The House met at 11 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer:

God of heaven and Earth, thank You for giving us another day.

The Nation awakes to reports of rising coronavirus numbers, many in places once touted as being safe from the danger of spread. Have mercy on us. Help us to hear Your call to leave pride and boasting behind and together face a most dangerous threat to the health and well-being of our citizens.

Continue to bless and protect those men and women who have been buried for so long with the care of the infected, even as they are asked to make more bricks with less straw. As hospitals fill, empower those given the responsibility to lead with wisdom and practical insights to rise to the demands of their leadership.

May all that is done be for Your greater honor and glory.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to section 4(a) of House Resolution 967, the Journal of the last day’s proceedings is approved.

The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore (Mr. GRASSLEY).

PRAYER
The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal Spirit, to whom we must give and account for all our powers and privileges, guide the Members of this body so that they will be faithful stewards of Your will.

Lord, open their minds and hearts to know and do Your bidding, teaching them to rely on Your strength and to serve You with honor. Help them to discover in their daily work the joy of a partnership with You. Use them to bring good news to the marginalized, to comfort the brokenhearted, and to announce that captives will be released and the shackled will be freed.

May our Senators depend upon the power of Your prevailing providence, for You are the author and finisher of our faith.

We pray in Your great Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE
The President pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mrs. HYDE-SMITH). The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent to speak for 1 minute in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ABSENTEE VOTING
Mr. GRASSLEY. Madam President, Iowa's secretary of state Paul Pate will mail an absentee ballot request form to every registered Iowa voter for the November election. This is a request form, not a ballot, being mailed out to everybody.

Iowa's current absentee ballot system allows anyone who wants to vote by mail to do so. Just send in the request form when you receive it, or you may download it online, but if Iowans prefer to vote in person, that remains their choice.

There has been a lot of misinformation claiming that some massive, Federal intervention is needed to allow citizens to vote by mail. This isn't true in Iowa or elsewhere. Every State has vote-by-mail, and 16 States ask for a reason, such as being over 65, for example, but most have waived or loosened this requirement.

Some groups are now using the pandemic to push for a Federal mandate on States to adopt a new, universal vote-by-mail system overnight. It took 5 years when Washington State implemented voting by mail. Requiring every State to replace its current voting system with a whole new, centralized, mail-only system this close to our November election is a recipe for disaster. In such a system, every registered voter, including those who have died or moved away, would automatically be mailed a ballot with no voting in person.

Every Iowan who wants to vote absentee in November can do so, and those who want to vote in person can also do so safely. It is a voter's choice and should remain so.

I yield the floor.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER
The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader is recognized.

HEALS ACT
Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, another day has come and gone in this once-in-a-century national battle for our country.

Yesterday, more of our neighbors had to say goodbye to loved ones whose lives were claimed by this virus. Yesterday, more doctors and more nurses worked long shifts on the frontlines, fighting to heal strangers and limit the national death toll that now exceeds 150,000. Yesterday, more workers brought home pink slips, and more Main Street businesses saw the end of their PPP lifelines fast approaching. Yesterday, more laid-off Americans filed new claims for unemployment insurance or lay awake wondering about next month's rent. Yesterday, more school officials wondered what to tell parents, students, and teachers about September.

What happened here in the Capitol yesterday? With the American people fighting all of these battles and more, what did the Speaker of the House and the Democratic leader do with yet another day of deliberations? Yet again, it was the exact same refrain. It never seems to change: We are feeling optimistic. We spoke very politely to the administration, but we are still nowhere close on the substance.

It has now been more than a week since Senate Republicans released a serious proposal for another major rescue package—$1 trillion for kids, jobs, and healthcare. The Democrats are blocking it all. It is like they expect applause for merely keeping a civil tone with the President's team—never mind they are still obstructing any action for our country.

Senate Republicans want to revive a Federal add-on to unemployment insurance, which the Democratic leader would not let us extend last week. We want to send another round of direct checks straight into families' pockets. We want to supply generous, new incentives for rehiring American workers and workplace safety. We want to send historic money to schools for reopening and invest even more in testing and vaccine research. We want legal protections so schools, churches, charities, and businesses can reopen.

Printed on recycled paper.
The Democrats say they want many of the same things. I certainly believe that many of my Democratic colleagues who serve as ranking members want many of the same things and could easily find common ground with our chairmen if the Democratic leader would simply meet us halfway. Instead, we have gotten a full week of the Speaker of the House’s and the Democratic leader’s shutting out all of their own Members and refusing to move an inch off of demands that everyone knows are outlandish.

The Democratic leaders want the entirety of their massive, far-left wish list—all of it. Speaker PELOSI is still agitating for strange, new special interest carve-outs for the marijuana industry—even claiming they are COVID-related. She said that, with respect to this virus, marijuana is “a therapy that has proven successful.” You can’t make this up. I hope she shared her breakthrough with Dr. Fauci. In the other corner, Leader SCHUMER is still demanding massive tax cuts for rich people in blue States or he won’t let any relief become law.

These are the kinds of nongermane pet projects that our Democratic colleagues are demanding—not a dime for kids, jobs, and healthcare unless the administration lets them check off every leftwing lobbyist’s Christmas list 5 months early.

Let’s listen to what Speaker PELOSI’s own House Democrats said about this bill when they passed it. Here is what House Democrats said about the bill that Speaker PELOSI and the Democratic leader now say is their absolute redline:

One quote: “The partisan nature and wide scope of this bill make it doomed upon arrival in the Senate.”

Another quote: “In response to COVID-19, our relief efforts must be targeted, timely, and transparent. The HEROES Act does not meet those standards.”

Another quote: “This isn’t a plan; it’s a wish list.”

Another quote: “Partisan gamesmanship.”

Another quote: “Some in my own party . . . have decided to use this package as an opportunity to make political statements and propose a bill that goes far beyond pandemic relief and has no chance at becoming law, further declaring the help so many need.”

Those are quotes from House Democrats’ views about the so-called Heroes Act, but now the entire thing is the price of admission for giving hard-hit Americans a dime more aid.

What worked back in March with the CARES Act were productive and good-faith conversations between chairmen and ranking members—a bipartisan process led by Members.

But this time, the Speaker and the Democratic leader have forbidden their Members from negotiating at all. The ranking member on HELP cannot even discuss testing with Chairman ALEX-ANDER. The ranking member on Small Business cannot even discuss PPP with Chairman RUBIO and Chairman COLINS.

No, no; the Speaker and the Democratic leader only want themselves at the table so that behind closed doors they can say that nobody gets another dime of Federal unemployment money; nobody gets extra school funding; and nobody gets more money for testing and PPE unless they burn cash on 1,000 unrelated things.

I am talking about things like stimulus checks for illegal immigrants; a billion-dollar slush fund for States, even though States and localities have only spent a quarter of the money we sent them in March. Let me say that again—a trillion-dollar slush fund for States, even though States and localities have only spent a quarter of the money we sent them in March. In my State, the State administration only spent 6 percent of the money we sent them—6 percent—diversity and inclusion studies, a soil health program, and on and on and on.

The House bill does all these things while completely forgetting a second round of the Paycheck Protection Program—no second round for PPP—and sending less money for schools than the Senate bill.

This is what they will not budge from. And with the script is the same, and the script is: We had a pleasant conversation, but we don’t feel like making a deal. Maybe tomorrow.

Here is the problem: Every day the Democratic leaders repeat the same act here in the Capitol, they are letting down the struggling people who need our help. Day after day. Americans are trying to stay above water—layoffs, benefit cuts, threats of eviction, the possibility of losing a family business forever, towns wondering if their Main Streets will ever come back, school principals with no idea what to tell communities.

That is the reality in Kentucky and in all 50 States, and none of these people are helped one bit, not one bit, by the Democratic leaders’ charade.

What American families need is an outcome, a bipartisan result. Senate Democrats have a roadmap sitting on the table for more than a week. We didn’t put every Republican wish list item in history into an 1,800-page encyclopedia and insist on starting there.

We built a serious starting place based on the bipartisan programs we passed back in May. We get this done, by the way—and what the country needs now.

If our colleagues across the aisle would do the same—frankly, if our colleagues across the aisle were even allowed—allowed—to take part in the discussions, what a difference it would make for our country. We did it in March. We could do it again, but both sides have to actually want it.
are acting as if we need to fix a leaky faucet.

Some of our Republican friends seem to be going through the motions, content to pass a bill—any bill so they can check a box and go home—but a bill that fails to meet the needs of America. We cannot do that. We cannot pass an inadequate bill and then go home while the virus continues to spread, the economy continues to deteriorate, and the country gets worse. No box checking will work. We need real action.

We need a relief package that actually rescues American families, American schools, and American businesses; that helps defeat this evil virus and prevents our economy from sliding into a depression. Democrats are going to keep fighting until we get there.

Republicans on both ends of Pennsylvania Avenue are not yet awake to the enormity of the challenge, and we see it across a whole range of issues.

For example, Democrats believe we have an obligation to help every American put food on the table. Our Republican friends start negotiating by saying they don’t think we need to do anything to help hungry families and children. Maybe they can compromise and help feed a small percentage. That is not going to cut it. Let’s say 1 million families can’t feed their kids. The Republican bill has zero, and we cover all 1 million. To say “Let’s compromise and eat half of them” is cruel and not going to solve the problem.

We want to see all our schools reopen in the fall, but they need the resources and guidance to do it safely—not 25 percent of the resources, not half. Schools need funding for masks and PPE, for converting space into more socially distant classrooms, for updating their ventilating systems. Some need to double the number of buses to keep from packing kids together on the morning route to school. It is going to cost money, and the Republicans have to understand that. Parents must have confidence that if their school is going to reopen, it has the protocols and infrastructure in place to keep their children safe.

It is the same with unemployment. Over 50 million Americans have filed for unemployment with millions more filing new claims each week. We proposed extending the enhanced unemployment benefits in the CARES Act through the end of the year. The policy has kept as many as 12 million Americans out of poverty and boosted consumer spending—one of the few bright spots in our economy. But Republicans are intent on slashing these benefits or allowing them to expire long before the crisis is over. One Republican proposal would give newly out-of-work Americans a 30-percent pay cut; another would give them a 33-percent pay cut.

The Trump administration’s own Department of Labor warned us that these proposals, which would pay a percentage of a worker’s former wage, are patently unworkable. It will take weeks and months if we adopt the Republican proposal before any checks wind up in the hands of millions of Americans, and our State unemployment offices that administer this program agree.

So Republicans need to step up to the plate and work with us to find a solution that shields millions of jobless Americans from further economic hardship. State, local, and Tribal governments have a devilish virus on their frontlines with budgets strained. They are at risk of shedding teachers, firefighters, bus drivers, sanitation workers, slashing public services.

My good friend Senator CARPER is leading a group of Democratic Senators to talk about these issues today because Senate Republicans and the White House do not believe in giving support to our State and local governments. That is not an abstract concept. Again, these are firefighters and teachers, people who are helping our healthcare workers. We don’t care if they are a blue State or red State; they need the help.

We must also address our elections and make sure that Americans can safely cast their ballots in the face of the new challenges of coronavirus for the first time in a national election. That means they need to be able to vote in person and by mail, whichever they choose. Adequate funding for State and local election offices should not be a partisan issue. This is about preserving elections, making them fair, making every ballot count. That is the wellspring of our democracy, and it is COVID-related, and our Republican friends are resisting.

We are still fighting to get enough funding for testing and contact tracing. It is extraordinarily frustrating that 7 months into this crisis Democrats still have to argue with our Republican friends about delivering corona virus testing to the American people. Those very same Republicans gleefully voted to give a $1.5 trillion tax cut to help giant corporations pad their profit margins, but helping Americans put food on the table, go back to school safely, keep a roof over their heads, and survive a global pandemic—that is a bridge too far. How out of touch can they be?

These folks cannot be allowed to dictate our policy. By their own admission, they will not vote for anything. Remember that when Leader MCCONNELL claims that Senate Democrats are acting as if we need to fix a leaky roof in the post office that Democrats don’t want to vote for anything. Those Republicans, who seem to be the ones blocking it. He can engage in Alice-in-Wonderland style, get up on the floor and say that Democrats are blocking the CARES Act, when in fact, our Republican colleagues, inch by inch, have admitted not once, not twice, not three times, but four times that there are as many as 20 Senate Republicans who will not vote for anything. That doesn’t come close to meeting the crisis head-on, they created the Great Depression—the Republicans did—under Hoover. Let’s hope our Republican friends see the light and won’t make that same mistake again.

Let me remind my Republican colleagues, when there is a crisis of this magnitude, the private sector cannot solve it. Individuals alone, even with courage and sacrifice, are not powerful enough to beat it back. Government is the only force large enough to staunch the bleeding and begin the healing of the Nation.

One of the main reasons holding things back—there are so many Republicans who seem to be holding the American people back—there are so many Republicans who don’t believe in giving government a role to play. Leader MCCONNELL has admitted not once, not twice, not three times, but four times that there are as many as 20 Senate Republicans who will not vote for anything, who will not vote for a relief package for the American people.

Those Republicans, who seem to be the tail that wags the dog—and it is a pretty big tail with over 20 votes—those Republicans don’t get it. We know you like the private sector over government, but there are times when there is nothing but government that can step up to the plate and solve the problem, and this is one of those times.

Faced with the greatest economic threat in 75 years, the greatest public health crisis in a century, more than a third of the Senate Republican majority will not vote for anything to help the American people. Those very same Republicans gleefully voted to give a $1.5 trillion tax cut to help giant corporations pad their profit margins, but helping Americans put food on the table, go back to school safely, keep a roof over their heads, and survive a global pandemic—that is a bridge too far. How out of touch can they be?

How out of touch can they be?

This week, our Republican colleagues have two choices. They can engage in the same kind of political theater that precluded the CARES Act. Leader MCCONNELL can schedule a show vote on legislation that even his own caucus will not support and, again, in his Alice-in-Wonderland style, set up on the floor and say that Democrats are blocking the CARES Act. He blocked us in the same partisan maneuvers that have resulted in failure and won’t answer the anguished cries of Americans.
As I said earlier—and I want to repeat it—the Republican leader is so tied in a knot by his own caucus and this President that one of his only options is to give Alice-in-Wonderland, partisan speeches and maybe force a sham vote that will not pass and will not answer the anguished cries for help from so many Americans.

On the other hand, Senate Republicans could roll up their sleeves, wake up to the crisis in our country, and figure out what they can support. I think that is what we are all ready for the Republican majority to figure out just what that is.

What is dictating our policy and our positions on the Democratic side is very simple: the national need—large, large, large. That is our North Star, and we are going to keep pressing forward with the hard work of negotiations, hopeful that we can get a deal done to help the country in a time of severe crisis.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois.

Mr. DURBIN. Madam President, I have a recommendation for my colleagues in the Senate. I recommend, as the Senator from New York does, that they go home—literally, leave Washington, go home, and meet up with the people who sent them to Washington to work for them.

I did last Friday, as I do every weekend. I asked specifically to meet with five individuals who are out of work. I wanted them to tell me their story and to share that story with the people of Chicago. It was quite a moving experience.

We have 800,000 Illinoisans who are claiming unemployment. Now there is a possibility that the $600 a week Federal benefit that was coming to them to help pay their bills will disappear. Technically, it ended last Friday.

So I asked these unemployed Illinoisans to tell me their story. Roushaunda Williams told me a story about her father, who I think the Palmer House Hilton before being laid off in March. She earned significantly more while working than she is receiving in unemployment. She is literally worried she is going to lose her home and healthcare if she loses that.

Andres Moreno worked at a restaurant in downtown Chicago before the pandemic. He was pretty proud of his career, working in the restaurant business. He did well. He and his husband have both lost their jobs and their health insurance. Without the additional $600 a week in unemployment compensation, they will not be able to even buy health coverage.

Aileen has ever been in this profession. For thousands of people. She works big events. They set up the son. She is in lighting technology. Her current job involves big events. They set up the scenes to tell me their story.

The Republicans seem to have forgotten what we were told that, incidentally, by the Trump administration when we established the $600-a-week payment. They told us back in March: Don’t make this too complicated. Make it simple, a flat dollar amount because these 50 States have computer systems that range in sophistication from primitive to the most modern, and they are not going to change these computer systems in time to help the people who are currently unemployed.

The Republicans seem to have forgotten what we were told by the Trump administration when we initially enacted the $600-a-week payment. That 70 percent payment for unemployment doesn’t work if the computers can’t make it work, and we are told it will take the Republicans from 2 months to 5 months for these computer systems to even try.

What is dictating our policy and our positions on the Democratic side is very simple: the national need—large, large, large. That is our North Star, and we are going to keep pressing forward with the hard work of negotiations, hopeful that we can get a deal done to help the country in a time of severe crisis.

I yield the floor.
household consumption by 50 percent more than White households. That is the reality.

Let me address two or three particulars raised by the Senator from Kentucky about the state of play as we try to negotiate a satisfactory conclusion to these negotiations. This past week marks the third month—the third month since Speaker Nancy Pelosi and the House Democrats passed a rescue package. For 3 months, their effort, called the Heroes Act, has been sitting on the desk of Senator McConnell. Initially, he said: I don’t feel a sense of urgency to address this issue. Then he went on to say: We haven’t spent all the money we appropriated the first round.

Whatever the reason, it wasn’t until 7 days ago that the Senate Republicans kind of made a proposal. The only thing we have seen specific in writing was their proposal for liability immunity, which I will address in a moment. The rest of the things were oddly presented in a legislative proposal, which would be brought to the floor of the Senate.

Imagine that? We have the White House and congressional leaders sitting down negotiating, and Senator McConnell’s principles will be brought to the floor to bring a bill to the floor. Well, if you follow the Senate, six or eight different bills to the floor, the first swipe is going through Republican majority committees. Second, how long is that going to take for us to debate and then negotiate between whatever we pass and what is pending in the Heroes Act? It makes no sense.

But I will tell you what makes even less sense. In the negotiations, these delicate and important life-changing negotiations that are taking place on Capitol Hill—these negotiations to determine what is next now that the $600 Federal payment has expired under unemployment, for example—in these negotiations, there are six chairs. One chair is occupied by the Chief of Staff to the President of the United States, Mark Meadows. Another chair is occupied by Secretary Mnuchin from the Department of the Treasury. The third chair is Speaker of the House, Nancy Pelosi. The fourth chair is Chuck Schumer, the Democratic leader of the U.S. Senate. But there are two empty chairs in this room for negotiations. Those two empty chairs should be occupied by Kevin McCarthy, the Republican leader of the House. He is not there. He doesn’t attend these negotiations. And the other, of course, should be occupied by Senator McConnell, the Republican leader of the Senate.

He has enough time to come to the floor each day and criticize the Democrats for not showing success in negotiations when the Republican leader in the Senate is boycotting the negotiation meetings. What will abb? I have been around here for awhile. I have never seen that before where one leader is intentionally staying away from the negotiations. I don’t see how that can end well.

Now, my colleague from Texas has come to the floor. I want to say a word about a proposal which he is promoting and is likely to speak to this morning before I turn the floor over to him.

Remember when Senator McConnell came to the floor in the last several months and said: I am drawing a red line. When it comes to any negotiations, this redline is liability immunity for corporations, and if you don’t accept my language on liability immunity, there will be no negotiations, and there will be no positive outcome—redline.

He made that speech over and over again as he warned us about the flood, the tsunami—“tsunami” was his word—the tsunami of lawsuits that are going to be filed by people, business, trial lawyers, these mischievous, frivolous lawsuits, over the issue of COVID-19. So we kept wondering, when are we going to get to see Senator McConnell’s liability immunity proposal? We waited week after week after week. Nothing. Just speeches on the floor. And then last Monday it was unveiled—a 65-page bill. We finally got to see what he was talking about. It is understandable why they held it back. It is the biggest giveaway to the biggest businesses in America in modern memory. This bill would literally override State laws that have been passed to deal with this issue of culpability and blame when it comes to the pandemic virus.

Twenty-eight States have already enacted laws to deal with it. This McConnell-Cornyn proposal would override those State laws. Sadly, their proposal would give incentives to cut corners when businesses deal with health and safety in the midst of this pandemic. This bill would jeopardize frontline workers and families, and, sadly, it would risk further spread of the virus.

Here is my top-10 list of what is wrong with this bill that is proposed on liability immunity.

First, the bill does nothing to protect workers, improve safety standards, or give businesses any incentive to take the proper precautions.

We had a hearing in the Judiciary Committee. I believe the senior Senator from Texas was at this hearing. A fellow representing a convenience store chain in Texas—his last name was Smartt—was the Republican witness. He told us how, in the hundreds of convenience stores he had in Texas, his company was literally doing everything they could think of to make the convenience stores longer than ever. That is the reality.

Let me address two or three particular carriers raised by the Senator from Kentucky about the state of play as we try to negotiate a satisfactory conclusion to these negotiations. This past week marks the third month—the third month since Speaker Nancy Pelosi and the House Democrats passed a rescue package. For 3 months, their effort, called the Heroes Act, has been sitting on the desk of Senator McConnell. Initially, he said: I don’t feel a sense of urgency to address this issue. He has enough time to come to the floor each day and criticize Speaker Pelosi’s measure that she passed 3 months ago, but he apparently doesn’t have time to attend negotiations which could result in a different and better Heroes Act. He is not there. He doesn’t attend these negotiations. And the other, of course, should be occupied by Senator McConnell, the Republican leader of the Senate.

work environment and the customer’s environment safe. He talked about social distancing and masks and sanitizers. They were doing everything they could. But his plea to us was: Senators, what is my standard of care? What is it that I am expected to achieve? If I know that, he said, I can move forward and meet that standard, and I am going to. I am committed to it.

Do you know what? I believed him. I believed his was a good-faith position. He said he wanted to know the standard—the public health standard—expected of him, and he would meet it.

I want to tell you, if somebody turned around and sued him afterwards because of that, I am convinced that there isn’t a jury in America—let alone in Texas—who would find him to be liable for negligence or recklessness. He did what he was asked to do. He followed the standards he was given. But his plea to us was: “Give me a standard, I don’t know where to turn.” That is what he told us.

The second concern I have with this bill is that it would gut existing State law safety standards. It would federally preempt the right of workers and victims to seek accountability for coronavirus-related harms and would supplant State laws that require businesses to act with reasonable care.

Under the bill, the only way a victim could hold a business liable is if the victim proves by clear and convincing evidence—a higher standard than most—both that the corporation didn’t even try to comply with the weakest available safety guideline and also—that the corporation was grossly negligent. I can just tell you, having spent a few years making a living as a lawyer, that those are almost impossible standards to meet.

Third, by setting an immunity threshold at ‘gross negligence,’ the bill would immunize corporations from accountability for conduct that meets the standards to prove negligence or recklessness under current State law. So you can get away with negligence; you can even get away with recklessness; but, boy, you just better not show gross negligence. That is what the bill says.

Fourth, the bill would enable corporations to be shielded from liability even if they make no effort—or no effort—to comply with the guidelines from the Centers for Disease Control, due to the way the bill treats nonmandatory guidelines. Why would Congress federally preempt State laws and then allow businesses to ignore the Federal CDC safety guidelines? Fifth, instead of establishing strong, clear, enforceable Federal safety standards by OSHA and CDC, the Republican bill would go the other direction and shield businesses from enforcement proceedings under Federal health and safety laws; in other words, specifically protecting businesses from being held accountable under existing health and safety laws, Federal bills, laws like the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, OSHA, and many, many more.

Sixth, my Republican colleagues say this bill is aimed only at frivolous coronavirus lawsuits, but the bill would wipe out legitimate claims by workers and victims. By forcing all COVID lawsuits to meet a higher standard of proof, heightened pleading requirements, other jurisdictional and other restrictive hurdles, the bill would make it nearly impossible for workers and victims to even file a claim, let alone prevail.

Seventh, the bill would upend the medical liability laws of all 50 States and impose 5 years of sweeping Federal preemption for nearly all healthcare liability cases, including for claims that are not related to COVID.

I went through this and read it over and over again because I used to deal with medical malpractice cases. I heard, on the floor, Senator McConnell and Senator Cornyn say: “We have to protect the doctors. We have to protect the people that have to protect the nurses.” That, of course, appeals to all of us because we feel such a debt of gratitude to the healthcare workers and what they are going through to protect us. So I took a look, and it turns out that they compiled the statistics on the number of medical malpractice cases filed in America, in the entire Nation, that mention coronavirus or COVID—19. Do you know how many medical malpractice cases have been filed during what they call a tsunami—a tsunami—of frivolous lawsuits against medical providers? How many do you think in the course of this year? Six. In the entire Nation of 50 States, 6 lawsuits—what a tsunami. The START Act goes further and says: You don’t have to prove that you were dealing with coronavirus to get this special treatment. You can say that the coronavirus had some impact on you as a medical practitioner.

Some impact. That is it? What does that mean? Coronavirus has had an impact on every single American. Some impact? It basically means that all medical malpractice suits are going to be put on hold for 4 or 5 years regardless of the circumstances, regardless of whether they had anything to do with COVID—19.

Eighth, the bill aims to solve a problem that does not exist. We are months into this epidemic, and there has been no tidal wave of worker or victim lawsuits that justifies this massive Federal preemption of State laws and grants of broad immunity. Out of 7 million cases that is a low-ball number—4.7 million Americans we think have been infected by COVID—19, there have been 6 COVID medical malpractice suits, 17 consumer personal injury suits, and 75 conditions-employment suits. Many of the lawsuits involving COVID—19 are between insurance companies: Does your policy cover, or does your policy cover?

Ninth, the bill is entirely one-sided in favor of corporations. Under the bill, corporations get immunity as defendants but can still bring COVID—related cases as plaintiffs. Only workers and infected victims have their rights cut off by this bill.

Finally, the bill even goes so far as to allow corporations and the Department of Justice to sue the workers for bringing claims for COVID infection. The liability immunity this bill would grant would last for 5—5 years. The fact that our Republican colleagues are proposing 5 years of immunity for corporations but only a handful of months of assistance for workers and families tells you their priorities.

This Republican corporate immunity proposal is not credible, and there are serious questions as to whether it is even constitutional. This is an area traditionally governed by State law. Twenty-eight States have adjusted their laws to address it during this pandemic. The Federal Government has deferred to the States on nearly every aspect of COVID—19 response—this President said: Leave it to your Governor. The.parliamentary expiration date from testing, to procuring PPE, to mask policies, to stay-at-home orders. There is no reason why the Federal Government now wants to step in at the expense of workers and at the expense of customers.

I urge my colleagues to oppose the Republican corporate immunity bill.

I yield the floor.
matter of whose expert witness you believe, and, of course, the chances are that you will be found responsible based upon that contested factual issue.

It is more likely, I believe, that these lawsuits will prove very little meritorious. The juries will be very skeptical of these lawsuits because they understand that this pandemic came out of nowhere. Actually, we know where it came from: China. But nobody was fully aware of all of the circumstances under which we would need to lead. We have had to adapt as time has gone on, and we have had different advice from the CDC and the national experts. For example, I remember— I went back and checked. The CDC didn’t recommend that we wear masks until roughly April. Before that, they were really considered ineffective. So if somebody files a lawsuit saying, well, you should have been wearing masks at your workplace, and because you didn’t do it, they can go to court. What is the timeframe in which that guidance would apply? Would it be retrospective to January, when the virus first broke out here in the United States, or would it be sort of based on lessons learned the road? Here is the real problem: My friend from Illinois knows that lawsuits are filed every day in America with no real expectation of ever trying the case in front of a jury—or a judge, for that matter. So it is all known; we all know: with the economy shut down, destroy small businesses that have been holding on by a thread, and, frankly, punish people who had no choice but to show up for work.

If, mean, if you are a physician or a nurse, you didn’t have any option but to show up for work. You knew you had to do it in order to do your job, in order to pursue your profession. Are we then going to subject them to litigation—opportunistic litigation—for negligence claims, it actually incentivizes people to follow those guidelines can be enough in and of themselves to deter people from reopening their business.

Frequently, what happens—there is a phenomenon known as nuance settlements, where defendants calculate, how much is this going to cost me to defend, and I will go ahead and pay that money now in order to avoid the further vexation of a lawsuit. And that is the seed money used to file the next lawsuit, and the next lawsuit, and the next lawsuit. I think we can reasonably expect that there will be a lot of class-action lawsuits.

The goal here is not to provide blanket immunity; the goal is to do what we did after the Y2K phenomenon, when we questioned whether our computers would actually register the date 2000, and whether or not the change in financial markets and the like would occur. This is hopefully the least of things that happened after 9/11, too, to provide some stability, some certainty, to very chaotic and challenging times.

So we know that, in addition to the public health fight, we are trying to re-open—economy safely. Mothers and fathers and teachers and school officials are thinking about how can our children resume their education, whether online or in person, but safety, obviously, is the most important point.

The fact is, we had one of the best economies in my lifetime before this virus hit in January, and now we are in a recession. The question is, Are we going to recover, rebound from this now that we have learned how to treat people with the COVID–19 virus better to save more lives, to prevent them from going on ventilators and the like? And, as we are in a race to come up with better treatments and, hopefully, a vaccine—the gold standard, I believe, in terms of our learning to live with this virus—what is going to happen to the economy? What is going to happen to the jobs that used to be there but which no longer exist because of the recession we are in?

The threat of this second pandemic of litigation—opportunistic litigation—will be a body blow to an economy that wants to reopen, to people who want to go back to work safely, to children who want to go back to school, to parents who want to have a daycare facility watch their children in a safe environment while they go back to work.

One of the things we have talked about is the impact of the virus of workers. Well, I think all work is essential. It is important. It is important to our personal well-being, it is important to our economy, and it is important to the families who depend on the wage earner to bring home a paycheck so that they can put food on the table and pay the rent.

I believe that this second pandemic of COVID–19 litigation—as I said, there is ordinarily a 2-year, I believe, statute of limitations. We shut our entire economy down, destroy small businesses that have been holding on by a thread, and, frankly, punish people who had no choice but to show up for work.

I mean, if you are a physician or a nurse, you didn’t have any option but to show up for work. You knew you had to do it in order to do your job, in order to pursue your profession. Are we then going to subject them to litigation—opportunistic litigation—for negligence claims, it actually incentivizes people to follow those guidelines. Isn’t that what we want to do? Isn’t that what we want our schools, our daycare centers, our nonprofits, our retail businesses—don’t we want them to comply with those public health guidelines?

Well, this is one way to reward them and incentivize them to do exactly that. I know we are still a long way away from a negotiated resolution of the things that separate us here on this next COVID–19 bill, but I agree with the majority leader that this is an essential ingredient in that next bill. I will join the amendment to the CARES Act. Clearly, the Texas economy was booming, along with the rest of America’s economy. Businesses have flocked to Texas, creating new jobs and attracting top talent from around the country. People are literally voting with their feet and moving to Texas. They have an opportunity to work, to pursue their dreams.

We began the year with a 3.5 percent unemployment rate in Texas—3.5 percent, just one-tenth of a percent above the historic low set last summer. But as the pandemic began its deadly sweep across the country, everything changed. Texas businesses, as were required, closed their doors to stop the spread of the virus of workers were suddenly without a paycheck.

We didn’t know when our economy would begin to recover, when we would reopen to a point where those who were laid off could safely return to work. And we knew State unemployment benefits alone were not sufficient to bridge the gap. That is why, when we passed the CARES Act late in March, we didn’t just enhance the unemployment compensation program. The CARES Act gave direct deposit to the bank account of all adults earning less than $75,000 a year. We sent them $1,200 to tide them over, to give them a lifeline, which I think was very, very important because, even if you are out of work, you can’t get unemployment benefits instantaneously, and we know that a lot of the workforce commissions like those we have in Texas that administer the unemployment compensation program are overwhelmed with applications. So it was important that we provide that direct relief and then the enhanced unemployment benefit.

Well, in Texas, the average unemployment benefit is $296 a week. With an additional $600 a week, which we added as part of the CARES Act, that amount more than tripled. Since March, more than 3 million Texans have filed for unemployment benefits, and recipients have taken advantage of the bolstered benefits, which I supported as part of the CARES Act.

This additional income, provided on a temporary basis, has helped families cover their rent, their groceries, and other critical expenses until they are able to return to work, and, for many workers, this was crucial to save them from going under, to save their families who depend on the wage earner to bring home a paycheck.

When the CARES Act passed in March, we were all hopeful that the economic outlook at this point would be much brighter than it is today, and that is why these benefits came with an expiration date of July 31, last Friday. We had hoped that our economy would be rebounding and we would be in better shape controlling and defeating this virus and that more businesses would be able to reopen their doors or create new jobs, which obviously has not happened as quickly as we would have liked.

In Texas, our unemployment rate went from 3.5 percent to 13.5 percent in April, a 10-point increase in unemployment. We have made progress since then, thankfully, with it dropping now down to 10 percent—still a historically high level of unemployment, but it is moving in the right direction.

While this is encouraging, we still have a long way to go, and we cannot allow those impacted to go another day without the income that they need to support their families. As Republicans and Democrats continue to work together toward an agreement on the next coronavirus response package, these individuals are being sacrificed unnecessarily. I think that is a mistake. Paying people previously employed—80 percent. I think that is a mistake. Paying people previously employed, 80 percent. I think that is a mistake. Paying people previously employed, 80 percent.

Why did Democrats block our attempt to extend unemployment benefits last week? Is it because they don’t care about the people who are hurting, who are out of work?

Our colleague from Arizona, Senator McSALLY, offered a bill last week to extend these benefits for an additional week so that we could continue negotiating, but the minority leader, the Democratic leader, Senator SCHUMER, blocked it. He prevented us from passing the simple, 1-week extension to give us some time to complete our negotiations and make sure that people who needed that money would not be hurt.

I am embarrassed that the Senate could not overcome this partisan dysfunction in order to provide this extended benefit to people who need it while we do our job here. There is no excuse for allowing this provision to expire without even a temporary measure until a final decision is reached.

Even though we are coming up on the traditional August recess, I believe we need to do more work so that an agreement is reached to provide these workers with the support they need. Of course, there is a delicate balance between helping these workers and standing in the way of an economic recovery.

Here is the twist: Over the last few months, I have been hearing from a number of business owners in Texas who are struggling to rehire their employees. This—get this—they are actually making more from unemployment than they made while working, and this is not just a one-off or an isolated issue.

According to the Texas Workforce Commission, with the $600 Federal benefit on top of the State benefit, 80 percent of the recipients of unemployment insurance were making more money on unemployment than they were when previously employed—80 percent. I think that is a mistake. Paying people more not to work than they would make taking available work makes no sense whatsoever.

Now, obviously, if there is not a job for people to take, then they should continue to get unemployment benefits, but if there is a job, then I think the incentive should be to encourage them to safely return to work, not to pay them more to stay at home.

The bill proposed by House Democrats would extend the $600 Federal benefit through next January, providing even less of an incentive for workers to safely reenter the workforce. This is just one of the countless places where the Democrats’ $3 trillion Heroes Act fails to deliver the relief our country actually needs. This is $3 trillion on top of the roughly $3 trillion that we have already spent.

Rather than helping Americans get back to work, the Heroes Act passed by the House includes a long list of liberal priorities, things like environmental justice grants—what in the heck does that have to do with COVID–19?—soil health studies, one but two subsidies for diversity and inclusion in the cannabis industry—hardly anything to do with COVID–19.

What is more, our colleagues across the aisle who would have tax cuts for the rich, well, they want to allow millionaires and billionaires in blue States to pay less in taxes. They want a tax cut for the millionaires and billionaires in their States by eliminating the cap on the deductibility of State and local taxes.

For too long, people in my State and other parts of the country have had to subsidize the big-spending blue States by allowing them to deduct all of their State and local taxes. That means you and I have to pay to subsidize those high-tax jurisdictions like New York City, for example.

Well, in addition, the Heroes Act deepens the hiring struggle businesses are already facing, and it rapidly digs our Nation deeper and deeper into debt. It is so unpopular, even among our Democratic colleagues, that it barely managed to pass the House in May. And now, Senator from Wyoming, who is here in the Chamber, who pointed out some of the quotes from the New York Times and others at the time.

Here is what the New York Times said: “Even though the bill was more of a messaging document than a viable piece of legislation, its fate was in doubt in the final hours before its passage.”

National Public Radio, hardly a bastion of conservative news, said: “The more than 1,800-page bill marks a long wish list for Democrats.”

If this bill were to become law, Texans’ tax dollars wouldn’t be supporting our response, the additional funding would be funding a range of completely unrelated liberal pet projects.

Speaker PELOSI knew the Heroes Act didn’t have a chance of passing in the U.S. Senate. She never intended for that bill to pass in the Senate. It was all about messaging and posturing and trying to manage the radicals in the Democratic caucus in the House.

These unwanted, unaffordable, and, frankly, laughable proposals are not the types of solutions America needs to recover from this crisis, especially when it comes to rebuilding our economy.

In the next relief bill, Congress must include additional unemployment benefits to help those who, through no fault of their own, are out of work, but we can’t deny common sense and continue paying some people more to stay home than to return to the workforce. Our long-term economic recovery will depend on people safely returning to the workforce, and Congress cannot stand in the way.

In addition to supporting workers until they are able to return to work, we also need to ensure that they will have a job to go back to.

Madam President, I ask unanimous consent to proceed for 5 more minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. CORNYN. Madam President, I thank my colleague for his indulgence.

One of the things we need to do is make sure that the Paycheck Protection Program is replenished as well. This is the most successful part of our coronavirus response—more than $670 billion appropriated to help small businesses maintain their payroll, to keep their employees on the payroll.

More than 400,000 small businesses in Texas have received these loans, bringing in over $41 billion to the Lone Star State. This money has kept countless Texans on the payroll for today but into the future. I hope we will continue the Paycheck Protection Program as part of the next COVID–19 response.

There is another provision that we need to address, though, and that has to do with the deductibility of the expenses of businesses that have received Paycheck Protection Program loans and grants. Unfortunately, while Congress made clear that we expected businesses that received these loans and grants to have the benefit of the ordinary business expenses, the Internal Revenue Service has said just the opposite.

The Joint Tax Committee that scores bills—tax bills—has said that a bill we have now introduced that would allow that deductibility to make that very clear has a zero score because they understood that Congress intended to allow those deductions in the first place.

We have two choices to help small businesses: We can write them another check, or we can allow them to deduct their ordinary business expenses. This would provide some more liquidity and put businesses struggling to make it nothing in terms of the score on the bill. It has bipartisan support that I believe merits our consideration.

In conclusion, we need to do everything we can to support the workers and families struggling to make it through this economic downturn, while simultaneously securing the foundation for a strong economic recovery.
The stakes are high, and I believe the Senate must stay in session until we are able to deliver the relief our country needs.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Wyoming.

Mr. BARRASSO. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that I be able to complete my remarks prior to the scheduled vote.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BARRASSO. Madam President, I want to start by addressing a few of the things that the minority leader, Senator SCHUMER, discussed this morning.

Last week, Senator SCHUMER twice—twice—blocked an extension to the Federal unemployment bonus payments. Twice, the Democratic leader threw his hands up, and he said no. He said: Democrats will not support an extension of these benefits—he said—at any level. Why? He said why. He said he wants Republicans to pass his leader’s bill. His leader is NANCY PELOSI. It is partisan, and it is loaded.

Senator SCHUMER likes to talk about some of the things in the Speaker’s bill, but he carefully avoids much of it because one-third of the spending is completely unrelated to coronavirus—a full one-third.

Senator SCHUMER says we remain far apart. He said that the difference is between “priorities and scale.” Priorities and scale. Well, let’s look at some of the priorities in the bill that he supports: the paycheck protection—checks to illegal immigrants; taxpayer-funded abortions; changes to election laws—permanent; tax breaks for the wealthy in New York and in California; millions and millions more for environmental justice, the National Endowment for the Arts, it is a long, long list.

The minority leader’s statement was full of metaphors and analogies this morning, but he had very little, if any, substance.

The votes we had last week were not what he said—"sham votes": they were real votes that would have extended real money to real people all over the country. The answer by Senate Democrats, according to their Senate Democratic leader, is a larger Federal Government. That is what they are proposing.

The minority leader used the analogy of a leaky faucet. He said that we have to take care of the flood, but he never mentioned actually fixing the faucet. Their bill does exactly that—never gets to fixing the problem; it just gives Americans a larger government.

The Republican plan provides 10 times more for vaccine development and 10 times more for what the Democrats passed in the House. It actually gets at beating the virus. The Democrats say they are rescuing schools and small businesses, but their bill actually zeroes out the Paycheck Protection Program and provides less money for schools.

As for understanding the needs of the country, Senate Republicans have passed, in a bipartisan way, $3 trillion in relief, and half of that is still unspent.

On the State and local government side, it is ironic to hear the minority leader mention all of his preferred public service spending in that discussion did he mention police officers. That is because the platform of the Democrats now really is to defund the police. And this is at a time when the murder rate in his own hometown—New York City—is at a record level.

I come to the floor to discuss the reckless spending and the partisan obstruction by the Democratic Party. It is the path they have chosen to deal with coronavirus. It is the Speaker’s $3 trillion runaway spending spree. Speaker PELOSI says it is her way or the highway, and the Senate Democratic leader, her deputy, CHUCK SCHUMER, has been 100 percent behind her political stunt.

At the same time, the Democrats are ignoring what the American people tell us they want and need. They want to resume their lives. People want to resume their lives safely and sensibly, and to do so, they need a safe environment; they need a safe, effective vaccine; they need their jobs back; and they need their kids in school.

Republicans are doing everything we can to provide this.

At this time of soaring national debt, we must make sure that every penny we spend is focused on the disease and the recovery. Congress has already approved nearly $3 trillion in combined coronavirus aid. When the Senate passed the bipartisan CARES Act, it was the largest rescue package in U.S. history. Over $1 trillion of the relief money still has not been spent, and at the same time, millions of people who lost their jobs in lockdowns remain out of work. Schools and small businesses face challenges as well.

Congress needs to act, and we need to act now. We want to support people who are most in need and to do it in a way that encourages, not discourages, work.

According to the University of Chicago study, two out of three unemployed people are currently making more at home than they would at work. That is due to this $600-per-week bonus payment. It is not common sense.

Last week, when Republicans offered a sensible compromise, Democrats rejected it out of hand. They want to continue paying people more to stay home than they would make at work. Democratic leaders are holding the unemployed hostage—as they say, leverage—in their negotiations with the White House. Once again, the Democrats are putting politics above people, slowing the economic recovery, and destroying millions of jobs in the process.

Senate Republicans, meanwhile, introduced serious relief legislation. The Republican legislation is targeted, tailored to the emergency. Our bill provides resources for healthcare for kids and for jobs. We safely reopen schools. We fund testing, treatment, and vaccines. We provide liability protection. We shield the medical community, K–12 schools, and small businesses from frivolous coronavirus lawsuits. We already see greedy trial lawyers trying to profit from the Nation’s pain. Over 4,000 lawsuits have already been filed. An avalanche of abusive coronavirus lawsuits will flatten and flatten the economy as it just tries to awaken.

We continue to put the health, safety, and well-being of the American public first. We are doing everything we can to defeat the virus, and we contrast our serious efforts with Speaker PELOSI’s pricey, partisan pipe dream. If enacted, her so-called Heroes Act would be a huge waste of taxpayer money—the largest waste of taxpayer money in U.S. history. In fact, her bill costs more than all previous coronavirus legislation combined. It may be her dream; it would be a nightmare for the American public.

We can go through the things that are in the Democrats’ wish list, and anything I would say here would just be the tip of the iceberg. Let me remind you what POLITICO reported when the bill passed the House. It said: It is a Democratic wish list filled with all the parties’ favorite policies.

National Public Radio said the bill marks a long wish list for Democrats. The New York Times said the bill was more a messaging document than a viable piece of legislation.

Government doesn’t have a spending problem so much as an overspending problem. It is on full display right now as the Democrats promote runaway spending—spending that is unrelated to the challenge before us. Speaker PELOSI is wasting our Nation’s time on a far-left fantasy that does not have a single chance in the world of becoming law.

Let me be clear. Republicans will hold the line on reckless spending. We need to keep the nation’s bill no more than $1 trillion, and we need to ensure that the bill only includes things directly related to the coronavirus.

I am ready to act now. It is essential we get this right. And for the good of the country, this wild, willful, wasteful spending by the Democrats has to stop.

I yield the floor.

I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the question is, Will the Senate advise and consent to the Menezes nomination? Is there a sufficient second? There appears to be a sufficient second.

The clerk will call the roll.

THE CLERK. The bill clerk called the roll.

Mr. THUNE. The following Senator is not currently absent: Senator from North Carolina (Mr. TILLIS).

Mr. DURBIN. I announce that the Senator from Maryland (Mr. CARDIN), the Senator from Vermont (Mr. LEAHY), the Senator from Vermont (Mr. SANDERS), and the Senator from Virginia (Mr. WARNER) are necessarily absent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. CRUZ).—Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 79, nays 16, as follows:

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. MORAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to legislative session for a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 10 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MORAN. I ask unanimous consent that Senator BLUMENTHAL, Senator COLLINS, and I be able to complete our remarks before the recess.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

EMPOWERING OLYMPIC AND AMATEUR ATHLETES ACT OF 2019

Mr. MORAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of Calendar No. 503, S. 2330.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill by title. The bill clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 2330) to amend the Ted Stevens Olympic and Amateur Sports Act to provide for congressional oversight of the board of directors of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee and to protect amateur athletes from emotional, physical, and sexual abuse, and for other purposes.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill, which had been reported from the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, an amendment to strike all after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE. This Act may be cited as the “Empowering Olympic and Amateur Athletes Act of 2019”.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The courageous voice of survivors is a call to action to end emotional, physical, and sexual abuse in the Olympic and Paralympic movement.

(2) Larry Nassar, the former national team doctor for USA Gymnastics, sexually abused over 300 females during decades because of ineffective oversight by USA Gymnastics and the United States Olympic Committee.

(3) While the case of Larry Nassar is unprecedented in scale, the case is hardly the only recent incident of sexual abuse in amateur sports.

(4) Survivors of Larry Nassar’s abuse and all survivors of the Olympic and Paralympic movement deserve justice and redress for the wrongs the survivors have suffered.

(5) After a comprehensive congressional investigation, including interviews and statements from survivors, former and current organization officials, law enforcement, and advocates, Congress found that the United States Olympic Committee and USA Gymnastics fundamentally failed to uphold their existing statutory purposes and duty to protect amateur athletes from sexual, emotional, or physical abuse.

(6) USA Gymnastics and the United States Olympic Committee knowingly concealed abuse by Larry Nassar, leading to the abuse of dozens of additional amateur athletes during the period beginning in the summer of 2015 and ending in September 2016.

(7) Ending abuse in the Olympic and Paralympic movement requires enhanced oversight to ensure that the Olympic and Paralympic movement does more to serve athletes and protect their voice and safety.

SEC. 3. UNITED STATES OLYMPIC AND PARALYMPIC COMMITTEE.

(a) In general.—Chapter 2205 of title 36, United States Code, is amended—

(a) In general.—Chapter 2205 of title 36, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by redesignating the second subsection designated as subparagraphs (a) and (b) to be chapter VI of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee (as added by section 202 of the Protecting Young Victims from Sexual Abuse and Safe Sport Authorization Act of 2017, Public Law 115–126, 132 Stat. 320) as subchapter IV; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“SUBCHAPTER V—DISSOLUTION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF CORPORATION AND TERMINATION OF RECOGNITION OF NATIONAL GOVERNMENTAL BODIES

§220551. Definitions

“In this subchapter, the term ‘joint resolution’ means a joint resolution—

(I) which does not have a preamble; and

(II) for which—

(A)(i) the title is only as follows: ‘A joint resolution to dissolve the board of directors of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee’; and

(B)(i) the title is only as follows: ‘A joint resolution to dissolve the board of directors of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee’; and

(II) the matter after the resolving clause is

(I) as follows: ‘That Congress finds that dissolving the board of directors of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee would not unduly interfere with the operations of chapter 2205 of title 36, United States Code’; and

(II) prescribes adequate procedures for forming a board of directors of the corporation with all reasonable expediency and in a manner that safeguards the voting power of the representatives of amateur athletes at all times; or

(B)(i) the title is only as follows: ‘A joint resolution relating to termination of recognition of a national governing body’; and

(ii) the matter after the resolving clause is

(I) as follows: ‘That Congress determines that...’ which is recognized as a national governing body under section 220521 of title 36, United States Code, has failed to fulfill its duties, as described in section 220524 of title 36, United States Code, the National Governing Body being filled in with the name of the applicable national governing body.

§220552. Dissolution of board of directors of corporation and termination of recognition of national governing bodies

(a) Dissolution of board of directors of corporation.—Effective on the date of enactment of a joint resolution described in section 220551(2)(A) with respect to the board of directors of the corporation, such board of directors shall be dissolved.

(b) Termination of recognition of national governing body.—Effective on the date of enactment of a joint resolution described in section 220551(2)(B) with respect to a national governing body, the recognition of the applicable amateur sports organization as a national governing body shall cease to have force or effect.

§220553. Joint resolution

(a) Referral and reporting.—

(1) House of Representatives.—

(A) In general.—In the House of Representatives, a joint resolution shall be referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce;

(B) In Senate.—The Committee on Energy and Commerce shall be discharged from further consideration of a joint resolution and the joint resolution shall be referred to the appropriate calendar on the date on which not less than three-fifths of the Members of the House of Representatives, duly chosen and sworn, are listed as cosponsors of the joint resolution.

"(C) LIMITATION ON CONSIDERATION.—Except as provided in subsection (e)(1), it shall not be in order in the House of Representatives to consider a joint resolution unless—

(i) the joint resolution is reported by the Committee on Energy and Commerce; or

(ii) the Committee on Energy and Commerce is designated further consideration of the joint resolution under subparagraph (B).

"(2) SENATE.—

"(A) GENERAL.—In the Senate, a joint resolution shall be referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

"(B) DISCHARGE.—The Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation shall be discharged from further consideration of the joint resolution and the joint resolution shall be referred to the appropriate calendar on the date on which not less than three-fifths of the Members of the Senate, duly chosen and sworn, are listed as cosponsors of the joint resolution.

"(C) LIMITATION ON CONSIDERATION.—Except as provided in subsection (e)(1), it shall not be in order for the Senate to consider a joint resolution unless—

(i) the joint resolution is reported by the Committee on Energy and Commerce; or

(ii) the joint resolution is reported by the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and is discharged from further consideration of the joint resolution under subparagraph (B).

"(D) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—

"(1) PROCEEDING TO CONSIDERATION.—After the Committee on Energy and Commerce reports a joint resolution to the House of Representatives, it shall be in order in the House of Representatives to proceed to consideration of the joint resolution under subsection (a)(1)(B), it shall be in order to move to consider the joint resolution in the House of Representatives. All points of order against the motion are waived. Such a motion shall not be in order after the House of Representatives has disposed of a motion to proceed on a joint resolution. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the motion on its adoption without intervening motion. The motion is highly privileged in the House of Representatives and is not debatable. The motion to recommit is in order against this vote by which the motion is disposed of shall not be in order.

"(2) CONSIDERATION.—A joint resolution shall be considered in order. All points of order against the joint resolution and against its consideration are waived. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to its final passage without intervening motion except 2 hours of debate equally divided and controlled by the proponent and the opponent. A motion to reconsider the vote on passage of the joint resolution is in order and shall not be in order.

"(E) EXPEDITED PROCEDURE IN SENATE.—

"(1) MOTION TO PROCEED.—Notwithstanding the provisions of the Standing Rules of the Senate, after the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation reports a joint resolution to the Senate or has been discharged from its consideration in accordance with subsection (a)(1)(B), it shall be in order for any Member of the Senate to move to proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution. A motion to proceed is in order even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to. The motion to proceed is not debatable. The motion is not subject to a motion to postpone. A motion to reconsider the vote on passage of such a motion is in order and not disallowed shall not be in order. If a motion to proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution is agreed to, the joint resolution shall remain in the Senate until adjournment of the Senate.

"(2) CONSIDERATION.—Consideration of a joint resolution, and on all debatable motions and apostas in connection therewith, shall be limited to not more than 10 hours, which shall be divided equally between the Majority and Minority Leaders or their designees. A motion further to postpone, a motion to proceed to the consideration of other business, or a motion to recommit the joint resolution is not in order. Any debatable motions made for not to exceed 1 hour, to be divided equally between those favoring and those opposing the motion. All time used for consideration of the joint resolution, including for quorum calls and voting, shall be counted against the total 10 hours of consideration.

"(3) VOTE ON PASSAGE.—If the Senate has voted to proceed to a joint resolution, the vote on the passage of the joint resolution shall occur immediately following the conclusion of consideration of the joint resolution, and a single vote on passage of the joint resolution shall be required in accordance with the rules of the Senate.

"(4) RULES OF THE CHAIR ON PROCEDURE.—Apart from the application of the rules of the Senate to the procedure relating to a joint resolution shall be decided without debate.

"(d) AMENDMENTS TO JOINT RESOLUTIONS.—A joint resolution shall not be subject to amendment in either the House of Representatives or the Senate.

"(e) RULES TO COORDINATE ACTION WITH OTHER HOUSE.—

"(1) TREATMENT OF JOINT RESOLUTION OF OTHER HOUSE.—

"(A) GENERAL.—If the Senate or House of Representatives fails to introduce or consider a joint resolution under this section, the joint resolution of the other House—

(i) shall be entitled to expedited floor procedures described under this section; and

(ii) may be referred in the receiving chamber or may be held at the desk.

"(B) POTENTIAL REFERRAL.—If a joint resolution referred to the committee under subparagraph (A)(ii) is cosponsored by not less than three-fifths of the Members of the originating House, duly chosen and sworn, the committee shall report the joint resolution not later than 20 days after the date on which the joint resolution is referred to the committee.

"(2) VETOES.—If the President vetoes a joint resolution or a joint resolution under this section shall be 1 hour equally divided between the Majority and Minority leaders or their designees.

"(f) RULEMAKING FUNCTION.—This section is added by Congress—

"(1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, and as it is deemed a part of the rules of each House in the case of a joint resolution, and it supersedes other rules only to the extent that it is inconsistent with such rules; and

"(2) with full recognition of the constitutional right of either House to change the rules (so far as relating to the House) at any time, in the same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of that House.

their lives to earn their spot on the world stage representing the United States at the Olympics. Standing on that podium, they should be proud of their hard work that earned them that place, the honor of wearing our flag’s colors at the Games. But no athlete—whether an amateur athlete or an Olympian, should have to endure abuse and mistreatment to pursue the sport they love.

Were it not for the pandemic, hundreds of our athletes would have been in Tokyo right now representing the United States of America at the Olympics. Even though our athletes are unable to compete today, we owe it to them to create for future athletes and future competitors a safe place in which to compete.

Today’s passage of S. 2330 marks a step toward providing effective safeguards and protection to Olympic, Paralympic, and amateur athletes across the Nation. Was it not for the tireless work of Senator BLUMENTHAL and his staff. Serving as the jurisdictional chairman of the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee, for his continued support of legislation resulting therefrom that he authored, I am here with profound gratitude and pride—first of all, gratitude to Senator MORAN for his leadership, his vision, and may there never be one in the first place.

The bipartisan effort of Senator BLUMENTHAL and I culminated in production of a comprehensive investigative report which is this document here. It also resulted in S. 2330, the Empowering Olympic, Paralympic, and Amateur Athletes Act, the bill we are on today.

This legislation is intended to strengthen legal liabilities and accountability mechanisms in the governance structure of the Olympics organizations, restore a culture that puts athletes first through clear procedures and reporting requirements, and fortify the independence and capabilities of the U.S. Center for SafeSport through dependable funding and oversight.

