that would be great. We look at this like it is some type of a government program that hasn't been run right; and Lord knows, there is enough of those out there. This is a private plan.

We keep talking about union members, and I have to tell you. I live in a union town. I grew up with union members. I work with people. My dad was the first Kelly in the white shirt to work for crying out loud.

But the question isn't about union members being irresponsible. It is about union plans that just didn't function the way they are supposed to.

If I knew what was going on here today and voting for this legislation would fix the problem, I would do it in a minute. But we know it is not going to. And then we will have people who will clam and say, yes, they passed it. Well, we are going in the right direction. And we know it is not going any further than the floor of the House.

Fixing the plan is paramount. Let's quit figuring out who we are going to put the blame on and figure out how we are going to move it.

I am not saying it is anybody's fault on their own. But, collectively, you have got to look at, if I am a member of a union, I am saying: So all those things that I won at the bargaining table, all that compensation I passed up, all those things that I could have asked for but didn't because I was planning for the future, I found out that the people who I entrusted my future to weren't capable of running the program the way they should have.

The program that we have at my small business is okay. We are going to be able to meet our obligations. We have got to stop using taxpayer money to fix irresponsible decisions or actions by people who didn't—maybe they knew what they were doing; maybe they didn't know what they were doing. I am not blaming anybody. But the real problem sits on our doorstep right now today.

And believe me, there is nothing easier than loaning other people's money to somebody who needs it. I get that. But the truth of the matter is every single penny we talk about comes out of hardworking American taxpayers' pockets. They had no role to play in this, and what we are saying is you are going to have to bail them out.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. Brady. Mr. Speaker, I yield an additional 5 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

Mr. Kelly of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I want to fix this. I want to see it fixed, and I want to see everybody in labor feel that all those generational gains, all of that negotiation actually meant something.

I think it is a shame when they look at, well, why isn't it functioning the way we were told it was functioning when we signed that contract? It wasn't their fault. It certainly wasn't the rest of America's taxpayers. Something failed, probably a lot more than one instance's worth.

But today, we aren't fixing this. We are putting it across something that isn't going to get through the Senate, and we are giving people false hope, which I think is the worst thing we can do. Let's not make promises we can't keep.

Chairman Neal, I would be glad to work with you any amount of time. However we have to do it to get this fixed, it has to get fixed.

Mr. Pallone. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Neal), and I appreciate his laser-like focus on this issue.

We are hearing people in an alternative universe. The problems that we are facing financially are not an issue of mismanagement. It is the near collapse of the economy that plunged it into a downward spiral and the fact that the deregulation by the Congress in the trucking industry meant that there were many, many jobs that disappeared. Many plans were no longer sustainable.

But I find it rich to hear my friends on the other side of the aisle talk about fiscal conservatism and protecting the taxpayer's money. These are the folks who passed a tax bill, without the benefit of a hearing, that added $2.3 trillion to the deficit. And they are ignoring the fact that, if we allow these plans to go over the edge, it will cost five, six, eight times as much money.

Let's get real here. I appreciate the commitment that we have, Mr. Chairman, to a bipartisan solution. There are people on the other side of the aisle talking on that. This isn't the last word. We have things to do, but this is, however, the first step to get us there.
Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Nebraska (Mr. SMITH), one of the leaders of our Tax Policy Subcommittee efforts.

Mr. SMITH of Nebraska. Mr. Speaker, I agree we have a problem with multiemployer pensions which needs to be addressed. However, this bill, I believe, will actually set us back.

It does nothing to address the underlying structural issues of these plans. It actually does nothing to protect younger workers, who will be asked to keep paying into a system which remains troubled. And it saddles taxpayers with liabilities which are unlikely to be paid back, at a massive cost to taxpayers.

Let me provide just one alarming example of how flawed this proposal is, which I also highlighted in our committee markup.

Unless this legislation, if a pension plan applies for a loan and the newly created Pension Rehabilitation Administration cannot make a determination on that plan’s ability to repay in order to approve or deny the loan within 90 days, the loan would be automatically deemed approved.

Taxpayers deserve timely responses from Treasury, but no reputable financial institution would rubberstamp loans like this.

Pensioners and taxpayers both deserve better. Let’s work together to deliver a real solution.

Mr. Speaker, I certainly urge opposition to this bill so that we can, together, focus on a better solution.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PASCRELL), the always erudite Congressman.

Mr. PASCRELL. At the Joint Select Committee on Solvency of Multiemployer Pension Plans hearing last year, my constituent Carol Podesta-Smallen said that her monthly benefits were on the verge of being cut by 61 percent—read—talk—from $2,600 to $1,922. Imagine that loss.

“My biggest fear,” she told the committee, “is losing my home” and “ending up in a shelter.”

Thanks to the Butch Lewis Act, which created our unique public-private partnership, 1.3 million working Americans might not have to fear any longer.

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. ESTES), a member of the Ways and Means Committee who, as a State treasurer, has worked with these public pension programs.

Mr. ESTES. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 397.

Protecting pensions and retirement security for all Americans should be one area where Republicans and Democrats agree. It should be a top priority in Congress.

As the gentleman from Virginia indicated earlier, these plans need structural reform. Sadly, this bill does not include any.

H.R. 397 falls short of making any meaningful structural reforms to address the problems of underfunding or provide a method to pay back the loans. Instead, H.R. 397 provides taxpayer-subsidized loans to multiemployer pension plans that are insolvent or in danger of becoming insolvent.

This is not a smart use of taxpayer dollars while kicking the can down the road. This is unacceptable. We can and should do better.

However, my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, 97, as well.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote against this.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Chicago, Illinois (Mr. DANNY K. DAVIS).

Mr. DANNY K. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I rise to offer my strong support of the Butch Lewis Act, and I do so because we are not talking about giving tax breaks to the wealthiest 1 percent.

We are talking about protecting the benefits of hardworking Americans who have worked for decades: truck drivers, bakers, grocery clerks, coal miners, people who have given their all to make sure that our communities continue to live and thrive.

I commend Chairman Neal and Chairman Scott, the Democratic leadership, for bringing this bill to the floor. I urge that everybody vote for it.

Vote for the men and women who have kept America strong.

Today, more than 200 pension plans covering 1.5 million Americans are seriously in danger of failing. Working families from Buffalo to Boston are threatened with their pensions and their retirement savings being ripped away from them.

Mr. Speaker, the Butch Lewis Act, brought to the floor today under the leadership of Chairman RICHARD NEAL and BOBBY SCOTT, will provide stability and retirement security for millions of hardworking Americans, and I urge its passage.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from California (Ms. JUDY CHU).

Ms. JUDY CHU of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise to offer my strong support of the Butch Lewis Act.

This bill would ensure that multiemployer pension plans can continue to provide security to millions of retired workers, everybody from the Teamsters to the United Food and Commercial Workers.

This is particularly important for my district in Los Angeles County, which is home to thousands of actors, musicians, and so many more creative professionals.

But the American Federation of Musicians and Employers’ Pension Fund is set to run out of money within 20 years, putting their 50,000 members in danger. In fact, it is tragic that this fund has been put in the position of applying to the U.S. Treasury for a reduction in benefits, the benefits that these workers put in a lifetime of hard work to earn.

Instead, the Butch Lewis Act would give pension funds like this loans for 30 years to help build up their funds, ensuring that workers can keep the full benefits that they earned and counted on.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all my colleagues to vote for the Butch Lewis Act.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from New York (Mr. Scozzie).

Mr. SUOZZI. Mr. Speaker, every Democrat and every Republican in this House believes, or at least should believe, that if you are willing to go to work every single day, you are willing to work 40 or 50 hours a week, you are willing to work for 50 weeks a year, you should have a decent life in America.

That is the American Dream: If you work hard, you make enough money so you can find a place to live, you can educate your children, you can retire one day without being scared.

And, right now, 1.3 million Americans are scared that they are going to lose the retirement benefits that they negotiated for.

We have got to work together to try and solve this problem on their behalf.

Chairman NEAL has stated he has been working on this for the past 2 years. People say, “Oh, we have got to work together. We have got to work together.”

Let’s do it already. This is your opportunity to try and move together to help hardworking people in America, to save the American Dream for people that have put the time in, that have done the hard work, that have negotiated for their benefits.

It is time to protect these people. And it is time to stop saying we are going to work together; it is time to work together now and pass the Butch Lewis Act.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 2 minutes.

Mr. Speaker, we have heard repeatedly during the course of this conversation and debate that somehow this is a bailout.

I even heard one speaker reference public pension plans. What has that got to do with this?

The subject in front of us today is the multiemployer pension plan system that is under duress through no fault of the individuals who were supposed to receive the derived benefit on a date certain based upon the contribution that they made.

Instead, we find ourselves in a position where the argument has become that somehow this is a bailout of special interests.

This is a backstop of hardworking men and women who have set aside prescribed numbers of dollars for the purpose of enjoying a period of time in their lives that they have carefully planned for.

Now, let me draw attention to the following. For 2 years we have worked on this solution. We know there are men and women of goodwill on both sides who would like to find a solution. But the truth is, this is the only plan in town. This is the only plan that has been submitted, formally or informally, after planning and work and an exhaustive 1 year of a special commission that came up with no solution to the multiemployer pension plan problem.

So, instead, we constructed, through a careful process, an opportunity where everybody on the Ways and Means Committee was heard.

I have been around long enough to have a special regard for the minority in a legislative institution. They get to be heard. They get to offer amendments.

They offered those amendments. Now, I was prepared to accept a couple of those amendments that I thought were actually pretty good, the provision being that, in order to accept the amendment, they would have to vote for the legislation.

So I hope—and despite what we are hearing, by the way, that this doesn’t have a chance in the Senate—The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself an additional 1 minute.

The idea that we are hearing that this has no chance in the Senate, I disagree with that. I disagree with that profoundly.

There is an opportunity, once this moves to the Senate, to at least have something to negotiate with, the Butch Lewis Act.

And I think that there are men and women, again, in the Senate who are prepared to act on this problem, largely because the contagion from this plan will eventually make its way and leach into the PBGC.

The head of the PBGC, while not endorsing this specific plan, said to me: Mr. Chairman, I am glad you are doing what you are doing because you are going to invite further opportunity to address this problem, short of, in the end, having to bail out the PBGC, which will happen if we don’t formally address the measure that is in front of us today.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Look, it is not enough to do something. We have to do the right thing. We know the Senate isn’t going to consider this bill. They have told everyone. There is no one in the Senate predicting this bill will be taken up.

The White House certainly won’t support it in its current form. But, like us, they believe we need to find a solution.

When all is said and done, I know this bill is well intended. I know the author and leader is well intended because I know him.

I think this will actually delay Congress from making the progress we really need to on this issue.

So, today, after what will be a large partisan vote, we are going to be forced to start over at step one.

I just think union workers and their families, who work incredibly hard every day, that promises to them ought to be kept. And they demand better from us.

To solve this issue, we have to work together to get to the root cause, which is that there are lower standards and less accountability for these union-managed plans. That is why the promises to union workers are worth a third what the promises are to workers in other plans. That isn’t right.

This bill doesn’t do any steps to make these failing plans more stable. It won’t end underfunding. It doesn’t make them more solvent over time for their children, who are working, by the way, in these same very same jobs.

Families of these union workers are counting on these plans, and these workers have put their trust in these trustees to make good on their promises. Too many failed, and too many are still failing.

The truth is, we are in this crisis today because not all managers, by the way, did a bad job, but too many did. They dramatically overpromised and underdelivered. Will we rely on the people who created this mess to do the same thing to the same workers they have already let down?

It is the workers we worry about the most. I have been on the factory floors with these men and women. They are good people. They care deeply about providing for themselves and their families. They just want their promises kept.

What our union workers need is for Congress to come up with a long-term, bipartisan solution now. We will need to start over. Republicans and Democrats working together to develop serious bipartisan reforms.

Again, I pledge to our chairman that Republicans are eager to engage, if asked, to try to find this solution—for the first time, if we are asked, to find a solution.

Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD letters in opposition to the bill from Heritage Action for America, Americans for Tax Reform, and National Taxpayers Union.

HERITAGE ACTION FOR AMERICA.

Hon. Kevin Brady, Ranking Member, House Ways and Means Committee, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR RANKING MEMBER BRADY: This week, the House is expected to consider H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act (previously known as the Butch Lewis Act). The bill would essentially bail out billions of dollars at taxpayer expense without making any reforms to ensure future shortfalls will be avoided. This bill would also set a dangerous precedent for other insolvent pensions, including the $6 trillion in unfunded pension liabilities currently held by state and local governments.

Politically, this is not an easy issue for many offices. Every member wants to assure their constituents that he or she is doing everything that they can to protect their retirement security. But there are four important considerations representatives should take into account before voting on this bill: 1) Existing policies and longstanding pensions shortfalls must be fixed before any other actions are taken; 2) Private sector workers were promised their pensions by their employers, not by the union representatives; 3) There are alternative ways to ensure workers receive most or all of their pensions without a taxpayer bailout if action is taken quickly; and (4) bailouts set dangerous precedents, create moral hazard, and shield bad actors.

Rather than bailing out multiemployer pensions plans through costly loans that will never be paid back, lawmakers should make them solvent by applying some of the tighter rules that govern single-employer pensions (which was done in 2002 for multiemployer plans). Increasing PBGC premiums, placing reasonable restrictions on growth assumptions, and giving workers a buyout option are alternative ways to ensure workers receive their pension benefits.

The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) has repeatedly failed to grow uncontrollably and must be fixed before any other actions are taken. Private sector workers were promised their pensions by their employers, not by the union representatives. There are alternative ways to ensure workers receive most or all of their pensions without a taxpayer bailout if action is taken quickly. But there are four important considerations representatives should take into account before voting on this bill:

1. Allow multiemployer plans to significantly raise premiums to cover their shortfall. The PBGC is currently insolvent, and has already exhausted its $31 billion in asset funds. PBGC premiums should be increased to help cover the remaining obligations of those plans. While this will temporarily increase premiums for all types of employers, it will not significantly increase premiums for private employers. Multiemployer premiums significantly to increase PBGC revenue and obligations, and reduce the PBGC shortfall.

2. Allow multiemployer plans to distribute benefits to retirees. The PBGC is currently insolvent, and has already exhausted its $31 billion in asset funds. PBGC premiums should be increased to help cover the remaining obligations of those plans. While this will temporarily increase premiums for all types of employers, it will not significantly increase premiums for private employers. Multiemployer premiums significantly to increase PBGC revenue and obligations, and reduce the PBGC shortfall.

3. Require that multiemployer pension plans be adequately funded. The PBGC is currently insolvent, and has already exhausted its $31 billion in asset funds. PBGC premiums should be increased to help cover the remaining obligations of those plans. While this will temporarily increase premiums for all types of employers, it will not significantly increase premiums for private employers. Multiemployer premiums significantly to increase PBGC revenue and obligations, and reduce the PBGC shortfall.

PBGC premiums should be increased to help cover the remaining obligations of those plans. While this will temporarily increase premiums for all types of employers, it will not significantly increase premiums for private employers. Multiemployer premiums significantly to increase PBGC revenue and obligations, and reduce the PBGC shortfall.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, might I inquire as to how much time is remaining.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Massachusetts has 1 minute remaining.

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, this has been edifying. There has been an opportunity here for a full discussion about this impending problem that threatens the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. This is an acknowledgment of the threat that is before us.

There is one thing that we have in common today. Nobody doubts the gravity of the situation that is in front of us. Nobody doubts just how serious this is for financial markets going forward if we don't address this issue, given the contagion that I referenced earlier that is likely to occur in other pension plans across the country if we don't address this issue forthwith.

When I hear people say we want to do this in a spirit of bipartisanship, when? For 2 years, we talked about this, and finally, there is a plan that the House is about to vote on in the next few minutes. I am ever so hopeful and optimistic that we, in fact, are going to be able to see the opportunity to pass this legislation and get it over to the Senate.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to support the bipartisan bill H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act. This bill would allow pension plans to get back on their feet and ensure retirees receive their promised benefits.

We must act quickly to ensure that Americans who contributed to their multiemployer pension plans will not have their financial security at risk. That is why I am proud to cosponsor H.R. 397. This bill provides financial assistance to financially troubled multiemployer pension plans covering about 10 million, mostly working-class, Americans across the country.

The financial assistance provide by the bill consists of loans with a 30-year repayment term. For newly created pension plans, they are collectively bargained pension plans covering about 10 million, mostly working-class, Americans across the country.

As an example, the Central States Pension Fund in my district has 10 employers covering more than 1,500 participants. Some of the top employers using Central States Pension Fund are YRC Inc., AFB Freights Systems, Penske Truck Leasing Co., DHL Express, and Air Express International. Without this financial assistance, pensions of truck drivers, electricians, ironworkers, bakers, and many more would continue to be cut significantly—putting their families' financial security and future at risk.

Mr. Speaker, the growing number of families in our country relying on their pension plans is growing and can no longer go unnoticed. We now have an opportunity to help these families protect their financial security.

Mr. KAPTR. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure today that I rise in support of strong, bipartisan passage of the Butch Lewis Act.

The Butch Lewis Act will provide the economic security this body rapped out of from under millions of hardworking Americans.

Across our country, 1.3 million workers and retirees face serious and significant threat of cuts to their hard earned multiemployer pension plans, through no fault of their own. Several of these plans are large enough to take down the entire Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation, threatening the guaranteed security of 10 million Americans.

I have heard the message time and again in my district and across this nation: workers and retirees to earn these pensions. Now they are too old, or their health too unstable, to return to the workforce. The stress and anxiety are sapping their will. Some have taken their own lives.

The Butch Lewis Act will provide much needed and long-overdue relief.

The Butch Lewis Act keeps the promises made to retirees. It guarantees pension benefits they have earned into the future. It does so by allowing troubled pension plans to borrow money needed to remain solvent in 30-year, low interest loans. The plan will repay.

Pensions have afforded millions of middle-class Americans the opportunity to enjoy their golden years with economic peace of mind. Let us restore this peace with swift and just passage of the Butch Lewis Act.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All time for debate on the bill has expired.

Amendment No. 1 offered by Mr. DAVID P. ROE of Tennessee.

Mr. DAVID P. ROE of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Amend section 4(b)(2) to read as follows:

(2) INTEREST RATE.—Loans made under subsection (a) shall have an interest rate of 5 percent for each of the first 5 years and 9 percent thereafter.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 509, the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. DAVID P. ROE) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Tennessee.

Mr. DAVID P. ROE of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

One talking point that I have heard a lot from my friends across the aisle in support of this bill is that Congress has already bailed out our Nation’s financial institutions so we should bail out the pension plans.

While I don’t agree with that sentiment, if that is the argument, then we should treat these bailouts the same. Using this logic, my amendment would set the loan interest rates in the bill at 5 percent for the first 5 years and 9 percent after that, the same rate given to banks under the Troubled Asset Relief Program.

While I wasn’t in Congress at the time TARP was passed, the situation we are in today, considering a union pension bailout, is the best evidence of why we shouldn’t have interfered with a bailout of our private financial institutions. Nevertheless, that decision was made, and now one bailout is being used to justify another. If we believe Congress should be in the business of bailing out privately negotiated, collectively bargained defined benefit plans, we should do so using the same terms as TARP.

A key feature of TARP was the Capital Purchase Program, which provided capital to finance institutions by purchasing senior preferred shares. My amendment would set the interest rate of loans authorized under this bill to the same rate that senior preferred stock dividends paid under TARP’s Capital Purchase Program. If these terms were good enough for the TARP bailout, they should be good enough for the bailout offered by this bill.

The majority refuses to accept the outrageous risk associated with making loans in these plans. Instead, this bill offers low-interest loans to massively underfunded, failing pension plans and allows loan principal forgiveness if the plans can’t be repaid. This is unbelievable. This proves the majority has not believed that the plans will ever be repaid and is simply looking to gift hundreds of billions of dollars of taxpayer funds to these failing pension plans.

What about the retirement plans affected during the same time? What are we going to bail out next? Are we going to continue having the Federal Government come along and throw money at badly managed investments?

We do make multiemployer plans, the government shouldn’t just throw the money at a problem without some guardrails. With TARP, banks were not given low-interest loans over 30 years and told it really doesn’t matter if they repay them or not, that we will forgive them anyway. In fact, those loans were repaid, and the government made money doing that.

