ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining.

□ 1713

Mr. RUSH changed his vote from “no” to “aye.”

So the amendment was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

DIRECTING THE REMOVAL OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES FROM HOSTILITIES AGAINST THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN THAT HAVE NOT BEEN AUTHORIZED BY CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. JAYAPAL). Pursuant to clause 1(c) of rule XIX, further consideration of the joint resolution (S.J. Res. 68) to direct the removal of United States Armed Forces from hostilities against the Islamic Republic of Iran that have not been authorized by Congress, will now resume.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

MOTION TO COMMIT

Mr. McCAUL. Madam Speaker, I have a motion to commit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the joint resolution?

Mr. McCAUL. I am in its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to commit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. McCaul moves to commit the joint resolution S.J. Res. 68 to the Committee on Foreign Affairs with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith, with the following amendment:

After paragraph (5) of section 1, insert the following:

(6) For more than two decades, Qassem Soleimani posed a deadly threat to American personnel and interests as commander of the Quds Force of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps, which is responsible for Iran's extraterritorial military and clandestine operations. His activities to fund and train Iran's terrorist proxies in Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Bahrain, Yemen, and Afghanistan led to the deaths of more than 600 United States troops.

(7) In late 2019, Soleimani began escalating Iranian-supported attacks on Americans, including the assault on the United States Embassy in Baghdad and a rocket attack that killed an American citizen and wounded four United States servicemembers in Iraq. Prior to his death, Soleimani was traveling around the Middle East coordinating further attacks on Americans.

(8) Removing Qassem Soleimani from the battlefield has increased the safety and security of American troops, diplomats, and citizens, of our partners and allies, including the State of Israel, and of the world.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

Mr. MCCAUL. Madam Speaker, here we are, once again, debating war powers when the simple fact is we are not engaged in hostilities against Iran.

Why are we wasting precious floor time when all the American people really care about today is coronavirus? Today the WHO declared it a pandemic. That is the biggest threat to our Nation today.

So, why are my colleagues launching more partisan political attacks against this President for taking justified military action to protect Americans against one of the world's most dangerous terrorists?

That is why my motion states that Soleimani was a terrorist and that the world is safer without him, just like the world was safer when President Obama ordered the strike on bin Laden when Republicans and Democrats came together to praise his decision. President Obama conducted thousands of unauthorized strikes in Libya unrelated to protecting Americans, and at that time Leader PELOSI said that she was satisfied he had the authority for those strikes.

Soleimani was a mastermind of terror in the Middle East for two decades, and that is why President Obama designated him as a terrorist.

Soleimani funded, trained, and equipped Iran's terrorist proxies in Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Yemen, and Afghanistan.

Soleimani is the one who convinced Russia to fight for Assad.

Tens of thousands of innocent people in Syria are dead today, victims of war crimes, because of Soleimani.

Soleimani played a key role in the crackdown of protesters in Iraq that killed hundreds of Iraqis.

Most importantly, Madam Speaker, he has the blood of over 600 American soldiers on his hands.

Under Soleimani's command, Iran tried to assassinate the Saudi Ambassador to the United States in a Washington, D.C., restaurant less than 4 miles from where we are standing today.

The danger he posed to the United States was not just a thing of the past. He was directing a campaign of terror and violence against us in Iraq, which killed one American and injured four other servicemen.

He orchestrated the attack on our Embassy in Baghdad.

Look at this picture. This was not simply a brush fire, Madam Speaker. They stormed and attacked our Embassy under Soleimani's orders.

What more evidence do we need than this?

Soleimani was not done after his attack on our Embassy. He wasn't on a vacation when he went to meet with his top lieutenants in Damascus, Lebanon, and Baghdad. Secretary Pompeo testified to our committee that Soleimani was in the region actively plotting to kill Americans. He was going to report back to Tehran, to the Ayatollah, to plan future attacks.

What if our President had done nothing and our Embassy was attacked again like in 1979 with diplomats taken hostage? What if the President did nothing? What if more United States troops were killed? What then would the other side of the aisle be saying?

Madam Speaker, the enemies of our country are watching this debate right now, and they need to know darn well that, if you kill or injure Americans, you will pay the price.

Like President Reagan, I am a firm believer in peace through strength. When we show strength like we did with this necessary strike, our enemies back down.

So, Madam Speaker, I call upon my colleagues to drop their partisanship, to stand as Americans as we did when President Obama struck bin Laden, and to support this simple fact that the world is a better place without Soleimani.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. HOYER. Madam Speaker, I claim the time in opposition to the motion to commit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Maryland is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. HOYER. Madam Speaker, I doubt that there is a person on this floor who disagrees with the premises that Mr. MCCAUL just stated. Soleimani was a bad person. I said during the course of debate on the Slotkin amendment, which referenced exactly that premise, that no one lamented the loss of Mr. Soleimani—no one. That is not what this bill is about, nor is that what this amendment is about.

This bill, which is called a partisan bill by Mr. MCCAUL, had 15 percent of the Republicans in the United States Senate vote for it.

This bill, called a partisan bill, says the bill we are voting on, the bill we are going to pass, says that Members of the United States Armed Forces and intelligence community and all those involved in the planning of the January 2, 2020, strike on Qasem Soleimani, including President Donald J. Trump, should be commended for their efforts in a successful mission. That is what the bill that we are asking this body to vote for says.

Madam Speaker, does that sound to you like a partisan document?

Now, Madam Speaker, the purpose of this motion is to kill this bill. This is a Senate bill. It will send it back to committee. It will not allow it to pass with an amendment, and it will preclude it from going to the President of the United States.

Now, what this issue is about is our Constitution, about the power of this body, about the responsibility of this body, and about the authority of this body to declare or not declare war. That is what this bill is about.

There may be some in this body who want to shrink from that responsibility and send it to the President of the United States, but our Founders believed that was not what our democracy ought to be. It ought to be the Representatives of the people who take them to war, not a President—any President, Democratic or Republican—to take us to war.

This is about our responsibility. It commends President Trump, and it commends our Armed Forces, and it allows them to defend themselves if attacked. But it stands for the proposition that I hope all Members are for, that we, the Representatives of the American people, ought to decide on their behalf whether they or their sons and daughters go to the point of the spear at war—not just one person.

There are a lot of countries in this world where one person makes the decision. They are called dictators. Our Founding Fathers did not want dictators running America.

And I say to my colleagues, of course, our Republican friends who are offered this amendment never vote for an MTR, because—and I will not read the litany of quotes from so many of you—an MTR is simply to delay and defeat. Your quotes, not mine.

So I ask all of us, without exception, vote against this MTR, vote to send this bill to the President of the United States, supported by 15 percent of the Republicans in the United States Senate. It is not a partisan bill. It doesn't attack President Trump. In fact, it says, "our troops," and "President Trump ought to be commended." It is in the bill.

Don't tell me this is a partisan act. It is not. It is an act of responsibility, and to our oath of office, and to the Constitution of the United States. Vote "no."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to address their remarks to the Chair.

Mr. HOYER. Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to commit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to commit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the yeas appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. MCCAUL. Madam Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, this 5-minute vote on the motion to commit will be followed by 5-minute votes on passage of S.J. Res. 68, if ordered, and agreeing to the Speaker's approval of the Journal, if ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 198, noes 212, answered “present” 1, not voting 18, as follows:
