

This experience and this expertise positioned him perfectly for a high-level career with the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, which is headquartered in the First Congressional District of Georgia. During James' time there, he did an exceptional job of managing training operations in Georgia, New Mexico, South Carolina, and the D.C. metropolitan area.

Madam Speaker, I thank Mr. Gregorius for his service to our country and congratulate him on his retirement.

James' presence, leadership, and expertise will all be missed.

RECOGNIZING THE HEROIC ACTION OF ODREN POLK

(Mr. KELLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. KELLER. Madam Speaker, today, it is my great pleasure to recognize the heroic action of Odren Polk, a resident of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, in our 12th Congressional District.

Affectionately referred to as "Mr. O," Odren serves his community at Stevens Primary School through STEP AmeriCorps, a national service organization.

On what Odren described as an otherwise usual day in the cafeteria, Mr. O noticed one of the students choking on a grape tomato. Utilizing the first aid training he received at AmeriCorps, Mr. O jumped into action, dislodging the tomato from the student's airway and saving his life.

What Mr. O described as an automatic reaction was possible only because of the training he received at AmeriCorps.

AmeriCorps is a network of national service programs that seeks to improve lives and foster civic engagement. Approximately 75,000 Americans across the country serve their community through AmeriCorps each year.

AmeriCorps members also receive training that prepares them to serve their communities after their AmeriCorps is completed. As in the case with Mr. O, sometimes that training comes in handy sooner rather than later.

PROVIDING NEW EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL AMERICANS

(Mr. GUEST asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUEST. Madam Speaker, today, President Trump signed the historic United States-Mexico-Canada trade agreement and fulfilled a campaign promise to modernize trade with two of our largest trading partners.

The USMCA is projected to generate $68 billion in new economic activity and create over 175,000 new jobs for hardworking Americans.

President Trump and Republicans fought to complete the USMCA on behalf of American farmers, ranchers, manufacturers, and small business owners.

As a rural State with strong agricultural, manufacturing, and business sectors, Mississippi stands to benefit greatly from this agreement by expanding markets for high-quality Mississippi poultry and livestock and hundreds of manufacturing products.

This trade agreement will provide a boost to our economy that has grown significantly under Republican leadership and is another example of free market economic principles at work to provide new employment opportunities for all Americans.

WISHING THE KANSAS CITY CHIEFS LUCK IN THE SUPER BOWL

(Mr. MARSHALL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MARSHALL. Madam Speaker, it seems like it was just yesterday when I sat down in my family living room with my dad to watch Super Bowl IV. It was an exciting game, watching Hank Stram strut up and down the sideline, Lenny Dawson completing long passes to Otis Taylor.

This weekend, after 50 years in the desert, the Chiefs are back at the Super Bowl. On behalf of the entire delegation, I want to wish Coach Reid and MVP Patrick Mahomes a great day, a great game, wishing that they all do their very best and bring back home that Lombardi Trophy.

HONORING JEAN FERNANDEZ

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Madam Speaker, this past weekend was the 75th anniversary of the Battle of the Bulge of World War II in Europe.

I rise today to honor a great lady, Jean Fernandez, who is a veteran of that historic battle and turned 100 very recently.

Living to be 100 years old is an accomplishment on its own, but Jean's story is particularly remarkable.

Arriving after D-Day and before the Battle of the Bulge, Jean is one of the few women veterans who was actually able to serve in that role in our Nation during World War II.

During her time as a nurse at the 179th U.S. Army General Hospital at Rouen in northern France, the hospital was constantly under threat of air attack, and many of the young men she cared for were severely affected by shell shock.

Had it not been for the My Life, My Story program provided by the VA, Jean's story may not have ever been told.

I had the pleasure of stopping by and spending some time with her at her 100th birthday party up in Susanville, and I enjoyed hearing her recount her time in the military as well as her extraordinary life.

What a neat lady. She is an exceptional American, and I am very thankful for her service and really honored to have had a chance to get to know her and spend time with her.

REVIEWING IMPEACHMENT PROCESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. SLOTKIN). Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 3, 2019, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. GOHMERT) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the minority leader.

Mr. GOHMERT. Madam Speaker, it has been an interesting day.

I was down in the Senate earlier today. We have reciprocity with the Senate, so we can go onto the Senate floor. It is a very interesting experience, seeing a President who committed no crime, not even perjury, like President Clinton, having an attempt to remove him from office.

An article today by Brent Bozell says: "One favorite tactic of our 'objective' media during the impeachment of President Donald Trump is to find a clip of the President's legal experts such as Ken Starr and Alan Dershowitz expressing an opinion during the 1998-99 impeachment of Bill Clinton and then show a contrast with the present day. But this is just as easily demonstrated with the press.

"It is not surprising that Democrats and Republicans favor or oppose impeachment based on the party of the President in the dock. It should be surprising that our supposedly non-partisan journalists flip to whichever talking points are in use by the Democrats. That makes the press a gaggle of hypocrites.

"Back in 1998, Newsweek's Eleanor Clift spoke for the vast majority of the press from her chair on 'The McLaughlin Group.' Before the House voted to impeach Clinton, she warned, 'If the Republicans want to go ahead and do this, I think they disgrace themselves in a more profound way than President Clinton has by abusing the machinery of impeachment, knowing full well that the Senate will hold a sham trial and they will be, in effect, delivered of this ridiculous conclusion.'

"Over and over again, these network 'news' stars lamented that the House impeachment vote and the Senate impeachment trial of President Clinton were a 'sham' and a horrible 'distraction' from the people's business. They said small-minded Republican Clinton haters were obsessed with sex, and never mind the actual charges of perjury and obstruction of justice."

Obstruction of justice, of course, being a crime and perjury being a crime, whereas obstruction of Congress is more in the nature of maladministration, which the Founders made
