SEC. 120. (a) Subject to subsection (d) and notwithstanding any other provision of law, for fiscal year 2020, the obligations for Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs shall not exceed the net highway receipts most recently estimated by the Secretary of the Treasury for that fiscal year under section 6101 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(b) For fiscal year 2020, the Secretary of Transportation shall:

(1) not distribute from the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highways—

(A) amounts authorized for administrative expenses and programs by section 104(a) of title 23, United States Code; and

(B) amounts authorized for the Bureau of Transportation Statistics;

(2) distribute an amount from the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highways that is equal to the unobligated balance of amounts—

(A) made available from the Highway Trust Fund (other than the Mass Transit Account) for Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs for previous fiscal years the funds for which are allocated by the Secretary (or apportioned by the Secretary under sections 202 or 204 of title 23, United States Code); and

(B) which are apportioned under title 23, United States Code, to all States for such fiscal year.

(3) determine the proportion that—

(A) the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highway construction programs that are apportioned under subsection (b)(1) in the same proportion to the aggregate of amounts not distributed under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection; bears to

(B) the total of the sums authorized to be appropriated for the Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs, less the aggregate of the amounts not distributed under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection;

(4) distribute the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highways, less the aggregate amounts not distributed under paragraphs (1) and (2), for each of the programs (other than programs to which paragraph (1) applies) that are allocated by the Secretary under the Fixing America’s Surface Transportation Act and title 23, United States Code, or apportioned by the Secretary under sections 202 or 204 of that title, by multiplying—

(A) the proportion determined under paragraph (3); by

(B) the amounts authorized to be appropriated for each such program for such fiscal year;

(5) distribute the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highways, less the aggregate amounts not distributed under paragraphs (1) and (2) and the amounts distributed under paragraph (4), for Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs that are apportioned by the Secretary under title 23, United States Code (other than the amounts apportioned under sections 202 and 204 of title 23, United States Code) in the proportion that—

(A) amounts authorized to be appropriated for the programs that are apportioned under title 23, United States Code, to each State for such fiscal year; bears to

(B) the total of the amounts authorized to be appropriated for the programs that are apportioned under title 23, United States Code, for such fiscal year.

(c) Redistribution of Unused Obligation Authority.—Notwithstanding subsection (b), the Secretary shall, after August 1 of such fiscal year—

(1) revise a distribution of the obligation limitation made available under subsection (b) if an amount distributed cannot be obligated for such fiscal year; and

(2) redistribute sufficient amounts to those States able to obligate amounts in addition to those previously distributed during that fiscal year, giving priority to those States having large unobligated balances of funds apportioned under sections 141 and 101 of title 23, United States Code.

(d) Applicability of Obligation Limitations to Transportation Research Programs.—

(1) In General.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs shall not exceed the total of the amounts authorized to contract for transportation research programs carried out under—

(A) chapter 5 of title 23, United States Code; and

(B) title VI of the Fixing America’s Surface Transportation Act.

(2) Exception.—Obligation authority made available under paragraph (1) shall—

(A) remain available for a period of 4 fiscal years; and

(B) be in addition to the amount of any limitation imposed on obligations for Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs for future fiscal years.

(e) Redistribution of Certain Authorized Funds.—

(1) In General.—Not later than 30 days after the date of distribution of obligation limitation under subsection (b), the Secretary shall distribute amounts apportioned under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection; bears to

(A) the obligation limitation for Federal-aid highway and highway safety construction programs for previous fiscal years, giving priority to those States that were or would have been eligible for assistance under this title.

(2) Ratio.—Funds shall be distributed under paragraph (1) in the same proportion as the distribution of obligation authority under subsection (b)(5).

(3) Availability.—Funds distributed under subsection (b)(1) shall be available for any purpose described in section 133(b) of title 23, United States Code.