During the November 13, 2019, mark-up of this legislation, the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee provided thoughtful input through amendments to strengthen this legislation. As such, I take this moment to thank my colleagues—Senator CANTWELL, Senator PETERS, Senator GRASSLEY, and Senator THUNE—for their efforts in improving this bill. Additionally, if I may, I would like to thank my colleagues in the House of Representatives for their hard work that earned them that place in the position that we are in today.

I specifically thank Senator LEE for his input in the markup and his continued contribution to the legislation to improve the processes governed by the bill. Additionally, if I may, I would like to thank my colleagues in the House of Representatives for their hard work that earned them that place in the position that we are in today.

I would be remiss not to thank Senator BENNET, the chairman of the full committee, for his continued support as the jurisdictional chairman of the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee from the early stages of this effort, and the support of his predecessor, Senator THUNE, then the chairman of the Commerce Committee, who was fundamental in this effort gaining the momentum it needed to get us to the point we are at now.

Finally, this entire effort would not have been possible if not for the tireless and thorough work of Senator BLUMENTHAL and his staff. Serving as chairman and ranking member of the Commerce subcommittee has allowed us to work on a number of important issues and legislative items together, but I can honestly say this effort could very well be one of the most important bipartisan efforts and pieces of legislation resulting therefrom that we have been a part of as a U.S. Senator. I thank Senator BLUMENTHAL for his tireless efforts, with me since it was spoken. Not only do we condemn the abuse, but we condemn those who allowed it to continue, who failed in their responsibilities as human beings as well as in their professional capacities to care for and protect these young men and women.

Most importantly, if there is anyone who deserves thanks and gratitude, it is the athletes and survivors for their exceptional bravery—the bravery they demonstrated through their willingness to share their stories, to tell what happened to them, to talk to us and to the rest of the world. This legislation and the prior investigation are only possible because of the hundreds of courageous and selfless survivors who spoke out against abuse, shared their stories, and offered input on how we can create change to make certain all future athletes can participate in the sports they love without fear of abuse.

I especially want to recognize the athletes who we worked with and who shared their circumstances with us during our committee hearings and in a number of meetings and phone calls over 2½ years: Jordyn Wieber, Jamie Dantzscher, Aly Raisman, McKayla Maroney, Maggie Nichols, Rachael Denhollander, Jeanette Antolin, Emily Goetz, Jessica Howard, Sarah Klein, Kaylee Lorincz, Morgan McCaul, Hannah Morrow, Bridie Farrell, and Craig Maurizi.

We told these survivors that while powerful institutions had failed them in the past, we—our subcommittee, the committee, and the Senate—were not going to. I would also like to thank the staff and individuals who have advocated for our athletes.

On my staff: George Redden, Matthew Beccio, Tom Bush, Mark Crowley, Conor McGrath, Morgan Said, Trent Kennedy, Angela Lingg, Miranda Moore, and Thomas Brandt.

On Senator WICKER’s staff: Olivia Trusty, Chapin Gregory, Tyler Levins, Crystal Tully, and John Keast.

On Senator THUNE’s staff: Peter Feldman, Jason Van Beek, and Nick Rossi.

Despite the Olympics being postponed, and everything that is going on around the world today, I am grateful that we were able to deliver good news and take this step today. We are not done. We intend to keep that promise and get this bill across the finish line. We now will continue to work with our colleagues in the House of Representatives and the White House to ensure the timely consideration and enactment of the Empowering Olympic, Paralympic, and Amateur Athletes Act of 2020. One is too many, but why was there ever more than one? May we never have to ask that question again and may there never be one in the first place.

I yield to the ranking member, the Senator from Connecticut.

Mr. BLUMENTHAL. Mr. President, I am here with profound gratitude and pride—first of all, gratitude to Senator MORAN for his leadership, his vision, and may there never be one in the first place.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Connecticut.

Mr. BLUMENTHAL. Mr. President,
He stayed with it, and he demonstrated the spirit of bipartisanship that I think will enable us, as partners, to achieve more but also perhaps to reflect a model that this body may take in the future, even as we go through one of the most difficult periods in the history of our country.

I hope that the work that we have done on this bill, which affects real lives and real people who suffered such grievous harm—and I will begin where he ended and say that the heroes here are really the athletes and survivors.

As extraordinarily as is its performance on the floor of athletic endeavor and as wonderful as is their prowess and their grace, what will last in history as their enduring legacy will be the courage and strength they showed us again and again and again. They re-lived one of the most deeply tragic and painful chapters of their lives.

As much as they celebrated victories in gymnastics and other sports, they endured the abuse—emotional, physical, and other abuse—from coaches and trainers whom they trusted. They put their trust in people who betrayed them. It was more than just one coach—Larry Nassar. It was more than just one sport—gymnastics. None were immune as Larry Nassar became the face of a systemic failure that was reflected in Larry Nassar’s abuse in gymnastics and other sports, they were impacted so adversely. Systemic failures were reflected in Larry Nassar’s success in terrorizing these young athletes, and it affected other trainers and other coaches who similarly betrayed trust. It affected other sports: figure skating, swimming, as well as gymnastics. None were immune from the sexual, physical, or emotional abuse.

Almost exactly a year ago, Senator Moran and I issued the report that he just showed on the floor of the Senate showing that this investigation into sexual abuse in gymnastics and the Olympic movement should lead to a bill. I thank not only Senator Moran for his partnership but also other colleagues, as he has mentioned: Senator Wicker, Senator Trumke, Senator Shaheen, Senator Klobuchar, and as Senator Peters and Senator Cortez Masto. Each of them provided very important assistance in this effort.

But most importantly—and I simply cannot say it enough times—the real heroes here are the athletes who shared their stories and stood steadfast in the face of betrayals from the very organizations that were supposed to protect them. These survivors were failed at every level by their doctors, by their coaches, by the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee, and by the national governing boards of their individual sports. The gymnasts who survived Larry Nassar’s abuse were also failed by Michigan State University, by the FBI, and by local police departments. Given the monumental abdication of responsibility from countless people in power, no one could have blamed them for surrendering hope that change could come. But against those odds, they persevered, and they are the reason that we have passed this bill today. They stood with us—physically stood with us—on so many occasions, evoking their suffering and pain, and demonstrating that the names of 140 of the Larry Nassar survivors be printed in the RECORD with my remarks so that history will forever remember their bravery and strength.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

LIST OF SURVIVORS OF LARRY NASSAR’S ABUSE

Mr. BLUMENTHAL. Mr. President, I would like to recognize the 193 additional survivors who have chosen not to be identified publicly by name. They, too, contributed to this cause, and they, too, deserve to be recognized, as do survivors in the future who will come forward under the tools and mechanisms that we are establishing in this bill. They are valued, and cherished for their courage in the future, as well as the past.

Over these past years, Senator Moran and I heard again and again and again that the USOPC and the NGHS have failed their athletes at every turn. Men and women in these organizations knew what was happening, and they did nothing. They already had a legal duty under the law to report what was going on. Clearly, laying out in the law what should be obvious—that you must report allegations of sexual misconduct involving minors—was not enough for them. They betrayed not only their trust to these athletes but their legal and moral responsibilities.

The bill that we are passing today provides for enforcement and deterrence, and it gives Congress essential oversight tools to assure that the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee and NGHS will comply with the heightened standards that this bill spells out. No one in these organizations can plausibly claim ignorance now of the duty to report these heinous crimes, and, if they try, Congress has the ability and responsibility to intervene.

The bill also establishes SafeSport, the organization tasked with investigating and adjudicating reports of athlete abuse, has the resources and independence it needs to do its vital work. The U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee should play no role in determining how much money the organization charged with investigating its members’ worst crimes will receive each year or how that organization is run. Once this bill is signed into law, SafeSport will be independent of the powers that have prevailed in the past.

The bill enacts numerous other reforms that ensure that athlete safety and well-being are prioritized in the Olympic movement. It assures that morals and athletes’ interests’ are put first and that medals and money do not take the place of athletes and their interests.

I want to finish by stressing the urgency of this task. I urge the House to follow our model here and move to a bipartisan way to enact these measures.

The Tokyo Games have been delayed until next year, but it is essential that our framework go into effect as soon as possible and that athletes be given the protection they need and deserve. The urgency of this task should be shared by the House.

My hope is that the survivors of these horrible abuses, who have waited years for this act, will see it happen during this session and as soon as possible.

I want to say finally how grateful I am to my staff. Thank you to Anna Yu, Madeline Daly, Adam Bradlow, Subhan Cheema, Natalie Mathes, Charlotte Schwartz, Colleen Bell, and Maria McElwain.

I want to join in thanking Senator Moran’s staff. Our staffs worked together with the teamwork that I think can also provide the model for this.

Finally, this act is profoundly important to the future of Olympic athletes and sports generally in our country. In effect, it says that trainers and coaches, the organizations that represent them, and the governing bodies that are supposed to care for athletes should do their jobs and keep their trust for these athletes; protect them, not betray them; put them ahead of whatever the other tangible signs of success may be, medals or money. It would depend on protective, strong enforcement and on deterrence.

My hope is that we will look back on this day and say that it transformed this athletic endeavor; that it was a transformational moment; that it changed the culture, not just the rule; that it changed the way sports in the United States are played; and that it embodied the best values of competition and athletics in our great country.

Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Maine.

Mr. Moran. Mr. President, I would like to recognize the efforts of Senator Collins, the Senator from Kansas.

Ms. Collins. Mr. President, let me begin by thanking my two colleagues, Senator Moran and Senator Blumenthal, for their tremendous leadership on the Empowering Olym-icics and Amateur Athletics Act. I am very proud to be a co-sponsor of their bill. This shows what the Senate can do when we work together to accomplish such a critical goal. I salute both of them.

This bill takes effective action to end the negligent behavior by some members of the U.S. Olympic Committee and the amateur athletic organizations that oversee Olympic sports that have, on far too many occasions, failed to react to reports of sex-

Right after the Larry Nassar scandal broke, Senator Feinstein and I introduced the Protecting Young Victims from Sexual Assault and Abuse Act. Members of the USA Gymnastics team appealed to me and to our colleagues about the abuses they had suffered and endured. We learned more about the horrific acts, the crimes committed by Larry Nassar against the members of the USA Gymnastics team.

Our bill, which became law in 2018, required prompt reporting of every allegation of sexual abuse to the proper authorities, and it is helping survivors obtain justice and protect our young athletes.

Senator Moran and Senator Blumenthal then launched an 18-month bipartisan investigation into the failures of the U.S. Olympic organization. They found that these governing bodies also failed to protect their athletes from acts of abuse committed by coaches and other powerful individuals within their organization. I am delighted that they have led the Senate this month to focus on this issue to protect the courageous young athletes across the country who have come forward to tell their horrific stories.

This bill strengthens legal liability against the Olympic and amateur sports governing bodies for the sexual abuses perpetrated by coaches and employees, and it gives the athletes greater representation on these governing boards. It will also ensure that Congress, through oversight, will strengthen reporting mandates for adults with knowledge of abuse allegations. These young athletes who train to represent our country at the top levels of competition and those who aspire to com-

I, too, commend the young athletes with whom DIANNE FEINSTEIN and I met and who have talked so closely with Senators Moran and Blumenthal for coming forward. These survivors have told their stories. We are now going to make a difference for them and for future athletes.

I hope this legislation will be enacted and signed into law very soon.

Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona.

Ms. McSally. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senator Wyden and I be able to complete our remarks prior to the recess.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST

Ms. McSally. Mr. President, 5 days ago, I stood before you and this body and urged our fellow Senators to reach across the aisle and find agreement on how we can best help millions of Americans who have lost their livelihoods through no fault of their own due to this once-in-a-century pandemic. I made a simple request for Senators to be pragmatic, to meet in the middle, and to expand the unemployment benefties through Friday—for 7 days—while Congress continues to work through our differences and comes up with a solution.

I asked: Who could possibly be against this? Well, it turns out the mi-

Arizona seniors are also suffering. A 70-year-old man in Arizona drove for Uber and Lyft before the pandemic hit. He can no longer safely drive strangers throughout Phoenix given his high-risk status. He, too, benefited from the extended unemployment. That additional week will really make a difference for him. Again, I ask my fellow Senators: Who could possibly be against this?

These are just three of the countless stories I have heard from Arizonaans. They are pleading with Congress to put the bickering and the dysfunction aside and work together.
When I got back home last weekend, people were asking: Why did they object? It was for 7 days while you guys work through your differences. Why can’t you guys get your act together? Why can’t you just do your jobs and, in the meantime, just give us 7 more days?

That is a reasonable request. That is why I am here again to offer a simple, commonsense solution—to extend the expanded $600 for unemployed Americans through the week while we continue to work through our differences here to provide economic support, relief, and economic recovery for America. Who could possibly be against this? Who could possibly be against this?

Therefore, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of my bill at the desk. I further ask unanimous consent that the bill be considered and read a third time and that the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WYDEN. Reserving the right to object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oregon.

Mr. WYDEN. Mr. President and colleagues, the only thing worse than what the Republicans have done here—cutting off desperately needed unemployment insurance to millions of American families and communities—would be to allow a bill to pass that promises money without actually delivering it. Even if this short-term extension were to pass, State agencies—the experts in this field—have told us and the ranking Democrat on the Finance Committee in very clear terms that States don’t have enough time to reprogram their systems and avoid a lapse in benefits.

The State unemployment systems are not equipped to flip these unemployment benefits on and off. Short-term extensions don’t work and will not work from an administrative standpoint.

No Senator has to take my word for it. The National Association of State Workforce Agencies has said what I have just said: A short-term extension isn’t enough for the hard-working Americans relying on this lifeline who don’t have jobs to go back to. What about next week and the week after that?

The only responsible route is to agree to the extension with triggers that will ensure economic conditions on the ground and it would deal with this economic challenge for all the months until the economy recovers. That is what Senator SCHUMER and I put forward some time ago. The $600 would gradually phase down based on the State’s average unemployment rate over 3 months. This would provide certainty for families and ensure the broader economy continues to receive the support it needs.

And, especially, it doesn’t set up artificial timelines. That is what the Senate ought to be avoiding, to just set arbitrary dates. What we need to do is make sure that politicians—and, certainly, Donald Trump and Mitch McConnell—have been willing to pull the rug out from under them.

We would have a benefit that would reflect economic conditions on the ground, and it would deal with this economic challenge for all the months until the economy recovers. That is what S. 4143 does. The American Workforce Rescue Act of 2020 would provide certainty for families and ensure the broader economic recovery will be our focus, and there will be support until we see that kind of recovery.

So I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Finance has been charged from further consideration of S. 4143, the American Workforce Rescue Act; that the bill be considered read a third time and passed; and the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table with no intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?
Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, I would just say that the fact that the Senator from Oregon is down here right now instead of the Democratic leader I would characterize as movement in the right direction. And the fact that he is making a proposal upon request that, as he mentioned, he has introduced that actually has a trigger, if you will, or a way of phasing down unemployment benefits, I think, is a step in the right direction because, up until now, it appears that Senator from Oregon has come down here to offer up a 1-week extension of unemployment benefits—and, by the way, I think it is very reasonable and, to the Senator from Oregon's point, I find it hard to believe that any State and any computer system which is already paying out the $600 bonus wouldn't be able to continue that. It strikes me as just really unexplainable that you would have problems adjusting a computer system that is already programmed to pay $600 a week to do that for an additional week. That defies logic to me.

So I think that is a very reasonable request. It would allow us additional time to work. Proposals like what the Senator from Oregon has suggested. And there are others out there. The Senator from Utah, Senator Romney, has a proposal that would ramp down the unemployment benefits over time. It seems to me, at least, we might find some common ground there between what the Senator from Oregon has proposed and what the Senator from Utah or other Members on our side have proposed.

I do believe that what the Senator from Oregon is suggesting—that is, to lock in the $600 bonus indefinitely—one picks it on autopilot; two, sort of takes Congress out of the equation; and, three, it continues to offer a benefit that, for five out of the six people who are receiving unemployment benefits, offers them more in terms of a benefit than what they were making when they were working.

That, to me, is something that I think needs to be addressed. And if you talk to any small business across this country right now, they will tell you one of the big challenges they have is trying to find workers and to compete with an unemployment payment that actually pays them more than when they were working. Trying to get those employees back, I think, has been a real challenge for a lot of the employers across the country.

So I think that is an issue that has to be addressed, and I have heard people on this side of the aisle, both House and Senate, say the same thing. There have been Democratic Governors who say the same thing, that the $600 benefit needs to be modified in a way that more reflects what people were actually earning when they were working.

So I think there is some common ground that we can find, but, again, the idea that has been advanced by the other side prior to the Senator from Oregon coming down here, which has been put forward by the Democratic leader, is that the Heroes Act should be taken up and passed by unanimous consent. That has been the unanimous consent request on multiple occasions when Senator McSally or others have come down here to try and get action on this unemployment issue, which is to come over and offer unanimous consent to pick up and pass the Heroes Act, which, as we all know, is not a serious piece of legislation.

In fact, the Democratic leader's paper of record in New York, the New York Times, said: "The bill was more a messaging document—than a viable piece of legislation." That comes from the New York Times. Many of the proposals in that legislation had nothing to do with the coronavirus and, in fact, addressed a lot of other what I would characterize as movement in the right direction of the policy agenda of the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives, to include mentioning "cannabis" more times than it mentioned the word "jobs" in that legislation.

There are provisions in the Heroes Act that look at diversity—diversity—in the cannabis industry—more mentions of that than mention of the word "jobs," which I think right there tells you that it wasn't a serious piece of legislation.

Furthermore, included—if you can imagine this—tax cuts, tax cuts for Manhattan millionaires. Tax cuts for Manhattan millionaires is included in the Heroes Act, not something that has anything to do with helping the people who are hurting as a result of the pandemic or get at the point in the unemployment issue, the policy that the Senator from Oregon is talking about; that is, addressing the unemployment issues on the policy timetable.

So I view this as progress. I view this as movement in the right direction, the fact that the Senator, not the Democratic leader, is down here offering an unemployment proposal, not the Heroes Act. I would go on the floor and find that common ground that would enable us to address clearly what are serious needs among lots of Americans who are, through no fault of their own, unemployed as a result of this pandemic.

Having said that, I will object to the request of the Senator from Oregon right now but suggest to him that he and Democrats other than the leader, and I think there are a number of Democrats on this side of the aisle, including those who lead committees like the Senator from Oregon, who is the ranking member on the Finance Committee, a committee on which I served whom I have worked on a lot of issues—can sit down and find common ground.

But as long as rank-and-file members and leaders of relevant committees are sort of locked out and the leaders continue to try and do this behind closed doors, it is going to be very hard. I think, to find those types of practical, real-world, commonsense solutions.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. WYDEN. Mr. President, while my colleague is here, just a brief reaction—and I think my colleague knows that you don't go out and negotiate from the seat of your pants on the floor.

First, I want to be clear on this proposal. This is a proposal the Democratic leader and I, as the ranking Democrat on the Finance Committee, worked very closely together on. It is a proposal that many Senate Democrats think could be the basis of reform, and lots of people who look at the future of these kinds of economic challenges find this idea attractive. That is No. 1.

No. 2, my friend from South Dakota thinks that somehow the benefits can just be turned on with a snap of the finger. The National Association of State Workforce Agencies have said that the proposal offered by the Senator from Arizona would not get benefits that make rent and pay groceries to people anytime soon.

The question is, Are you going to solve a real economic challenge here? The economy has faced, last week, a staggering economic contraction. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the last numbers, there are four unemployed workers for every job. This idea that unemployed folks don't want to work is just insulting.

What unemployed people tell me at home is that if somebody offers them a job on Monday night, they will be there first thing Tuesday morning.

What is really needed are solutions to this question of unemployment insurance that ties the benefits to the real world conditions on the ground. In fact, when you have unemployment like this—well over 10 percent—the $600 extra per week coverage is clearly what is necessary to make rent and pay groceries. But make no mistake about it—I see my colleague from South Dakota leaving the floor—I listened when he said that there ought to be a benefit for folks when unemployment is high and that when unemployment goes down, the benefits would reflect that. That is the American Workforce Rescue Act.

If my colleagues are saying they want to back S. 4143, I would like to get that message in a direct kind of way.

With that, I yield the floor.
THE GREAT AMERICAN OUTDOORS ACT

Mr. ALEXANDER. Madam President, this morning, I had the privilege of attending the President’s signing of the Great American Outdoors Act.

Now, this is a town, Washington, D.C., thatどこhyperbolic regarding the legislation that has passed in this Congress and become law in at least a half century. It may only be exceeded by the actual funding of the National Park System itself as it was gradually created, over time, to become an agency with 419 properties.

This legislation does two things.

One, it tackles the deferred maintenance backlogs in the Park System. By that I mean, look at our campground in the Great Smokies, which normally has something like 50 campsites that are worn out. The campground has closed for a number of years because the sewage system doesn’t work. There are examples all across this country, from the Pearl Harbor Visitor Center to the National Mall, of worn-out roads with holes in them, of roofs that leak, and of sewage systems that don’t work. As a result, campgrounds are closed because bathrooms don’t operate.

All of these are our national parks and our public lands, which is where we want to go and where we especially want to go right now because what all of us want is to get out. We want to get outdoors. We want some fresh, clean air that we can breathe.

The head of Bass Pro Shops was telling me at the White House this morning that, at first, COVID really hurt Bass Pro Shops and that they had to close a lot of stores. Guess what is happening now. The purchasing of fishing licenses is going up at a record level. People are taking their sons and daughters and granddaughters fishing and hunting—outdoors and to the parks. This is something that everyone who cares about the outdoors has been worried about since the last generation—that young people were not going out to the parks. They are going today because they want to get outside.

So today was a wonderful day, and everyone agreed that this was the most important bill for conservation and the outdoors in at least a half century. The Republicans agree with that. The Democrats agree with that. Hundreds of conservation groups agree with that. The President of the United States also agrees with that. It is no exaggeration to say that something remarkable and historic happened today when the President signed the Great American Outdoors Act. It is also accurate to say it was wholly bipartisan because it never was passed if it had not been, and it barely passed even though it was. It took a Herculean effort. So I come to the floor briefly today to talk about some of those persons who made a difference in this historic event.

There were many marchers in this parade. There always are when something passes in the U.S. Senate. One Senator never really does anything. It takes a parade of Senators almost always of both parties—and it takes the House of Representatives. It also takes the President of the United States.

Because Presidents don’t always get the credit they deserve, I want to say that the marchers in this parade—there were Democrats and Republicans, and there were hundreds of outdoors groups—but this historic conservation legislation would not have happened had it not been for President Trump. Here is why.

He is the first President of the United States to allow and support the use of money derived from energy exploration on Federal lands for deferred maintenance in our national parks, and if the President and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) did not support that, it is not going to happen, which is one reason this bill hasn’t happened even though people have been trying to do it for years.

I mentioned the history of this and the deferred maintenance. As the Secretary of the Interior pointed out, it was in the Eisenhower years when we had the last big investment in our National Park System. I know for a fact that Secretary Zinke came to Ten- nessee 3 years ago and asked me to do a similar thing, and I worked with Senator KING of Maine. We introduced a bill. Then we put those bills together. So Senator WARNER, Senator KING, and Senator PORTMAN deserve a lot of credit for the work they have done on that piece of the bill.

Then we have the Land and Water Conservation Fund. I mentioned how long that work had been going on. Senator BURR of North Carolina has been an advocate of that for many years. Senator CANTWELL, a Democrat from Washington State, has been as well. More recently, Senator MANCHIN, who is the ranking Democrat on the Energy and Natural Resources Committee, has taken a major leadership role in the Land and Water Conservation Fund. Then there were Senators GARDNER and DAINES. If there were a parade, you would have to say they were the drum majors. They were out front. They helped to work with the President. They helped to work with this group. So you can see what kind of parade we are talking about.

Senator HEINRICHS of New Mexico—a strong, progressive Democrat, with great respect in his caucus—made sure that we kept the thing on balance and brought a real conservationist zeal to this effort.

We take him for granted, but let us give Senator McCONNELL, the majority... leader, some credit. In the middle of COVID, he agreed, at our request, to give us 2 weeks to debate this bill and try to pass it—2 weeks of Senate floor time. If MITCH MCCONNELL had not put the bill on the floor, the bill would never have come to pass.

I thank the Democratic leader, as well, for creating an environment within his caucus wherein we could work through the difficult issues that arose.

Now, that is just part of the honor roll of U.S. Senators who were involved in all of this, but it is an important honor roll.

I should add Senator COLLINS, of Maine, who, from the beginning, was a strong supporter of both the Land and Water Conservation Fund and of the Restore Our Parks Act.

So, when I say “parade,” that is what I am talking about. There are many marchers in this parade, and every single one of those U.S. Senators—both Democrats and Republicans—was essential to the passage of this bill.

The final group was made up of outside groups. Some people said there were more than 800 conservation and outdoor groups in support of this. That sounds like a lot, and it is to me, but I think it might have been true. I mean, this is something that organizations have worked on for decades—literally decades. Some of the people I saw at the White House today were the same people I met in the mid-1980s when I was Chairman of President Reagan’s Commission on Americans Outdoors. Most of the people involved with the Rockefeller Commission are gone now, which was in 1963 and 1964, but people for decades have worked on this. I couldn’t begin to mention all of them, but The Nature Conservancy would be one. Pew would be another. Then there is the National Wildlife Federation, the Congressional Sportsmen’s Foundation, the National Park Conservation Association, and the National Park Foundation. Sally Jewell, the former Secretary of the Interior in the last administration, helped to organize and lead many of these folks.

So you can see, with that kind of breadth and every Interior Secretary from Babbitt to Zinke, we had quite a parade of Americans who wanted to celebrate the great American outdoors.

People say that Italy has its art, that England has its history, that Egypt has its pyramids, but that the United States has the great American outdoors. We celebrated that today, and I was proud to be one marcher in that parade.

As the President signed the legislation, I was thinking of some gesture I could make to him or gift. I could give him that would be appropriate so as to recognize, of all of the marchers in the parade, that he was the most consequential because, if he had not supported it, it wouldn’t have happened. So I took with me a walking stick that was as tall as I am—about his size—that was given to me in 1978 when I was walking across Tennessee in my campaign for the Governor of Tennessee.

I walked in a red and black shirt—a lot like the mask I wear today. People would give me walking sticks, and this was a walking stick that was carved by a Smoky Mountain craftsman. It is a mountain man walking stick. It is, really, a beautiful stick.

I gave it to the President. He looked a little surprised, and then he took it and walked away with it.

I said: Mr. President, you may find this will come in handy during the rest of the year.

He said: I think it will.

So that was a heartfelt gesture to the President. I am glad he liked it. I know he keeps that walking stick as a token of respect for his support and appreciation for what he has done to help this whole parade of Senators on both sides of the aisle create this new law.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Washington.

Mrs. MURRAY. Madam President, the last 6 months have been among our country’s most trying and pain-filled in recent history. Nearly 160,000 Americans have lost their lives—that is more than enough people to fill Seattle’s CenturyLink stadium twice—and 47 million Americans have been infected. Everywhere, nationwide, we see the economic consequences of this virus: millions of people losing their jobs and their healthcare; millions more at risk of losing their homes; food lines a mile long. All of this as our country begins long-overdue work to grapple not just with police brutality against Black people and communities of color but also with the racial injustice imbedded in our laws and policies, which has caused COVID–19 to have vastly disproportionate impacts on those very same communities.

Since my home State of Washington was hit hard early back in February, I have been ringing alarm bells every day, day in and day out, about the need for the Trump administration and this Republican-controlled Senate to act with urgency, to listen to public health experts, and to follow the science and put the health and safety of workers and families above any political considerations. Every student’s frustration that for months, as Democrats urged Republicans to work with us on additional relief and pass legislation to do just that in the House, Republicans have refused.

As we got closer and closer to laid-off workers seeing dramatic cuts in unemployment benefits, as we got closer to the expiration of the eviction moratorium, we heard the Senate Republican leader was “in favor of States just going bankrupt.” That was April. We heard from the Republicans didn’t feel any urgency to act. That was May. Now it is August, and with this virus still raging, Senate Republican leaders finally produced a so-called relief package that actually grants corporations a “get out of jail free” card if their employees or customers get sick. It guts jobless benefits. It rolls back critical civil rights protections for workers, including the community of color, LGBTQIA, and other people of color, women, older Americans, and people with disabilities.

It is a package that fails to keep our child care sector stabilized for more than a week; fails to provide the significant funding we need to finally make testing and contact tracing fast, free, and everywhere; and to require the type of end-to-end, comprehensive plan that we need to make sure safe, effective vaccines are cost-free and widely available.

Their package will not help the millions who have lost health insurance coverage during this crisis or help people suffering from the virus afford treatment. It does nothing to address the impact of this virus on Black, Latinx, Tribal communities, and other communities of color, and it provides zero relief for State, local, and Tribal governments, which is an absolute necessity for my State and so many others.

If that is not enough, one of the centerpiece of this bill is a demand, tweeted out by the President of the United States, which I, as a former pre-school teacher and a mom and a grandmother, find especially insulting and harmful. This is the Republican policy to try to force schools to reopen for in-person learning, regardless of what the public health experts recommend. This policy is a lose, lose, lose. It threatens the health and safety of students and families, educators and communities. It would in particular pressure high-need school districts to reopen in person despite the risk, and it could spread this virus further and longer.

I refused to sign on to any legislation rejecting that policy and planning for distance learning this fall for every student because, let me be clear, no student’s education, regardless of where it takes place, should falter because the President wants to pretend this virus has gone away or because Republicans in the Senate are unwilling to stand up to him.

If a school cannot safely reopen in person, they need the resources to ensure every student has the technology and internet access that every student needs to remotely learn from home. That means having access to a computer, to the internet, and to other equipment necessary to learn outside of a traditional classroom. So what we need to do is pass the Coronavirus Child Care and Education Relief Act, which provides K-12 schools with $175 billion to make sure schools can continue to educate students in whatever way is safest.

It makes addition investments in stabilizing our child care and higher education systems, which are facing financial crisis, and ensure that students of all ages, who are disproportionately impacted by this virus, are supported through all they are facing.
I know there are some who say the investments we are proposing are too much. Well, what I would say to them, as a former chair of the Budget Committee in the Senate, is that budgets are statements of our values and our priorities, and I believe that one of our top priorities at all times, but especially in a pandemic, should be making sure that students and families and educators do not have to choose between safety and quality public education.

The parents and families I am hearing from are under such immense pressure right now. My question to Republican leaders is, why, when things are already so hard, are you determined to make them harder for people who are already struggling so much?

This question is personal for me for a lot of reasons, one of which is because, when I was growing up, my family fell on hard times. My dad, who was a World War II veteran, was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, and he couldn’t work any longer. That meant that my mom, who had stayed home to raise our family, had to take care of him while also working to support our family. Her job didn’t pay enough to support me and my six brothers and sisters or cover the growing medical bills. For several months, we had to rely on food stamps, and then my mom got Federal support to go back to school, and she got a better job. My brothers and sisters and I got grants and student loans to go to college.

The point is, I know things could have gone a far different way for us had the government just said: Sorry; you are on your own.

Well, right now, families across the country have fallen on incredibly hard times. They are worried and scared because, so far, “You are on your own” is larger and louder in this Republican-controlled Senate and administration than ever told them.

We owe every worker and family, including immigrant families—so many of whom are on the frontlines of this fight—relief that reflects the depth of this crisis and helps them get back on their feet, just like mine was able to; relief that helps kids learn safely and keeps families in their homes, with food on the table, until we can get through this; relief that helps us come back stronger as a nation. It is not too much to ask, it is what we are supposed to be here to do, and it is what I and Democrats are going to keep fighting for.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk procured, who had the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

TRIBUTE TO JOE BARKSDALE

Mr. GRASSLEY. Madam President, for the benefit of my colleagues who want to speak next, I have a 1-minute remark and approximately 5 minutes of remarks.

Today is National Chocolate Chip Cookie Day. It is a perfect day to salute an Iowa entrepreneur who built a cookie empire at the Iowa State Fair. Last year, his business sold 2 million chocolate chip cookies during the 11 days of the fair.

A lifelong salesperson and legendary concessionaire, this 72-year-old Iowan is in a league of his own. After more than a quarter century rolling cookie dough at the State fair, Joe Barksdale decided it was time to hang up his apron. However, his legacy will continue for generations to come. He is paying it forward by giving back to the people of Iowa. Joe gifted his legendary cookie recipe to the Iowa State Fair so that its profits could be reinvested for years to come.

As of today, Barksdale’s State Fair Cookie has a brand new home. The permanent cookie building will shorten customer wait times with a dozen sales windows. For anyone who hasn’t tasted this State delicacy, I suggest you put it on your bucket list.

CATTLE SPOT PRICING

Mr. GRASSLEY. On another matter, Madam President, Iowa is home to 86,000 family farms and leads the Nation in the production of commodities, such as corn, where we are No. 1; soybeans, No. 2; pork, and eggs, No. 1. Iowa also ranks in the top 10 in cattle production, as many family farms raise livestock alongside their corn and soybeans.

The 2017 USDA Census of Agriculture showed over 23,000 farms in Iowa that raise cattle or calves, with annual sales of $4.7 billion. Caring for livestock takes a spirit of commitment, selflessness, and, of course, hard work. These farmers get up very early, very early in the morning, work on their farms all day, and are active members of their communities. These families and their values form the foundation of what makes our rural communities across Iowa.

However, over the years, the consolidation of the beef industry has threatened the very livelihood of these families and rural communities where they reside. From the 2012 USDA Agriculture Census to the 2017 Agriculture Census, Iowa lost nearly 1,500 cattle producers. This is not a new issue to me. The concern of fair treatment and transparent cattle pricing has seen increased attention due to disruptions in our food supply chain. It has been very obvious during this period of the virus pandemic.

For background, the U.S. Department of Agriculture mandates price reporting for live cattle and tracks the spread between fed cattle prices—what the producer gets paid—and the boxed beef values, which is what the packing company gets paid.

For the years 2016 to 2018, this spread averaged about $21 per hundredweight. Soon I will be comparing that to a very, very big increase from that $21. However, during April and May, there were major beef packers, as large numbers of plant workers contracted COVID-19. Because there are only four companies that slaughter 80 percent of the cattle, companies have the four that dominate the market or forcing beef from thousands of producers, acting as a chokepoint for the entire industry. These packers dominate the marketplace and limit opportunities for price negotiation.

During this time, in these recent months, packer profit margins topped out at a spread of $279 per hundredweight compared to the $21 that I previously mentioned. This was the largest spread between the price of fed cattle and the price of boxed beef since the inception of the mandatory price reporting law of 2001. So while all the packers were making record profits, the independent producer had nowhere even to market his livestock.

It is important to note that the impact of consolidation is just hurt producers. It hurts consumers. We have seen the price of ground beef and steaks—a staple in many American diets—double or triple recently. Grocery stores also limited the amount of meat that families could buy. This has made it very clear that the cattle market is broken and real action is needed to fix it.

Thankfully, the Trump administration stepped up to this cause. It has responded with two decisive actions to address the country’s cattle market. First, the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Department of Justice are both investigating the practices of these packing companies, particularly those that dominate the market. While this will take time, President Trump has personally asked for these investigations and said he did it because he wants to protect the family farmer.

Second, on July 22, the USDA issued a significant report that lays out a roadmap to fix the cattle marketplace. The U.S. Department of Agriculture mentions 12 different ways to create additional price discovery, increase market transparency, provide a more transparent relationship between the price of live cattle and the beef products that the consumer buys.

This investigation and report are very much a breath of fresh air, particularly for this Senator who has been bringing this issue to the attention of Agriculture Department and Justice Departments under both Republican and Democratic administrations for a long period of time. We have had multiple administrations from Republicans to Democrats ignore the independent cattle producers and the broken cattle market. So I am very grateful that President Trump and Secretary Perdue... take this issue seriously, when so many others before them have ignored this problem.

In the report issued by Secretary Perdue, one of the considerations for Congress is to create a mechanism to mandate negotiation cash trades. I am getting to the very key reason why I am on the floor today, because I see some of the actions in this report from Secretary Perdue as almost an endorsement of the Grassley-Tester 50/14 concept.

The Grassley-Tester bill will require half of packers' weekly volume of beef slaughter to come as a result of purchases made on the cash market. The fact is that without a mandated amount of cash trade, independent producers become residual suppliers and then lack the leverage to fairly negotiate with packing companies.

Besides the Grassley-Tester bill, Congress has the responsibility to fully vet the 11 other considerations that the Trump administration lays out in its report. The Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry Committee should hold hearings on this road map. We should bring a diverse set of stakeholders, government officials, business executives, and subject matter experts to explain the challenges that cattle producers are facing. The hearings would allow the committee to properly vet proposals to improve mandatory price reporting, which needs to be reauthorized by September 30 this year.

The beef industry employs hundreds of thousands of hard-working men and women who work each day to help feed our country and, because we export so much, you can say feed the world.

As the U.S. Department of Agriculture Census shows, we are losing producers due to consolidation. We need to show these men and women that Washington, DC, is listening. We need to show our rural communities that we will help them to survive. We must develop solutions to the problems that they are facing.

I will continue to be the voice for independent producers. Today, I am asking my colleagues and Congress to be that voice with me. Support my bill with Senator Tester and bring competition and price transparency back to the cattle markets. While I am at it, I want to reemphasize something I previously said. The Ag committee should hold a hearing on these issues and do it very soon.

I am happy to see Senator Tester on the floor, who I think is here to speak on the very same issue.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Montana.

Mr. TESTER. Madam President, I want to thank Senator Grassley for his leadership on this issue. He has known for a long time, as I have known, that something is amiss in the competitive nature of the cattle business.

I rise today to speak about that. It isn’t talked about enough in this body or in the United States in general, but the fact is that rural America is being cast aside, and it is falling prey to corporate interests whose only concern is about making a quick buck. The truth of the matter is that the American cattle ranchers are suffering.

It is an amazing fact that meat packers have been taking advantage of small-scale ranchers, family ranchers, and the small and medium-sized feeders for years. While some of us have been raising the issue for some time, it is now being highlighted by the Grassley-Tester bill, which needs to be reauthorized by September 30 this year.

Almost 1 year ago exactly, a fire at a beef packing plant in Holcomb, KS, halted 5 percent of our country’s beef distribution capacity. It caused the price of meat in grocery stores to skyrocket and caused a sharp decline in cattle prices at the farm gate. It was Montana producers and producers across this country who took the hit while the meatpacking industry reported record profits.

Following that fire, Senator Grassley and I demanded that the Department of Agriculture conduct an investigation looking into price manipulation by the packers. Although this investigation is ongoing, their findings thus far have been disturbing. Their findings clearly show that markets are being manipulated and the packing industry is walking all over America’s ranchers.

Just when we thought that conditions for producers couldn’t get much worse and as we saw cattle prices drop lower than they have been in decades, ranchers were hit by yet another disaster. That disaster was the coronavirus pandemic.

This virus forced many of the largest packing plants to shut their doors, depleting the Nation’s beef capacity by nearly 40 percent. Yet again, it was our small-scale cow calf operators, along with everyday consumers, who have seen skyrocketing beef prices throughout the last year, and we have seen lower and lower prices for the cow calf operators and the small- and medium-sized feeders. They are the ones taking the hit. In April and May of this year, we saw the largest ever price discrepancy between the price of boxed beef and the price received by the cattle owner, growing from $66 per hundredweight on the boxed beef to $279.

I need to repeat that, because it is nothing short of ridiculous. From early April to the middle of May, the price at the packer’s door for the same steer or tender was $279, as were the prices for the same steer or tender in April and May of this year.

Mission control, we have a problem here.

Our ranchers and the American public are being taken advantage of in the midst of a global health crisis that has also driven us into an economic crisis. To top it off, cattle transactions on the cash market took a steep decline following the Holcomb Fire, allowing for even more price manipulation by the packers while the number of cows slaughtered increased by 5,000 head.

Now, it is obvious to anybody who looks at this situation that the packers are using these crises to force markets to work for them only. One of the ways the packers get away with this is by limiting transactions that take place on the spot for cash markets. Instead, they are demanding controls that allow them to use unfair market power to put corporate profits over families, ranchers, feeders, and over consumers.

That is why Senator Grassley and I wrote the bill that will require large-scale packers to increase the proportion of spot transactions to 50 percent of the total cattle purchases. This would hold corporate packers accountable; make pricing fairer for our producers—cow-calf operators, small- and medium-size feeders; and bring more money into rural economies and into the pockets of these families who are feeding this country and the world.

I fear these words are falling on deaf ears. The fact is, we need more support from the Senate. We need to work on this issue of packer control of prices in production agriculture when it comes to beef. If something is not done in this issue of packer control of prices in the marketplace, if something isn’t done to ensure that capitalism isn’t working here and that we need to put some sideboards on this to funnel some of the money down to the growers and the small- and medium-sized feeders, then folks are going to lose their jobs and we will lose change. I know for the vegetarians in the crowd that might sound like a good deal, but it is not because the fact is, when the food chain in rural America goes bust—because that is what we are on the verge of—this whole country will be diminished by that.

So it is important that my colleagues here in the Senate work with Senator Grassley and me to fix this problem. It will not be fixed by not doing the things we need to do in this body. Senator Grassley and I have a bill, and Senators Rounds and King have a bill, and we need to get those two bills passed and move on to ensure fairness in the marketplace.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana.

CORONAVIRUS

Mr. CASSIDY. Madam President, I rise to address the issues regarding the COVID crisis. Now, as we know, the COVID crisis is a public health crisis which has an economic crisis and, in turn, an educational crisis.

Today, I am going to speak about an aspect of the economic crisis—specifically State and local governments, which have had to shut down their economies, have lost all the tax revenue they otherwise would receive and, because they have lost that tax revenue, have put the jobs of firefighters, police officers, teachers, sanitation workers, and other essential frontline workers at risk. So let me proceed.

Senate Republicans have unveiled a proposal for a second line of support for American families and small businesses as our Nation continues to combat the COVID–19 pandemic. The virus is an unprecedented challenge, but we shall overcome, and the HEALS Act attempts to do that.

The introduction of this proposal signals Republicans’ commitment to seeing America through this challenging time. In the CARES Act, the ultimate safety of the people of Louisiana and the United States are my top priority, and the HEALS Act, as with all major bills, is a starting point of negotiations to build consensus among Members of both parties for the best path forward.

The HEALS Act includes stimulus checks for Americans, support for small businesses, and billions to help schools reopen. While these are critically necessary, economic recovery, so, too, are the essential services provided by States and local communities. I am talking about police officers, firefighters, teachers, sanitation workers, and other municipal workers. Because of this economic lockdown, State and local governments have seen their tax base erode, which threatens their ability to keep these very people we need employed—these people who keep our communities running.

I don’t want to see, for example, a situation where cities slash police budgets and force layoffs of those who put their lives on the line to keep us safe. That is why Congress should include additional relief for State and local communities in this relief package.

Senator BOB MENENDEZ—and his staff has been a wonderful team to work with—and I have offered a bipartisan proposal called the SMART Act to help our communities through this pandemic. I am privileged to be joined today by Senator MENENDEZ and Senator CORIN, to speak on its behalf.

The SMART Act has $500 billion in funding for State and local governments, and it would be dispersed in thirds. One-third is based on a State's population. Clearly, California needs more than Alaska. One-third is based upon the COVID–19 impact. My State has had one of the highest of per capita incidences of coronavirus infection. We have been terribly impacted. One-third is based upon revenue lost, which, again, my State, as well as the States capital investments have been very impacted. It is a fair formula that prioritizes funding to the hardest hit.

The need is great. S&P Global released a report detailing the State susceptibility across the country in the COVID–19 recession. There were 38 States that had a high or very high risk of economic exposure. S&P’s findings echo a Moody’s report that also predicted dire effects to States and cities if nothing is done. Moody’s found that 34 States will see tax revenue fall by double-digit percentage points, the worst of which are Alaska falling 80 percent, Louisiana at 46 percent, and North Dakota at 44 percent.

According to a Federal Reserve Bank of New York Association of Counties, local communities—not States; local communities—anticipate a $202 billion impact to budgets through 2021. Their report shows that 71 percent of counties have delayed capital investments, including infrastructure and economic development projects; 68 percent have cut or delayed county services—or parish services in the case of Louisiana—human services, public safety, and community development support; and 25 percent have cut the county workforce. Moody’s estimates that 1.3 million have already been laid off, and an estimated 1.4 million more State and parish county workers and municipal workers will be laid off in the coming fiscal year.

Sixty-six percent of counties receiving CARES Act coronavirus relief indicate that the funding will not cover the COVID–19 budget or they are uncertain if the budgetary impacts will be covered. This is the impact of what has happened.

By the way, we spoke earlier of $202 billion, and this is how the breakdown is in terms of lost revenue and lost spending. The impact upon State and county and municipal governments is huge. All told, the National Association of Counties predicts a loss of 4.9 million jobs and $344 billion lost in GDP. It does not have to be that way, with Congress allowing police officers, firefighters, teachers, and others by including State and local support in the act we are considering.

As I mentioned before, Louisiana, my State, is facing serious shortfalls. We are still struggling with a second wave of COVID cases. Yesterday, we had the No. 1 per capita incidence of coronavirus. The State is having to plan for a scenario which strains not only my folks in Louisiana but also the revenue of the local communities where they would otherwise spend their money.

The SMART Act back home know the consequences if they don’t receive support. There were 22 parish presidents who signed a letter supporting the SMART Act. They wrote:

As elected leaders with parish populations ranging from over 400,000 to 18,000, the COVID–19 pandemic has created unprecedented challenges for all local governments not only within Louisiana, but nationally. The extreme loss of tax revenues, which provide for essential services, coupled with unforeseen costs brought onto us by the response to COVID–19 pandemic, has the potential to have an extremely detrimental effect on our role to provide for the citizens of our parishes.

I received a letter from more than 80 mayors across my State giving their strong support and thanks for efforts to pass the SMART Act because they know I am working to deliver the support they need for their communities or mutual constituents. And mayors ranging from cities as large as Shreveport to as small as Glennmore and Athens wrote:

The SMART Act would provide funding for municipal economic recovery that will support the reopening of businesses, allow Louisiana to move forward. We are grateful for Senator Cassidy’s bipartisan efforts and for his longstanding partnership with Louisiana’s governments.

The same sentiments have been echoed by Louisiana’s Chamber of Commerce.

I understand concerns about spending money on State and local government. Some are worried the money will be used to bail out poor management decisions and overly generous and unfunded pension plans. I share those concerns, which is why the SMART Act includes specific limits on spending in those areas. The SMART Act money replaces lost revenue caused by COVID–19 and nothing more. A city or parish or county would have to show their books and show that they have lost revenue relative to a year ago before they would be eligible to receive funding from this.

I understand concerns about spending, but the cost of doing nothing is worse. Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell spoke on the State and local funding needs, saying that while costly, it would be “worth it if it helps avoid long-term damage and leaves us with stronger economies in the future.”

Congress should not allow police officers, firefighters, first responders, teachers, sanitation workers, and others to lose their jobs by the millions at a time when our country needs them most. The United States cannot fully recover economically if local communities cannot provide basic services, allowing commerce to flow.
As I stand today, I commend my colleagues on the work thus far on the HEALS Act. More work is left to be done, and I look forward to working with others in this Chamber in the coming days to strengthen this bill even further and finding a common path forward with our Republican colleagues. We cannot let Americans down in this time of tremendous need. By working together, we can deliver the support they need, and we will be stronger as a nation for having done so.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mrs. Blackburn). The Senator from New Jersey.

Mr. MENENDEZ. Madam President, I rise today to join my Republican colleagues from Louisiana and Maine to make a plea for us to break any partisan logjam and support bipartisan, commonsense solutions. I want to especially commend Senator Cassidy, who from the beginning has joined me in this effort, and I appreciate his leadership in this regard. I welcome Senator Lins, who joined us from the very beginning in this effort.

Exactly 76 days ago—yes, 2.5 months ago—Senator Cassidy and I stood here on the floor of the Senate with our colleagues in this and both chambers to talk about the challenges facing our State and local governments and the need for Congress to deliver robust, flexible assistance to help them deal with the pandemic and economic fallout.

In 76 days, we have seen COVID–19 sweep across our land. The virus is surging in States coast to coast. From the Deep South to the Upper Midwest, no community has been spared.

America is no stranger to tough times. In just the past 100 years, we have fought two World Wars. We have faced a Great Depression. We have confronted a nuclear-armed Soviet Union. We have faced calamitous disasters, both natural and manmade, from Hurricanes Katrina and Sandy to the terrorist attacks on 9/11. We have lived through many dark days of our history, but no matter how steep the challenge, no matter how hopeless things appeared at the moment, we always came together as a country, and we saw ourselves as Americans above all else.

I am proud to be a New Jerseyan. I am proud to be from a State that invests in its people, has a great educational system, and has an innovative economy. But when my parents fled tyranny in Cuba, their dream wasn’t to move to any one State. No, they dreamed of moving to the United States of America to give me and my siblings the opportunity they never had.

We are not a collection of 50 separate States. No, we are one Nation, indivisible. When hurricanes hit the gulf coast, flooding inundated communities along the Mississippi River, or wildfires raged in the West, I have never hesitated to act and cast my vote to help my fellow Americans. I have never asked how many New Jerseys were affected or how this would impact us. I have always chosen to stand united as one nation, and to instead, pit Americans in one State versus their fellow citizens in another. They have derided Senator Cassidy’s and my efforts to avoid millions of layoffs of essential workers as a “Blue State Bailout.” For example, the junior Senator from Florida has said he refuses to support assistance because it will go to progressive States like New Jersey, New York, and California. He spread falsehoods about States carrying over large annual budget deficits, even though he must be well aware that States, unlike the Federal Government, must balance their budgets according to their State Constitutions.

He has the gall to chide other States about taking from Florida, even as his own State is the second largest “taker” State in the entire country. Indeed, according to the latest estimates, the State of Florida stands to get $45 billion more from the Federal Government than it pays each and every year. By comparison, New Jersey actually pays about $21 billion more each year to the Federal Government than it receives back. Florida takes $45 billion more each year out of the Federal coffers than they put in. New Jersey puts $21 billion back in.

To my colleague from Florida: You are welcome.

Why is New Jersey a donor or “maker” State while Florida is a “taker” State? Quite simply, it is because we invest in our people and in our communities. New Jersey has the best public schools in the country, ranking 5th out of all 50 States in the Week’s report. Florida, well, it ranked in the bottom half of the States.

A better education leads to a better economy with higher paying jobs, so it is no surprise that New Jersey also has the highest per capita income among States at over $110,000 per year. By comparison, Florida’s per capita income is almost $35,000 less, which puts it, once again, in the bottom half of States.

So if you want your children to have a quality education, if you want to work in a vibrant economy that creates high-paying jobs, you should live in a State like New Jersey. But New Jersey, like all States—and through no fault of our own—is facing a health and fiscal crisis of historic magnitude. And because here in Washington we have failed to implement a national response to a national emergency, our local towns, cities, counties, and States have to deal with this crisis alone; none of us are united as one nation, and they are running out of money.

They are running out of money to combat this deadly disease. They are running out of money to maintain the services our residents and businesses depend upon. They are running out of money to pay our first responders: police, firefighters, paramedics, and emergency personnel. They are running out of money to make sure that there are no lines of patients in the hallways when our kids can safely head back to school and nurses in our hospitals when a sick patient is brought in. They are running out of money to make sure the trash gets picked up, the buses and trains run on time, and the lights stay on at City Hall.

They have been squeezed on both sides of the ledger, spending billions of dollars in unforeseen costs on emergency response while watching revenues dry up due to the slowing economy and necessary orders to contain the virus.

Without help from Washington, our States, counties, and municipalities will have to swallow a toxic cocktail of tax hikes, service cuts, and layoffs that will only poison our economic recovery.

It would be the height of irony—and a horrible one at that—for the men and women we have needed the most to be the ones fired as a result of the economic distress that the virus has created. We need our essential workers on the job dealing with the pandemic, not on the unemployment line.

Already, nearly 1.5 million State and local workers have been furloughed or laid off—and that is only since February—and double the total local public sector jobs we lost during the entire great recession of a decade ago.

If we fail to deliver the robust, flexible funding our States and communities need, we will effectively be sending pink slips to millions of Americans. We will be saying to all of them: You are fired.

That will be millions more who aren’t collecting a paycheck, millions who can’t afford to shop at our stores, eat at our restaurants, pay their rent, or their mortgage.

Leading economists respected by both parties predict it would decimate our economy and send us on the path to another Great Depression. We can’t allow that to happen.

That is why Senator Cassidy, Senator Collins, Senator Hyde-Smith, and I came together. We saw early on the impact COVID–19 was having on our home States and constituents, so we came up with the State and Municipal Assistance for Recovery and Transition, or the SMART Act.

As Senator Cassidy says, it delivers $500 billion in flexible funding to frontline States, counties, and municipalities. It targets areas with the greatest need based on infection rate and lost revenues. Unfortunately, from when we started this, that is a growing reality for every single town, city, and county, regardless of its size, would qualify for direct funding. No one is left out.
We immediately built a bipartisan coalition with Senators Collins, Booker, Hyde-Smith, Manchin, and Sinema—Republicans and Democrats from all walks of life, cutting across the political and geographic spectrum. We knew that the CARES Act had provided our State and local governments in the CARES Act wasn’t enough to deal with the growing need, and we warned our colleagues—each and every one—that what was happening in New Jersey, Louisiana, and elsewhere would eventually hit their States. We didn’t get this pandemic under control. Well, we haven’t, and it is raging. Our fellow Americans are suffering, and too many of them are dying.

We have waited for 76 days. What is now being offered is wholly inadequate to address the needs of the American people. In Colorado, for example, the estimated State and local shortfall due to the pandemic is $10 billion, and counting, through 2022. In Alaska, it is expected to be $14 billion, or $4 billion. In Georgia, it will be $2.5 billion in 2021 alone. Kentucky could see nearly a 20-percent drop in its revenues in 2021, at a time when the State’s fiscal house is already in disorder. But we are being offered not one to help our cities, counties, and States confront this challenge—zero, nothing. That is not something that is acceptable.

That is the problem when we ignore regular order and let leadership hijack the legislative process: We lose our voice, and the needs of our constituents are left out.

If, for one, didn’t come to Washington to sit on the sidelines and wait for a handful of people to reach a deal behind closed doors, forced to vote on a 1,000-page bill within an hour of seeing it. But that is exactly what we have been done here for far too long.

We need to end this high-stakes game of closed-door posturing and restore the Senate back to the foundation as the greatest deliberative body in the world.

It would have been easier for me just to embrace the $900 billion for fiscal relief in the Heroes Act. It would have been easier for Senators Cassidy, Collins, and Hyde-Smith to just toe the party line, but we all knew that sticking to our respective corners wasn’t going to help a single one of our constituents.

It was not too late for the Senate to get back on track. Let’s do our jobs. Let’s work together on a bipartisan solution that delivers the Federal support our States, counties, and cities on the frontlines of this pandemic need to defeat COVID-19 and serve the American people.

Let’s bring the SMART Act up in committee, allow Members on both sides of the aisle to offer amendments to make the legislation even better. You all know what our State and local governments will get if we leave it up to the present status—absolutely nothing. Good luck explaining that to the people back home.

I hear some of my colleagues speak from this floor, calling not for unity but for division. They callously ignore the pleas for help from the fellow Americans, comforted by the selfish but mistaken belief their communities are immune to the fiscal Armageddon facing our communities.

Let me be clear. It doesn’t really matter how fiscally responsible or conservative your State budget has been when your revenue drops 30 percent overnight. It is not a random blue State or red State issue: it is an American priority. I believe that history will look kindly upon those who stood up for some unity and compromise over demagoguery and obstinacy, those who put the well-being of the country over scoring partisan points, those who stuck their necks out and took a political risk for no reason other than it was the right thing to do. That is what I believe we are doing on the floor right now—the right thing.