Mr. Speaker, having said that, I served as chairman of the Health, Employment, Labor, and Pension Subcommittee for 6 years. I worked on the bill with Chairman Kline and Ranking Member MILLER to help solve this problem. It is a huge problem.

My father was a union member who lost his job 30 years after World War II, so I have been down that road with my own family.

I am willing to work across the aisle.

As Mr. NEAL stated, I was on that committee that didn’t do anything. I am willing now to work on this.

This bill, I disagree with him, is not going anywhere. The PBGC chairman today said that we should work in a bipartisan way, and I am sitting here today willing the to do that. I am willing to do that. I have been willing to for the past 6 years. We did pass that bill back about 4 years ago, which will help with the plans, so I am willing to do that. This plan is not it.

I urge support of my amendment, and I yield back the balance of my time.
Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding. I thank him for his leadership on behalf of America’s working families, and I thank the gentlewoman in bringing this important legislation to the floor.

I thank Chairman NEAL as well for his chairmanship of the Ways and Means Committee, so essential in our being able today to come to respect the work of America’s workers.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the legislation and in opposition to the amendment. Again, this is about the financial security and future of America’s workers.

Our House Democratic majority was elected to fight for the people. Today, as we pass the Butch Lewis bill that is bipartisan, that has bipartisan support, that is exactly what we are doing.

The Butch Lewis Act delivers justice for 1.3 million workers and retirees facing devastating pension cuts. We cannot allow them to be thrown away at these plans’ expense.

Workers are the backbone of our Nation, and we cannot accept a single penny to be cut from their pensions. Congress has a responsibility to do right by hardworking Americans.

We have a responsibility to Americans like Rita Lewis, the wife to Butch Lewis from Wisconsin who has second-stage black lung and relies on a $475 a month pension to pay for his healthcare because he has been denied Federal black lung benefits.

We have a responsibility to Americans like Kenneth from West Virginia who has second-stage black lung and relies on a $75 a month pension to provide for his five children, nine grandkids, and, until recently, his beloved wife, Beverly, who he just lost to cancer. Yet, his pension faces a 55 percent cut.

We have a responsibility to Americans like Rita Lewis, who is here with us today, wife to Butch Lewis, this bill’s namesake, who so heroically fought until his death to protect pensions, including Rita’s survivor benefits.

As Rita testified before Congress: “This pension was not a gift. He worked hard for every penny of that pension. He gave up wages and vacation pay and other benefits . . . so I would be unaware of if something happened to him.”

Now that pension risks being slashed to the core.

Workers, retirees, and survivors like Sam, Kenneth, and Rita are forgoing much-needed medicines, or working into their eighties for more income, and are being robbed of their benefits that they need to help out their families.

Not Rita. She is not working into her eighties.

We must act now. We will swiftly pass this bill to honor workers’ dignity, support their families, and protect their futures.

We must remember that the middle class is the backbone of our democracy, and our workers are the strength of that middle class. In fact, I do believe that the middle class has a union label on it.

In the coming months, the House will continue to build on this progress, passing future legislation on behalf of working families. Our majority is for the people, and we will work relentlessly to restore a government that works for the people’s interest, not the special interest.

I urge a strong bipartisan vote to protect the pensions of workers and retirees, and I urge Senator MCCONNELL to immediately take up this bill so that we can send it to the President’s desk and give comfort to so many families in America.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the amendment. The intent of this bill is to keep loan interest rates as low as possible for two reasons, to get financially distressed plans back on their feet and to maximize the chance of full repayment of the loan.

CBO estimates that, under the provisions of the bill, the cost of the loans, after some defaults, will cost less than $60 billion over 30 years, much less than the hundreds of billions of dollars if we do nothing.

This bill specifies an interest rate to be around the 30-year U.S. Treasury securities rate with a 20 basis-point increase to cover costs of administration. For those plans that elect to repay the loan principal on an accelerated schedule, there is an incentive of a 50 basis-point reduction in the interest rate.

The bottom line here is that this is not a program from which the Federal Government intends to make a profit.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Business Roundtable, and many employer organizations have not endorsed this bill. However, they did send a letter last year that said: “The financial and demographic circumstances of certain plans will not allow them to survive without responsible financial assistance. Consequently, we recommend long-term, low-interest loans that will protect taxpayers from financial liability.”

These business groups recognize that doing nothing is more expensive to taxpayers than the provisions of this bill and a low-interest loan.

The amendment before us mandates the interest rate to be 5 percent for the first 5 years and 9 percent thereafter. This is not a low-interest loan in today’s environment where a 30-year Treasury security rate is 2.6 percent.

Raising the interest rates to the levels prescribed by my friend from Tennessee would entirely subvert the loan program. Nobody would apply, and those who did apply would have to represent an earnings rate that would not be realistic.

This amendment would increase loan defaults, and its effect, whether intended or not, would doom the loan program before it starts. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I would recommend that we reject the amendment.

Before I yield back, I want to say that the gentleman from Tennessee and I disagree on this amendment and the underlying bill, but I appreciate his leadership and expertise. We served on the Joint Select Committee last year, and we agree that something needs to be done because we have a crisis. So I look forward to working with him and his colleague from Tennessee, the Chair of the Senate Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions Committee, Mr. Alexander, as this process moves forward.

Now, I want to remind everybody, if we do nothing, over a million hardworking Americans will lose their pensions, businesses will go bankrupt, and the Federal Government will unnecessarily spend hundreds of billions of dollars.

This amendment will not help. It will actually make matters worse, and, therefore, we should defeat the amendment and then pass the bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the previous question is ordered on the bill, as amended, and on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. DAVID P. ROE).

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, further proceedings on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Tennessee will be postponed.
Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and insert extraneous material on H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HIGGINS of New York). Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from California?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 599 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill, H.R. 3239.

The Chair appoints the gentleman from California (Mr. CARBAJAL) to preside over the Committee of the Whole.

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. STEUBE. Mr. Chair, I yield my time.

person entering CBP custody, to include a full physical exam, risk assessment, interview, medical intake questionnaire, and taking of all vital signs.

In addition, the bill requires CBP to require additional follow-up medical care, including psychological and mental health care.

The bill even requires that CBP shall have on site, to the extent practicable, in addition to the medical professionals employed to conduct the initial medical screenings, " . . . licensed emergency care professionals, specialty physicians (including physicians specializing in pediatrics, family medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, geriatric medical care, and infectious diseases), nurse practitioners, other nurses, physician assistants, licensed social workers, mental health professionals, public health professionals, dieticians, interpreters, and chaplains." If it is impracticable to have them onsite, CBP must have them on call.

May I remind you that our own veterans do not have access to the same list of medical specialists at an initial request at their clinics.

I offered an amendment that was not made in order that stated that this bill would not go into effect until the VA confirms that medical care that meets the standards listed in this bill for detainees is made available to every veteran seeking medical care at a facility of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

CBP personnel should be interdicting narcotics, preventing illegal immigration, stopping child trafficking, and facilitating lawful trade and travel, yet H.R. 3239 would have them, instead, setting up full-service hospitals at hundreds of facilities.

The requirements of H.R. 3239 apply not only to border patrol stations, but also to ports of entry, including land, sea, and air ports of entry, checkpoints forward operating bases, and secondary inspection areas.

As if the current crisis weren't enough of a challenge, the bill requires updates to hundreds of CBP facilities, requisition of personnel and equipment for all CBP personnel at covered facilities, all at an immense cost.

May I mention again, I offered an amendment that would require the DHS to report on the cost of implementation of this legislation.

My amendment would have also delayed the 6-month implementation requirement if Congress does not appropriate sufficient funds to carry out the requirements of this bill, yet H.R. 3239 does not authorize any appropriations.

The requirements apply to facilities no matter the size, the location, or even the amount of traffic. So it applies equally to a very busy airport, processing millions of passengers a year, just as it would to an extremely remote port of entry or to an isolated checkpoint.

Under this bill, there could be more medical personnel working at the facility than aliens on any given day.

H.R. 3239 will also weaken border security at a time when we should be enhancing CBP's ability to respond to the surge.

The bill would limit CBP's ability to house migrants that come during a surge, while simultaneously limiting the number of people that could be housed in existing CBP processing facilities, yet CBP cannot simply process those individuals out to ICE custody, because, again, H.R. 3239 does not fund any additional ICE detention beds.

The practical effects of H.R. 3239 are simply more catch-and-release.

The majority has made no secret that CBP will be forced to release even more people into the United States. This is not a design flaw; it is a feature of the bill.

H.R. 3239 also increases the incentive to exploit children to gain entry into the United States. Smugglers know migrants will be released into the U.S. interior if they bring a child, because of a legal loophole created by the Flores settlement agreement preventing those family units from being detained for a sufficient amount of time to complete their immigrant court proceedings.

DHS continues to see adults fraudulently posing as parents. This loophole is exploited by smugglers and human traffickers on a daily basis, as children are being rented and purchased like chattel.

H.R. 3239 broadens this loophole even further, extending it beyond parents to any adult relative of a child. The incentive to bring a child will be even greater, and human traffickers would now be able to pose as a child's distant relative to evade detection and take advantage of the Flores loophole.

CBP is already confronting a crisis that is worsening by Congressional inaction to fix the loopholes in our laws that fuel illegal immigration. Congress shouldn't make the crisis worse by passing H.R. 3239.

Mr. Chair, I oppose the bill and urge my colleagues to do the same. I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Chairman, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from California (Mr. RUIZ), my colleague and the author of the bill.

Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Chair, I thank Chair LOFGREN for her leadership on addressing the humanitarian crisis at our border.

I rise in support of H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act.

My legislation is meant to prevent children from dying at the border, and promote a professional, humane way to treat children and families under the custody, and therefore, the responsibility of CBP. But before I explain my bill's American-values-based, humanitarian, public health approach, I want to refute a few myths.

First, the myth that this bill costs too much.

My bill will not raise the deficit one penny and does not require any increase in mandatory spending. Instead, it provides the blueprint for how CBP should use its current budget and the $4.6 billion in emergency funding we recently passed to address the humanitarian crisis.

Second, the myth that my bill will make it more difficult for CBP to prevent human trafficking.

My bill specifically allows for CBP to separate a child from an adult if " . . . such an arrangement poses safety or security concerns . . . " such as in instances of suspected human trafficking.

Furthermore, my bill requires CBP personnel to receive training on indicators of child sexual exploitation and abuse.

Third, the myth that my bill requires medical specialists onsite at all times. That is simply not true. It is simply false.

My bill only requires a licensed health provider like a nurse, a physician assistant, an EMT, or paramedic to conduct health screenings, and it empowers CBP to call an emergency responder to help with emergency triage decisions. That is it. And those emergency care providers can include those specialists, but it doesn't require them, all of them, to be on call at all times or to be onsite.

Finally, the myth that my bill is too cumbersome for CBP and will distract agents from safety and security concerns.

One, CBP agents want the assistance in my bill because it provides them with emergency humanitarian and health assistance to free up their time to focus on safety and security issues; therefore, my bill will make our country safer.

And, two—look, I was an early responder after the Haiti earthquake and medical director for the largest internally-displaced camp in Haiti.

If nonprofits can meet the humanitarian standards in this bill in the worst circumstances in the poorest country in the Western Hemisphere, then we can meet them in the greatest country known to man.

So here is what my bill actually does. It creates a simple health triage system and basic humanitarian public health standards. It ensures that every individual in CBP custody receives a health screening to triage for acute conditions and high-risk vulnerability, something that is easy to do. And, no, you don't need a physical exam; it's just triaging. You need vital signs and a cursory physical exam. In fact, for most people, it would take less than 5 minutes to perform.

It ensures that every individual in CBP custody receives a health screening to triage for acute conditions and high-risk vulnerabilities as soon as possible and don't die under the responsibility of CBP.

It ensures that an emergency care provider is on call to pick up the phone and help make triage decisions for life-threatening medical emergencies. That is it. That is all we are asking for.
My bill also prioritizes high-risk populations, the most vulnerable to severe illnesses and dying, to receive a health screening within 6 hours, including children, pregnant women, and the elderly.

My bill requires very basic and necessary things like toothbrushes and diapers.

It includes nutrition standards to make sure that infants have formula and babies have baby food. How hard is that?

In terms of shelter, my bill will ensure that people are no longer packed and piled on top of each other; that the temperature is not too cold, weakening a child’s immune system; and that toddlers don’t have to sleep on a cold concrete floor.

Finally, my bill addresses the challenges of surge capacity, adds training, and requires reporting.

The straightforward reforms in my bill are essential to protecting the health and safety of agents and detainees and children and families in their custody. Let me repeat myself. Let me reiterate. This is not just for asylum-seeking children and families. This bill will help CBP agents.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Chair, I yield an additional 30 seconds to the gentleman.

Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Chair, it will empower CBP to meet the basic provisions for human dignity.

Mr. Chair, I sincerely urge my fellow representatives to listen to their better angels, do the right thing, and vote for H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in CBP Custody Act, to prevent another child from dying in our custody.

Mr. STEUBE. Mr. Chair, I urge all of my colleagues to join me in supporting H.R. 3239.

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Chair, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from California (Ms. LEE), my colleague.

Ms. LEE of California. Mr. Chairman, I thank the chairwoman for yielding and for her tremendous leadership.

Mr. Chair, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 3239, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act.

I thank Dr. RAúL RUIZ for bringing his medical expertise to this body and introducing this bill to bring some humane treatment to families and children seeking refuge in the United States.

This critical bill creates basic standards for humane treatment of illegal detainees within CBP facilities. By establishing health screenings, emergency medical care, appropriate access to water, nutrition, and shelter, these critical standards are a step in the right direction.

Last year, when I traveled to Brownsville and McAllen, Texas, I saw the horrors of the Trump administration’s family detention jails. I saw children sleeping on concrete floors. It is cruel and inhumane. And I, quite frankly, written a letter to the United Nations asking the secretary general to send observers to report on the conditions and treatment of these children and adults.

Mr. Chair, I include in the Record my letter.

His Excellency Mr. ANTONIO GUTERRES, Secretary General United Nations Headquarters, New York, NY.

DEAR SECRETARY-GENERAL GUTERRES: I write today to request your urgent assistance in the ongoing crisis our country is facing at our Southern Border.

As the Democratic Congressional Representative to the United Nations (UN), I am formally requesting UN observers travel to the United States to report on the conditions of detention facilities and treatment of children, based on relevant international law and human rights principles.

I am appalled by the reports and images from detention facilities in Texas and other states along the border, where more than 2,300 children have been separated from their parents by border patrol agents.

This weekend, I will be traveling to the border myself, to witness first-hand the conditions adults and children are facing while in detention.

I urge you to send experts from relevant UN agencies to observe conditions in both Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) facilities both at the border and throughout the more than 17 states around the country that are now housing children who have been separated from their families.

As a mother, a grandmother, and as a psychiatric social worker, I am most concerned about the physical and emotional well-being of children separated from their parents at their most vulnerable time. The American
The CHAIR. The time of the gentle woman has expired.

Ms. LEE of California. Mr. Chairman, it is really our responsibility to protect the health and safety of individuals in CBP custody. We have failed.

By passing this bill today, we are putting critical protocol and protections in place for individuals and making sure that their well-being and health are a priority. We can no longer allow individuals to suffer, be abandoned, or die under CBP. Our values demand that we take this action. It is past time for us to protect adults and chil der free from violence, seeking a safe haven in America.

Mr. CASTRO of Texas. I urge my colleagues to vote yes on this vital bill. And I thank Dr. RUIZ for giving us a chance to do the right thing.

Mr. STEUBE. Mr. Chairman, I continue to reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume to close.

Mr. Chairman, this bill is an important step forward to make sure that we have minimal standards at CBP facilities. It is simply incorrect to assert that the minimum standards provided for in this bill are extravagant expansions of healthcare to people seeking assistance.

If you have a medical emergency, you should call for an ambulance. If you are having a heart attack, you should go to a hospital and be treated. If you have a medical emergency, you have to be dealt with under the section on page 4. If there is an indication of a problem, you have to have the ability to reach out to an expert by phone, if necessary, or to get in touch with the detainee's family or someone else. This is just common sense.

We have relied on Dr. RUIZ, who saw this very system work in one of the hemisphere’s poorest nations—Haiti—after an earthquake where they had no infrastructure. The nonprofits working there could do this. I have no doubt that the richest nation on Earth and the Department of Homeland Security could do as well as nonprofits in Haiti after the earthquake. And to suggest that they couldn’t, I think is really a problem.

I would like to note that if we said that veterans are going to get the care outlined in this bill, it would be a dramatic reduction in the care provided to veterans because this is a minimal standard. We want to do better for our veterans always, but to suggest that they should get this, would be a huge reduction in what we owe the veterans of this country.

I thank Dr. RUIZ for the work that he put into this bill. As an emergency physician and a public health expert, checking with the American Pediatric Association, he came up with a structure that is doable and will save the lives of children.

Mr. Chairman, I hope that we can adopt this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Chair, as a senior member of the Judiciary Committee, I rise in support of the H.R. 3239, the “Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act.”

I support H.R. 3239, because it would require CBP to perform an initial health screening on all individuals in CBP custody and ensure that everyone in custody has access to water, sanitation and hygiene, food and nutrition, and safe shelter, among other provisions.

I have also offered two amendments that I truly believe keeps the CBP staff and detainees safe under the current conditions.

My first amendment to H.R. 3239 requires retention of video monitoring and certification that the video is on at all times.

CBP is considered “at capacity” when detainee levels reach 4,000. However, between May 14 and June 13, 2019, CBP detained more than 14,000 people per day—and sometimes as many as 18,000.

A cell with a maximum capacity of 12 held 76 detainees; a cell with a maximum capacity of 8 held 41 detainees, and a cell with a maximum capacity of 35 held 155 detainees.

Individuals were standing on toilets in the cells to make room and gain breathing space, thus limiting access to the toilets.

There is limited access to showers and clean clothing, and individuals have been wearing soiled clothing for days or weeks. The DHS concurred with the recommendation made to alleviate overcrowding at the Del Norte Processing Center, it identified November 30, 2020 as the date on which the situation would be corrected.

There have been reports of agitation and frustration from the CBP staff and the detainees.

This legislation provides some of the transparency, accountability and oversight that protects the detainees and the CBP employees and contractors.

My second amendment to H.R. 3239 requires that the Commissioner shall ensure that language-appropriate “Detainee Bill of Rights,” including indigenous languages, are posted in all areas where detainees are located.

The “Detainee Bill of Rights” shall include all rights afforded to the detainee under this bill.

In July, Border Patrol was holding about 8,000 detainees in custody at the time of the DHS OIG visit, with 3,400 held longer than the 72 hours generally permitted under the Trans- port, Escort, Detention, and Search (TEDS) standards.

Of those 3,400 detainees, Border Patrol held 1,500 for more than 10 days.

Border Patrol data indicated that 826 (31 percent) of the 2,669 children at these facilities had been held longer than the 72 hours generally permitted under the TEDS standards and the Flores Agreement.

The estimated completion date is November 30, 2020 which is too far in the future for the pressing issue we are having today.

While the judge has said that some single adults had been held in standing-room-only conditions for days or weeks, Border Patrol management on site said there is an ongoing concern that rising.
Currently, there are no regulations to guide CBP on medical evaluation or sanitation within the short-term detention facilities. It is very concerning that CBP has reported the deaths of four children and six adults in CBP custody.

I believe that the adoption of the Jackson Lee amendments strengthens H.R. 3239 by continuing to provide transparency, accountability, and oversight.

I also believe that the Jackson Lee amendment that provided transparency for duties that are outsourced to private contractors to be subject to FOIA through CBP would have strengthened the bill more and is also needed to keep all parties safe.

The CHAIR. All time for general debate has expired.

Pursuant to the rule, the bill shall be considered for amendment under the 5-minute rule.

In lieu of the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on the Judiciary, printed in the bill, it shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the 5-minute rule an amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of Rules Committee Print 116–26 modified by the amendment printed in part B of House Report 116–178. That amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered as read.

The text of the amendment in the nature of a substitute is as follows:

H.R. 3239

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the “Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act”.

