

and national level and has received many well-deserved honors for his work. The achievements he has accrued during his 50-year career in public education include twice being named Arkansas Superintendent of the Year and recognition as one of Education Week magazine's 2017 "Leaders to Learn From." Just recently, Dr. Rollins was awarded the 2020 Outstanding Alumnus Award in Education from the College of Education and Health Professionals at the University of Arkansas. His service as Arkansas' representative on the U.S. Department of Education's Superintendents Task Force is further evidence of his expertise and the high regard his peers and fellow educators hold for him.

I congratulate Dr. Rollins for his outstanding track record of ensuring students have a solid educational foundation to help them succeed in the future. I appreciate his friendship and his excellent leadership which has resulted in academic improvement and growth for countless students. I wish him all the best in the next chapter of his career as president of Northwest Technical Institute.●

TRIBUTE TO COLONEL COREY A. SIMMONS

● Mr. INHOFE. Mr. President, I wish to pay tribute to the outgoing commander of the 71st Flying Training Wing, Vance Air Force Base, OK, Col. Corey A. Simmons. Colonel Simmons led a wing of nearly 3,000 personnel who conducted critical undergraduate pilot training for many of our young Airmen.

Corey has quite the resume, beginning when he was commissioned in the Air Force in 1998 after he graduated from the University of Louisville. He earned a graduate degree in 2005 from the George Washington University and is a graduate of Air Command and Staff College. He successfully completed the SECDEF Executive Leadership Development Program and a Harvard University National Defense Fellowship.

In his interactions with both me and my staff, Corey always displayed a high level of professionalism and actively worked to advance various initiatives and reach solutions. He was ready and willing to collaborate on a task and helped me do my job by making sure I knew the current status down at Vance. Corey's leadership instilled confidence in his airmen, and he laid critical groundwork for the future of the Enid community.

Corey has been a dedicated leader in our Air Force, serving in Air Mobility Command as a vice wing commander, squadron commander, operations officer, C-17A instructor pilot, and aircraft commander. He has been stationed all around the country, but I am sure his favorite memories will be of his time spent at Altus and Vance Air Force Bases in Oklahoma. While Corey is an experienced pilot who has spent a respectable amount of time flying. He still falls far short of me in terms of flight hours, but maybe someday he will get close.

I want to wish Colonel Simmons the best of luck in his next assignment at Travis Air Force Base in California as the commander of the 60th Air Mobility Wing. This assignment speaks to the caliber of leader that he is, and I personally am grateful to him, his wife Dawn, and his children for their dedicated service to our Nation, to the Air Force, and to the Enid community. Corey, best of luck.●
