

and save families at least $238 per year. This will help families to afford other necessities such as groceries and doctor bills.

Other benefits of these services include the elimination of carbon emissions, stimulation of local economies, job creation, improvements to the overall health of the community, and neighborhood stabilization.

By sharing these statistics and benefits through an October 30th Orange County Weatherization Day Celebration, CAP OC is working to inform more constituents of its important services.

Please join me in honoring the critical work being done by the CAP OC Energy & Environmental Services Program to help those in need, to improve our communities, and to protect the planet.

HONORING THE LIFE OF MARIO DE FRANCESCO, JR.

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. COSTA. Madam Speaker, I rise today along with my colleague Mr. Cox to honor and pay tribute to the life of Mr. Mario De Francesco, Jr., who passed away on October 14, 2019. Mario was a successful Fresno County Farmer and beloved member of his community. His presence will be greatly missed.

Mario was born on March 25, 1938 to Mario and Pauline De Francesco in Gilroy, California. In 1960, Mario married his loving wife Carolyn Filice on December 4, 1960. Together they raised five children, daughter Michelle, sons Frank, Mario III, Michael, and Christopher.

In 1972, the family relocated to Firebaugh, California in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley agriculture to expand their farming business. With his father and brother, Mario started a food processing business which quickly flourished and became one of the premiere companies in the dehydrated onions and garlic industry. The De Francesco's products were sold in the United States and worldwide.

Mario found his greatest joy in his family and friends. He enjoyed life's simple pleasures, such as cooking and entertaining loved ones in his home.

Mario is survived by his wife, Carolyn, daughter Michelle and her husband Chris Cardella, sons Frank and his wife Sandi, Mario III and his wife Vicki, Michael, and Christopher and his wife Linda. He also leaves behind many grandchildren, their spouses and great-grandchildren.

Madam Speaker, we ask our colleagues to join us in honoring the life of Mr. Mario De Francesco, Jr. His commitment and dedication to farming in California's heartland deserve recognition. We join his family, friends, and members of the community in honoring his great life.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF JAMESTOWN AREA MEALS ON WHEELS

HON. TOM REED

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. REED. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize the fiftieth anniversary of Jamestown Area Meals on Wheels.

The Jamestown Area Meals on Wheels was formed on July 21, 1969 by Rolland Taft, Vaughn Rudy, Harry Bloom and other members of the community. In the past fifty years, the program has served almost five million meals—serving the community each and every day one meal at a time.

Volunteers at Meals on Wheels bring healthy, much needed meals to those who cannot access them otherwise. They give of their time, their energy and their passion to do good in the world. This organization is made up of people who care about those in need—that is what makes them truly successful.

Today, the program delivers meals five days a week and the meals they provide cover seven days' worth of food for their clients. This service has grown from just a few clients in 1969 to many across the Jamestown area in fifty years. I can't wait to see how much of an impact they have in another fifty years.

Given the above, I ask that this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations and join me to recognize Jamestown Area Meals on Wheels on their fiftieth anniversary.

COMMEMORATING ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

HON. STEVE STIVERS

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. STIVERS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate one-hundred and fifty years of college football. In 1869, Rutgers College, now Rutgers University, won the first college game against the College of New Jersey, now Princeton University, with a score of 6 to 4. Since then, this time-honored game has been woven into the fabric of our nation and the lives of countless Americans. I will always remember Saturdays spent at "the Shoe" as a student at The Ohio State University, gleefully cheering on the Buckeyes, and the camaraderie I felt with tens of thousands of fans there.

As our differences are used to divide us, college football allows us to celebrate what unites our nation. We value grit and determination; we believe in teamwork, and in having the will to succeed; we embrace our individual roles to advance an idea or organization that is bigger than us. College football allows us to put aside our differences and rally around a common, unifying cause: victory for our team.

Knowing that nearly five million Americans attended college football games during the 2018 season highlights just how ingrained this game is in today's culture. It makes our communities grow closer and gives each of us a sense of pride that was honed during raucous chants of "O-H-I-O," "Roll Tide," or "Hook 'em, horns."

Beyond the undeniable excitement and sense of community our teams foster every Saturday, it is undisputable that the stories and memories made live on well after the lights have been shut off. Commemorating the memories, from the first game a child attended, bonding with their parents, keeping family tradition alive, to the tailgate where total strangers became lifelong friends—it's easy to see the importance this game has played in our history for over one hundred and fifty years. I am confident that, for the next one-hundred and fifty years, Americans will continue to eagerly await college football season and the excitement, pride, and unity it brings. Madam Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to join me in recognizing this milestone for college football.

HONORING THE LEGACY OF JAMES DOUGLAS COLQUITT

HON. J. LUIS CORREA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 28, 2019

Mr. CORREA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the legacy of James Douglas Colquitt, a veteran, a businessman, a dedicated husband, father, grandfather, and a champion of the marginalized and underserved.

Born July 21, 1930, to Willie Colquitt and Mary Naomi Brown, James grew up with his brother, Thomas Meeks, in Valley Mills, Texas.

After graduating from high school, he joined the United States Army. His military service allowed him to travel throughout the United States and abroad.

A veteran of the Korean and Vietnam Wars, James served his country for 20 years with honor and distinction, earning personal decorations and many unit certifications and awards. In 1967, he retired at Fort MacArthur Army Base in San Pedro, California.

He began a second career in aerospace with Hughes Aircraft Division in Fullerton, California. He realized a long-held desire to become a business owner when he opened an automobile tire center in Fullerton. He also owned liquor stores in Santa Ana and Los Angeles, which he operated for more than 20 years.
