The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on the Budget and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

In accordance with section 904 of title IX of the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement Implementation Act (H.R. 5430; the “Act”), I hereby designate as emergency requirements all funding so designated by the Congress in the Act pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as outlined in the enclosed list of accounts.

The details of this action are set forth in the enclosed memorandum from the Acting Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

DONALD J. TRUMP.

THE WHITE HOUSE, January 29, 2020.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF LINDA COZZEN

(Mr. VEASEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. VEASEY. Madam Speaker, today I rise to commemorate and dedicate this time to one of our local activists in Tarrant County, Linda Cozzen, who was a great friend of mine.

Linda was born in Canada and became a U.S. citizen at the age of 8 when her grandparents immigrated to the United States.

Linda and her brother were orphans, and their entry into the country in Texas would not have been possible were it not for the great work of the President and Senator from Texas, Lyndon Johnson, who was one of her heroes. President Johnson had a huge impact on Linda’s life, which is one of the reasons why she was so active in politics in Fort Worth and Tarrant County.

Over the years, she served on a lot of different committees: The 820 Corridor Democratic Club, the Southwest Democratic Club, Tarrant County Democratic Party, Tarrant County Democratic Club, League of Women Voters. She was a precinct chair, and so many others for over 20 years.

She also served as campaign manager for numerous candidates in local and State elections. And she was a proud alumna of Texas Christian University also in Fort Worth, TCU.

Ms. Cozzen’s story highlights the importance of incorporating immigrants into our democracy and providing them with an opportunity to participate in our political system.

Linda was a great friend, and someone who always just had encouraging words for me and so many others. She was at literally every single Democratic event in Tarrant County.

It has really been a sad week when everybody found out about her untimely passing, and our blessings go out to her family and all of her friends who will miss her.

COMMEMORATING 250TH ANNIVERSARY OF BOTETOURT COUNTY, VIRGINIA

(Mr. CLINE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CLINE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 250th anniversary of Botetourt County, Virginia. When initially founded, Botetourt County extended far and wide, all the way to the banks of the Mississippi River, and encompassed portions of seven present-day States.

Named for Royal Governor Norborne Berkeley, Lord Botetourt, this scenic county serves as a gateway from the Shenandoah Valley into southwest Virginia.

As you walk through the quaint towns within the county’s borders, you are filled with a sense of awe, not only because of its beauty, but because of the history that surrounds you.

Thomas Jefferson famously designed an earlier version of the county courthouse in the town of Fincastle, and Lewis and Clark departed on their great expedition westward from within Botetourt County.

Even after exploring the vast western expanse of America, William Clark returned to marry county resident, Judith Hancock, following his journey.

Just as the James River flows through Botetourt County, our citizens will continue to carve out their path toward prosperity with excitement and hope in the centuries to come.

Madam Speaker, may God continue to bless Botetourt County.

HONORING THE MEMORY OF MADISON ELIZABETH WEGENER

(Ms. SLOTKIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. SLOTKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life of Madison Elizabeth Wegener of Brighton, Michigan, who was 14 when she passed away last Tuesday.

When she was six, Maddie was diagnosed with a rare degenerative disease that currently has no cure.

From all accounts, Maddie was a vivacious and adventurous young woman. She loved Great Danes, taking walks in the woods, and making maple syrup at her grandparents’ farm.

Because of her illness, Maddie became an advocate for organ donation at a young age. In her selflessness, upon her death, Maddie was able to save four lives, and also provide the gift of sight through her organ donations. Think about that.

Maddie’s generosity of spirit sets a powerful example, as her legacy will live on in her family, in her community, and in those that she helped save.

Maddie was just a freshman at Brighton High School, where her mother teaches English.

I had the privilege to attend the Brighton-Howell basketball game 10
