CLARIFICATION OF CONGRESSIONAL INTENT REGARDING SECTION 6412 OF PUBLIC LAW 116-92

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 21, 2020

Mr. SCHIFF. Madam Speaker, last year I introduced H.R. 3494, the Damon Paul Nelson and Matthew Young Pollard Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 2018, 2019, and 2020. The IAA was included in the Fiscal Year 2020 National Defense Authorization Act, which became Public Law 116-92.

Section 6412, a provision that I authored and that first passed the House as part of the IAA, authorizes the Director of the CIA to provide enhanced injury benefits to a covered employee and/or qualifying dependents who suffer an injury overseas due to war, insurgency, hostile act, or terrorist activities.

I rise today to clarify the intent of Congress on one point: due to the unique and limited circumstances under which these benefits are authorized, and for the purposes of Section 104 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, all amounts paid pursuant to Section 6412 should be treated as amount paid under chapter 81 of title 5, United States Code, regardless of whether the recipient would otherwise qualify for workmen's compensation.

Ms. SCHRIER. Madam Speaker, congratulations to the hardworking students of Tahoma High School from Maple Valley, Washington, for being selected for the 11th consecutive time to represent Washington state in the annual “We the People: The Citizens and the Constitution” competition organized by the Center for Civic Education.

These dedicated students have spent the past year studying the history and principles of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. They have gained a better understanding of our nation’s founding values, representative democracy, and how the lawmaking process functions.

The annual in-person “We the People” final competition typically takes place in Washington, D.C., in late April. Understandably, due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the event was cancelled this year. Regardless, I am tremendously proud of these students’ diligent work over the past year. Civic education is vital to a well-rounded high school education. In this time of crisis, it is more important than ever that young people are well-informed so they can engage constructively with public policy. I hope that these talented students feel empowered to vote, participate in politics, and be leading voices for positive change in our state and country. I am excited to hear about how they carry the principles and values of civic education into their future endeavors and become the next generation of leaders.

I am especially grateful to Gretchen Wulping for her dedication to civic education. In addition to teaching government at Tahoma High School, Gretchen has coached Civic Education for 12 years. Most recently, in 2016, she was honored as one of Washington’s distinguished Civic Educators.

Teachers like Gretchen are especially vital in this uncertain time, and the 8th District is extremely appreciative for her dedication to educating students in Maple Valley.

Finally, I would like to individually recognize each student, whose tremendous commitment and enthusiasm to learning our Constitution, I deeply admire. Congratulations to: Riley Barlett, Dane Bowman-Weston, Katerina Bruhl, Matthew Bruneel, Neena Chana, Claire Cunningham, Grace Denison, Shelby Ellis, Djanaya Esiong, Issabella Huser.

Mr. WITTMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise in recognition of the extended members of the Cortez and Nicolas family of Virginia and Texas who are Hispanic media pioneers and American patriots serving our nation in war and peace for over 75 years.

In the 40s and 50s, Mr. Raul Cortez developed KCOR radio and television and the Spanish International Network which grew into UNIVISON the nation’s largest provider of Spanish language content thanks to the major contributions of his son-in-law Mr. Emilio Nicolas, his wife Irma, their son Emilio Nicolas Jr. and family. I commend Mr. Frank Cortez Jr. and Mr. Daniel P. Cortez of Stafford, Virginia, for their Spanish and English language media contributions through their patriotic and informational media broadcast segments in print and electronically.

Five generations of Cortez and Nicolas family members have answered the military call to duty since World War I including Mr. Juan Manuel Cortez, Mr. Raul Cortez Jr. who served in Korea, Mr. Daniel Cortez who was wounded and decorated for extraordinary heroism in Vietnam and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cortez II and his wife April Cortez who honorably served in the Air Force during Operation Enduring Freedom.
