

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

REMEMBERING FREDERICK
LANGSTON HUNT

HON. DONNA E. SHALALA

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 17, 2020

Ms. SHALALA. Madam Speaker, I rise in memory of Frederick Langston Hunt, who passed away peacefully on April 8, 2020. My thoughts are with his family.

Frederick Langston Hunt, the only child of Frederick F. Hunt and Bernice S. Hunt, grew up in the close-knit community of Coconut Grove, FL. He graduated with honors from G.W. Carver High School and was a member of the Thorians Class of '64. After completing his undergraduate education at Howard University and earning his master's degree from Montclair University, he moved to Albany, Georgia where he met Cellestine Hill, whom he married in 1972. He and Cellestine shared a dedication to the civil rights movement and a gift for making each other laugh.

In the early seventies, the Hunts moved to Greensboro, NC, where Frederick was a doctoral candidate at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Over the years, he served as Director of African American Studies at Guilford College and as a professor at Shaw University. Fred was also instrumental in establishing the Head Start program in the Triad area. It was during this time that Maia Nataka Cellestine Hunt, their only child, was born. Fred took such pride in his only child, who favored him so much, that some joked she should have been named "Fredericka".

Frederick was an educator with the mind of an entrepreneur, a heart for his people, and the spirit of a musician. The common thread in everything he pursued was his commitment to racial, social, and economic justice. His passion for education and learning dominated his early professional life, and he always made time to be a trusted counselor and guide for young people. Frederick started a mentoring group for young men, frequently hosted Kwanzaa celebrations at his home or community centers, and dedicated himself to serving Dudley High School through the Parent Teacher Association. He always remained active in local politics and service organizations like the N.A.A.C.P.

Even when Fred focused his professional efforts on real estate, first as an agent and later establishing his own real estate firm, he continued to find ways to serve. He hosted workshops to prepare people for home ownership and frequently assisted customers with their first home purchases. He was regularly recognized by his peers and the High Point Regional Association of Realtors for excelling in the field, and he continued his real estate business when he returned to Miami to be closer to his mother.

Once he settled in Coconut Grove, he joined Greater St. Paul, A.M.E., where his mother was a lifelong member. He was also a member of the Greater St. Paul Male Chorus and the Sons of Allen, a group dedicated to fellowship and mentoring in the community. In 2012, as his health challenges mounted, he moved to Maryland to be closer to his daughter.

Frederick is survived by his daughter, Maia Hunt Estes; his son-in-law, Elliott; his chosen siblings, Dr. Thomas Garvin and June Garvin; his niece Loren Stata (Jeff); and nephew Khari Garvin (Leslie); his in-laws, Estell Scott Estes and Eric and Jacinta Estes; his grandnephew Ethan Estes; and a host of friends and loved ones who became his family.