With that, I am happy to turn to my friend Senator Collins.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Maine, Ms. Collins. Madam President, I have listened to the presentations of my two colleagues, Senator Cassidy and Senator Menendez, and I could not agree with them more. We have an opportunity to solve a problem that is affecting all States and every community in our country.

With the COVID–19 pandemic continuing to devastate our public health and our economy, towns and cities across our country are facing increasingly significant new challenges and plummeting revenues at the exact same time. I urge my colleagues to be problem-solvers, to address this crisis as part of the relief package that is now being negotiated. We cannot wait. I have spoke with Senator Menendez and Cassidy and others in this Chamber in introducing the SMART Act. It would provide much needed financial assistance to State and local governments while providing safeguards to prevent wasteful spending.

It is a lifeline to our communities, just as the Paycheck Protection Program has been a lifeline to our small businesses and their employees.

The consequences of local government shortfalls are dire. Without our providing them relief, communities face having to lay off essential employees and reduced services at the worst possible time for working families.

What is their alternative? They cannot raise taxes. That would be the worst thing for them to do. Municipalities are already scaling back their budgets, furloughing workers, and postponing needed purchases and projects. These cuts threaten the jobs of our police officers, our firefighters, our EMS personnel, our dispatchers, our sanitation crews, and our public works employees at the time when their services are vitally needed. They are the people who make our communities operate, who make them livable. We need them.

We already know about the stresses our schools are undergoing. Do we really want school budgets to be cut and teachers laid off at this important time?

The CARES Act did provide $150 billion to our States and to very large communities, but they came with restrictions, and they did not require direct distributions to municipalities with populations under 500,000. There is not a single county in Maine, much less a city or town, that has a population of that level.

The National Governors Association has called for $500 billion in assistance to aid our Nation’s recovery. Organizations supporting our towns and our cities and our counties have all endorsed the SMART Act.

Moody’s Analytics warns that falling to act could shave 3 percentage points from real GDP, from our economic growth, and result in the loss of 4 million jobs. That is the worst thing to happen at this time.

This week, the Maine Municipal Association released projections anticipating a combined $146 million in lost revenue from Maine cities and towns by the end of this year alone. We know that the revenues are going to take a while to recover and are going to affect next year as well.

This builds on Maine’s Revenue Forecasting Committee, which expects a $1.4 billion State budget shortfall from lost sales and income tax revenues over the next 3 years.

As people are driving less, we are also seeing our gas tax revenues plummet.

I have talked with town and city managers, with mayors and members of town councils, selectmen and —women, all across the State of Maine about the difficult decisions they are facing as they attempt to balance their budgets.

These cuts are not theoretical. The harm is not just possible; it is occurring today. Let’s look briefly at what some Maine communities are already having to do.

The city of Westbrook has announced a hiring freeze affecting all city departments, including the police department. Well, that police department has five open positions that it needs to fill and cannot do so.

Auburn, a city in Androscoggin County, has had to freeze six vacant positions because of expected revenue losses—again, vital positions: two firefighters, a police officer, and three public works employees. These cuts come at a time when Auburn has spent more than $200,000 in new expenses to respond to the virus.

The town of Falmouth has eliminated four open positions, including a police officer, and can no longer afford to respond to the purchase of a much-needed new firetruck.

The town of Windham has kept seven needed positions open. These are not large communities. This is a large number of positions. Five of these are public works positions, without which, how is the plowing going to be done this winter to keep the roads safe and clear? The town has also postponed $1.6 million in capital projects. That has a ripple effect on the local economy. It means the contractor is neither buying supplies nor hiring employees at this time.

In northern Maine, in the northern Maine city of Madawaska, the town manager has shared with my office that the town has had to scrap a $3 million road-paving project and will have to keep at least three positions vacant. This is what they are doing already. It is only going to get worse for these towns and cities as revenues continue to plummet.

Senator Menendez made a very important point that I want to reiterate, and that is, the way our bill is structured, every city, every town, regardless of size, will receive direct assistance. Every county will receive direct assistance. They will not be dependent on the largesse of the State. The money will go to them to meet these essential needs.

It is common sense to provide the relief needed to avoid these widespread layoffs and cuts to essential services at the local level, where they often are most often needed. These are the public servants who keep our communities and our citizens safe. They are the public servants who keep our communities and our citizens healthy. They are the public servants who keep our communities and our citizens educated. They are the ones who are plowing our roads and repairing our bridges. They are the ones who make our towns, our cities, our neighborhoods livable.

Congress must act to provide assistance to every community. This is a problem we can solve. Let’s enact the SMART Act as part of the next coronavirus package.

The Presiding Officer (Mr. Cassidy). The Senator from Delaware.

CORONAVIRUS

Mr. CARPER. Mr. President, I am going to briefly remove my mask.

We are about 1 week into baseball season. I will lighten this up a little bit. We are about 1 week into baseball season. Some of us here are huge baseball fans. This is the home of the Nationals—home of the world championship Washington Nationals. The best two pitchers come from the Detroit Tigers, my favorite team.

For those who might not have been watching baseball over the weekend, there is a young guy who is a relief pitcher for the Tigers. His name is Tyler Alexander. He was brought in in relief in the second or third inning and struck out nine straight bats. He struck out the first nine batters he faced. I think one other person has done that in Major League history.

So, as we gather here today to figure out how to get out of this mess, his job that day was to try to figure out how to get out of another mess, and my hope is that our efforts here in the Senate, the House, and the White House will be as successful as were his.

I am happy today our friend from Maine; our colleague from New Jersey; and you, Mr. President, as the Senator from Louisiana, in actually pointing to something we can agree on. People are always saying to me and, I know, to my colleagues when we go home: Can’t you guys and gals ever agree on anything?

Well, as it turns out, a number of us agree that States and local governments could use some help—some additional help beyond that which we have already provided. That is a good thing. We don’t have to pit blue States against red States. We can actually work together, and in this case we are. Very few of us actually come here and actually try to work in our first elected job being in the U.S. Senate—some, but not a lot. A number of people are former mayors, former Governors, former Representatives. But every now and then, somebody slips through without ever having run for office.

I am a former State treasurer. People call me a recovering Governor, but I am really a recovering State treasurer. I was elected Treasurer when I was 29. When I was elected State treasurer, I took my oath, our State had the worst credit rating in the country. I was elected in 1976—the same year that a Republican named Pete du Pont was elected Governor of our State. He turned out to be a terrific Governor at a time when we needed one. He was a good partner to him and Democrats and Republicans in the legislature to pull our State out of a real mess. Unfortunately, that is just not true. A survey conducted by the National Association of State Budget Officers shows that States have already allocated nearly 75 percent of these funds already to fight the pandemic and help struggling families and small businesses through this crisis.

If States across this country see a resurgence in infection rates, the cost of addressing the health and economic crisis is not going down; it is going up. At the same time that the cost of addressing this pandemic has skyrocketed, businesses are shuttered, and tourism and commerce have come, in many places, to a standstill. That means that hundreds of billions of dollars in lost revenues for States and local governments have occurred.

Delaware is certainly not alone. So let me be very clear. This is not a red State or a blue State problem; it is a United States problem. It is not a consequence of poor management either. It is not a consequence of poor management.

Over the past couple months, weeks, I have had conversations, as my colleagues know, with dozens of them on both sides of the aisle about what States and local communities across our country are facing as a result of COVID-19. I have those conversations with my Democratic and Republican colleagues, time and again I have heard a familiar refrain: The pandemic has caused State and local government revenues to plummet in a way that none of us have ever experienced or would have or could have foreseen.

Income tax revenues have fallen and unemployment numbers have reached... unprecedented levels over the course of just a few months. Delaying Federal tax deadlines—while it was the right thing to do—has wreaked havoc on the ability of States to balance their budgets. Sales tax collections and revenue from tourism, gas taxes, and tolls have dried up, and the virus has compelled many people to just stay at home. And States highly dependent on oil and gas revenues, as the Presiding Officer’s State is, have been doubly hit by the pandemic and turmoil in global energy markets.

Unlike the Federal Government, State and local governments have to balance their budgets. This means that Governors, State legislators, and local officials—mayors, city and county councilors—have had no choice but to make deep cuts that will inevitably hurt the ability of their communities to recover. When the pandemic hit our country, State and local governments alone have lost 1.5 million jobs.

Let me say that again. Since the pandemic hit our country, State and local governments alone have lost 1.5 million jobs.

Those are not private sector jobs. Those are not Federal Government jobs. Those are just State and local, county jobs: teachers, firefighters, police, and more.

This staggering statistic is bad enough on its own, but what does it mean in terms of one of the nine in eight American workers who is employed by a State or local government?

Here is what it means. Cuts to education budgets means larger class sizes. It means fewer bus drivers. It means fewer custodians at a time when schools are struggling to figure out how they will reopen safely this fall.

I talked earlier this week to a number of our finest school superintendents in Delaware. We talked about—they are struggling—how to open up and re-open schools. As it turns out, they are going to have to hire more bus drivers if schools reopen—more bus drivers because kids will be separated. They have to separate kids. You can’t put as many kids on the school bus. They are going to have to hire substitute teachers. If somebody gets sick and they are unable to come to work, they will have to hire a substitute teacher and pay for them for nurses, it is the same way. To be there to help administrator—whether it is taking people’s temperatures or administering tests and that kind of thing, we are going to need more health professionals in our schools rather than fewer.

Cutting real-estate budgets mean people must wait longer for EMTs and firefighters to arrive during emergency situations.

Cuts in transportation budgets mean canoes on delayed infrastructure transportation projects—and fewer construction jobs when we are in the middle of the summer construction season.

These cuts impact all of us and create a ripple effect across the broader economy. That is why economists across the political spectrum, including Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell, agree that State and local budget cuts will weigh down our path to economic recovery for a couple of weeks, not just for a couple of months, but for years to come.

In fact, based on evidence from the last recession, one recent economic report found that every dollar in cuts cost the overall economy $1.50 to $2. That is one reason the U.S. Chamber of Commerce has called for additional Federal aid for States and for cities. The Chamber also recognizes that its lost revenue will force officials out of State and local levels to either miss payments or raise taxes in order to make up the shortfall.

We know that this is impacting every part of our Nation. The longer we wait to get much needed assistance for our States and local governments, the more our communities will suffer and the more at risk we put our entire economy.

We are here. We are sort of like almost in overtime. In fact, we are in an extraordinary situation, supple- mental unemployment insurance benefits having expired. We don’t have time to wait. Let’s pass long overdue assistance. Let’s pass it so that our home- towns and our States don’t take an even bigger hit that we can’t afford but a hit that is avoided.

With that, I want to yield to some of my colleagues who are here to present their own perspectives, and we look forward to hearing from them. The first one, right out of the starting block, is a former Governor of New Hampshire—like me, a recovering Gover- nor—and a terrific U.S. Senator, MAGGIE HASSAN.

I am happy to yield the floor to Senator HASSAN from New Hampshire.

Ms. HASSAN. Thank you, Mr. President, and thank you to my colleague from Delaware, not only for the kind introduction but for the very articu- late overview that he just gave of the challenge before us and the importance of providing aid in this next relief package to State and local govern- ments. They have been at the forefront of the COVID-19 pandemic. They provide people and businesses with vital support, scouring the world for personal protective equipment, setting up testing centers, and providing emergency relief for families and busi- nesses. They also employ millions of essential public employees who are on the frontlines of this crisis, including first responders, teachers, and many others.

Unfortunately, as this crisis rages on, State and local communities are facing immense mounting costs, and a devastating loss of revenue. For too long, the Senate majority leader, Mr. McCONNELL, stalled action on an additional relief package, which has only made matters worse.

Now, as negotiations are finally under- way, we must ensure that the next relief bill provides significant addi- tional Federal resources to support State and local governments to ensure we have live, protect the public’s health, and keep the economy moving.

As my colleague from Delaware men- tioned, I am a former Governor. I un- derstand the challenges that State and local officials are experiencing. In New Hampshire, we were able to put health guidance, local and State officials took necessary steps to close down portions of the economy in order to save lives.

They are now feeling the impacts of revenue shortfalls directly related to those actions, all while keeping up their efforts to provide the frontline services necessary to save lives and provide economic relief.

In a virtual roundtable with mayors and municipal leaders across the Granite State last month, officials described to me the dire situation that they are up against. Dover Mayor Bob Carrier stated: “The tsunami of lost revenue is on its way.” Claremont Mayor Charlene Lovett noted how many local governments across the country are playing out in cities and towns all across our country.

As educators and parents make deci- sions on whether schools will be in person, remote, or a hybrid version, local officials are facing deep uncertainty about what the operational costs for schools will be. Situations like these are playing out in cities and towns all across our country.

Without additional funding from the Federal Government, States will be forced to slash education, to slash infra- structure, and to slash public health budgets, which would be devastating, especially in the midst of a pandemic. It is not just a loss in the services that people depend on. Millions of addi- tional jobs would be lost as well—not only the jobs of public workers, by the way, but, for example, the private ven- dors who often do some of this work. Think about construction workers on an infrastructure project.

Moody’s Analytics reported that without significant Federal support for State and local governments, 4 million more people—4 million more people—could lose their jobs. That loss would be catastrophic. The ripple effect would be felt throughout our entire economy. We can’t let that happen.

Senate Democrats are focused on pro- viding significant economic relief for State and local governments through- out our country because we recognize that it is essential for economic recov- ery. And, as part of our efforts to support economic recovery, we must en- sure that States have the flexibility to use this funding to backfill revenue loss due to COVID–19 and preserve jobs. Providing this funding will mitigate some of the economic damage caused by this pandemic.

In addition, as we have heard from local leaders, from our educators, from parents, it is vital that we provide separate, dedicated funding for schools. Senate Democrats have proposed $430 billion to help schools implement public health protocols, address the challenges we all have fallen behind, and provide quality education to all students, regardless of how the schools reopen.

Our approach stands in stark contrast to the inadequate proposal put forward by Senator MCCONNELL, which provides too few resources to schools and would actually withhold aid if schools don’t fully reopen in person, even as the administration has failed to provide supplies and a strategy that would help with reopening.

We need our Republican colleagues to work with us and deliver sufficient relief without any further delay. We need to provide State and local governments, our schools, our first responders, our teachers—with strong bipartisan support from the Federal Government.

I know that right now in New Hampshire as teachers face uncertainty, they are making lesson plans and trying to figure out how they are going to make sure that their children engage in their remote learning at home if their school system doesn’t reopen. Providing resources to their students as well.

All across our State, I know that today’s heavy rains caused flooding, our public workers will be out there around the clock protecting their communities. I know that our law enforcement, our firefighters will continue to respond to calls whether or not they have enough personal protective equipment because that is what they do. They protect, and they serve. They do it with dedication, and they do it with commitment. They provide essential services that keep our communities safe and healthy. It has never been as important as it is now.

All we are asking is that we come together across party lines, with the White House, and support our State and local governments in this time of need so that we can continue to fight this pandemic and so that we can continue to provide our children and the children of our schools, our first responders, our teachers—with strong bipartisan support from the Federal Government.

That is what State and local aid will provide to the people of New Hampshire and the people of our country. That is what this moment—this moment—awaits us about healthcare crisis that we have seen in 100 years and the worst economic crisis since the Great Depression—that is what this moment demands. The livelihoods of millions of Americans and the lives of millions of Americans depend on our taking action right now.

I yield the floor to my colleague from Ohio.
Before this crisis began, Nevada had not mismanaged its State’s finances. The State had a record-low unemployment rate of 3.6 percent, and we had a rainy day fund for emergencies, but we have needed to use hundreds of millions of dollars from this rainy day fund in order to try to address our budget shortfall. Nevada has a tough road ahead and difficult choices to make, but Nevada is not alone. Many States across the country are identical. They are in similar situations. Red and blue States are facing this very challenge due to no fault of their own. Cities and towns are struggling to contain the health and fiscal impacts of this pandemic.

During a special session of the Nevada State Legislature, lawmakers overwhelmingly approved a resolution to ask Congress and the Trump administration for funding for State, local, and Tribal governments in order to help offset an expected $1.2 billion budget shortfall caused by this pandemic, and they needed the flexibility to spend it based on local needs.

Nevada’s Governor, Steve Sisolak, offered a statement that applies to the whole Nation: Without additional Federal support for State and local funding, States will be “forced to make impossible decisions regarding funding critical public health, education, and more situations. Red and blue States are facing this very challenge due to no fault of their own. Cities and towns are struggling to contain the health and fiscal impacts of this pandemic.”

Without additional State and local funding from Congress, our State’s budget shortfall will make it overwhelmingly difficult to provide healthcare to everyone who needs it, to fund our local school systems, and to pay our first responders, and it would leave countless Nevadans in distress who rely on public programs.

The CARES Act established a coronavirus relief fund to support States, Tribes, and large local governments. In Nevada, that funding has helped to provide support for Medicare providers, which has allowed continued healthcare for our seniors and treatment for COVID-19 patients. It has provided for enhanced testing and contact tracing in our communities. It has provided for childcare programs that are used by essential workers. It has provided home-delivered meals, home healthcare, and support for families and their caregivers. It has provided PPE and critical supplies, like gloves and masks and sanitizers.

Does any of this sound unnecessary to you? This crisis isn’t over, and those needs are still here. I have spoken to mayors and county commissioners across Nevada, and they are worried. They must make tough decisions on the other side of this crisis. They want to protect and they want to secure their communities. They are counting on us. They are counting on Congress to have their backs in this effort. Congress must ensure that support reaches all Americans in every kind of community.

One of the CARES Act relief fund’s shortcomings was that it provided no direct support to cities and localities with populations under 500,000. For a State like Nevada, that means, except for Las Vegas, every other city in the Silver State would be excluded from direct funding from the Federal Government. That is why, in April, Senator Catherine Cortez Masto and I introduced the Coronavirus Community Relief Act—legislation that would provide $250 billion in new stabilization funds directly to cities and counties with populations under 500,000.

We know State and local leaders are the ones best equipped to respond to their communities’ unique needs, and they are desperate. They desperately need the resources to do this. Unfortunately, Leader McConnell has refused to allow the Senate to take up the Heroes Act—legislation passed by the House that provides continued support for State, local, and Tribal governments, including those cities and counties under 500,000 that recognizes that the pandemic continues to damage our communities and that this recovery will take time.

The Heroes Act would allow States to pay for frontline healthcare workers, first responders, and other workers, and would continue to provide those essential services to all of our residents. The House passed the Heroes Act over 80 days ago—80 days ago—while the majority leader’s own proposed legislation, the HEALS Act, does absolutely nothing to address the critical issue of State and local funding.

Without action, States across the Nation will face consequences that could have a devastating impact on countless lives. History will judge the way we treated each other during this pandemic. Each of us in the U.S. Senate is in a position to do something—just something. I implore my colleagues to consider the lives of their constituents, to really pay attention, to really hear what is happening in their communities and in communities across this Nation—in town after town, in city after city—and I want them to remember that we are all in this together.

I yield the floor to the great Senator from the State of Nevada, Catherine Cortez Masto.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. Boozman). The Senator from Nevada.

Ms. CORTEZ MASTO. Mr. President, you can hear the passion not only in the colleague Senator Rosen, with whom I am proud to stand side by side to represent the great State of Nevada, but in all of the Senators on the floor today in their talking about this particular issue.

At kitchen tables all over the country, including in Nevada, families are sitting down and are pouring over their budgets. Too many of them are trying to figure out how to stretch those budgets with no income, and they are absolutely overwhelmed, on which bills need the most urgent attention. Our State and local and Tribal governments across this country are doing the same thing. With the economic downturn caused by the coronavirus pandemic, State and local governments have less revenue at a time when they need those resources to combat the virus and keep Nevadans safe. That is why, when Congress passed the CARES Act in March, we knew that they could not make services running and expand their responses during this crisis. We needed to guarantee these governments could cover the costs of emergency shelters for COVID patients. We had to make sure that frontline responders had enough personal protective equipment on hand for them to do their jobs. We also wanted local governments to help people stay in their homes. We allocated $150 billion from the coronavirus relief bill to local, state, and Tribal governments in March. That was a compromise. We came together. We worked together to solve that problem. I heard on the floor of the Senate today that there is bipartisan support for this funding as well, but we all knew back in March when we passed the $150 billion as part of the CARES Act, that it was not going to be enough.

We weren’t sure, but now we know it is not enough, and we have to do something about it. We are seeing across the country how local governments and States are dealing with this pandemic.

Senator Rosen just noted that in Nevada, we are in the middle of a special session. The Governor had to call a special session of our legislature because we have a budget hole of about $1.2 billion related to COVID–19 pandemic and the impact it has had.

What is that impact? It is the impact we are all feeling across this country. Listen, we are in the middle of a health crisis. Until we have that vaccine, we have to keep people safe. And the one thing that we have asked them across the country, including in the State of Nevada, in every county, is that if you shelter in place, if you go home, if you shut your business and help us stem the spread of this virus, we will take care of you. We will help you put food on the table. We will help you pay your rent, make sure you have a roof over your head, and utilities. We will put money in your pockets.

Oh, and by the way, we will make sure that those small businesses have access to liquidity so that when we can come outside and outdoors again safely and securely, our economy will spring back that much quicker.

Unfortunately, when we asked everyone across the country to follow that advice and stay safe, we made a commitment to them as well—a long-term commitment that we would continue to work together in a bipartisan way to solve this problem and make sure that people and individuals had money in their pockets and that businesses had access to liquidity so that we could get through this crisis together.

In Nevada—and we have seen this conversation happening across the country—schools are opening in just a few short weeks, and many of the leaders in my State, the leaders at the state and local level are looking to Washington for help.

Most States aren’t allowed to borrow to meet these expenses, and I know our esteemed majority leader has thought that bankruptcy is an option for them, but I can tell you that for me and for Nevada, this is not an option. It just cannot happen.

In the State of Nevada, like most States, they are required by law to balance their budgets. Tribal councils, county commissions, and the Nevada State Legislature are doing what families have been asked to do—they are coming together to ask themselves how they can pay the most urgent bills in the middle of this pandemic because our economy has been ground to a halt.

So I think it is time for our body to come together and do what the American people expect of us, which is to work in a bipartisan way to solve this problem and really look at how we can continue the funding that is necessary for our State and local governments. Families not only in Nevada but across this country expect that of us now.

So I would hope the majority leader would be willing to work across this country and work together and do what the American people expect of us now.

In Nevada, we have beautifully diverse communities, and we have urban and rural areas alike. We all talk to the leaders of all of our counties, our city governments, and our Governor. Whether they are Republican or Democratic or Independent, there is still one thing in common: They want us to come together to find a solution to help us through this crisis. And when there is no revenue coming in because our economy has been ground to a halt as we address this health crisis.

Tax revenues are down due to high unemployment, rising healthcare costs, and the decrease in spending and emergency relief costs continue to skyrocket, and that means our States, our cities, and our towns have run out of is flexible. Make sure we have the opportunity not just to work through the State, but that the money goes directly to some of our local governments, who I have found—and I don’t know, as you all go home, but I have found that the money that we did give them in the CARES Act has been put to good use because—do you know why—because local and State governments and Tribal governments know what their communities need.

Why should we dictate to them if they are going to use the money to help people who need rental assistance at this point in time or if they want to use that money to put food on people’s tables because they are not working? I mean, isn’t that what this is about—all of us working together to help our families across this country, to make sure we can all stay safe but still pay those bills and still keep our families safe and make sure our businesses are taken care of.

I know this: At the end of the day, in the middle of a crisis, our governments at the State, local, and Tribal government level are the social safety nets. Where do you think our constituents go when they need that help? Families are looking to us to provide them the necessary resources that are needed right now in the midst of this pandemic because our economy has been ground to a halt.

So I think it is time for our body to come together and do what the American people expect of us, which is to work in a bipartisan way to solve this problem and really look at how we can continue the funding that is necessary for our State and local governments.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Hawaii.

Mr. SCHATZ. Mr. President, we are on the precipice of a depression because of the virus. Right now, every single State and most counties and most cities are experiencing a budget crisis like they haven’t seen in generations.

Tax revenues are down due to high unemployment, rising healthcare costs, and the decrease in spending and emergency relief costs continue to skyrocket, and that means our States, our cities, and our towns have run out of money or are quickly running out of money. But in the latest proposal, the Republicans allocate nothing at all to State and local government. You heard that correctly. In midst of the biggest public health crisis in a century, Republican will only send a single dollar in emergency aid to our States, our cities, and to our counties.

Economically, this is just ridiculously bad. It will cost roughly 4 million jobs, and it will have a direct impact on GDP and on the programs and serviced in order to survive on the other side of this pandemic.

Budget shortfalls among State and local governments are approaching half a trillion already, and for my home State of Hawaii, we are confronting over a billion dollars in losses.

Unlike the Federal Government, our State and local governments are operating with finite amounts of dollars. They don’t have unlimited line of credit. And a majority of States require appropriated budget by the end of the year. So it is one thing for States and counties and municipalities to juggle and survive for a few months by moving money around, using cash flow management, paying bills late, relying on rainy day funds, but they can’t do that forever. By now, many have burned up their reserves, and the cupboard is bare, and the bills are due.

The decisions that the Republicans are making right now—the official policy and funding local governments is to force millions to be laid off in the middle of the worst pandemic in 100 years.

Refusing to send aid to States and local governments isn’t just cruel; it is bad economic strategy. Moody’s released a report projecting that it could shave as much as three full percentage points from GDP—three full percentage points from GDP.

There are certain things that are not within the U.S. Senate’s control as it relates to GDP, but this is a choice we are about to make—to lay off public service workers, to actually—I mean, we passed the PPP program, which basically subsidizes keeping people employed. We just do that because it is the right thing to do, and we especially do that in the middle of the public health crisis at a century and the worst economic situation we have had in almost a century.

I reject the idea that Leader Schumer and Leader McConnell and Speaker Pelosi and Secretary Mnuchin have to cut a deal on State and local funding. Every single Member of the U.S. Senate, as soon as this ends up in the bill, is going to take credit for it. They are going to say: Look, I got you money. But let the record reflect that the proposal that the Republican conference was that States, counties, and municipalities get zero, and that is not tenable.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Hampshire.

Mrs. SHAHEEN. Mr. President, I wanted to join my colleagues on the floor today to support legislation that would address the needs that we are hearing from State and local governments and that would support bipartisan legislation to address this pandemic. That is what we have had to date, and there is no reason why we can’t get there this time.

As you know so well, last week the United States crossed a devastating milestone. More than 150,000 Americans, including 417 Granite Staters, have died due to complications from COVID-19. Sadly, as we all know, those numbers keep increasing. The continuing coronavirus pandemic has also wreaked havoc on our economy. The Commerce Department reported on Friday that our gross domestic product had shrunk to nearly 33 percent—the sharpest economic decline in modern American history.

For months, my colleagues and I have been coming to the floor, week after week, urging the majority to take up proposals that would provide critical changes to our healthcare system and comprehensive relief for our economy, but what we have gotten is a package that fails to address many of the concerns I have heard from Granite Staters.

The bill that was presented to this Senate by the Republican majority doesn’t provide dedicated funding to help nursing homes and long-term care facilities, which are the most vulnerable to COVID-19. In fact, in New Hampshire, 80 percent of our deaths from coronavirus have been to people in long-term care facilities—the highest percentage in the country.

This package doesn’t include housing assistance and eviction protections. It inadequately funds testing and it pressures schools to reopen in order to receive assistance.

Importantly, the bill lacks any support for State and local governments that are struggling to maintain essential services while they are also on the frontlines battling this pandemic. Every day, mayors and community leaders tell me about what they are facing—the massive reduction in local tax revenues and increased costs due to COVID-19 response efforts. These challenges have left our State and municipal governments in dire straits.

I would like to read an excerpt from a letter I received from Mayor Joyce Craig, the mayor of Manchester, New Hampshire’s largest city. She says:

Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, Manchester was thriving. Over the past two years, we saw over $250 million in new, private investment in economic development; we expanded air service from the Manchester-Boston Regional Airport; and we were seeing a continual decrease in opioid overdoses. But due to the COVID-19 pandemic, our bright path forward has grown foggy, and I am concerned about what lays ahead for my city.

Mayor Craig goes on to say that since the pandemic began, Manchester’s revenue is down by over $3.5 million, including a $1.6 million decrease in property taxes that are collected. In total, the State of New Hampshire expects to experience a budget shortfall of nearly $540 million. That is about a 20-percent drop in State revenues.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the letter I quoted from Mayor Craig of Manchester be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:
As you know, New Hampshire’s cities and towns are on the front lines of responding to COVID–19. Day by day, we are seeing the impact this pandemic is having on our residents, businesses, and non-profits. It’s a time of disruption like we have never experienced before.

None of us know how long this crisis will last, but we are thankful for your tireless efforts to advocate for Granite Staters through the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. I am writing you today to urge you to support and advocate for sending additional relief directly to municipalities like the City of Manchester in the ‘Health and Economic Recovery Omnibus Emergency Solutions’ (HEROES) Act.

Prior to the COVID–19 pandemic, Manchester was thriving. Over the past two years, we saw over $250 million dollars in new, private investments in economic development; we expanded air service through Manchester-Boston Regional Airport; and we were seeing a continual decrease in opioid overdoses. But due to the COVID–19 pandemic, our bright path forward has grown foggy, and I am concerned about what lays ahead for my city.

Just as many small businesses and corporations are struggling, so are our municipalities. In an effort to reduce the financial burden on our citizens and business, local governments have absorbed many costs, which has resulted in a significant reduction in revenue. Since the pandemic began, our City’s revenue is down by over $3.5 million to date, including a $1.6 million decrease in property taxes collected, and a $750,000 in parking revenue reduction. Additionally, our partners, like the New Hampshire Fisher Cats, have reduced the financial help from the City to ensure they make it through this difficult time.

While Manchester and other New Hampshire cities and towns have received some additional funding through the CARES Act, we are extremely limited in the way that we’re able to use these funds. We are often unable to be reimbursed for the expenses that the City needs most at this time, like revenue losses, property tax relief and affordable housing.

We have had to make hard decisions to keep our city afloat. City departments have had to hold 28 vacancies, have put a freeze on all non-essential spending, and have been forced to reduce some City services, like parks and recreation activities and facilities. Our city employees have gone above and beyond to fill these gaps, but without additional funding, our staffing and service reductions will continue to grow.

Our citizens are feeling the burden of the COVID–19 pandemic. Many have had their hours cut back or have lost their jobs. They have lost childcare, and some are on the verge of losing their homes. At this difficult time, we are seeing an increasing need for the services that our residents, not decreasing them. Manchester is facing an affordable housing and homelessness crisis that we know is driven by COVID–19. As we inch closer to the moratorium on evictions being lifted, it is more important than ever that municipalities like Manchester receive federal funds that can be used to prevent homelessness and alleviate our housing crisis.

Just as financial assistance was sent directly to individuals and small businesses impacted by COVID–19, the cities and towns managing local responses to this pandemic should be allocated the necessary resources to properly care for our citizens. I appreciate the work that you are all doing in Washington to fight for the people of New Hampshire. When you are fighting for the Granite State in Congress, I urge you to keep the State’s municipalities in mind.

Sincerely,

Joyce Craig
Mayor
City of Manchester

Mrs. SHAHEEN, Today I also spoke to the mayor of Nashua, Jim Donchess. The mayor told me that he expects to lose 10 percent to 20 percent of the revenue base in Nashua. That is $7 million to $15 million. That means that services would be affected and workers would have to be laid off.

In fact, as he told me, if he had to take all of the savings that he would need to achieve from the revenue losses from just local responses to COVID he would result in laying off half of the entire police department in the city or laying off 150 to 200 teachers. Obviously, that is not tenable.

I also heard from the mayor of Berlin, Paul Grenier, the mayor of New Hampshire’s northernmost city. He told me because of the impacts of COVID–19, the State of New Hampshire is also facing revenue shortfalls. As I said, they are expecting about $540 million in revenue losses. As he said, if the Federal Government doesn’t provide some help to State and local communities, his city of Berlin is expected to lose not just any potential funding at the Federal level but State funds it had budgeted for because it was anticipating that it would get State funding as it usually does. So losing help from Congress in any COVID–19 package would have a double impact on the city of Berlin and all communities across New Hampshire.

I heard from mayors, town administrators, from local leaders, and from our Republican Governor Kirsten Noonan. All of them are grappling with whether they will be able to fund the services that they have committed to, whether they will have to lay off first responders, firefighters, police, and teachers if Federal assistance doesn’t arrive soon.

New Hampshire is not alone. We just heard Senator SCHATZ talking about the impact on Hawaii and Senators CORTEZ MASTO and ROSEN talking about the impact on Nevada. Everyone who has been to the floor is talking about what they are seeing in the States if we don’t do something to help.

No State could have anticipated the economic fallout from this pandemic. That is why it is essential that Congress provide Federal support to help State and local governments as they respond to this crisis.

We have done that before in the bipartisan CARES Act. New Hampshire was able to receive $1.25 billion to help reimburse the State for its COVID-19 response. These funds have been used in New Hampshire to create relief programs for county and municipal governments, small businesses, nonprofits of all sizes, frontline workers, and for schools and providers. But of course, as we know, that money is running out, and so more needs to be done.

We need State and local funds to provide additional support for families who are experiencing housing insecurity or homelessness, minority- and women-owned small businesses and individuals in recovery or are in need of mental health services. New Hampshire has been severely affected by the opioid epidemic, and people who have substance use disorders are feeling the impact of this coronavirus perhaps more than their neighbors and other people in our State.

In addition to providing dedicated funding for State and local jurisdictions, the next relief package should remove bureaucratic restrictions preventing these governments from using emergency relief funds as they see fit. Congress should also provide dedicated funding for counties, cities, and for small communities with fewer than 500,000 residents. They need access to this funding because they are just as much on the frontlines—the rural communities in my State—as the biggest cities in this Nation. Communities of all sizes are facing substantial loss of revenue due to COVID–19, and they need our help.

Local leaders are calling out for help. We can’t just sit idly by and let these governments go bankrupt, as the majority leader suggests. This shouldn’t be a partisan issue. We all have a common interest in preserving as much of our economy as possible so that we are positioned for a full and robust recovery once we get through this coronavirus. I would hope that all of my colleagues in the Senate would recognize the urgency of this situation we are in and that we will take up and pass legislation that will provide assistance to State and local governments and provide the relief that americans are calling for.

The House passed legislation more than 2 months ago. Too much time has been lost, and it is time for Congress to act now.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. CAUDISSY). The Senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, we are heartbroken for the more than 155,000 Americans we have lost in this pandemic. We are grateful for those on the frontlines—the doctors, nurses, the healthcare workers who have served and sacrificed, and we are committed to finding a better way forward.

There is no excuse for how this virus has spread here in the United States. We have the capacity, the expertise, but we have not demonstrated the coordinated strategy or Presidential leadership to overcome this pandemic and economic disaster. Instead, the President engages in a pattern of denial and delay, downplaying the scope of this crisis.

This failed approach has led to thousands of premature deaths, double-digit unemployment, shuttered businesses, and spiking infection rates throughout the country. The economy will not snap back until we get COVID–19 under control and until States and communities have the resources they need to get a handle on this public health emergency.

The costs of fighting COVID–19 is rising. State and local budgets are now under severe strain while demand for essential public services, including medical care, safety, and sanitation, is going up and up and up. Moreover, schools need additional resources to reopen and support students, and the revenue that is coming in to our States and cities and towns is insufficient.

Without more help, they will be forced to make more drastic cuts which, in my State, could mean cutting critical funding for hospitals and nursing homes in a State with one of the oldest populations in the country, zeroing out the State’s job training program, closing an entire hospital, cutting Medicaid eligibility for vulnerable adults, and reducing childcare reimbursement rates, impacting working families and childcare providers throughout the State.

With State and local governments forced to lay off more workers, the unemployment crisis worsens, the customer base for Main Street shrinks, and the economy slides even further away from rebuilding. Indeed, the U.S. economy shrank at a 32.9-percent annualized pace between April and June.

We must break this vicious cycle by passing another emergency relief package that is right-sized to the challenge. The $2.3 trillion is about $1.7 trillion, a huge number—difficult to fathom. It wasn’t enough. Not even close. In fact, the pittance was smaller than the 2017 Republican tax bill. Those who now claim they can’t afford to help the unemployed and the communities throughout America are the same who quickly passed that $1.9 trillion tax bill in 2017, which largely benefited big businesses and the very wealthy at the expense of the average taxpayer who needs our help now.

If there was a will then to spend so much so quickly on an ill-conceived and misdirected tax bill, the majority should have no qualms about spending whatever it takes now to beat this virus that is attacking our citizens and our economy.

For starters, we need improved testing and contact tracing, more support for our hospitals and healthcare providers, and an effective approach to vaccine development and distribution. All while preserving as much of our economy as we can to have a strong foundation from which to rebuild and rebound.

As Federal Reserve Chairman Jay Powell said last Wednesday, “The path of the economy is going to depend to a very high extent on the course of the virus, on the measures that we take to keep it in check. . . . We can’t say it enough.”

That is why we need additional and flexible Federal assistance for State and local governments that are fighting this virus on the frontlines while also trying to keep their local economies afloat. The CARES Act passed, we needed $750 billion for State and local governments to do both. The CARES Act included $150 billion, and I have new legislation to provide $600 billion more.

We should support our State and local governments because they support our economy and, just as importantly, they protect our constituents from COVID–19.

By standing in the way of additional Federal funds for State and local governments, Republicans may force these governments to raise taxes on our constituents, make additional cuts to critical services, or worst, do both. Let’s avoid more pain.

Getting a handle on COVID–19 also means keeping families in their homes and avoiding waves of evictions and foreclosures that would lead to a major spike in homelessness, which would likely mean more infections.

At the same time, we should continue expanded unemployment benefits and provide nutrition assistance so people in desperate circumstances, through no fault of their own, can afford to pay their bills and eat. We must provide relief for the hardest hit businesses, many of which will continue to be shut down for the foreseeable future, including relief to the transportation sector.

Any agreement should also include more help for childcare providers, public schools, and college campuses to safely reopen, and support for libraries to keep our communities connected.

We must do all of this so that once we have gotten a better handle on the coronavirus, we have enough workers and businesses with which to rebuild our economy.

We also can’t lose sight of the need to safeguard our election infrastructure. Our Nation and our economy can’t take any more uncertainty. Hand in hand with that is supporting the U.S. Postal Service and its employees, who will play an integral role in delivering mail ballots and are continuing to provide a lifeline to Americans.

For the past 60 consecutive years, Democrats and Republicans have come together to strengthen our national security by passing the National Defense Authorization Act. I hope we can carry this same spirit of courtesy and cooperation as we craft the next fiscal relief package. Indeed, our national security also depends on the critical pillar of our economy. We must have the certainty to act sooner rather than later on a comprehensive and robust fiscal package.

With that, I yield the floor in the hopes that we will move quickly to legislation that will satisfy the needs of our cities and towns of all Americans so we can move forward together.

Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from West Virginia.

TRIBUTE TO GEORGE KAROS

Mrs. CAPITO. Mr. President, I rise today to honor and thank a very good friend of mine, Mayor George Karos of the city of Martinsburg—I said his name wrong, and I don’t want to do that because he is a good friend of mine—for his great service to the city of Martinsburg and the entire State of West Virginia.

He was always really great to work with and always gave credit to staff, and he did it with such good humor.

George is the son of Greek immigrants who did not speak English when they came to this country. They moved to Martinsburg before he was born. George was born in the early 1930s. George has called Martinsburg his home his entire life.

Growing up, he worked at Patterson’s Drug Store on Queens Street, where he swept the floors and rode his bike to deliver prescriptions. Over time, he worked his way up in the ranks, taking over the soda fountain and eventually worked as an assistant in the pharmacy section of the store.

George did leave Martinsburg briefly when he served his country in the U.S. Naval Hospital Corps, where he was stationed at both Bethesda Naval Hospital and Quantico Marine Corps Base in Virginia. He eventually returned to his home that he loved—Martinsburg—and he returned to Patterson’s Drug Store, which he later bought in 1980 and operated until his retirement in 2015. He then began a career as a public servant.

George was first elected to the city council as a councilperson-at-large in June of 1974, where he served for 26 years.

Following this, he decided to run for mayor of Martinsburg, and he served as the mayor for about 20 years and will retire this year at the age of 88.

George and I started our careers together. I started as his Congresswoman in the year 2000, and George started as mayor about 1999.

I know I speak for all of those from the Martinsburg community when I say that Mayor Karos truly made Martinsburg a better place to work and live.

I have had the honor and privilege of working closely with Mayor Karos during his entire time serving as the mayor of Martinsburg. We had a field hearing out in Martinsburg, and I remember the mayor being there and welcoming us. I see him at many ribbon cuttings and openings. I have been to his drugstore to be served at the counter. He is just a wonderful, wonderful man.
Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. President, I had the chance to at least hear the end of Senator CAPITO’s speech. I thank her for the work she has done on the opioid issue that she was talking about. It is one of the very productive areas of bipartisan giving all the way back to CARA with Senator PORTMAN and myself. I know West Virginia, like Rhode Island, had a terrible situation. I appreciate very much her comments.

CLIMATE CHANGE
Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. President, I am here today for a different topic. I am here for the 269th time with my increasingly battful of having to “Wake Up” poster to try to alert this Chamber to the threat of climate change—something, obviously, Louisiana knows very well—and to the forces that are blocking action on climate.

In these climate speeches, I have talked often about the insidious encroachment on American Government of special interest power, which is what is behind all this climate denial and obstruction.

It didn’t happen on its own. The fossil fuel industry’s political forces used the cover of anonymous funding—what we call dark money—and they used phony front groups and clever propaganda to accomplish their aims.

In effect, these fossil fuel political forces have run a covert operation against our own government. We observe the disturbances; we hear the rustling in the leaves; we see strange sites, but many, many, many, many others in Martinsburg.

The rest of the State agreed with this because George was named “Mayor of the Year” and “Public Official of the Year.” This came as no surprise to me and many, many others.

George’s favorite motto is “Plan your work and work your plan.” That is what he did. His other motto was something I think we could probably use around here: “A closed mouth catches no flies.” These were the words George followed every day when he was working as mayor. They helped to keep progress moving, and they perfectly describe how George conducted himself each and every day, which is why he was reelected many times but also so beloved in his community.

After 46 years of devoted service to his city and the community, Mayor Karos is retiring. While I am sad that this chapter is coming to a close, I am grateful for the opportunity to work together with him to better the city of Martinsburg. His leadership, successes, and his life mission will serve as an example to follow.

I really thank Mayor Karos for being a good friend and for letting me get to know him. I really thank him for his service and wish him the very best in his retirement, which is a program I have spoken about before many times on the Senate floor.

This initiative is spearheaded by the Martinsburg Police Department, the Berkeley County Schools, and Shepherd University with a wide array of local partners, such as the Boys and Girls Club of the Eastern Panhandle.

The goal of the program is to stem the horrible opioid addiction problem by identifying and trying to eliminate the basic causes of drug abuse in at-risk families. The mayor has been dedicated to this. The program is extremely successful and has made a tremendous impact in the Martinsburg community.

It is a perfect example of how a community can come together at different levels and work together to create a lasting and impactful solution to a big, big problem.

Through the actions taken under Mayor Karos’s administration, countless children in the Martinsburg area have now seen that there is a life away from illicit drugs and opioid addiction.

George exemplified hard work, dedication, and loyalty. He still does. This is evident in the length of time he served his community and also through the results that came from his vision and his collaboration with so many others in Martinsburg.

The covert special interest machinery behind this effort is not just dedicated to opposing climate legislation. Another covert operation it runs is implemented in our recent Senate Democrats’ report here that examines the bad actors behind the special interest Courthouse. This operation has crept forward over years, even decades. The Republican Party is more the tool of this effort than its principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a tool of this effort than its principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. Big donors are behind it. The goal here is to fashion for the donors a principal. would get the joke. That is why it has to be a covert operation, and that means it needs dark money—anonymously, untraceable funds.

A virulent little galaxy of 501(c)(4) groups, shell corporations, donor trusts, and other screening tools has been crafted to anonymize the donors and hide the connections. Why? Because the blood pumping through this beast that gives it life is dark money. If we expose that secret blood flow, the whole beast shrivels up; no dark money operations.

That is why efforts to expose the dark money donors provoke such hysterical reactions from the front groups and from their operatives and from their mouthpieces like the Wall Street Journal editorial page.

I have experienced these hysterical reactions over and over. Indeed, there was one in the news today. This speech might provoke even another.

But at the day, as Americans, I believe we share the proposition that nothing could be more corrupting than large flows of anonymous money in politics. That sort of money doesn’t even have to be spent to be corrupting. The mere threat of a political attack can or the donor saves the money. Or it could be a private promise of unlimited support.

Once a political weapon is permissible, private threats and promises to use or withhold that weapon are inevitable, and they are inevitably corrupting.

But don’t think the prospect of corruption daunts the schemers. A political regime that allows their corruption and helps cover up their covert operations is precisely what the dark money donors want.

Why else would we do nothing about climate change when it is so obvious? Why else would we ignore every respectable scientist in the field? Why else would we avoid the warnings of financial meltdown looming from bankers and economists across the country, even across the world? Why else ignore the fires that are burning up Siberia, for Pete’s sake, and, closer to home, the flood warnings along our coasts and the droughts and the floods and the storms across our States?

When astronomers see celestial bodies behave inexplicably, they look for the dark star, the black hole that influences the behavior of the visible bodies. Dark money is the dark star, the evil star influencing Congress’s behavior—or I should say misbehavior—on climate change.

So a preview of coming attractions here: The dark-money-funded race to capture the Court is also a race by the schemers to establish a new constitutional doctrine protecting their dark money schemes. Such a doctrine is already being grown in the dark-money-funded ideological hothouses, a theory that anonymity is protected by the First Amendment rights of association and petition—a theory giving powerful interests the constitutional right to run covert operations against their own government, leaving regular citizens beguiled or bewildered.

That theory may seem ludicrous, and, indeed, this notion got only the one vote from Justice Thomas in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Thoma

THE GREAT AMERICAN OUTDOORS ACT

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. President, I am here on the floor today to talk about some positive news and some positive news that happened just today. It is not about the coronavirus. It is not about politics. It is not about Hurricane Isaias.

It has to do with some urgent and historic help for our national parks, something that is really important to all of us. We all love our parks.

Today President Trump signed into law the landmark Great American Outdoors Act, landmark, bipartisan legislation that will protect and conserve our public lands. I am happy to see this effort finally cross the finish line because the natural beauty and rich history of our national parks is protected by the First Amendment rights of association and petition—a theory giving powerful interests the constitutional right to run covert operations against their own government, leaving regular citizens beguiled or bewildered.

That theory may seem ludicrous, and, indeed, this notion got only the one vote from Justice Thomas in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Thomas as is the dark money crowd’s leading indicator on the Court.

Don’t scoff. This argument is now popping up all over the corporate rightwing. Twice so far I have had corporate entities from whom I requested information about their dark money dealings “plead the First” in response to my questions.

The game is on, whether we realize it or not, and one of the stakes in the game is climate action. We cannot be idle about this. Groups that run covert operations against our own country are not to be trusted with that country’s welfare.

What a foul convergence it would be if the dark money schemers used dark money to fund a Court capture operation that delivered a Court-created doctrine hatched in dark money hothouses, protecting that dark money on dark money doctrine perma-

As I have said over and over, take away the corrupting dark money weaponry from the fossil fuel industry, and we solve climate change. We have lost a decade to Citizens United, the decision that gave this industry the weaponry to kill climate bipartisanship. It is a decade we and our children will rue having lost.

Let’s lose no more time. Let’s, once and for all, root out the corrupting dark money machinery, expose its nefarious and crooked covert operations, shut it down, and start running a real democracy around here again.

If we can’t do this now, then let’s pray for an election that lets us do it soon.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Ohio.
going to find that, over the years, we haven’t kept up with these maintenance needs so the water systems, the roads, the bridges, the bathrooms, the visitor centers, some of the trails—many of these are now in bad shape. Some are already severe.

When you go to a national park, you may find that a facility is closed because of a lack of funding for the deferred maintenance. We just haven’t had the funding to do the capital improvements they need so that they can stay functional.

Just the other week, I saw that first-hand at Cuyahoga Valley National Park in Northeast Ohio. It is a great park. It is the 13th most visited national park in America. It kind of runs between Cleveland and Akron, OH.

It suffered from these deferred maintenance problems for years. I saw a crumbling trail. I saw trails that were falling into the Cuyahoga River and couldn’t be used. I saw rusting historic train tracks run through the park. It is a tourist railroad that runs through. Train tracks are an expensive thing to replace. Again, it has to be done. I saw a bridge that was really unsafe to be on and has to be restored. It is a bridge that still stands. We want to preserve it, but the costs are just too high given the annual budget for that park.

Their maintenance backlog at that park alone is $50 million, yet their annual budget is about $11 million, which goes to the rangers and the programs and the maintenance and operations but is not enough money to take care of these big problems.

In a way, by not fixing these problems, we are also increasing the cost. Think about it. These costs compound year after year. In your own house, you might think about what happens if you don’t fix the leak in the roof. What happens is the drywall begins to have problems. You might have mold. The floors begin to buckle. And those wooden floors begin to buckle. You have additional costs that, if you had just fixed that roof, you wouldn’t have.

Well, that is where we are with the parks. If we take the time and the effort to make the fixes now, we will save money over time for taxpayers because we will not have the compounding costs. Every day, it gets worse and worse.

Now, finally, we have come up with a way to fix this. Congress has asked our parks, over the last few years, to give us their deferred maintenance projects with specificity: What are your priority projects? What are the top priorities? We have asked them to lay it out in detail.

It has been very helpful because we now know we have over $12 billion in maintenance needs but about $6.5 billion of that is high-priority projects—the projects most in need of immediate attention. We know what they are. They are ready. They have been vetted. We are proposing a source of funding to be able to deal with that because, again, the annual appropriations process does not come near enough to matching what we need to have done.

The highest priority needs at the parks is about $6.5 billion. In this legislation—now law of the land—royalty income is taken from onshore and offshore oil and gas. We are proposing that royalty is directed toward this use.

The next 5 years, enough of that funding will be there to deal with the $8.5 billion, half of the maintenance backlog. We would like to do better, but, frankly, this is historic. Never have we had the funds to go to the parks, never have we been able to deal with these backlogs that have built up over years.

It is really a debt unpaid. That is how I look at it. It is something we should have been doing all along. We weren’t. The costs have now snowballed, and now we need to deal with it. It is not so much a new responsibility as it is stewardship we never did in the first place. It is a debt unpaid.

Second, the biggest thing to save us money over time—assuming we want the parks to be working, we want the trails to be open, we want the visitor centers to be welcoming—all of which, of course, we do want and we must have.

The bill is not just important for our parks but also our economy, too, because these projects are infrastructure projects. We have talked a lot about here on how to get more jobs into our economy right now. With the impact of coronavirus on our economy, we need more opportunities out there. Infrastructure is one. These are infrastructure jobs—over 100,000 new jobs in this legislation alone.

Again, these projects are shovel-ready. They are vetted. They are ones that Congress—thanks to our asking the Park Service for the information—knows what jobs are out there and what projects need to be done.

It is a long-term investment too. As of 2019, visitor spending in communities near our parks resulted in $41.7 billion of benefit to the Nation’s economy and supported 340,000 jobs. It is new jobs in terms of construction, but it is also sustaining the parks and making them able to be attracting these visitors, which adds such a big economic boost to our economy.

I am proud that Congress has come together as Republicans and Democrats in a bipartisan way to support this important initiative, and I am thankful for the President and his support. He showed bold leadership by saying: You know what, we are going to do this. Other Presidents have talked about it. In the last three or four administrations, we have talked about it. Again, I have been working on it for a dozen years. Now we have actually been able to do it.

I also want to thank the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, Russ Vought, for his help; the Secretary of the Interior, David Bernhardt; and other members of the President’s team, including Ivanka Trump, who has always been strongly supportive of our national parks.

This is about responsible stewardship. These repairs were a debt unpaid. We are finally addressing them before the cost increase. Our parks have stood tall for more than a century now as the embodiment of America and our shared commitment to preserving some of our most magnificent lands.

Thanks to Restore Our Parks Act, we will now ensure that those parks stand tall for centuries to come.

HEROES ACT AND HEALS ACT

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. President, I also want to talk this afternoon a little about the Heroes legislation, the HEALS legislation, and some of the commonalities I see between the two. On the floor of the Senate this week, there has been some discussion about the need for us to come together in a bipartisan way to put together a package to deal with the coronavirus. Some call it the COVID 5.0 package. It is really probably 8.0. We have done a lot of legislation already, but there are those that still need and some urgent matters, including dealing with the expiration of the unemployment insurance.

I am on the floor today to talk about how I see the opportunity for us to move forward by looking at some of the commonalities between the Democratic support and the Republican support for different legislation. As we all know, the discussions over the past week have not moved forward as quickly as we would like. In fact, it is pretty discouraging. Despite the fact that many people thought the Heroes Act was really a messaging bill—POLITICO wrote a story, one of our news media sources up here—and said: “a messaging bill that has no chance of becoming law.” Others made the same comments. Why? Because it was a $3.5 trillion pricetag for legislation, which would make it by far the most expensive bill ever passed by either House of Congress. But also, at a time when we had $1.1 trillion leftover from the CARES package and States have only allocated an average of about 25 percent of their CARES Act funding, it seemed like pushing taxpayers to foot the bill for the costliest legislation in history maybe wasn’t the right way to go.

Also, it had virtually no support from Republicans. Also, this legislation included a lot of stuff that had nothing do with COVID-19. The sense was: Yes, it is an important messaging bill for Democrats—that is out there—but that we needed to figure out a way now to come together as Republicans and Democrats.

Leader MCCONNELL also introduced legislation that is called the HEALS Act. It is time for us to figure out how to come together and figure out a solution going forward. Particularly with regard to some of these urgent matters like unemployment insurance, we are already past time. Unemployment insurance already expired last Friday. We have to move forward with that. We should not be playing politics with people's livelihoods and making this a political football.

Last week and again today my colleague from Arizona, Senator McSALLY, introduced what I thought was a great commonsense idea: Let's extend the existing unemployment insurance, $600 per week Federal supplement, and then work on the assembly lines before we continue these negotiations so that people are not going to see their unemployment insurance checks decrease substantially. They would lose all the Federal benefit unless we do that. They would still have the State benefit but lose the $600 per week.

Unfortunately, Senate Democrats said no, objected to this commonsense idea. I don't quite get that. I think we ought to keep the $600 in place while we negotiate on the next week, and we ought to be sure and put the interests of the American people first and come to a commonsense solution. Now isn't the time for games. It is the time to get it right.

I also note that with regard to unemployment insurance, there are lots of ideas out there. For the last few months, I have been proposing the idea of a return-to-work bonus. Maybe that is not the best idea. Maybe people have better ideas. The notion there would be the $600, which is the current Federal benefit, allows people on unemployment insurance, in many cases, to have more income on unemployment than they would working.

According to the studies that have been done, including by the University of Chicago, about 68 percent of the people on unemployment insurance are making more money on unemployment insurance than they were making at work.

Most Americans, including most Members of this Chamber—Republicans and Democrats alike—think that is not right. You shouldn't make more not to work. Unemployment insurance is meant to give you a little help. In Ohio, it is about 50 percent, up to a certain cap, but it is not meant to replace your wages, plus—which is what is happening—on average, 134-percent increase in wages if you are on unemployment insurance.

There must be a way for us to come together and to solve this problem. There are Democrats and Republicans alike who have talked about perhaps lowering that amount from $600. I heard one of my Democratic colleagues on the floor today—the Senator from Oregon—talk about maybe you can tie it to the unemployment in the State. Others of us, again, and I have talked about the return-to-work bonus. You could take some of that $600 with you and as you work, which deal with, on a voluntary basis, the need for people to go back to work because employers are looking for folks.

