

to work on everyday issues, such as the rising cost of healthcare, crumbling roads and bridges, and an opportunity to increase trade by passing USMCA.

Madam Speaker, let's get back to work.

CONSPIRACY OF COUP ATTEMPT

(Mr. PALMER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PALMER. Madam Speaker, calling this a constitutional impeachment process is a farce and a gross misrepresentation of what is taking place. The entire process has flown in the face of precedent, procedure, and decency, with no regard whatsoever for the good of the country. It is politics at perhaps the worst we have seen in our Nation's history.

The Democrats started their effort to depose President Trump even before he took office, starting with the Russia collusion hoax.

Witness interviews are being conducted behind closed doors while Members of Congress, who have the responsibility to vote on the testimony of these witnesses, are shut out.

The chairman of the Intelligence Committee is having secret phone calls, talking with alleged whistleblowers, and withholding information from Members of Congress and the public that is vital to this inquiry.

This is shameful. This is really a conspiracy to remove a duly elected President.

The Democrat majority is engaged in an effort to conduct a trial with a predetermined outcome to remove President Trump from office using tactics unbecoming and unfitting the Republic we serve and this House.

This is not a legitimate inquiry; it is a coup attempt. It is time to stop this charade.

LET'S GET ON WITH WORKING FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

(Mr. JOHNSON of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Ohio. Madam Speaker, once again, Members returned to Washington this week. And, once again, important bipartisan work on issues like lowering prescription drug prices, encouraging rural broadband build-out, passing the USMCA trade bill, and improving America's aging infrastructure has stalled because of the very partisan efforts to impeach President Trump.

This week, the Democratic majority will hold more secret meetings in the Capitol basement, release more selective, cherry-picked leaks designed to confuse the American people, and continue their guilty-until-proven-innocent sham to impeach the President.

They have been plotting this since he was walking down Pennsylvania Avenue on January 20, 2017, and probably even before that. But, the Russian collusion hoax failed miserably, and the Robert Mueller testimony gave them nothing. So, now, they are on to plan B.

They say they have the evidence to impeach, but we have already heard that song. Democratic leaders have claimed to have evidence before. Let's see if they can actually produce their evidence this time.

Let's get on with working for the American people.

IMPEACHMENT TRANSPARENCY

(Mr. WILLIAMS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WILLIAMS. Madam Speaker, my colleagues on the other side of the aisle have been trying to impeach President Trump since he took office, and we all know this.

They have made it very clear they deem the President's every action to be impeachable, and, since the beginning of this joke inquiry, they have shown no interest in fair, fact-based proceedings.

Impeachment is a monumental step that must be conducted with full transparency, but what we are witnessing here is a violation of due process that should concern every single American.

Democrats have held meetings in secret where convenient, one-sided information can be leaked to the public, denying American citizens the right to have their elected Members of Congress present.

The dedication to using any and all resources in an attempt to remove a duly elected President is unthinkable and, frankly, a waste of time. The Constitution provides the House with the power of impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors, not for political theater to push an agenda.

Madam Speaker, the Democrats have made a mockery of Congress and our democracy throughout this process. The American people deserve better, and this President deserves better.

As my colleague from Texas, AL GREEN, said: President Trump will win again in 2020.

In God we trust.

HOLD A VOTE TO AUTHORIZE AN IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY

(Mr. WITTMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WITTMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today in opposition to the partisan impeachment inquiry currently under way by House Democrats. They have elected to make this a closed-door, partisan process with no fairness, transparency, due process, or accountability to the American people.

It is absolutely necessary for the Speaker to hold a vote in the full House to formally authorize an impeachment inquiry. Regardless of which party held the majority in the past, there has been an authorization vote because it allows the House to adopt procedures that will provide for the minority to be an equal part of this process.

We cannot even get access to testimony from the secret hearings. Considering impeaching a duly elected President should be significant enough to demand transparency, due process, and an open and fair proceeding.

In wake of this partisan exercise, we have abandoned the work of the people. We should be passing legislation that is bipartisan to lower the price of prescription drugs and approving the USMCA that will create millions of jobs for hardworking Americans.

We cannot afford to put these priorities on the back burner, and I know the folks in my district agree.

CALLING OUT UNPRECEDENTED AND ILLEGITIMATE IMPEACHMENT PROCESS

(Mr. BISHOP of Utah asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BISHOP of Utah. Madam Speaker, this place is based predominantly on precedent and procedure. To bypass this proven pathway is predictably painful. So I pause to put a plea to the powers that be:

Our people deserve better.

The propaganda pushed upon the people is a political ploy as perpetrators usurp the proven precedents of the past.

It is painful to be placed in a position to protest the pranks pushed by PELOSI and her posse of players, but people have been pushed out and put on the sidelines as Democrats plow ahead with this so-called impeachment inquiry.

The impact of this pandering is the peeling away of the people's trust placed upon us. As the past has played out, I have been perplexed by the pontifications of people in positions of power who puff themselves up in pretentious prominence when it is really petty partisanship.

So I plead, as we push and pull for power, that we do so grounded in prudence that protects the proven procedures of the past.

DEMOCRATS' UNPRECEDENTED AND DANGEROUS IMPEACHMENT EXERCISE

(Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana. Madam Speaker, we are here tonight to draw attention to the Democrats' unprecedented and dangerous impeachment exercise. It is unprecedented because this has simply never happened before.

In our nearly two-and-a-half centuries as a nation, there have only been three instances of impeachment proceedings against a President. In all three cases, the impeachment inquiry was first properly authorized by a full vote of this House.

