

and his brother Dave took the helm of the company. Over the next 74 years, P.E. led the company as it grew to cover two states with over 2,500 employees. Starting in 1986, he began to co-publish and write the lead articles for 170 issues of the company's newsletter, "Mac Today". Outside of the office, P.E. maintained strong ties with his faith as a devoted member of Northminster Presbyterian Church. As a leader in the church's governing body, P.E. served two terms as its moderator. In 1972, he was the moderator of the Synod of Indiana, and in 1975 he was named the moderator of the Synod of Lincoln Trials. P.E. also served on the board of trustees at the Christian Theological Seminary, where along with friend Dick Petticrew, he created "The MacAllister-Petticrew Chair" of the Old Testament Studies. At his alma mater of Carroll College, P.E. endowed a "Chair in Old Testament Studies".

Later in his career, P.E. began his entrance into the Indiana political arena. Along with close friends Harold Ransburg, John Burkhart and Keith Bulen, P.E. helped to bring about a political revolution within Indiana. He helped to foster the early careers of many Republican candidates such as former Mayor William Hudnut, former Governor Mitch Daniels, former Senator Richard Lugar, and former Governor and Vice-President MICHAEL PENCE. P.E. was also an integral part of the creation of the Indianapolis Parks Foundation and served as the chairman of the Foundation for many years, helping to transform many of the city's various parks and public lands. His time as a member and then chairman of the Capital Improvements Board helped to see the city commit to the building of the RCA Dome and Convention Center which were important steps to eventually enticing the Colts of the National Football League to relocate to Indianapolis. These partnerships helped change Indianapolis from a sleepy stop on the highways of middle America to a premiere emerging city in the heartland of America.

P.E. leaves behind a larger than life legacy that is fitting for the impact he had on the city of Indianapolis and the state of Indiana. During his life, he was one of the most impactful local leaders in the city's public and private sectors, leaving a legacy unmatched by his peers. He dedicated his life to the service of his clients, employees, and fellow Hoosiers, fundamentally changing the lives of those he served for the better. His unparalleled love for Indiana and the city of Indianapolis led to massive changes that impacted not only the lives of Hoosiers, but also the skyline of Indianapolis. P.E. will be remembered for his amazing compassion, charismatic and warm personality, as well civic involvement. Awarded the Sagamore of the Wabash, Indiana's highest public honor, by three separate Governors is a testament the influence P.E. had on our state. I feel fortunate to have known him, and I know that his legacy lives on through the great contributions he made to Indianapolis, to Indiana, and to the country. On behalf of Indiana's Fifth District, I offer my condolences to the entire MacAllister family and all who mourn his loss and cherish his memory.

RECOGNIZING HOSPITAL CORPSMAN KENNETH YELLE, RECIPIENT OF TEXAS' THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT 2019 CONGRESSIONAL VETERAN COMMENDATION

HON. VAN TAYLOR

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. TAYLOR. Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor twelve distinguished military veterans from Texas' Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2019 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Hospital Corpsman Kenneth Yelle of McKinney, Texas.

Kenneth Louis Yelle began his service to our nation in 1945 during World War II as an integral member of the United States Navy in Washington, D.C. During the Korean War, he served with the 1st Marine Division as a Hospital Corpsman. For his efforts he would be awarded with the WWII Victory Medal, American Area Campaign Medal, Korean Service Medal, United Nations Medal, and the Presidential Unit Citation.

In the years following his military service, Mr. Yelle has found multiple ways to serve his community including his active membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Lone Star Post No. 2150 in McKinney. At the age of 92 years old, he still provides transportation to the Veterans Administration health facilities in Bonham and Dallas for friends and neighbors. At the community where he has resided for many years, he has been an exercise leader and a model of physical fitness for his fellow residents. Mr. Yelle is continuously called upon to assist others with various projects and transportation to appointments. It is because of his continuous fellowship and encouragement to those in need that he was nominated for the Congressional Veteran Commendation. Mr. Yelle is a compassionate and generous patriot who has served our nation both in and out of uniform and who consistently lends a hand to those in need.

Today, a grateful Nation thanks Hospital Corpsman Yelle for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. By his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2019 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.

HONORING THE 36TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE 241 MARINES LOST IN BEIRUT, LEBANON

SPEECH OF

HON. GREGORY F. MURPHY

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 23, 2019

Mr. MURPHY of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to the 241 American service members who died in Beirut, Lebanon 36 years ago.