Right now in Ohio, we have a lot of jobs open, a lot of manufacturing jobs, as an example. I was at a plant recently—a Ford plant—where they are looking for people. They have a 25-percent absenteeism rate right now. They attribute a lot of that to the fact that people need unemployment insurance, but they need the workers badly.

There are Honda plants in Ohio—that is another one of our manufacturers—where the white-collar workers are feeling it on the assembly lines because they can't get enough workers coming in.

I hear it across the board. I have heard it from those who are involved with developmental disabilities trying to get their workforce back. I have heard it from people who are involved with the treatment for opioids, so the alcohol and drug addiction boards are trying to get their people to come back to work. I have heard it from our small manufacturers, trying to figure out how to reopen and reopen safely but have a tough time getting people to come back to work. There is a need for us to figure this out.

For the workers themselves, it is much better for them to be connected with their employer again, isn't it? After all, that is where they are likely to get their healthcare. If they have it, they are likely to get their retirement savings. They are likely to get the training there to be able to keep up with the times. It is good to have people at work. The dignity and self-respect you get from work is something that is of value. We should all want that. All of us in this Chamber should focus on this issue and say: OK. The $600 was put in place during a tough summer. Let's be honest. A lot of people had a really tough time, and some people are still having a tough time. There should still be a way to address this, let me say, but it can't be paying people more not to work than to work. That makes no sense, as we are starting to open this economy and open it safely. We have to figure out a way forward here.

There are some Democrats who have worked on this issue. Timothy Geithner is an example of one who was Secretary of Treasury under President Obama, who put forward, along with other Democrats and Republicans, a proposal that said: Let's lower the amount, and let's tie it to the unemployment.

This is something that, in talking to my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, including some Democratic colleagues who have talked to me privately, they know, they get it; this is not working, and we need to fix it. Let's do that. It seems to me there is a lot of commonality there, and we should be able to figure out a way forward.

Let me mention some of the other places where I see a lot of commonality. First, both Republicans and Democrats agree that it is absolutely essential that as people return to work they do so safely. In the legislation we talked about earlier, the HEALS package, which Senator MCCONNELL introduced, there is a proposal that is called the Healthy Workplace Tax Credit Act. Basically, what it says is, if a business puts in place measures like a Plexiglas shield or do testing or have the PPE—the gloves and the masks and, in some cases, the gowns that are needed to stay safe—they should be able to get a tax credit on that. It not only encourages more employment, but it encourages employers to open in a safe way.

I spoke to a bunch of restaurants yesterday from Ohio. They called in to talk about the legislation. They love this because they have a lot of costs associated with making their places safe during the coronavirus pandemic. But this legislation, again, is stuck because we can't seem to get to a negotiation. That is one where Democrats and Republicans could come together.

There is another one that I think makes a lot of sense. It is called the Work Opportunity Tax Credit Expansion. That also is in the HEALS legislation. This has always been a bipartisan issue—the Work Opportunity tax credit. We have said simply that just as you can get a tax credit to hire veterans or to hire second-chance individuals who have come out of the prison system, you should be able to hire people from unemployment insurance who have lost their job because of COVID-19 and get a tax credit. This is something that, again, Democrats and Republicans should be able to work on together.

Finally, in the HEALS package, we also have legislation that has a lot of appeal to Republicans and Democrats that is an expansion of the employee retention tax credit from the bipartisan CARES Act. This is legislation that worked. It worked. We needed to expand it, and let's make this employee retention tax credit work better. We expand the amount you can get in terms of tax credit, expand the amount of time that has to be covered. It makes it a much better package for small businesses to use to be able to attract employees and to retain the employees they have. Again, this is nonpartisan, I would say, and certainly one that can be bipartisan.

Historically, these tax provisions have had bipartisan support. I worked with my friend BEN CARDIN in designing the employee retention credit in March, expanding the opportunity tax credit, which has always had bipartisan support, and the healthy workplace tax credit from the SIREMA actually has a very similar bill.

Second, there is agreement on both sides of the aisle, we have to support our schools and our businesses so our kids can get back into the classroom and our parents can get back to work.

With regard to schools, there is supposedly a big partisan divide over this issue. When I see it, I see schools, August 4, 2020 money being practically identical in the HEALS package and the Heroes Act that passed the House of Representatives. In fact, House Democrats provided around $58 billion for K-12. The HEALS Act actually increases that by $6 billion. There is so much more money in the HEALS legislation.

On the business front, both Democrats and Republicans have seen value in the Paycheck Protection Program we introduced in the CARES Act, which both sides seek to expand it. Albeit in somewhat different ways, but there is greater consensus here than one might think. We just need to sort out the details.

My colleague from Louisiana is here with me tonight in the Chamber. He has talked a lot about the need for us to improve the way we provide funding to local governments, municipalities, and to provide more flexibility. I don’t think there is much disagreement about that. We all want to see our dollars go where they are needed most.

There may be a disagreement the numbers, the amount of funding, but, again, the HEALS package has funding. The Democrats have more funding. But flexibility—that is one where I think there is a lot of bipartisan consensus.

I know it is a popular right now to say that we are so far apart we can never get together, but as I look at this, when you actually look at the individual pieces of this, I see a lot of commonalities. The final one I want to mention is one where I think there is a lot of bipartisan consensus.

Both the HEALS package and the Heroes Act provide increased funding for research into vaccines and antiviral treatments for this disease. Both acts also recognize the importance of increased funding for testing, which is critical in making sure we can safely and sustainably reopen.

There are more points of commonality between the Republican and Democratic approaches that I could mention. For example, there is a big difference between that and the $1 trillion that was in the proposal from Senator McConnell—$1 trillion. That used to be a lot of money.

Again, when you look at the actual details of this, when you look at what is actually in these two pieces of legislation, there is so much commonality.

I think it is critical that we get this legislation right. We have time to do that. In the meantime, as Senator McConnell has proposed, let’s continue the $600 for the next week.

Let’s be sure that we can build on these commonalities we see between these two pieces of legislation. Re-treating into partisan corners at this critical time doesn’t benefit any of us. It certainly doesn’t benefit the United States, and it doesn’t benefit us as an institution. It certainly doesn’t benefit the people I represent.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. Bar-asso). The Senator from Louisiana.

AIR AMERICA

Mr. Cassidy. Mr. President, I rise to speak of a largely unknown aspect of the Vietnam war and a too neglected aspect. I rise to highlight Air America and its role in military conflicts from the 1940s through the Cold War.

Air America, which was previously known as the Civil Air Transport, operated under a shroud of mystery, intrigue, and, at times, purposeful deceit to allow the organization to continue covert missions and operations. Air America lived the motto “Anything, Anywhere, Anytime, Professionally.”

Now, if you would look at this picture, you would think that this must be an Army helicopter pilot performing a rescue on battlefield. No, that pilot was a civilian. He was a contractor of sorts with the U.S. Government and was flying that helicopter to rescue that soldier or that marine, not an enlisted person. Its members, again, lived the motto “Anything, Anywhere, Anytime.” Professionally involving rescuing those from battlefields.

They garnered respect as cargo and charter airline pilots during the Secret War in Laos in the 1960s and 1970s. As the war progressed, the U.S. Government increasingly relied on Air America pilots to conduct search-and-rescue missions of downed U.S. military pilots—often in heavy combat areas with no weapons of their own. The daily risks that they took to save others earned them the reputation as being the most shot at airline. I shouldn’t laugh, but there is, I am sure, kind of a gallows humor they felt when they said that, “the most shot at airline.”

Here is a depiction of a plaque in Richardson, TX, that President Reagan dedicated. On it are the names of those who died as Air America pilots. At the plaque dedication in Dallas, President Ronald Reagan said: “Although free people everywhere owe you a debt of gratitude, our greatest debt is to your companions who gave their last full measure of devotion.”

While President Reagan recognized the contributions that these pilots made to the United States, Air America has received mixed support throughout its history. The Department of Defense and the CIA, among others, have argued that Air America pilots are not veterans, saying their heroic rescues of American soldiers were not covered by U.S. military contracts or within the scope of their mission.

These sentiments have kept Air America pilots from receiving veteran status and the benefits that come with the status. This needs to change. This need to change is based on declassified materials that show these pilots are deserving of such recognition for their exploits.

Who were these dedicated Americans serving in Air America?

Most crews had military training. Many bore the scars of fighting on the ground in Korea and Vietnam. They are former POWs and Special Forces—though as civilians they were pulled out of the war. These individuals served as smoke jumpers and water bombers who fought forest fires. They were smoke jumpers and flight mechanics. Thousands of personnel were indigenous people, both male and female. Air America members came from all walks of life to answer the call to serve.

Military aircraft was provided to employees to conduct combat-related activity in areas where the U.S. Armed Forces could not go due to treaties. They served at considerable risk. Numerous employees were seriously injured. However, their sacrifices were not given the same recognition as military members.

Lowell Pirkle was killed when an RPG hit his helicopter, and it burned to the ground. Saddest of all was the search for his remains to be repatriated and sent to Honolulu. When Deborah, Lowell’s wife, insisted that he be buried in Arlington Cemetery, she was informed that Lowell was ineligible because he did not serve in the military but in part of Air America. He would eventually be buried in Arlington due to his previous military service, though the work in both engagements was essentially the same.

Let me just pause for a second. Let’s look at this poster.

From 1962 to 1975, Air America inserted and extracted U.S. military personnel and provided combat support across the entire Vietnam field. Air America rescued hundreds of Americans and stranded Vietnamese, including the last out of Saigon in April 1975. Who can forget these dramatic photographs?

Air America pioneered remote landings during the Vietnam war to resupply U.S. troops and key allies, like the Hmong in Laos, and Air America pilots were the only known civilian employees to operate non-FAA-certified military aircraft in combat zones.

As previously mentioned, here is the memorial plaque in Richardson, TX, that honors the 146 Air America veterans who were killed. These men served “Anything, Anywhere, Anytime, Professionally.” Again, it has been denied that they actually performed their military duties, but, once more, declassified documents show that the U.S. Government owes Air America and, therefore, its members status as veterans.

In August 1965, Secretary of State Dean Rusk wrote: “Political factors require that Air America helicopters continue to assume responsibility for all search-and-rescue operations in Laos.”
A year prior, Ambassador to Laos Leonard Unger said: “Search and rescue is a crucial factor in maintaining the morale of pilots, and there is no prospect at this juncture of establishing effective search-and-rescue procedures without the use of both civilian (Air America) and U.S. military personnel.”

The stories go on, but I will add one more.

CIA Assistant General Counsel James Harris wrote to the Civil Service Commission: “In the case of Air America, it would have been virtually impossible to preserve the cover story had all the corporate employees been advised that they were really employees of the United States Government.”

It is time for the U.S. Government to set the record straight about Air America. Their service is commended by all who served with them, especially by those servicemembers whose lives were saved by Air America. We owe them more than a debt of gratitude. I urge my colleagues to consider the story of these brave pilots and work toward providing the recognition they deserve as Federal employees, including granting veteran status and the associated benefits.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

Mr. INHOFE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROTESTS

Mr. INHOFE. Mr. President, I want to start by doing something that has become a little controversial. It shouldn’t be, and the fact that it is reflects a sad time in our Nation’s history. Here it is:

To our Nation’s police, sheriffs, and all other law enforcement officers out there—State and Federal—thank you. I appreciate you and am grateful for your service.

Why has that become controversial? Because all of a sudden, criticizing and demonizing our Nation’s law enforcement has become the popular liberal thing to do.

Over the last few days, you have probably seen the liberal mainstream media making wild claims and accusations that President Trump has deployed so-called far-right police to Portland. These allegations got even more attention over the last few weeks because some of my Democratic colleagues came down to the floor and made the wildest accusations about how the Federal officers were the worst in the world.

Some of the words they used were: “bold,” “sadistic,” “Gestapos,” “storm troopers,” and “secret police.” There was even a story designed to stir the emotions of everyone watching. They were talking about the law enforcement community. They were talking about sheriffs and police. Rather than letting these wild allegations go unchecked, let’s remember how we got here.

For over 60 days, violent demonstrators have laid siege on Portland. That is not an exaggeration. They have specifically and deliberately attacked a Federal courthouse, attempting to destroy it. Let’s be clear: These are not peaceful protesters. Everyone agrees in the First Amendment and the support for peaceful demonstrations. We all agree on that. That is not what we are talking about here. That is not what happened. The anarchist groups co-opted the peaceful protests with the fires, the lasers, the bricks, the Molotov cocktails, the sledgehammers, and more.

See the chart. This chart we have here, the one on the right says:

Day 53. Federal facilities and law enforcement officials targeted and attacked overnight. One officer injured and 5 arrested.

The one on the left says:

Day 36. Last night six DHS law enforcement officers were shot in Portland. To make it clear, criminals assaulted FEDERAL officers on FEDERAL property . . . and the city of Portland did nothing.

The response from local leaders? They have caved to the mob and will not allow local law enforcement to protect Federal property. In fact, they have demanded Federal law enforcement leave and surrender to the mob. Can you imagine? This is in America that this happened.

So that leaves us two options: One, completely give in to the mob and let them burn down the taxpayer-funded courthouse—and we all know that they will not stop there—or, two, send additional Federal resources to Portland.

We are a nation of law and order. Additional Federal resources is the only correct answer here. The Department of Homeland Security doesn’t have a choice. They are legally required to protect these facilities.

Contrary to what has been reported in the media, these Federal officers are acting in accordance with the law. They have the legal authority and responsibility to protect Federal property, as well as detain, question, and arrest anyone in accordance with that. Specifically, that is laid out in 40 U.S. Code 1315. So they aren’t some sort of secret police; they are legal law enforcement doing what local law enforcement wasn’t being allowed to do locally there, so they took up their responsibilities and performed.

Last week, Governor Brown finally conceded. I guess he just got to the point where he was willing to be fearful for the people and their injuries and the terrorist activity that was going on. But he conceded and allowed the Portland Police Bureau to clear out the downtown parks that were a base for the agitators and let the State police officers defend Federal properties.

That is the responsible thing to do, and it shows the President’s commitment to working with State and local law enforcement when additional resources are needed.

It could be easy to think that this is an outlier, but, sadly, the national “defund the police” movement—it is a movement in this country now. Everyone is talking about it, defend law enforcement. The movement is having a real impact throughout America.

The result? Shootings have increased in New York by 277 percent this year; in Chicago, by 50 percent this year, and in May, they saw the most violent chart that we have had in America, over 10,000 residents were controlled by Democrats, and the one that wasn’t controlled by Democrats was an Independent, but that Independent is a Democrat.

I guess they hoped we would only read the headline and not see the data that shows the impact of the lack of leadership. In case you can’t tell watching at home, the blue lines on the chart that will go up later—what we have here is the claim “that the most dangerous cities in America all run by Democrats. They aren’t.” But then they found out that they are. Here they are. The blue lines are run by the Democrats; the red lines, Independents. So that is a problem.

Honorable, good law enforcement officers are enduring severe budget cuts from spineless politicians who want to concede to the far-left “defund the police” movement. They are being overstretched and overburdened.

That doesn’t even get into the injuries law enforcement has endured during these violent protests recently. In Portland alone, that person fac- ing possible permanent blindness after having high-intensity lasers shown in their eyes. Other officers have faced injuries from being hit with bricks and fireworks. They have endured verbal attacks being spit at, the most offensive names. At least 30 officers have been victims of a doxing, where anarchists share where their families live online so they can have access to them. In fact, since July 4, over 25 Federal law enforcement officers have been injured in Portland.

Fortunately, President Trump is taking action, standing up for our police and also for law enforcement in our communities. Last week, he launched Operation Legend, a Federal law enforcement initiative that will work with State and local officials to address the spike in violent crimes that we are seeing in too many cities. This is the right approach to restore law and order.

The last thing I will leave you with on the floor is, 2 weeks ago, in the midst of sensationalizing statements, the former Governor from Oregon claimed I implored him, basically, implying that if what was happening in Portland was happening in Oklahoma, I would feel differently. Well, that isn’t—the difference isn’t how I would feel. The difference is between Oklahoma City and Oregon, I guess. In Oklahoma, we respect our police and the sheriffs and the State troopers.

This is a good one here. This is in the Springfield Divisi—in law enforcement in Oklah—oma. I walk past this every time we come and go from the station. What a wonderful community we see serving here in Oklahoma City. You can read statements of people saying how much they appreciate our law enforcement officers. This is the door that was there, and it is covered with hearts on the door. That tells the story.

The sacrifice they make daily is real. They put their lives on the line to protect and serve our communities, but they also work long hours in difficult conditions. Here is a reminder of that sacrifice.

I will put up two officers here. There are two officers whom I am going to show you. Last month, two Tulsa police officers were conducting a routine traffic stop, pulling over a car with expired tags. As any veteran officer will tell you, there is no such thing as a routine traffic stop anymore.

This is no exception. Officer Zarkeshan, a rookie, and Sergeant Craig Johnson had no way of knowing that the man they had just pulled over was armed. The man on the left is Craig Johnson. Both officers were shot multiple times. Sergeant Johnson, who has two young sons, died. Officer Zarkeshan, after enduring multiple surgeries, is blessed. He is now stable. McDaniel was the first Black American to the yoke of the monarchy.

But Yahoo’s article even says if there is “a tradition that merits any part of society,” it is time “to just throw it away.” That throwing it away has extended to statues of our Founders, like George Washington and Thomas Jefferson. It also includes Mahatma Gandhi and Ulysses S. Grant.

It even includes historical items from popular culture like “Gone with the Wind”—yes, “Gone with the Wind.” They wanted to do away with “Gone with the Wind.” The organization that has a program where, online, they can dial up any movie that they want to do, one of them is “Gone with the Wind,” and they want to do it because of—they say—the culture. That happens to be the one that Hattie McDaniel was the first Black American to win an Oscar for.

This is the mob that is going on right now. Like so many American families, I watch with shock and dismay as to how many are setting aside critical thought and the free, patriot Americans against the British soldiers subjected to the yoke of the monarchy.

could happen in other cities where lawlessness is pervasive. Thankfully, we have a President who stands up for law and order and for our law enforcers.

Where would we be without our brave police and sheriffs? I hope we never find out.

With that, Mr. President, I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. LANKFORD). The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I move to proceed to executive session to consider Calendar No. 665.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the nomination.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read the nomination of John Peter Cronan, of New York, to be United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York.

CLOTURE MOTION

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I send a cloture motion to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The cloture motion having been presented under rule XXII, the Chair directs the clerk to read the motion.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the nomination of John Peter Cronan, of New York, to be United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the mandatory quorum call be waived.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to legislative session for a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 10 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

TRIBUTE TO EUGENE F. COYLE

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, today I wish to recognize and pay tribute to Mr. Eugene F. Coyle, a patriot who served in the U.S. Army during the Korean war.

At the age of 23, Sergeant Eugene F. Coyle enlisted in the U.S. Army, just 3 months after he graduated from high school in 1940. As a rifleman and machinegunner assigned to the 24th Infantry Division, 21st Regiment, 2nd Battalion, F Company, Eugene was quickly put into the fight, experiencing a number of combat engagements with the enemy.

One such engagement occurred in April 1951 near the Hwacheon Reservoir, South Korea, where Eugene exhibited composure under fire. As squad leader, Eugene led an advance against the enemy until his position was hit by mortar fire. Despite sustaining injuries from the shelling, he continued to provide covering fire for his unit.

During another combat engagement in early July 1951, in the vicinity of Sabanggo-ri, North Korea, an enemy mortar round threw Eugene from his fighting position. Eugene, though injured by shrapnel, would not leave the fight. He regained his footing and ran to aid a severely injured soldier, getting him to cover. Eugene was later sent to the hospital ship USS Repose for his own injuries.

Eugene, deserving of commendation for his courage under fire, as well as for his wounds resulting from close engagement with enemy forces, would unfortunately wait decades before the Nation properly recognized him for his service and sacrifice, even as he carried a piece of shrapnel embedded within his body for over 60 years.

On November 15, 2017, Eugene F. Coyle was presented the Purple Heart in addition to the United Nations Service Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Korean War Service Medal, and the Combat Infantry Badge. Like many veterans of his generation have experienced, poor or lost records have made it difficult to meet stringent administrative requirements for certain military awards. This challenge does not diminish their courage, nor our gratitude, for their actions in defense of freedom.

The gallantry of Eugene F. Coyle reminds us what we owe heroes like him for the sacrifices, often unrecognized and unrequited, that they have made. I am honored to pay tribute to Eugene F. Coyle and thank him for his exemplary service to our country.

TRIBUTE TO TIMOTHY M. MCCARTHY

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, Timothy McCarthy has had an amazing career in law enforcement where he was at the right place when needed. Whether it was protecting Presidents or his hometown of Orland Park, Tim has been where people needed him most. After 48 years, he will be retiring, and today, I lend my voice to the many who honor him.

Tim dared to try out for the University of Illinois’ football team as a freshman in 1967, and did not play the sport at Leo High School in Chicago. However, he was so impressive that he was given a full scholarship the next year, playing strong safety for the Fighting Illini. Injuries cut his football career short, but he found himself on another career path, the Secret Service.

With a father who served in the Chicago Police Department as a sergeant, law enforcement was a natural draw for him. He started out as an investigator in the Chicago field office for the Secret Service in 1972. Tim moved to the Presidential protection division for President Jimmy Carter.

On March 30, 1981, Tim was protecting President Ronald Reagan in Washington. A coin toss with a fellow agent put him into duty that fateful day. He remembers wearing a brandnew blue-gray suit when John Hinckley, Jr., stepped out from a crowd with a handgun and attempted to kill the President.

In 1.7 seconds, John Hinckley, Jr., fired six bullets. The first bullet hit Press Secretary James Brady. The second hit Washington, DC, police officer Tom Delahanty. The third was set to hit President Reagan, but Tim with that extraordinary courage, stepped in front of the President and took the bullet in the chest. Another bullet ricocheted, hitting the President under the arm. Hinckley might have killed President Reagan, but that day, we were lucky to have Tim McCarthy doing his duty to protect the Gipper.

Tim spent 2 weeks in the hospital and was back on the job that June. He would never be able to do the 5 to 7 mile runs he used to do, but he continued to run and train. His third attempt to run the Presidential protection division for President George H.W. Bush before returning to Chicago to run the Secret Service office there.

In 1994, Tim accepted the position of the Orland Park police chief in Illinois. Often, police chiefs serve 3 to 5 years, but Tim stayed on for 26 years. He led the development of new policing strategies, including bike patrol officers, cookouts with police, and community meetings with beat officers. Under his leadership, the police department launched village wide initiatives, addressing mental illness through a crisis intervention team that focuses on responses to mental health-related incidents.

This was a hands-on leader, whether it was back up for a search warrant or reporting a crime scene at early hours of the morning or packing sandbags.
CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

August 4, 2020

S4725

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about coronavirus, now clearly the worst pandemic in a century. I will also speak briefly about the need for a national response plan that is guided by science and public health, not politics. The first case of COVID–19 was reported in the United States on January 20. In the intervening 6 months, we have seen cases climb, then fall, and now surge once again. More than 155,000 have died. Every day for the last 4 months, I have received an update from my staff on coronavirus numbers. I have watched, day by day, the number of positive cases climb. In California right now, 30 of our 58 counties have had more than 1,000 positive cases. The numbers just go up and up and up. It becomes impossible to look at the charts and graphs and not come to the conclusion that we have to do more—and maybe significantly more.

Since March, President Trump said, ''I don’t take responsibility at all.''

That is a direct quote from the President of the United States, in the midst of a global pandemic with body counts rising around the country. We must do better.

More recently, during the renewed surge in cases, we have seen a repeat of those problems. We know we need more testing supplies and protective equipment, but rather than implement the Defense Production Act and stock up on supplies, we saw little action from the White House.

President Trump said, ''I don’t take responsibility at all.''

Tim McCarthy did more than make history in saving the life of President Reagan. He has dedicated his life to making America a safer nation. We were fortunate to be blessed with his courage and his amazing record of public service.

As the numbers on Americans who have been infected with coronavirus. So far, more than 155,000 have died.

Every day for the last 4 months, I have received an update from my staff on coronavirus numbers. I have watched, day by day, the number of positive cases climb. In California right now, 30 of our 58 counties have had more than 1,000 positive cases.

The numbers just go up and up and up. It becomes impossible to look at the charts and graphs and not come to the conclusion that we have to do more—and maybe significantly more.

Simply put, this is the worst pandemic in my lifetime. You have to go back more than 100 years to the Spanish flu epidemic to find something comparable.

But the unprecedented scale of this crisis is no excuse for our failure to respond more forcefully and in a nationally coordinated manner.

Once we realized the scale of the outbreak in the spring, both by the increased cases at home, as well as monitoring stricken countries like Italy, it became clear that we needed strong leadership from the top.

We didn’t get that.

Instead, the White House and President Trump blamed states for the lack of testing equipment, the hoarding of sanitizing supplies and the absence of protective gear.

In March, President Trump said, “I don’t take responsibility at all.”

That is a direct quote from the President of the United States, in the midst of a global pandemic with body counts rising around the country. We must do better.

More recently, during the renewed surge in cases, we have seen a repeat of those problems. We know we need more testing supplies and protective equipment, but rather than implement the Defense Production Act and stock up on supplies, we saw little action from the White House.

First, we need to ensure that masks are mandated. If we had responded like other countries, with comprehensive national policies for mask use, avoiding crowds and increasing testing capacity, we could have been returning to normal life right now.

Instead, many cities and States are rolling back reopening plans and may have to reinstitute stay-at-home orders to get the Nation back to where we were before Memorial Day.

President Trump last week said the administration is “in the process of developing a strategy” to fight coronavirus.

At some point, we will want to know why it took 7 months for him to acknowledge a national plan was necessary. Right now, however, we need to focus on what that plan will entail.

Just as importantly, we need to focus on who should have input into the terms of such a plan—in a word, “experts.”

This is a challenge that requires the combined minds of our best and brightest—especially public health and infectious disease experts. This is not an arena for politics, period.

So what do those public health experts propose? After reading material and listening to a range of opinions, there are five areas that appear to have broad consensus:

First, we need to ensure that masks are used everywhere.

Second, related to increased testing, is ensuring we have enough testing supplies and safety equipment for frontline workers.

The President could quickly implement the Defense Production Act. This law would allow the Federal Government to address supply chain issues and increase production and distribution of testing supplies, medical equipment, and personal protective equipment.

That should have been done months ago, but so far, the President has only selectively used this tool. He should broaden its use immediately.

It is unconscionable that 6 months after this virus appeared on our shores, essential workers around the country still lack personal protective equipment, not only doctors and nurses but grocery clerks, agricultural workers, public transportation operators, educators, and many others.

These individuals are putting themselves at risk to provide necessary... services to the public, and they should have access to masks and other equipment to keep themselves safe.

The fourth step is expanding contact tracing, another area where we see a patchwork of policies across the country rather than a cohesive national effort.

To work, contact tracing must occur immediately after an individual is found to be infected. A team determines everyone with whom an infected individual has recent close contact and encourages them to get tested, self-isolate, and monitor their health.

Right now, on average, everyone who gets COVID passes it to more than one other person. In other words, the spread is increasing, often by those who don’t know they have been exposed. Contact tracing will help solve that.

The logistics, however, often aren’t feasible for local governments. That is why a Federal contact tracing program, such as one funded by Peace Corps and AmeriCorps volunteers as has been suggested, is so important.

Finally, the fifth area is the need for a plan to manufacture and distribute a vaccine once it is developed.

A key component is determining priorities for vaccine distribution. Should it go first to essential workers on the frontlines? Or should it go to people most likely to get the virus, the vulnerable populations, and those in hard-hit areas? These aren’t easy questions, and we should work on answers now.

We also need to handle the logistics involved to ensure rapid distribution of the vaccine nationwide.

These are obvious challenges, but they are also complex, and we need a plan in place now, ahead of vaccine development, rather than waiting until a vaccine is developed.

In addition to those five health-related planks, I also believe we need a coordinated plan to help the small businesses and workers suffering during this time.

One example is the Paycheck Protection Program that helped many small businesses. The program provides forgivable loans if businesses use funds on employee salaries and other necessities to remain afloat, which will allow them to quickly reopen when it is safe.

Another example is the additional $600 in unemployment benefits in the CARES Act assistance allows millions of families to pay rent, cover bills, buy food, and contribute to the economic recovery. Unfortunately, that vital aid has lapsed.

Since mid-March, more than 60 million Americans have filed for unemployment benefits. Today, more than 30 million people continue to depend on these benefits.

We can’t cut these lifelines until jobs are available for those out of work. If the economy remains shuttered and we do nothing to help families and businesses, we are telling millions of Americans that we don’t care they are hurting.

Moreover, we are hurting our own economic recovery by taking aid from those who most need it, the very people who are most likely to spend it to support the economy.

The Federal Government exists for a reason, and that is to help Americans do things they can’t do for themselves. The same goes for States, which are responsible and powerful but can’t do it on their own.

A global pandemic calls for a robust Federal response, which must entail a national response plan. And that plan has to be based on science and data, not politics.

Thank you.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

RECOGNIZING MAAG PRESCRIPTION AND MEDICAL SUPPLY

Mr. RISCH. Mr. President, as a member and former chairman of the Senate Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship, each month, I recognize and celebrate the American entrepreneurial spirit by highlighting the success of a small business in my home State of Idaho. Today I am pleased to honor Maag Prescription and Medical Supply in Pocatello as the Idaho Small Business of the Month for August 2020 and congratulate them on 70 years of business.

Maag Prescription and Medical Supply is an independent, locally owned pharmacy which has been operated by the Maag family since 1950. Established by Irvin and Genevieve Maag, the couple ran all aspects of the business and quickly developed a reputation for providing exemplary service while meeting the specific needs of their customers. As the business flourished and ownership transitioned to their son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Kathy Maag, a fire ravaged the facility in 1977. Despite this setback, the Maags persevered and built a new storefront, expanding it three times to accommodate the business’s growth. Maag Prescription and Medical Supply’s resiliency and service to the community has not gone unnoticed. For the past 2 years the business received the Idaho State Journal’s annual Reader’s Choice Award.

Today, Maag Prescription and Medical Supply plays an important role as a community and providing more than 20 jobs to Southeast Idaho in the midst of the COVID–19 pandemic. The Maags have made it a priority to support their customers while maintaining customer and employee safety. Their business stands as a testament to American industriousness, exemplifying one of our Nation’s most treasured values. Now, in one of the most economically uncertain times, their story reminds us of the importance of commitment to our communities and resilience in the face of adversity.

Congratulations to Greg and Kathy Maag, and all of the employees of Maag Prescription and Medical Supply on being selected as the Idaho Small Business of the Month for August 2020. You make our great State proud, and I look forward to your continued growth and success.

STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. DURBIN (for himself and Ms. DUCKWORTH):

S. 4407. A bill to amend the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006 to give the Department of Education the authority to award competitive grants to eligible entities to establish, expand, or support school-based mentoring programs to assist at-risk students in middle school and high school in developing cognitive and social-emotional skills to prepare them for success in high school, postsecondary education, and the workforce; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Mentoring to Succeed Act of 2020”.

SEC. 2. PURPOSE.

The purpose of this Act is to make assistance available for school-based mentoring programs for at-risk students in order to—

(1) establish, expand, or support school-based mentoring programs;

(2) assist at-risk students in middle school and high school in developing cognitive and social-emotional skills; and

(3) prepare such at-risk students for success in high school, postsecondary education, and the workforce.

SEC. 3. SCHOOL-BASED MENTORING PROGRAM.

Part C of title I of the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006 (20 U.S.C. 2351 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"SEC. 136. DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS FOR SCHOOL-BASED MENTORING PROGRAMS.

"(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

"(1) AT-RISK STUDENT.—The term ‘at-risk student’ means a student who—

"(A) is failing academically or at risk of dropping out of school;

"(B) is pregnant or a parent;

"(C) is a gang member;

"(D) is a child or youth in foster care or a youth who has been emancipated from foster care, but is still enrolled in high school;

"(E) is or has recently been a homeless child or youth;

"(F) is chronically absent;

"(G) has changed schools 3 or more times in the past 6 months;

"(H) has come in contact with the juvenile justice system in the past;

"(I) has a history of multiple suspensions or disciplinary actions;

"(J) is an English learner;

"(K) has one or both parents incarcerated;

"(L) has experienced one or more adverse childhood experiences, traumatic events, or toxic stressors, as assessed through an evidence-based screening;
(M) lives in a high-poverty area with a high rate of community violence;
(N) has a disability; or
(O) shows signs of alcohol or drug misuse or abuse, or neglect or guardian who is struggling with substance abuse.

(2) DISABILITY.—The term ‘disability’ has the meaning given the term for purposes of sections 1401 through 1462 of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1401(3)).

(3) ELIGIBLE ENTITY.—The term ‘eligible entity’—
(A) means a high-need local educational agency, high-need school, or local government entity; and
(B) includes a partnership between an entity described in subparagraph (A) and a nonprofit, community-based, or faith-based organization, or institution of higher education.

(4) ENGLISH LEARNER.—The term ‘English learner’ has the meaning given the term in section 616 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1401(3)).

(5) FOSTER CARE.—The term ‘foster care’ has the meaning given the term in section 1355.20 of title 45, Code of Federal Regulations.

(6) HIGH-NEED LOCAL EDUCATIONAL AGENCY.—The term ‘high-need local educational agency’ means a local educational agency that serves at least one high-need school.

(7) HIGH-NEED SCHOOL.—The term ‘high-need school’ has the meaning given the term in section 221(b) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 6801(b)).

(8) HOMELESS CHILDREN AND YOUTHS.—The term ‘homeless children and youths’ has the meaning given the term in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11434a).

(9) SCHOOL-BASED MENTORING.—The term ‘school-based mentoring’ means a structured, managed, evidenced-based program conducted in partnership with teachers, administrators, school psychologists, school social workers or counselors, and other school staff, in which at-risk students are appropriately matched with screened and trained professional or volunteer mentors who provide guidance, support, and encouragement, involving meetings, group-based sessions, and educational and workforce-related activities on a regular basis to prepare at-risk students for success in high school, postsecondary education, and the workforce.

(10) SCHOOL-BASED MENTORING COMPETITIVE GRANT PROGRAM.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall award grants on a competitive basis to eligible entities that align school-based emotional learning to prepare them for success in high school, postsecondary education, and the workforce by linking them with mentors who—

(i) have received mentor training, including on trauma-informed practices, youth engagement, cultural competency, and social-emotional learning; and

(ii) have been screened using appropriate reference checks and criminal background checks.

(2) PROVIDE COACHING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO MENTORS.—The Secretary shall coordinate with the Corporation for National and Community Service, including through entering into an interagency agreement or a memorandum of understanding, to provide technical assistance and other resources to support grantees under this section as they provide mentoring and to request no-cost training and technical assistance; and

(3) AUTHORIZATION OF FUNDS.—There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out this section such sums as are necessary for each of fiscal years 2020 through 2025.

SEC. 4. INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION SCIENCES STUDY ON SCHOOL-BASED MENTORING PROGRAMS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Education, acting through the Director of the Office of Planning, Evaluation, and Policy Development, shall conduct a study on school-based mentoring programs, including those funded under this section, which shall be based on the following:

(i) a review of the evidence in the literature and practice for school-based mentoring programs that include at-risk students;

(ii) a selection of at least 50 school-based mentoring programs that include at-risk students and have a comprehensive curriculum to support at-risk students; and

(iii) a study of the programs selected under clause (ii) that includes an analysis of the effectiveness of the programs and the factors that contribute to their success.
Institute of Education Sciences, shall conduct a study to—
(1) identify successful school-based mentoring programs and effective strategies for administering and monitoring such programs;
(2) evaluate the role of mentors in promoting cognitive development and social-emotional learning and academic achievement and to improve workforce readiness; and
(3) evaluate the effectiveness of the grant programs of sections 136 of the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006, as added by section 3, on student academic outcomes and youth career development.

(b) TIMING.—Not later than 3 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Education, acting through the Director of the Institute of Education Sciences, shall submit the results of the study to the appropriate congressional committees.

By Mrs. FEINSTEIN (for herself and Mr. DAINES):
S. 4331. A bill to increase wildfire preparedness and response throughout the United States, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President. I rise to speak in support of the bipartisan Emergency Wildfire and Public Safety Protection Act of 2020, a bill that Senator DAINES and I are introducing today to protect our constituents from the increasing threat of catastrophic wildfires.

As a result of climate change, California and other Western States are experiencing a growing crisis. Over my 27 years in the Senate, I have witnessed dozens of massive wildfires. But the level of destruction we have seen in recent years and the transformation of wildfire from a seasonal phenomenon into a year-round threat require bold, new action. Our bill would do just that by giving Federal, State, and local governments new tools to better manage wildfires and protect communities.

What we have always had was always dangerous wildfires, the particularly devastating fires in 2017 and 2018 were a wake-up call and a harsh example of the consequences of inaction on climate change. The latest National Climate Assessment found that, over the past three decades, the number of acres burned in the Western United States is double what would have burned if the climate weren’t changing. Nowhere is this being felt more than in California. There have been two of the largest fires in the State's history—nearly 2 million acres burned in our State, displacing hundreds of thousands and leading to billions of dollars of damage.

These problems will only grow worse as temperatures continue to rise as a result of climate change. We can’t simply wait for the world to roll back emissions to address our wildfire problem. Preparing for these challenges will require an all-of-the-above approach utilizing the latest science, even if some solutions aren’t politically popular.

There are more than 150 million dead trees in California’s forests, the result of both the historic drought and bark beetle populations that are thriving as temperatures warm. A single spark in the middle of those dead trees can lead to an inferno. And while 60 percent of the forestland in California is owned by the Federal Government, fires don’t stop at the borders between federal, state, and private land, so any action must be coordinated.

I have joined California leaders and environmentalists in opposing the wholesale clearing of forests. There is a growing consensus around what appropriate forest management actions consist of, including the use of firebreaks to stop massive wildfires from spreading into communities, and the careful management of interior wildlands that are overgrown and restore resilience to our forests. But we must do it in a way that is smart and sustainable.

We should also continue to expand commercial markets for timber and wood products. Biomass energy generation would not only help remove overgrowth from the forests but would also provide energy for California homes and businesses.

We should increase our use of advanced detection systems to identify outbreaks sooner, and invest in safer power transmission lines and other methods to harden infrastructure. While California has requirements for defensible space around at-risk homes, incentives should be provided for homeowners to use fire-safe building materials. The Federal Government should also increase support for outreach efforts, so that risks and mitigation strategies are communicated to vulnerable individuals and communities.

This is why I am introducing the Emergency Wildfire and Public Safety Protection Act of 2020. Our bill would protect communities by reducing wildfire risk in Federal forests, getting the private sector more involved in addressing wildfire risk, improving best practices for addressing wildfire, and creating more resilient communities and energy grids.

The bill would authorize the Forest Service to undertake three priority wildfire mitigation projects that would be limited to 75,000 acres in size, would allow for expedited environmental review, and views regarding the installation of fuel breaks near existing roads, trails, transmission lines and pipelines, and would include a technical fix to ensure that the Forest Service consults with the Fish and Wildlife Service when new public road connections are made in emergent situations where it is immediately necessary to protect life, property, or natural and cultural resources.

The bill also makes important changes to stimulate the private market for low-value timber that poses a wildfire danger. The bill would establish a new $100 million biomass infrastructure program to provide grant funding to build biomass facilities near existing public power Generating stations that are already in place and to offset the cost of transporting dead and dying trees out of high-hazard fire zones. The bill would also lift the current export ban on unprocessed timber from federal lands in the west for trees that are dead, dying, or damaged by insects or disease, and codify an existing administrative process for the installation of fuel grids.

The bill also makes important changes to stimulate the private market for low-value timber that poses a wildfire danger. The bill would establish a new $100 million biomass infrastructure program to provide grant funding to build biomass facilities near existing public power Generating stations that are already in place and to offset the cost of transporting dead and dying trees out of high-hazard fire zones. The bill would also lift the current export ban on unprocessed timber from federal lands in the west for trees that are dead, dying, or damaged by insects or disease, and codify an existing administrative process for the installation of fuel grids.

Lastly, the bill would creating more resilient communities and energy grids by expanding the Energy Department’s weatherization program to allow for the retrofit of homes to make them more resilient to wildfire through the use of fire-resistant building materials and other methods. It would also establish a new Federal Government, fires don’t stop at the borders between federal, state, and private land, so any action must be coordinated.

Given the generational shortage of workers in the forest management field, the bill would authorize a new workforce development program to assist in developing a career training pipeline for forestry workers.

According to California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection statistics, 10 of the 15 largest wildfires in California state history have occurred in just the last 5 years and 2018 was the most destructive wildfire season in recorded California history. been wildfires in the West, and there always will be. But we must face the reality that climate change and rising temperatures will mean more risk of wildfires. We can and should prepare for this future beginning today. That is why we have introduced this new bill, and I urge you to take it up and pass it as soon as possible.

By Mr. DURBIN (for himself, Ms. WAREN, Mr. SANDERS, Mr. MARKEY, Mr. HIRANO, Ms. HIRONO, Mr. MARKEY, Mr. VAN HOLLEN, and Mr. BLUMENTHAL):

S.J. Res. 75. A joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the fundamental right to vote; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, in the days since we lost our colleague Congressman JOHN LEWIS, many of us have come to the floor to talk about his extraordinary courage and tenacity. At the age of 25—25—he joined 600 civil rights activists to march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, AL, in pursuit of the right to vote. We have talked about how that day became known as Bloody Sunday, after John and the other courageous marchers were met with brutal beatings from Alabama State troopers, and how, in the days that followed, President Lyndon B. Johnson called on Congress to pass the Voting Rights Act.

It was 55 years ago this week that President Johnson sat at a desk in the President’s Room right off this Chamber, a room that we walk by many times each week, and signed the Voting Rights Act into law. He noted at the signing ceremony:

[Last March, with the outrage of Selma still fresh, I came down to this Capitol one evening and asked Congress and the people for extraordinary action to guarantee to every man and woman the right to vote. In less than 48 hours, I sent the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to Congress. In little more than a week, with overwhelming majorities, enacted one of the most monumental laws in the history of American freedom.

Those were the words of Lyndon Johnson. He signed the Voting Rights Act in 1965.]

Well, we have made significant progress since that day, thanks to great men like John Lewis, who marched to enact the Voting Rights Act, and his fellow legislators who battled for decades to enforce it. But there is a grim reality. Insidious voter suppression efforts still continue in America today. These efforts may not seem as obvious as the old-school poll taxes and literacy tests. But make no mistake. They are aimed at denying the fundamental right to vote, and all too often they are successful.

When I was chairman of the Judiciary Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Human Rights, I decided to go on the road with the States of Florida and Ohio for public hearings to speak to officials and experts on the ground and to determine why those States, through their legislatures, were passing laws—what I considered burdensome laws, such as reducing opportunities for early voting. Why were they making it harder to vote in Ohio and Florida?

In both States I asked witnesses, under oath, what evidence of widespread voter fraud prompted these laws that made it more difficult for people to vote and limited the time when they could vote. The answer was simple. Under oath, what was the evidence of fraud? Their word was fraud. It turned out that there were a handful of election fraud cases here and there, rarely prosecuted, and that is it.

In contrast to the mere specter of widespread voter fraud, we learned that these voter suppression laws really had consequences. We heard over and over that restrictive voting laws have a disproportionate impact on whom? Low income voters, Black voters, young voters, elderly, vulnerable voting populations.

When you make it harder to vote, it is tougher for these people to show up and vote. Someone knew that.

After the hearings, we learned more about the real reason behind these laws. According to Republican consultants and former officials admitted after the 2012 election that the Florida law discussed at my hearing was literally designed to suppress the vote, particularly among those leaning toward the Democratic column.

A year later, the Supreme Court announced its decision in Shelby County v. Holder. In a 5-to-4 vote, the divided Court struck down the provisions of the Voting Rights Act that required certain jurisdictions to preclear any changes in their voting laws with the Department of Justice.

The decision effectively gutted the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and in the aftermath, legislatures pushed through discriminatory restrictions on voting that previously would have required approval by the Justice Department ahead of time.

As an example, in North Carolina the legislature enacted a massive voter suppression bill, including a strict photo ID requirement, early voting cutbacks, and the elimination of same-day registration, out-of-precinct voting, and preregistration for teenagers who were about to turn 18 before an election.

What did a three-judge Federal panel have to say about this North Carolina law? They said “it targeted African Americans with almost surgical precision” and “enacted the law with discriminatory intent.”

Those are unequivocal words. Despite all the press releases to the contrary, the Court knew exactly what was going on in North Carolina. They were trying to stop African-American voters in that State from being counted.

Unfortunately, litigation targeting these voter suppression efforts has faced an increasingly uphill battle, as President Trump has packed the Federal courts with partisan, rightwing judges, including several with appalling records on voting rights.

And though the Supreme Court continues to state that the right to vote is both “fundamental” and “preservative of other basic civil and political rights,” the Court has also continued to permit broad assaults on America’s access to the ballot box. We give you an example. In April, the Court forced thousands of Wisconsin primary voters in April of this year to choose between their health and exercising their right to vote in the middle of a COVID-19 pandemic. The Court refused to extend the deadline for informing absentee ballots, despite the public health national emergency we face.

A State official in Wisconsin recently said that at least 71 people were infected with COVID-19 after voting in person or working at the polls during that primary election.

In June, the Supreme Court turned down a request to reinstate a Texas district court judge’s order which would have ensured that all voters in the State could ask to vote by mail, in light of the pandemic.

And just last month, the same Court refused to lift a stay in Florida that will prevent hundreds of thousands of otherwise eligible Floridians from voting in this month’s primary election, simply because they can’t pay the fines and fees imposed on them long ago as part of a criminal sentence.

What did Justice Sotomayor say in her dissent about this Florida case? “This court’s inaction continues a trend of condoning disfranchisement.”

Well, it is time for this to end. I am introducing today a joint resolution. I did so tonight.

In the time that I have served in Congress, I believe that this is only the second time that I have proposed an amendment to this Constitution. Obviously, at least that I am humbled by this document. I know it was far from perfect when written. We have learned that over the years with all the amendments and the history that has followed. But I have never thought myself worthy to add words to that document. One other time, on abolishing the electoral college, I had a bipartisan measure that I offered. But this is only the second time I have done it.

This joint resolution would create and enshrine an explicit, individual right to vote in the U.S. Constitution, and protect all Americans who seek to exercise this fundamental right.

Specifically, the amendment would provide an affirmance that every American citizen of legal voting age at any public election held in the jurisdiction in which they reside.

It would also require that any efforts to limit the fundamental right to vote would be subject to the strictest level of review in the courts.

Additionally, it would ensure that States could no longer rely on section

S4734 CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE August 4, 2020
2 of the 14th Amendment to prevent Americans from voting due to an earlier criminal conviction.

Finally, the amendment would provide that Congress has the irrefutable authority to protect the right to vote through federal laws.

If ratified, this constitutional amendment would protect against nefarious election administration changes that lead to long lines and people waiting on doors, trying to get in to vote. These long line provisions would work against the Will of the House passed last year, but the Senate can quickly pass the JOHN MCCONNELL to actually let the House vote. That would rely on the decision by Senator AMERICANS from voting due to an earlier criminal conviction. Finally, it would provide for a path to end discriminatory criminal disfranchisement laws that are a relic of the Jim Crow era and yet continue to strip millions of citizens of their fundamental right to participate in our democracy.

It would also provide a path to end discriminatory criminal disfranchisement laws that are a relic of the Jim Crow era and yet continue to strip millions of citizens of their fundamental right to participate in our democracy. Some may ask why we should pursue this amendment, when there are clearer, perhaps easier, steps that Congress can take right now to protect voting rights under its existing constitutional authority.

Let me give you an example. The Senate can quickly pass the JOHN LEWIS Voting Rights Act amendment, which the House passed last year, but that would rely on the decision by Senator MCCONNELL to actually let the House vote on a measure coming over from the House. There is little hope that is going to happen.

Given the ongoing ruthless assault on voting rights in America, it is clear that additional tools are necessary to push back against widespread voter suppression. I recognize that amending the Constitution is no small matter. I am well aware that introducing this amendment today is not going to lead to any immediate change, but I also believe that this moment represents the next step in a movement—a movement in America that will ultimately lead to a ratification of this amendment.

I am going to work with my colleagues and constituents to build support. I will ask opponents as to why they believe that fundamental right, preservative of all other rights in America, should not be affirmatively granted to the American people and literally enshrined in the United States Constitution—the right to vote. I plan to work with grassroots organizations who are fighting for their voting rights to be restored.

I am going to work with Representative MARK POCAN of Wisconsin, who has led this effort in the House, and I plan to work with civil rights leaders, including an old friend, Jessie Jackson, who has years for which has called for this amendment to be introduced in the Senate.

I want to thank Reverend Jackson for his timeless leadership and advocacy. I am grateful to have the support of the Rainier/Push Coalition as we introduce this amendment, along with the Advancement Project national office. Let me thank Senators WARREN, SANDERS, MERKLEY, HIRONO, MARKET, VAN HOLLEN, and BLUMENTHAL for co-sponsoring, and I hope others will join us.

By accident, I was given a book several years ago entitled “White Rage,” written by Carol Anderson. Carol Anderson is a professor at Emory University. The book was given to me by my brother-in-law, and I was skeptical that I would even read it, let alone like it. Well, I have to state that I have read it and recommended it over and over to my colleagues in the Senate, including giving a copy to then Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid. He decided, after reading the book, that it was so good that he invited Professor Carol Anderson to come speak to our caucus. She is an amazing person and a great historian.

She followed “White Rage” with this book, “One Person, No Vote.” In it she tells the history of voter suppression. It is an eye-opener.

After the Civil War and all those deaths to end slavery, after the assassinations of Abraham Lincoln and after the effort that was made to finally give to Blacks in the South a chance to become full-fledged citizens, they ran into Jim Crow laws.

She talks about something which I had heard of but knew little about. I would like to say a word from the book.

The question is about the efforts made to suppress the Black vote in the South, and she writes:

That became most apparent in 1890 when the Magnolia State passed the Mississippi Plan, a dizzying array of poll taxes, literacy tests, understanding clauses, newfangled voter registration rules, and “good character” clauses—all intentionally racially discriminatory but dressed up in the genteel garb of bringing “integrity” to the voting booth. This flagrant legal innocence was legislative evil genius.

Virginia representative Carter Glass, like so many others, swooned at the thought of becoming the state with this own state of Virginia, especially after he saw how well it had worked. He rushed to champion a bill in the legislature that would “eliminate the folly” of allowing Negro voters to vote “in less than five years.” Glass, whom President Franklin Roosevelt would one day describe as an “unreconstructed rebel,” planned not to “deprive a single white man of the ballot, but [to] inevitably cut from the existing electorate four-fifths of the Negro voters” in Virginia.

One delegation questioned him: “Will it not be done by fraud and discrimination?”

“By fraud, no. By discrimination, yes,” Glass retorted. “Discrimination! Why, that is the American tradition!”

Glass, with his racism was rampant, and so it was across the country.

Black lives matter. America matters. And our democracy matters. Once and for all, the right to vote should be enshrined in our Constitution. People died for it. It is time for us to work hard to show that we care.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the Record.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the Record.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States:

"ARTICLE—"

"SECTION 1. Every citizen of the United States, who is of legal voting age, shall have the fundamental right to vote in any public election held in the jurisdiction in which the citizen resides."n

"SECTION 2. The fundamental right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State or political subdivision within a State unless such denial or abridgment is in furtherance of a compelling governmental interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that compelling governmental interest.

"SECTION 3. The portion of section 2 of the fourteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States that consists of the phrase ‘or other crime,’ is repealed.

"SECTION 4. The Congress shall have the power to enforce this article and protect against any denial or abridgment of the fundamental right to vote by legislation."

SUBMITTED RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION 666—HONORING THE FAITHFUL AND UNWAVERING SERVICE OF CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT AND AIR AMERICA TO THE UNITED STATES

Mr. CASSIDY (for himself and Mr. RUBIO) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Select Committee on Intelligence:

S. Res. 666

Whereas, over the course of 4 decades, the courage, dedication to duty, superior airmanship and sacrifice of the men and women of Civil Air Transport and Air America set high standards for future covert air operations;

Whereas, during the Cold War, aircrews and ground personnel of Civil Air Transport and Air America gave selflessly in service to the worldwide battle against communist oppression;

Whereas, across multiple active military theaters from the Far East to Southeast Asia, the legendary men and women of Civil Air Transport and Air America gave their lives in the defense of freedom;
Whereas, often at great personal risk of enemy ground fire and possible capture, Air America acted quickly and decisively to conduct search and rescue operations to recover downed pilots, always fully embodying the “Airman’s Creed”; and
Whereas the individuals of Air America performed these search and rescue operations, and the sacrifices of the United States in the war for freedom and the protection of their country; and
Whereas, Air America, through the actions of its pilots, Air America worked tirelessly to secure the freedom and protect the United States.

(i) in paragraph (2), by inserting “payments on covered operations expenditures, payments on covered property damage costs, payments on covered supplier costs, payments on covered worker protection expenditures,” after “lease obligations,”; and

(ii) in paragraph (3)(B), by inserting “payments on covered property damage costs, payments on covered supplier costs, payments on covered worker protection expenditures,” after “rent obligation.”

(e) LENDER SAFE HARBOR.—Subsection (h) of section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) is amended to read as follows:

“(h) HOLD HARMLESS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A lender may rely on any certification or documentation submitted by an applicant for a covered loan or an eligible recipient of a covered loan that—

“(A) is submitted pursuant to any statutory requirement relating to covered loans or any rule or guidance issued to carry out any action relating to covered loans; and

“(B) attests that the applicant or eligible recipient, as applicable, has accurately verified any certification or documentation provided to the lender.

“(2) NO ENFORCEMENT ACTION.—With respect to a lender that relies on a certification or documentation described in paragraph (1)—

“(A) an enforcement action may not be taken against the lender acting in good faith relating to origination or forgiveness of a covered loan based on such reliance; and

“(B) the lender acting in good faith shall not be subject to any penalties relating to origination or forgiveness of a covered loan based on such reliance.

(f) SELECTION OF COVERED PERIOD FOR FOR-

MOTION OF THE ATTES-

TATION UNDER CLAUSE (I),

“(1) in subsection (e), in the matter preceding paragraph (1), by inserting “or the” after “the” in subparagraph (A); or

“(2) by striking subsection (l).

(g) DEMOGRAPHIC INFORMATION.—Subsection (2) of section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(II) the loan forgiveness amount with respect to a covered loan described in subparagraph (A); or

“(3) the term ‘covered loan’ means a loan made under this paragraph;

“(4) the terms ‘covered mortgage obligation’, ‘covered operating expenditure’, ‘covered property damage cost’, ‘covered supplier cost’, ‘covered worker protection expenditure’ have the meanings given those terms in section 1106(a) of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005(a));

“(v) the term ‘covered period’ means the period beginning on the date of the origination of a covered loan and ending on December 31, 2020;

“(vi) the term ‘eligible entity’—

“(A) means any business concern, nonprofit organization, veterans organization, Tribal business concern, eligible self-employed individual, ‘insured depository institution’, ‘nonprofit organization’, ‘payroll costs’, ‘seasonal employer’, and ‘veterans organization’ have the meanings given those terms in paragraph (36), except that ‘eligible entity’ shall be substituted for ‘eligible recipient’ each place it appears in the definition of those terms;

“(B) in clause (i), ‘eligible entity’ shall be substituted for ‘eligible recipient’; and

“(C) ‘benefits’.

