

because they felt he would have a better chance just because of the color of his skin, that he would get a better education.

ELIJAH was not upset by that. He felt this country gave him the opportunity. That is why he wanted to serve.

So, all those who are here, it was an honor, a fortune, and a privilege to know him. If you are a freshman, I hope you took a few moments with him, because it didn't matter if you were a chair or a ranking member or if you were a Republican or a Democrat, he would spend that time with you.

I feel I am better for having known him, and I want you to know, from this side of the aisle, no matter how hard of a debate we were in, I have only heard respect for how he carried out the business. We respected him because he was good. We respected him because he beat us many times. We respected him because of what he fought for, he believed in.

Our deepest prayers go to Maya, because in those life lessons and in that window that we get to see, it is not the easiest to have a family in these jobs. We have a lot of things pulled on us, but we knew where his heart stood, where his family mattered, and what he continued to believe in.

So, yes, today we lost more than just a Member, but I hope as the days progress, as the times change and our debate gets heated again, that we reflect on this moment of calmness, reflect on this moment of thinking of one another, and we reflect on the idea that, yes, television may give us a different persona of who we are, but, yes, you and I get to see the window of the character within each and every one of us. I think that is what ELIJAH would want us to do.

So in his honor, let's find that tomorrow will be better than today and that this calmness will last longer than the next vote.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his remarks.

Mr. Speaker, in that spirit, I will ask for a moment of silence. But before I do that, let me mirror the remarks of the leader on the other side of the aisle.

A moment of silence will not be enough to respect the life of ELIJAH CUMMINGS. What will be enough is we follow his example for a lifetime—not for a moment, but for a lifetime—if we give one another the respect that he would give to us, if we give one another the consideration that the leader indicated that he gave to him.

So, Mr. Speaker, I ask that we stand for a moment of silence and a lifetime of following an example.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CLYBURN). The Chair asks that all Members please rise for a moment of silence in remembrance of our good friend and colleague, the Honorable Chairman ELIJAH E. CUMMINGS.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. PINGREE). The question is on the passage of the bill.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. STEIL. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 229, nays 186, not voting 16, as follows:
