INTRODUCTION OF THE NATIONAL COMMISSION TO COMBAT WORK-PLACE SEXUAL HARASSMENT
ACT

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 11, 2019

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, today, I introduce the National Commission to Combat Workplace Sexual Harassment Act to establish a national commission to examine and combat sexual harassment in the U.S. workplace.

I have modeled this bill on legislation Congress has passed to address other national problems considered to be serious, such as gambling. The almost daily exposure of allegations of sexual harassment, many not denied, more than qualifies sexual harassment for national attention and priority. This bill would create a national commission to focus on sexual harassment in major industries and workplaces throughout the United States.

Congress recently adopted a bill that addresses harassment in the congressional workplace. It requires Members of the House and Senate to be personally liable for settlements and awards resulting from harassment and retaliation claims, removes the mandatory counseling, mediation and "cooling off" periods for accusers that is currently required, mandates publicly reporting awards and settlements and covers unpaid staff as well. This is a step in the right direction beginning where Congress should—right here in the Congress itself. However, nothing equivalent has been done for sexual harassment that affects the American people. We have largely neglected our own constituents, despite the increasing number of troubling reports in the news of sexual harassment claims.

A national commission would assure the American people that Congress takes sexual harassment affecting them—the typical worker—seriously, beyond the high-profile examples, such as allegations against Harvey Weinstein, Jeffrey Epstein and the Congress itself, that have garnered the headlines. Most importantly, the commission would hear from a cross section of the public—from office and factory workers to retail and food service employees—whose experiences with sexual harassment have received almost no national attention. The commission could travel or invite witnesses to Washington from throughout the country to recommend changes in laws or regulations and best practices on preventing, training, investigating, responding to and penalizing sexual harassment in the private and public sectors.

Our constituents expect Congress, which represents every sector, to take on the problem of sexual harassment throughout our national economy, including private and public (federal, state and local) workplaces. A national commission could help reach and reduce sexual harassment, a form of gender discrimination, where the average American works.

I strongly urge my colleagues to support this bill.

Our state is home to some of the most beautiful natural wonders in the country—attracting visitors from around the world and providing Michiganders with a quality of life that is second to none. Perhaps first among these picturesque landscapes is the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore. Located in the northwest corner of the Lower Peninsula, the Sleeping Bear Dunes covers a 35-mile stretch of Lake Michigan's coastline. Its bluffs, forests, beaches, inland lakes, and unique wildlife have been enjoyed by locals and visitors for centuries. The land was established as a National Lakeshore under the National Parks Service in October of 1970—and over the next 49 years, millions would come to enjoy everything it has to offer. On August 19, 2019, the National Lakeshore welcomed its 50 millionth visitor. This incredible milestone, coming at the cusp of its 50th anniversary, clearly shows how dearly the Sleeping Bear Dunes are held in the hearts of Michiganders and all Americans.

REJOICING THE BIRTH OF AFTON MARGARET JONES

HON. JOE CUNNINGHAM

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 11, 2019

Mr. CUNNINGHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise today to rejoice the birth of Afton Margaret, daughter to Lauren and Tyler Jones. Born on Wednesday, October 9th at seven pounds and 15 ounces, she is the greatest God given gift anyone would be lucky to receive. There is no stronger love than that of a parent for their child, and I couldn't think of two more perfect people to raise a kind, brave, and intelligent person in this world than these two.

Tyler and Lauren have been with me from day one. Tyler has been an amazing colleague, confidante, and most importantly, a remarkable friend. We have seen ups, and we surely saw downs, but I have found a loyalty and friendship in Tyler that I know he and Lauren will instill in their very own daughter's values. And Lauren has proved to have the same grace and strength I found in my wife, as her husband and I learned how to win over the Lowcountry we all four deeply love.

If y'all thought my campaign was tough, welcome to parenting. I cannot wait to see the beautiful journey that unfolds. Amanda, Boone, Teddy and I are here for anything that you two, Afton, and Leia will ever need.

We love y'all, good luck and congratulations.