“(aa)(AA) with respect to a business concern, would qualify as a small business concern by the annual receipts size standard if (if applicable) established by section 121.201 of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor regulation, that exceeds the small business concern size standard established under section 3(a)(5);

“(BB) if the entity does not qualify as a small business concern, meets the alternative size standard established under section 3(a)(5); and

ings during the first or second quarter in 2020 that are not less than 35 percent less than the gross receipts of the entity during the same quarter in 2019:

“(BB) if the entity was not in business during the first or second quarter of 2019, but was in business during the third and fourth quarters of 2019, had gross receipts receiv-

ings during the first or second quarter of 2020 that are less than 35 percent less than the gross receipts of the entity during the third or fourth quarter of 2019;

“(CC) if the entity was not in business during the first, second, or third quarter of 2019, but was in business during the fourth quarter of 2019, or had gross receipts receiv-

ings in the first or second quarter of 2020 that are less than 35 percent of the amount of the gross receipts of the entity during the fourth quarter of 2019;

“(DD) if the entity was not in business during 2019, but was in operation on February 15, 2020, had gross receipts during the second quarter of 2020 that are less than 35 percent of the amount of the gross receipts of the entity during the first quarter of 2020.

"(A) an entity described in subparagraph (D)(vii) of paragraph (36) that is eligible to receive a loan under that paragraph and that meets the requirements described in items (aa) and (cc) of subclause (I); and

"(B) any entity that—

"(i) is an entity that—

"(aa) is a type of business concern described in paragraph (23)(A), (BB) is a type of business concern described in paragraph (23)(B), or (CC) is a type of business concern described in paragraph (23)(C) of section 120.110(i)(1) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor regulation;

"(II) $2,000,000.

"(CC) is a type of business concern described in section 120.110(i) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor regulation, except as otherwise provided in the interim final rule of the Administration entitled ‘Business Loan Program Temporary Changes; Paycheck Protection Program—Additional Eligibility Revisions to First Interim Final Rule’ (85 Fed. Reg. 36303 (June 26, 2020)) or any other guidance or rule issued or that may be issued by the Administrator; and

"(EE) is a type of business concern described in section 120.110(n) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor regulation, except as otherwise provided in the interim final rule of the Administration entitled ‘Business Loan Program Temporary Changes; Paycheck Protection Program—Eligibility of Certain Electric Cooperatives’ (85 Fed. Reg. 28647 (May 19, 2020)) and ‘Business Loan Program Temporary Changes; Paycheck Protection Program—Eligibility of Certain Telephone Cooperatives’ (85 Fed. Reg. 35500 (June 11, 2020)) or any other guidance or rule issued or that may be issued by the Administrator; or

"(GG) is an entity that is organized for research or for engaging in advocacy in areas such as public policy or political strategy or otherwise describes itself as a think tank in any public documents; or

"(III) does not include—

"(aa) an issuer, the securities of which are listed on a national securities exchange, or a person that is a registered entity under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78cc-1) (as in effect on August 4, 2020) or any other guidance or rule issued or that may be issued by the Administrator; or

"(II) the terms 'exchange', 'issuer', and 'security' have the meanings given those terms in section 3(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78c(a)); and

"(vii) the term ‘tribal business concern’ means a Tribal business concern described in section 120.110(n) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor regulation or rule issued or that may be issued by the Administrator; or

"(viii) the maximum amount of a covered loan made to an eligible entity that is a seasonal employer is the lesser of—

"(A) the product obtained by multiplying—

"(aa) at the election of the eligible entity, the average total monthly payment for payroll costs incurred or paid by the eligible entity during—

"(AA) the 1-year period before the date on which the loan is made; or

"(BB) calendar year 2019; by

"(bb) 2.5; or

"(II) $2,000,000.

"(b) 90-day rule for maximum loan amount.—The maximum aggregate loan amount of loans guaranteed under this subsection that are approved for an eligible entity (including any affiliates) within 90 days of approval of another loan under this subsection for the eligible entity (including any affiliates) shall not exceed $10,000,000.

"(c) Exception from certain certification requirements.—An eligible entity applying for a covered loan under paragraph (36) shall not be required to make the certification described in subclause (III) or (IV) of paragraph (36)(G)(i).

"(d) Fee waiver.—With respect to a covered loan—

"(i) in lieu of the fee otherwise applicable under paragraph (23)(A), the Administrator shall collect no fee; and

"(ii) in lieu of the fee otherwise applicable under paragraph (18)(A), the Administrator shall collect no fee.

"(e) Nonprofit churches and religious organizations.—

"(I) Sense of Congress.—It is the sense of Congress that the interim final rule of the Administration entitled ‘Business Loan Program Temporary Changes; Paycheck Protection Program’ (85 Fed. Reg. 20817 (April 15, 2020)) properly clarified the eligibility of churches, religious organizations, and similar organizations for loans made under paragraph (36).

"(II) Applicability of prohibition.—The prohibition on eligibility established by section 120.110(m)(1) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations, or any successor regulation, shall not apply to a covered loan.

"(f) Gross receipts.—

"(i) General.—Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, for purposes of calculating gross receipts under subparagraph (A)(vi)(cc) for an eligible entity that is a nonprofit organization, a veterans organization, or an organization described in subparagraph (A)(vi)(ii), gross receipts—

"(I) include proceeds from fundraising events, federal or religious campaigns, gifts, donor-advised funds, and funds from similar sources; and

"(ii) shall not include—

"(I) Federal grants (excluding any loan forgiveness on loans received under paragraph (36) or this paragraph);

"(II) revenues from a supporting organization;

"(III) grants from private foundations that are disbursed over the course of more than 1 calendar year; or

"(IV) any contribution of property other than money, stocks, bonds, and other securities, provided that the non-cash contribution is not required to be accounted for by the organization in a transaction unrelated to the tax-exempt purpose of the organization.

"(g) Loan forgiveness.—

(I) the amount described in clause (ii); and

(ii) the amount equal to the quotient obtained by dividing—

(aa) the amount of the covered loan used for payroll costs during the covered period; and

(bb) 0.60.

(ii) Lender eligibility.—Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, a lender authorized to make covered loans under paragraph (36) may, at the request of an eligible entity, be authorized to make a covered loan in an amount that is—

(i) 3 percent of the principal amount of the financing of the covered loan up to $50,000,000, if applicable;

(ii) 1 percent of the principal amount of the financing of the covered loan above $50,000,000, if applicable.

(K) Set aside for community financial institutions, small insured depository institutions, credit unions, and Farm Credit System institutions.—Not less than $10,000,000,000 of the total amount of covered loans guaranteed by the Administrator shall be made to eligible entities with not more than 10 employees as of February 15, 2020.

(L) Set aside for community financial institutions, small insured depository institutions, credit unions, and Farm Credit System institutions.—Not less than $10,000,000,000 of the total amount of covered loans guaranteed by the Administrator shall be made to eligible entities that—

(i) community financial institutions;

(ii) insured depository institutions with consolidated assets of less than $10,000,000,000; and

(iv) institutions of the Farm Credit System chartered under the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2001 et seq.) with consolidated assets of less than $10,000,000,000 (not including the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation).

(M) Publication of guidance.—Not later than 10 days after the date of enactment of this paragraph, the Administrator shall publish guidance addressing barriers to accessing capital for minority, underserved, veteran, and women-owned business concerns for the purpose of ensuring equitable access to covered loans.

(II) Standard operating procedure.—The Administrator shall, to the maximum extent possible, after a lender approved to make covered loans to use existing program guidance and standard operating procedures for loans made under this subsection.

(i) Prohibition on use of procedures for lobbying activities.—None of the proceeds of a covered loan may be used for—

(I) lobbying activities, as defined in section 305 of the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995 (2 U.S.C. 1602);

(ii) lobbying expenditures related to a State or local election; or

(iii) expenditures designed to influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before Congress or any State legislature or local legislature or legislative body.

(III) Continued access to the Paycheck Protection Program.—

(1) In general.—The Administrator shall, to the maximum extent possible, after a lender approved to make covered loans to use existing program guidance and standard operating procedures for loans made under this subsection.

(B) Calculation.—A lender that made a covered loan to a covered recipient before the date of enactment of this paragraph may, at the request of the covered recipient—

(I) recalculate the maximum loan amount applicable to that covered loan based on the formula described in clause (ii) or (iii), as applicable, if doing so would result in a larger covered loan amount; and

(II) provide the covered recipient with additional covered loan amounts based on that recalculation.

(M) Farm Credit System Institutions.—

(1) Definition of Farm Credit System institution.—In this subsection, the term Farm Credit System institution means an institution of the Farm Credit System chartered under the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2001 et seq.); and

(2) facilitation of participation in PPP and second draw loans.—(A) Applicable rules.—(I) Solely with respect to loans under paragraphs (36) and (37) of section 7(a) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)), Farm Credit Administration regulations and guidance issued as of July 14, 2020, and compliance with such regulations and guidance, shall be deemed functionally equivalent to requirements referenced in sections 3(i)(II)(B) or any similar requirement referenced in that interim final rule in implementing such paragraph (37).

(B) Applicability of certain loan requirements.—For purposes of making loans under paragraphs (36) or (37) of section 7(a) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a) or... forgiving those loans in accordance with section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) and subparagraph (H) of such paragraph (36); and

(II) shall collect no fee; and

(ii) any other affiliate of a bank described in section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005), shall not exceed $10,000,000.

"(AA) for which an entity created in or organized before May 1, 2019, by an eariler of—

"(aa) at the election of the eligible entity, the average total monthly payments for payroll costs incurred or paid by the eligible entity during—

"(BB) a 12-week period beginning February 15, 2019 or March 1, 2019 and ending June 30, 2019; or

"(CC) for a consecutive 12-week period between May 1, 2019 and September 15, 2019; by

"(bb) 2.5; or

"(II) $2,000,000.

"(III) NEW ENTITIES.—The maximum amount of a covered loan made to an eligible entity that did not exist during the 1-year period preceding February 15, 2020 is the lesser of—

"(I) the product obtained by multiplying—

"(aa) at the election of the eligible entity, the average total monthly payments for payroll costs incurred or paid by the eligible entity;

"(BB) a 12-week period beginning February 15, 2019 or March 1, 2019 and ending June 30, 2019; or

"(CC) the sum of the total monthly payments by the eligible entity for payroll costs paid or incurred by the eligible entity as of the date on which the eligible entity applies for the covered loan; by

"(BB) the number of months in which those payroll costs were paid or incurred; by

"(bb) 2.5; or

"(II) $2,000,000.

"(IV) LIMIT FOR MULTIPLE LOCATIONS.—With respect to an eligible entity with more than one physical location, the total amount of all covered loans shall not be more than $2,000,000.

"(VI) 90 DAY RULE FOR MAXIMUM LOAN AMOUNT.—The maximum aggregate loan amount of loans guaranteed under this subsection that are approved for an eligible entity (including any affiliates) within 90 days of approval of another loan under this subsection for the eligible entity (including any affiliates) shall not exceed $10,000,000.

"(D) EXCEPTION FROM CERTAIN CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS.—An eligible entity applying for a covered loan shall not be required to make the certifications required in subclause (III) or of paragraph (36)(G)(i).

"(E) FEE WAIVER.—With respect to a covered loan—

"(I) in lieu of the fees otherwise applicable under paragraph (23)(A), the Administrator shall collect no fee; and may make covered loans under the same terms and conditions as in paragraph (36).

(ii) Definitions.—In this subsection, the terms ‘‘covered loan’’ and ‘‘eligible recipient’’ have the meanings given those terms in section 7(a)(36) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(36)).

(ii) Increased amount.—Notwithstanding the interim final rule issued by the Administration entitled ‘‘Business Loan Program Temporary Changes; Paycheck Protection Program—Loan Increases’’ (85 Fed. Reg. 29842 (May 19, 2020)), an eligible recipient of a covered loan that is eligible for an increased covered loan amount as a result of any interim final rule that allows for covered loan increases may submit a request for an increase in the covered loan amount even if:

(A) the initial covered loan amount has been fully disbursed; or

(B) the lender of the initial covered loan has submitted to the Administration a Form 1002 report related to the covered loan.

(i) Calculation of maximum loan amount for farmers and ranchers.—

(ii) Definition.—In this subparagraph, the term ‘‘covered recipient’’ means an eligible recipient that—

(A) operates as a sole proprietorship or as an independent contractor, or is an eligible self-employed individual; or

(B) reports farm income or expenses on a Schedule F (or any equivalent successor schedule); and

(iii) was in business during the period beginning on February 15, 2019 and ending on June 30, 2019.

(ii) No employers.—With respect to a covered recipient without employees, the maximum covered loan amount shall be the lesser of—

(i) the sum of—

(1) the product obtained by multiplying—

(A) the gross income of the covered recipient in 2019, as reported on a Schedule F (or any equivalent successor schedule), that is not more than $100,000, divided by 12; and

(B) 2.5; and

(2) the outstanding amount of a loan under subsection (b) that was made during the period beginning on January 31, 2020 and ending on April 3, 2020 that the borrower intends to refinance under this Act, including any amount of any advance under the loan that is not required to be repaid; or

(ii) $2,000,000.

(iii) With employers.—With respect to a covered recipient with employees, the maximum covered loan amount shall be calculated using the formula described in subparagraph (E), except that the gross income of the covered recipient described in clause (ii)(1)(aa)(AA) of this subparagraph, as divided by 12, shall be added to the sum calculated in clause (ii)(1)(bb) of this subparagraph.

(iv) Recalculation.—A lender that made a covered loan to a covered recipient before the date of enactment of this subparagraph may, at the request of the covered recipient—

(A) recalculate the maximum loan amount applicable to that covered loan based on the terms described in paragraph (36), as applicable, if doing so would result in a larger covered loan amount; and “(II) provide the covered recipient with additional covered loan amounts based on that recalculation.’’.

(m) FARM CREDIT SYSTEM INSTITUTIONS.—

(1) DEFINITION OF FARM CREDIT SYSTEM INSTITUTION.—In this subsection, the term ‘‘Farm Credit System institution’’—

(A) means an institution of the Farm Credit System chartered under the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2001 et seq.) and, for purposes described in subsection (III), the Farm Credit System chartered under the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2001 et seq.) with consolidated assets of less than $10,000,000,000; and

(B) does not include the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation.

(2) FACILITATION OF PARTICIPATION IN PPP AND OTHER DRAW LOANS.—(A) APPLICABLE RULES.— Solely with respect to loans under paragraphs (36) and (37) of section 7(a) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(36) and 636(a)(37)) that are made by a Farm Credit Bank described in subsection (III), the Farm Credit Administration regulations and guidance issued as of July 14, 2020, and compliance with such regulations and guidance, shall be deemed functionally equivalent to requirements referenced in section 3(a)(11) of the interim final rule of the Administration entitled ‘‘Temporary Loan Program—Program Changes; Paycheck Protection Program’’ (85 Fed. Reg. 20811 (April 15, 2020)) or any similar requirement referenced in that interim final rule in implementing such paragraph (36) and (37). (B) APPLICABILITY OF CERTAIN LOAN REQUIREMENTS.—For purposes of making loans under paragraph (36) or (37) of section 7(a) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(36) and 636(a)(37)) or forgiving those loans in accordance with section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) and subparagraph (H) of such paragraph (37), sections 4.13, 4.14, and 4.1A of the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2319, 2320, 2220a) (including regulations issued under those sections) shall not apply.

(ii) LOANS DESCRIBED.—A loan referred to in clause (i)—

(I) shall receive a risk weight of zero percent; and

(II) shall not be included in the calculation of any applicable leverage ratio or other applicable capital ratio or calculation.

(ii) LOANS DESCRIBED.—A loan referred to in clause (i) is—

(I) a loan made by a Farm Credit Bank described in section 1.2(a) of the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2002(a)) to a Federal Land Bank Association, a Production Credit Association, or a bank for cooperatives described in section 1191 of title 11, United States Code, in accordance with such section 1191 of title 11, United States Code; and

(II) a loan made by a Federal Land Bank Association, a Production Credit Association, an agricultural credit association, or the bank for cooperatives described in section 1191 of title 11, United States Code, in accordance with such section 1191 of title 11, United States Code, to an eligible recipient that—

(a) is a 501(c)(6) organization described in section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of such Code; or

(b) is a State or local government, including any instrumentality of those entities; .

(p) PROHIBITION ON USE OF LOAN PROCEEDS FOR LOBBYING ACTIVITIES.—Section 7(a)(36)(F) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(36)(F)) is amended by adding at the end the following:

‘‘(vi) PROHIBITION.—None of the proceeds of a covered loan may be used for—

(1) lobbying activities, as defined in section 1191 of title 11, United States Code, to obtain a loan described in paragraph (36) of section 7(a) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)) and title I of the CARES Act (Public Law 116-136) under this section shall be effective as if included in the CARES Act and shall apply to any loan made pursuant to section 7(a)(36) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)) (10) BANKRUPTCY PROVISIONS.—(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 364 of title 11, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

‘‘(y)(1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize a debtor in possession or a trustee that is authorized to operate the business of the debtor under section 1183, 1184, 1203, 1204, or 1304 of this title to obtain a loan under section 364 of this title, or to incur debt under this section, or to incur debt the extent the loan is not forgiven in accordance with section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) and subparagraph (H) of such paragraph (37), as applicable, with priority equal to a claim of the kind specified in subsection (c)(1) of this section.

‘‘(2) The trustee may incur debt described in paragraph (1) notwithstanding any provision in a contract, prior order authorizing the trustee to incur debt under this section, prior order authorizing the trustee to use cash collateral under section 363, or applicable law that prohibits the debtor from incurring additional debt.

‘‘(3) The court shall hold a hearing within 7 days after the filing and service of the motion to obtain a loan described in paragraph (1).’’

(2) ALLOWANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.—Section 566(b) of title 11, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

‘‘(A) in paragraph (8)(B), by striking ‘‘and’’ at the end;

(II) $10,000,000 under the heading "Department of Commerce—Minority Business Development Agency" for the cost of guaranteed loans as authorized under paragraphs (36) and (37) of section 7(a) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)), as amended and added by this Act; and

(ii) PPP and second draw loans.

(3) EMERGENCY DESIGNATION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The amounts provided under this section are designated as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 4(g) of the Budget Act of 2011 (31 U.S.C. 1101(a)(14)), and as such are exempted from the statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 (2 U.S.C. 933(g)).

(B) DESIGNATION IN SENATE.—In the Senate, this section is designated as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 4(f) of the Budget Act of 2011 (31 U.S.C. 1101(a)(14)), and as such is exempted from the statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 (2 U.S.C. 933(g)).
(v) the term ‘covered supplier cost’ means an expenditure made by an entity to a supplier of goods pursuant to a contract in effect before February 15, 2020 for the supply of goods that makes payments on covered property damage costs, makes payments on covered supplier costs, payments on covered worker protection expenditures, after “lease obligations;” and
(ii) in paragraph (3)(B), by inserting “make payments on covered operations expenditures, and payments on covered worker protection expenditures,” after “rent obligation;”.
(e) LENDER SAFE HARBOR.—Subsection (b) of section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) is amended to read as follows:
‘‘(1) IN GENERAL.—A lender may rely on any certification or documentation submitted by an applicant for a covered loan or an eligible recipient of a covered loan that—
(A) is submitted pursuant to any statutory requirement relating to covered loans or any rule or guidance issued to carry out any action relating to covered loans; and
(B) attests that the applicant or eligible recipient, as applicable, has accurately verified any certification or documentation provided to the lender.
“(2) NO ENFORCEMENT ACTION.—With respect to a lender that relies on a certification or documentation described in paragraph (1),—
(A) an enforcement action may not be taken against the lender acting in good faith relating to origination or forgiveness of a covered loan based on the documentation; and
(B) the lender acting in good faith shall not be subject to any penalties relating to origination or forgiveness of a covered loan based on such reliance.’’.
(f) SELECTION OF COVERED PERIOD FOR FORGIVENESS.—Section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005) is amended—
(1) by amending paragraph (4) of subsection (a), as so redesignated by subsection (d) of this section, to read as follows:
‘‘(4) the term ‘covered period’ means the period—
(A) beginning on the date of the origination of a covered loan; and
(B) ending on a date selected by the eligible recipient of the covered loan that occurs during the period—
(i) beginning on the date that is 8 weeks after such date of origination; and
(ii) ending on December 31, 2020;
’’
(2) by striking subsection (l).
(g) SIMPLIFIED APPLICATION.—Section 1106 of the CARES Act (15 U.S.C. 9005), as amended by subsection (f) of this section, is amended—
(1) in subsection (e), in the matter preceding paragraph (1), by striking “An eligible” and inserting “An eligible” after “in subsection (e)’’;
(2) in subsection (f), by inserting ‘‘or the information required under subsection (e), as applicable’’ after “subsection (e)’’;
(3) by adding at the end the following:
‘‘(1) SIMPLIFIED APPLICATION.—
‘‘(1) COVERED LOANS UNDER $150,000.—
‘‘(A) IN GENERAL.—In paragraph (1) of subsection (e), with respect to a covered loan made to an eligible recipient that is not more than $150,000, the covered loan amount shall be forgiven under this section if the eligible recipient—
(i) signs and submits to the lender an attestation that the eligible recipient made a good faith effort to comply with the requirements under section 7(a)(36) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(36)); and
(ii) for the 1-year period following submission of the attestation under clause (i), retains records relevant to the attestation that prove compliance with those requirements.
‘‘(B) DEMOGRAPHIC INFORMATION.—An eligible recipient of a covered loan described in subparagraph (A) may complete and submit any form related to borrower demographic information.

"(C) AUDIT.—The Administrator may—

"(i) review and audit covered loans described in subparagraph (A); and

"(ii) in the case of fraud, illegitimacy, or other material noncompliance with applicable loan or loan forgiveness requirements, modify—

"(I) the amount of a covered loan described in subparagraph (A); or

"(II) the loan forgiveness amount with respect to a covered loan described in subparagraph (A).

"(2) COVERED LOANS BETWEEN $150,000 AND $2,000,000.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subsection (e), with respect to a covered loan made to an eligible recipient that is more than $150,000 and not more than $2,000,000—

"(i) the eligible recipient seeking loan forgiveness under this subsection—

"(I) is not required to submit the supporting documentation described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (e) or the certification described in subsection (e)(3)(A); and

"(II) shall retain all relevant schedules, workpapers, and supporting documentation for the 3-year period following submission of the application for loan forgiveness; and

"(III) may complete and submit any form related to borrower demographic information;

"(ii) review by the lender of an application submitted by the eligible recipient for loan forgiveness under this subsection shall be limited to whether the lender received a complete application, with all fields completed, initialed, or signed, as applicable; and

"(iii) the lender shall—

"(I) accept the application submitted by the eligible recipient for loan forgiveness under Fed. Reg. 29647 (April 20, 2020); and

"(II) submit the application to the Administrator.

"(B) AUDIT.—The Administrator may—

"(i) review and audit covered loans described in subparagraph (A); and

"(ii) in the case of fraud, illegitimacy, or other material noncompliance with applicable loan or loan forgiveness requirements, modify—

"(I) the amount of a covered loan described in subparagraph (A); or

(B) disproportionally reduce funding to charter schools or otherwise increase funding gaps between charter schools and other public schools in the local educational agency.

(2) Allocations of funding and services provided from funds provided in this section to charter schools or otherwise determine for the same basis as is used for all public schools, consistent with state law and in consultation with charter school leaders.

(b) Report.—A State receiving funds under this section shall submit a report to the Secretary, not later than 6 months after receiving funding provided in this title, in such manner and with such subsequent frequency as the Secretary may require, that provides a detailed accounting of the use of funds provided under this section.

(1) Reallocation.—A State shall return to the Secretary any funds received under this section that the State does not award within 4 months of receiving such funds and the Secretary shall deposit such funds into the general fund of the Treasury.

(j) Rule of Construction.—Nothing in any provision authorized or appropriated under this section, including pursuant to section 15 of this Act, by a nonprofit entity, or by any individual who is not an employee of the Federal Government, shall be construed to provide such entity (or any parent or guardian of such individual), shall not be construed to render such entity or person a recipient of Federal financial assistance for any purpose, nor shall any such person or entity be required to make any alteration to its existing programs, facilities, or employment practices except as required under this section.

(2) No State participating in any program under this section, including pursuant to section 15 of this Act, shall impose any penalty or additional requirement upon, or otherwise disadvantage, such entity or person as a consequence or condition of its receipt of such funds.

(c) No State participating in any program under this section shall authorize any person or entity to use any funds authorized or appropriated under this section, including pursuant to section 15 of this Act, by a nonprofit entity, for any purpose except as provided by subsection (e), nor shall any such State impose any limits upon the use of any such funds except as provided by subsection (e).

Title VIII—Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund

SEC. 14. (a) In General.—From funds reserved under section 11(b)(3) of this title the Secretary shall allocate amounts as follows:

(1) 85 percent to each institution of higher education described in section 101 or section 102(c) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 to prepare for and respond to coronavirus, by apportioning it—

(A) 90 percent according to the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who are not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency; and

(B) 10 percent according to the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of students who were not Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency.

(2) 10 percent for additional awards under parts A and B of title III, parts A and B of title IV, and subpart 4 of part A of title VII of the Higher Education Act to address needs directly related to coronavirus, that shall be in addition to awards made in section 14(a)(1) of this title, and allocated by the Secretary proportionally to such programs based on the relative share of funding appropriated to each program in the Further Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2020 (Public Law 116–94) and distributed to eligible institutions of higher education, except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs (a)(1) and (2) of this section, to each eligible institution an amount using the following formula:

(1) 70 percent according to a ratio equivalent to the number of Pell Grant recipients in attendance at such institution at the end of the school year preceding the beginning of the most recent fiscal year and the total number of Pell Grant recipients at all such institutions;

(2) 20 percent according to a ratio equivalent to the total number of students enrolled at such institution at the end of the school year preceding the beginning of that fiscal year and the number of students enrolled at all such institutions; and

(3) 10 percent according to a ratio equivalent to an award amount at all eligible institutions at the end of the school year preceding the beginning of that fiscal year and the total award amount at such institutions;

(B) For eligible institutions under section 329 of the Higher Education Act, the Secretary shall allot funding according to the formula in section 316(d)(3) of the Higher Education Act and

(D) Notwithstanding section 318(f) of the Higher Education Act, for eligible institutions under section 316 of the Higher Education Act, the Secretary shall allot funding according to the formula in section 316(e) of the Higher Education Act.

(3) Funds provided to institutions of higher education that the Secretary determines, through an application process and after allocating funds under paragraphs 14(a)(1) and (2) of this Act, have the greatest unmet needs related to such disruption shall be eligible for reallocation under this section on the basis of a formula described in paragraph 1(c)(2). This paragraph shall not apply to an institution of higher education designated by the Secretary as an ineligible institution under section 488 of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

(e) REPORT.—An institution receiving funds under this section shall submit a report to the Secretary, not later than 6 months after receiving funding provided in this title, in such manner and with such subsequent frequency as the Secretary may require, that provides a detailed accounting of the use of funds provided under this section.

(f) REALLOCATION.—Any funds allocated to an institution of higher education designated by the Secretary as an ineligible institution under section 488 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 shall be reallocated to eligible institutions of higher education designated by the Secretary proportionally to such programs.

(g) ASSISTANCE FOR NON-PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—From the payment provided by the Secretary under section 13 of this title to a State educational agency, the Secretary shall allot an amount of funds equal to the percentage of students enrolled in non-public elementary and secondary schools in the State prior to the coronavirus emergency that is non-public elementary and secondary schools in the State. Under subsection 13, the Governor of the State shall award such funds equally to each non-public elementary and secondary school in the State. Under subsection 13, the Governor of the State shall award such funds equally to each non-public elementary and secondary school in the State prior to the coronavirus emergency, subject to the requirements in subsection (d).

(b)(1) A non-public school that provides in-person instruction for at least 50 percent of its students where the students physically attend school, and the State shall be eligible for the full amount of assistance per student as prescribed under this section reduced on a pro rata basis, which shall be calculated using the same methodology as is used under subsection 13(c)(2)(C) of this title.

(b)(2) A non-public school that does not provide in-person instruction to any students where the students physically attend school in-person but does not satisfy the requirements in paragraph (1) shall have its amount of assistance as prescribed under this section reduced on a pro rata basis, which shall be calculated using the same methodology as is used under subsection 13(c)(2)(C) of this title.

(b)(3) A non-public school that provides in-person instruction to any students where the students physically attend school in-person but does not satisfy the requirements in paragraph (1) shall have its amount of assistance as prescribed under this section reduced on a pro rata basis, which shall be calculated using the same methodology as is used under subsection 13(c)(2)(C) of this title.

(b)(4) A Governor shall allocate not less than 50 percent of the funds reserved in this section to non-public schools within 30 days of receiving funding under this title and the remaining 50 percent not less than 4 months after receiving an award from the Secretary.

January 25, 2021

Mr. President, Mr. Vice President, and Members of the Senate:

The American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, signed into law on March 11, 2021, contains significant new funding for the education sector, including $130 billion in grants to help schools safely reopen and $40 billion for support to schools to benefit all learners.

To date, my Administration has worked on the following:

1. Authorized the Department of Education to provide $10 billion in grants to school districts to support them in creating robust plans for in-person instruction that align with public health guidance.
2. Sent out $10 billion in grants to school districts to support them in creating robust plans for in-person instruction that align with public health guidance.
3. Authorized the Department of Education to provide $8 billion in grants to school districts to support them in creating robust plans for in-person instruction that align with public health guidance.
4. Sent out $8 billion in grants to school districts to support them in creating robust plans for in-person instruction that align with public health guidance.

As part of this effort, the Department of Education has also worked to ensure that funds are distributed in a timely and equitable manner.

Thank you for your leadership and support.

Yours sincerely,

TITLE — DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
EDUCATION STABILIZATION FUND

INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS

For an additional amount for “Education Stabilization Fund”, $105,000,000,000, to remain available through September 30, 2021, to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus, domestically or internationally; Provided, That such amount is designated by the Congress as being for an emergency supplemental appropriation pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

General Provisions

Education Stabilization Fund

SEC. 11. (a) Allocations.—From the amount made available under this heading in this Act to carry out the Education Stabilization Fund, the Secretary shall first allocate

(1) not more than one-half of 1 percent to the outlying areas on the basis of the terms and conditions for funding provided under this heading in the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act (Public Law 116–136); and

(2) one-half of 1 percent for the Secretary of the Interior for programs operated or funded under part A of title I of the ESEA of 1965.

(b) After carrying out subsection (a), the Secretary shall reserve the remaining funds made available as follows:

(1) 5 percent to carry out section 12 of this title.

(2) 67 percent to carry out section 13 of this title.

(3) 28 percent to carry out section 14 of this title.

Governor’s Emergency Education Relief Fund

SEC. 12. (a) Grants.—From funds reserved under section 11(b)(1) of this title, the Secretary shall make supplemental Emergency Education Relief grants to the Governor of each State with an approved application under section 18003 of division B of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136).

(b) After carrying out subsection (a), the Secretary shall reserve the remaining funds made available as follows:

(1) 5 percent to carry out section 12 of this title.

(2) 67 percent to carry out section 13 of this title.

(3) 28 percent to carry out section 14 of this title.

Emergency Relief Fund

SEC. 13. (a) Grants.—From funds reserved under section 11(b)(2) of this title, the Secretary shall make supplemental elementary and secondary school emergency relief grants to each State educational agency with an approved application under section 18003 of division B of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136). The Secretary shall award funds under this section to each State educational agency with an approved application within 15 calendar days of enactment of this Act.

(b) Allocations to States.—The amount of each grant under subsection (a) shall be allocated by the Governor to each State in the same proportion as each State received under part A of title I of the ESEA of 1965 in the most recent fiscal year.

(c) Subgrants.—The payment provided by the Secretary under subsection (b), the State educational agency shall provide services and assistance to local educational agencies and consistent with the provisions of this title relating to the Department of Education. After carrying out the reservation of funds in section 15 of this title, each State shall allocate not less than 90 percent of the remaining grant funds awarded to the State under this section as subgrants to local educational agencies that are in the State in proportion to the amount of funds such local educational agencies and charter schools that are in the State under part A of title I of the ESEA of 1965 in the most recent fiscal year. The State educational agency shall make such subgrants to local educational agencies as follows:

(1) one-third of funds shall be awarded not less than 15 calendar days after receiving an award from the Secretary under this section; and

(2) the remaining two-thirds of funds shall be awarded only after the local educational agency submits to the Governor and the Secretary a plan to implement the provisions of section 11(b)(2) of this title, including a detailed timeline for when the local educational agency will safely reopen classrooms to all students, consistent with maintaining safe and continuous operations aligned with challenging state academic standards.

(d) Reports.—Each Governor shall provide a detailed accounting of the use of funds and the Secretary shall reallocate such funds and the Secretary shall reallocate such funds in the manner following:

(1) If the Governor does not spend funds pursuant to section 11(b)(2) of this title, the Governor shall return to the Secretary any funds received under this section.

(2) If the Governor receives funds under this section that the Governor determines have been significantly impacted by coronavirus to support the on-going functionality of the institution; and

(3) If the Governor determines that the funds provided to the Governor are not sufficient for the on-going functionality of the institution and such funds shall be awarded to the Secretary in the manner following:

(A) A local educational agency that provides in-person instruction to at least 50 percent of its students where the students physically attend school no less than 50 percent of each school-week, as it was defined by the local educational agency prior to the coronavirus emergency, shall have its plan approved by the Secretary.

(B) A local educational agency that does not provide in-person instruction to any students where the students physically attend school but the students are physically able to receive a subgrant under paragraph (2).

(C) A local educational agency that provides in-person instruction to at least some students where the students physically attend school in-person but does not satisfy the requirements in subparagraph (A) shall receive a subgrant under paragraph (2) on a pro rata basis as determined by the Governor.

(d) Plan Contents.—A school reopening plan submitted to a Governor under subsection (c)(2) shall include, in addition to any other information necessary to meet the criteria determined by the Governor—

(1) A detailed timeline for when the local educational agency will provide in-person instruction, including the goals and criteria used for providing full-time in-person instruction to all students;

(2) A description of how many days of in-person instruction per calendar week the local educational agency plans to offer to students during the 2020–2021 school year; and

(3) An assurance that the local educational agency will offer students as much in-person instruction as is safe and consistent with maintaining safe and continuous operations aligned with challenging state academic standards.

(E) Uses of Funds.—(1) A local educational agency or non-public school that receives funds under subsection (b) may use funds to—

(A) Activities to support returning to in-person instruction, including purchasing personal protective equipment, providing a flexible schedule to keep children in isolated groups, purchasing lunch boxes so that children can eat in their classroom, purchasing personal and flexible transportation services, repurposing existing school rooms and space, and improving ventilation systems.

(B) Implementing procedures and systems to improve the preparedness and response efforts of local educational agencies or non-public schools including co-ordinating with local health departments, and other relevant agencies, to improve coordinated responses among such entities to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus.

(C) Provide principals and other school leaders with the resources necessary to address the needs of their individual school districts related to coronavirus.

(D) Providing additional services to address the unique needs of low-income children or students, children with disabilities, English learners, racial and ethnic minorities, students experiencing homelessness, and foster care youth, including how outreach and service delivery will meet the needs of each population.

(E) Training and professional development for staff of the local educational agency or non-public school on sanitation and mitigation systems and how to prevent and respond to coronavirus.

(F) Purchasing supplies to sanitize, clean, and disinfect the facilities of a local educational agency or non-public school, including purchasing personal protective equipment and supplies.

(G) Planning for and coordinating during long-term closures, including for how to provide meals to eligible students, how to provide technology for students who do not have access to technology, and how to provide guidance for carrying out requirements under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1401 et seq.) and how to ensure other educational services can continue to be provided consistent with all Federal, State, and local requirements.

(H) Purchasing educational technology (including hardware, software, and connectivity) for students who are served by the local educational agency or non-public school that aids in regular and substantive educational interaction between students and their classroom instructors, including low-income students and students with disabilities, which may include assistive technology or adaptive equipment.

(1) Planning and implementing activities related to summer learning and supplemental afterschool programs, providing classroom instruction or online learning during the summer months and addressing the needs of low-income students, students with disabilities, English learners, migrant students, students experiencing homelessness, and children in foster care.

(2) A local educational agency that receives funds under subsection (c)(2) may use the funds for activities to carry out a comprehensive plan to improve educational services, including health-care and other health services (including mental health services and supports), including for children at risk of abuse or neglect.

(3) In implementing and carrying out the requirements of section 118 of this Act, have the authority to carry out such programs.

(4) Expanding healthcare and other health services (including mental health services and supports), including for children at risk of abuse or neglect.

(5) Ensuring educational interaction between students and classroom instructors that aids in regular and substantive educational interaction between students and their classroom instructors, including low-income students and students with disabilities, which may include assistive technology or adaptive equipment.

(6) Planning and implementing activities related to summer learning and supplemental afterschool programs, including classroom instruction during the summer months and addressing the needs of low-income students, students with disabilities, English learners, migrant students, students experiencing homelessness, and children in foster care.

(I) State funding.—A State may reserve not more than 5 percent of the funds not otherwise allocated under section 15 for administrative costs and the remainder for emergency needs as determined by the State educational agency to address issues related to coronavirus, which may be addressed through the use of grants or contracts.

(J) Assurance.—A State educational agency receiving funding under this section shall provide assurances, as applicable, that:

(1) A State, educational agency, or local educational agency will maintain and expand access to high-quality schools, including high-quality public charter schools, and will not—

(A) Enact policies to close or prevent the expansion of such schools to address revenue shortfalls that result in the disproportionate closure or denial of expansion of public charter schools that are otherwise meeting the terms of their charter for academic achievement;

(B) Disproportionately reduce funding to charter schools or otherwise increase funding gaps between charter schools and other public schools in the local educational agency.

(2) Allocations of funding and services provided from funds provided in this section to public charter schools are made on the same basis as for other public schools, consistent with state law and in consultation with charter school leaders.

(K) Report.—A State receiving funds under this section shall submit a report to the Secretary, not later than 6 months after receiving funding provided in this title, in such manner and with such subsequent frequency as the Secretary may require, that provides a detailed accounting of the use of funds provided under this section.

(L) Reallocation.—A State shall return to the Secretary any funds received under this section that the State does not award within 4 months of receiving such funds and the Secretary shall allot such funds into the general fund of the Treasury.

(M) Rule of construction.—In awarding funds to institutions of higher education—

(1) The receipt of any funds authorized or appropriated under this section, including pursuant to section 15 of this Act, by a nonprofit entity, or by any individual who has been determined by a State educational agency to be such entity or person to be a recipient of Federal financial assistance for any purpose, nor shall any such person or entity be required to make any alteration to its existing programs, facilities, or employment practices except as provided in subsection (e), shall not be construed to render such entity or person a recipient of Federal financial assistance for any purpose, nor shall any such person or entity be required to make any alteration to its existing programs, facilities, or employment practices except as provided in subsection (e).

(2) No State participating in any program under this section, including pursuant to section 15 of this Act, shall impose any penalty or additional requirement upon, or otherwise disadvantage, such entity or person as a consequence or condition of its receipt of such funds.

(3) No State participating in any program under this section shall require any person or entity to use any funds authorized or appropriated under this section, including pursuant to section 15 of this Act, except as provided by subsection (e), nor shall any such State impose any limits upon the use of any such funds except as provided by subsection (e).

Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund

Sec. 14. (a) In General.—From funds reserved under section 11(b)(3) of this title the Secretary shall allocate amounts as follows:

(1) 85 percent to each institution of higher education described in section 101 or section 108 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus, by appointing it—

(A) 90 percent according to the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency; and

(B) 10 percent according to the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency.

(2) The remaining amount for additional awards under parts A and B of title III, parts A and B of title V, and subpart 4 of part A of title VII of the Higher Education Act to address needs directly related to coronavirus, that shall be in addition to awards made in

14(a)(1) of this title, and allocated by the Secretary proportionally to such programs as the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency.

14(a)(1) of this title, and allocated by the Secretary proportionally to such programs as the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency.

(3) 5 percent for grants to institutions of higher education that the Secretary determines, through an application process and after considering the following paragraphs—

14(a)(1) and (2) of this Act, have the greatest unmet needs related to coronavirus. In awarding funds to institutions of higher education described in section 15 of this Act, the Secretary shall prioritize institutions of higher education—

(4) 90 percent according to the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency; and

(5) 10 percent according to the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency.

SEC. 10. Funds appropriated by this subtitle may be used to enter into contracts with individuals for the provision of personal services as described in section 4 of the Act of June 28, 1949 (63 Stat. 552; 42 U.S.C. 2000d–2).

SEC. 11. Funds made available by this subtitle may be used to enter into contracts with individuals for the provision of personal services as described in section 4 of the Act of June 28, 1949 (63 Stat. 552; 42 U.S.C. 2000d–2).

SEC. 12. (a) If services performed by an employee are determined by the head of the agency to be primarily related to the prevention, response, or recovery from, or preparedness for, a pandemic, such services may be performed by an employee at a rate of basic pay as determined by the head of the agency, and such basic pay shall be disregarded in calculating the aggregate of such employee's basic pay and premium pay for purposes of a limitation under section 5547 of title 5, United States Code, or under any other provision of law, whether such employee's pay is paid on a bi-weekly or calendar year basis.

(b) Any pay for which services shall be disregarded in calculating any annual limit on the amount of overtime pay payable in a calendar year.

(c) With respect to such services, any pay that is disregarded under subsection (a) or (b) shall be disregarded in calculating the aggregate of such employee's basic pay and premium pay for purposes of the limitation under section 5547 of title 5, United States Code, and under any other provision of law, whether such employee's pay is paid on a bi-weekly or calendar year basis.

Provided fur—
Provided, That, in the case of an employee that is a covered employee of a type that is normally subject to the premium pay limits established by section 5547 of title 5, United States Code, the Secretary shall award funds under this section to the Governor of each State with an approved application, for the purpose of providing assistance to the Governor of each State with an approved application, for the purpose of providing assistance to any other institution of higher education, local educational agency; and to support the on-going functionality of the institution.

For an additional amount for "Education Stabilization Fund", $105,000,000,000, to remain available through fiscal year 2022, to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus, domestically or internationally:
Provided, That such amount is designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.
State that the Governor deems essential for carrying out emergency educational services to students for authorized activities described in section 2(a)(2) of this title, the State educational agency shall make such funds to the remaining States in accordance with a formula prescribed by the Governor.

(e) REPORT.—A Governor receiving funds under this section shall submit a report to the Secretary, not later than 6 months after receiving funding provided in this title, in such manner and with such subsequent frequency as the Secretary may require, that provides a detailed accounting of the use of funds provided under this section.

ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOL EMERGENCY RELIEF FUND

SEC. 23. (a) GRANTS.—(1) In general.—From funds reserved under section 21(b)(2) of this title, the Secretary shall supplement each State educational agency and any educational agency with an approved application under section 1963 of the CARES Act (42 U.S.C. 18003) and the ESEA of 1965, the Secretary shall award funds under this section to each State educational agency with an approved application within 15 calendar days of enactment of this Act.

(b) ALLOCATIONS TO STATES.—The amount of each grant under subsection (a) shall be allocated by the Secretary to each State in the same proportion as each State received under part A of title I of the ESEA of 1965 in the most recent fiscal year.

(c) SUBGRANTS.—(1) From funds provided by the Secretary under subsection (b), the State educational agency shall provide subgrants to local educational agencies and non-public schools, consistent with the provisions of this subtitle. After carrying out the reservation of funds in section 23(a), each State educational agency shall not less than 90 percent of the remaining grant funds awarded to the State under this section as subgrants to local educational agencies (including charters) for students for authorized activities that the Governor deems essential for carrying out requirements under this subtitle.

(2) The remaining two-thirds of funds shall be allocated by the Governor in consultation with the State educational agency (including criteria for the Governor to carry out subparagraph (A) through (C)), that describes how the local educational agency will satisfy the needs of schools with the physical presence of students, consistent with maintaining safe and continuous operations aligned with challenging state academic standards.

(d) USES OF FUNDS.—(1) A local educational agency or non-public school that receives funds under section 2(c)(1) or section 25 may use funds for any of the following:

(A) Activities to support returning to in-person instruction, including purchasing personal protective equipment, implementing flexible schedules to keep children in isolation boxes for up to 60 minutes so that children can eat in their classroom, purchasing physical barriers, providing additional transportation services, repurposing existing school rooms and space, and improving ventilation systems.

(B) Developing and implementing procedures and systems to improve the preparedness and response efforts of local educational agencies or non-public schools, including coordination with State, local, Tribal, and territorial public health departments, and other relevant agencies, to improve coordinated responses among such entities to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus.

(C) Planning for and coordinating during the spread of infectious diseases, students experiencing homelessness, and foster care youth, including how outreach and service delivery will meet the needs of each population.

(D) Providing additional services to address the unique needs of low-income children or students, children with disabilities, English learners, racial and ethnic minority students, students experiencing homelessness, and foster care youth, including how outreach and service delivery will meet the needs of each population.

(E) Training and professional development for school leaders and teachers to ensure that students and their classroom instructors, including low-income students and students with disabilities, which may include assistive technology or adaptive equipment.

(F) Expanding healthcare and other health services (including mental health services and supports), including for children at risk of abuse or neglect.

(G) Purchasing educational technology (including hardware, software, and connectivity) for students who are served by the local educational agency or non-public school that aids in remote learning to ensure that they have equal access to an educational interaction between students and their classroom instructors, including low-income students and students with disabilities, which may include assistive technology or adaptive equipment.

(2) A local educational agency or non-public school on sanitation and minimizing the spread of infectious diseases.

(3) Purchasing educational technology (including hardware, software, and connectivity) for students who are served by the local educational agency or non-public school that aids in remote learning to ensure that they have equal access to an educational interaction between students and their classroom instructors, including low-income students and students with disabilities, which may include assistive technology or adaptive equipment.

(3) A local educational agency or non-public school on sanitation and minimizing the spread of infectious diseases. and supports), including for children at risk of abuse or neglect.

(1) Planning and implementing activities related to summer learning and supplemental academic programs, including providing classroom instruction during the summer months and addressing the needs of low-income students, students with disabilities, English language learners, students experiencing homelessness, and children in foster care.

(2) STATE FUNDS.—A State may reserve not more than 5 percent of the funds not otherwise allocated under subsection (c) and section 25 for administrative costs and the requirements needed to determine by the State educational agency to address issues responding to coronavirus, which may be addressed through the use of grants or contracts.

(g) ASSURANCES.—A State, State educational agency, or local educational agency receiving funding under this section shall provide assurances, as applicable, that:

(1) A State, State educational agency, or local educational agency will maintain and expand access to high-quality schools, including high-quality public charter schools, and will not—

(A) enact policies to close or prevent the expansion of such schools to address revenue shortfalls; and,

(B) disproportionately reduce funding to charter schools or otherwise increase funding gaps between charter schools and other public schools in the local educational agency.

(2) Allocations of funding and services provided from funds provided in this section to public schools shall be based on the relative share of full-time equivalent enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients who were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency.

(3) 10 percent for additional awards under parts A and B of title III, parts A and B of title V, and subpart 4 of part A of title VII of the Higher Education Act to address needs related to coronavirus that were not exclusively enrolled in distance education courses prior to the coronavirus emergency; and

(4) No State participating in any program under this section shall authorize any person or entity to use any funds authorized or appropriated hereunder to fund contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities; enrollment; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to a sectarian instruction, or religious worship.

(5) A historically Black college and university, a Native American serving institution, or a historically Black educational institution may use prior awards provided under titles III, V, and VII of the Higher Education Act to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus.

(6) No funds received by an institution of higher education under this section shall be used to fund contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities; enrollment; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to a sectarian instruction, or religious worship.

(7) An institution of higher education receiving funds under this section may use the funds received to:

(A) defray expenses associated with coronavirus (including loss of revenue) that result from, or in addition to awards made in section 24(a)(1) of this title, and allocated by the Secretary proportionally to such programs based on the share of students served or expected to be served pursuant to this paragraph; and

(B) provide financial aid grants to students (including students exclusively enrolled in distance education), which may be used for any component of the student’s cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus.

(d) SPECIAL PROVISIONS.—

(1) A historically Black college and university, a Native American serving institution, or a historically Black educational institution may use prior awards provided under titles III, V, and VII of the Higher Education Act to prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus.

(2) No funds received by an institution of higher education under this section shall be used to fund contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities; enrollment; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to a sectarian instruction, or religious worship.

(3) An institution of higher education receiving funds under this section may use the funds received to fund contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities; enrollment; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to a sectarian instruction, or religious worship.
this title, in such manner and with such subsequent frequency as the Secretary may require, that provides a detailed accounting of the use of funds provided under this section.

(2) Any moneys made available as an Institute of higher education under this section on the basis of a formula described in subsection (b)(2) but which an institution does not apply for funding within 60 days of the publication of the notice inviting applications, shall be reallocated to eligible institutions that had submitted an application by such date.

ASSISTANCE TO NON-PUBLIC SCHOOLS

SEC. 25. (a) FUND AVAILABILITY.—From the payment provided by the Secretary under subsection (a) of this title to the educational agency, the State educational agency shall reserve an amount of funds equal to the percentage of students enrolled in non-public elementary and secondary schools in the State prior to the coronavirus emergency. Upon reserving funds under this section, the Governor of the State shall award such funds equally to each non-public school accredited or otherwise located in and licensed to operate in the State based on the number of low-income students enrolled in the non-public elementary and secondary schools in the State prior to the coronavirus emergency, subject to the following:

(1) A non-public school that provides in-person instruction for at least 50 percent of its students where the students physically attend school in-person but does not satisfy the requirements in paragraph (1) shall have the amount of assistance per student as prescribed under this section.

(2) A non-public school that does not provide in-person instruction to any students where the students physically attend school in-person shall only be eligible for one-third of the amount of assistance per student as prescribed under this section.

(3) A non-public school that provides in-person instruction to at least some students where the students physically attend school in-person but does not satisfy the requirements in paragraph (1) shall have its amount of assistance as prescribed under this section reduced on a pro rata basis, which shall be calculated using the same methodology as is used under section 23(c)(2)(C) of this title.

(4) A Governor shall allocate not less than 50 percent of the funds reserved in this section to non-public schools within 30 days of receiving an award from the Secretary and the remaining 50 percent not less than 4 months after receiving an award from the Secretary.

SEC. 26. A local educational agency, State, institution of higher education, or other entity that receives funds under “Education Stabilization Fund”, shall to the greatest extent practicable, continue to pay its employees and contractors during the period of any disruptions or closures related to coronavirus.

(b) IMPLEMENTATION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Health and Human Services may implement the provisions of, and the amendments made by, this section by program instruction or otherwise.
Section 319P–2 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 247d–6b) is amended by adding at the end the following: “(i) IMPROVING AND MAINTAINING STATE MEDICAL STOCKPILES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary, acting through the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response, shall award grants, contracts, or cooperative agreements to eligible entities to maintain a stockpile of appropriate drugs, vaccines and other biological products, medical devices, and other medical supplies (including personal protective equipment, medical equipment, and other applicable supplies required for the administration of drugs, vaccines and other biological products, medical devices, and diagnostic tests) to be used during a public health emergency declared by the Governor of a State or by the Secretary under section 319, or a major disaster or emergency declared by the Governor under section 401 or 501, respectively, of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, in order to support the preparedness goals set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (8) of section 280(b).”

(2) ELIGIBLE ENTITIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—To be eligible to receive an award under paragraph (1), an entity shall—

(i) be a State or consortium of States that is a recipient of an award under section 319C–10(b); and

(ii) prepare, in consultation with appropriate health care providers and health officials within the State or consortium of States, and to the Secretary an application that contains such information as the Secretary may require, including a plan for the State stockpile and a description of the activities that will carry out such plans; the agreement, consistent with the requirements of paragraph (3).

(B) LIMITATION.—The Secretary may make an award under this subsection to not more than one eligible entity in each State.

(C) SUPPLEMENT NOT SUPPLANT.—Awards, contracts, or cooperative agreements made under this subsection shall supplement, not supplant, the reserve amounts of medical supplies procured by and for the Strategic National Stockpile and the administration and dispensing of the capability of such stockpile to address the medical supply needs of public health emergencies of varying types and magnitudes, which may be carried out in accordance with requirements related to exercises, drills, and other training for recipients of such awards under section 319C–1 or 319C–2, as applicable.

(D) ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.—Not more than 5 percent of amounts received by an entity pursuant to an award under this subsection may be used for administrative expenses.

(E) CLARIFICATION.—An eligible entity receiving an award under this subsection may assign a lead entity to manage the State stockpile, which may be a recipient of an award under section 319C–2(b).

(F) REQUIREMENT OF MATCHING FUNDS.—

(1) In general.—Subject to clause (1), the Secretary may not make an award under this subsection unless the applicant agrees, with respect to the costs to be incurred by the applicant in carrying out the purpose described in this subsection, to make available non-Federal contributions toward such costs in an amount equal to—

(I) for each of fiscal years 2023 and 2024, not less than $1 for each $10 of Federal funds provided in the award; and

(II) for each of fiscal years 2025 and 2026, not less than $1 for each $5 of Federal funds provided in the award; and

(2) Waiver.—Subject to clause (1), the Secretary may waive the requirement under clause (1) if the Secretary determines that extraordinary economic conditions in the State in the fiscal year involved or in the previous fiscal year justify the waiver.

(G) APPLICABILITY OF WAIVER.—A waiver provided by the Secretary under this subsection shall apply only to the fiscal year involved.

(H) Stockpiling activities and requirements.—A recipient of a grant, contract, or cooperative agreement under this subsection shall use such funds to carry out the following:

(i) Maintaining a stockpile of appropriate drugs, vaccines and other biological products, medical devices, and other medical supplies (including personal protective equipment, medical equipment, and other applicable supplies required for the administration of drugs, vaccines and other biological products, medical devices, and diagnostic tests) to be used during a public health emergency declared by the Governor of a State or by the Secretary under section 319, or a major disaster or emergency declared by the Governor under section 401 or 501, respectively, of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, in order to support the preparedness goals set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (8) of section 280(b).”

(3) Guidance for States.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary, acting through the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response, shall issue guidance for States relating to maintaining and replenishing a stockpile of medical products. The Secretary shall update such guidance as appropriate.

(B) NOTIFICATION OF FAILURE.—The Secretary shall provide assistance to States, including technical assistance, as appropriate, to maintain and improve State and local public health preparedness capabilities to distribute and dispense medical products from a State stockpile.

(C) Coordination with the Strategic National Stockpile.—Each recipient of an award under this subsection shall ensure that the State stockpile plan developed pursuant to paragraph (2)(A)(ii) and the plans required pursuant to section 319C–3 contains such information as the Secretary may require related to current inventory of supplies maintained pursuant to paragraph (3), and any plans to replenish such supplies, or procure new or alternative supplies. The Secretary shall use information obtained from State stockpile plans to inform the maintenance and management of the Strategic National Stockpile pursuant to subsection (a).

(D) Performance and Accountability.—

(i) In general.—The Secretary, acting through the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response, shall develop and implement a process to review and audit entities that receive funds under this subsection, including by establishing metrics to ensure that each entity receiving such an award is carrying out activities in accordance with the applicable State stockpile plan. The Secretary may require entities to—

(I) measure progress toward achieving the outcome goals; and

(II) at least annually, test, exercise, and rigorously evaluate the stockpile capacity and response capabilities of the entity, and report to the Secretary on the results of such test, exercise, and evaluation, and on progress toward achieving outcome goals, based on criteria established by the Secretary.

