

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN RECOGNITION OF WENDELL
STRODE

HON. BRETT GUTHRIE

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 29, 2019

Mr. GUTHRIE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Wendell Strode, who is retiring after 23 years of leading the National Corvette Museum in Bowling Green, Kentucky. Under Wendell's leadership, the National Corvette Museum has become one of the biggest attractions in Kentucky, welcoming millions of visitors to Bowling Green. The museum has been recognized as one of the best places for car aficionados to visit in the country. I want to thank Wendell for his tireless years of service and dedication to the National Corvette Museum and to the Bowling Green community, and I wish him the best in retirement.

HONORING MARILYN ELAINE HARBORD

HON. MIKE THOMPSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 29, 2019

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Marilyn Elaine Harbord on her 90th birthday.

Marilyn Elaine Harbord was born in Turlock, California in 1929 and was raised in Newman, California. She earned her associate degree in Art from Stockton Junior College, a bachelor's degree in Business and Art from San Jose State University and attended graduate courses in Secondary Education at California State University, Chico. In 1985, Ms. Harbord began her public service in the California State Legislature as a legislative secretary for Assembly Member Norman Waters. Her passion and dedication to serving the people of California didn't stop there, as she would spend three years from 1990 to 1993 as a legislative secretary for former State Senator Mike Thompson.

In addition to her political advocacy, Ms. Harbord is an active member of her local community. She has volunteered for many local organizations, including those that worked with children, while working at various times as a travel agent in Chico, California, and as a business manager for the advertising and publicity department of Columbia Pictures. She also served as the secretary for the Gold Fields mining corporation in Cameron Park, California. Ms. Harbord is a hardworking professional who dedicated her life to serving the community—and the causes—she so passionately cared about.

Ms. Harbord is proud to share her long and rich history in public service with her four children, Nancy, Linda, Kenneth and Janet, along with her eleven grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren. Her family describes her as a mother and grandmother with an exceptional sense of humor and creativity, which she continues to incorporate in her hobbies, such as gardening and writing.

Madam Speaker, Marilyn Elaine Harbord is an outstanding citizen who sought to better the livelihood of our community. It is therefore fitting and proper that we honor her here today.

IN HONOR OF THE NCAA 150TH AN-NIVERSARY OF COLLEGE FOOT-BALL

HON. BRETT GUTHRIE

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 29, 2019

Mr. GUTHRIE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) 150th anniversary of college football. In November 1869, the first college football game was played between Princeton University and Rutgers University. In the 150 years that have followed, college football has become one of America's favorite pastimes. I, for one, enjoy rooting for the Western Kentucky University Hilltoppers, the University of Kentucky Wildcats, and for my alma mater, the U.S. Military Academy. Congratulations to the NCAA and all of the talented athletes on 150 years of college football—and here's to 150 more. Go Army, Beat Navy.
