TRIBUTE TO JEFFREY HERR

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 2020

Mr. SCHIFF. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Jeffrey Herr, who is retiring from the City of Los Angeles as Curator of the Hollyhock House in Barnsdall Park, Los Angeles and Curator of The Watts Towers in Los Angeles.

For more than three decades, Mr. Herr has dedicated his career to the preservation, appreciation, management and creation of the arts. From his early years as an intern at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) to his present position as Curator of two notable institutions, Jeffrey has had a significant impact on the historic, arts and cultural community in Los Angeles.

In 1988, after his internship at LACMA ended, Mr. Herr became a Research Assistant in the Decorative Arts Department at LACMA, and then the Assistant Gallery Director at the Couturier Gallery, which specialized in the American Arts and Crafts era, where he designed, curated and installed art exhibitions. Following that, he joined the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)'s Extension Program, where he created and presented lectures on the American Arts and Crafts movement.

Mr. Herr's long and illustrious career with the City of Los Angeles began in 1990 when he was selected as Curator of the City's Department of Cultural Affairs for three years, arranging exhibitions for galleries such as the gallery in the Hollyhock House and at the Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery, before moving on to become Arts Manager of the department, where he oversaw a cultural grants program that awarded three million dollars annually to 250 arts organizations and artists. In 1996, Jeffrey accepted the position of Director of the Banning Residence Museum, implementing and overseeing professional museum standards and restoration of the historic 1864 Victorian structure.

In 2001, Mr. Herr became the Arts Manager of Los Angeles' Department of Cultural Affairs for the second time, managing special projects such as publishing and editing the Landmark L.A.: Historic-Cultural Monuments of Los Angeles and acting as the liaison with local agencies. In 2004, Jeffrey became the curator of the world-famous Hollyhock House, where he capably oversaw its preservation and interpretation. The 1921 residence, commissioned by Aline Barnsdall as a cultural arts complex, was designed by renowned architect Frank Lloyd Wright with Ms. Barnsdall's favorite flower, the hollyhock, incorporated into the home's design. In 2019, under Mr. Herr's leadership, the Hollyhock House became a UNESCO World Heritage Site, as one of the eight Frank Lloyd Wright sites in the world. In addition to his work at the Hollyhock House, Jeffrey is also the Curator of The Watts Towers, a National Historic Landmark, where he directs its preservation and conservation.

Jeffrey Herr was born and raised in East Berlin, Pennsylvania and moved to Los Angeles in 1987. He completed his BA in English Literature in 1972 at Azusa Pacific University and MA with Honors in Art History in 1988 at California State University, Northridge. Jeffrey and his husband, Christopher Molinar have lived the Los Angeles neighborhood of Silver Lake for the past 27 years.

I ask all Members of Congress to join me in congratulating Jeffrey Herr for three decades of outstanding service with the City of Los Angeles.

RECOGNIZING HERMAN FLORA FOR OBTAINING THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

HON. WM. LACY CLAY

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 2020

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, in the midst of racial segregation in the 1950s, many Black Americans were forced to forego opportunities and achievements they rightfully earned and deserved. One such instance was finally made right this past February when Herman Flora was recognized with the long-awaited honor of becoming an Eagle Scout.

Mr. Flora joined the Boy Scouts when he was a child in 1943. Unfortunately, he was prevented from becoming an Eagle Scout because he lived in a Virginia community where Blacks were routinely barred from public swimming pools, which thereby prevented him from earning the swimming merit badge that was required of all Eagle Scouts.

Mr. Flora did not let that missed opportunity stop him from being active in his community. He remained committed to the lessons he learned during his time as a Boy Scout. He continued to engage in community service, pursued higher education, and went on to enlist in the U.S. Army before graduating from Howard University.

Stories such as Mr. Flora's must be recognized and honored for how they shed light on our history, and the individuals who have overcome and prospered in the face of systemic racism.

CONGRATULATING JOE SAMUELS ON HIS RETIREMENT

HON. BILL HUIZENGA

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 2020

Mr. HUIZENGA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the exemplary career of Joe Samuels, a pivotal member of the West Michigan Steelcase security team. I would like to express my appreciation to Mr. Samuels for over 33 years of dedicated service to Steelcase.

Mr. Samuels' distinguished career at Steelcase began on August 11, 1986. Beginning in the Panel plant, he later continued his faithful work in both Systems 1 and Systems 2 in Materials and Paint. In 2004, Mr. Samuels transitioned to the security team and obtained his Emergency Medical Technician license. Since that time, he has diligently covered both Steelcase's Global Security Operations Center and its Grand Rapids Field Operations.

Outside of work, Mr. Samuels is a dedicated and proud father of three—one of whom works alongside him in Steelcase Security. In 2018, in an incredible demonstration of his selfless character and his love for his children, Mr. Samuels donated one of his kidneys to his son. Having recovered well from the surgery, he looks forward to spending his well-earned retirement with his children and three grandchildren.

It is because of the faithful hard work, sacrifice, and dedication of community members such as Joe Samuels that I am especially proud to serve Michigan's 2nd Congressional District. Madam Speaker, I would like to again formally congratulate Mr. Samuels on his well-deserved retirement.

JUNE MEDICAL SERVICES V. RUSSO

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 2020

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Madam Speaker, I rise to remind my colleagues of what is at stake at the Supreme Court in the coming weeks.

Yesterday, the Court began to hear arguments in a major abortion rights case, June Medical Services v. Russo.

If the Louisiana law in question goes into effect, only one clinic remains in the entire state.

Only one physician would continue to provide abortions to the 10,000 women in Louisiana who sought them every year.

That outcome would deny thousands of women in Louisiana their constitutional protection, the protected rights to access abortion care.

In 2016, the Court already decided that an identical case was unconstitutional.

But since President Trump has added two conservative justices to the Supreme Court,