(E) Notification of failure.—The Secretary shall develop and implement a process to notify entities that are determined by the Secretary to have failed to meet the performance requirements of the terms of an award under this subsection. Such process shall provide such entities with the opportunity to correct such noncompliance. An entity that fails to correct such noncompliance shall be subject to subparagraph (C).
‘(C) WITHHOLDING OF CERTAIN AMOUNTS FROM ENTITIES THAT FAIL TO ACHIEVE BENCHMARKS OR SUBMIT STATE STOCKPILE PLAN.—Beginning with fiscal year 2022, and in each succeeding fiscal year, the Secretary shall withhold from each entity that has failed substantially to meet the terms of an award under this subsection for at least 1 of the 2 immediately preceding fiscal years (beginning with fiscal year 2022), the amount allowed for administrative expenses described in described in paragraph (2)(D).

‘(D) APPROPRIATIONS.—For the purpose of carrying out this subsection, there are authorized to be appropriated $10,000,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2022 through 2030, to remain available until expended.

‘(10) ADVANCE APPROPRIATION.—

‘(A) IN GENERAL.—There is appropriated, out of amounts in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for fiscal year 2021, for necessary expenses to establish and maintain State medical stockpiles pursuant to this subsection, $10,000,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2023.

‘(B) EMERGENCY DESIGNATION.—

‘(i) IN GENERAL.—The amounts provided by this paragraph are designated as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 4(g) of the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 (2 U.S.C. 933(g)).

‘(ii) DESIGNATION IN SENATE.—In the Senate, this paragraph is designated as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 4112(a) of H. Con. Res. 71 (115th Congress), the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2018.

‘(C) APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS.—Amounts appropriated pursuant to this paragraph for fiscal year 2021 shall be subject to the requirements contained in Public Law 116-94 for funds for programs authorized under section 319F–2 of this Act.

(12) for a student who receives a Federal student loan made under this title or any other Federal student loan, the student’s cost of attendance at the institution, an allowance for the actual cost of any loan fee, origination fee, or insurance premium charged to such student or such parent on such loan; and

(13) for a student in a program requiring professional licensure, certification, or a first professional credential—

(B) special rule for living expenses for less-than-half-time students.—An institution of higher education may include an allowance for living expenses, including food, room and board, and housing costs in accordance with subsection (a)(4) for up to three semesters, or the equivalent, with no more than two semesters being consecutive.

(c) Disclosure of cost of attendance elements.—Each institution shall make publicly available on the institution’s website with such elements of cost of attendance described in subsection (a), including, for a student with one or more dependents, an allowance based on the estimated actual cost for dependent care, as described in subsection (a)(8).

SEC. 473. SPECIAL RULES FOR STUDENT AID INDEX.

(a) In General.—For the purpose of this title, other than subpart 1 or 2 of part A, the term ‘student aid index’ means, with respect to a student, an index that reflects an evaluation of a student’s approximate financial resources to contribute toward the student’s postsecondary education for the academic year, as determined in accordance with this part.

(b) Special Rule for Students Eligible for the Total Maximum Pell Grant.—The Secretary shall consider an applicant to be eligible for the maximum Federal Pell Grant equal to zero if the applicant is eligible for the maximum Federal Pell Grant but under section 403(b) for up to three semesters, or the equivalent, with no more than two semesters being consecutive.

(c) Special Rule for Non-Filers.—For an applicant (or, as applicable, and applicant and spouse, or an applicant’s parents) who is not required to file a Federal tax return for the second preceding tax year and who at any time during the previous 24-month period received a benefit under a means-tested Federal benefit program, the Secretary shall consider the student aid index as equal to $0.

(d) Determination of Student Aid Index.—Section 474 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087ff) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 474. DETERMINATION OF STUDENT AID INDEX.

The student aid index:

(1) for a dependent student shall be determined in accordance with section 475;

(2) for a single independent student or a married independent student without dependents other than a spouse shall be determined in accordance with section 476; and

(3) for an independent student with dependents other than a spouse shall be determined in accordance with section 477.

(d) Student Aid Index for Dependent Students.—Section 475 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087ff) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 475. STUDENT AID INDEX FOR DEPENDENT STUDENTS.

(a) Computation of Student Aid Index.—

(1) In General.—For each dependent student, the student aid index is equal to (except as provided in paragraph (2) the sum of—

(A) the assessment of the parents’ adjusted available income (determined in accordance with subsection (b));

(B) the assessment of the student’s available income (determined in accordance with subsection (g)); and “(C) the student’s available assets (determined in accordance with subsection (b)).

“(2) EXCEPTION.—If the sum determined under paragraphs (1), with respect to a dependent student, is less than $1,500, the student aid index for the dependent student shall be $1,500.

“(b) ASSESSMENT OF PARENTS’ ADJUSTED AVAILABLE INCOME.—The assessment of parents’ adjusted available income is equal to the amount determined by—

“(1) computing adjusted available income by adding—

“(A) the parents’ available income (determined in accordance with subsection (c)); and “(B) the parents’ available assets (determined in accordance with subsection (d));

“(2) assessing such adjusted available income in accordance with the assessment schedule set forth in subsection (e); and

“(3) considering such assessment resulting under paragraph (2) as the amount determined under this subsection.

“(c) PARENTS’ AVAILABLE INCOME.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The parents’ available income is determined by subtracting total income from total assets.

“(A) Federal income taxes;

“(B) an allowance for payroll taxes, determined in accordance with paragraph (2);

“(C) an income protection allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (3); and

“(D) an employment expense allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (4).

“(2) ALLOWANCE FOR PAYROLL TAXES.—The allowance for payroll taxes is equal to the sum of—

“(A) the total amount earned by the parents, multiplied by the rate of tax under section 3101(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and

“(B) the amount earned by the parents that does not exceed such contribution and benefit base (twice such contribution and benefit base, in the case of a joint return) for the year of the earnings, multiplied by the rate of tax applicable to such earnings under section 3101(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

“(3) INCOME PROTECTION ALLOWANCE.—The income protection allowance for current year 2021–2022 and each succeeding award year shall equal the amount determined in the following table, as adjusted by the Secretary pursuant to section 478(e):

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Family Size (including student)</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>$40,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For each additional add</td>
<td>$4,750.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

“(4) EMPLOYMENT EXPENSE ALLOWANCE.—The employment expense allowance is equal to the lesser of $4,000 or 35 percent of the single parent’s earned income or married parents’ combined earned income (or is equal to a successor amount as adjusted by the Secretary pursuant to section 478(g)).

“(d) PARENTS’ AVAILABLE ASSETS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—

“(A) Determination.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the parents’ available assets are equal to—

“(i) the difference between the parents’ net assets and the education savings and asset protection allowance (determined in accordance with paragraph (2)); multiplied by

“(ii) 12 percent.

“(B) NOT LESS THAN ZERO.—Parents’ available assets under this subsection shall not be less than zero.

“(2) EDUCATION SAVINGS AND ASSET PROTECTION ALLOWANCE.—The education savings and asset protection allowance is calculated according to the following table (or a successor table prescribed by the Secretary under section 478(d)):

“(f) CONSIDERATION OF PARENTAL INCOME.—

“(1) PARENTS WHO LIVE TOGETHER.—Parental income and assets in the case of a student whose parents are married and not separated, or who are unmarried but live together, shall include the income and assets of both parents.

“(2) DIVORCED OR SEPARATED PARENTS.—Parental income and assets for a student whose parents are divorced or separated, but not remarried, is determined by including only the income and assets of the parent who provides the greater portion of the student’s financial support.

“(3) DEATH OF A PARENT.—Parental income and assets in the case of the death of any parent is determined as follows:

“(A) If either of the parents has died, the surviving parent shall be considered a single parent, until that parent has remarried.

“(B) If both parents have died, the student shall not report any parental income or assets.

“(C) REMARRIRED PARENTS.—If a parent whose income and assets are taken into account under paragraph (2), or if a parent who is a widow or widower and whose income is taken into account under paragraph (3), has remarried, the income of that parent’s spouse shall be included in determining the parent’s assessment of adjusted available income if the student’s parent and the step-parent are married as of the date of application for the award year concerned.

“(g) STUDENT’S AVAILABLE INCOME.—

“(A) The student’s available income is equal to—

“(B) 50 percent.
"(2) ADJUSTMENT TO STUDENT INCOME.—The adjustment to student income is equal to the sum of—

(A) Federal income taxes;

(B) an allowance for payroll taxes determined in accordance with paragraph (3);

(C) an income protection allowance that is equal to—

(i) $1,110 for award year 2021–2022; and

(ii) for each succeeding award year, the amount adjusted pursuant to section 478(b); and

(D) an allowance for parents’ negative available income, determined in accordance with paragraph (4).

(3) ALLOWANCE FOR PAYROLL TAXES.—The allowance for payroll taxes is equal to the sum of—

(A) the total amount earned by the student, multiplied by the rate of tax under section 3101(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and

(B) the amount earned by the student that does not exceed such contribution and benefit base for the year of the earnings, multiplied by the rate of tax applicable to such earnings under section 3101(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(4) ALLOWANCE FOR PARENTS’ NEGATIVE AVAILABLE INCOME.—The allowance for parents’ negative available income is the amount, if any, by which the sum of the amounts deducted under subsection (c)(1) exceeds the sum of the parents’ total income (as defined in section 480) and the parents’ available assets (as determined in accordance with subsection (d)).

(b) STUDENT’S ASSETS.—The student’s assets are determined by calculating the net assets of the student and multiplying such amount by 20 percent, except that the result shall not be less than zero.

(e) STUDENT AID INDEX FOR INDEPENDENT STUDENTS WITHOUT DEPENDENTS OTHER THAN A Spouse.—Section 476 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087pp) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 476. STUDENT AID INDEX FOR INDEPENDENT STUDENTS WITHOUT DEPENDENTS OTHER THAN A Spouse.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—For each independent student without dependents other than a spouse, the student aid index is equal to (except as provided in paragraph (2)) the sum of—

(A) the family’s available income (determined in accordance with subsection (b)); and

(B) the family’s available assets (determined in accordance with subsection (c)).

(2) EXCEPTION.—If the sum of paragraphs (1) with respect to a independent student without dependents other than a spouse is less than $1,500, the student aid index for the independent student shall be $1,500.

(b) FAMILY’S AVAILABLE INCOME.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The family’s available income is determined by—

(A) deducting from total income (as defined in section 480) the following:

(i) Federal income taxes;

(ii) an allowance for payroll taxes, determined in accordance with paragraph (2); and

(iii) an income protection allowance that is equal to—

(A) in the case of a single independent student without dependents—

(aa) $14,190 for award year 2021–2022; and

(bb) for each succeeding award year, the amount adjusted pursuant to section 478(b); and

(B) in the case of a married independent student without dependents—

(aa) $22,750 for award year 2021–2022; and

(bb) for each succeeding award year, the amount adjusted pursuant to section 478(b); and

(BA) multiplying the amount determined under subparagraph (A) by 50 percent.

(2) ALLOWANCE FOR PAYROLL TAXES.—The allowance for payroll taxes is equal to the sum of—

(A) the total amount earned by the student (and spouse, if appropriate), multiplied by the rate of tax under section 3101(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and

(B) the amount earned by the student (and spouse, if appropriate) that does not exceed such contribution and benefit base (twice such contribution and benefit base, in the case of a joint return) for the year of the earnings, multiplied by the rate of tax applicable to such earnings under section 3101(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(3) EMPLOYMENT EXPENSE ALLOWANCE.—The employment expense allowance is equal to the following:

(A) If the student is married, such allowance is equal to the lesser of $4,000 or 35 percent of the couple’s combined earned income (or is equal to a successor amount as adjusted by the Secretary pursuant to section 478(g));

(B) If the student is not married, the employment expense allowance is zero.

(c) FAMILY’S AVAILABLE ASSETS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—

(A) DETERMINATION.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the family’s available assets are equal to—

(i) the difference between the family’s assets (as defined in section 480(c)) and the asset protection allowance (determined in accordance with paragraph (2)); multiplied by

(ii) 20 percent.

(B) NOT LESS THAN ZERO.—The family’s available assets under this subsection shall not be less than zero.

(2) ALLOWANCE FOR PAYROLL TAXES.—The allowance for payroll taxes is determined in accordance with subsection (c);

(3) INCOME PROTECTION ALLOWANCE.—The asset protection allowance is calculated according to the following table (or a successor table prescribed by the Secretary under section 478(d)):

<table>

(4) COMPUTATIONS IN CASE OF SEPARATION, DIVORCE, OR DEATH.—In the case of a student who is divorced or legally separated from a spouse, or whose spouse has died, the spouse’s income and assets shall not be considered in determining the family’s available income or assets.

(a) COMPUTATION OF STUDENT AID INDEX.—For each independent student with dependents other than a spouse, the student aid index is equal to the amount determined by—

(1) computing adjusted available income by adding—

(A) the family’s available income (determined in accordance with subsection (b)); and

(B) the family’s available assets (determined in accordance with subsection (c));

(2) assessing such adjusted available income in accordance with an assessment schedule set forth in subsection (d); and

(3) considering such assessment resulting under paragraph (2) as the amount determined under this subsection.

(b) FAMILY’S AVAILABLE INCOME.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The family’s available income is determined by deducting from total income (as defined in section 480) the following:

(A) Federal income taxes;

(B) an allowance for payroll taxes, determined in accordance with paragraph (2);

(C) an income protection allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (3); and

(D) an employment expense allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (4).

(2) ALLOWANCE FOR PAYROLL TAXES.—The allowance for payroll taxes is equal to the sum of—

(A) the total amount earned by the student (and spouse, if appropriate), multiplied by the rate of tax under section 3101(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and

(B) the amount earned by the student (and spouse, if appropriate) that does not exceed such contribution and benefit base (twice such contribution and benefit base, in the case of a joint return) for the year of the earnings, multiplied by the rate of tax applicable to such earnings under section 3101(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(3) INCOME PROTECTION ALLOWANCE.—The income protection allowance is determined in accordance with subsection (d); and

(4) COMPUTATIONS IN CASE OF SEPARATION, DIVORCE, OR DEATH.—In the case of a student who is divorced or legally separated from a spouse, or whose spouse has died, the spouse’s income and assets shall not be considered in determining the family’s available income or assets.

(e) Computations in Case of Separation, Divorce, or Death.—In the case of a student who is divorced or separated, or whose spouse has died, the spouse’s income and assets shall not be considered in determining the family’s available income or assets.”.

(g) Regulations: Updated Tables.—Section 478 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087rr) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 478. REGULATIONS: UPDATED TABLES.

(a) Authority To Prescribe Regulations Restricted.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary shall not have the authority to prescribe regulations to carry out this part except—

(1) to prescribe updated tables in accordance with subsections (b) through (e), or

(2) with respect to the definition of cost of attendance under section 472, excluding section 472(a)(1).

(b) Income Protection Allowance Adjustments.—For award year 2022–2023 and each succeeding award year, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register revised income protection allowances for the purposes of subsections (c)(3) and (g)(2)(C) of section 475, subclauses (I) and (II) of section 476(h)(1)(A)(iii), and section 477(b)(8), by increasing the income protection allowances in each of such provisions, by a percentage equal to the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index, as defined in subsection (f), between April 2019 and the April prior to the beginning of the award year and rounding the result to the nearest $10.

(c) Adjusted Net Worth of a Farm or Business.—

(1) Table.—The table of the net worth of a business or farm for purposes of making determinations of assets as defined under section 480(f) for award year 2021–2022 is the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Business/Farm Net Worth Adjustment</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>$60,001 or more</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

(2) Revised Tables.—For award year 2022–2023 and each succeeding award year, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register a revised table of adjusted net worth of a farm or business for purposes of section 480(f). Such revised table shall be developed—

(A) by increasing each dollar amount that refers to net worth of a farm or business by a percentage equal to the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index between August 4, 2020

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

S4813
April 2019 and the April prior to the beginning of such award year, and rounding the result to the nearest $5,000; and

"(B) by adjusting the dollar amounts in the Consumer Price Index for the purpose of sections 475(d)(2), 476(c)(2), and 477(c)(2). Such revised table shall be developed by increasing the dollar amount specified in section 475(d)(2), 476(c)(2), and 477(c)(2) by one-fifteenth for each year of age above 40, as updated, by one-fifteenth for each year of age above age 40 and rounding the result to the nearest $100. In making such determinations—

"(1) inflation shall be presumed to be 6 percent per year;

"(2) the rate of return of an annuity shall be presumed to be 8 percent; and

"(3) the sales commission on an annuity shall be presumed to be 6 percent.

"(e) ASSESSMENT SCHEDULES AND RATES.—For award year 2022-2023 and each succeeding award year, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register a revised table of adjustments for the purpose of sections 475(d)(2), 476(c)(2), and 477(c)(2). Such revised table shall be developed by increasing the dollar amount specified in sections 475(d)(2), 476(c)(2), and 477(c)(2) by one-fifteenth for each year of age above 40, as updated, by one-fifteenth for each year of age above age 40 and rounding the result to the nearest $100; and

"(2) by adjusting the other dollar amounts to reflect the changes made pursuant to paragraph (1).

"(f) CONSUMER PRICE INDEX DEFINED.—In this section, the term "Consumer Price Index" means the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers published by the Department of Labor. Each annual table of adjustments for the purpose of sections 475(d)(2), 476(c)(2), and 477(c)(2) shall be developed by increasing the dollar amount specified in sections 475(d)(2), 476(c)(2), and 477(c)(2) by one-fifteenth for each year of age above 40, as updated, by one-fifteenth for each year of age above age 40 and rounding the result to the nearest $100.

"(g) EMPLOYMENT EXPENSE ALLOWANCE.—For award year 2022-2023 and each succeeding award year, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register a revised table of adjustments for the purpose of section 475(e)(1) and 477(d)(1). Such revised table shall be developed by increasing the dollar amount specified in section 475(e)(1) and 477(d)(1) by one-fifteenth for each year of age above 40, as updated, by one-fifteenth for each year of age above age 40 and rounding the result to the nearest $100; and

"(2) by adjusting the other dollar amounts to reflect the changes made pursuant to paragraph (1).

"(h) APPLICANTS EXEMPT FROM ASSET REPORTING.—Section 479 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087e) is amended to read as follows:

"(i) DISCRETION OF STUDENT FINANCIAL AID ADMINISTRATORS.—Section 479A of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1091a) is amended to read as follows:

"(1) IN GENERAL.—"(a) AUTHORITY OF FINANCIAL AID ADMINISTRATORS.—A financial aid administrator shall have the authority to, on the basis of adequate documentation, make adjustments to any or all of the following on a case-by-case basis—

"(i) the cost of attendance;

"(ii) the values of the data used to calculate the student aid index; or

"(iii) the values of the data used to calculate the Federal Pell Grant award; or

"(b) for an individual eligible applicant with unusual circumstances, as defined in section 480(d)(9), under subsection (c) to the dependency status.

"(2) LIMITATIONS ON AUTHORITY.—"(a) USE OF AUTHORITY.—No institution of higher education or financial aid administrator shall maintain a policy of denying all requests for adjustments under this section.

"(b) ADDITIONAL PER.—No student or parent shall be charged a fee for a documented interview of the student by the financial aid administrator or for the review of a student or parent's request for adjustments under this section including the review of any supplementary information or documentation of a student or parent's special circumstances or a student's unusual circumstances.

"(C) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—The authority to make adjustments under paragraph (1) shall not be construed to permit financial aid administrators to deviate from the cost of attendance, the values of data used to calculate the student aid index or the values of data used to calculate the Federal Pell Grant award (or both) for awarding aid under this title in the absence of special circumstances.

"(D) ADEQUATE DOCUMENTATION.—Adequate documentation for adjustments under this section shall substantiate the special circumstances or unusual circumstances of individual students, and may include, to the extent relevant and appropriate—

"(A) a documented interview between the student and the financial aid administrator; and

"(B) for the purpose of determining that a student qualifies for an adjustment under paragraph (1)(B)—

"(i) a child welfare agency authorized by a State or county;

"(ii) a Tribal welfare authority;

"(iii) an independent living case worker; or

"(iv) a public or private agency, facility, or program serving the victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence;

"(C) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—The authority to make adjustments under paragraph (1) shall not be construed to permit financial aid administrators to deviate from the cost of attendance, the values of data used to calculate the student aid index or the values of data used to calculate the Federal Pell Grant award (or both) for awarding aid under this title in the absence of special circumstances.

"(1) submission of a court order or official State or Federal documentation that the parents or legal guardians are incarcerated in any Federal or State penal institution;

"(2) a documented phone call or a written statement, which confirms the specific unusual circumstances with—

"(i) a child welfare agency authorized by a State or county;

"(ii) a Tribal welfare authority;

"(iii) an independent living case worker; or

"(iv) a public or private agency, facility, or program serving the victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence; and

"(2) by adjusting the other dollar amounts to reflect the changes made pursuant to paragraph (1).

"(3) ADEQUATE DOCUMENTATION.—Adequate documentation for adjustments under this section shall substantiate the special circumstances or unusual circumstances of individual students, and may include, to the extent relevant and appropriate—

"(A) a documented interview between the student and the financial aid administrator; and

"(B) for the purpose of determining that a student qualifies for an adjustment under paragraph (1)(B)—

"(i) a child welfare agency authorized by a State or county;

"(ii) a Tribal welfare authority;

"(iii) an independent living case worker; or

"(iv) a public or private agency, facility, or program serving the victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.

"(D) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—The authority to make adjustments under paragraph (1) shall not be construed to permit financial aid administrators to deviate from the cost of attendance, the values of data used to calculate the student aid index or the values of data used to calculate the Federal Pell Grant award (or both) for awarding aid under this title in the absence of special circumstances.
documents the person’s relationship to the student; or

“(v) documents, such as utility bills or health insurance documentation, that demonstrate for admission from parents or legal guardians; and

“(vi) in the absence of documentation described in this subparagraph, other documentation the financial aid administrator determines is adequate to confirm the usual circumstances, as defined in section 480(d)(9); and

“(C) supplemental information, as necessary, about the financial status or personal circumstances of eligible applicants as it relates to the financial circumstances or unusual circumstances based on which the applicant is requesting an adjustment.

“(4) SPECIAL RULE.—In making adjustments under paragraph (1), a financial aid administrator may offer a dependent student financial assistance under a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan without requiring the submission of such student to provide their parent information on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid if the student does not qualify for, or does not choose to use, such form.

“(5) PUBLIC DISCLOSURE.—Each institution of higher education shall make available information that students applying for aid under this title have the opportunity to pursue adjustments under this section.

“(b) ADJUSTMENTS FOR STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES.—

“(1) SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES FOR ADJUSTMENTS RELATED TO FELI GRANTS.—Special circumstances for adjustments to calculate a Pell Grant award—

“(A) shall be conditions that differentiate an individual student from a group of students rather than conditions that exist across a group of students; and

“(B) may include—

“(i) recent unemployment of a family member or an independent student;

“(ii) a student or family member who is a dislocated worker (as defined in section 3 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act);

“(iii) a change in housing status that results in an individual being a homeless child or youth (as defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act);

“(iv) the number of family members enrolled in a degree, certificate, or other program of study at an institution that grants a credential at an institution with a program participation agreement under section 487;

“(v) a change in housing status that results in an individual being a homeless child or youth (as defined in section 275 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act);

“(vi) in the case of a dependent student, a recent condition of severe disability of the student, the dependent student’s parent or guardian, or an independent student’s dependent or spouse;

“(vii) unusual amount of claimed losses against income on the Federal tax return that substantially lower adjusted gross income, such as business, investment, or real estate losses;

“(viii) receipt of substantial foreign income of permanent residents or United States citizens exempt from Federal taxation, or the foreign income or assets of a nonresident alien for the purpose of a Federal tax return or Federal tax liability for a period of time after the student completes the Free Application for Federal Student Aid;

“(ix) other changes or adjustments in the income, assets, or size of a family, or a student’s dependency status.

“(2) SPECIAL RULE.—The Secretary shall not consider conditions that are widespread to a group of students due to a major disaster or an emergency declared by the President under section 401 or 501, respectively, of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5170 and 5191) as special circumstances for adjustment purposes of paragraphs (1)(A) and (2)(A) for a time period determined by such Secretary.

“(c) UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES ADJUSTMENTS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Unusual circumstances for adjustment purposes of an individual eligible applicant shall be—

“(A) conditions that differentiate an individual student from a group of students; and

“(B) other changes or adjustments in the income, assets, or size of a family, or a student’s dependency status.

“(2) PROVIDENTIAL ADJUSTMENTS.—

“(A) REQUIREMENTS FOR THE SECRETARY.—The Secretary shall—

“(i) enable each student who, based on an unusual circumstance specified in section 480(d)(9), may qualify for an adjustment under paragraph (1)(B) that will result in a determination of independence under this section and section 479D to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid as an independent student (as defined by section 480(d)(9))

“(ii) upon completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid provide an estimate of the amount of loan guarantee, and other information as specified in section 483(a)(3)(A), based on the assumption that the student is determined to be an independent student; and

“(iii) specify, on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, the consequences under section 490(a) of knowingly and willfully providing false or misleading information on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid as an independent student under clause (i) without meeting the unusual circumstances to qualify for such a determination.

“(B) REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL AID ADMINISTRATORS.—With respect to a student accepted for admission with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid as an independent student under subparagraph (A), a financial aid administrator shall—

“(i) notify the student of the financial aid administration process, requirements, and timeline for an adjustment under this section and section 480(d)(9) that will result in a review of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid as a determination of the student’s dependency status or to correct an error under this section and section 480(d)(9) that will result in a review of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid;

“(ii) provide the student a final determination of the student’s dependency status and financial aid award as soon as practicable after all requested documentation is provided;

“(iii) retain all documents related to the adjustment under this section and section 480(d)(9), including documenting interviews, for at least the duration of the student’s enrollment, and shall abide by all recordkeeping requirements of this Act.

“(iv) determine any student who has obtained an adjustment under this section and section 480(d)(9) and a final determination of the student’s dependency status in the year in which such student enters to be independent for a subsequent award year at the same institution under this section.

“(v) the student provides the institution that circumstances have changed; or “(vi) the institution has specific conflicting information about the student’s independence.

“(d) ADJUSTMENTS TO ASSETS OR INCOME TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.—A financial aid administrator shall not consider in determining eligibility for Federal student aid as an adjustment any student’s receipt of a loan under part D, certify a loan amount, or the closure, forfeiture, or bankruptcy of a student if—

“(1) the administrator makes adjustments excluding from family income or assets any proceeds or losses from a sale of farm or business assets of a family if such sale results in a determination of the student’s dependency status.

“(2) the administrator makes adjustments excluding from family income or assets any proceeds or losses from a sale of family assets if such sale results in a determination of the student’s dependency status.

“(3) the administrator makes adjustments excluding from family income or assets any proceeds or losses from a sale of personal assets if such sale results in a determination of the student’s dependency status.

“(4) the administrator makes adjustments excluding from family income or assets any proceeds or losses from a sale of personal assets if such sale results in a determination of the student’s dependency status.

“(5) DISREGARD OF STUDENT AID IN OTHER PROGRAMS.—Section 479B of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087u) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 479B. DISREGARD OF STUDENT AID IN OTHER PROGRAMS.

“Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any student aid provided under this title, Bureau of Indian Affairs student assistance programs, and employment assistance programs under section 483 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (29 U.S.C. 3174 et. seq.) shall not be taken into account in determining the need or eligibility of any borrower or applicant for a loan under part D, certify a loan amount, or the closure, forfeiture, or bankruptcy of a student if—

“(A) the administrator makes adjustments excluding from family income or assets any proceeds or losses from a sale of farm or business assets of a family if such sale results in a determination of the student’s dependency status.

“(B) the administrator makes adjustments excluding from family income or assets any proceeds or losses from a sale of personal assets if such sale results in a determination of the student’s dependency status.
program financed in whole or in part with Federal funds.

(8) NAVAJO NATION STUDENTS.—Section 479C of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1067uu-1) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 479C. NAVAJO NATION STUDENTS.

"In determining the student aid index for Navajo Nation students, computations performed pursuant to this part shall exclude:

(1) any income and assets of $2,000 or less per individual payment received by the student (and spouse) and student's parents under Public Law 98–64 (25 U.S.C. 117a et seq.; 97 Stat. 227 et seq.; 42 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.; and
(2) any income received by the student (and spouse) and student's parents under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (43 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) or the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act of 1980 (25 U.S.C. 1721 et seq.).

SEC. 479D. SPECIAL RULES FOR INDEPENDENT STUDENTS.

"(a) DETERMINATION PROCESS FOR UNACCOMPANIED YOUTH.—In making a determination of independence under section 480(d)(8), a financial aid administrator shall—

(1) consider documentation of the student's circumstance provided by an individual described by this subparagraph to be acceptable in the absence of documented conflicting information, such individuals include—

(A) a local education agency homeless liaison, designated pursuant to section 722(g)(1)(J)(1) of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act or a designee of the liaison;

(B) the director or a recognized emergency shelter, transitional living, street outreach program, or other program serving individuals who are homeless or a designee of the director;

(C) the director of a Federal TRIO program or a Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Adult Programs undergraduate program under chapter 1 or 2 of part A or a designee of the director; or

(D) by a financial aid administrator at another institution who documented the student's circumstance in a prior award year;

(2) if a student is unable to provide documentation from any individual under paragraph (1), make a case-by-case determination, which shall be—

(A) based on a written statement from or a documented interview with the student which confirms that the student is homeless (as such term is defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act), or unaccompanied, at risk of homelessness, and self-supporting; and

(B) made independent from the reasons that the student is homeless (as such term is defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act), or unaccompanied, at risk of homelessness, and self-supporting; and

(3) consider a determination made under this paragraph as distinct from a determination of independence under section 480(d)(9).

(b) DOCUMENTATION PROCESS FOR FOSTER CARE YOUTH.—If an institution requires that a student provide documentation that they were in foster care when the student was age 13 or older, a financial aid administrator shall consider any of the following as adequate documentation, in the absence of documented conflicting information:

(1) Submission of a court order or official State documentation that the student received Federal or State support in foster care.

(2) A documented phone call, written statement, or verifiable electronic data match, which confirms the student was in foster care at an applicable age, from—

(A) a State welfare agency administering a program under part B or E of title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 621 et seq. and 670 et seq.);

(B) a State educational agency; or

(C) a public or private foster care placement agency or foster care facility or placement.

(3) A documented phone call or a written statement from a guardian ad litem, or a Court Appointed Special Advocate that confirms that the student was in foster care at an applicable age, and documents the person's relationship to the student.

(4) Verification of the student's eligibility for an education and training voucher under the John H. Chafee Foster Care Program under section 477 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 677).

(c) TIMING.—A determination of independence under paragraphs (2), (8) or (9) of section 480(d) for a student—

(1) shall be made as quickly as practicable;

(2) may be made as early as the year before the award year for which the student initially submits an application; and

(3) shall be considered no later than during the award year for which the student initially submits an application.

(d) USE OF EARLIER DETERMINATIONS.—

(1) EARLIER DETERMINATION BY THE INSTITUTION.—Any student who is determined to be independent under paragraph (2), (8) or (9) of section 480(d) for a preceding award year at an institution shall be presumed to be independent for each subsequent award year at the same institution unless—

(A) the student informs the institution that circumstances have changed; or

(B) the institution has specific conflicting information about the student's independence, and has informed the student of this information.

(2) EARLIER DETERMINATION BY ANOTHER INSTITUTION.—

(A) SIMPLIFYING THE DEPENDENCY OVER- RIDE PROCESS.—A financial aid administrator may make a determination of independence under section 480(d)(9), based upon a documented determination of independence that was previously made by another financial aid administrator under such paragraph in the same award year.

(B) RESTRICTIONS OF DOCUMENTS.—A financial aid administrator shall retain all documents related to the determination of independence under paragraphs (2) or (8) of section 480(d)(9), including documented interview; and

(2) by striking section 480 and inserting the following:

SEC. 480. DEFINITIONS.

"In this part:

(a) TOTAL INCOME.—The term 'total income' means the amount equal to adjusted gross income for the second preceding tax year plus untaxed income and benefits for the second preceding tax year minus includable income for the second preceding tax year. The only income used to determine total income shall be derived from the Federal income tax return, if available, except for the annual amount of child support received as a qualified rollover in the second preceding tax year as outlined in section 483.

(b) UNTAXED INCOME AND BENEFITS.—The term 'untaxed income and benefits' means—

(1) deductions and payments to self-employed SEP, SIMPLE, Keogh, and other qualified individual retirement accounts excluded from income for Federal tax purposes, except such term shall not include payments made to tax-deferred pension and retirement accounts, paid directly or the net earnings, that are not delineated on the Federal tax return;

(2) tax-exempt interest income;

(3) untaxed portion of pensions;

(4) professional or trade of individual retirement account distributions; and

(5) qualified education benefit.

(c) VETERAN.—The term 'veteran' has the meaning given the term in section 101(2) of title 38, United States Code.

(d) INDEPENDENT STUDENTS AND DETER- MINATION.—The term 'independent' when used with respect to a student, means any individual who—

(1) is 21 years of age or older by December 31 of the award year;

(2) is, or was at any time when the individual was 13 years of age or older;

(A) has no parent or guardian; or

(B) ward of the court;

(3) is, or was immediately prior to attaining the age of majority, an emancipated minor, or in legal guardianship as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in the individual's State of legal residence;

(4) is a veteran of the Armed Forces for other than training purposes or a designee of the Armed Forces for other than training purposes;

(5) is a graduate or professional student;

(6) is married and not separated;

(7) has legal dependents other than a spouse;

(8) is an unaccompanied youth 23 years of age or younger who is homeless (as such term is defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act), or unaccompanied, at risk of homelessness, and self-supporting; or

(9) is a student for whom a financial aid administrator makes a documented determination of independence by reason of other unusual circumstances as described under section 478(c) in which the student is unable to contact a parent or where contact with parents poses a risk to such student, which includes circumstances of—

(A) human trafficking, as described in the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.);

(B) legally granted refugee or asylum status; or

(C) parent abandonment or estrange- ment; or

(D) parental incarceration.

(e) EXCLUDABLE INCOME.—The term 'excludable income' means an amount equal to the education credits described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 25A(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(f) ASSETS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The term 'assets' means cash on hand, including the amount in cash, demand and savings accounts, bank deposits, money market funds, trusts, stocks, bonds, derivatives, other securities, mutual funds, tax shelters, qualified education benefits that are paid directly or the net earnings, that are not delineated on the family's principal place of residence.

(2) QUALIFIED EDUCATION BENEFIT.—A qualified education benefit shall be considered an asset of—

(A) the student if the student is an independent student; or

(B) the student if the student is not an independent student; or
"(B) the parent if the student is a dependent student and the account is designated for the student, regardless of whether the owner of the account is the student or the parent.

"(c) The term 'market value' means the market value at the time of application of the assets (as defined in subsection (f)), minus any outstanding liabilities or indebtedness against the assets.

"(h) TREATMENT OF INCOME TAXES PAID TO OTHER JURISDICTIONS.—

"(1) Amounts of tax paid to the Government of Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the States of Maryland, the State of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or Palau under the laws applicable to those jurisdictions, or the comparable tax paid to the central government of a foreign country, shall be treated as Federal income taxes.

"(2) References in this part to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Federal income tax forms, and the Internal Revenue Service shall, for purposes of the tax described in paragraph (1), be treated as references to the corresponding laws, tax forms, and tax collection agencies of those jurisdictions, respectively, subject to such adjustments as the Secretary may provide by regulation.

"(i) Assistance.—

"(1) For purposes of determining a student's eligibility for funds under this title, other financial assistance not received under this title, including all scholarships, grants, loans, or other assistance known to the institution at the time the determination of the student's need is made, including national service and vocational rehabilitation benefits under title I of the National Service Act of 1970 (42 U.S.C. 12511 et seq.), shall be treated as financial assistance for purposes of section 474(a)(3).

"(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a tax credit taken under section 25A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or a distribution that is not includable in gross income under section 529 of such Code, under another prepaid tuition plan offered by a State, or under a Coverdell education savings account under section 530 of such Code, shall not be treated as other financial assistance for purposes of section 474(a)(3).

"(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) and section 472, assistance not received under this title, including all scholarships, grants, loans, or other assistance known to the State to which the student belongs, shall be treated as financial assistance for purposes of section 471(a)(3).

"(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), emergency financial assistance in an amount less than $1,500 provided to the student for unexpected expenses that are a component of the student's cost of attendance, and not otherwise considered when the determination of the student's need is made, shall not be treated as other financial assistance for purposes of section 471(a)(3).

"(J) DEPENDENTS.—

"(1) If, in addition to the student, the term 'dependent of the parent' means the student who is deemed to be a dependent students when applying for aid under this title, and any other person who lives with and receives more than one-half of their support from the parent (or parents) and will continue to receive more than one-half of their support from the parent (or parents) during the award year.

"(2) Except as otherwise provided, the term 'dependent of the parent' means the student's dependent children and other persons (except the student's spouse) who live with and receive more than one-half of their support from the student's parent (or parents) and who do not receive more than half of their support from the student during the award year.

"(1) INDEPENDENT STUDENT.—Except as provided in paragraph (3), in determining family size in the case of a dependent student—

"(a) if the parents are not divorced or separated, family members include the student's parents, and any dependent (within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of the student's parents for the taxable year used in determining the amount of need of the student for financial assistance under this title;

"(b) if the parents are divorced or separated, family members include the parent whose income is included in computing available income and any dependent (within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or an eligible individual for purposes of the credit under section 32 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of that parent for the taxable year used in determining the amount of need of the student for financial assistance under this title;

"(c) if the parents are divorced and the parent whose income is included in computing available income is remarried, or if the parent was a widower or widower who has remarried, family members also include, in addition to those individuals referred to in paragraph (b), and any dependent (within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or an eligible individual for purposes of the credit under section 32 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of the student for the year used in determining the amount of need of the student for financial assistance under this title;

"(2) INDEPENDENT STUDENT.—Except as provided in paragraph (3), in determining family size in the case of an independent student—

"(a) if the student completed or will complete, prior to the period of enrollment for which aid is sought, a secondary school completion—

"(i) the parent who has remarried, family members include the parent's dependent children and other persons (except the parent's spouse) who live with and receive more than half of their support from the student during the award year;

"(ii) the parent if the student is a dependent student and the account is designated for the student, regardless of whether the owner of the account is the student or the parent.

"(B) any individual who has lived with the student for more than half of the time during the year preceding the year in which aid is sought, and includes any dependent of that individual (within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of that student for the taxable year used in determining the amount of need of the student for financial assistance under this title.

"(3) PROCEDURES AND MODIFICATION.—The Secretary shall provide procedures for determining family size in cases in which information for the taxable year used in determining the amount of need of the student for financial assistance under this title has changed or does not accurately reflect the applicant's current household size.

"(2) BUSINESS ASSETS.—The term 'business assets' means property that is used in the operation of a trade or business, including real estate, inventories, buildings, machinery, and other equipment, patents, franchise rights, and copyrights.

"(3) FAFSA.—Section 483 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1090) is amended to read as follows:

"(SEC. 483. FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID.

"(a) SIMPLIFIED APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Each individual seeking to apply for Federal financial aid under this title for any award year shall file a free application with the Secretary, known as the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, to determine eligibility for such aid, as described in paragraph (2), and in accordance with section 479.

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall provide, with authorization from the applicant in accordance with paragraph (2)(D)(ii), to a State agency administering State-based financial aid and serving the applicant’s State of residence, the information described under section 6103(l)(13) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and information described in paragraph (2)(B) for the application, award, and administration of financial aid to which an applicant is entitled, or to local government assistance, or tribal assistance.

“(2) INSTITUTION-RUN FINANCIAL AID.—

(5) NO ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REQUESTS PERMITTED.—In carrying out this subsection, the Secretary shall not require additional information separate from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid for purposes of awarding institution-run financial aid.

“(6) STATE-RUN PROGRAMS.—

(9) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—

“A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than one year after the date of enactment of the Student Loan Repayment and FAFSA Simplification Act, the Secretary shall report to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions of the Senate and the Committee on Education and Labor of the House of Representatives, and to the appropriate subcommittees of those committees, regarding the report to Congress required by this subsection.

“B) QUARTERLY UPDATES.—The Secretary shall provide updates to the Committee described in subparagraph (A).
“(1) to the maximum extent practicable, streamline and simplify the process of verification for applicants for Federal financial aid; and

(2) in establishing policies and procedures to verify applicants’ eligibility for Federal financial aid, consider—

(i) the burden placed on low-income applicants;

(ii) the risk to low-income applicants of failing to enroll or complete from being selected for verification;

(iii) the effectiveness of the policies and procedures in safeguarding against a net cost to taxpayers; and

(iv) the reasons for the source of any improper payments; and

(2) submit the application under this title to the Secretary through such technology. Such technology shall, at a minimum, enable applicants to—

(A) electronically import all of the applicant’s (including parents, guardian’s, or spouse’s, as applicable) identifying, demographic, and academic data from the previous application or previous application for Federal Student Aid prescribed in subparagraph (A) prior to implementing the design specified in subparagraph (A) prior to implementation of independence; and

(B) in establishing data sharing protocols with the appropriate Federal or State agencies to enter into data sharing agreements with the appropriate Federal or State agencies to enter into data sharing agreements with the Secretary, and no parent or student shall be charged a fee by the Secretary, a contractor, or any other person; and

(3) DATA SHARING.—The Secretary may permit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid developed by the Secretary under this section available through prevalent technology. Such technology shall, at a minimum, enable applicants to—

(A) to the maximum extent practicable, streamline and simplify the process of verification for applicants for Federal financial aid; and

(B) in establishing policies and procedures to verify applicants’ eligibility for Federal financial aid, consider—

(i) the burden placed on low-income applicants;

(ii) the risk to low-income applicants of failing to enroll or complete from being selected for verification;

(iii) the effectiveness of the policies and procedures in safeguarding against a net cost to taxpayers; and

(iv) the reasons for the source of any improper payments; and

(C) issue a report not less often than annually sharing the percentage of applicants subject to verification, whether the applicants ultimately received Federal financial aid disbursements, and whether the student aid index changed enough to affect the applicant’s award for any Federal financial aid under this title.

(4) STUDIES.—The Secretary shall periodically conduct studies on—

(A) the effectiveness in reducing additional information specified in clauses (i) and (ii) of paragraph (4)(B) on the determination of State financial aid awards and whether the additional information required is a barrier to college enrollment by examining—

(i) how much financial aid awards would change if the additional information were not required;

(ii) the number of students who started but did not finish the Free Application for Federal Student Aid compared to the baseline year 2021; and

(iii) the number of students who—

(I) started a Free Application for Federal Student Aid but did not receive financial assistance under this title for the applicable academic year; and

(II) if available, did not enroll in an institution of higher education in the applicable academic year;

(B) the most common barriers faced by applicants in completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid; and

(C) the most common reasons that students and families do not fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid.

(5) TECHNOLOGY ACCESSIBILITY.—The Secretary shall make the application under this title available through prevalent technology. The Secretary shall ensure that, at a minimum, enable applicants to—

(A) save data; and

(B) submit the application under this title to the Secretary through such technology.

(6) VERIFICATION BURDEN.—The Secretary shall—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall disclose in a consumer-tested format, upon completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid under this section, that the student may, on a case-by-case basis, quality for such adjustment or determination of independence; and

(2) ADJUSTMENTS AND IMPROVEMENTS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 9 months after the date of enactment of the Student Loan Ombudsman and Consumer Reporting Act, the Secretary shall begin consumer testing the design of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid under this section with prospective college entrants, representatives of students (including low-income students, first generation college students, adult students, veterans, service members, and prospective students), students’ families (including low-income families, families with first generation college students, and families with prospective students), higher education to which the applicant applied, and by type of institution or institutions of higher education, secondary school and postsecondary counselors, and nonprofit consumer groups.

(B) UPDATES.—For award year 2021 and each fourth succeeding award year thereafter, the Secretary shall update the design of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid based on additional consumer testing with the populations described in subparagraph (A) in order to improve the usability and accessibility of the application.

(2) ACCESSIBILITY OF THE FAFSA.—The Secretary shall—

(A) in conjunction with the Director of the Census Bureau, determine the most common languages spoken at home in the United States;

(B) develop versions of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid form in each of the languages determined in subparagraph (A); and

(C) ensure the Free Application for Federal Student Aid is compliant with the most recent W3C Content Accessibility Guidelines, or successor guidelines.

(3) REAPPLICATION IN A SUCCEEDING ACADEMIC YEAR.—In order to streamline applicant’s reapplying for financial aid, the Secretary shall ensure that the Free Application for Federal Student Aid is not required for applicants who apply for Federal financial aid other than the Free Application for Federal Student Aid form completed for the applicable academic year for which a fee is charged shall be used to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid prescribed under this section. Such application shall be produced, distributed, and processed by the Secretary, and no parent or student shall be charged a fee by the Secretary, a contractor, a third-party servicer or private software provider, or any other public or private entity in the process of verifying financial aid eligibility for Federal financial aid through the use of such application. No data collected on a form for which a fee is charged shall be used to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid prescribed under this section, except that a Federal or State income tax form prepared by a paid income tax preparer or an employer for the primary purpose of filing a Federal or State income tax return may be used to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid prescribed under this section.

(4) APPLICATION PROCESSING CYCLE.—The Secretary shall ensure students to submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid during the academic year for which the student expects to enroll under the circumstances in which the processing of such application, not later than January 1 of the student’s planned year. of enrollment, to the maximum extent practicable, on or around October 1 prior to the student’s planned year of enrollment.

(5) EARLY ESTIMATES.—The Secretary shall develop a consumer-tested method for applicants to enter income and family size information to calculate a non-binding estimate of the applicant’s Federal financial aid available under this title and shall place such calculator on a prominent location at the beginning of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid.

(n) STUDENT ELIGIBILITY.—Section 484 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1092) is amended—

(1) by striking subsection (q) and inserting the following:

“(q) USE OF INCOME DATA WITH IRS.—The Secretary, in cooperation with the Secretary of the Treasury, shall fulfill the data transfer requirements under section 6103(h)(13) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;”;

(2) by striking subsection (r); and

(3) by redesignating subsections (s) and (t) as subsections (r) and (s), respectively; and

(4) by adding at the end the following:

“(t) EXCEPTION TO REQUIRED REGISTRATION WITH THE SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM.—Notwithstanding section 12(f) of the Military Selective Service Act (32 U.S.C. 371(f)), an individual shall be deemed eligible for assistance or a benefit provided under this title if the individual is required under section 3 of such Act (32 U.S.C. 371) to register himself and submit to registration under such section and fails to do so in accordance with any proclamation issued under such section, or in accordance with any rule or regulation issued under such section.”;

(o) INSTITUTIONAL AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR LOW-INCOME STUDENTS.—Section 485 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1092) is amended by striking subsection (k).

(p) EARLY AWARENESS OF FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY.—Section 485E of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1092f) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 485E. EARLY AWARENESS AND OUTREACH OF FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY.

“(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall implement early outreach activities in order to provide prospective students and their families with information about financial aid and estimates of financial aid. Such early outreach activities shall include early awareness of eligibility, outreach plans under subparagraph (A) and associated financial aid that may be available from the Federal financial aid and an explanation of the Federal financial aid available under this title and shall place such calculator on a prominent location on the FAFSA website and in a manner that encourages students to fill out the FAFSA.

“(b) PELL GRANT EARLY AWARENESS ESTIMATES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall produce a consumer-tested method of estimating student eligibility for Federal Pell Grant programs, by utilizing the variables of family size and adjusted gross income, and presented in electronic format. There shall be a method for students to indicate whether they are, or will be in—

“(A) a single-parent household;

“(B) a household with two parents; or

“(C) a household with no children or dependents.

“(2) CONSUMER TESTING.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The method of estimating eligibility described in paragraph (1) shall be consumer-tested with prospective first-generation students and families as well as low-income individuals and families.

“(B) UPDATES.—For award year 2023-2024 and succeeding award years thereafter, the design of the method of estimating eligibility shall be updated based on additional consumer testing with the population identified in paragraph (A).

“(3) DISTRIBUTION.—The method of estimating eligibility described in paragraph (1) shall be—

“(A) made publicly and prominently available on the Department of Education website; and

“(B) actively shared by the Secretary with—

“(i) institutions of higher education participating in programs under this title;

“(ii) all public and private schools eligible for funds under part A of title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965; and “(iii) local educational agencies and middle schools and secondary schools that serve students not less than 25 percent of whom meet a measure of poverty as described in section 1118(a) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

“(4) ELECTRONIC ESTIMATOR ON FAFSA.—In accordance with subsection (d) of section 483, the Secretary shall maintain an electronic method for applicants to enter income and family size, and level of education sought information to calculate a non-binding estimating (which may include a range or ceiling) of the applicant’s Federal financial aid available under this title and shall place such calculator on a prominent location on the FAFSA website and in a manner that encourages students to fill out the FAFSA.

“(c) EARLY AWARENESS PLANS.—The Secretary shall develop, implement, and update early awareness and outreach plans to provide early information about the availability of Federal financial aid available under this title to prospective students’ eligibility for Federal financial aid as well as to promote the attainment of postsecondary education specifically among prospective students and families as well as low-income individuals and families, as follows:

“(1) OUTREACH PLANS FOR LOW-INCOME FAMILIES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall develop plans for each population described in this subparagraph to disseminate information about the availability of Federal financial aid under this title, in addition to and in coordination with the distribution of the method of estimating eligibility under subsection (b), to—

“(i) all middle schools and secondary schools eligible for funds under part A of title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965;

“(ii) local educational agencies and middle schools and high schools that serve students not less than 25 percent of whom meet a measure of poverty as described in section 1118(a)(5) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act; and “(iii) institutions of higher education receiving assistance under the supplemental nutrition assistance program established under the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008 (7 U.S.C. 2011 et seq.).

“(B) GRANTS OR PLANS.—The plans described in paragraph (A) shall—

“(i) provide students and their families with information on—

“(I) the availability of the College Scorecard described in section 132;

“(II) the electronic estimates of financial aid available under subsection (b); and

“(III) Federal financial aid available to students, including eligibility criteria for the Federal financial aid and an explanation of the Federal financial aid programs (including applicable Federal educational tax credits); and

“(IV) resources that can inform students of financial aid that may be available from the Federal financial aid and associated savings programs, and scholarships and other non-governmental sources;

“(ii) describe how the dissemination of information will be conducted by the Secretary;

“(b) REPORTING AND UPDATES.—The Secretary shall post the information about the early awareness and outreach plans described in paragraph (a) on the Department of Education website. On an annual basis, the Secretary shall report qualitative and quantitative outcomes regarding the implementation of the plans under subparagraph (A). The Secretary shall review and update such plans not less often than every 4 years with the goal of progressively increasing the impact of the activities under this paragraph.

“(d) PARTNERSHIP.—The Secretary may partner with States, State systems of higher education, institutions of higher education, or college access organizations to carry out this paragraph.

“(1) The Secretary of the Treasury.

“(2) The Secretary of Labor.

“(3) The Secretary of Health and Human Services.

“(4) The Secretary of Agriculture.

“(v) The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

“(vi) The Secretary of Commerce.

“(vii) The Secretary of Veterans Affairs.

“(b) PROCESS, ACTIVITIES, AND GOALS.—Each interagency coordination plan under subparagraph (A) shall—

“(1) identify opportunities in which low-income individuals and families can be informed of the availability of Federal financial aid under this title through access to other Federal programs that serve low-income individuals and families;

“(2) identify methods to effectively inform low-income individuals and families of the availability of Federal financial aid for postsecondary education under this title;

“(3) develop early awareness activities that align with the opportunities and methods identified under clauses (i) and (iii);

“(iv) establish goals regarding the effects of the activities to be implemented under clause (i); and

“(v) provide information on how students and families can maintain access to Federal financial aid. The plans shall be updated not less often than every 4 years.

“(C) PLAN WITH SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.—The interagency coordination plan under subparagraph (A)(i) between the Secretary and the Secretary of the Treasury shall further include specific methods to increase the application for Federal financial aid under this title from individuals who file Federal tax returns, including collaboration with tax preparation entities or other third parties, as appropriate.

“(D) REPORTING AND UPDATES.—The Secretary shall post the information about the interagency coordination plans described in subparagraph (A) and associated goals publicly on the Department of Education website. The plans shall have the goal of progressively increasing the impact of the activities under this paragraph by increasing the number of low-income applicants for, and recipients of, Federal financial aid. The plans shall be updated not less than once every 4 years.

“(E) NGOWIDE PARTICIPATION IN EARLY AWARENESS PLANS.—

“(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall solicit voluntary public commitments from entities, such as States, States systems of higher education, institutions of higher education, institutions of higher education, or college access organizations to carry out early awareness plans, which shall include goals, to—
“(1) notify prospective and existing students who are low-income individuals and families about their eligibility for Federal aid under this title, as well as State-based financial aid and, on an annual basis;

“(2) increase the number of prospective and current students who are low-income individuals and families filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid; and

“(3) increase the number of prospective and current students who are low-income individuals and families enrolling in postsecondary education.

“(B) REPORTING AND UPDATES.—Each entity that makes a voluntary public commitment to carry out an early awareness plan may submit quarterly and annual data based on the entity’s progress toward the goals of the plan annually prior to a date selected by the Secretary.

“(C) EARLY AWARENESS CHAMPIONS.—Based on data submitted by entities, the Secretary shall select and designate entities submitting public commitments, plans, and goals, as Early Awareness Champions on an annual basis. Those entities designated as Early Awareness Champions shall provide one or more case studies regarding the activities the entity undertook under this plan, which shall be made public by the Secretary on the Department of Education website to promote best practices.

“(d) PUBLIC AWARENESS CAMPAIGN.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall develop and implement a public awareness campaign designed using current and relevant independent research regarding strategies and media platforms found to be most effective in communicating with low-income populations in order to increase national awareness regarding the availability of Federal Pell Grants and financial aid under this title and, at the option of the Secretary, potential availability of state need-based financial aid.

“(2) COORDINATION.—The public awareness campaign described in paragraph (1) shall leverage the activities in subsections (b) and (c) to highlight eligibility among low-income populations. In developing and implementing the campaign, the Secretary may work in coordination with States, institutions of higher education, and Federal agencies to develop and implement outreach programs under this title, other Federal agencies, organizations involved in college access and financial aid for secondary schools, local educational agencies, public libraries, community centers, businesses, employers, workforce investment boards, and organizations that provide services to students who are or were homeless, in foster care, or are disconnected youth.

“(e) REPORTING.—The Secretary shall report on the success of the public awareness campaign described in paragraph (1) annually regarding the extent to which the public and target populations were reached using data commonly used to evaluate advertising and outreach campaigns and data regarding whether the campaign produced any increase in applicants for Federal aid under this title publicized by the Department of Education website.”.

SEC. 401. FEDERAL PELL GRANTS: AMOUNT AND DETERMINATIONS; APPLICATIONS.

(a) FEDERAL PELL GRANTS.—Beginning on the effective date described in subsection (b), section 401 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1070a) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 401. FEDERAL PELL GRANTS: AMOUNT AND DETERMINATIONS; APPLICATIONS.

“(a) PURPOSE: DEFINITIONS.—

“(1) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this subpart is to improve the Federal Pell Grant to low-income students.