The vast majority of the Marines and sailors who tragically lost their lives in the attack were from the 1st Battalion 8th Marines stationed at Camp Lejeune, which I have the honor of representing in the Third District of North Carolina.

In addition, we keep the families who lost their loved ones in our thoughts and prayers. Their immense sacrifices should never be overlooked.

In remembering this anniversary today, we reaffirm our commitment to not only never forget these heroes, but also to ensure that they did not die in vain.

The United States of America will never cower to evil and abandon our values. We will always stand against enemies of liberty and justice.

Thank you to the members of our armed services, especially to the men and women who serve at Camp Lejeune and Marine Corps Air Stations Cherry Point and New River, who help guarantee we do just that.

RECOGNIZING AMERICAN LEGION POST 946

HON. JOHN JOYCE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, it is with great pride that I recognize American Legion Post 946, located in Ursina Borough in Somerset County, Pennsylvania.

Founded in 1919, the American Legion is one of nation's oldest veterans service organization. For a century, the American Legion has served American communities with services ranging from offering youth mentoring and educational programs to promoting patriotism and our national security.

Most importantly, the American Legion serves as a resource for veterans, oftentimes helping veterans and service members in need of support and assistance.

It is a privilege to represent American Legion Post 946 in the House of Representatives, and I thank its members for their work to serve the Ursina Borough community and Americans around the country.

CONDEMNING VLADIMIR PUTIN'S HUMAN RIGHT ABUSES

HON. GEORGE HOLDING

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. HOLDING. Madam Speaker, I rise today to draw attention to the plight of political prisoners in the Russian Federation, and to commemorate an important anniversary.

Sixteen years ago last week, on October 25, 2003, Mikhail Khodorkovsky was arrested at gunpoint by special forces of the Kremlin. At the time, Mr. Khodorkovsky was head of a successful Russian company, Yukos, which had adopted Western standards of governance. His crime was to have called publicly on the Russian President, Vladimir Putin, to address the problem of state corruption—and to have suggested that such corruption had reached the very highest levels of government. Mr. Khodorkovsky would spend a decade in a Siberian labor camp.

Today, Russia is holding more than 230 political prisoners behind bars. Various reports leave no doubt as to the gravity and urgency of the problem and make clear that the situation is only becoming worse. The Kremlin is engaging in a crackdown on political opponents in order to suppress critical voices they see as a threat.

Russia's longest held political prisoner is Alexey Pichugin. He is still in jail after more than 16 years because he refuses to sign false testimony against his former colleague, Mikhail Khodorkovsky. It would be difficult to imagine a more egregious violation of the rule of law and human decency.

I urge Congress to use the numerous political and economic tools at its disposal—starting with the Sergei Magnitsky Rule of Law Accountability Act, which the House of Representatives adopted in 2012—to bring greater pressure on the lawless regime of Vladimir Putin. We owe it to the courageous Russian men and women fighting for their God-given human rights and freedoms.

RECOGNIZING THE 125TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE EBELL SOCIETY OF SANTA ANA VALLEY

HON. J. LUIS CORREA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. CORREA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the Ebell Society of Santa Ana Valley, which was commemorated on October 19, 2019, at the organization's historic club house.

The Ebell Society of Santa Ana was founded in 1894 to provide social, cultural, and educational opportunities for members.

With its motto "That is Only True Living which is Ever Learning," the Ebell Society includes 10 educational and cultural sections, including antiques, bridge, genealogy, quilting, home and garden, literature and the arts.

The Society's founding president, Mrs. Franklina Bartlett, was an outstanding citizen and a prolific writer whose short stories appeared in publications alongside well-known authors such as Willa Cather, Jack London, and Mark Twain.

In the early 1900s, featured Ebell Club speakers included Helen Keller, Will Rogers, Jack London's daughter Joan London, and Chief Standing Bear of the Sioux Indian Tribe, who was recently honored with a statue here in the Capitol. These renowned individuals helped raise money to build the Ebell Clubhouse, which was designed in 1924 by Fredrick Eley, one of Orange County's best-known architects.

The 95-year-old Mediterranean-style building, which is included on the National Register of Historic Places, underwent restoration in 2018. Thanks to the caretaking of the Society's members, the Ebell Clubhouse continues to be a hub for community gatherings.

Throughout the years, Ebell has made philanthropy and community service an important part of its mission. Ebell members ran a nursery for working women's children for almost 35 years, made bandages and sold Liberty Bonds during World War I, and held blood drives during World War II.

Today's members provide philanthropic support to WISEPlace Women's Shelter in Santa Ana and the Friendly Center of Orange County.

In addition, the Ebell Society Color Guard proudly participates in patriotic observances in the community throughout the year.

The club's current president is Dr. Betts Rivét, an author who retired from the Santa Ana school system and then taught English at a women's college in China for 19 years.

Madam Speaker, it is my honor to recognize the 125th anniversary of the Ebell Society of Santa Ana Valley. Congratulations to this group of outstanding Orange County citizens who continue building our community through the pursuit of education and philanthropy.

RECOGNIZING ZIGGY AND STELLA ZIEGLER OF BILLINGS

HON. GREG GIANFORTE

OF MONTANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. GIANFORTE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Ziggy and Stella Ziegler of Billings for their decades of selflessly helping people find a second chance in life.

For more than 40 years, Ziggy and Stella owned and operated Stella's Kitchen and Bakery in Billings. Their establishment created a downtown buzz where every weekend you can find a line out the door of people waiting to eat a delicious breakfast. Their restaurant won a 2018 Billings Gazette Readers' Choice for Best Breakfast and Best Bakery.

Recently retired, Ziggy and Stella were honored with this year's Billings Chamber Legacy Award for their dedication to the city. While their business success is well documented, it's the Zieglers' work in their community that sets them apart.

In 1973, when Ziggy was young, his father was murdered. Instead of reacting in anger, Ziggy used that tragedy to fuel his passion for serving others. He dedicated his life to helping prisoners find fruitful, meaningful lives during and after incarceration.

For the last 40 years, Ziggy has traveled to prisons and halfway houses throughout Montana. In those cell blocks and rehabilitation rooms, Ziggy offers spiritual guidance, be it a passage of scripture or a prayer. He also helps those incarcerated or formerly incarcerated develop their self-esteem, encouraging them realize their worth. Ziggy has helped hundreds of men and women find a plan for life after incarceration.

That's where Stella stepped in to complete the ministry. Stella oversaw the day-to-day operations of the Ziegler's bakery, including hiring workers. Collaborating with the prison ministry, Stella filled many of open jobs with former inmates. The employment provided those reentering society with structure and a community.

Stella's reach goes beyond her bakery. She was instrumental in building the new St. Francis Catholic Elementary School and remodeling St. Patrick's Co-Cathedral in Billings. Even after retiring, Stella continues to help her community as she serves on boards and leadership committees.

Madam Speaker, for their business successes and ministerial impact to help build a better path for those reentering society, I recognize Ziggy and Stella Ziegler of Billings for their Spirit of Montana.

RECOGNIZING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CANTERBURY SHAKER VILLAGE AND HONORING THE GENEROSITY OF THE MAXINE AND RICHARD MORSE ENDOWMENT FUND

HON. CHRIS PAPPAS

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. PAPPAS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 50th Anniversary of the Canterbury Shaker Village and honor the generosity of the Maxine and Richard Morse Endowment Fund for their commitment to both the Shaker Village and for the arts across New Hampshire.

The Maxine and Richard Morse Endowment Fund has supported many philanthropic causes across New Hampshire for more than 60 years. Among their most notable efforts was to help support the establishment of the Canterbury Shaker Village. In 1969, the Morses worked with a group of Shaker sisters to provide funds and devise a plan to allow the sisters to remain in their home while also preserving the Shaker history, legacy, and lifestyle for generations to come. From then on, Canterbury Shaker Village Inc. was formed to hold the property, thus enabling the continued celebration and teaching of Shaker legacy, philosophy, and teachings for years to come.

To this day, my dear friend, Maxine has spearheaded efforts to protect and preserve the Village as both a Corporator and Trustee. Today, the Canterbury Shaker Village, in addition to be listed as a National Historic Landmark for its architecture, serves as a critical site for teaching people of all generations about the lives and legacy of the Canterbury Shakers.

On behalf of our constituents across New Hampshire's First Congressional District, I congratulate the Canterbury Shaker Village at the Currier Museum on its 50th anniversary. I thank everyone, especially Maxine and the late Dick Morse, who have been instrumental in its formation and continued flourishing.

RECOGNIZING THE ONE-YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE SUPPORT ACT

HON. ADAM KINZINGER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. KINZINGER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the one-year anniversary of