(b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents of this Act is as follows:

   Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.
   Sec. 2. Initial health screening protocol.
   Sec. 3. Water, sanitation and hygiene.
   Sec. 4. Food and nutrition.
   Sec. 5. Shelter.
   Sec. 6. Coordination and Surge capacity.
   Sec. 7. Trauma.
   Sec. 8. Interfacility transfer of care.
   Sec. 9. Planning and initial implementation.
   Sec. 10. Compliance or performance.
   Sec. 11. Inspection.
   Sec. 12. GAO report.
   Sec. 13. Rule of construction.
   Sec. 14. Definition.

SEC. 2. INITIAL HEALTH SCREENING PROTOCOL.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Commissioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (referred to in this Act as the “Commissioner”), in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, the Administrator of the Health Resources and Services Administration, and non-governmental experts in the delivery of health care in humanitarian crises and in the delivery of health care to children, shall develop guidelines and protocols for the provision of health screenings and appropriate medical care for individuals in the custody of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (referred to in this Act as “CBP”), as required under this section.

(b) INITIAL SCREENING AND MEDICAL ASSESSMENT.—The Commissioner shall ensure that any individual who is detained in the custody of CBP (referred to in this Act as a “detainee”) receives an initial screening by a licensed medical professional in accordance with the standards described in subsection (c)—

1. to assess and identify any illness, condition, or age-appropriate mental or physical symptoms that may have resulted from distressing or traumatic experiences;
2. to identify acute conditions and high-risk vulnerabilities; and
3. to ensure that appropriate healthcare is provided to individuals as needed, including pediatriic, obstetric care.

(c) STANDARDIZATION OF INITIAL SCREENING AND MEDICAL ASSESSMENT.—

1. IN GENERAL.—The initial screening and medical assessment described in this section are carried out in the best interests of the detainee, the Commissioner shall ensure that language-appropriate interpretation services, including indigenous languages, are provided to each detainee and that each detainee is informed of the availability of interpretation services.

2. PRESCRIPTION MEDICATION.—The medical professional shall review any prescribed medication that is in the detainee’s possession or that was confiscated by CBP upon arrival and determine if the medication may be kept by the detainee for use during detention, properly stored by CBP with appropriate access for use during detention, or maintained with the detained individual’s personal property. A detainee may not be denied the use of necessary and appropriate medication for the management of the detainee’s illness.

3. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section is construed as requiring detainees to disclose their medical status or history.

4. TIMING.—

(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the initial screening and medical assessment described in subsections (b) and (c) shall take place as soon as practicable, but not later than 12 hours after a detainee’s arrival at a CBP facility.

(b) HIGH PRIORITY INDIVIDUALS.—The initial screening and medical assessment described in subsections (b) and (c) shall take place as soon as practicable, but not later than 6 hours after a detainee’s arrival at a CBP facility if the individual is exhibiting signs of acute or potentially severe physical or mental illness, or otherwise has an acute or chronic physical or mental disability or illness; or

(A) exhibiting signs of acute or potentially severe physical or mental illness, or otherwise has an acute or chronic physical or mental disability or illness; or

(B) pregnant.

(C) a child (with priority given, as appropriate, to the youngest children); or

(D) elderly.

5. FURTHER CARE.—

(a) IN GENERAL.—If, as a result of the initial health screening and medical assessment, the licensed medical professional conducting the screening or assessment determines that one or more of the detainee’s vital signs measurements are significantly outside normal ranges in accordance with the National Emergency Services Education Standards, or if the detainee is identified as high-risk or in need of medical intervention, the detainee shall be provided, as expeditiously as possible, with in-person or technology-facilitated medical consultation with a licensed emergency care professional.

(b) RE-EVALUATION PRIOR TO TRANSPORTATION.—In addition to the re-evaluations under subparagraph (A), detainees shall have all vital signs re-evaluated and be cleared as safe to travel by a medical professional prior to transportation.

(c) PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MENTAL CARE.—The Commissioner shall ensure that language-appropriate, in-person or technology-facilitated mental health care is provided to individuals as needed, including pediatriic, obstetric care.

(d) INTERPRETERS.—To ensure that health screenings and medical care required under this section are carried out in the best interests of the detainee, the Commissioner shall ensure that language-appropriate interpretation services, including indigenous languages, are provided to each detainee and that each detainee is informed of the availability of interpretation services.

(e) CHAPERONES.—To ensure that health screenings and medical care required under this section are carried out in the best interests of the detainee—

(A) the Commissioner shall establish guidelines for and ensure the presence of chaperones for all detainees during medical screenings and examinations, and

(B) to the extent practicable the physical examination of a child shall always be performed in the presence of a parent or legal guardian or in the presence of the detainee’s closest present relative if a parent or legal guardian is unavailable.

(f) DOCUMENTATION.—The Commissioner shall ensure that the health screenings and medical care required under this section, along with any other medical evaluations and interventions for detainees, are documented in accordance with commonly accepted standards in the United States for medical record documentation. Such documentation shall be provided to any individual who received a health screening and subsequent medical treatment upon release from CBP custody.

(g) INFRASTRUCTURE AND EQUIPMENT.—The Commissioner or the Administrator of General Services shall ensure that each location to which detainees are first transported after an initial encounter with an agent or officer of CBP has the following:

(A) a private space that provides a comfortable and considerate atmosphere for the patient and that ensures the patient’s dignity and right to privacy during the health screening and medical assessment and any necessary follow-up care.

(B) All necessary and appropriate medical equipment and facilities to conduct health screenings and medical care required under this section, to treat trauma, to provide emergency care, including resuscitation of individuals of all ages, and to prevent the spread of communicable disease.

(C) Basic over-the-counter medications appropriate for all age groups.
(4) Appropriate transportation to medical facilities in the case of a medical emergency, or an on-call service with the ability to arrive at the CBP facility within 30 minutes.

(5) Transportation.—The Commissioner or the Administrator of General Services shall ensure that each location to which detainees are first transported after an initial encounter has onsite at least one licensed medical professional to conduct health screenings. Other personnel that are or may be necessary for carrying out the functions described in subsection (e), such as licensed security care professionals, specialty physicians (including physicians specializing in pediatrics, family medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, geriatric medicine, internal medicine, and family practice), nurse practitioners, other nurses, physician assistants, licensed social workers, mental health professionals, public health professionals, dieticians, interpreters, and chaplains, shall be located on site to the extent practicable, or if not practicable, shall be available on call.

(k) Ethical Guidelines.—The Commissioner shall ensure that detainees have access to—

(1) not less than one gallon of drinking water per person per day, and age-appropriate fluids as needed;
(2) a private, safe, clean, and reliable permanent or portable toilet with proper waste disposal and a hand washing station, with not less than one toilet available for every 12 male detainees, and 1 toilet for every 8 female detainees;
(3) access to food in a manner that follows applicable food safety standards;
(4) the opportunity to bathe daily in a permanent or portable shower that is private and secure; and
(5) products for individuals of all age groups and with disabilities to maintain basic personal hygiene, including soap, a toothbrush, toothpaste, adult diapers, and feminine hygiene products, as well as receptacles for the proper storage and disposal of such products.

SEC. 3. WATER, SANITATION AND HYGIENE.

The Commissioner shall ensure that detainees have access to—

(1) three meals per day including—

(A) a meal for an individual not less than 2,000 calories per day; and
(B) in the case of a child who is under the age of 12, a diet that contains no less than 1,400 calories per day and
(C) in the case of a child who is under the age of 12, a diet that contains not less than 2,000 calories per day, based on the child’s age and weight;
(2) accommodations for any dietary needs or restrictions;
(3) access to food in a manner that follows applicable food safety standards.

SEC. 5. SHELTER.

The Commissioner shall ensure that each facility at which a detainee is detained meets the following requirements:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), males and females shall be detained separately;
(2) In the case of a minor child arriving in the United States with an adult relative or legal guardian, such child shall be detained with such relative or legal guardian unless such an arrangement poses safety or security concerns. In no case shall a minor who is detained apart from an adult relative or legal guardian as a result of an arrangement that poses safety or security concerns be detained with other adults.
(3) In the case of an unaccompanied minor arriving in the United States without an adult relative or legal guardian, such child shall be detained in an age-appropriate facility and shall not be detained with adults.

(4) A detainee with a temporary or permanent disability shall be held in an accessible location and in a manner that provides for his or her safety, comfort, and security, with accommodations provided as required.

(5) No detainee shall be placed in a room for any period of time if the detainee’s placement would exceed the maximum occupancy levels as determined by the appropriate building code, fire marshal, or other authority.

(6) Each detainee shall be provided with a temperature-appropriate clothing and bedding.

(7) The facility shall be well ventilated, with the humidity and temperature kept at comfortable levels (between 68 and 74 degrees Fahrenheit).

(8) Detainees who are in custody for more than 48 hours shall have access to the outdoors for not less than 1 hour during the daylight hours during each 24-hour period.

(9) Detainees shall have the ability to practice their religion or not to practice a religion, as applicable.

(10) Detainees shall have access to lighting and noise levels that are safe and conducive for sleeping throughout the night between the hours of 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.

(11) Officers, employees, and contracted personnel of CBP shall—

(A) follow medical standards for the isolation and prevention of communicable diseases; and

(B) ensure the mental safety of detainees who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and intersex.

(12) The facility shall have video-monitoring to provide for the continuous safety of detained people and to prevent sexual abuse and physical harm of vulnerable detainees.

(13) The Commissioner shall ensure that language-appropriate ‘‘Detainee Bill of Rights,’’ including indigenous languages, are posted or otherwise made available in all areas where detainees are located. The ‘‘Detainee Bill of Rights’’ shall be in all rights afforded to the detainee under this Act.

(14) Video from video-monitoring must be preserved for 90 days and the detention facility must maintain certified records that the video-monitoring is properly working at all times.

SEC. 6. COORDINATION AND SURGE CAPACITY.

The Secretary of Homeland Security shall enter into memoranda of understanding with appropriate Federal agencies, such as the Department of Health and Human Services, and applicable emergency government relief services, as well as contracts with health care, public health, social work, and transportation professionals, for purposes of addressing surge capacity and ensuring compliance with this Act.

SEC. 7. TRAINING.

The Commissioner shall ensure that CBP personnel assigned to each short-term custodial facility are professionally trained, including continuing education as the Commissioner deems appropriate, in all subjects necessary to ensure compliance with this Act, including—

(1) humanitarian response protocols and standards;
(2) indicators of physical and mental illness, and medical distress in children and adults;
(3) indicators of child sexual exploitation and effective responses to missing migrant children; and
(4) procedures to report incidents of suspected child sexual abuse and exploitation directly to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

SEC. 8. INFRASTRUCTURE TRANSFER OF CARE.

(a) Transfer.—When a detainee is discharged from a medical facility or emergency department, the Secretary of Homeland Security may transfer the care of such detainee to an accepting licensed health care provider of CBP.

(b) Accepting Licensed Health Care Providers.—Such accepting licensed health care provider shall review the medical facility or emergency department’s evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, management, and discharge care instructions to assess the safety of the discharge and transfer and to provide necessary follow-up care.

SEC. 9. PLANNING AND INITIAL IMPLEMENTATION.

(a) Planning.—Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to Congress a detailed plan delineating the timeline, process, and challenges of carrying out the requirements of this Act.

(b) Implementation.—The Secretary of Homeland Security shall ensure that the requirements of this Act are implemented not later than 6 months after the date of enactment.

SEC. 10. CONTRACTOR COMPLIANCE.

The Secretary of Homeland Security shall ensure that all personnel contracted to carry out this Act do so in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

SEC. 11. INSPECTIONS.

(a) In General.—The Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall—

(1) conduct unannounced inspections of ports of entry, border patrol stations, and detention facilities administered by CBP or contractors of CBP; and
(2) submit to Congress, reports on the results of such inspections as well as other reports of the Inspector General related to custody operations.

(b) PARTICULAR ATTENTION.—In carrying out subsection (a), the Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall pay particular attention to—

(1) the degree of compliance by CBP with the requirements of this Act;
(2) remedial actions taken by CBP; and
(3) the health needs of detainees.

(c) ACCESS TO FACILITIES.—The Commissioner may not deny a Member of Congress entrance to any facility or building used, owned, or operated by CBP.

SEC. 12. GAO REPORT.

(a) In General.—The Comptroller General of the United States shall—

(1) not later than 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act, commence a study on implementation of, and compliance with, this Act; and
(2) not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, submit a report to Congress on the results of such study.

(b) Issues to Be Studied.—The study required by subsection (a) shall examine the management and oversight by CBP of ports of entry, border patrol stations, and other detention facilities, including the extent to which CBP and the Department of Homeland Security have effective processes in place to comply with this Act. The study shall also examine the extent to which CBP personnel, in carrying out this Act, make abusive, derogative, profane, or harassing statements or gestures, or engage in other conduct evidencing hatred or invidious prejudice to or about one person or group on account of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability, including on social media.

SEC. 13. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.

Nothing in this Act may be construed as—

(1) authorizing CBP to detain individuals for longer than 72 hours; or
(2) as contradicting the March 7, 2014, Department of Homeland Security, the Secretaries of Standards to Prevent, Detect, and Respond to Sexual Abuse and Assault in Confinement Facilities, which includes a zero tolerance policy prohibiting all forms of sexual assault of individuals in U.S. Customs and Border Protection custody, including in holding facilities, during transport, and during processing; or
(3) as relating to background checks in the hiring process.

ties deserve to be treated with compassion and respect. Unfortunately, due to the misguided policies of the Trump administration, many migrants have found themselves stuck living in inhuman cases.

Earlier this month, I visited one of those facilities in McAllen, Texas, and I was struck by the conditions that overcrowding and understaffing have created. The Joint Commission, the agency mandated by law to accredit hospitals, did not accredit any of the CBP facilities in Texas.

I am proud of my colleague, Congressman RAUL RUIZ, and the Judiciary Committee and the leadership of Congresswoman ZOE LOFGREN for putting together a comprehensive piece of legislation that alleviates the suf-fing of some of these migrants.

My amendment is very simple. It directs the Department of Homeland Se-curity’s Office of Inspector General to pay particular attention to whether CBP facilities comply with the Department of Homeland Security’s sexual abuse prevention policies while inspecting detention facilities.

Many provisions in DHS' standards to prevent, detect, and respond to sexual abuse and assault in facilities are designed to ensure the safety of not only those in custody, but also of CBP personnel and staff in CBP fa-

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 86, the gentlewoman from New Hampshire (Ms. Kuster) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New Hampshire.

Ms. KUSTER of New Hampshire. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Chairman, migrants in Customs and Border Protection holding facilities deserve to be treated with compas-

Northern Triangle, and I want to thank the gentlewoman again for recognizing that.

So, I rise to support the Kuster amendment, and I rise to support the underlying bill, H.R. 3239.

I thank the gentlewoman from California for her leadership, and I thank my good friend Dr. RAUL RUIZ. We have talked about this. The gentleman has talked about this. I have heard the gentlewoman on many occasions speaking to us as Members of Congress, not Democrats and Republicans and Independents who would listen.

In his conversation, we did not hear anything that would suggest that we would undermine, in any way, our friends or veterans who are in need of great medical care. We stand ready, as we have done over the past, to continue to try to pull dollars to help them.

This bill in particular deals with CBP to perform an initial health screening on all individuals in CBP custody, and ensures that everyone in custody has access to water, sanitation, hygiene, food, nutrition, and safe shelter.

But having been to the border, I will say that they are still in cages. They are still in small areas where they only have standing room.

This is to protect both contractors, employees, and those human beings who came because they are desperate and fleeing violence. The stories tell you of their fathers being murdered, their mothers being murdered, and their sons being taken away.

This underlying bill, its purpose is to ensure that the American people are protected so that epidemics don’t start, so that little babies don’t die—like the seven who have died on the watch of the Trump administration.

I am delighted that my amendment was included, which requires retention of video monitoring and certification that the video is on at all times. It will reflect the absence of sexual violence prevention on college campuses and in the military, I have learned that the absence of formal complaints, that CBP facilities are rife with sexual abuse. And the further implication is that CBP personnel continue to actually prevent such abuse.

Ten months after FY18, CBP has yet to release its report on abuse last year. From my own experience working on sexual violence prevention on college campuses and in the military, I have learned that the absence of formal complaints does not reflect the absence of sexual violence but, rather, signals a culture that prevents people from reporting violence.

According to a Freedom of Information Act request, between January of 2010 and July of 2016, the Department of Homeland Security Office of Inspector General received 624 complaints about sexual abuse at Customs and Border Protection facilities. Considered in conjunction, CBP’s failure to promptly publish its own sexual abuse data, and the stories of survivors who have come forward, there is a clear need to improve transparency about sexual abuse at CBP.

My amendment, which I was proud to introduce with Representatives MOORE and CINNERS, directs the Secretary of Homeland Security, working with the DHS office that typically receives complaints of sexual abuse, to release all complaints and sexual abuse does not reflect the absence of sexual violence but, rather, signals a culture that prevents people from reporting violence.

According to the agency’s most recent report on assessing sexual abuse at holding facilities, in fiscal year 2017, CBP processed more than 534,000 individuals in its holding facilities, and yet the agency itself only received seven claims of sexual abuse.

Ten months after FY18, CBP has yet to release its report on abuse last year. This amendment requires all complaints to be aggregated and published quarterly, regardless of whether an investigation is complete, regardless of whether the complaint was substantiated, and regardless of whether the victim was a CBP employee, contractor, or detainee.

We will not know whether those complaints were ever substantiated or unsubstantiated pursuant to an investigation.

We will not know whether those complaints were against CBP personnel, contracted staff, or against other aliens in the facility.

We will not know whether the victims were CBP personnel, contracted staff, or against other aliens in the facility.

I am also concerned that the amendment requires CBP to exclude personally identifiable information of the individual who reported the abuse, but it is impossible, as to the publication of personally identifiable information of the accused. It would be inappropriate to publish a complaint against an individual without any context, especially if an investigation later determines that the complaint is unsubstantiated.

The Judiciary Committee already went through a similar situation with Health and Human Services, where one member of the majority claimed that hundreds of sexual abuse allegations were made against DHS employees when, in fact, the allegations by unaccompanied alien children were against contractors and other UACs.

The requirements of this amendment will simply give the appearance, regardless of the facts or ultimate outcome of the investigation into the complaints, that CBP facilities are rife with sexual abuse. And the further implication is that CBP personnel committed sexual violence. Such a characterization is offensive to working men and women of CBP who follow existing regulations and policies to prevent sexual abuse in their facilities.
In fact, CBP is bound by a duly published regulation at 6 CFR 115, that the agency mandate “zero tolerance toward all forms of sexual abuse.” And “zero tolerance” isn’t a mere buzzword. The regulation contains extensive and detailed requirements implemented to prevent sexual abuse. Those requirements detail the steps CBP must take relating to prevention planning; responsive planning in the case of an allegation; training and education; risk assessments; reporting mechanisms; the appropriate response following a certain detainee report; investigations; disciplinary sanctions for staff, contractors, and volunteers; medical and mental care; data collection and review; and audits for compliance.

The manager’s amendment to the bill already makes clear that the bill does not abrogate existing policies designed to prevent, detect, and respond to sexual abuse. In fact, it acknowledges that CBP has a zero-tolerance policy for sexual abuse.

Furthermore, the DHS OIG is already directed to conduct unannounced inspections of CBP facilities in the bill, and CBP’s own existing regulations require periodic audits based on the risk assessments for the facility.

CBP is already confronting a crisis that is worsened by congressional inaction to fix the loopholes in our laws that fuel illegal immigration. The men and women who protect our border have been given an enormous task made more difficult by offensive rhetoric. Congress shouldn’t make their job more difficult by requiring premature publication of complaints without context, which will have the effect of wrongful painting the civil servants as sexual predators.

I oppose the amendment and urge my colleagues to do the same.

Mr. Chair, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. KUSTER of New Hampshire. Mr. Chair, contrary to the allegations by my colleague disparaging our view of Customs and Border Protection agencies, I was actually very impressed by the professionalism of many of the Border Patrol agents that we met and had the opportunity to tour the facilities in McAllen and Brownsville with.

