

“Tell your stories,” he implored them. “Tell people what your passion is. Tell them what your results are. Tell your stories. Get out there, and tell them.”

Bill had passion, and Bill got results. His story will live on in the foundation he built, the lives he touched, and all of the good he did.

My deepest condolences go out to everyone who loved him, including his wife Louise Hartwell, his children and grandchildren, and his many friends across Michigan and around the world.

Thank you, Bill. ●