“(2) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

“(A) the term ‘adjusted gross income’ means—

“(i) in the case of a dependent student, the adjusted gross income (as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of the student’s parents in the second tax year preceding the academic year; and

“(ii) in the case of an independent student, the adjusted gross income (as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of the student (and the student’s spouse, if applicable) in the second tax year preceding the academic year;

“(B) the term ‘family size’ has the meaning given in the term in section 4801;

“(C) the term ‘poverty line’ means the poverty line (as determined under the poverty guidelines updated periodically in the Federal Register by the Department of Health and Human Services under the authority of section 673(2) of the Community Services Block Grant Act (42 U.S.C. 9902(2))) applicable to the student’s family size and applicable to the second tax year preceding the academic year;

“(D) the term ‘single parent’ means—

“(i) a parent of a dependent student who was a head of household (as defined in section 2(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or a surviving parent (as defined for purposes of the credit under section 32 of such Code, in the second tax year preceding the academic year);

“(ii) an independent student who was a head of household (as defined in section 2(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or a surviving parent (as defined for purposes of the credit under section 32 of such Code, in the second tax year preceding the academic year);

“(E) the term ‘total maximum Federal Pell Grant’ means the total maximum Federal Pell Grant award per student for any academic year described under paragraph (5); and

“(F) the term ‘minimum Federal Pell Grant’ means the minimum amount of a Federal Pell Grant that shall be awarded to a student eligible under this subpart for any academic year in which that student is attending full-time, which shall be equal to 100 percent of the Federal Pell Grant for that academic year;

“(B) AMOUNT AND DISTRIBUTION OF GRANTS.—

“(1) DETERMINATION OF AMOUNT OF A FEDERAL PELL GRANT.—Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the amount of a Federal Pell Grant shall be determined for a student eligible under this subpart shall be determined in accordance with the following:

“(A) A student eligible under this subpart shall be eligible for a total maximum Federal Pell Grant for an academic year in which the student is enrolled in an eligible program of study at an institution of higher education on less than a full-time basis (including a student who attends an institution of higher education on less than a half-time basis) during any academic year, the amount of the Federal Pell Grant to which that student is entitled shall be reduced in direct proportion to the degree to which that student is not so enrolled on a full-time basis, including a student in a program of study abroad approved in accordance with this subpart. Such schedule of reductions shall be published in the Federal Register in accordance with section 482 of this Act. Such reduced Federal Pell Grant for a student enrolled on a less than full-time basis shall also apply proportionally to students who are otherwise eligible to receive the minimum Federal Pell Grant, if enrolled full-time.

“(2) LESS THAN FULL-TIME ENROLLMENT.—In any case where a student is enrolled in an eligible program of study at an institution of higher education on less than a full-time basis during any academic year, the amount of the Federal Pell Grant to which that student is entitled shall be reduced in direct proportion to the degree to which that student is not so enrolled on a full-time basis, including a student in a program of study abroad approved in accordance with this subpart.

“(3) AWARD MAY NOT EXCEED COST OF ATTENDANCE.—No Federal Pell Grant under this subpart shall exceed the cost of attendance (as defined in section 484(b) of this Act) at which that student is in attendance. If, with respect to any student, it is determined that the amount of a Federal Pell Grant for that student exceeds the cost of attendance for that year, the amount of the Federal Pell Grant shall be reduced until the Federal Pell Grant does not exceed the cost of attendance for that year.

“(4) STUDY ABROAD.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this subpart, the Secretary shall allow the amount of the Federal Pell Grant to be exceeded for students participating in a program of study abroad approved for credit by the institution at which the student is enrolled when the reasonable costs of such program exceed the cost of attendance at the student’s home institution, except that the amount of such Federal Pell Grant in any fiscal year shall not exceed the maximum amount of a Federal Pell Grant for which a student is eligible under paragraph (1) or (2) during such award year. In determining the amount, the financial aid administrator at the home institution may use the cost of the study abroad program, rather than the home institution's cost, to determine the cost of attendance of the student.

(5) TOTAL MAXIMUM FEDERAL PELL GRANT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—For award year 2021–2022, and each subsequent award year, the total maximum Federal Pell Grant award per student shall be not more than the sum described in subparagraph (A), rounded to the nearest $5.

(B) ROUNDING.—The total maximum Federal Pell Grant for any award year shall be rounded to the nearest $5.

(C) FUND BY FISCAL YEAR.—To carry out this section for each of fiscal years 2021 through 2030—

(i) there are authorized to be appropriated (in addition to any other amounts appropriated to carry out this section and out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated) such sums as are necessary to carry out paragraph (5)(A); and

(ii) such sums as may be necessary are authorized to be appropriated to carry out paragraph (5)(A) and (B).

(7) APPROPRIATION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to any funds appropriated under paragraph (6) and any funds made available for this section under any appropriations Act, there are authorized funds made available for this section under paragraphs (6) and any other amounts appropriated to carry out any other provision of this title, the total maximum Federal Pell Grant shall be provided to a student described in paragraph (2).

(B) APPROPRIATION.—Paragraph (1) shall apply to any dependent or independent student—

(i) who is eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant for the award year for which the determination is made; and

(ii) whose parent or guardian was—

(A) a member of the Armed Forces; or

(B) a law enforcement officer, a firefighter, a chaplain, or an employee of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or a member of the Federal Fire Service, and the Secretary shall determine which students meet the requirements with the Secretary of Veterans Affairs and the Secretary of Defense, as applicable, to provide the information necessary to determine which students meet the requirements of paragraph (2).

(C) Any period of study covered by a Federal Pell Grant for any award year shall be not more than 12 semesters, or the equivalent of 12 semesters, as determined by the Secretary by regulation. Such regulations shall provide, with respect to a student who received a Federal Pell Grant but was enrolled at a fraction of full time, that only that same fraction of such semester or equivalent shall count towards such duration limits.

(D) PERIOD OF ELIGIBILITY FOR GRANTS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The period during which a student is eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant for any award year shall be—

(A) who is eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant for any award year shall be—

(B) whose parent or guardian was—

(C) who is less than 33 years of age.

(ii) extend the period of eligibility for students who—

(A) are enrolled in an institution of higher education; and

(B) are enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a postbaccalaureate program that does not lead to a graduate degree, and in courses required by a State in order for the student to receive a professional certification or licensing credential that is required for employment as a teacher in an elementary or secondary school in that State, except that this paragraph shall not apply to a student who is enrolled in an institution of higher education that offers a baccalaureate degree in education.

(E) ADDITIONAL PAYMENT PERIODS IN SAME AWARD YEAR.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—If a student meets the requirements for a Federal Pell Grant for a period of 12 consecutive months during an award year, the Federal Pell Grant shall be the period required for the completion of the first undergraduate baccalaureate course of study being pursued by that student at the institution at which the student is in attendance, except that any period during which the student is enrolled in a noncredit or remedial course of study, as described in paragraph (2), shall not be counted for the purpose of this paragraph.

(ii) NONCREDIT OR REMEDIAL COURSES; STUDY ABROAD.—Nothing in this section shall exclude from eligibility programs of study abroad that are approved for credit by the home institution at which the student is enrolled.

(3) NO CONCURRENT PAYMENTS.—No student is entitled to receive Pell Grant payments concurrently from more than one institution or from the Secretary and an institution.

(4) POSTBACCALAUREATE PROGRAM.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Secretary may allow, on a case-by-case basis, a student to receive a Federal Pell Grant if the student—

(A) is carrying at least one-half the normal full-time work load for the course of study the student is pursuing, as determined by the institution of higher education; and

(B) is enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a postbaccalaureate program that does not lead to a graduate degree, and in courses required by a State in order for the student to receive a professional certification or licensing credential that is required for employment as a teacher in an elementary school or secondary school in that State, except that this paragraph shall not apply to a student who is enrolled in an institution of higher education that offers a baccalaureate degree in education.

(5) MAXIMUM PERIOD.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—As except provided in subparagraph (B), the period during which a student may receive Federal Pell Grants shall not exceed 12 semesters, or the equivalent of 12 semesters, as determined by the Secretary by regulation. Such regulations shall provide, with respect to a student who received a Federal Pell Grant but was enrolled at a fraction of full time, that only that same fraction of such semester or equivalent shall count towards such duration limits.

(B) EXCEPTION.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Any Federal Pell Grant that a student received during a period described in subclause (I) or (II) of clause (i) shall not count towards the student's duration limits under this paragraph.

(ii) APPLICABLE PERIOD.—Clause (i) shall apply with respect to any Federal Pell Grant awarded to a student to enroll in an eligible program at an institution—

(A) that is not a part of a student's attendance at an institution;

(B) for which the student was falsely certified as eligible for Federal aid under this title; or

(C) during a period—

(aa) for which the student received a loan under this title; and

(bb) for which the loan described in Item (aa) was made.

(aa) section 437(c)(1) or section 436(g)(1); or

would be required to be appropriated to satisfy fully all entitlements, as calculated under subsection (b) (but at the maximum amount specified in such appropriation), the Secretary shall promptly transmit a notice of such insufficiency to the student's account, and food and housing if that food and housing is institutionally owned or operated. The student may elect to have the institution provide other such goods and services by crediting the student's account.

(g) INSUFFICIENT APPROPRIATIONS.—If, for any fiscal year, the funds appropriated for payments under this subpart are insufficient to satisfy fully all entitlements, as calculated, the Secretary shall promptly transmit a notice of such insufficiency to each House of the Congress, and identify in such notice any additional amount that would be required to be appropriated to satisfy fully all entitlements (as so calculated at such maximum grant level).

(h) USE OF EXCESS FUNDS.—

(1) 15 PERCENT OR LESS.—If, at the end of a fiscal year, the funds available for making payments under this subpart exceed the amount necessary to make the payments required under this subpart to eligible students by 15 percent or less, then all of the excess funds shall remain available for making payments under this subpart during the next succeeding fiscal year.

(2) MORE THAN 15 PERCENT.—If, at the end of a fiscal year, the funds available for making payments under this subpart exceed the amount necessary to make the payments required under this subpart to eligible students by more than 15 percent, then all of such funds shall remain available for making payments but payments may be made under this paragraph only with respect to entitle- ments for that fiscal year.

(i) TREATMENT OF INSTITUTIONS AND STUDENTS UNDER OTHER LAWS.—Any institution of higher education which enters into an agreement with the Secretary to disburse funds to students attending that institution that the amounts those students are eligible to receive under this subpart shall not be deemed, by virtue of such agreement, a contractor maintaining a system of records to accomplish a function of the Secretary. Recipients of Pell Grants shall not be considered to be eligible for purposes of subtitle D of title V of Public Law 100–690.

(j) INSTITUTIONAL INELIGIBILITY BASED ON DEFAULT RATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—No institution of higher education shall be an eligible institution for purposes of this subpart if such institution of higher education is ineligible to participate in a loan program under part B or D as a result of a final default rate determination made by the Secretary under part B or D after the final publication of cohort default rates for fiscal year 1996 or a succeeding fiscal year.

(2) SANCTIONS SUBJECT TO APPEAL OPPORTUNITY.—No institution may be subject to the termination unless the institution has had the opportunity to appeal the institution's default rate determination under regulations issued by the Secretary for the loan program authorized under part B or D, as applicable. This subsection shall not apply to an institution that was not partici-pating in the loan program authorized under part B or D on October 7, 1996, unless the institution subsequently participates in the loan program.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This section, and the amendments made by this section, shall take effect on July 1, 2021.

“(4) GRANTS TO STATES TO IMPROVE AND CO-ORDINATE THEIR RESPONSE TO ENSURE THE SAFETY, PERMANENCY, AND WELL-BEING OF INFANTS AFFECTED BY SUBSTANCE USE.—

“(A) GRANT AUTHORITY.—The Secretary is authorized to make grants to States for the purpose of assisting child welfare agencies, social services agencies, substance use disorder treatment agencies, Indian Tribes and Tribal organizations to address the needs of infants born with, and identified as being affected by, substance abuse or withdrawal symptoms resulting from pre-natal exposure to substances, including but not limited to substance use disorders and their families or caregivers, which, to the extent practicable, shall be consistent with the uses of funds described under paragraph (4).

“(B) ALLOTMENTS TO STATES AND TERRI-TORIES.—The Secretary shall allot the amount made available under subparagraph (A) to each State for whom a referral was made under paragraph (B) of this paragraph, in an amount equal to the amount made available to carry out paragraph (1) that remains after application of subparagraph (A), as the number of live births in the State in the previous calendar year bears to the number of live births in the United States in such year.

“(C) RATABLE REDUCTION.—If the amount made available to carry out paragraph (1) is insufficient to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall rat-ably reduce each allotment to a State.

“(D) APPLICATION.—A State desiring a grant under this subsection shall submit an application to the Secretary at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may require. Such application shall include—

“(A) a description of—

(i) the impact of substance use disorder in such State;

(ii) the aggregate rate of births in the State of infants affected by substance use, or withdrawal symptoms or a fetal alcohol spectrum disorder (as determined by hospitals, insurance claims, claims submitted to the State Medicaid program, or other records), if available and to the extent practi-ticable; and

(iii) the number of infants identified, for whom a plan of safe care was developed, and for whom a referral was made for appropriate services, as reported under section 106(d)(18);

(iii) the challenges the State faces in developing, implementing, and monitoring plans of safe care in accordance with section 106(b)(2)(B)(i)(II);

(iv) the State’s lead agency for the grant program shall consult with and coordinate with relevant State entities and programs, including the child welfare agency, the State substance abuse agency, hospitals with substance abuse units, hospice providers, the public health and mental health agencies, programs funded by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, and programs for pregnant women, postpartum women, and their families who are affected by substance use disorder, withdrawal symptoms, or a fetal alcohol spectrum disorder; and

(v) if applicable, how the State plans to use funds for activities described in paragraph (4) for the purposes of ensuring State compliance with requirements under clauses (ii) and (iii) of section 106(b); and “(E) Training health professionals and other agencies, as determined by the Sec-tary, and Indian Tribes and Tribal organiizations, as appropriate, to develop the aplication under this paragraph, implement the activities described in paragraph (4), and develop reports under paragraph (5);

“(F) if applicable, how the State plans to utilize funding authorized under part E of title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 670 et seq.) to assist in carrying out any plan addressed with respect to the substance or class of substances with the highest incidence of abuse in the previous year in the State.

(1) $500,000; and

(ii) an amount that bears the same relationship to any funds made available to carry out subparagraph (A) that bears to the amount made available to carry out paragraph (1) that remains after application of subparagraph (A), as the number of live births in the State in the previous calendar year bears to the number of live births in the United States in such year.

“(B) DESCRIPTION OF GRANT.—If the amounts made available under paragraph (1) are insufficient to carry out the purposes of this subsection, the Secretary shall rat-ably reduce the funds made available to each State.

“(C) TIMELINESS OF REPORTING.—Subextant reports shall be consistent with the uses of funds described under paragraph (4). In accordance with section 106(b)(2)(B)(i)(II), including how the State will monitor to ensure plans of safe care address differences between substance use disorder and medically supervised substance use, and for which a referral was made under paragraph (B) of this paragraph, in an amount equal to the amount made available to carry out paragraph (1) that remains after application of subparagraph (A), as the number of live births in the State in the previous calendar year bears to the number of live births in the United States in such year.

“(A) IMPROVING STATE AND LOCAL SYSTEMS.—(I) Developing policies, procedures, and protocols for the administration or development of evidence-based and validated screening tools for infants, and by substance use withdrawal symptoms or a fetal alcohol spectrum disorder and pregnant, perinatal, and postnatal women; and

(ii) may include activities such as—

(1) developing policies, procedures, or protocols for the administration or development of evidence-based and validated screening tools for infants, and by substance use withdrawal symptoms or a fetal alcohol spectrum disorder and pregnant, perinatal, and postnatal women whose in-

(3) improving ongoing case management services;

(4) improving access to treatment services, which may be prior to the pregnant woman’s delivery date; and

(5) keeping families safely together when it is in the best interest of the child.

“(B) DEVELOPING POLICIES, PROCEDURES, OR PROtocols in consultation and coordination with health professionals, public and private health facilities, and substance use disorder treatment agencies to ensure that

(i) appropriate notification to child pro-
sective services is made in a timely manner, as required under section 106(b)(2)(B)(ii);

(ii) a plan is developed in accordance with section 106(b)(2)(B)(ii), including how the infant is discharged from the birth or health care facility; and

(iii) such professionals and related agency professionals are trained on how to follow such protocols and are aware of the results would reveal personally identifiable supports that may be provided under a plan of safe care.

“(E) DEVELOPING AND UPDATING SYSTEMS OF TECHNOLOGY FOR IMPROVED DATA COLLECTION AND MANAGEMENT TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS ACT AND SUBMISSION OF PERFORMANCE MEASURES.

“(F) REPORTING.—Each State that receives funds under this subsection in any year shall submit a report to the Secretary, disaggregated by geographic location, economic status, and major ethnic group, the number of infants to whom such funds are provided for the treatment of substance use disorder, as appropriate.
Section 106 of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (42 U.S.C. 5106a) is amended—

(B) Establishment.—There is established in the Department of the Treasury the Small Business Local Relief Program, the purpose of which is to allocate resources to States, units of general local government, and Indian Tribes to provide assistance to eligible entities and organizations that assist eligible entities.

(c) Funding.—

(1) Funding to states, localities, and Indian tribes.—

(A) In general.—Of the amounts made available to carry out the Program under subsection (i), the Secretary shall allocate—
(i) $35,000,000,000 to States and units of general local government in accordance with subparagraph (B)(i);
(ii) $15,000,000,000 to States in accordance with subparagraph (B)(i); and
(iii) $500,000,000 to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development for allocations to Indian Tribes in accordance with subparagraph (B)(ii).

(B) Allocations.—

(i) Formula for states and units of general local government.—Of the amount allocated under paragraph (A)(i), 70 percent shall be allocated to entitlement communities in accordance with the formula under section 106(b) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5306(b)); and
(ii) 30 percent shall be allocated to States, in accordance with the formula under section 106(d)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5306(d)(1)).

(ii) Rural bonus formula for states.—The Secretary shall allocate the amount allocated under subparagraph (A)(ii) to States, for use in nonentitlement areas, in accordance with the formula under section 106(d)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5306(d)(1)).

(iii) Competitive awards to Indian tribes.—

(I) In general.—The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall allocate in accordance with paragraphs (A)(i) and (B) for the benefit of eligible entities an amount allocated under subparagraph (A)(ii).

(ii) Requirements.—In making allocations under subparagraph (A), the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall, to the greatest extent practicable, ensure that each Indian Tribe that satisfies requirements established by the Secretary under subparagraph (A) receives such an allocation.

(iii) State allocations for nonentitlement areas.—

(A) Equitable allocation.—To the greatest extent practicable, a State shall allocate amounts for nonentitlement areas under clause (i) of paragraph (A)(ii) of subparagraph (B) on an equitable basis.

(B) Distribution of amounts.—

(i) Discretion.—Not later than 14 days after the date on which a State receives amounts for use in a nonentitlement area under clause (i)(II) or (ii) of subparagraph (B), the State shall—
(aa) distribute the amounts, or a portion thereof, to a unit of general local government located in the nonentitlement area, or an entity designated thereby, that has established or will establish a small business emergency fund, for use under paragraph (2); or
(bb) elect to reserve the amounts, or a portion thereof, for use by the State under paragraph (2) for the benefit of eligible entities located in the nonentitlement area.

(ii) Use of general local government with small business emergency funds.—In distributing amounts under clause (i), in the case of a fund for a nonentitlement area in which a unit of general local government or an entity designated thereby has established a small business emergency fund, the ability to administer that fund efficiently and effectively, a State shall, as quickly as is practicable, distribute an equitable portion of the amounts that an entitlement community receives under subparagraph (A)(iii) of this paragraph, or to use to pay for administrative costs under subparagraph (A)(ii) of this paragraph, shall be obligated by the Secretary for expenditure not later than 90 days after the date on which the Secretary received the amount, or to use to pay for administrative costs under paragraph (1)(A); and

(iii) Nonentitlement communities.—Of the amounts that an entity designated by a unit of general local government, entity designated by a unit of general local government, or Indian Tribe may not use more than 3 percent of an allocation to pay for administrative costs incurred by that entity designated thereby, that entity designated by a unit of general local government, or that Indian Tribe (or entity designated thereby), respectively, than 90 days after the date on which the State received the amounts from the Secretary under clause (i) or (ii) of paragraph (1)(A).

(2) RECOUPMENT.—If a State, entity, or Indian Tribe fails to obligate amounts by the applicable deadline under subparagraph (C), the Secretary shall recover the amount of those funds that remain unobligated, as of that deadline.

(E) COLLABORATION.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(i) an eligible community that receives amounts allocated under paragraph (1)(B)(i)(I) should collaborate with the applicable local government, entity designated by a unit of general local government, or small business development organization in establishing and administering a small business emergency fund; and

(ii) States, units of general local government (including units of general local government located inside and outside non-entitlement areas), and Indian Tribes that receive amounts under paragraph (1) and are located in a region that the Secretary determines to be a disaster area or a region with a limited number of eligible entities with those funds.

(f) REPORTING.—(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 30 days after the date on which a State, unit of general local government, or Indian Tribe initially receives a loan made under subsection (a), the Secretary shall report to the applicable State, unit of general local government, or Indian Tribe the full expenditure of that allocation, that State, unit of general local government, or Indian Tribe shall submit to the Secretary a report that includes—

(A) the number of recipients of assistance made available from the allocation; (B) the total amount, and type, of assistance made available from the allocation; (C) to the extent applicable, with respect to each recipient described in subparagraph (A), information regarding the industry of the recipient, the amount of assistance received by the recipient, the number of owners and employees of the recipient; (D) to the extent available from information collected under subsection (e), information regarding the number of recipients described in subparagraph (A) that are minority-owned entities, minorities, women, and women-owned entities; (E) the zip code of each recipient described in subparagraph (A); and (F) any other information that the Secretary determines to be necessary to carry out the Program.

(2) PUBLIC AVAILABILITY.—As soon as is practicable after receiving each report submitted under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall make the information contained in the report, including all of the information described in subparagraphs (A) through (F) of that paragraph, publicly available.

(g) RULES AND GUIDANCE.—The Secretary, in consultation with the Administrator of the Small Business Administration, shall make available any rules and guidance issued under this section that are necessary to carry out the Program, including—

(1) establishing appropriate compliance and reporting requirements, in addition to the reporting requirements under subsection (f); (2) as soon as practicable after the date of enactment of this Act, issuing guidance with respect to the collection, maintenance, and reporting of information under subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) and any requirements established under paragraph (1), including—

(A) the means by which an entity to which those subsections and other requirements apply shall collect and maintain that information; and

(B) with respect to a report required under subsection (f), or under a requirement established under paragraph (1), the format that an entity to which any such requirement applies shall use to submit such a report; and

(3) defining terms, other than those terms that are defined in subsection (a).

(h) OVERSIGHT.—

(1) INSPECTOR GENERAL.—(A) IN GENERAL.—The Inspector General of the Department of the Treasury shall conduct monitoring and oversight of the receipt, disbursement, and use of funds under the Program.

(B) REPORT.—If the Inspector General of the Department of the Treasury determines that an entity that receives amounts made available under the Program has failed to comply with a requirement of this section, the amount equal to the amount of funds used in violation of this section shall be treated as a debt owed to the Federal Government and, when recouped, shall be deposited in the General Fund of the Treasury.

(C) TERMINATION.—Not later than 1 year after the date on which the Program terminates under subsection (j), the Comptroller General of the United States shall conduct a review of the Program and submit to the appropriate committees of Congress a report that contains the results of that review.

(i) APPROPRIATIONS.—(1) IN GENERAL.—There are appropriated to the Secretary for fiscal year 2020, out of amounts in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, $50,000,000,000 to carry out the Program, which shall remain available until the termination date described in subsection (j).

(2) APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS.—Amounts appropriated under paragraph (1) shall be subject to the requirements contained in the Further Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2020 (Public Law 116–94) for funds appropriated pursuant to section 203 through 310 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 254b through 256).

(j) TERMINATION.—The Program, and any rules and guidance issued under subsection (g) with respect to the Program, shall terminate on the date that is 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act.

‘(A) members of the United States research community; and ‘(B) other persons participating in federally funded research and development.

‘(4) Identifying an appropriate Executive agency to—

‘(A) accept and protect information submitted by Executive agencies and non-Federal entities based on the processes established under paragraphs (1) and (2), and
(B) to facilitate the sharing of information received under subparagraph (A) to support, assure, and appropriate—
(i) oversight of federally funded research and development;
(ii) criminal and civil investigations of misconduct in Federal research and development grants, resources, and information; and
(iii) counterintelligence investigations.
(5) Identifying, as appropriate, Executive agencies—
(A) shared services, such as support for conducting Federal research security risk assessments, activities to mitigate such risks, and other investigations with respect to grants awarded by Executive agencies; and
(B) common contract solutions to support enhanced information collection and sharing and the verification of the identities of persons participating in federally funded research and development.
(6) Identifying and issuing guidance, in accordance with subsection (d) and in coordination with the National Insider Threat Task Force established by Executive Order 13587 (50 U.S.C. 3161 note) for developing and implementing insider threat programs for Executive agencies to deter, detect, and mitigate insider threats, including the safeguarding of sensitive information from exploitation, compromise, or other unauthorized disclosure, taking into account risk levels and the distinct needs, missions, and systems of each such agency.
(7) Identifying and issuing guidance for developing compliance and oversight programs for Executive agencies to ensure that research and development grant recipients accurately report conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment in accordance with subsection (b)(1). Such programs shall include—
(A) a grantee’s support from foreign sources and affiliations with foreign funding institutions or laboratories; and
(B) the impact of such support and affiliations on United States national security and economic interests.
(8) Assessing and making recommendations with respect to whether openly sharing certain types of federally funded research and development is in the economic and national security interests of the United States.
(9) Identifying and issuing guidance to the United States research community, and other recipients of Federal research and development grants, to ensure that such institutions and recipients adopt existing best practices to reduce the risk of misappropriation of research data.
(10) Identifying and issuing guidance on additional steps that may be necessary to address Federal research security risks arising in the course of Executive agencies providing shared services and common contract solutions under paragraph (5)(B).
(11) Engaging with the United States research community, performing investigations described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) and with respect to issues relating to Federal research security risks.
(12) Engaging in such other functions, as determined by the Council, that are necessary to reduce Federal research security risks.

(b) REQUIREMENTS FOR UNIFORM GRANT APPLICATION PROCESS.—In developing the uniform application process for Federal research and development grants required under subsection (a)(1), the Council shall—
(1) ensure that the process—
(A) requires principal investigators, co-principal investigators, and senior personnel associated with the proposed Federal research or development grant project—
(i) to disclose biographical information, all affiliations, including any foreign military, intelligence, or related organizations, and foreign-funded institutions, and all current and pending support, including from foreign institutions, foreign government, or public entities, and all support received from foreign sources; and
(ii) to certify the accuracy of the required disclosures under penalty of perjury; and
(B) uses a machine-readable application form to assist in identifying fraud and ensuring the eligibility of applicants;
(2) design the process—
(A) to reduce the administrative burden on persons applying for Federal research and development funding; and
(B) to promote information sharing across the United States research community, while safeguarding sensitive information; and
(3) complete the process not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of the Safeguarding American Innovation Act.

(c) REQUIREMENTS FOR INFORMATION SHARING CRITERIA.—In identifying or developing criteria and procedures for sharing information made available through such sharing in exercising the responsibilities and authorities of the agency under applicable laws relating to the award of grants;
(4) the procedures for protecting intellectual capital that may be present in such information;
(5) appropriate privacy protections for persons involved in Federal research and development;

(d) REQUIREMENTS FOR INSIDER THREAT PROGRAM GUIDANCE.—In identifying or developing guidance with respect to insider threat programs under subsection (a)(6), the Council shall ensure that such guidance provides for, at a minimum—
(1) such programs—
(A) to deter, detect, and mitigate insider threats; and
(B) to leverage counterintelligence, security, information assurance, and other relevant functions and resources to identify and counter insider threats;
(2) the development of an integrated capability to monitor and audit information for the detection and mitigation of insider threats, including—
(A) monitoring user activity on computer networks controlled by Executive agencies;
(B) providing employees of Executive agencies with the appropriate access, access controls, and responsibilities to prevent sensitive information from unauthorized disclosure, and the responsibilities of employees to report such threats;
(C) gathering information for a centralized analysis, reporting, and response capability; and
(D) information sharing to aid in tracking the risk individuals may pose while moving across programs and affiliations;
(3) the development and implementation of policies and procedures under which the insider threat program of an Executive agency accesses, shares, and integrates information and data derived from offices within the agency;
(4) the designation of senior officials with authority for addressing Federal research security risks and for managing such risks, that includes—

(e) ISSUANCE OF WARNINGS RELATING TO RISKS AND VULNERABILITIES IN INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION.

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Council, in conjunction with the lead security advisor under section 7902(c)(4), shall establish a process for informing members of the United States research community and the public, through the issuance of warnings described in paragraph (2), of potential risks and vulnerabilities in international cooperation that may undermine the integrity and security of the United States research community or place at risk any federally funded research and development.

(2) CONTENT.—A warning described in this paragraph shall include, to the extent the Council considers appropriate, a description of—
(A) activities by the national government, local governments, research institutions, or universities of a foreign country—
(i) to exploit, interfere, or undermine United States research and development by the United States government, local governments, research institutions, or universities; and
(ii) to misappropriate scientific knowledge resulting from federally funded research and development;
(B) efforts by strategic competitors to exploit the research enterprise of a foreign country that may plausibly be used to—
(i) the science and technology of that foreign country; or
(ii) internationally; or
(C) practices within the research enterprise of a foreign country that do not adhere to the United States scientific values of openness, transparency, integrity, and merit-based competition.

(1) PROGRAM OFFICE AND COMMITTEES.— The interagency working group established under section 1746 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (Pub. L. 116–92) shall be a working group under the Council performing duties authorized under such section and as directed by the Council. The Council shall use any findings or work product, existing or forthcoming, by such working group. The Council may also establish a program office and any committees, working groups, or other coordinating bodies that the Council considers appropriate, in its sole and unreviewable discretion, to carry out its functions.

(2) EXCLUSION ORDERS.— To reduce Federal research security risk, the Interagency Suspension and Debarment Committee shall provide quarterly reports to the Council that detail—
(1) the number of ongoing investigations by Council Members related to Federal research security that may result, or have resulted, in agency pre-notice letters, suspensions, or any debarments; and
(2) Federal agencies’ performance and compliance with interagency suspensions and debarments.

(3) CERTIFICATION.— The interagency Suspension and Debarment Committee to mitigate Federal research security risk;

(4) proposals for developing a unified Federal policy on suspensions and debarments; and
(5) other current suspension and debarment related issues.

7904. Strategic plan

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this chapter, the Council shall develop a strategic plan addressing Federal research security risks and for managing such risks, that includes—
(1) the criteria and processes required under section 7903(a), including a threshold and requirements for sharing relevant information about such risks with all Executive agencies, agencies associated with such Federal entities, foreign governments, and non-Federal entities;

(2) an identification of existing authorities for identifying and mitigating such risks;

(3) an identification and promulgation of best practices and procedures, and an identification of available resources, for Executive agencies, agencies associated with such Federal entities, foreign governments, and non-Federal entities;

(4) recommendations for any legislative, regulatory, or other policy changes to improve the handling of such risks;

(5) recommendations for any legislative, regulatory, or other policy changes to incentivize the adoption of best practices for avoiding and mitigating Federal research security risks by the United States research community and key United States foreign research partners;

(6) an evaluation of the effect of implementing new policies or procedures on existing Federal grant processes, regulations, and disclosures of conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment;

(7) a plan for engaging with Executive agencies, the private sector, and other non-governmental stakeholders to address such risks and share information between Executive agencies, the private sector, and non-governmental stakeholders; and

(8) a plan for identification, assessment, mitigation, and vetting of Federal research security risks.

(b) Submission to Congress.—Not later than 7 calendar days after completion of the strategic plan required by subsection (a), the Chairperson of the Council shall submit the plan to the appropriate congressional committees.

§ 7905. Annual report

(1) the activities of the Council during the preceding fiscal year; and

(2) the progress made toward implementing the strategic plan required under section 7904 after such plan has been submitted to Congress.

§ 7906. Requirements for Executive agencies

(a) In General.—The head of each Executive agency on the Council shall be responsible for—

(1) assessing Federal research security risks posed by persons participating in federally funded research and development;

(2) avoiding or mitigating such risks, as appropriate and consistent with the standards, guidelines, requirements, and practices identified by the Council under section 7903(a);

(3) prioritizing Federal research security risk assessments conducted under paragraph (1) based on the applicability and relevance of the research and development to the national security and economic competitiveness of the United States; and

(4) ensuring that all agency initiatives impacting Federally funded research grantmaking and management to protect the national and economic security interests of the United States are integrated with the activities of the Council.

(b) Conclusions.—The responsibility of the head of an Executive agency for assessing Federal research security risk described in subsection (a) includes—

(1) developing an overall Federal research security risk management strategy and implementation plan and policies and procedures to guide Federal research security risk management activities by the Executive agency;

(2) integrating Federal research security risk management practices throughout the lifecycle of the grant programs of the Executive agency;

(3) sharing relevant information with other Executive agencies, as determined appropriate by the Council in a manner consistent with section 7903 and (7); and

(4) reporting on the effectiveness of the Federal research security risk management strategy of the Executive agency consistent with guidance issued by the Office of Management and Budget and the Council.

(c) Clerical Amendment.—The table of chapters at the beginning of title 31, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to chapter 77 the following new item:

SEC. 24. FEDERAL GRANT APPLICATION FRAUD.

(a) In General.—Chapter 47 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

"§ 1041. Federal grant application fraud

(a) Definitions.—In this section:

(1) FEDERAL AGENCY.—The term ‘Federal agency’ has the meaning given the term ‘agency’ in section 551 of title 5, United States Code.

(2) FEDERAL GRANT.—The term ‘Federal grant’—

(A) means a grant awarded by a Federal agency;

(B) includes a subgrant awarded by a non-Federal entity to carry out a Federal grant program; and

(C) does not include—

(i) direct United States Government cash assistance to an individual;

(ii) a subsidy;

(iii) a loan;

(iv) a loan guarantee; or

(v) insurance.

(3) FEDERAL GRANT APPLICATION.—The term ‘Federal grant application’ means an application for a Federal grant.

(b) Forfeitures and compensation.—The term ‘foreign compensation’ means a title, monetary compensation, access to a laboratory or other resource, or other benefit received from—

(A) a foreign government;

(B) a foreign government institution; or

(C) a foreign public enterprise.

(c) Exceptions.—Subsection (b) does not apply to an activity carried out in connection with a lawfully authorized investigative, protective, or intelligence activity of—

(A) a law enforcement agency; or

(B) a Federal intelligence agency; or

(2) authorized under chapter 224.

(4) Penalty.—Any individual who violates subsection (b)—

(I) shall be fined in accordance with this title, imprisoned for not more than 5 years, or both; and

(II) shall be prohibited from receiving a Federal grant during the 5-year period beginning on the date on which a sentence is imposed on the individual under paragraph (1).

(d) Clerical Amendment.—The table of sections for chapter 47 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

"1041. Federal grant application fraud."

SEC. 25. RESTRICTING THE ACQUISITION OF GOODS, TECHNOLOGIES, AND SENSITIVE INFORMATION TO CERTAIN ALIENS.

(a) Grounds of inadmissibility.—Section 212(a)(3)(A)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(3)(A)(i)) is amended to read as follows:

"(i) any activity—

(I) to violate any law of the United States relating to espionage or sabotage;

(II) to violate or evade any law prohibiting the export from the United States of goods, technologies, or sensitive information; or

(III) to acquire export-controlled goods, technologies, or sensitive information (notwithstanding any exclusions for items not normally subject to export controls) if the Secretary of State has determined that the acquisition of those goods, technologies, or sensitive information by a category of aliens that includes such alien would be contrary to an articulable national security (including economic security) interest of the United States;"

(b) Determining factors.—In establishing criteria for determining whether an alien is included in a category of aliens that may be inadmissible under section 212(a)(3)(A)(i)(III) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended by subsection (a), officials of the Department of State shall—
(A) seek advice and assistance from officials at the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, the Office of Science and Technology Policy, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Defense, the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Energy, the Department of Commerce, and other appropriate Federal agencies; and

(B) consider factors such as the alien’s past or likely employment or cooperation with—

(i) foreign military and security related organizations that are adversarial to the United States;

(ii) foreign institutions involved in the theft of intellectual property or theft of control of sensitive information;

(iii) entities involved in export control violations or the theft of intellectual property; and

(iv) a government that seeks to undermine the integrity and security of the United States research community; and

(C) weigh the proportionality of risk for the factors listed in subparagraph (B).

(2) MACHINE-READABLE DOCUMENTS.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall—

(A) use a machine-readable visa application form; and

(B) make available documents submitted in support of a visa application in a machine readable format to assist in—

(i) identifying fraud;

(ii) conducting lawful law enforcement activities;

(iii) determining the eligibility of applicants for a visa under the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.), including the nationality of each alien to whom such visa shall be issued; and

(iv) a government that seeks to undermine the integrity and security of the United States research community; and

(C) weigh the proportionality of risk for the factors listed in subparagraph (B).

SEC. 26. LIMITATIONS ON EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS.

Section 102(b)(5) of the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2482(b)(5)) is amended by striking the semicolon at the end and inserting the following:—

“by developing exchange programs for foreign researchers and scientists, while protecting technologies regulated by export control laws important to the national security and economic interests of the United States, including requiring sponsors—

(A) to disclose to the Department of State whether an exchange visitor, as a primary part of his or her exchange program, will have released to them controlled technology or technical data regulated by export control laws at sponsor organizations through research activities, lectures, course work, sponsor employees, officers, agents, third parties, or technical data associated with a sponsor’s administration of the exchange visitor program; and

(B) to provide a plan to the Department of State that establishes appropriate program safeguards to prevent the unauthorized release of controlled technology or technical data regulated by export control laws at sponsor organizations or through their employees, officers, agents, third parties, or technical data regulated by export control laws at sponsor organizations through research activities, lectures, course work, sponsor employees, officers, agents, third parties, or technical data associated with a sponsor’s administration of the exchange visitor program; and

(C) to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, that the programs that will release controlled technology or technical data to an exchange visitor at the sponsor organization through exchange visitor programs have received appropriate authorization from the Department of State, the Department of Commerce, other cognizant Federal agency before the sponsor releases controlled technology or technical data;”;

(2) identifies the sections of a visa application that are machine-readable and the sections that are not machine-readable;

(3) provides cost estimates, including personnel costs and a cost-benefit analysis for adopting different technologies, including optical character recognition, for—

(A) making every element of a visa application, and documents submitted in support of a visa application, machine-readable; and

(B) ensuring that such system—

(i) protects personally-identifiable information; and

(ii) permits the sharing of visa information with Federal agencies in accordance with existing law; and

(4) includes an estimated timeline for completing the implementation of subsection (b)(2).

SEC. 27. AMENDMENTS TO DISCLOSURES OF FOREIGN GIFTS.

Section 117 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1011f) is amended—

(a) by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:—

“(a) DISCUSSION REPORT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—An institution shall file a disclosure report with the Secretary not later than March 31 occurring after—

(A) the calendar year in which a foreign source gives ownership of, or control over, the institution; or

(B) the calendar year in which the institution enters into a contract with, a foreign source, the value of which is $50,000 or more, considered alone or in combination with all other gifts from or contracts with that foreign source within a calendar year.

(2) REVISIONS; UPDATES.—The Secretary shall permit institutions to revise and update disclosure reports previously filed to ensure accuracy, compliance, and the ability to cure;—

(3) by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:—

“(b) CONTENTS OF REPORT.—Each report to the Secretary required by this section shall contain the following:—

“(1) For gifts received from or contracts entered into with a foreign source other than a foreign government, the aggregate dollar amount of such gifts and contracts attributable to a particular country and the legal or formal name of the foreign source. The country to which a gift is attributable is the country of citizenship, or if unknown, the principal residence for a foreign source who is a natural person, and the country of incorporation, or if unknown, the principal place of business, for a foreign source which is a legal entity.

“(2) For gifts received from or contracts entered into with a foreign government, the aggregate amount of such gifts and contracts received from each foreign government.

“(3) In the case of an institution which is owned or controlled by a foreign source, the identity of the foreign source, the date on which the foreign source assumed ownership or control, and any changes in program or management resulting from the change in ownership or control.

“(4) An assurance that the institution will maintain true copies of gift and contract agreements subject to the disclosure requirements under this section for at least the duration of the agreement.

“(5) A statement that the institution will produce true copies of gift and contract agreements subject to the disclosure requirements under this section upon request of the Secretary during a compliance audit or other institutional investigation.”;

(b) by amending subsection (c) to read as follows:—

“(c) RULEMAKING.—Not later than 30 days after receiving a disclosure report under this section, the Secretary shall make such report electronically available to the public on a secure website and shall provide a database based on which institutions can be individually identified and compared.”;

(c) by amending subsection (d) to read as follows:—

“(d) PUBLIC INSPECTION.—Not later than 30 days after receiving a disclosure report under this section, the Secretary shall file a disclosure report for a receipt of a gift from or contract with a foreign source in accordance with subsection (a) in a manner that is not more than 5 times the amount of the gift or contract with the foreign source.

“(e) DEFINITION OF REPEATEDLY FAILS.—In this paragraph, the term `repeatedly fails' means that the institution failed to file a disclosure report for a receipt of a gift from or contract with a foreign source in accordance with subsection (a) in an amount that is not more than 2 times the amount of the gift or contract with the foreign source.

“(f) RULEMAKING.—Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of the Safeguarding American Innovation Act, the Secretary shall issue regulations to carry out this section using the negotiated rulemaking procedure set forth in section 492(b).

“(g) RULEMAKING.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit a report to the Committee on the Judiciary and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate, the Committee on the Judiciary and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the House of Representatives, the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives that—

(1) describes how supplementary documents provided by a visa applicant in support of a visa application are stored and shared by the Department of State with authorized Federal agencies;

(2) identifies the sections of a visa application that are machine-readable and the sections that are not machine-readable;

(3) provides cost estimates, including personnel costs and a cost-benefit analysis for adopting different technologies, including optical character recognition, for—

(A) making every element of a visa application, and documents submitted in support of a visa application, machine-readable; and

(B) ensuring that such system—

(i) protects personally-identifiable information; and

(ii) permits the sharing of visa information with Federal agencies in accordance with existing law; and

(4) includes an estimated timeline for completing the implementation of subsection (b)(2).
(ii) reporting contracts that balances the need for transparency, while protecting the proprietary information of institutes of higher education; and

(b) on which the term "substantially similar to," means the Secret-

(h) TREATMENT OF TUITION PAYMENT.—A tuition and related fee, and expenses, for the purpose of this section by, or a scholarship from, a foreign source made on behalf of a student enrolled at such institution shall not be considered a gift from or contract with a foreign source under this section;"

(1) the term "appropriate committees of Congress" means—

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

(R) the term "proprietary information of institutes of higher education; and

(1) the term "appropriate committees of Congress" means—

(a) DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE EFFORTS.—

The Secretary of Defense shall, in consultation with the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence, work with the private sector through a public-private partnership, including by incentivizing the formation of a consortium of United States companies, to enhance our economic competitiveness and our national security and economic competitiveness, and other national security ap-lications. Such work may include providing incentives for the creation, expansion, or modernization of one or more commercially competitive microelectronics manufacturing or advanced research and development facilities.

(2) Risk Mitigation Requirements.—A participant in a consortium formed with incentives under paragraph (1) shall—

(A) have the potential to perform fabrication, assembly, package, or test functions for microelectronics deemed critical to national security as defined by export control regulatory agencies in consultation with the National Security Adviser and the Secretary of Defense;

(B) include management processes to identify and mitigate supply chain security risks;

(C) be able to produce microelectronics consistent with applicable measurably secure supply chain and operational security standards established under section 226(b) of the Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (Public Law 116–92).

(3) National Security Considerations.—The Secretary of Defense and the Director of National Intelligence shall select participants for the consortium formed with incentives under paragraph (1). In selecting such participants, the Secretary and the Director may jointly consider whether the United States companies—

(A) have participated in previous programs and projects of the Department of Defense, Department of Energy, or the intelligence community, including—

(i) the Trusted Integrated Circuit program of the Intelligence Advanced Research Projects Activity;

(ii) trusted and assured microelectronics projects, as administered by the Department of Defense;

(iii) the Electronics Resurgence Initiative (ERI) program of the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency; or

(iv) relevant semiconductor research programs of Advanced Research Projects Agency–Energy;

(B) have demonstrated an ongoing commitment to manufacturing contracts for the Department of Defense and the intelligence community;

(C) are approved by the Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency or the Office of the Director of National Intelligence as presenting an acceptable security risk, taking into account supply chain assurance vulnerability and intelligence risks, and any risks presented by companies whose owners are located outside the United States; and

(D) be evaluated periodically for foreign ownership, control, or influence by foreign adversaries.

(4) Nontraditional Defense Contractors and Commercial Entities.—Arrangements entered into to carry out paragraph (1) shall be in such form as the Secretary of Defense determines appropriate to encourage industry participation of nontraditional defense contractors or commercial entities and may include a contract, a grant, a cooperative agreement, a commercial agreement, the use of other authority under section 2371 of title 10, United States Code, or another such arrangement.

(5) Discharge.—The Secretary of Defense shall discharge arrangements established under paragraph (1) jointly with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics, or such other component of the Department of Defense as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(6) Other Initiatives.—The Secretary of Defense shall establish other initiatives within the Department of Defense to advance radio frequency, mixed signal, radiation tolerant, and radiation hardened microelectronics that support national security and dual-use applications.

(7) Reports.—

(A) Report by Secretary of Defense.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to Congress a report on the plans of the Secretary to carry out paragraph (1).

(B) Biennial Reports by Comptroller General of the United States.—Not later than 1 year after the date on which the Secretary submits the report required by subparagraph (A) and not less frequently than once every 2 years thereafter for a period of 10 years, the Comptroller General shall submit to Congress a report on the activities carried out under this subsection.

(C) Defense Production Act of 1950 Efforts.—

(1) In General.—Not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the President shall submit to Congress a report on a plan for use by the Department of Defense of authorities available in title III of the Defense Production Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. 4531 et seq.) to establish and enhance a domestic production capability for microelectronics technologies and related technologies, subject to the availability of appropriations for that purpose.

(2) Consultation.—The President shall develop the plan required by paragraph (1) in coordination with the Secretary of Defense, and in consultation with the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Air Force.

(D) Waivers of National Security Considerations.—

(1) In General.—Not later than 1 year after the date on which the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Director of National Intelligence, establishes requirements, standards, and a timeline for enforcement of such requirements, to the extent possible, for domestic sourcing for certain microelectronics products, the Secretary shall establish requirements, standards, and a timeline for enforcement of such requirements, to the extent possible, for domestic sourcing for related technologies and technologies, including—

(i) manufacturing, operations, and related services.

(ii) microelectronics products, by programs, programs, subcontractors, and other recipients of funding from the Department of Defense, Department of Energy, Department of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence.

(D) Waivers of National Security Considerations.—

(1) In General.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall establish requirements, standards, and a timeline for enforcement of such requirements, to the extent possible, for domestic sourcing for certain microelectronics products, the Secretary shall establish requirements, standards, and a timeline for enforcement of such requirements, to the extent possible, for domestic sourcing for related technologies and technologies, including—

(i) manufacturing, operations, and related services.

(ii) microelectronics products, by programs, programs, subcontractors, and other recipients of funding from the Department of Defense, Department of Energy, Department of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence.

(2) Provisions for Waivers.—The requirements established under paragraph (1) shall include provisions to permit waivers for specific contracts or transactions for domestic sourcing on a cost, availability, severity of technical and mission requirements, emergency requirements and operational needs, other legal or international treaty obligations, or other factors.

(3) Updates.—Not less frequently than once each year, the Secretary shall—

(A) update the requirements and timelines established under paragraph (1) and the processes under paragraph (2); and

(B) submit to Congress a report on the updates made under subparagraph (A) at least every 2 years.

(1) Corporations, partnerships, associations, or any other organized groups domiciled and with substantial operations in the United States;

(2) Corporations, partnerships, associations, or any other organized groups domiciled in the United States with operations outside the United States;

(3) Foreign domiciled corporations, partnerships, associations, or any other organized groups with substantial operations or business presence in, or substantial revenues derived from, any country outside the United States;

(4) Foreign domiciled corporations, partnerships, associations, or any other organized groups in defense treaty or assistance agreements, and a description of any entity concerned involves critical technologies covered by section 2.

(1) Information Requested.—The information sought from a responding entity pursuant to paragraph (a) shall include, at minimum, information on the following with respect to the manufacture, design, and end use of microelectronics by such entity:

(A) An identification of the geographic scope of operations.

(B) Information on relevant cost structures.

(C) An identification of types of microelectronics development, manufacture, assembly, test, and packaging equipment in operations of such entity.

(D) An identification of all relevant intellectual property, raw materials, and semifinished goods and components sourced domestically and abroad by such entity.

(E) Specifications of the microelectronics manufactured or designed by such entity, descriptions of the end-uses of such microelectronics, and a description of any technical support provided to end-users of such microelectronics by such entity.

(F) Information on domestic and export market sales by such entity.

(G) Information on the financial performance, including income and expenditures, of such entity.

(H) A description of all foreign and domestic subsidies, and any other financial incentives, received by such entity in each market in which such entity operates.

(I) A list of information requests from the People’s Republic of China to such entity, and a description of the nature of each request and the type of information provided.

(J) Information on technology licensing agreements, and cooperative research or production arrangements of such entity.

(K) A description of efforts by such entity to evaluate and control supply chain risks it faces.

(L) A list and description of any sales, licensing agreements, or partnerships between such entity and the People’s Liberation Army’s People’s Armed Police, including any business relationships with entities through which such licensing agreements, or partnerships may occur.

(2) Reporting.—

(A) In General.—The Secretary of Commerce shall, in consultation with the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the heads of other appropriate Federal departments and agencies, submit to Congress a report on the results of the review required by subsection (a). The report shall include the following: (A) An assessment of the results of the survey. (B) A list of critical technology areas impacted by potential disruptions in production of microelectronics, and a detailed description of the impact of such potential disruptions on such areas. (C) A description and assessment of gaps and vulnerabilities in the microelectronics supply chain and the national industrial supply base. (2) Form.—The report required by paragraph (1) may be submitted in classified form.

SEC. 34. FUNDING FOR DEVELOPMENT AND ADOPTION OF MEASURABLY SECURE MICROELECTRONICS AND MEASURABLY SECURE MICROELECTRONICS SUPPLY CHAINS. (a) MULTILATERAL MICROELECTRONICS SECURITY FUND.—(1) ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.—There is established in the Treasury of the United States a trust fund, to be known as the “Multilateral Microelectronics Security Fund” (in this section referred to as the “Fund”), consisting of such amounts as may be appropriated to such Fund and any amounts that may be credited to the Fund under paragraph (2). (2) INVESTMENT OF AMOUNTS.—(A) AMOUNTS.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall invest such portion of the Fund as is not required to meet current withdrawals in interest-bearing obligations of the United States or in obligations guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States. (B) INTEREST AND PROCEEDS.—The interest on, and proceeds from, the assets of the Fund shall be credited to and form a part of the Fund. (3) USE OF FUND.—(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), amounts in the Fund shall be available, as provided in advance in an appropriations Act, to the Secretary of State—(i) to provide funding through the common funding mechanism described in subsection (b)(1) to support the development and adoption of microelectronics and measurably secure microelectronics supply chains; and (ii) to otherwise carry on this section's activities. (B) DEPENDENCE ON INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT.—Amounts in the Fund shall be available to the Secretary of State on and after the date on which the Secretary enters into an agreement with the governments of countries that are partners of the United States to participate in the common funding mechanism under paragraph (1) of subsection (c), in coordination with the commitments described in paragraph (2) of that subsection. (4) AVAILABILITY OF AMOUNTS.—(A) IN GENERAL.—Amounts in the Fund shall remain available through the end of the tenth fiscal year beginning after the date of enactment of this Act. (B) REMAINDER TO TREASURY.—Any amounts remaining in the Fund after the end of the fiscal year described in subparagraph (A) shall be deposited in the general fund of the Treasury. (5) COMMON FUNDING MECHANISM FOR DEVELOPMENT AND ADOPTION OF MEASURABLY SECURE MICROELECTRONICS AND MEASURABLY SECURE MICROELECTRONICS SUPPLY CHAINS.—(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Director of National Intelligence, shall seek to establish a common funding mechanism, in coordination with the governments of countries that are partners of the United States, that uses amounts from the Fund, and amounts contributed by other governments toward entering into an agreement with the United States to provide funding for the common funding mechanism, in coordination with the governments of countries that are partners of the United States upon which to condition any expenditure of funds pursuant to the common funding mechanism described in paragraph (1). Such commitments shall, at a minimum—(A) establish transparency requirements for any subsidies or other financial benefits (including revenue foregone) provided to microelectronics firms located in or outside such countries; (B) establish consistent policies with respect to countries that do not meet transparency requirements established under subparagraph (A); (C) promote harmonized treatment of microelectronics and verification processes for items being exported to a country considered a nonmarket economy as the behavior of such countries pertains to microelectronics; (D) align policies on supply chain integrity and microelectronics security, including with respect to protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights; and (F) promote harmonized foreign direct investment screening measures with respect to microelectronics to align with national and multilateral security priorities. (c) ANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter for each fiscal year during which amounts in the Fund are available under subsection (a)(4), the Secretary of State shall submit to Congress a report on the status of the implementation of this section that includes a description of—(1) any commitments made by the governments of countries that are partners of the United States to providing funding for the common funding mechanism described in subsection (a)(4) and the specific amount so committed; (2) the criteria established for expenditure of funds through the common funding mechanism; (3) how, and to whom, amounts have been expended from the Fund; (4) amounts remaining in the Fund; (5) the progress of the Secretary of State toward entering into an agreement with the governments of countries that are partners of the United States to participate in the common funding mechanism and the commitments described in subsection (b)(2); and (6) any additional authorities needed to enhance the effectiveness of the Fund in achieving the security goals of the United States. SEC. 35. ADVANCED SEMICONDUCTOR RESEARCH AND DESIGN. (a) APPROPRIATIONS.—(1) COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS.—In this section, the term “appropriations committees of Congress” means—...
(1) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary of Commerce shall establish a national semiconductor technology center to conduct research and prototyping of advanced semiconductors, that strengthens the domestic ecosystem and is aligned with the National Strategy on Semiconductor Research.

(B) To establish a National Advanced Packaging Manufacturing Program led by the National Institute of Standards and Technology, in coordination with the Center, to strengthen semiconductor advanced test, assembly, and packaging capability in the domestic ecosystem, and which shall coordinate with the Manufacturing USA institute established under paragraph (4).

(C) To establish an investment fund, in partnership with the private sector, to support startups in the domestic semiconductor ecosystem.

(D) To establish a Semiconductor Manufacturing Program through the Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology to enable advances and breakthroughs in measurement science, standards, material characterization, instrumentation, testing, and manufacturing capabilities that will underpin research and development for metrology of next generation semiconductors and ensure the competitiveness and leadership of the United States within this sector.

(E) To work with the Secretary of Labor, the private sector, educational institutions, and workforce training entities to develop workforce training programs and apprenticeships in advanced microelectronic packaging capabilities.

(3) COMPONENTS.—The fund established under paragraph (2)(C) shall cover the following:

(A) Advanced metrology and characterization for manufacturing of microchips using 3 nanometer transistor processes or more advanced processes.

(B) Metrology for security and supply chain verification.

(4) CREATION OF A MANUFACTURING USA INSTITUTE.—The fund established under paragraph (2)(C) may also cover the creation of a Manufacturing USA institute described in section 401 of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278dd) that is focused on semiconductor manufacturing. Such institute may emphasize the following:

(A) Research to support the virtualization and automation of maintenance of semiconductor machinery.

(B) Development of new advanced test, assembly and packaging capabilities.

(C) Developing and deploying educational and skills training curricula needed to support the semiconductor and electronics industries and ensure the U.S. can build and maintain a trusted and predictable talent pipeline.