I share the gentleman’s commitment to a zero-tolerance policy. Frankly, one incident of sexual assault is far too much. This data will provide more transparency for Congress and for survivors and, frankly, more transparency for those members of the Border Patrol who are doing their job with respect to migrants.

Mr. Chair, how much time do I have remaining?

The CHAIR. The gentleman from New Hampshire has 1 minute remaining.

Mr. Chair, I am happy to work with my colleagues to ensure that Customs and Border Protection has the resources to comply with this provision, but we need more transparency for survivors.

Mr. Chair, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from California (Ms. PELOSI), the Speaker of the House.

Mr. CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chairman, let us salute Congressman RUIZ, Chairman NADLER, Chairwoman LOFGREN, Chairwoman UNDERWOOD, Chairwoman SLOTKIN, and Members. I thank my colleague, Congresswoman KUSTER, for yielding me time.

These Members have followed the facts, gone to the border, and raised a drumbeat on behalf of the children.

I want to add to that Congresswoman ESCOBAR, who has been so great on all of this.

The humanitarian situation at the border challenges the conscience of our country, yet the Trump administration has chosen to approach the situation with cruelty instead of compassion. Children sleeping on concrete floors, children eating frozen and inedible food, and children denied basic sanitation.

As the Gospel of Matthew said, “When the Son of Man comes in all His glory.” He will speak to the nations gathered before him. You all know the Gospel of Matthew. “When I was hungry.” The American Medical Association writes, “It is well known that childhood trauma and adverse childhood experiences created by inhumane treatment often create negative health impacts that can last an individual’s entire lifespan.”

The American Academy of Pediatrics led a joint letter, writing: “The tragic deaths of children in CBP custody are evidence for why timely, appropriate medical and mental health screening and care is so crucial.”

With Congressman RUIZ’s Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act, we are taking a strong step to safeguard children and respect their families.

Mr. Chairman, I am going to submit most of my statement for the RECORD, in the interest of time. I know you have heard it over and over again, Mr. Chairman. There is no use to just keep talking. We have to act.

We have sent the money. We have paid attention. Now, we have to set the standards that must be met for humanitarian care, including water, sanitation, and hygiene; food; clothing, healthcare, and the rest.

I thank Mr. RUIZ for bringing his experience as a public health doctor, as someone who has dealt with these crises in other parts of the world. We are blessed to have his service in the Congress, especially at this time, for the good of the children.

Mr. Chair, let us salute Congressman RUIZ, Chairman NADLER, Chairwoman LOFGREN, Congresswoman UNDERWOOD, Chairwoman SLOTKIN and Members who have followed the facts, gone to the border, and raised a drumbeat on behalf of the children.

The humanitarian situation at the border challenges the conscience of our country. Yet, the Trump Administration has chosen to approach this situation with cruelty, instead of compassion.

The appalling conditions facing children and families are an affront to our values and our humanity:

- Children sleeping on concrete floors, in freezing temperatures with constant light exposure;
- Children eating frozen or inedible food, and having insufficient or unclean water to drink;
- Children denied basic sanitation, forced to use open toilets and deprived of showers and handwashing stations.

The Gospel of Matthew says, “When the Son of Man comes in all his glory,” he will speak to the nations gathered before him and say:

“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.”

The Administration’s treatment of little children abandons that teaching, ignores the “least of these” and endangers lives.

As the American Medical Association writes: “Conditions in CBP facilities, including open toilets, constant light exposure, insufficient food and water, extreme temperatures, and forced pregnant women and children to sleep on cement floors, are traumatizing.

“It is well known that childhood trauma and adverse childhood experiences created by inhumane treatment often create negative health impacts that can last an individual’s entire lifespan.”

This week, the American Academy of Pediatrics led a joint letter with other medical experts to urge action, writing: “The tragic deaths of children in CBP custody are evidence for why timely, appropriate medical and mental health screening and care is so crucial.”

The deaths of children at the border are unconscionable; a profound violation of the moral responsibility we all have to ensure all children of God are treated with compassion and decency.

Today, with Congressman RUIZ’s “Humanitarian Standards for Individuals in Customs and Border Protection Custody Act”, we are taking a strong step to safeguard children and respect their spark of divinity.

This bill protects children and families’ health: requiring the CBP to provide timely, appropriate and standards-based health screenings by licensed medical professionals. It creates water, sanitation, and hygiene standards: requiring the CBP to provide sufficient drinking water; private, safe, and clean toilets; a handwashing station; and basic personal hygiene products.

It sets out nutrition standards: requiring that detainees receive three meals per day, with age-appropriate caloric intake, and special diets for babies, pregnant & breastfeeding women, the elderly & ill.

And it establishes standards for shelters: specifying space requirements, temperature ranges and bedding standards, and also protecting religious freedom, family unity and the safety of unaccompanied minors and LGBTQ populations.

Once we pass this bill—and our other legislation for the children—we will call on Senator MCCONNELL to immediately take them up.
REHABILITATION FOR MULTIEmploy PENSIONS ACT OF 2019
AMENDMENT NO. 1 OFFERED BY MR. DAVID P. ROE OF TENNESSEE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the question on adoption of amendment No. 1 to H.R. 397, printed in part A of House Report 116-178, offered by the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. David P. Roe), on which a recorded vote was ordered.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The Clerk redesignated the amendment.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 186, noes 245, not voting 1, as follows:

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. Aguilar). The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill. The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. MAST. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The motion is before the Chair. Mr. MAST? Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to dispense with the reading.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Florida is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

Mr. MAST. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is very simple. It would prohibit pension plans that are receiving loans under this bill from engaging in the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement against Israel.

Yesterday, this body voted overwhelmingly to condemn the global BDS movement. Mr. Speaker, 386 votes in favor—189 Republicans and 296 Democrats—united together to affirm the vital relationship between the United States and Israel, our most important ally and closest strategic partner in a difficult region in the world.

Yesterday's bipartisan vote sent a clear, united message. Today, my Republican colleagues are undercutting this achievement with a cynical, partisan gimmick, continuing a dangerous effort to delegitimize Israel in international forums, on college campuses, and in global commerce.

Yesterday's bipartisan vote sent a clear, united message. Today, we deliver for the American people, and we save the pensions of those who have never asked for anything.

Take it from me, my friends, I know what it is like to be on the phone with the PBGC when the auto industry needed our help.

I know what that means when they tell us that these plans will run insolvent by 2025.

I know what it is like to be working in the Department of the Treasury during the largest economic crisis of our times; when Republicans and Democrats came together, shelving political dogma, to make a uniquely Federal problem right.

Butch Lewis is a good deal, and the kind of deal you make to protect our middle class and the economic security of so many. This is what you do.

If you support these hardworking Americans, vote “no” on this motion.

If you believe the rare effort in this House to achieve bipartisan progress is too important to undermine with cynical partisan games, vote “no” on this motion.

If you believe it is critical that the United States-Israel relationship remains bipartisan to ensure Israel's long-term security and find a path to peace, vote “no” on this motion.

Yesterday, we spoke in a united voice in support of our ally. Let's do it again today in support of these workers and vote down this motion.

Mr. Speaker, I yield the remainder of my time to the gentleman from Michigan (Ms. STEVENS).

Ms. STEVENS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The motion to recommit offered by my Republican colleagues.

I oppose the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement, full stop. It is a movement that denies the Jewish people's connection to the land of Israel, refuses to accept the basic idea of a Jewish state, and seeks to delegitimize Israel in international forums, on college campuses, and in global commerce.

Yesterday, this body voted overwhelmingly to condemn the global BDS movement. Mr. Speaker, 386 votes in favor—189 Republicans and 296 Democrats—united together to affirm the vital relationship between the United States and Israel, our most important ally and closest strategic partner in a difficult region in the world.

We expressed our strong, bipartisan support for a negotiated two-state solution as the best way to justly resolve the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and ensure a future for two peoples living side by side in peace, security, and prosperity.

As the lead sponsor of that resolution, I believe I speak with credibility when I say this motion to recommit, in the context both of last night's vote and today's critically important legislative action, is too important to undermine with cynical, partisan motion to recommit.

The bill before us today is not a bailout. It is a backstop. It is a solution to a boiling point that we ignore at our peril. If we do nothing, our Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation will tumble.

If we do nothing, 1.3 million hardworking Americans will lose what they paid into their entire working life.

To the teamster who has played by the rules, to the carpenter who is already seeing a drop in his monthly benefits, we are here today to do something.

But the ringing irony, that the very people opposing this bill are some of the very people who rushed to vote to pass a tax relief act for the wealthiest corporations and the biggest banks, ballooning our deficit by $1.9 trillion. We scratch our heads and we ask, Why is it that you cannot lift a finger for the middle class?

Today, we deliver for the American people, and we save the pensions of those who have never asked for anything.

Take it from me, my friends, I know what it is like to be on the phone with the PBGC when the auto industry needed our help.

I know what that means when they tell us that these plans will run insolvent by 2025.

I know what it is like to be working in the Department of the Treasury during the largest economic crisis of our times; when Republicans and Democrats came together, shelving political dogma, to make a uniquely Federal problem right.

Butch Lewis is a good deal, and the kind of deal you make to protect our middle class and the economic security of so many. This is what you do.

Make government work for us. Contribute to the best action in the outcome of the very people—pass Butch Lewis.

Mr. SCHNEIDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
So the motion to recommit was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the passage of the bill.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

HUMANITARIAN STANDARDS FOR INDIVIDUALS IN CUSTOMS AND BORDER PROTECTION CUSTODY ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 1(c) of rule XIX, further consideration of the bill (H.R. 3239) to require U.S. Customs and Border Protection to perform an initial health screening on detainees, and for other purposes, will now resume.

The Clerk will report the title of the bill.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

Mr. KINZINGER. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to rec ommend this bill to the House.

Mr. KINZINGER moves to recommit the bill H.R. 3239 to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

SEC. 15. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of the Congress that the men and women of the U.S. Border Patrol should be commended for continuing to carry out their duties in a professional manner, including caring for the extraordinarily high numbers of family units, unaccompanied alien children, and single adults processed in United States Customs and Border Protection facilities on our southern border.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Illinois is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. KINZINGER, Mr. Speaker, this motion to recommit is very simple. It affirms this Chamber’s appreciation of and support for the men and women of the United States Border Patrol.

We in this Chamber know that we can debate and disagree all day long every day, and we have more than enough issues to argue about on a regular basis, but this institution makes laws. We pass the laws, and we expect those laws to be carried out faithfully. This motion to recommit today is about recognizing the men and women of our U.S. Customs and Border Protection who carry out the very laws that we pass for their hard work and for their dedication.

Without question, we are facing a crisis on our southern border.

Without question, we are facing a crisis on our southern border, and our facilities are overcrowded and overwhelmed. And lacking the resources, our personnel, our CBP agents are overworked, and I can tell you this because I saw it firsthand.

Now, I didn’t go in a windbreaker and get a photo, but I didn’t start a livestream. Mr. Speaker. I went as a lieutenant colonel in the Air National Guard on a deployment to the mission in Arizona, to the border.

And for me, going to Arizona with my unit in late February was a nice respite from the bitter cold of Illinois, but what I saw truly opened my eyes to the crisis at hand and the short-comings that our CBP agents face with their limited resources.

This, by the way, was my fourth deployment to the border, and it was only my first under President Trump.

So what does that mean? Yes, that means that my three other border missions and my other deployments came under President Obama, who also saw the crisis at the border and the dire humanitarian concerns.

In February, I watched from above as border agents struggled to thwart migrant groups that would systematically stagger their attempts to run and cross the open border.

My fellow guardsmen shared their accounts of agents giving their last water bottles to dehydrated migrants. My fellow guardsmen, we shared various accounts, and one was about agents giving their last bottle of water as they came across people who were dehydrated and in a bad situation, often risking their own safety and their own health.

While my mission was nice in February, today it is pretty hot out in the desert. These agents are still expected, by their oath and by the direction of the laws of this body, to walk miles through terrible terrain that in many cases, they cannot even be accessed by vehicles. They are often met with a foot chase, sometimes with multiple people or with dangerous cartel members.

And sometimes this happens even at the end of their shift, so it means that later they are going to have to call home. They are going to have to tell their loved ones that they are not going to be home to tuck the kids in bed or say good night because duty calls.

I listened to defeated Customs and Border Protection agents talk about the emotional and physical tolls that this crisis was taking on them and their families as they grappled with these impossible tasks, and more than once it was mentioned to me the toxic rhetoric used in describing them in many cases in terms reserved for just our enemies.

I saw the compassion in a CBP agent during one of my missions as he helped a young woman we found in the desert to safety after she was left for dead by her cartel handlers because they got spooked and they ran and abandoned her.

These coyotes work for the cartels, and these cartel make money on two primary products: people and drugs. Human lives are viewed as nothing more than commodities for them, and this is what I saw firsthand. This is what I experienced with the hard-working men and women of our border, who are often the first and only defense against such tragedy.

And it is true, the CBP has effectuated over 3,800 migrant rescues so far this fiscal year risking their own lives to save others. If you remove CBP, you will cost lives.

And maybe people don’t want to believe that, maybe it doesn’t fit a narrative, but it is an undeniable fact. We have placed an unprecedented burden on our agents asking them to handle some really tough things, and for that they have been villainized.

The CBP’s facilities were not designed as long-term or even short-term shelters for families or children, and those resources to accommodate them and handle the influx are limited.

If this Congress cannot agree to provide these agents the resources they need, as this bill fails to do, the least we can do is affirm our appreciation for their work and our resolve to make our recommit will not impact the passage of this bill. Voting in favor of this MTR will not kill the bill that we are voting on here today.

Today what we have is an opportunity to do it in moment in time to make a simple statement. This institution can leave politics aside and take this time to recognize the mothers and fathers, the brothers and sisters, the sons and daughters, the husbands and wives, our neighbors and the constituents we serve, the men and women of our U.S. Border Patrol working in these facilities every day. Let’s show our support by rising above the fray of politics and vote in favor of this MTR.

I yield back the balance of my time. Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the MTR.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from California is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Speaker, my bill, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals Under CBP Custody, is about protecting those children, women, and families, who are never too young to suffer lifelong trauma when someone else’s child dies under their responsibility.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered to the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

Mr. RUIZ. Mr. Speaker, my bill, the Humanitarian Standards for Individuals Under CBP Custody, is about protecting those children, women, and families, who are never too young to suffer lifelong trauma when someone else’s child dies under their responsibility.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote “no” on the MTR, then vote “yes” for Humanitarian Standards for Individuals Under CBP Custody.

Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote. A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to rule XX, the Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the minimum time for any electronic vote on the question of passage.

So the motion to recommit was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the Sergeant at Arms printing the amendment? No objection. The amendment was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the amendment.

Ms. LOFGREN (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be considered as read.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendment was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the amendment.

The amendment was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the passage of the bill.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REQUISITION TO CONSIDER H.R. 962, BORN-ALIVE ABORTION SURVIVORS PROTECTION ACT

Ms. GRANGER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on the Judiciary be discharged from further consideration of H.R. 962, the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under guidelines consistently issued by successive Speakers, as recorded in section 956 of the House Rules and Manual, the Chair is constrained not to entertain the request unless it has been cleared by the bipartisan floor and committee leaderships.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is not recognized for debate.
ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CINNERS). Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will postpone further proceedings today on additional motions to suspend the rules on which a recorded vote of the yeas and nays are ordered, or votes objected to under clause 6 of rule XX.

The House will resume proceedings on postponed questions at a later time.

MAKING TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS TO GUAM WORLD WAR II LOYALTY RECOGNITION ACT

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1365) to make technical corrections to the Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 1365

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS TO GUAM WORLD WAR II LOYALTY RECOGNITION ACT.

Title XVI of division A of Public Law 114–328 is amended—

(1) in section 1703(e)—

(A) by striking “equal to” and inserting “not to exceed”; and

(B) by striking “covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts” and inserting “used to reimburse the applicable appropriations”;

(2) in section 1704(a) by striking “subject to the availability of appropriations,” and inserting “from the Claims Fund”; and

(3) by striking section 1707(a).

SEC. 2. BUDGETARY TREATMENT OF TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.

(a) DETERMINATION OF BUDGETARY EFFECTS.—As the budgetary effects for spending provided by this Act were estimated and as part of the enactment of the Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act (title XVII of division A of Public Law 114–328), the budgetary effects of this Act shall be determined as if the amendments made by this Act were included in the enactment of the Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act (title XVII of division A of Public Law 114–328), for purposes of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 and the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010.

(b) PAY-AS-YOU-GO COMPLIANCE.—The budgetary effects of this Act, for the purpose of complying with the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010, shall be determined by reference to the latest statement titled “Budgetary Effects of PAYGO Legislation” for this Act, submitted for printing in the Congressional Record by the Chairman of the House Budget Committee, provided that such statement has been submitted prior to the vote on passage.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Guam (Mr. SAN NICOLAS) and the gentleman from Utah (Mr. CURTIS) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Guam.

This estimate supersedes the CBO estimate for H.R. 1365, a bill to make technical corrections to the Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act that was transmitted on July 10, 2019. Although the five-year and ten-year totals are correct, the initial estimate indicated that there would be some costs in 2019. The legislation has not yet passed either House of Congress and CBO assumes it would be enacted near the end of fiscal year 2019. Given that timing, CBO expects spending would probably commence in fiscal year 2020.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Matthew Pickford. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, this marks the first time that I have taken to this floor to deliver remarks as a Member of Congress. My constituents can attest to the fact that I have never been one known to shy away from a microphone. However, the gravitas of H.R. 1365 that I bring to the floor today is of such consequence that I chose to withhold the privilege of this floor until this day.

While H.R. 1365 is a bipartisan bill that would simply make technical corrections to the current Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act, it is the final component of a 75-year saga rooted in loyalty, faith, hope, and love in the midst of unimaginable suffering. The Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act was passed by Congress and signed into law at the end of 2016, recognizing the sacrifices the people of Guam endured at the hands of foreign occupiers during World War II. Nearly 78 years ago, foreign enemies bombed Guam World War II. Those customs duties and income taxes are currently deposited in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. Using information from the Department of Justice about how much compensation is due, CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1365 would increase direct spending by $40 million for compensation payments as funds become available over the 2020–2023 period.

The costs of the legislation (detailed in Table 1) fall within budget function 800 (general government).

Pearl Harbor and then made their way east, taking control of Guam from United States naval forces, many of which were evacuated prior to the invasion.

The civilian population of Guam, regarded by the enemy, were left undefended, for all intents and purposes. In the 974 days of enemy occupancy, too many of the people of Guam, who today are American citizens, were injured, raped, maimed, murdered, and even forced to dig their own mass graves or those of their family and friends.

These atrocities occurred due to the unwavering patriotism of the people of Guam.

An 83-year-old survivor clearly remembers her family risking their lives to hide and care for the only living U.S. Navy soldier left on the island, who was tasked with sending information to our forces overseas. She shared her observations of enemy soldiers going door to door, looking for raid man George Tweed and leaving a trail of tortured and dead in their path.

Another 83-year-old survivor showed how he witnessed his childhood friend beaten up every day just for looking American. One survivor, who was 5 years old at the time, testified to remembering her mother, pregnant with her sibling, after being severely beaten, hemorrhage to a slow death while performing forced labor under the grueling Sun. The baby did not survive either.

Though our people experienced such cruel acts, we remained vigilant with the hope and faith that the United States would return and liberate us from enemy forces. Seventy-five years ago this past Sunday, true to their word, our servicemen took to the shores of Guam, many of whom gave their lives to reclaim the island, and rescued those left who survived the brutality.

These stories are the memories of our survivors who continue to carry the heavy burdens of war post-liberation. These survivors, who were steadfast in their devotion to this country, the United States of America, were left out when America forgave its vanquished enemies from any form of redress to those who suffered under their occupation.

Almost 3 years ago, Congress voted to pass the Guam War World II Loyalty Recognition Act, providing those remaining survivors with a Federal claims process to seek adjudicated compensation for wartime suffering, a Federal process that, today, 75 years later, has yet to deliver. Congress did not make the case that qualified whole. Of the over 14,000 who suffered, 3,663 survivors have filed claims, with many of the nearly 11,000 having passed before this process could even begin.