Of course, today's sham was initiated unilaterally via a press conference. We haven't had a vote. They won't give us one.

There is no due process for the accused, but, instead, there is a secret, partisan process somewhere behind closed doors.

There is no respect or recognition for the rights of the duly elected Members of this House, even those of us on the committees of jurisdiction, like my House Judiciary Committee.

It is unprecedented and it is also dangerous. And this is the biggest point: Corrupting and weaponizing impeachment to generate a predetermined political outcome is simply not right or fair, and it jeopardizes this entire institution.

Do you know why? Because, if the American people are not able to trust the final results of the impeachment process on a matter this serious and this important, millions of citizens lose faith in the institution and lose faith in our Republic.

This is a sham, and it needs to stop.

DEMOCRATS ARE FOCUSING ON POLITICAL GAMES

(Mr. LATTA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LATTA. Madam Speaker, I rise today on behalf of the people of the Fifth District who are tired of the Democrats focusing on political games.

This past weekend, at an American Legion dinner, I was handed this note: Pass USMCA.

Folks at home want Congress to act on jobs, the economy, and lower healthcare costs; but what they are hearing from the Democrats in the House: secret proceedings that deny access to House Members who do not serve on the respective committees; no press access; no ability to defend oneself by bringing witnesses, taking depositions, or having one's attorney present; and being accused by an unknown witness who claims secondhand knowledge.

Where is the pride that we have in our sense of justice? Where is due process? Where are the rules? Where are the American values of fair play? Where is the evidence? Where is the House vote?

Read the unclassified transcript. The Democrats created a Star Chamber. This is a bold attempt to overturn the 2016 election. It is time to shine a bright light on what is going on.

KANSANS HAVE IMPEACHMENT FATIGUE

(Mr. MARSHALL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MARSHALL. Madam Speaker, Kansans have impeachment fatigue. We are exhausted. We are weary. We are sick and tired of 3 years of Democrats trying to change the results of the 2016 election.

Kansans want to know why Congress can't pass USMCA, modernize healthcare, or secure our border.

Regardless, if the Democrats want to go down into the bowels of this Capitol, into the soundproof Star Chamber, it is my job to be the eyes and ears of Kansans and to ensure a fair and due process will occur. My efforts to do this thus far have been denied by the Democrats.

This entire process is anything but fair and defies democracy. But what is worse, it is all done in secret.

This Ukrainian hoax has turned into a Soviet-styled silencing of the press, with the Democrats leaking out only portions of the transcript that might help keep them from allowing Donald Trump to be reelected again.

Why isn't the press screaming bloody murder? I will never understand.

Madam Speaker, it is the President's job to investigate corruption. Let's turn this process back to the people, and let the President make his case to America.

FOLLOW IMPEACHMENT PRECEDENT

(Mr. HILL of Arkansas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HILL of Arkansas. Madam Speaker, Article I, Section 2 of the Constitution reads the House of Representatives "shall have the sole power of impeachment."

This Speaker does not have that sole power. The full House of Representatives does.

Modern precedent clearly sets out a process for fair consideration of impeachment. It was followed by Democrats in the case of President Nixon and followed by Republicans in the case of President Clinton.

The Speaker has turned a blind eye and a deaf ear to fairness and precedent. Authoritarianism is now the rule of the people's House. A Star Chamber hidden away in the Capitol basement is the domain of authoritarianism.

Where is the due process? Where is the transparency? Abandoned.

Where is the ability to confront accusers? Where is the separation of prosecution and grand jury? Abandoned. Abandoned by our Speaker.

I call on the majority to put aside partisanship and pointless attacks and get back to work.

END IMPEACHMENT CHARADE

(Mr. ABRAHAM asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ABRAHAM. Madam Speaker, the Democrats would have you believe that their impeachment crusade is a moral imperative. It is not. It is an act of pure cowardice.

Their failure to bring a formal impeachment vote to the House floor shows that this witch hunt has no legitimacy whatsoever, and they know it. They are using it as a punch line.

This informal inquiry is being conducted in secret behind closed doors and betrays the true intention of what they are trying to do to our good President, to conduct an endless, shallow campaign of half-truths and manipulated facts against President Trump.

I have called on my fellow Members of this House to denounce the unconstitutional farce that they are doing and support my resolution to expel the Speaker and vacate the chair.

It is time to end this charade and get back to doing the people's business. We can certainly start by passing the USMCA.

STOP IMPEACHMENT SHAM

(Mr. ROUZER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ROUZER. Madam Speaker, this impeachment sham needs to stop. We all know what this is really about: overturning the results of the 2016 election.

From the outset, Speaker PELOSI and Chairman SCHIFF have conducted this inquiry behind closed doors, out of sight of the American people and us, without a vote to authorize it.

They have ignored due process, completely disregarded precedent, and made it clear that politics and partisanship are more important than fairness and transparency.

They denied our side of the aisle the right to subpoena evidence. They have excluded the President's legal team from participating in hearings, cross-examining witnesses, or presenting evidence. This body, quite simply, has been turned into a kangaroo court fixated on unseating the President at any cost.

Our Constitution, our basic, fundamental principles of fairness, and the millions of Americans who made their voices heard in the 2016 election are being snubbed.

Madam Speaker, it is time to stop this sham.

DEMOCRATS CHOOSE PARTISAN HATRED OF PRESIDENT TRUMP

(Mr. DUNN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DUNN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to demand fairness and transparency from this outrageous impeachment inquiry.

Democrats have been grasping at straws and looking for any excuse to impeach President Trump. We haven't even held a vote to open an impeachment inquiry, but Speaker PELOSI and
