

in the community, to enable more students to borrow books from the library and to collaborate with class room teachers on how to improve literacy among their students.

She has already established new reading programs at Ricks Library such as preschool reading times in the morning, and story times and other children's activities in the afternoon. She is also planning to make visits to many child care centers and schools to promote literacy.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Ms. Harriet Smith for her passion and dedication to serving our great Country, desiring to make a difference in the community and preparing children for the future.

HONORING THE REMARKABLE LIFE AND ACHIEVEMENTS OF
MS. SHIRLEY CAYLOR

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 30, 2019

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Madam Speaker, it is with great admiration and respect that I stand before you today to honor Ms. Shirley Caylor and to wish her well upon her retirement. For her lifetime of inspiring service to those most in need, she is worthy of the highest praise. Throughout her noteworthy and important career, Shirley's compassionate work has been a beacon of hope for the community of Northwest Indiana and beyond.

In 1971, Shirley Caylor and her late husband, Reverend Capp, founded the Youth Crisis Center, which later became "Crisis Center, Inc., a Youth Service Bureau." The organization began as a youth-based crisis and suicide hotline and remains active today, operating as part of the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline. This hotline has helped thousands of people during its forty-five years of operation and was where Shirley began her lifetime of service.

Under the outstanding leadership of Shirley and Reverend Capp, the Crisis Center continued to grow and expand its services and programs. In 1974, they added a community counseling center, and in 1976, Alternative House, a short-term shelter for homeless, abused, or neglected youth was established. The Crisis Center also added the Teen Court program to its growing list of services in 1989. This innovative intervention program works to assist teenagers who have been brought into the juvenile detention system by allowing them to serve as jurors. Later, in 2016, Ms. Caylor opened Promises, the Crisis Center's first long-term care residential program for teenagers. Additionally, Ms. Caylor and Reverend Capp worked tirelessly to ensure that the National Safe Place program was available to Lake and Porter County residents through the Crisis Center, as well as to the Hoosiers statewide through the Indiana Youth Services Association. This program provides easy access to emergency shelter, counseling, and other types of assistance. Today, the Crisis Center's Safe Place program includes three hundred and seventy-six safe place locations.

I respect Shirley Caylor with all my heart. In the truest sense of the word, she is a servant of all, but especially of the most vulnerable.

When one reads Isaiah 58:10, one is compelled to think of Shirley Caylor: "And if you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your night will become like the noonday." Her light has illuminated our way. Her life is one we should emulate.

Madam Speaker, I ask that you and my other colleagues join me in honoring Shirley Caylor for her extraordinary career and service to the youth of Northwest Indiana and to wish her well upon her retirement. Shirley's impact on the region will be witnessed by generations to come, and for her many contributions, she is worthy of our utmost gratitude and appreciation.

HONORING BRONX BETHANY
CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE 55TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 30, 2019

Mr. ENGEL. Madam Speaker, I want to take the opportunity to recognize a special religious institution in my district which is celebrating its 55th Anniversary this year, the Bronx Bethany Church of the Nazarene.

Bronx Bethany Church has a storied history. In the early 1960's, a small group of Jamaican nationals migrated to the United States and settled in the Bronx. They searched for a church where they could worship and have a sense of belonging. They attempted to become members of a church in York City but were rejected because of their ethnicity. Despite their disappointments, and instead of cursing the dark, they lit a candle deciding to gather together for worship in their homes. The decision was made within the group to start a church. Rev. V. Seymour Cole was introduced to the group by a mutual friend. The small group subsequently asked Rev. Cole to shepherd them. Having studied in the Midwest, he was familiar with the Church of the Nazarene and recommended affiliation with the denomination.

In 1964, with 21 charter members, Bronx Bethany Church was formally organized and became affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene. In the first 13 years of the church, Rev. Cole commuted from Connecticut—approximately 60 miles each way—in order to ensure the establishment of the fledgling church. Rev. Cole tirelessly and effectively pastored this congregation for 36 years before retiring and turning over the pulpit in 2000 to Rev. Dr. Samuel Vassel. Dr. Vassel was installed as Pastor in September 2000 and has continued the legacy of rich Bible preaching. The Church continues to grow spiritually and numerically, and God has gifted our community with an abundance of gifts.

Madam Speaker, on this special occasion, I want to congratulate Dr. Vassel and the entire congregation of Bronx Bethany Church on 55 amazing years in the Bronx.

RECOGNIZING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 30, 2019

Ms. JOHNSON of Texas. Madam Speaker, today, I rise in recognition of Domestic Violence Awareness Month. In my home state of Texas, we are unfortunately deeply familiar with the tragedies involved in domestic violence. Families have been broken apart, and people have lost their lives to the scourge of domestic violence. We have the duty to do more to protect the most vulnerable members of our communities.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, nearly 1 in 5 adult women and about 1 in 7 adult men are reported to have experienced severe physical violence from an intimate partner. In the state of Texas, one in three adult Texans have experienced intimate partner violence in their lifetime, according to a study by the Institute of Domestic and Sexual Assault at the University of Texas at Austin.

As representatives of Americans from all corners of our country, we know that domestic violence is not unique to any one part of our nation. It is widespread and engrossing, and our response to it must also measure up to the significance of the challenge. Americans today need protections and assistance to recover from domestic violence, so that they may achieve full and prosperous lives.

Congress must uphold our sacred obligation to protect the millions of victims and survivors who need and deserve our whole-hearted and full support. Therefore, I am proud to support Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

RECOGNIZING THE EXEMPLARY
CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE FILI-
PINO PEOPLE TO THE COMMU-NITY OF GUAM IN CELEBRATION OF FILIPINO AMERICAN MONTH

HON. MICHAEL F.Q. SAN NICOLAS

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 30, 2019

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Madam Speaker, it is my great honor to rise today in celebration of Filipino American History Month. During this month of October, we take the time to recognize and commend the innumerable contributions of our Filipino-Americans. As Filipino American History Month comes to an end, it is important that we reflect on the historical events that have enriched our island and our country into prosperity.

The island of Guam and the Philippine nation share a mirrored colonial history, having both been under Spanish rule for hundreds of years and later governed by the United States. At the end of World War II seventy-five years ago, many Filipinos left their families and their homes to help rebuild Guam from the destruction left by the Imperial Japanese's three-year occupation of the island. Filipinos continue to bring their expertise in construction and labor to the island in the wake of man-made and natural disasters, for this we are grateful.

Today, Filipinos on Guam remain a true pillar of our community. They continue to play