Nonetheless, the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, since October of last year, has certified over 600 claims, and the Commission continues to adjudicate all claims filed.

Unfortunately, pertinent technical language was left out of the original bill, preventing the Department of the Treasury from making payments for claims adjudicated and certified for compensation by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission. H.R. 1365 makes a commitment to the Guam World War II Loyalty Recognition Act to see Congress’ intent through, and it was drafted in close consultation with the Department of the Treasury and the Department of the Interior, to ensure the language’s efficacy.

Mr. Speaker, it is important to note for my colleagues that the moneys used for payment of these claims does not create a new expense category for the budget. I repeat, H.R. 1365 does not create a new expense category for the Federal budget. Instead, the moneys deposited in the Guam War Claims Fund is funding that originates from Guam’s section 30 Federal income tax transfers, essentially moneys already due to the government of Guam. As such, funding for these claims do not represent a new expense but a reprogramming of existing expenses.

It is also important to note that these claimants are not just constituents of mine. Many claimants live in 46 other States and territories and are constituents to 265 districts across our Nation. We have claimants in Alabama; Alaska; Arizona; Arkansas; California; Colorado; Connecticut; Florida; Georgia; Hawaii; Idaho; Illinois; Indiana; Iowa; Kansas; Kentucky; Louisiana; Maryland; Massachusetts; Michigan; Minnesota; Mississippi; Missouri; Montana; Nebraska; Nevada; New Hampshire; New Jersey; New Mexico; New York; North Carolina; Ohio; Oklahoma; Oregon; Pennsylvania; Rhode Island; South Carolina; South Dakota; Tennessee; Texas; Utah, the great State that my colleague this evening represents; Virginia; Washington, D.C.; Wisconsin; Wyoming; the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands; and Guam.

Over these past 75 years, our World War II survivors and their families have made their home throughout this country. Notwithstanding our current political status, our sons, daughters, mothers, fathers, brothers, and sisters have died defending the freedom that liberators brought to our shores 75 years ago.

While we struggle on Guam under inequities and supplemental security income, coming as those whose rights are violated, we remain the Sparta of America, with the highest per capita armed services recruitment rates in the country.

The brutality of the enemy 75 years ago could not break the resolve of our relationship with the United States of America and the generations since then and, to this very day, reflect this exemplary patriotism in our rights of service and those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

Mr. Speaker, I humbly ask my colleagues for their support in passing H.R. 1365 so the Greatest Generation of Guam who instilled in us this faith in American democracy can finally receive the long-awaited closure they have been seeking since the end of World War II.

As a grateful victor who assumed the responsibility for postwar peace, the passage of H.R. 1365 represents an unparalleled act of grace by the United States of America to a people who suffered for their loyalty to America. Perhaps most importantly, it represents an affirmation that, while slow to turn, and sometimes too slow, the wheels of justice in the land of the free do eventually come full circle.

A loyal people await the ultimate passage of H.R. 1365. And I am humbled to not only represent them in this body, but to extend my thanks on their behalf to the Speaker, majority leader, majority whip, committee chairs of jurisdiction, my minority leader, and ranking committee members who have made this moment possible, and to my colleagues on both sides of the aisle who today do us the tremendous honor of seeing this measure through this House.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 1365. As the gentleman has so well already explained, this bill would authorize the release of certain funds from the Guam Treasury that have been set aside to pay Guam World War II survivor claims.

Many individuals living on the island during the Japanese occupation suffered injury and, in some cases, death. In 2004, Congress enacted the Guam War World II Loyalty Recognition Act to provide for the adjudication of claims and for the payment of compensation as recommended by the Guam War Claims Review Commission in their 2004 report. However, legislation and language in the act unintentionally prevented funds from being provided to World War II survivors and their heirs. This bill fixes the original act’s language to ensure survivors can receive these claims.

Mr. Speaker, I urge adoption of this measure. I have no additional speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank my colleague on the other side of the aisle for his support.

Mr. Speaker, I want to extend my appreciation to various individuals and entities for their unyielding support and assistance in pushing this bill forward.

I thank Ms. Irene Sgambelluri, an 89-year-old war survivor who flew out
EMANCIPATION NATIONAL HISTORIC TRAIL STUDY ACT

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 434) to designate the Emancipation National Historic Trail, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 434

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Emancipation National Historic Trail Study Act".

SEC. 2. EMANCIPATION NATIONAL HISTORIC TRAIL STUDY.

Section 5(c) of the National Trails System Act (16 U.S.C. 1244(c)) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"(47) EMANCIPATION NATIONAL HISTORIC TRAIL—The Emancipation National Historic Trail, extending approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North, to Freedmen's Town in Houston, spreading the news to neighboring communities. This bill is a fitting tribute that honors the historic journey and lasting legacy of the last American slaves.

I want to thank the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. JACKSON LEE) for championing this important legislation and for her hard work moving this bill through the legislative process.

I strongly support this bill. I yield such time as she may consume to the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. JACKSON LEE).

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman very much for yielding, and I thank him for his leadership and the leadership of Chairman GRIJALVA, for the full committee, and, certainly, the ranking member for his courtesies.

I thank the manager tonight, a friend from Utah, for their kindness in yielding to me. This is an emotional moment for me and, as well, for many in my constituency, and I am delighted to be able to rise to give strong support to H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Study Act.

I thank all of the Members, as I have indicated, and also thank Congresswoman HAALAND, chair of the Natural Resources Committee's Subcommittee on National Parks, Forests, and Public Lands, for holding the hearing that allowed the committee to learn of the strong support enjoyed by H.R. 434 and the hard work of dedicated historic preservationists to preserve the rich history of former slaves.

I also thank Naomi Mitchell Carrier of Houston, Texas, for her stalwart efforts to share the stories of newly freed slaves who settled in Freedmen's Town, a section of Houston, to begin their lives as free persons during the end of the Civil War. I want to thank Ms. Carrier as an educator, historian, and author with expertise in African American music, Texas history, and heritage tourism.

I also thank Ms. Eileen Lawal for her April 2019 oral testimony before the Natural Resources Committee in an amazing, passionate expression of how vital this trail will be. Ms. Lawal is the President Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy, whose mission is to protect and preserve the history of Freedmen's Town.

I also thank the Mayor of the city of Houston, Sylvester Turner; Commissioner Rodney Ellis; the mayor of the city of Galveston; my original co-sponsor, Congressman WEBER, who represents the Galveston area.

The work of H.R. 434 will result in only the second trail in the United States that chronicles the experience of African Americans.

I am hoping that this will move swiftly through the United States Senate, then to the United States Senate and then is signed by the President of the United States.

Currently, the National Park Service only has one national historic trail which centers on the African American experience. It is a Selma to Montgomery National Historic Trail which covers a 54-mile path between Selma and Montgomery.

But as slaves lived in this land from 1619 to 1865 as slaves, a 250-year history, to think only one trail would not capture the important—although a moment in history that all of us are saddened by—certainly the importance of preserving the rich history of this Nation and the role that African Americans played in the economic, political, religious, cultural, and governmental efforts of this Nation. It ties into the work that we are continuing to do.

The Emancipation National Historic Trail Study Act would pave the way to working to establish an important story. It will go 51 miles from the historic Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston along Highway 3 and Interstate 45, all the way up to Freedmen's Town and Emancipation Park and Independence Heights, which was the first city organized by African Americans here in the Southwest region.

H.R. 434 requires that we study the post-Civil War history of newly freed slaves in a major slave-holding State following the largest military campaign waged on domestic soil in the history of the United States.

It is important to take note of the fact that those of us west of the Mississippi did not know that Abraham Lincoln had freed the slaves until 1865. Captain Granger came to the shores and said to us in 1865, those of our ancestors, that they had been freed.

In a second inaugural address, President Abraham Lincoln declared that slavery was the original sin: "Yet, if God wills that it continue until all the wealth plied by the bondsman’s 250 years of unrequited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn with the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword, as was said 124 years ago, so still it must be said ‘the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.’"

We know that Abraham Lincoln wanted to maintain the unity of this Nation, but he wanted it to be without slaves. The story of the trail will be one that will be enlightening because the newly freed slaves established communities. They established schools. They established churches, and they migrated into the Houston community, coming up from Emancipation National Historic Trail.

Today, the city of Houston is fortunate to call those communities Freedmen’s Town and Emancipation Park. The first park that was bought in the State of Texas was bought by freed slaves in Independence Heights.

Freedmen’s Town survived while other communities did not, and it continues to have some of the historic buildings.

By 1915, over 400 African American-owned homes listed in Freedmen’s Town. By 1920, one-third of Houston’s 85,000 people lived in Freedmen’s Town.

Freedmen’s Town is recognized as a historic district. Emancipation Park was established in 1872 as Texas’ oldest historic district. Emancipation Park, the Houston Freedmen’s Town Conservancy; and the Freedmen’s Town Advisory Committee, the Emancipation Park Conservancy, the Independence Heights Redevelopment Council, the Freedmen’s Town Preservation Coalition, the Kohrville Community Amos Cemetery Association, the Texas Center for African American Living History, the Rutherford B. Hayes Yates Museum, the Heritage Society of Sam Houston Park, the Houston Scottish Rite, and the Emancipation Park Conservancy. The trail follows the migration route taken by newly freed slaves from the major 19th century seaport town of Galveston to the burgeoning community of Freedmen’s Town, which is now the 4th Ward of Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District.

This bill will result in the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which extends approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North to Freedmen’s Town, the Freedmen’s Town Conservancy, and then to Independence Heights, and to the Houston African American Library at the Gregory School.

The Gregory School was designated as a “site of Memory associated with the UNESCO Slave Route Project” for being the first public school for freed slaves in the State of Texas. By 1876 the Gregory Institute became a part of the Houston Public School System. The building that now houses the African American Library at the Gregory School first opened in 1926, as a two-story public school building for “colored children,” and was named Gregory Elementary School. The Gregory Institute was the “site of Memory associated with the UNESCO Slave Route Project” for being the first public school for freed slaves in the State of Texas.

The Library has a vested interest in theGregory School currently holds and has held a very unique place in the histories of Texas, Houston, and Freedmen’s Town/Fourth Ward history for more than 152 years.

In 2009, the Gregory School was established by the Houston Public Library as an African American Historical and Cultural Center in Houston’s Historic Fourth Ward or Freedmen’s Town. Freedmen’s Town was established in 1863 as the destination of former slaves in Texas and Louisiana after the Civil War. In 1866, the Freedmen’s Bureau opened schools for black children and adults in the area. The Texas Legislature authorized the creation of the black community in 1876 by 1872 most of the students and teachers who were at the Bureau schools, which were closing, left them to attend the Gregory Institute. The Gregory Institute was the first school for freed slaves in Houston. Mike Snyder of the Houston Chronicle said that it was “perhaps the first school for freed slaves in the State of Texas.” By 1876 the Gregory Institute became a part of the Houston Public School System. Freedmen’s Town, which today is located outside downtown Houston in the 18th Congressional District. The trail would extend north nearly 51 miles from Galveston’s historic Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel AME Church along Highway 3 and Interstate 45 to Freedmen’s Town and Emancipation Park in Houston.

As the Harris County Precinct One Commissioner, I have the privilege of representing the Freedman’s Town and Emancipation Park areas; I firmly believe the trail will further highlight the historical significance of these vibrant communities and tell an important part of our local and national history. The Emancipation National Historic Trail would be a trail in southeastern United States that recognizes the role of African Americans in the legacy of freedom. I am introducing the bill, which I wholeheartedly support, and urge your support of the creation of the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act. It would bring national attention to a period of history when our nation took significant strides to make real the promise of our founding documents that give all people the right to freedom that I am proud to report on the successes in Texas. I hope that the passage of this bill will be an additional item to celebrate.

Sincerely,

JANE LANDERS,
Gertrude Conway Vanderbilt Chair of History, Vanderbilt University, Director, Slave Societies Digital Archive, Member, UNESCO International Scientific Committee for the Slave Route Project.

Hon. SHEILA JACKSON LEE, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR CONGRESSWOMAN SHEILA JACKSON LEE:

As the U.S. Member of the UNESCO International Scientific Committee for the Slave Route Project: “Resistance, Liberty, Legacy,” I write to endorse H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, which had a hearing before the Subcommittee on April 2, 2019.

FTPC is a grassroots citizens-based organization that saw a problem with the destruction of historical cultural sites and properties in Freedmen’s Town, the first place for settlement of formerly enslaved Africans. The trail of Freedom led to the establishment of Freedmen’s Town. FTPC stopped the destruction and removal of the historic bricks that were made, paid for and laid by freedmen and their descendants by first, developing an awareness campaign, secondly, placing a human body in the hole of destruction and finally, through legal action. Hence, as you can see, we recognize that preservation and finally, through legal action. Hence, as you can see, we recognize that preservation and finally, through legal action.

This bill will result in the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which extends approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North to Freedmen’s Town, then to Independence Heights, and Emancipation Park in Houston, Texas. This trail follows the migration route taken by newly freed slaves from the major 19th century seaport town of Galveston to the burgeoning community of Freedmen’s Town, which is now the 4th Ward of Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District. The start of the trail is located where General Gordon Granger sailed into Galveston, Texas, with troops on June 19, 1865, to announce the freedom of the last American slaves. His announcement liberated 250,000 slaves nearly two and a half years after Abraham Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation. The newly freed slaves traveled from Galveston to spread the news to neighboring communities.

Should this bill become law it would establish the first trail in the Southwest United States that recognizes the role of African Americans in the legacy of freedom in the United States. An Emancipation Historic Trail designation would bring long overdue historic recognition due to the role African Americans played in the building of the today’s Houston and the state of Texas. In addition, the revenue generated by people who come to visit the area and walk this trail will result in tourism dollars to the city of Houston and the adjoining areas.

Sincerely,

CATHARINE STEWART,
President Kohrville Community Association.
DEAR CONGRESSWOMAN SHEILA JACKSON LEE:

Thank you for your consideration in this historic moment. As the House of Representatives, we endorse H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, which would extend support for H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, which had a hearing before the Subcommittee on Transportation and Infrastructure.

As a group of mental health professionals, HABPs is of the opinion that the recognition of the Emancipation National Historic Trail would extend further the redemp­tion of people of African descent who continue to live with the legacy of enslavement to this day. Historians estimate 150 years since the Emancipation Proclamation, African Americans experience mental, emotional and spiritual pain from the experience of generations of enslavement. Acknowledgement of slavery ending . . . of free men, women and children walking away is a powerful remembrance.

This bill will result in the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which extends approximately 51 miles from the Ost­erman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North to Freedmen’s Town, then to Independence Heights, and Emancipation Park in Houston, Texas. It would also bring awareness highlighting the untold story of many African Americans and their contributions to the area. As a result of this collaboration, multiple sites located on the proposed Trail have been designated as “Sites of Memory Associated to the UNESCO Slave Route Project”.

Warm Regards,
Eileen Lawal,
Chair, Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy

April 2, 2019.

The Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy would like to express our enthusiastic support for H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act. Their stand had a hearing before the Subcommittee on April 2, 2019.

The Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation that was established to protect and preserve the history of Freedmen's Town for the benefit of future generations. Freedmen's Town was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1985, by the U.S. Department of Interior, and some of the historic sites located in this “Mother Ward” are nationally known, were recognized in March, 2019 by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). Seven of these historic sites, all located along the proposed Historic Trail, have been designated as “Sites of Memory Associated with the UNESCO Slave Route Project”.

This bill will result in the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which extends approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Boedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 and Interstate 59 to North to Freedmen's Town, then to Independence Heights, and Emancipation Park, Houston, Texas. This trail follows the migration route taken by newly freed slaves from the major 19th century seaport town of Galveston to the burgeoning community of Freedmen's Town, which was now the 4th Ward of Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District.

The start of the trail is located where General Gordon Granger sailed into Galveston, Texas, with troops on June 19, 1865, to announce the freedom of the last American slaves. His announcement belatedly freed the newly freed slaves who settled in the Freedmen's Town section of Houston to begin lives as free persons following the end of the Civil War.

Ms. Mitchell Carrier is an educator, historian, and author with expertise in African American music, Texas history, and heritage tourism.

I also thank Ms. Eileen Lawal for her April 2019 oral testimony before the Natural Resources Committee, in support of H.R. 434.

Ms. Lawal is the president of Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy, whose mission is to protect and preserve the history of Freedmen's Town for the benefit of future generations.

The work of H.R. 434 will result in the second trail in the United States that chronicles the experience of African Americans.

Currently, the National Parks Service only has one National Historic Trail, which centers on the African American experience.

It is the Selma to Montgomery National Historic Trail, which covers a 54-mile path between Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, designated a National Historic Trail in 1966.

The Selma to Montgomery Trail tells an important story about a pivotal moment in the nation's struggle with turning away from a history of segregation and toward a future of equality and justice.

Establishment of the Emancipation National Historical Trail will be the second trail for which that the National Parks Services would have responsibility, and it will tell the story of African Americans and will preserve for future generations the rich history of the newly-freed slaves who journeyed to Houston in search of economic and political opportunity, and greater religious and cultural freedom.

It is a remarkable story and one that all Americans can be proud to share with the world.

The Emancipation National Historic Trail Act would pave the way for the establishment of only the second nationally-recognized historic trail that chronicles the experience of African Americans in their struggle for equality and justice.

H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, designates as a national historic trail the 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Boedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Highway 3 and Interstate 45, north to Freedmen's Town and Emancipation Park in Houston, Texas.

H.R. 434 requires that we study the post-Civil War history of newly-freed slaves in a major slave holding state following the largest military campaign waged on domestic soil in the history of the United States.

This period is more than just a story about the South's loss—it is a story about a newly-freed people emerging from over 250 years of slavery and how they survived into the 21st century when other similarly situated communities did not.

In his Second Inaugural Address President Abraham Lincoln declared that slavery was America's Original Sin:

Yet, if God wills that it continue [The Civil War] until all the wealth piled by the bondsman's two hundred and fifty years of unre- quited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn with the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword, as was said three thousand years ago, so still it must be said ‘the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.’

The bloody civil war was one phrase often used by battlefield survivors to describe what it was—blood, suffering, tears, and death, but from this struggle came a new birth of freedom for millions of former slaves.

There were thousands of communities comprised of freed slaves throughout the United States—although most of these communities were found in the South, they could also be found in the North, South, and Midwestern sections of the country.

Newly-freed slaves held malice toward none, including former slave owners. But the same could not be said for those who once owned slaves.

Through economic hardship, natural disasters and the period of 1919–1921 called the ‘BURNINGS,’ dozens of communities ceased to exist.

The City of Houston is fortunate that much of this early history of former slaves has survived to this day: Freedmen's Town, Independence Heights, and the Emancipation Park areas, which are treasures in our nation's history.

Freedmen's Town survived where other communities did not, and it is the only surviving 19th century community built by former slaves who have a notable number of original structures that have been protected, preserved, or restored.

Freedmen's Town became the center of opportunity for freed slaves throughout the Houston area.

By 1915, over 400 African American-owned businesses existed there.

By 1920 one-third of Houston's 85,000 people lived in Freedmen's Town.

Freedmen's Town is a recognized Historic District.

Emancipation Park was established in 1872 and is Texas's oldest public park.

After emancipation, Freedmen's Town became one of the only sanctuaries for freed persons in Houston, Texas.

Today, Freedmen's Town hosts an impressive number of post-Civil War surviving structures—which include homes, public buildings, and commercial spaces built by former slaves.

The Freedmen's Town community has fought to preserve structures, unique construction features, and period materials which are unique in their continued presence as originally installed.

One such struggle was the work to preserve handmade red brick street in Freedmen's Town that streets would have been destroyed had community leaders and preservationists not fought and succeeded in winning needed infrastructure improvements, and the re-installation of the period bricks onto the street.

There are concerns that Texas Department of Transportation announced highway improvements on I-45 in the City of Houston would impact the historic areas of Independence Heights before the study directed by this bill could begin.

The reason the National Parks Service exists is to preserve the public lands for all to use and enjoy.

The nation has invested a great deal in protecting national parks and historic places due to their unique beauty, typographical features, or historic relevance.

The stories that make up the American experience have, for far too long, been limited to those of one group of Americans.

