

Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2019 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Staff Sergeant Jim Skinner of Melissa, Texas.

Staff Sergeant Jim Skinner's history of service began in 1979 when he entered into the United States Air Force, quickly earning the title of Security Police Military Working Dog Handler after completing the rigorous patrol and drug dog handler training. He would spend the next seven years in the role of dog handler, investigator, and SWAT team operator in Southeast Asia, the Middle East and New Mexico. For his dedicated efforts in defense of our nation, Staff Sergeant Jim Skinner would receive the Air Force Commendation Medal, Air Force Achievement Medal, Air Force Good Conduct Medal, and Outstanding Small Unit Award.

While Skinner would leave the military in 1987, his desire to protect the innocent would continue, leading him to pursue a Juris Doctorate from the University of Houston Law Center in 2001. Upon graduation he would work as a civil rights lawyer, representing child victims of sexual abuse. In 2007, he was appointed as an Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor of the Collin County Criminal District Attorney's Office and later served as the Second Assistant District Attorney and Chief of the Special Prosecutions Division.

Jim further developed his passion for serving the public when he was elected as the 39th Sheriff of Collin County in January 2017. His drive to protect the most innocent led to the creation of the Child Exploitation Unit. Additionally, Sheriff Skinner was responsible for bringing together the Sheriffs of seven counties to form the North Texas Sheriff's Office Criminal Interdiction Unit, which targets criminals who are illegally transporting narcotics, weapons, cash or persons involved in human trafficking on our highways.

Sheriff Skinner has found countless ways to serve our community including his role as a board member for the Child Advocacy Center of Collin County, as a Trustee for Collin County Meals on Wheels, as a former board member for the North Texas Crime Commission, and as the Judge Advocate for the Bill Bryant Post 110 of the American Legion. Jim Skinner is a devoted public servant who has spent his entire life giving back to the community and working towards ensuring the values that we hold dear as Americans are maintained and he is to be commended for work to improve our nation.

Today, a grateful Nation thanks Staff Sergeant Skinner for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2019 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.

RECOGNIZING THE BUCKS COUNTY BRANCH OF THE NAACP FOR THEIR 68TH ANNUAL FREEDOM FUND BANQUET

HON. BRIAN K. FITZPATRICK

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. FITZPATRICK. Madam Speaker, I want to take this opportunity to recognize the Bucks County Branch of the NAACP on their 68th Freedom Fund Banquet. It is an honor to recognize an organization that has always been at the forefront in the fight for civil rights. I particularly want to applaud the tremendous impact the NAACP has had locally and across this great nation in fighting to make our communities better. The theme for this year's banquet, "When We Fight, We Win!" invokes this constant fight for progress and inspires each of us to work harder for justice.

Our congressional district, the place we call home, is another place where progress can continue. It begins with each of us in the community. The NAACP is an integral part of that. While our nation has made tremendous strides with respect to civil rights, there is still much to be done. We can do better, we must do better. The NAACP in Bucks County is working each and every day to bring people together to stand up for justice. When hateful language was found at the Carl Sandburg Middle School, the NAACP was instrumental in uniting our community against the hateful rhetoric by helping to organize a candlelight vigil. The work of our local NAACP is indispensable for our community and our country, and we must continue to support its efforts.

Our community, our nation, is stronger when we stand together. Change begins with each one of us here at home. Whether we are elected officials, moms or dads or neighbors or community leaders or students or anyone—we must remember that there is more that unites us than divides us. As a Bucks County resident, I want to thank our local NAACP for all that they do to make Bucks County a better place. I look forward to continuing working together with the NAACP to make our district safer and prosperous for all.

HONORING PERSHING EDWIN (P.E.) MACALLISTER

HON. SUSAN W. BROOKS

OF INDIANA

Mrs. BROOKS of Indiana. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor of the life of a beloved and iconic member of the Hoosier state, Pershing Edwin (P.E.) MacAllister. A pillar of the Indianapolis community, P.E. passed away at the age of 101 on October 23, 2019. P.E. was an industrious, enthusiastic and generous individual whose life's work touched and benefited so many Hoosiers. A longtime leader in Indiana politics, P.E. was a guiding force in not only my career but also the political careers of legendary Republican Hoosier lawmakers, the late Senator Richard Lugar and the late Indianapolis Mayor William Hudnut, among others. In 1945, P.E. co-founded the MacAllister Machinery Company with his father. His 74 years at the helm of the company are a telling reminder of his unequaled business acumen and leadership capabilities. Throughout his life he helped lead and develop both the public and private sector successes of Indianapolis and the state of Indiana. The people of Indiana's Fifth Congressional District are forever grateful for P.E.'s contributions to our Hoosier community, and it is my privilege to honor him today.

P.E. was born August 30, 1918, in Oconto, Wisconsin to Edwin W. (E.W.) and Hilda MacAllister. As a recent veteran of World War I, Edwin named his son Pershing after General John Joseph "Black Jack" Pershing. Growing up during the Great Depression, P.E. was taught the frugality and self-sufficient nature required to survive and flourish in the America of the time. With a strong Scottish Presbyterian upbringing and close familial bond, P.E. advanced in his academic career, graduating high school and then enrolling at Carroll College. After graduation from Carroll College in 1940, P.E. joined the United States Army Air Force. On October 25, 1941, he was shipped off to basic training, and his service to his country began. As an armament officer, P.E. was stationed initially in the United States, but also served in England, North Africa, and finally in Italy where he earned the rank of Captain. After 5 years in the Army Air Force, P.E. finished his service having earned four Overseas Service Bars and a Presidential Unit Citation.

Upon returning from service overseas, P.E. and his father E.W. co-founded the MacAllister Machinery Company in June of 1945. After his father's medical complications in 1951, P.E.