The limited view of what is of value or interest to the American public has changed with the establishment of a Native American History Museum and most recently the opening of the National African American History and Culture on the Mall.

The “whites-only” version of American history must end and at the same time we can make room for other American stories.

In 1915, the first suggestion of creating an African American History Museum came from African American Union veterans of the Civil War.

By 1988, Congressmen John Lewis and Mickey Leland introduced legislation for a stand-alone African American history museum within the Smithsonian Institution.

Their bill faced significant opposition in Congress due to its cost.

Supporters of the African American museum tried to salvage the proposal by suggesting that the Native Indian museum (then moving through Congress) and African American museum share the same space.

But the compromise did not work, and Congress took no further action on the bill.

In 2001, Congressmen Lewis and Congresswoman J.C. Watts reintroduced legislation for a stand-alone African American history museum within the Smithsonian Institution.

Their bill faced significant opposition in Congress due to its cost.

By way of example, when I was a young girl, I learned the story of Crispus Attucks—a key figure in our nation’s history who on the eve of the American Revolution lost his life during a protest of British rule prior to the start of the Revolutionary War.

However, Crispus Attucks was not the sole person of African descent who wanted to see freedom from British rule—he fought for the United States that too many Americans do not know about because these stories are now being taught as part of American history.

It is important to ensure that the public trust to preserve our nation’s history is also a commitment to preserving all of its history, including that which reflects both its best and worst moments.

By way of example, when I was a young girl, I learned the story of Crispus Attucks—a key figure in our nation’s history who on the eve of the American Revolution lost his life during a protest of British rule prior to the start of the Revolutionary War.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 434, which would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to conduct a special resource study of the proposed Emancipation National Historic Trail.

This 51-mile trail follows the migration route taken by newly freed slaves and other persons of African descent from the major 19th-century seaport town of Galveston to the burgeoning community of Freedmen’s Town in Houston.

Although President Abraham Lincoln officially ended slavery through the Emancipation Proclamation on September 22, 1862, many slaves were not freed until much later when news of the proclamation reached their towns. The last of those slaves lived in the South and were freed on June 19, 1865, after the Emancipation Proclamation was read in Galveston.

On January 1, 1866, the Emancipation Proclamation was read at the African Methodist Episcopal Church on 20th and Broadway, now Reedy Chapel. A large number of the freed slaves marched from the courthouse on 21st and Ball Streets to the church, where the director of the Freedmen’s Bureau read the proclamation to the marchers.

The Emancipation Proclamation is still read at the church each year at the Juneteenth celebration.

Houston, Texas, has rich ties to African American history. The Emancipation Trail proposed by H.R. 434 ends in Freedmen’s Town and Emancipation Park in Houston. Freedmen’s Town is one of the first and the largest of the post-Civil War Black urban communities in Texas. The community was established by former Texas slaves who left their plantations for the safety of Houston.

Emancipation Park is also significant to Houston African American history. In the years following the emancipation of slaves in Texas, African American populations across Texas collected money to buy property dedicated to the Juneteenth celebrations. In honor of their freedom, they named it Emancipation Park.

This bill is an important reminder of the struggles of African Americans throughout our Nation’s history as we have worked to form a more perfect union. I support Congresswoman Thompson’s efforts to study the proposed trail and highlight the important African American history of Texas.
Mr. Speaker, I urge the adoption of this measure.
Mr. Speaker, I have no more speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.
Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleague for his support, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD the following letters in support of H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act:

DEAR CHAIRMAN GRIJALVA: I write today to express my support of Representative Sheila Jackson Lee’s bill, H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act. Passage of this bill will pave the way for the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which will extend approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building to the Emancipation Proclamation in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 from Freedmen’s Town and Independence Heights, Texas. This trail will follow the migration route taken by newly freed slaves from the major 19th century seaport town of Galveston to the burgeoning community of Freedmen’s Town, which is now the 4th Ward of Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District.

The start of the trail is located where General Gordon Granger sailed into Galveston, Texas, on June 19, 1865, to announce the freedom of the last American slaves. His announcement belatedly freed 250,000 slaves nearly two and a half years after Abraham Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation. The newly freed slaves traveled from Galveston to spread the news to neighboring communities.

The Emancipation National Historic Trail would be the first trail in the Southwest United States that recognizes the role that African Americans played in the building of Houston and Texas. An Emancipation Historic Trail designation would bring long overdue historic recognition due to the role African Americans played in the building of the today’s Houston and the state of Texas. In addition, the revenue generated by people who come to visit the area and walk this trail will result in tourism dollars to the city of Houston and the adjoining areas. I urge you to pass this bill to create the Emancipation National Historic Trail.

Sincerely,

Sylvester Turner, Mayor.
KINDER FOUNDATION, Houston, TX, July 22, 2019.

Hon. Sheila Jackson Lee, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR CONGRESSWOMAN SHEILA JACKSON LEE: The Kinder Foundation endorses H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, which had a hearing before the Subcommittee on April 2, 2019.

The Kinder Foundation actively supports the community development and preservation of the historic Freedmen’s Town and Third Ward in Houston, Texas, which has a direct relationship and serves as a key location in the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act. The Kinder Foundation is participating in planning efforts for Freedmen’s Town and provided early funding for the Emancipation Park Conservancy located in Third Ward. Emancipation Park began as 10 acres of land purchased in 1872, by Reverend Jack Yates, Richard Allen, Richard Brock, and Reverend Elias Dibble to serve as a gathering place for former slaves living in the Third and Fourth Wards to commemorate their emancipation (“Juneteenth”). The Kinder Foundation also actively supports the Emancipation Park Conservancy to further program engagement and interpretation of the park, as well as the Emancipation Community Development Partnership and the Emancipation Economic Development Council. In an effort to revitalize the area through affordable housing and education initiatives, passing H.R. 434, will have an enormous impact and be a major contribution towards the historical and cultural preservation of three of Houston’s most historically significant neighborhoods.

This bill will result in the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which extends approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North to Freedmen’s Town and Independence Heights, to the founding of the earliest Urban settlement of Freedmen’s Town-4th Ward, Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District. The Emancipation National Historic Trail Act would bring long overdue historic recognition for the role African Americans played in the building of Houston and Texas. In addition, the revenue generated by historic and cultural tourists will result in tourism dollars to the City of Houston and the State of Texas.

Sincerely,

Nancy G. Kinder, President & CEO.
RUTHERFORD B. H. YATES MUSEUM, INC., Houston, TX.

Hon. Sheila Jackson Lee, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR CONGRESSWOMAN SHEILA JACKSON LEE: The Heritage Society endorses H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, which had a hearing before the Subcommittee on April 2, 2019.

Since its founding, The Heritage Society, a non-profit 501(c)(3), has acquired and restored ten historic buildings in the city of Houston. The result is a treasure for our city, with buildings that tell the stories of how diverse segments of society lived daily, and how they contributed to the city of Houston and the city of Galveston. They also serve as a gathering place for former slaves building new lives for themselves to prosperous merchant families from Houston’s early years. The Heritage Society is an educational institution whose mission is to tell the stories of the diverse history of Houston and Texas through its collections, exhibitions and programming.

The Rutherford B H Yates Museum, located approximately 51 miles from the Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North to Freedmen’s Town and Independence Heights, to the founding of the earliest Urban settlement of Freedmen’s Town-4th Ward, Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District. Two of the historic buildings cared for by The Heritage Society, the Jack Yates House and the 4th Ward Cottage, have been nominated as “Sites of Memory” as part of the UNESCO Slave Route Project. Obtaining international recognition to the Jack Yates House and 4th Ward Cottage signifies its importance as a place that embodies what is to be an enslaved African-American, who, once freed, became a community leader whose lasting impact is seen daily in the community. The Emancipation National Historic Trail would truly provide a larger understanding of how Houston’s history is both unique and also very much a part of the larger story of African Americans in the United States. Should this bill become law it would establish the firsttrail in the Southwest United States that recognizes the role of African Americans in the legacy of freedom in the United States. An Emancipation Historic Trail designation would bring long overdue historic recognition due to the role African Americans played in the building of the today’s Houston and the state of Texas. In addition, the revenue generated by people who come to walk this trail will result in tourism dollars to the city of Houston and the adjoining areas.

Sincerely,
ALISON A. BELL,
Executive Director.

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE,

DEAR CONGRESSWOMAN SHEILA JACKSON LEE:
The Texas Center for African American Living History endorses H.R. 434, the Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, which had a hearing before the Subcommittee on April 2, 2019.

As the founder and CEO of Texas Center of African American Living History, your insight will be beneficial to the effort to see H.R. 434 pass. In the past thirty years, you have endeavored to bring a fresh perspective to Texas History through performance art and education. If you will prepare written testimony in support of the bill, I will see that your written statement is placed into the record for the hearing and that you will be recognized. There will also be a seat for you to observe this historic hearing. I ask that you plan to attend, you should plan to arrive the evening before or the morning of the hearing to allow us an opportunity to hear your comments.

Your written testimony is welcomed and appreciated.
Very truly yours,
Sheila Jackson Lee
Member of Congress

This bill will result in the Emancipation National Historic Trail, which extends approximately 5 miles from the Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas, along Texas State Highway 3 and Interstate 45 North to Freedman’s Town, then to Independence Heights, and Emancipation Park in Houston, Texas. This trail follows the migration route taken by newly freed slaves from the major 19th century sea port to the burgeoning community of Freedman’s Town, which is now the 4th Ward of Houston, home to the 18th Congressional District.

The start of the trail is located where General Gordon Granger sailed into Galveston, Texas, with troops on June 19, 1865, to announce the freedom of the last American slaves. His announcement belatedly freed 250,000 slaves nearly two and a half years after Abraham Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation. The newly freed slaves traveled from the south, read the news to neighboring communities. Should this bill become law it would establish the first trail in the Southwest United States that recognizes the role of African Americans in the legacy of freedom in the United States. An Emancipation Historic Trail designation would bring long overdue historic recognition due to the role African Americans played in the building of the today’s Houston and the state of Texas. In addition, the revenue generated by people who come to walk this trail will result in tourism dollars to the city of Houston and the adjoining areas.

My research gathered over the past 30 years will be an invaluable asset to the National Park Service in the study of the Trail and relevant 19th and early 20th century historic sites in the surrounding areas.

Sincerely,
NAOMI MITCHELL CARRIER, M.D.
Chairwoman, Emancipation Historic District.

EMANCIPATION PARK CONSERVANCY,
April 2, 2019.

HON. DEB HAALAND,
Chairwoman, House Subcommittee National Forests, and Public Lands, Natural Resources Committee, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRWOMAN HAALAND: On behalf of the Boards of Directors for Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone Number Forty-Four (City of Houston) and Fourteenth (TIRZ #14), please allow this correspondence to serve as our expression of support for H.R. 434, the ‘‘Emancipation National Historic Trail Act, introduced by Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee.

It is our understanding that the enactment of this bill will make possible an Emancipation National Historic Trail which will extend 51 miles from the historic Osterman Building and Reedy Chapel in Galveston, Texas along Highway 3 and Interstate 45 north to Freedman’s Town and Emancipation Park located in Houston, Texas. The trail will follow in part the migration route taken by newly freed slaves from Galveston, Texas, a major nineteenth century port, to the vibrant settlement of Freedman’s Town which today is also referred to as the Houston Emancipation National Historic Trail.

The Emancipation National Historic Trail will be the first trail in the southwest region of the United States that recognizes the role of African Americans in the freedom in the United States. An Emancipation Historic Trail designation would bring national recognition to the period of time when our nation took significant strides toward the realization of our nation’s founding documents attesting to the rights of all men to live free.

Freedmen’s Town is contained within the boundaries of the Emancipation National Historic District. Within our town we have significant structures that are directly related to the founders of Emancipation Park. Of note are the historic brick streets that were laid by freed slaves; Bethel Church founded by Jack Yates which has been restored as an open space park; and The African American Library at Gregory School which originally was a public school for black students. Antioch Missionary Baptist Church, the oldest African American church in Houston (1876) whereby Jack the Emancipated slave still resides in the historic boundaries of Freedmen’s Town just east of the TIRZ boundaries.

Through our project plan that directs TIRZ #14 to allocate its funds to historical preservation, among other designated projects, the Authority has set its priorities on preserving and restoring the institutional vestiges of Freedman’s Town to assure that for generations to come to the story of African American emancipation can be retold and personally experienced. We strongly believe that The Emancipation National Historic Trail will lend itself to act as the nucleus by which our nation come to know and experience the tenacity and strength of the freed slave to build, thrive and prosper in its own community.

Consequently, it is our honor to lend our support to the H.R. 434, The Emancipation National Historic Trail Act.

Very truly yours,
JACQUELINE BOSTIC,
Chair.
The title of the bill was amended so as to read: “A bill to amend the National Trails System Act to provide for the study of the Emancipation National Historic Trail, and for other purposes.”

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 3877, BIPARTISAN BUDGET ACT OF 2019; PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 549, VENEZUELA TPS ACT OF 2019; AND WAIVING A REQUIREMENT OF CLAUSE 6(A) OF RULE XIII WITH RESPECT TO CONSIDERATION OF CERTAIN RESOLUTIONS REPORTED FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES

Mr. PERLMUTTER, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 116-183) on the resolution (H. Res. 519) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 3877) to amend the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, to establish a congressional budget for fiscal years 2020 and 2021, to temporarily suspend the debt limit, and for other purposes; providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 549) to designate Venezuela under section 214 of the Immigration and Nationality Act to permit nationals of Venezuela to be eligible for temporary protected status under such section, and for other purposes; and waiving a requirement of clause 6(a) of rule XIII with respect to consideration of certain resolutions reported from the Committee on Rules, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

YSLETA DEL SUR PUEBLO AND ALABAMA-COUSSHATTA TRIBES OF TEXAS EQUAL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITY SETTLEMENT ACT

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 759) to restore an opportunity for tribal economic development on terms that are equal and fair, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill. The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 759
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Yaute del Sur Pueblo and Alabama-Coushatta Tribes of Texas Equal and Fair Opportunity Settlement Act.”

SEC. 2. AMENDMENT.

The Yaute del Sur Pueblo and Alabama-Coushatta Indian Tribes of Texas Restoration Act (Public Law 106-88; 110 Stat. 666) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"SEC. 301. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.

"Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent or limit the operation of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (25 U.S.C. 2701 et seq.)."
The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Guam (Mr. SAN NICOLAS) and the gentleman from Utah (Mr. CURTIS) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Guam.

General LEAVE
Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the measure under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Guam?

There was no objection.

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 759, introduced by Representative BABIN from Texas, amends the Ysleta del Sur Pueblo and Alabama-Coushatta Indian Tribes of Texas Restoration Act of 1987 to clarify that the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act applies to both the Pueblo and the Tribe.

The Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas was federally terminated in 1954, following the termination of the Ysleta del Sur Pueblo, also known as the Tigua Tribe, in 1968. Congress rightfully restored both the Pueblo and the Tribe in 1987 at one time by enacting the aforementioned Restoration Act.

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act was enacted just 1 year later, in 1988. The framework that it created should have applied to both the Pueblo and the Tribe, just as it did to every other Tribe. However, since the Restoration Act was passed at a time when Indian gaming was just emerging and Federal regulations had not yet been implemented, it contains a section regarding gaming.

We know from the CONGRESSIONAL Record that the intent of this section of the Restoration Act was to clarify Indian gaming policy at the time, not to completely prohibit gaming on these lands in perpetuity, but that is what is occurring. The language in the Restoration Act has been used by the State of Texas to completely stymie the Pueblo’s and the Tribe’s ability to engage in Class II gaming, much to the detriment of the economic health and well-being of both the Pueblo and the Tribe.

Additionally, the only other federally recognized Tribe in Texas, the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe, is allowed to operate a Class II gaming facility, as they were restored by Congress in 1963 without any type of gaming restrictions.

H.R. 759 remedies this inequality by clarifying that the Pueblo and the Tribe, like the Kickapoo, have the same rights and responsibilities under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act as virtually every other federally recognized Tribe in the United States. The legislation confers no new or special rights to the Pueblo or the Tribe, nor does it in any way limit the existing rights of the State of Texas. This is simply a matter of parity and fairness.

Mr. Speaker, I urge adoption of this legislation, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 759, sponsored by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BABIN), would amend the act of Congress that restored Federal recognition to the two Tribes in Texas that are the subject of this bill.

The amendment would override a gaming limitation imposed by Congress on the Tribes, thereby authorizing the Tribes to operate the casinos regulated under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988 and not under Texas law.

The question of whether Texas law or the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act applies to the two Tribes is no longer under serious dispute. Federal courts have settled the question, and the resultant litigation is that the two Tribes may not conduct gaming under IGRA unless Congress enacts a measure to allow them to do so.

This bill enjoys significant local support in the communities around the reservations of the two Tribes, and the Members who represent the Tribes strongly support enactment of the measure because the reservations, where the casinos would be operated, are within their districts.

However, while the bill enjoys support in Texas, I must note that the Governor of Texas, Greg Abbott, has written letters to the House leaders and committee leaders in opposition to the legislation. In the view of the Governor, this bill allows the Tribes to violate the Texas constitution without the consent of the State of Texas.

It is my hope that such concerns with the measure can be worked out as the legislative process continues.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Alaska (Mr. YOUNG).

(Mr. YOUNG asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. YOUNG. Mr. Speaker, I thank the ranking member for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, this is about fairness, and when you have been in this office as long as I have been—I was here when we passed the 1981, the 1983, and the 1986 gaming acts, and I expected to do the right thing for all Tribes. I say I have been involved with this. When I was chairman, we tried to do the same thing. It is the right thing to do. It is the fair thing to do. The most important thing is it is a simple matter of fairness.

I will say it again. These two Tribes have been denied the same opportunity of every other federally recognized Tribe, including the Kickapoo Tribe, to engage in Class II gaming on their reservation. Class II is bingo.

This legislation opens no new door to gaming in Texas. The Kickapoo Tribe has been offering bingo on their reservation for the better part of two decades with no interference from the State of Texas.

Second, it should be noted that virtually all communities surrounding the Alabama-Coushatta reservation have passed a resolution endorsing this legislation. In fact, the Texas tribes in favor of H.R. 759 show that support for the bill runs from the Gulf of Mexico to the Red River border on Oklahoma.

This represents genuine grassroots support for the people who will be most impacted. Far from thwarting the will of the people of Texas, this legislation enables it.

Mr. Speaker, from someone who has worked on this legislation a long time, I encourage my colleagues to vote in favor of this legislation to solve an unfair state.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BABIN).

Mr. BABIN. Mr. Speaker, I ran for Congress to take on and address the tough issues facing our nation and the world and leave it a better place for my grandchildren, which I will note climbed to number 16 with the arrival of Truett Ryan Babin just yesterday.

When I say the tough issues, I mean the ones most of us would agree on: border security, immigration, taxes, trade, national security, and on and on. But when you take this job, you realize that working on behalf of your constituents as their elected Representative in the Federal Government can mean taking on issues that you weren’t expecting to, and this is certainly one such case.

But I am proud and honored to be here, and I thank the leaders from both sides of the aisle who have come together and worked with us to get H.R. 759, the Ysleta del Sur Pueblo and Alabama-Coushatta Tribes of Texas Equal and Fair Opportunity Settlement Act, passed favorably out of committee and on the floor today.

I am not in this fight because of a love for gaming. I am here because it is about fairness. It is about equal treatment under the law, jobs, and economic development and opportunity.

With the exception of a few years in the military, I have lived in southeast Texas all of my life, and I have seen firsthand how these proud Native Americans have provided jobs and economic opportunity not only for members of their Tribe but for Texans throughout our entire region. That is why the 32 government and civic organizations who live and work closest to this reservation have given their strong endorsement of this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD the letters and resolutions from every one of them.

STATE OF TEXAS, § COMMISSIONERS COURT.
COUNTY OF HARDIN, § OF HARDIN COUNTY, TEXAS.

BE IT REMEMBERED that at a meeting of Com- missioners Court of Hardin County, Texas, held on this 26TH Day of March, 2019, on motion by L.W. Cooper, Jr., Commissioner Precinct No. 1, and second by . . . Alvin Rob erts, Commissioner of Precinct No. 4, the fol- lowing RESOLUTION was adopted:

WHEREAS, the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas is a Federally recognized Indian Tribe located in Polk County, Texas and is com-mitted to the economic development and creation of jobs within Polk and surrounding counties of Deep East Texas; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas’ Naskila electronic bingo facility has created over 560 new jobs in Deep East Texas, and is the third largest employer in the region and is responsible for injecting nearly $140 million annually in revenue to the re-gion; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas provided over 46 fully paid collegiate scholarships for graduating high school students of the Tribe in 2018; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas being a good community partner contributed $500,000.00 in donations after Hurricane Harvey to the county, and purchased 320 mobile home units; and

WHEREAS, United State Congressman Brian Babin (R-Woodville) has filed H.R. 759 to clarify conflicting federal statutes regarding the right of the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas to offer Class II Electronic Bingo on their tribal lands pursuant to the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas has a strong tradition of tribal gaming in Texas since 1996; and

WHEREAS, the passage of H.R. 759 is vital to continued economic development and health of both the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas and all Deep East Texas; Now, there- fore, be it

RESOLVED that the Hardin County Com- missioners Court hereby joins the Alabama- Coushatta Tribe of Texas in support of its ef-fort for passage of H.R. 759 to clarify that the Tribe can enjoy the opportunity for tribal economic development on terms that are equal and fair, and to protect jobs. FUR- THERMORE, the Hardin County Commissioners Court urgently requests that United States Senators John Cornyn and Ted Cruz of Texas, as well as the other 33 Texans elected to the United States House of Representa- tives, join Congressman Babin in securing the enactment of H.R. 759 into law.

SIGNED this 26th, day of MARCH, 2019.

JUDGE WAYNE MCDANIEL,

County Judge

L.W. COOPER JR.,

County Commissioner, Precinct 1.

COMMISSIONER CHAS KIRKENDALL,

County Commissioner, Precinct 2.

KEN PELT

COMMISSIONER, KEN PELT,

County Commissioner, Precinct 2.

COMMISSIONER, ALVIN ROBERTS,

County Commissioner, Precinct 4.

Mr. BABBIN. All I want is for this Tribe in my district to simply have the same rights and the same opportunities as their counterparts at the Kickapoo Tribe of Texas facility in Eagle Pass, Texas, and what they deserve under a fair interpretation of IGRA, the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act.

Why should one Tribe be able to play bingo and another Tribe not be able to in the same State of Texas?

Poverty and joblessness are a scourge in many communities across this country, but the consequences are espe- cially dire on the reservation lands of the Native American peoples across this Nation.

\[2145\]

This facility has already helped turn that tide of poverty away from my dis- trict, creating over 500 jobs, contrib- uting $140 million in economic activity each year. But all of those benefits and more aren’t just at risk if this bill doesn’t pass. They are guaranteed to go away.

So please join us today and stop that from happening, and please support this bill.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. HURD).

Mr. HURD of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 759, the Ysleta del Sur Pueblo and Alabama- Coushatta Tribes of Texas Equal and Fair Opportunity Settlement Act.

As a Representative with more Tribes in my district than any other Texan, it is my solemn obligation to fight on behalf of Texas’ native people. I am a proud Texan, and there is no greater State in the Union, no prouder people than we Texans, and for all the blessings bestowed upon the Lone Star State, we still fall short in our efforts of providing true economic stability to our Native American Tribes.

The Ysleta del Sur Pueblo are the oldest community in the State of Texas claiming a governing body since 1682.

During the Texas Revolution, it was the Alabama-Coushatta of East Texas who provided refuge, food, and medi- cine to the great Sam Houston and his army. Their story is sewn into the fab- ric of Texas’ history.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 759 is not about whether one agrees or disagrees with gambling. This bill isn’t about gam- bling. It’s about letting two Tribes in two of Texas’ most economically dis- tressed zones engage in what every other Tribe in America engages in. This bill would allow these two Tribes in Texas to do bingo.

For too long, the Alabama-Coushatta and the Tigua Tribes have been pre- vented from achieving self-sufficiency. It is time we right this wrong.

Mr. Speaker, we still work in a bipar- tisan way here in Washington, D.C., and the fact that we are going to help these two Tribes support their community is an example of this today.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. Speaker, I have no more speakers on this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, I, too, do not wish for my support of this measure to indicate or to be misconstrued as support for gaming.

My support of this measure has every- thing to do with what my colleague on the other side of the aisle has stat- ed. This is about parity, and this is about the unique sovereignty that rec-ognized Tribes have with the Federal Government through our own Constitu- tion.

If we are going to be recognizing this unique sovereignty, we should do so equally among all the other Tribes. This equality is so necessary if we are going to maintain the credibility of the process.

Mr. Speaker, I am grateful for my colleagues and all the work that they put into this, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Guam (Mr. SAN NICOLAS) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 759, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES FOR CHILDREN PROGRAM REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 2019

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 776) to amend the Public Health Service Act to reauthorize the Emer- gency Medical Services for Children program.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) and the gen- tleman from Georgia (Mr. CARTER) each will control 20 minutes.
Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this legislation for parents and children in our communities—no one should have to know the pain of losing a child. I urge my fellow House members to support this bill.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, as a senator from New Jersey, I would like to thank Representatives Peter King and Kathy Castor for their work on this important legislation.

The Emergency Medical Services for Children program was enacted in 1984 to provide grant funding to increase the ability of emergency medical systems to care for pediatric populations. Not only does this program provide funding so that emergency departments and hospitals can equip themselves with the appropriate pediatric medical tools, it enables partnerships and drives research and innovation in emergency care for children.

Whether children require emergency care following a car crash or fall ill in the middle of the night with nowhere else to turn, our emergency medical system needs to have staff trained in how to treat children. A major part of that is providing the resources to equip healthcare professionals with the right size medical tools.

The Emergency Medical Services for Children program provides grants for the State Partnership Program to integrate pediatric care into the EMS system and reduce pediatric morbidity and mortality. States can focus on providing equal access to hospital and hospital-based care, in addition to establishing plans to handle disaster and trauma care.

Our Nation’s healthcare workforce still has much to learn about the treatment of pediatric populations, which is why continued research through the Pediatric Emergency Care Applied Research Network is crucial. This body is the first federally funded pediatric emergency medicine research network in the country and conducts a wide variety of research about acute illness and injuries in children.

The reauthorization of the Emergency Medical Services for Children program is critical to maintaining and improving pediatric emergency care. Mr. Speaker, I urge strong support of H.R. 776, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. WALDEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.R. 776, and I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 776.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting H.R. 776, the “Emergency Medical Services for Children Program Reauthorization Act of 2019.”

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to review and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 2507.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

There was no objection.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, every year over 12,000 newborns are born with conditions that require early detection and treatment. With proper screening, parents can receive treatment and children can receive appropriate follow-up and treatment and, ultimately, better long-term health outcomes.

Over the years, as more screening tests and treatments have become available and we have expanded our medical and scientific knowledge, we have also seen greater potential for improving outcomes for children.

However, prior to Congress passing the first Newborn Screening Saves Lives Act in 2008, a patchwork of State requirements for screening led to some newborns screened for many disorders and others for very few.

Since the Newborn Screening law was enacted, we have seen tremendous progress around the country, with all 50 States screening for at least 29 recommended conditions. But as we develop new screening tests and treatments for diseases once thought untreatable, we must ensure that States are able to adopt recommended screening tests more quickly.

The bill we are considering today will do that by reauthorizing the program for 5 years, with higher authorization levels, improved processes and pilot testing for new screening tests, and a study focused on how we can better modernize newborn screening for the future.

This bipartisan bill will bring us closer to the goal of every child born in the United States receiving all recommended screening tests and will improve countless lives of the youngest Americans.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to support it and ask all of my colleagues to join me in passing it today, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in support of H.R. 2507, the Newborn Screening Saves Lives Reauthorization Act of 2019.

Newborn screening is critical in early detection and intervention for conditions, some life-threatening, for our Nation’s infants. These screenings inform both physicians and the families of a newborn what steps may be necessary to treat or prevent further health complications as the infant ages.

The Newborn Screening Saves Lives Act, which passed for the first time in 2008, aims to improve the ability to address pediatric health by standardizing newborn screening programs.

Newborn screenings are incredibly important in providing physicians and families with information regarding their baby’s health, enabling them to practice early intervention and treatment, if necessary.

According to the March of Dimes, in 2017, only 10 States and Washington, D.C., required infant screening for the recommended disorders.

Since enactment of the Newborn Screening Saves Lives Act, all the States, D.C., and Puerto Rico screen for at least 29 of the 35 recommended conditions.

This bill would reauthorize funding for the Health Resources and Services Administration, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the National Institutes of Health to ensure that our newborn screening remains comprehensive and that our Nation’s healthcare providers are adequately equipped to conduct the screenings.

Newborn screenings are for serious but rare conditions that families and doctors may otherwise be unable to detect at birth.

Newborns are screened in the hospital when they are 1 or 2 days old by blood tests, in addition to hearing and heart screenings. About 1 in 300 newborns has a condition that can be detected via newborn screening.

By catching these disorders early, many can be managed successfully, allowing children to live fuller, better lives. However, if not detected and left untreated, these conditions can impact a child for the rest of their life by causing disabilities, delays in development, illness, or even death.

Prior to the passage of the initial bill in 2008, States had varying standards for newborn screening. Some States were only screening for 4 conditions in 2006, a patchwork of State requirements for screening led to some newborns screened for many disorders and others for very few.

Since the Newborn Screening law was enacted, we have seen tremendous progress around the country, with all 50 States screening for at least 29 recommended conditions. But as we develop new screening tests and treatments for diseases once thought untreatable, we must ensure that States are able to adopt recommended screening tests more quickly.

The bill we are considering today will do that by reauthorizing the program for 5 years, with higher authorization levels, improved processes and pilot testing for new screening tests, and a study focused on how we can better modernize newborn screening for the future.

This bipartisan bill will bring us closer to the goal of every child born in the United States receiving all recommended screening tests and will improve countless lives of the youngest Americans.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to support it and ask all of my colleagues to join me in passing it today, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support reauthorization of my Newborn Screening Saves Lives Act, which I first introduced in 2002.

Let me begin by extending my sincere gratitude to Congressman MIKE SIMPSON for our 15-year partnership championing newborn screening. Many thanks to Congresswomen KATHERINE CLARK and JAIME HERRERA BEUTLER, who, this year, joined us as House champions. And my heartfelt appreciation to the coalition of public health groups, who continue to support my newborn screening efforts, especially the March of Dimes and the APHL.

Newborn screening involves a baby receiving a simple blood test to identify life-threatening diseases before symptoms begin. Prior to the first newborn screening test being developed, these children would have died or suffered lifelong disabilities.

And, until enactment of my original newborn screening bill in 2008, newborn screenings and access to follow-up information were not consistent and available to families in all communities. At that time, only 10 States and the District of Columbia required infants to be screened for a complete panel of recommended disorders, and there was no Federal repository of information on the diseases.

Today, 49 States and D.C. require screening for at least 29 of the 35 core treatable conditions, and a national clearinghouse of newborn screening information is available for parents and professionals.

Rapid identification and treatment make the difference between health and disability—or even life and death—for the approximately 12,000 babies who, each year, test positive for one of these serious conditions.

In addition, this simple test saves over $2 billion in healthcare savings millions of dollars in care for each child who is identified and treated early.

This truly public health success story exemplifies what can be accomplished when private and public institutions, industry, scientists, providers, and parents partner to ensure a healthier future for our children.

Mr. Speaker, to maintain and advance the incredible progress that we have made over the last decade, we must reauthorize the Newborn Screening Saves Lives Act.

Passing H.R. 2507 will ensure the advisory committee continues its critical work of recommending new screenings to State programs. It will guarantee access to the most current follow-up programs and educational materials for parents and providers, as well as high-quality technical assistance for State programs and public health labs.

Reauthorization will also commission a National Academies of Sciences study to make recommendations for a 21st century newborn screening system.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a ‘yes’ vote on the passage of H.R. 2507 to ensure all our newborns receive the comprehensive and consistent testing and follow up that they will need for a healthy and productive life.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, as a senior member of both the Judiciary Committee and the Committee on Homeland Security, I rise in strong support of H.R. 2507, the ‘Newborn Screening Saves Lives Reauthorization Act of 2019.’

The Newborn Screening Saves Lives Reauthorization Act would yield major improvements in both the screening and follow up processes involved in the testing of infants for heritable diseases and conditions.

In the United States, more than 4,000,000 infants and children are screened every year, and up to 4,000 of the children test positive for one or more disease or disorder.

Mr. Speaker, 4,000 conditions detected are identified as treatable but can be deadly if left unaddressed.

However, there is an ever-present need to continue adapting the panel of conditions that newborns and young children are tested for, as improvements in technology allow medical professionals to identify new diseases, sooner.

Mr. Speaker, children and their families should have access to state of the art testing, and treatments.

H.R. 2507 specifically improves the current Newborn Screening Act in several ways, including:

Creating new educational strategies and practices regarding the screening and follow up treatments for heritable diseases and conditions;

Creating an advisory committee for heritable diseases and newborns and children;

Creating a Clearinghouse of newborn screening information;

Improving laboratory quality and surveillance, which includes implementing new tools, resources and infrastructure, to improve data analysis, interpretation and lab practices;

Increasing funding for the Hunter Kelly Institute; and Authorizing $2 million in Appropriations to the National Academy of Medicine, to fund studies dedicated to further improving the practice and procedure of the Uniform Screening Panel.

The screening of children has already been proven to be effective, and improvements and additions to the panel of diseases that are tested for can only result in more lives being saved.

I urge all members to join me in voting to pass H.R. 2507, the ‘Newborn Screening Saves Lives Reauthorization Act of 2019.’

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is now offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2507, as amended.

The question was taken, and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed. A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

CONSENSUS CALENDAR

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair announces the Speaker’s designation, pursuant to clause 7(a)(1) of rule XV, of H.R. 693 as the measure on the Consensus Calendar to be considered this week.

U.S. SENATOR JOSEPH D. TYDINGS MEMORIAL PREVENT ALL SORING TACTICS ACT OF 2019

Mr. SCHRADER. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 693) to amend the Horse Protection Act to designate additional unlawful acts under the Act, strengthen penalties for violations of the Act, improve Department of Agriculture enforcement of the Act, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 693

To be enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "U.S. Senator Joseph D. Tydings Memorial Prevent All Soring Tactics Act of 2019" or the "PAST Act".

SEC. 2. INCREASED ENFORCEMENT UNDER HORSE PROTECTION ACT.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—Section 2 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1821) is amended—

(1) by redesignating paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) of paragraphs (1) and (2), as amended, as paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5), respectively;

(2) by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

"(i) rotate around the leg or slide up and down the leg, so as to cause friction; or"

(3) in paragraph (7), by striking the period at the end and inserting a semicolon;

and

(b) FINDINGS.—Section 3 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1822) is amended—

(1) in paragraph (9)—

(A) by inserting "and soring horses for such purposes" after "horses in intrastate commerce"; and

(B) by inserting "in many ways, including by creating unfair competition, by deceiving the spectating public and horse buyers, and by negatively impacting horse sales" before the semicolon;

(2) in paragraph (4), by striking "and" at the end;

(3) in paragraph (5), by striking the period at the end and inserting a colon; and

(4) by adding at the end the following new paragraphs:

"(7) historically, Tennessee Walking Horses, Racking Horses, and Spotted Saddle Horses have been subjected to soring; and

"(8) despite regulations in effect to inspection for purposes of ensuring that horses are not sore, violations of this Act continue to be prevalent in the Tennessee Walking Horse, Racking Horse, and Spotted Saddle horse breeds.

(c) HORSE SHOWS AND EXHIBITIONS.—Section 4 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1823) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)—

(A) by striking "appointed" and inserting "licensed"; and

(B) by adding at the end the following new sentences: "In the first instance in which the Secretary determines that a horse is sore, the Secretary shall disqualify the horse from being shown or exhibited for a period of not less than 180 days. In the second instance in which the Secretary determines that such horse is sore, the Secretary shall disqualify the horse for a period of not less than one year. In the third instance in which the Secretary determines that such horse is sore, the Secretary shall disqualify the horse for a period of not less than three years.

(2) in subsection (b) by striking "appointed" and inserting "licensed";

(3) by striking subsection (c) and inserting the following new subsection:

"(c)(1) (A) The Secretary shall prescribe by regulation requirements for the Department of Agriculture to license, train, assign, and oversee persons qualified to detect and diagnose a horse which is sore or to otherwise inspect horses at shows, horse exhibitions, or public sales or auctions, for hire by the management of such events, for the purposes of enforcing this Act.

(B) No person shall be issued a license under this subsection unless such person is free from conflicts of interest, as defined by the Secretary in the regulations issued under subparagraph (A).

(C) If the Secretary determines that the performance of a person licensed in accordance with subparagraph (a) is unsatisfactory, the Secretary may, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing, revoke the license issued to such person.

(D) In issuing licenses under this subsection, the Secretary shall give a preference to persons who are licensed or accredited veterinarians.

(E) Licensure of a person in accordance with the requirements prescribed under this paragraph shall be issued by regulatory agencies in any State or territory for which the State or territory is not a party to an agreement approved by the Secretary.

(f) criminal penalties.—Section 5 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1824) is amended—

(1) by striking the last sentence; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new sentence: "The Secretary shall have all criminal penalties under this Act enforced by the Attorney General of the United States; the Attorney General shall have all necessary powers to make arrests under this Act; and the Attorney General shall have the power to bring all necessary suits against the United States in any court of the United States.

"(g) Civil penalties.—Section 6 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1825) is amended—

(1) by striking the last sentence; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new sentence: "The Secretary shall have all civil penalties under this Act enforced by the Attorney General of the United States; the Attorney General shall have all necessary powers to make service of process under this Act; and the Attorney General shall have the power to bring all necessary suits against the United States in any court of the United States.

"(h) Criminal provision.—Section 7 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1826) is amended—

(1) by striking the last sentence; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new sentence: "The Secretary shall have all criminal penalties under this Act enforced by the Attorney General of the United States; the Attorney General shall have all necessary powers to make arrests under this Act; and the Attorney General shall have the power to bring all necessary suits against the United States in any court of the United States.

"(i) records.—Section 8 of the Horse Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1827) is amended—

(1) by striking the last sentence; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new sentence: "The Secretary shall have all records under this Act enforced by the Attorney General of the United States; the Attorney General shall have all necessary powers to make service of process under this Act; and the Attorney General shall have the power to bring all necessary suits against the United States in any court of the United States."
subsection shall not be construed as authorizing such person to conduct inspections in a manner other than that prescribed for inspections by the Secretary (or the Secretary’s representative) under subsection (e).

‘‘(2) Not later than 30 days before the date on which a horse show, horse exhibition, or sale or auction begins, the management of such show, exhibition, or sale or auction may notify the Secretary of the intent of the management to hire a person or persons licensed under this subsection and assigned by the Secretary to conduct inspections at such show, exhibition, or sale or auction.

‘‘(3) A person licensed by the Secretary to conduct inspections under this subsection shall issue a citation with respect to any violation of this Act recorded during an inspection and notify the Secretary of each such violation not later than five days after the date on which a citation was issued with respect to such violation; and

‘‘(4) by adding at the end the following new subsection:

‘‘(d) The Secretary shall publish on the public website of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service of the Department of Agriculture, and update as frequently as the Secretary determines is necessary, information on violations of this Act for the purposes of allowing the management of a horse show, horse exhibition, or horse sale or auction to determine if an individual is in violation of this Act.’’

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Oregon, Mr. SCHRADER.

Mr. SCHRADER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include additional material on H.R. 693.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Oregon.

H24JYPT1
The package elevates the horse’s front feet and adds weight and pressure, causing the horse’s foot to strike at a very unusual and painful angle.

The chains are wrapped over the horse’s chemically sored and raw front pastern, increasing the pain felt by the horse and further exaggerating that big lick, pain-induced gait, which again, as I said before, is not necessary. Horses will move with that action under their own volition when properly trained by an actual trainer.

Our bill will make it illegal to use these and other similar devices in the show ring, and horses would only be allowed to show with a normal horseshoe.

There is the photo I was alluding to earlier.

Some people may argue that these action devices are not harmful for horses, but the experts at the American Veterinary Medical Association, the American Association of Equine Practitioners, and the United States Equine Federation all say that pressure from these items contained in this package put in the legs of the horses and in the legs, that the horse lifts its feet higher and faster in an exaggerated gait beyond what they are naturally able to do.

All of these organizations support a ban on these devices and package to protect the health and welfare of the horse.

As a veterinarian with over 30 years’ experience, I agree with them. I agree with the AVMA that it is indisputable that soreness causes horses an unnecessary and unacceptable level of pain. These horses—it is horrible when you see them, you see what is going on in the legs of these horses.

They used to actually use soldering iron, or vinegar to blister the horses legs so that they would react to these chains in an exaggerated manner. I saw that.

In addition to outlawing action devices on the horse’s legs, the PAST Act will also end the unsuccessful system of industry self-policing that we tried for almost 40 years.

The USDA has let it run, and, unfortunately, it has been completely ineffective. Our bill will require the USDA to create a process to train, license, assi gn, and oversee impartial inspectors—hopefully veterinarians, among others—who can detect and diagnose horses that have been sored.

It is my hope that we can continue to work together to ensure a better industry for all of those involved.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.
nearly 50 years, since Congress passed the Horse Protection Act of 1970. But despite the Federal ban, soring continues to run rampant in some segments of the walking horse industry. The bill would amend the Horse Protection Act and finally put an end to the practice of a mutilation of a leg. The bill bans the use at horse shows of chains, weighted shoes, and other devices that are commonly used to sore horses. It also puts an end to the failed system of industry self-policing by giving the USDA authority to train and license independent inspectors at horse shows. The legislation also strengthens penalties on those who violate the law.

This bill has received endorsements from hundreds of equine and veterinary organizations, including more than 60 State and national horse groups, and all 50 State veterinary medical associations.

So, again, I thank Representative SCHRADE for his continued leadership. It is time that Congress pass this legislation and put an end to soring once and for all.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia, Mr. Speaker. I yield such time as he may consume.

Mr. YOHO. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOHO), a veterinarian, who has worked on this bill tirelessly and has done a yeoman's job at getting it to this point here.

Mr. YOHO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank my colleagues. I would like to thank Dr. SCHRADE, and the leadership of the House to bring this bill up.

I am here today for two reasons: One, we shouldn't even be here to have to run this through this body and take up valuable time, legislative time, that we could be talking about our debt, border, those kinds of things, but we are here.

First, it saddens me that we have to pass a bill to stiffen fines and penalties to keep people from doing the despicable act of intentionally soring a horse's forelegs. And this is done through chemical means or mechanical devices to artificially—understand this—artificially accentuate the gait of the Tennessee Walking, Racking, or Saddle Horse.

Dr. SCHRADE and I are both equine vets, the only ones in the House. We know this. We have seen this. We have dealt with this.

As Mr. SCHRADE brought up, the Horse Protection Act was passed in 1970 to stop this. It was passed to stop this. That industry has had 49 years to bring this to an end, and they wanted to self-police. They have had 49 years to self-police, and they have not brought this to an end.

I have got a shoe here that the gentleman had a picture of. This is a built-up shoe that we use on horses. I could drop it on the table, but I don't want to get the bill to fix it. This weighs about 10 pounds. This is one foot, on the front of a leg.

Then they put these devices on there. After they put the chemical irritant on the leg to irritate it, then they put this on there. And you know why they do that? So they can win a blue ribbon. So that they can win a blue ribbon and take it and say, Look what we have accomplished.

It makes me sick that we have to spend the time to do this stuff. Secondly, it saddens me. We are talking about preserving a terrible practice of animal abuse. And I see it very clearly. You are either supportive of animal abuse or you are against it. That is the choice.

Congress shouldn't have to do this; but, again, that industry has had 49 years. I had one of the trainers come in my office with an owner, for an hour and a half, to try to tell me not to support this bill. He showed me these weights and he looked at my watch. He goes: Congressman, that watch probably weighs about the same in relationship, body weight, as what you are wearing.

I said, You know what? You are probably absolutely right. But there is a huge difference.

And he goes, What is that? I said, I choose to put this watch on. That horse has no option. This is the ninth year that this has been brought. This is a good bill to get rid of a practice that is archaic and shouldn't be done. And it won't hurt this industry. It will make this industry stronger.

And anybody that says this is going to kill the Tennessee Walking Horse industry is equivalent to the guy in the late 1800s that said, Those automobiles are bad; if you go over 30 miles an hour, you are going to die.

We know that was a fallacy. Their argument is a fallacy.

Every one of these agencies that he mentioned, the AVMA, the American Association of Equine Practitioners, every veterinary college in the United States of America, 90 percent of the farriers associations are for this bill. They are against the opposition to this bill, and I stand with this.

Mr. SCHRADE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the other gentleman from Oregon (Mr. BLUMENAUER).

Mr. BLUMENAUER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlelady for yielding the time and for her tireless efforts on this with Mr. Yoho. I have watched as the gentleman has battled this for years. I have worked with him to get co-sponsorship for this.

We have had the Animal Protection Caucus having sessions, bringing staff members, having demonstrations of this horrific practice.

This is the ninth year that this has been before us. Now, I am pleased that we are here. I am pleased that we are making the case. I am pleased that, to night, we are going to pass this legislation, although I wish it weren't at 10:30 at night for a few minutes; because there is no guarantee that, even with this, that we are going to be able to get it through the Senate, where we have seen objection in the past.

I hope that this legislation occasions a little bit of soul-searching. The animal protection agenda of this Congress is one of the areas that brings people together, like my two veterinarian friends have shown bipartisan cooperation dealing with the facts, mustering members, and finding far more patient than I would have.

I mean, the last two Congresses, we had 280 co-sponsors. We couldn't even get a hearing, let alone get it on the floor. That is outrageous. There is a huge bit of political backlash. Some people who are part of that aren't here anymore. I hope that there are some lessons, both in terms of the politics and the basic decency for protection of animal welfare.

I agree with the gentleman from Georgia, I wish it went through regular order. I wish that we had an opportunity in committees of jurisdiction to give a little bit of the time that is merited to be able to give the public a view of what is going on: the bureaucracy that, for 49 years, has been unable to take the self-policing mechanism and be able to make it work.

I hope that this is the first of a series of items. I plan on talking to our leadership, and I hope we will have leadership on the other side of the aisle who, in the past, have held off, despite overwhelming support, to the frustration, I know, of one of the principal sponsors.

I hope that we understand that this is the only way that shows are dealt with in a partisan fashion, and there shouldn't be jurisdictional battles. People ought to be able to take fundamental animal welfare issues and bring them forward on the merits, have the debate, and get them enacted. It will make people in this body feel better, because for a number of days, I think, people don't feel so good watching what happens around here, and we don't have much to show for our efforts.

So I want to commend my colleagues for their patience and their perseverance.

VERN BUCHANAN, my co-chair of the Animal Protection Caucus, has been writing op-eds with me and working on this, so it's a culmination of a lot of work.

But I hope it is a first step toward dealing with an area that is supported by the American public. It is important that we get bipartisan, except for a few special interests who, frankly, don't have a leg to stand on, even though they didn't have one of those things on their legs.

I hope that we can use this as an opportunity to make more progress in a bipartisan way to solve problems, not just for animal welfare, but other areas that the American people would like us to add.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia, Mr. Speaker. I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. DESJARLAIS).

Mr. DESJARLAIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak in opposition to H.R. 693, the PAST Act. issues, found that the application of stacked wedges and action devices to the forefeet of horses evoke no acute or subacute stress to the horse.

I heard my colleague and good friend Dr. Yohe talk about his wristwatch. The majority of you in here are wearing wristwatches, or at least you may just use your smartphones now, but you wear those all day, and that doesn’t hurt you. If there is a sorging agent applied, then, yes, that is going to cause problems. Action devices are pieces of equipment no different than a saddle or a bridle or a bit.

This is a slippery slope, folks. What will these groups seek to ban next? Saddles, maybe riding horses at all.

Like my colleagues, I feel strong that animal abusers should be identified and punished; however, the PAST Act will not accomplish this goal. These horses are already incredibly regulated, more so than any other horse, including those in rodeo, those that race, and those that address race.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield an additional 30 seconds to the gentleman from Tennessee.

Mr. DESJARDINS of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I would like to point out that the PAST Act is intended to prevent the use of action devices. No other horses are subjected to taxpayer-funded inspections, and these owners are already incredibly compliant. Furthermore, it is not true when groups suggest there is no additional cost to taxpayers. The CBO has scored this legislation at $2 million per year.

The PAST Act purports itself to be an innocent bill that would provide stricter enforcement of standards in protecting horses. The fact of the matter is that it is a Federal overreach into an issue in which compliance is higher than any other USDA-regulated industry, including the food industry.

I strongly urge my colleagues to carefully consider the consequences of this bill before their votes. It should go back to committee and be transparent.

Mr. SCHRADER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the gentleman from Tennessee coming down and talking on this, and obviously he is from Tennessee and has an interest, maybe a slightly special interest in talking about the industry from his perspective.

And if, indeed, most of the industry is complying, then he shouldn’t object to this bill. This bill just makes sure that the bad actors that the gentleman from Georgia referenced in his opening remarks are, frankly, taken care of and they can, therefore, not compete unfairly against the other 90 percent that are doing the right thing.

I will show you a picture here. I don’t know if it shows up, but look at all the nails in here. Look at all this stuff.

Congressman Yohe and I in our pre-vet lives treated a lot of horses, would see a lot of limb problems, would see a lot of coffin bone problems in their feet.

This sort of thing almost guarantees a horse is going to prematurely get arthritic, end its athletic career, and have serious problems. It is completely unnecessary and unfair.

The Veterinary Medical Association strongly disagrees with the American Association of Equine Practitioners, who are the medical experts—not the Farm Bureau from Kentucky or Tennessee; these are the medical experts—say that pads and chains cause harm to the horses. I believe the veterinary experts. There is no doubt.

I would certainly hope that folks here would go with the body of evidence, the folks who care about the horses, who have worked on them for their entire professional career. Let’s be fair about this, and let’s make sure there is no unfair competition.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. JOHN W. ROSE).

Mr. JOHN W. ROSE of Tennessee. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Today I rise in opposition to H.R. 693, the PAST Act.

Mr. Speaker, I include in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a letter from the Kentucky and Tennessee Farm Bureau Federations opposing the PAST Act.

KENTUCKY FARM BUREAU, Tennessee Farm Bureau.

HON. MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS: Please accept this letter as a statement of opposition to H.R. 693, the Prevent All Soring Tactics (PAST) Act by the Kentucky Farm Bureau and Tennessee Farm Bureau.

The PAST Act is misleading in its strategies and purpose and sets a dangerous precedent for animal agriculture. Please take the time to review it closely and understand this issue and the agenda of the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS). While the PAST Act expressly targets Walking Horses, this push by the HSUS brings to question the entire segment of animal-based agriculture will be targeted next.

Supporters of the PAST Act argue the bill will “eliminate soring” within the Walking Horse Industry. However, soring is essentially nonexistent today. The bill professes to end soring by banning hoof pads and action devices which are used in Walking Horse performance shows, and implies such items cause soring. Hoof pads and action devices do not cause soring. Hoof pads are used to provide protection from ground force, to accentuate movement, and to balance motion. These pads are used in many breeds other than the Walking Horse including the American Paint Horse, American Quarter Horse, American Saddlebred, and Morgan breeds. An action device is a band/chain weighing six (6) ounces or less. We are not aware of a study that indicates action devices or pads produce pain or cause tissue damage.

The Tennessee Walking Horse is the most inspected horse in the world. The industry and its shows maintain a rate with the Horse Protection Act that averages 92-95%. This rate is significant considering the inspection process today is almost 100% subjective. The PAST Act eliminates the organizations established by Congress in the original...
Mr. JOHN W. ROSE of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, as an eighth-generation farmer and Tennessean, the grand tradition of Tennessee Walking Horses is among my earliest and fondest memories. We take great pride in the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration, drawing neighbors and tourists alike to Shelbyville, Tennessee, every year for our world-class showcase.

However, this grand tradition is not unmarrred by a few bad actors looking to gain at the expense of innocent exhibitors. Soring has been investigated and debated, and both Congress and industry leaders have put forth their best efforts to end this horrific practice.

Tennessee Walking Horses are regal and strong, but the ones that suffer from soring are harmed in ways that are cruel and unjust. The bad actors who are soring compromise fair competition and the integrity of this great tradition, but most importantly, they endanger our prized Tennessee Walking Horses.

I can assure you we in Tennessee stand against this vile practice. My strong opposition to soring is why I rise today in opposition to the PAST Act. It is my belief that this bill is not the best solution to this cruel practice.

While I appreciate the sincere motives of those who support this bill, I call on my colleagues to consider another, better solution. I am a cosponsor of H.R. 1157, the Horse Protection Act, a bipartisan bill introduced by my colleague from Tennessee, Congressman DesJarlais. This bill works to end soring in a way that is fair to those acting properly and humanely and provides timely consequences for those who are not.

Inspections must be objective, but the PAST Act does not correct the current subjective process that is used. My colleagues' bill, H.R. 1157, creates a framework for consistent, scientific, and objective inspections. H.R. 693 does not solve the real issue here: soring. Industrywide, the current compliance rate is between 92 and 95 percent. In fact, Tennessee's celebration had a compliance rate of 96 percent last year. These compliance rates are based on the USDA standards.

As the Farm Bureau has pointed out, the Tennessee Walking Horse is the most inspected horse in the world. Overall, the industry has a USDA compliance rate higher than even the food industry. With that, the rate of catching bad actors at this point is, of course, extremely low.

These laws remain because we must be vigilant if we are going to find and stop bad actors. Vigilance will require a new system. The PAST Act does not create a scientific, objective process for inspections, and until we have that, the remaining bad actors will continue to go under the radar, while those acting with integrity could be treated unfairly.

It is because of these concerns that I will oppose the PAST Act today. I call on my colleagues to oppose the PAST Act and, instead, stand with me in truly stopping soring by supporting H.R. 1157.

Mr. SCHRADE, Mr. Speaker. I would just point out for those who are listening that the bill referenced by the gentleman from Tennessee is another self-policing bill where you have, frankly, the industry and the horse people from those States selecting and designating these people for inspection. And contrary to some of the remarks, the PAST Act has science behind it, licensed, trained professionals—again, probably veterinarians, for the most part—who are the ones who are going to be looking at this.

I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Florida (Mr. Yoho), my good friend and colleague.

Mr. Yoho. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the gentleman yielding the floor.

The information you just heard there is a lot of fallacy in that. He makes it sound like the Farm Bureau is behind this. The Farm Bureau is not behind it, other than in Tennessee and in Kentucky.

I have got a list here of the infractions, and 90 percent of them are from Tennessee; a couple from Kentucky, a couple from North Carolina, but the majority are from Tennessee.

This bill, we sat down specifically with the USDA,APHIS, the regulating body of the USDA on animal cruelty, and we made sure, being a practicing veterinarian, that the owner was protected, the animal was protected from an overzealous USDA inspector. They have to be certified and trained, and they have to be licensed. And we added the objective testing.

We use thermography. We use radiology. We use objective testing of the skin. In fact, we use the same technology that our Department of Homeland Security uses to pick up traces of explosives and things like that. That is how in-depth we went. But we also made sure the safety of the owner and the trainer.

This bill should not have to—he talked about this is something in the past. Well, if it was in the past, we wouldn’t do it.

And he brought up the expense of this bill. So we are saying it is okay, if it is too expensive, we can’t do this. We can sore the horses because it is too expensive. That is a bogus argument, and I think it is a shame.

And again, the bottom line comes, you are either for animal cruelty or you are against it. It is real simple.

And, again, let me show you this. Look at the nails in this. This is a keg shoe. A horse doesn’t need that. This is to win a blue ribbon.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. Budd).

Mr. BUDD. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

As a family owner and a fan of the Tennessee Walker breed, I rise today in strong support of this very important animal protection bill, the PAST Act, of which I am a cosponsor. If you want to thank a good friend, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. Yoho) for his tireless leadership on this bill, as well as the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. Schrader). I thank them.

So the PAST Act bans the practice of soring, which is the process of inflicting pain on horses' hooves and their legs in order to give them a higher gait. Breeders sometimes use soring to give their horses an advantage in competition, as we have talked about tonight. Pain inflicted upon the animals is inhumane, and it should be stopped.

For years, we have known about this harmful practice, yet there has been very little action to remedy or fix the problem.

A recent story I read described the process of exposing sensitive tissues within the hooves of the horse by filing away the hoof. Sharp objects, such as screws, are then pierced into the sensitive tissue inflicting pain to the animal. The damaged tissue that appears after this process is burned away sometimes with acids that burn the horse’s skin.

Sadly, this barbaric practice continues, and sometimes even out in the open.

So once enacted into law, the PAST Act will ensure that we have a more efficient system in place to protect our equine companions from unnecessary, inhumane, and cruel suffering.

So once again, I want to thank my friend, the veterinarian from Florida, for his work and also just to let you know that my Tennessee Walkers, our family’s Tennessee Walkers, Just Power and Dancers Boss Lady, thank you, as well.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting H.R. 693, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SCHRADER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

I appreciate the discussion here tonight. I wish we didn’t have to have this discussion. Unfortunately, soring is still with us, and it is crystal clear we need the PAST Act, a commonsense bill to give USDA and the industry itself the ability to clean out these bad actors who are, frankly, a stain on the Tennessee Walking industry that we all love and respect. Those horses are majestic. Anyone that has been around an equine athlete just can’t be but in awe of what they are able to do.

Soring is completely unnecessary. Good trainers, good veterinary help, these horses are going to perform in a way that make Americans proud.

I thank my colleagues for the work on the bill and urge all my colleagues to support the PAST Act.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. SCHRADER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 693, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. SCHRADER. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

MARKING FIRST 200 DAYS AS MEMBER OF CONGRESS

(Mr. CISNEROS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CISNEROS. Mr. Speaker, this week marks 200 days into my first term as a Member of Congress. It has been an incredible honor to serve the residents of the 39th Congressional District in California.

I am very proud of what we have accomplished so far in Congress, from the passage of three of my pieces of bipartisan legislation this week, which will expand access to benefits for veterans, servicemembers, and their families; to the 32 amendments my colleagues and I have offered that were agreed to on a bipartisan basis; and the three bipartisan bills that I had the honor of supporting that have been signed into law by the President.

I am most proud of our constituent services in the district. In just 200 days in office, we have retrieved over $190,000 from Federal agencies for our constituents and worked on over 250 cases.

I work for the people of my district. It is why I have attended hundreds of local events and met with thousands of my constituents.

I look forward to the next 100 days and beyond, working for the people; bringing change to Washington, DC; and ensuring I give my constituents the representation they deserve.

IT IS GAME OVER FOLLOWING SPECIAL COUNSEL TESTIMONY

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, today, the Democrats got their wish. Special Counsel Robert Mueller testified before not one but two House committees.

I wonder if they would reconsider that in hindsight. I don’t think it went as they had planned.

Today’s hearings only hammered home the simple fact we already knew. The special counsel did not find evidence to charge the President with a crime. Game over.

Sadly, this was nothing more than political theater and a colossal waste of time. Democrats wanted reinforcement for their partisan witch hunt against the President. Didn’t happen.

If anything, today’s testimony is only going to raise more questions as to why this entire investigation was ever opened in the first place and why the exculpatory evidence wasn’t included in the report.

After wasting 22 months, 25 million taxpayer dollars, and countless other resources, Americans deserve to know the truth about how this whole episode was fabricated and who is responsible.

The Steele dossier, abuse of our intelligence agencies, DNC direct involvement? If Democrats would put as much effort in improving our country as they do into baseless attempts to impeach the President, we might just be able to get something done around here.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to move on from this disaster and get back to work for the American people.

PETITIONS, ETC.

Under clause 3 of rule XII, the SPEAKER presented a petition of Commission of the City of Manni, FL, relative to Resolution H-19-023, urging President Donald J. Trump to prohibit any further cultural exchanges between Cuba and the United States until freedom of expression is restored for all Cubans; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.