(5) BUILDING INNOVATION REQUIREMENTS.—The head of any executive agency receiving funding under this section shall develop policies to require domestic production, to the extent practicable, of any intellectual property resulting from microelectronics research and development conducted as a result of these funds and domestic control requirements to protect any such intellectual property from foreign adversaries.

SEC. 36. PROHIBITION RELATING TO FOREIGN INVESTMENT.

None of the funds appropriated pursuant to an authorization in this subtitle may be provided to an entity—

(1) under the foreign ownership, control, or influence of the Government of the People’s Republic of China or the Chinese Communist Party, or otherwise advancements (as defined in section 301(a)(4)); or

(2) determined to have beneficial ownership from foreign individuals subject to the jurisdiction, direction, or influence of foreign adversaries (as so defined).

Subtitle D—Critical Minerals

SEC. 41. MINERAL SECURITY.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) BYPRODUCT.—The term ‘‘byproduct’’ means a critical mineral—

(A) the recovery of which depends on the production of a host mineral that is not designated as a critical mineral; and

(B) that exists in sufficient quantities to be recovered during processing or refining.

(2) CRITICAL MINERAL.—The term ‘‘critical mineral’’ means any mineral, element, substance, or material designated as critical by the Secretary under section 401(c) of the Restoring Critical Supply Chains and Intellectual Property Act.

(b) EXCLUSIONS.—The term ‘‘critical mineral’’ does not include—

(1) fuel minerals, including oil, natural gas, or any other fossil fuel;

(2) water, ice, or snow;

(3) important commodity, as determined by the Secretary under section 401(c) of the Restoring Critical Supply Chains and Intellectual Property Act.

(c) CRITICAL MINERAL DESIGNATIONS.—

(1) DRAFT METHODOLOGY AND LIST.—The Secretary, acting through the Director of the United States Geological Survey (referred to in this subsection as the ‘‘Secretary’’), shall publish in the Federal Register for public comment a draft methodology developed under this subsection, qualitative evidence may be used to the extent necessary.

(2) FINAL METHODOLOGY AND LIST.—After reviewing public comments on the draft methodology and the draft lists published under paragraph (1) and updating the methodology and lists as appropriate, not later than 45 days after the close of the public comment period with respect to the draft methodology and draft lists closes, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register—

(A) a description of the final methodology for determining which minerals, elements, substances, and materials qualify as critical minerals;

(B) a draft list of minerals, elements, substances, and materials that qualify as critical minerals; and

(C) a draft list of critical minerals recovered as byproducts.

(3) AVAILABILITY OF DATA.—If available data is insufficient to provide a quantitative basis for the methodology developed under this subsection, qualitative evidence may be used to the extent necessary.

(4) DESIGNATIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of carrying out this subsection, the Secretary shall maintain a list of minerals, elements, substances, and materials designated as critical pursuant to the final methodology published under paragraph (3), that the Secretary determines—

(i) are essential to the economic or national security of the United States;

(ii) the supply chain of which is vulnerable to disruption (including restrictions associated with foreign political risk, abrupt demand growth, military conflict, violent unrest, anti-competitive or protectionist behavior, and other risks throughout the supply chain); and

(iii) serve an essential function in the manufacturing of a product (including energy technology-, defense-, currency-, agriculture-, or electronic-related applications), the absence of which would have significant consequences for the workforce training for exploration and development of critical minerals and critical mineral manufacturing;

(10) bolster international cooperation through technology transfer, information sharing, and other means;

(11) promote the efficient production, use, and recycling of critical minerals; and

(13) establish contingencies for the production of, or access to, critical minerals for viable sources do not exist within the United States.”.

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 2(b) of the National Material Policy, Research and Development Act of 1980 (30 U.S.C. 1601(b)) is amended by striking ‘‘(b) As used in this Act, the term’’ and inserting the following:

‘‘(b) DEFINITIONS.—In this Act:

(1) CRITICAL MINERAL.—The term ‘‘critical mineral’’ means any mineral, element, substance, or public comment on the draft methodology developed under this subsection, qualitative evidence may be used to the extent necessary.

(2) FINAL METHODOLOGY AND LIST.—After reviewing public comments on the draft methodology and the draft lists published under paragraph (1) and updating the methodology and lists as appropriate, not later than 45 days after the close of the public comment period with respect to the draft methodology and draft lists closes, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register—

(A) a description of the final methodology for determining which minerals, elements, substances, and materials qualify as critical minerals;

(B) a draft list of minerals, elements, substances, and materials that qualify as critical minerals; and

(C) a draft list of critical minerals recovered as byproducts.

(4) DESIGNATIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of carrying out this subsection, the Secretary shall maintain a list of minerals, elements, substances, and materials designated as critical pursuant to the final methodology published under paragraph (3), that the Secretary determines—

(i) are essential to the economic or national security of the United States;

(ii) the supply chain of which is vulnerable to disruption (including restrictions associated with foreign political risk, abrupt demand growth, military conflict, violent unrest, anti-competitive or protectionist behaviors, and other risks throughout the supply chain); and

(iii) serve an essential function in the manufacturing of a product (including energy technology-, defense-, currency-, agriculture-, or electronic-related applications), the absence of which would have significant consequences for the economic or national security of the United States.

(B) INCLUSIONS.—Notwithstanding the criteria under paragraph (3), the Secretary may designate on the list of critical minerals identified under paragraph (2) a mineral or element that—

(i) meets the methodology described in this subsection;

(ii) determines that minerals, elements, substances, or materials previously determined to be critical minerals are no longer critical minerals; and

(iii) designates additional minerals, elements, substances, or materials as critical minerals.

(C) REQUIRED CONSULTATION.—The Secretary shall consult with the Secretaries of Defense, Commerce, Agriculture, and Energy and the United States Trade Representative, shall review the methodology and list under paragraphs (2) and (3) and the designations under paragraph (4) at least every 3 years, or more frequently as the Secretary considers to be appropriate.

(D) REVISIONS.—Subject to paragraph (5), the Secretary may—

(1) use the methodology described in this subsection;

(2) determine that minerals, elements, substances, or materials previously determined to be critical minerals are no longer critical minerals; and

(3) designate additional minerals, elements, substances, or materials as critical minerals.

(E) NOTICE.—On finalization of the methodology and the list under paragraph (3), or any revision to the methodology or list under paragraph (3), the Secretary shall submit to Congress written notice of the action.

(F) RESOURCE ASSESSMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 4 years after the date of enactment of this Act, in consultation with applicable State (including geological surveys), local, academic, industry, and other entities, the Secretary (acting through the Director of the United States Geological Survey) or a designee of the Secretary, shall complete a comprehensive national assessment of each critical mineral that—

(A) identifies and quantifies known critical mineral resources, using all available public and private information and datasets, including geological surveys and

(B) provides a quantitative and qualitative assessment of undiscovered critical mineral resources throughout the United States, including estimates of tonnage and grade, using all available public and private information and datasets, including exploration histories.

(2) SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION.—In carrying out this subsection, the Secretary may carry out surveys and field work (including drilling, remote sensing, geophysical surveys, biographical and geological mapping, and geochemical sampling and analysis) to supplement existing information and datasets available for determining the existence of critical minerals in the United States.

(3) PUBLIC ACCESS.—Subject to applicable law, to the maximum extent practicable, the Secretary shall make all data and metadata collected from the comprehensive national assessment carried out under paragraph (1) publically and electronically accessible.

(G) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—At the request of the Governor of a State or the head of an Indian tribe, the Secretary may provide technical assistance to State governments and Indian tribes conducting critical mineral resource assessments on non-Federal land.

(H) PRIORITY.

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may sequence the completion of resource assessments for each critical mineral such that critical minerals considered to be most critical shall be the first, followed by those assessed under subsection (c) are completed first.

(B) REPORTING.—During the period beginning not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act and ending on the date of completion of all of the assessments required under this subsection, the Secretary shall submit to Congress on an annual basis an interim report that—

(i) identifies the sequence and schedule for completion of the assessments if the Secretary fails to meet the requirements under paragraph (1); and

(ii) describes the progress of the assessments if the Secretary does not sequence the assessments.

(C) UPDATES.—The Secretary may periodically update the assessments conducted under this subsection based on—

(i) the generation of new information or datasets by the Federal Government; or

(ii) the receipt of new information or datasets from critical mineral producers, State geological surveys, academic institutions, trade associations, and others.

(D) ADDITIONAL SURVEYS.—The Secretary shall complete a resource assessment for each additional mineral or element subsequently designated as a critical mineral under subsection (c) or (d) not later than 2 years after the designation of the mineral or element.

(E) REPORT.—Not later than 2 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to Congress a report describing the status of geological surveys of Federal land for any mineral commodity—

(A) for which the United States was dependent on a foreign country for more than 20 percent of its supply, as depicted in the report issued by the United States Geological Survey entitled ‘‘Mineral Commodity Summaries 2020’’; but

(B) that is not designated as a critical mineral under subsection (c).

(F) PERMITTING.—

(1) INSPECTION OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(A) critical minerals are fundamental to the economy, competitiveness, and security of the United States; and

(B) the maximum extent practicable, the critical mineral needs of the United States should be satisfied by minerals responsibly produced and recycled in the United States; and

(C) the Federal permitting process has been identified as an impediment to mineral production and the mineral security of the United States.

(2) PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENTS.—To improve the quality and timeliness of decisions, the Secretary, in consultation with the Director of the Bureau of Land Management and the Secretary of Agriculture (acting through the Chief of the Forest Service) (referred to in this paragraph as ‘‘the Secretaries’’) shall, to the maximum extent practicable, with respect to critical mineral production on Federal land, complete Federal permitting and review processes with maximum efficiency and effectiveness, while supporting vital economic growth, by—

(i) establishing and adhering to timelines and schedules for the consideration of, and final decisions regarding, applications, operating plans, leases, licenses, permits, and other use authorizations for mineral-related activities on Federal land; and

(ii) establishing clear, quantifiable, and temporal permitting performance goals and tracking progress against those goals.

(G) REPORTING.—The Secretaries shall submit to Congress a report that—

(i) summarizes the implementation of recommendations, measures, and options identified in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (3); and

(ii) establishes clear, quantifiable, and temporal permitting performance goals and tracking progress against those goals.

(H) REPORTING.—During the period beginning not later than 3 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to Congress a report that—

(A) identifies additional measures (including regulatory and legislative proposals, as appropriate) that would increase the timeliness of permitting activities for the exploration and development of domestic critical minerals; and

(B) identifies options (including cost recovery paid by permit applicants) for ensuring adequate staffing and training of Federal entities and personnel responsible for the consideration of applications, operating plans, leases, licenses, permits, and other use authorizations for critical mineral-related activities on Federal land; and

(C) quantifies the amount of time typically required (including range derived from minimum and maximum durations, mean, median, variance, and other statistical measures or representations) to complete each step (including those aspects outside the control of the executive branch, such as judicial review, applicant decisions, or State and local government involvement) associated with the development and processing of applications, operating plans, leases, licenses, permits, and other use authorizations for critical mineral-related activities on Federal land, which shall serve as a baseline for the performance metric under paragraph (4); and

(D) describes actions carried out pursuant to paragraph (2).

(I) PERFORMANCE METRIC.—Not later than 90 days after the date of submission of the report under paragraph (3), the Secretaries, after providing public notice and an opportunity to comment, shall develop and publish a performance metric for evaluating the progress made by the executive branch to expedite the permitting of activities that will improve the permitting and development of domestic critical minerals, while maintaining environmental standards.

(J) ANNUAL REPORTS.—Beginning with the first budget submission by the President under section 1105 of title 31, United States Code, after publication of the performance metric required under paragraph (4), and annually thereafter, the Secretaries shall submit to Congress a report that—

(A) summarizes the implementation of recommendations, measures, and options identified in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (3); and

(B) using the performance metric under paragraph (4), describes progress made by the executive branch as compared to the baseline established pursuant to paragraph (3)(C), on expediting the permitting of activities. that will increase exploration for, and development of, domestic critical minerals; and
(C) compares the United States to other countries in terms of permitting efficiency and other criteria relevant to the globally competitive critical minerals industry.

(6) INDIVIDUAL PROJECTS.—Using data from the Secretaries generated under paragraph (5), the Office of Management and Budget shall prioritize inclusion of individual critical mineral projects on the website operated by the Office of Management and Budget and the corporation in accordance with section 1122 of title 31, United States Code.

(7) REPORT OF SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION.—Not later than 1 year and 300 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator of the Small Business Administration shall submit to the committee an annual report that contains the following:

(A) subject to any required reviews within the Department of the Interior or the Department of Agriculture; and
(B) published in final form in the Federal Register within 45 days after the date of initial preparation of the notice.

(2) PREPARATION.—The preparation of Federal Register notices required by law associated with the issuance of a critical mineral exploration or mine permit shall be delegated to the organizational level within the agency responsible for issuing the critical mineral exploration or mine permit.

(3) TRANSMISSION.—All Federal Register notices regarding official document availability, announcements of meetings, or notices of proposed rulemaking as well as action shall be originated in, and transmitted to the Federal Register from, the office in which, as applicable—

(A) the documents or meetings are held; or
(B) the activity is initiated.

(4) RECYCLING, EFFICIENCY, AND ALTERNATIVES.—

(I) Estimation.—The Secretary of Energy (referred to in this subsection as the “Secretary”) shall conduct a program of research and development—

(A) to promote the efficient production, use, and recycling of critical minerals throughout the supply chain; and
(B) to enhance research to critical minerals that do not occur in significant abundance in the United States.

(II) Cooperation.—In carrying out the program, the Secretary shall cooperate with appropriate—

(A) Federal agencies and National Laboratories;
(B) critical mineral producers;
(C) critical mineral processors;
(D) critical mineral manufacturers;
(E) trade associations;
(F) producers and processors; and
(G) small businesses; and
(H) other relevant entities or individuals.

(3) ACTIVITIES.—Under the program, the Secretary may carry out activities that include the identification and development of—

(A) advanced critical mineral extraction, production, separation, alloying, or processing technologies that decrease the energy consumption, environmental impact, and costs of those mining—

(i) efficient water and wastewater management strategies;
(ii) technologies and management strategies to control the environmental impacts of radionuclides in ore tailings;
(iii) technologies for separation and processing; and
(iv) technologies for increasing the recovery rates of byproducts from host metal ores;
(B) technologies or process improvements that minimize the use, or lead to more efficient use, of critical minerals across the full supply chain;
(C) technologies, process improvements, or design optimizations that facilitate the recycling of critical minerals, and options for improving the rates of collection of products and scrap containing critical minerals from post-consumer, industrial, or other waste streams;
(D) commercial markets, advanced storage methods, energy applications, and other beneficial uses of critical minerals processing byproducts;
(E) alternative minerals, metals, and materials, particularly those available in abundance within the United States and not subject to potential supply restrictions, that lessen the need for critical minerals; and
(F) alternative energy technologies or alternative designs of existing energy technologies, particularly those that use minerals that—

(i) occur in abundance in the United States; and
(ii) are not subject to potential supply restrictions.

(4) REPORTS.—Not later than 2 years after the date of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Secretary shall submit to Congress a report summarizing the activities, findings, and progress of the program.

(h) ANALYSIS AND FORECASTING.—

(1) CAPABILITIES.—In order to evaluate existing critical mineral policies and inform future actions that may be taken to avoid supply shortages, mitigate price volatility, and prepare for demand growth and other market shifts, the Secretary (acting through the Director of the United States Geological Survey) shall, in consultation with the Energy Information Administration, academic institutions, and others in order to maximize the application of best available information to existing and new designs of computer models and similar analytical tools, shall conduct and publish the results of an annual report that includes—

(A) as part of the annually published Mineral Commodity Summaries from the United States Geological Survey, a comprehensive review of critical mineral production, consumption, and recycling patterns, including—

(i) the quantity of each critical mineral domestically produced during the preceding year;
(ii) the quantity of each critical mineral domestically consumed during the preceding year;
(iii) market price data or other price data for each critical mineral;
(iv) an assessment of—

(I) critical mineral requirements to meet the national security, energy, economic, industrial, technological, and other needs of the United States during the preceding year;
(II) the potential for the United States to rely on foreign sources to meet those needs during the preceding year; and
(v) the implications of any supply shortages, restrictions, or disruptions during the preceding year;
(vi) the market penetration during the preceding year of alternatives to each critical mineral domestically recycled during the preceding year;
(vii) a discussion of international trends associated with the discovery, production, consumption, use, costs of production, processing, and recycling of critical minerals as well as the development of alternatives to critical minerals; and
(viii) other data, analyses, and evaluations as the Secretary finds are necessary to achieve the purposes of this subsection; and

(2) TRANSMISSION.—Not later than 1 year and 300 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator of the Small Business Administration shall publish the results of an annual report that—

(I) critical mineral requirements to meet projected national security, energy, economic, industrial, technological, and other needs of the United States;
(II) the projected reliance of the United States on foreign sources to meet those needs; and
(III) the projected impacts of potential supply shortages, restrictions, or disruptions; and
(IV) the quantity of each critical mineral projected to be domestically produced over the subsequent 1-year, 5-year, and 10-year periods; and
(III) an assessment of—

(I) critical mineral requirements to meet projected national security, energy, economic, industrial, technological, and other needs of the United States;
(II) the projected reliability of the United States on foreign sources to meet those needs; and
(III) the projected impacts of potential supply shortages, restrictions, or disruptions; and
(IV) the quantity of each critical mineral projected to be domestically recycled over the subsequent 1-year, 5-year, and 10-year periods; and
(v) the market penetration of alternatives to each critical mineral projected to take place over the subsequent 1-year, 5-year, and 10-year periods; and
(vi) a discussion of reasonably foreseeable international trends associated with the discovery, production, consumption, use, costs of production, and recycling of each critical mineral, and the potential development of alternatives to critical minerals; and
(vii) such other projections relating to each critical mineral as the Secretary determines to be necessary to achieve the purposes of this subsection.

(2) PROPRIETARY INFORMATION.—In preparing a report described in paragraph (1), the Secretary shall ensure, consistent with section 5(f) of the National Materials and Minerals Policy, Research and Development Act of 1980 (30 U.S.C. 1604(f)), that—

(A) no person uses the information and data collected for the report for a purpose other than the development of or reporting on the data in a manner such that the identity of the person or firm who supplied the information is not discernible and is not material to the intended uses of the information;
(B) no person discloses any information or data collected for the report unless the information or data has been transformed into a statistical or aggregate form that does not allow the identification of the person or firm who supplied the information; and
(C) procedures are established to require the withholding of any information or data collected for the report if the Secretary determines that withholding is necessary to protect proprietary information, including trade secrets or other confidential information.

(i) EDUCATION AND WORKFORCE.—
(1) WORKFORCE ASSESSMENT.—Not later than 1 year and 300 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Labor (in consultation with the Secretary, the Director, and the Byproducts Recovery Act of 1984 (30 U.S.C. 1520)), the Department of Energy, and the National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Engineering shall coordinate with the National Science Foundation and the American Chemical Society to prepare an assessment of the critical minerals workforce.

(2) CURRICULUM STUDY.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary and the Secretary of Labor shall jointly enter into an agreement with the National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Engineering to conduct a study—

(i) to design an interdisciplinary program on critical minerals that will support the critical mineral supply chain and improve the ability of the United States to increase domestic, critical mineral exploration, development, production, manufacturing, and workforce development programs consistent with paragraph (2).

(ii) to address undergraduate and graduate education, especially to assist in the development of graduate level programs of research that lead to advanced degrees with an emphasis on the critical mineral supply chain or other positions that will increase domestic, critical mineral exploration, development, production, manufacturing, research, including fundamental research into alternatives, and recycling; and

(iii) to develop guidelines for proposals for higher education with substantial expertise in mining, institutions of higher education with significant expertise in minerals research, including fundamental research into alternatives, and employers in the critical minerals sector shall submit to Congress an assessment of the domestic supply in the future; and

(B) RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT.—Research and development programs consistent with paragraph (2):—

(i) startup costs for newly designated facility positions integrated in integrated mineral education, research, innovation, training, and workforce development programs consistent with paragraph (2);

(ii) internships, scholarships, and fellowships for students enrolled in programs related to critical minerals; and

(iii) equipment necessary for integrated mineral innovation, training, and workforce development programs consistent with paragraph (2).

(3) SAVINGS CLAUSES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Nothing in this section or an amendment made by this section modifies any requirement or authority provided by—

(i) the matter under the heading “GEOLOGICAL SURVEY” of the first section of the Act of March 3, 1879 (43 U.S.C. 31(a)); or

(ii) the first section of Public Law 87–426 (43 U.S.C. 31(b)).

(B) EFFECT ON DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE.—Nothing in this section or an amendment made by this section affects the authority of the Secretary of Defense with respect to the work of the Department of Defense on critical minerals or the national defense mission of the Department of Defense.

(C) SECRETARIAL ORDER NOT AFFECTED.—This section shall not apply to any mineral described in Secretarial Order No. 3324, issued by the Secretary on December 3, 2012, in any area to which the order applies.

(4) APPLICATION PROVISIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Subsections (e) and (f) shall apply to—

(i) an exploration project in which the presence of a byproduct is reasonably expected, based on known mineral companionality, geologic formation, mineralogy, or other factors; and

(ii) a project that demonstrates that the byproduct is of sufficient grade that, when combined with the production of a host mineral, the byproduct is economic to recover, as determined by the Secretary in accordance with subparagraph (B).

(B) REQUIREMENT.—In making the determination under subparagraph (A), the applicable Secretary shall consider the cost effectiveness of the byproducts recovery.

(5) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There is authorized to be appropriated to carry out this section $50,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2021 through 2030.
paragraph in this Act: Provided further. That funds appropriated under this paragraph in this Act shall be available for building or construction of temporary structures, including medical facilities, such as hospitals, health facilities, and medical supplies and equipment including personal protective equipment and testing supplies, increased workforce and training, emergency operation centers, retrofitting facilities, and surge capacity: Provided further. That, in this paragraph, the term “payment” means a pre-payment, prospective payment, or retrospective payment as determined appropriate by the Secretary: Provided further. That payments under this paragraph shall be made in consideration of the most efficient payment systems practicable to provide emergency payment: Provided further. That, to be eligible for a payment under this paragraph, an eligible health care provider shall submit to the Secretary of Health and Human Services an application that includes a statement justifying the need of the provider for the payment and the eligible health care provider shall have a valid tax identification number: Provided further. That, not later than 3 years after final payments are made under this paragraph, the Office of Inspector General of the Department of Health and Human Services shall provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate on obligation of funds, including obligations to such eligible health care providers: Provided further. That not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate on obligation of funds, including obligations to such eligible health care providers: Provided further. That such reports shall be updated and submitted to such Committees every 60 days until funds are expended: Provided further. TITLE—ADDITIONAL FLEXIBILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY FOR CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND PAYMENTS AND STATE TAX CERTAINTY FOR EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYERS

SEC. 5001. EXPANSION OF ALLOWABLE USE OF CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND PAYMENTS BY STATES AND TRIBAL AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.

(a) In general.—Section 601(d)(1) of the Social Security Act (§2 U.S.C. 801(d)) is amended to read as follows:

(1) ALLOWABLE USES.—A State, Tribal government, or unit of local government shall use the funds provided under a payment made under this section only for the following purposes:

(A) COVID-19 costs.—During the period that begins on March 1, 2020, and ends on September 30, 2021 (or, in the case of a State or government described in clause (iii) of subparagraph (B), the date determined for the State or government under such clause), shall remain available until expended.

(B) REDUCTION SHORTFALL.—

(i) In general.—Subject to clause (iv), during the period that begins on March 1, 2020, and ends on September 30, 2021 (or, in the case of a State or government described in clause (iii) of subparagraph (B), the date determined for the State or government under such clause), shall remain available until expended.

(ii) Certification.—

(1) In general.—A State, Tribal government, or unit of local government distributes 25 percent of the total amount of the payments received by the State or government under this section to localities within the jurisdiction of the State or government, if any, by which the term ‘location’ means, with respect to a State, Tribal government, or unit of local government, a county, municipality, town, township, village, parish, borough, or other unit of general government below the level of the State, Tribal government, or unit of local government (as applicable) with a population of 500,000 or less.

(3) MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.—In accordance with guidance from the Secretary issued before, on, or after the date of enactment of the Coronavirus Relief Fund Unemployment Compensation of 2020, any amount from a payment made under this section to a State, Tribal government, or unit of local government under such clause, shall remain available until expended.

(A) To make a deposit into, or reimburse, any State or government fund that finances pensions or other postemployment benefits for current or former employees of the State or government.

(B) To satisfy any obligation or liability of the State or government with respect to a pension or other postemployment benefit fund, plan, or program for current or former employees of the State or government.

(C) To augment any amount paid, or benefit provided under, a pension or other postemployment benefit fund, plan, or program for current or former employees of the State or government.

(D) To make a deposit into, or reimburse, a withdrawal from, a budget stabilization fund, budget reserve account, or other ‘rainy day’ or reserve fund of the State or government established to provide a source of funding for operations of the State or government during a revenue downturn or other unanticipated shortfall and accounted for in the budget most recently approved as of March 27, 2020, for the State or government.

(E) To participate in litigation in which an officer of the State or government is a party in the State or national capacity.

(F) To undertake to—

(1) influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the Congress of the United States, or by any State or local legislative body; or

(2) improve the public image of an officer of the State or government.

(2) MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.—In accordance with guidance from the Secretary issued before, on, or after the date of enactment of the Coronavirus Relief Fund Unemployment Compensation of 2020, any amount from a payment made under this section to a State, Tribal government, or unit of local government under such clause, shall remain available until expended.

(A) To make a deposit into, or reimburse, any State or government fund that finances pensions or other postemployment benefits for current or former employees of the State or government.

(B) To satisfy any obligation or liability of the State or government with respect to a pension or other postemployment benefit fund, plan, or program for current or former employees of the State or government.

(C) To augment any amount paid, or benefit provided under, a pension or other postemployment benefit fund, plan, or program for current or former employees of the State or government.

(D) To make a deposit into, or reimburse, a withdrawal from, a budget stabilization fund, budget reserve account, or other ‘rainy day’ or reserve fund of the State or government established to provide a source of funding for operations of the State or government during a revenue downturn or other unanticipated shortfall and accounted for in the budget most recently approved as of March 27, 2020, for the State or government.

(E) To participate in litigation in which an officer of the State or government is a party in the State or national capacity.

(F) To undertake to—

(1) influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the Congress of the United States, or by any State or local legislative body; or

(2) improve the public image of an officer of the State or government.

(3) MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.—In accordance with guidance from the Secretary issued before, on, or after the date of enactment of the Coronavirus Relief Fund Unemployment Compensation of 2020, any amount from a payment made under this section to a State, Tribal government, or unit of local government under such clause, shall remain available until expended.

(A) To make a deposit into, or reimburse, any State or government fund that finances pensions or other postemployment benefits for current or former employees of the State or government.

(B) To satisfy any obligation or liability of the State or government with respect to a pension or other postemployment benefit fund, plan, or program for current or former employees of the State or government.

(C) To augment any amount paid, or benefit provided under, a pension or other postemployment benefit fund, plan, or program for current or former employees of the State or government.

(D) To make a deposit into, or reimburse, a withdrawal from, a budget stabilization fund, budget reserve account, or other ‘rainy day’ or reserve fund of the State or government established to provide a source of funding for operations of the State or government during a revenue downturn or other unanticipated shortfall and accounted for in the budget most recently approved as of March 27, 2020, for the State or government.

(E) To participate in litigation in which an officer of the State or government is a party in the State or national capacity.

(F) To undertake to—

(1) influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the Congress of the United States, or by any State or local legislative body; or

(2) improve the public image of an officer of the State or government.

(4) AVAILABILITY.—Funds paid or distributed under this section, or unit of local government under this section that is further amended—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Subparagraphs (3) and (4) of section 601(b)(2) of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136) are amended by inserting after paragraph (5) the following new paragraphs:

(6) LIMITATION ON ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS.—A State, Tribal government, or unit of local government shall not impose any condition, requirement, or restriction on a distribution to a locality of funds provided to the State or government under a payment made under this section other than as necessary to ensure the legality of the use of the funds distributed or to impose any limitation, restrictions, and requirements applicable under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of section 601(b)(2) of the CARES Act (in this section, referred to as a ‘State or government relief payment’).
(A) IN GENERAL.—Each recipient of a State or government relief payment (referred to in this section as a “recipient”) shall submit a report on the recipient’s use of such payment to the Inspector General of the Treasury using a portal designated by the Secretary for such purpose for each calendar quarter and period described in subparagraph (C). Such report shall include the following:

(i) The total amount of all State or government relief payments made to the recipient.

(ii) An itemized list of all projects or activities on which funds from such payments were expended or obligated, including, for each such project or activity:

(I) the name of the recipient project or activity;

(II) a description of the project or activity;

(III) the name of each business, consultant, or contractor used to facilitate the implementation or continuation of the project or activity; and

(IV) the amount of such funds expended or obligated.

(iii) Detailed information on—

(I) any loan issued using such funds;

(II) any contract or grant financed in whole or in part with such funds, including any contract with an entity described in clause (i) or (ii); and

(III) transfers of such funds made to other government entities;

(iv) any direct payments of such funds made to the recipient that equal or exceed $50,000.

(iv) Detailed information on the extent to which the recipient used a State or government relief payment made to fund operations due to a revenue shortfall, in accordance with subparagraph (B) of section 601(d)(1) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601(d)(1)), including—

(I) the total amount of funds from all such payments used for such purpose;

(II) the 1 or more revenue sources (such as taxes, fees, or another source of revenue) that contributed to such shortfall; and

(III) for each source identified in clause (ii), the amount of the reduction in revenue generated by such source over the period described in subparagraph (A)(ii) of such section.

(B) CERTIFICATION.—Each recipient shall certify that the information reported with respect to each quarter or period is true, accurate, and complete. Such certification shall contain a description of the recipient that has the legal authority to give assurances, make commitments, and enter into contracts on behalf of the recipient.

(C) REPORT DEADLINES.—A recipient shall report the data required under subparagraph (A)(i) and (ii) for the period beginning on March 1, 2020, and ending on June 30, 2020, not later than September 21, 2020; and

(ii) for each calendar quarter in the period that begins on March 1, 2020, and ends on September 30, 2020 (or, in the case of a recipient for which a date is determined under section 601(d)(1)(B)(iii) of the Social Security Act, the last day of the calendar quarter in which such date occurs), not later than later than 10 days after the end of the calendar quarter.

(3) RECORD RETENTION REQUIREMENTS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Each recipient and entity described in subparagraph (C) shall maintain, for not less than 5 years after date on which the recipient expends all funds from State or government relief payments paid to the recipient and shall make available to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Inspector General of the Department of the Treasury upon request, all documents and financial records of the recipient sufficient to establish the recipient’s compliance with section 601(d) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601(d)).

(B) SCOPE OF RECORDS.—The documents and records sufficient to establish a recipient’s compliance with such section may include—

(i) general ledgers and any subsidiary ledgers used to account for the receipt and disbursement of funds from all State or government relief payments paid to the recipient;

(ii) budget records of the recipient for 2019, 2020, and 2021;

(iii) payroll, time records and other human resources records, and financial records relating to costs incurred for payroll expenses related to addressing the public health emergency due to COVID–19 or other use of funds allowable under such section 601(d);

(iv) receipts of purchases made related to addressing the public health emergency due to COVID–19 or other use of funds allowable under such section 601(d);

(v) contracts and subcontracts entered into with funds from any State or government relief payment made to the recipient, and all documents related to such contracts or subcontracts;

(vi) grant agreements and subgrant agreements entered into with funds from any State or government relief payment made to the recipient, and all documents related to such agreements;

(vii) all documentation of reports, audits, and other monitoring of contractors, subcontractors, grantees, and subgrantees related to the use of funds from any State or government relief payment made to the recipient;

(viii) all documentation supporting performance outcomes (if any) of contracts, subcontracts, grants, or subgrants relating to the use of funds from any State or government relief payment made to the recipient;

(ix) all internal and external email and other electronic communications relating to the use of funds from any State or government relief payment made to the recipient; and

(x) all investigative files and inquiry reports (if any) relating to the use of funds from any State or government relief payment made to the recipient.

(C) ENTITIES DESCRIBED.—An entity described in this subparagraph is the any of the following:

(i) An entity that receives a grant or loan funded in whole or in part with funds from a State or government relief payment made to the recipient, and any contractor, subcontractor, or subgrantee of such entity.

(ii) An entity awarded a contract funded in whole or in part with funds from a State or government relief payment made to the recipient, and any subcontractor of such entity.

(iii) A governmental entity that receives a payment or transfer of funds that equals or exceeds $50,000, funded in whole or in part with funds from a State or government relief payment made to the recipient.

(4) QUARTERLY REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Using data compiled under paragraph (1), the Inspector General of the Department of the Treasury shall submit a report containing the information described in subparagraph (B) to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Finance of the Senate not later than October 1, 2020, and the 1st day of every third month beginning thereafter through January 1, 2021.

(B) Any report submitted under subparagraph (A) shall include data on the disbursement and use of funds from State or government relief payments, including with respect to grants and recipients of disbursements made—

(i) by States receiving such payments to—

(I) units of local government (as defined in section 601(g)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 801(g)(2))); and

(II) counties, municipalities, towns, townships, villages, parishes, boroughs, or other units of general government below the State level with a population that does not exceed 500,000; and

(ii) by the Secretary of the Treasury directly to units of local government (as so defined) under section 601(b)(2) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 801(b)(2)).

(SEC. 5.) STATE TAX CERTAINTY FOR EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES.

(a) LIMITATIONS ON WITHHOLDING AND TAXATION OF EMPLOYEE INCOME.

(1) IN GENERAL.—No part of the wages or other remuneration earned by an employee who is a resident of a taxing jurisdiction and performing employment duties in more than one taxing jurisdiction shall be subject to income tax in any taxing jurisdiction other than

(A) the taxing jurisdiction of the employee’s residence; and

(B) any other taxing jurisdiction within which the employee is present and performing employment duties for more than 50 calendar days during the calendar year in which the wages or other remuneration is earned.

(2) INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING.—Wages or other remuneration earned in any calendar year shall not be subject to income tax withholding and reporting requirements under paragraph (1)(B) unless the employee is subject to income tax in such taxing jurisdiction under paragraph (1). Income tax withholding and reporting requirements under paragraph (1)(B) shall apply to wages or other remuneration earned of the commencement date of employment duties in the taxing jurisdiction during the calendar year.

(3) OPERATING RULES.—For purposes of determining penalties related to an employee’s income tax withholding and reporting requirements with respect to any taxing jurisdiction—

(A) an employer may rely on an employee’s annual determination of the time expected to be spent by such employee in the performance of employment duties in the taxing jurisdictions in which the employee will perform such duties absent—

(i) the employer’s actual knowledge of the employee in making the determination; or

(ii) a determination between the employer and the employee to evade tax;

(B) except as provided in subparagraph (C), if records are maintained by an employer in the regular course of business that record the location at which an employee performs employment duties, such records shall not preclude an employee’s ability to rely on an employee’s determination under subparagraph (A); and

(C) notwithstanding subparagraph (B), if an employer, at its sole discretion, maintains time and attendance systems that track where the employee performs duties on a daily basis, data from the time and attendance system shall be used instead of the employee’s determination under subparagraph (A).

(4) DEFINITIONS AND SPECIAL RULES.—For purposes of this subsection:

(A) DAY.—

(i) Except as provided in clause (ii), an employee is considered present and performing employment duties within a taxing jurisdiction for more than 50 calendar days if the employee performs more than 50 calendar days of the employee’s employment duties within such taxing jurisdiction than in any other taxing jurisdiction during a year.

(ii) Employment duties performed in a resident taxing jurisdiction and in only one nonresident taxing jurisdiction... during one day, such employee shall be considered to have performed more of the employee's employment duties in the non-resident taxing jurisdiction than in the resident taxing jurisdiction on that day.

(ii) For purposes of this subparagraph, the portion of the day during which the employee is in transit shall not be considered in determining the location of an employee's performance of employment duties.

(B) EMPLOYEE.—

(I) IN GENERAL.—

(1) Definition.—Except as provided in subclause (II), the term "employee" has the meaning given such term in section 3212(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3212(d)), unless such term is defined by the taxing jurisdiction in which the employee's employment duties are performed, in which case the taxing jurisdiction's definition shall prevail.

(II) EXCEPTION.—The term "employee" shall not include a professional athlete, professional entertainer, qualified production employee, or certain public figures.

(ii) PROFESSIONAL ATHLETE.—The term "professional athlete" means a person who performs the personal or professional services in a commercial video production incentive program, provided that the wages or other remuneration are paid to such person for performing services in his or her capacity as a professional athlete.

(iii) QUALIFIED PRODUCTION EMPLOYEE.—The term "qualified production employee" means a person who performs production services of any nature directly in connection with a tax-
juring jurisdiction qualified, certified or approved film, television or other commercial video production for wages or other remuneration, provided that the wages or other remuneration are paid to such person for performing services in his or her capacity as a professional entertainer.

(iv) QUALIFIED PRODUCTION EMPLOYEE.—The term "qualified production employee" means a person who performs production services of any nature directly in connection with a tax-
juring jurisdiction qualified, certified or approved film, television or other commercial video production for wages or other remuneration, provided that the wages or other remuneration are paid to such person for performing services in his or her capacity as a professional entertainer.

(v) PUBLIC FIGURES.—The term "public figures" means persons of prominence who perform services for wages or other remuneration, or remuneration are paid to such person for services produced at a discrete event, in the nature of a spe-ch, public appearance, or similar event.

(C) EMPLOYER.—

(i) Definition.—The term "employer" has the meaning given such term in section 3401(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3401(d)), unless such term is defined by the taxing jurisdiction in which the employee's employment duties are performed, in which case the taxing jurisdiction's definition shall prevail.

(ii) PLACE OF RESIDENCE.—

(A) Status of employees during covered period.—Notwithstanding the application of law (a)(1) in the case of any employee who performs services in a taxing jurisdiction, with respect to any employee whose primary work location is within a tax-
juring jurisdiction and who is working remotely within another taxing jurisdiction during the covered period,

(i) as provided under subparagraph (B), any wages earned by such employee during such services, if such wages have been earned at the primary work location of such employee;

(ii) if an employer, at its sole discretion, maintains a system that tracks where such employee performs duties on a daily basis, wages earned by such employee may, at the election of such employer, be treated as earned at the location in which such duties were remotely performed.

(B) Status of employees during covered period.—Notwithstanding the application of law (a)(1) in the case of any employee who performs services in a taxing jurisdiction, with respect to any employee whose primary work location is within a tax-
juring jurisdiction and who is working remotely within another taxing jurisdiction during the covered period,

(i) as provided under subparagraph (B), any wages earned by such employee during such services, if such wages have been earned at the primary work location of such employee;

(ii) if an employer, at its sole discretion, maintains a system that tracks where such employee performs duties on a daily basis, wages earned by such employee may, at the election of such employer, be treated as earned at the location in which such duties were remotely performed.

(D) EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICABILITY.—

(i) In general.—

This section shall apply to calendar years beginning after December 31, 2021.

(ii) Effective date.—Subject to paragraph (3), this section shall apply to calendar years beginning after December 31, 2021.

(E) TERMINATION.—

Subsection (a) shall not apply to calendar years beginning after De-

shall be tolled during any period during which a claim is subject to an appeal under section 2719 of the Public Health Service Act, provided that, in the case of such an appeal by the provider, the patient is informed of such appeal. A group health plan or health insurance issuer that knows or should have known that denials of a claim would lead to noncompliance with respect to in-network facilities and practitioners to ensure that claims are adjudicated between the provider and the plan in order to facilitate facility and practitioner compliance with the requirements under section 2796(a) of the Public Health Service Act.

The periods described in subsections (a)(2), (d)(2), and (d)(3) shall be tolled during any period during which a claim is subject to an appeal under section 2719 of the Public Health Service Act, provided that, in the case of such an appeal by the provider, the patient is informed of such appeal. A group health plan that knows or should have known that denials of a claim would lead to noncompliance with providers with section 2796 of the Public Health Service Act or may be found to be in violation of this subpart.

SEC. 9816. TIMELY BILLS FOR PATIENTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—A group health plan shall apply the requirements of this section with respect to in-network facilities and practitioners to ensure that claims are adjudicated between the provider and the plan in order to facilitate facility and practitioner compliance with the requirements under section 2719 of the Public Health Service Act.

(b) CLARIFICATION.—Nothing in subsection (a) prohibits a provider and a group health plan from establishing in a contract the timeline for submission by either party to the other party of billing information, adjudication of the claim, and notification of the outcome, or any other coordination required between the provider and the plan necessary for meeting the deadline described in section 2796(a) of the Public Health Service Act.

(c) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit applicability of provisions under subsection (a) to the Department of Veterans Affairs.

SA 2556. Mr. ENZI submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the bill S. 178, to condemn gross human rights violations of the Communist Chinese regime against the Uighurs and other Turkic Muslims in Xinjiang, and calling for an end to arbitrary detention, torture, and harassment of these communities inside and outside China; which was ordered to lie on the table; as follows:

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. 9817. TIMELY BILLS FOR PATIENTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Part C of title XXVII of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 300gg-1 et seq.), is amended—

(A) by redesignating the second section 2794 (42 U.S.C. 300gg-95) (relating to uniform fraud and abuse referral format), as added by section 6603 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Public Law 111-148), as section 279E; and

(B) by adding at the end the following:

"(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall require—

(1) health care facilities, or in the case of practitioners providing services outside of such a facility, practitioners, to provide to a patient a list of services rendered to such patient during such visit, or health insurance group or individual health insurance coverage, to the patient as soon as practicable, but not later than 15 calendar days after discharge or date of visit; and

(2) subject to subsection (e), health care facilities and practitioners to furnish all bills reflecting claims adjudicated between the relevant provider and group health plan or health insurance group or individual health insurance coverage, to the patient as soon as practicable, but not later than 90 calendar days after discharge or date of visit.

(b) ADJUDICATION OF BILLS.—For purposes of meeting the requirements of subsection (a), in the case of services provided to an in-network facility or group or individual health insurance coverage—

(1) the health care facility, or in the case of a practitioner providing services outside of such a facility, the practitioner, shall submit to the applicable group health plan or health insurance group or individual health insurance coverage the bill, to the extent practicable, but not later than 30 calendar days after discharge or date of visit of the individual;

(2) a group health plan or health insurance issuer receiving a bill as described in paragraph (1) shall, not later than 30 calendar days after such bill is transmitted by the provider, the patient is informed of such appeal. A group health plan that knows or should have known that denials of a claim would lead to noncompliance with providers with section 2796 of the Public Health Service Act or may be found to be in violation of this chapter.

(c) CLERICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(A) ERISA.—The table of contents in section 1 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.), as amended by this section, is amended by redesignating the second section 2791 of the Public Health Service Act to cover determinations or claims subject to the requirements of this section. Any table of contents, subchapter (b) shall be tolled during any period during which a claim is subject to an appeal under section 2719 of the Public Health Service Act, provided that, in the case of such an appeal by the provider, the patient is informed of such appeal. A group health plan that knows or should have known that denials of a claim would lead to noncompliance with providers with section 2796 of the Public Health Service Act or may be found to be in violation of this chapter.

(B) IRC.—The table of sections for subchapter B of chapter 100 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by adding at the end the following new item:

"9815. Timely bills for patients."

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply beginning 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act.
SEC. 9816. TIMELY BILLS FOR PATIENTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—A group health plan shall have in place business practices with respect to in-network facilities and practitioners, or such other party to the other party of billing information, adjudication, sending of remittance information, or any other coordination required between the provider and the plan or plan necessary for meeting the requirements under section 2796(a).''

(c) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit applicability or the plan or issuer in order to facilitate those health plans subject to the requirements of this section. Any timeline established under subsection (b) shall be tolled during any period during which a claim is subject to an appeal under section 2719 of the Public Health Service Act, provided that, in the case of such an appeal, the patient is informed of such appeal. A group health plan or health insurance issuer that knows or should have known that denial of a claim would lead to noncompliance by providers with section 2796 of the Public Health Service Act may be found to be in violation of this chapter.

4. Clerical Amendments—
(A) ERISA.—The table of contents in section 1 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1185 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following:

(2) The term 'counterfeit device' means a device which, or the container, packaging, or labeling of which, without authorization, bears a trademark, trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, or symbol, or any likeness thereof, or is manufactured using a design, of a device manufacturer, packer, or distributor other than the person or persons who in fact manufactured, packed, or distributed such device and which thereby falsely purports or is represented to be the product of, or to have been packaged or distributed by, such device manufacturer, packer, or distributor.

5. Authority to Destroy Counterfeit Devices.

Mr. ENZI submitted an amendment intended to be proposed to amendment SA 2557 proposed by Mr. MCCONNELL to the bill S. 178, to condemn gross human rights violations of ethnic Turkic Muslims in Xinjiang, and calling for an end to arbitrary detention, torture, and harassment of these communities inside and outside China; which was ordered to lie on the table; as follows:

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. 3. AUTHORITY TO DESTROY COUNTERFEIT DEVICES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 381(a)) is amended—

(1) in the fourth sentence, by inserting 'counterfeit drug'; and

(2) by striking "The Secretary of the Treasury shall have in place business practices with respect to in-network facilities and practitioners, or such other party to the other party of billing information, adjudication, sending of remittance information, or any other coordination required between the provider and the plan or plan necessary for meeting the requirements under section 2796(a) of the Public Health Service Act" and inserting "counterfeit device" after "counterfeit drug"; and

SEC. 4. AUTHORITY TO DESTROY COUNTERFEIT DEVICES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 801(a) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 381(a)) is amended—

(1) in the fourth sentence, by inserting 'counterfeit device' after "counterfeit drug"; and

(b) the term "manufacturer" means a person who is engaged in any of the activities listed in clause (A)."
(2) by striking ‘‘The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause the destruction of’’ and all that follows through ‘‘liable for costs pur- suant to subsection (c),’’ and inserting the following: ‘‘The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause the destruction of any such article refused admission unless such article is exported, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, within 30 days after the date of notice of such refusal or within such additional time as may be permitted pursuant to such regulations, except that the Secretary of Health and Human Services may destroy, without the opportunity for ex- port, any drug or device refused admission under this section, if such drug or device is valued at $2,500 or less or such higher amount as the Secretary of the Treasury may set by regulation pursuant to section 498(a)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1498(a)(1)) and was not brought into compliance as described under subsection (b).’’ The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall issue regulations providing for notice and an opportunity to appear before the Secretary of Health and Human Services and introduce testimony, as described in the first sentence of this subsection, on destruc- tion of a drug or device under the seventh sentence of this subsection. The regulations shall provide that prior to destruction, ap- propriate due process is available to the owner and consignee to challenge the decision to destroy the drug or device. Where the Secretary of Health and Human Services provides notice and an opportunity to appear and introduce testimony on the destruction of a drug or device, the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall store and, as ap- plicable, dispose of the drug or device after the issuance of the notice, except that the owner and consignee shall remain liable for costs pursuant to subsection (c).’’

(b) DEFINITION.—Section 201(b) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 321(h)) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) as clauses (A), (B), and (C), respec- tively; and

(2) after making such redesignations—

(A) by striking ‘‘(b)’’ and inserting (‘‘b)(1)’’ the term ‘‘;’’ and (B) by adding the end the following:

‘‘(2) The term ‘counterfeit device’ means a device which, or the container, packaging, or labeling of which, without authorization, bears any name or trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, or symbol, or any likeness thereof, or is manufactured using a design of, a device manufacturer, packer, or distributor,”’

For purposes of paragraph (2)—

(A) the term ‘manufactured’ refers to any of the following activities: manufacture, preparation, propagation, compounding, as- sembling, processing, and

(B) the term ‘manufacturer’ means a per- son who is engaged in any of the activities listed in clause (A).’’

(I) $500.

(II) $600.

(III) For weeks of unemployment beginning after the last week under clause (ii) and ending before December 31, 2020, an amount equal to one of the following:

(aa) 80 percent of the individual’s average weekly wages; minus

(bb) the individual’s base amount (deter- mined prior to any reductions or offsets).

(bb) If proposed by the State as an alter- native to subsection (C) and approved by the Secretary, an amount that results in the sum of the base amount and the amount of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation under this section being on aver- age equal to 80 percent of the individual’s average weekly wages.

(B) WAIVER TO PROVIDE FLAT DOLLAR AMOUNT.—If a State determines that it is un- able to calculate amounts under either sub- clause (I) or (II) of subparagraph (A)(iv), the State may apply to the Secretary for a waiv- er under which the amount specified under subparagraph (A)(iv) shall be $300 rather than the amount calculated under such sub- clause (I) or (II).

(C) BASE AMOUNT.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘base amount’ means—

(i) for weeks of unemployment under the pandemic unemployment assistance program under section 2104 of such Act determined under subsection (d)(1)(A)(i) or (d)(2) of such section 2106, as applicable; or

(ii) for all other weeks of unemployment, the amount determined under paragraph (1)(A) of this subsection.

(D) AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGES.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Subject to clause (i), for purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘aver- age weekly wages’ means, with respect to an individual, the following:

(II) The State computes the individual weekly unemployment compensation benefit amount based on an individual’s average weekly wages in a base period, an amount equal to the individual’s average weekly wages used in such computation.

(ii) If the State computes the individual weekly unemployment compensation benefit amount based on high quarter wages or a for- mula using wages across some but not all quarters in a base period, an amount equal to one of such high quarter wages or average weekly wages of the applicable quarters used in the computation for the individual.

(III) If the State uses computations other than the computations under subclause (I) or (II) for the individual weekly unemployment compensation benefit amount, or for com- putations of the weekly benefit amount under the pandemic unemployment assist- ance program under section 2102, as de- scribed in subsection (d)(1)(A)(i) or (d)(2) of such section 2102, for which subclause (I) or (II) do not apply, such amount shall be equal to 1⁄52 of the sum of all base period wages.

(ii) SPECIAL RULE.—If more than one of the methods of computation under sub- clause (I), (II), and (III) are applicable to a State, then such term shall mean the amount determined under the applicable subclause of clause (i) that results in the highest amount of average weekly wages.”

(B) TECHNICAL AMENDMENT REGARDING AP- Plication to Short-Time Compensation Pro- grams and Agreements.—Section 2104(i)(2) of the Relief for Workers Affected by Coronavirus Act (contained in subtitle A of title II of division A of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136)) is amended by adding at the end:

‘‘(D) short-time compensation program under sec- tion 2108 or 2109.’’

(2) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(A) PANDEMIC UNEMPLOYMENT ASSIST- ANCE.—Section 2102(d) of the Relief for Work- ers Affected by Coronavirus Act (contained in subtitle A of title II of division A of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136)) is amended by inserting ‘‘with respect to the individual’’ after ‘‘section 2104’’ in each of paragraphs (1)(A)(ii) and (2).

(B) PANDEMIC EMERGENCY UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION.—Section 2107 of the Relief for Workers Affected by Coronavirus Act (con- tained in subtitle A of title II of division A of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136)) is amended—

(i) in subsection (a)(4)(A)(ii), by inserting ‘‘with respect to the individual’’ after ‘‘section 2104’’; and

(ii) in subsection (b)(2), by inserting ‘‘with respect to the individual’’ after ‘‘section 2104’’.

(C) CONSISTENT TREATMENT OF EARNINGS AND UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION.—Section 2102(a)(1) of the Relief for Workers Affected by Coronavirus Act (contained in subtitle A of title II of division A of the CARES Act (Public Law 116–136)) is amended by adding at the end the following new sentence: ‘‘The pre- ceding sentence shall not apply to any Fed- eral Pandemic Unemployment Compensation payments for any week of unemployment ending on or after October 5, 2020.’’

COVERAGE OF PRESCRIPTION DIGITAL THERAPEUTICS UNDER THE MEDI-CARE PROGRAM.

(a) COVERAGE.—

(1) In General.—The term ‘prescription digital therapeutic’ means a product, device, internet application, or other technology that—

(A) is approved or cleared by the Food and Drug Administration under a relevant authority (within the meaning of paragraph (2));

(B) has an approved indication for the prevention, management, or treatment of a mental health or substance use disorder, including opioid use disorder;

(C) uses behavioral treatment or modification to achieve its intended result; and

(D) can only be dispensed pursuant to a prescription.

(2) RELEVANT AUTHORITY DEFINED.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘relevant authority’ means the following sections of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act:

(A) Section 510(k) of such Act (21 U.S.C. 360(k));

(B) Section 515 of such Act (21 U.S.C. 360e);

(C) PAYMENT FOR PRESCRIPTION DIGITAL THERAPEUTICS.—Section 1834 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395m) is amended by adding at the end the following new subsection:

(1) PAYMENT FOR PRESCRIPTION DIGITAL THERAPEUTICS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish a payment for a prescription digital therapeutic; and

(B) DEVELOPMENT OF FEE SCHEDULE.—

(1) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—No provision of this section, or the enactment of this section, shall be construed to imply that, in the case of an item or service that meets the definition of a prescription digital therapeutic under this section for which coverage or payment under the Medicare program is already available prior to the date of the enactment of this Act, the item or service may not be covered or reimbursed under such program.

(2) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to a prescription digital therapeutic dispensed after December 31, 2020.

(2) in paragraph (16), by adding at the end the following new subparagraph:

“(G) ACCESS TO NON-OPIOID TREATMENTS FOR PAIN.—

(i) In general.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, with respect to a covered OPD service (or group of services) furnished on or after January 1, 2020, the Secretary shall not package, and shall make a separate payment as specified in clause (ii) for, a non-opioid treatment (as defined in clause (iii)) furnished as part of such service (or group of services).

(ii) Amount of payment.—The amount of the payment specified in this clause is, with respect to a non-opioid treatment that is—

(I) a drug or biological product, the amount of payment for such drug or biological determined under section 1877A; or

(II) a medical device, the amount of the hospital’s charges for the device, adjusted to cost.

(iii) Definition of non-opioid treatment.—A ‘non-opioid treatment’ means—

(I) a drug or biological product that is indicated to produce analgesia without acting upon the body’s opioid receptors; or

(II) an implant, reusable, or disposable medical device cleared or approved by the Administrator for Food and Drugs for the intended use of managing or treating pain; that has demonstrated the ability to replace or reduce opioid consumption in a clinical trial or through clinical data published in a peer-reviewed journal.

(b) AMBULATORY SURGICAL CENTER PAYMENT SYSTEM.—Section 1395d(2)(D) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395m(2)(D)) is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(2) by redesignating clause (vi) as clause (vii); and

(c) MEDICAID SERVICES FOR PAIN MANAGEMENT.—

(1) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Health and Human Services (in this subsection referred to as the “Secretary”), acting through the Administrator of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, shall submit to Congress a report identifying—

(A) limitations, gaps, barriers to access, or deficits in Medicare coverage or reimbursement for restorative therapies, behavioral approaches, and complementary and integrative health services that are identified in the Pain Management Best Practices Inter-Agency Task Force Report, and that have demonstrated the ability to replace or reduce opioid consumption; and

(B) recommendations to address the limitations, gaps, barriers to access, or deficits in Medicare coverage or reimbursement for such therapies, approaches, and services.

(2) CONSULTATION.—In completing the report described in paragraph (1), the Secretary shall consult with relevant stakeholders as determined appropriate by the Secretary.

(3) EXCLUSIVE TREATMENT.—Any drug, biological product, or medical device that is a non-opioid treatment under paragraph (2)(E) (as defined in section 1833(1)(B)(ii)(III) of the Social Security Act, as added by subsection (a)) shall not be considered a therapeutic service for the purpose of the report described in paragraph (1).

(b) USE OF INFORMATION.—The Secretary may use reliable non-governmental sources of information in assessing the impact of Medicare services described in subparagraph (A) under the study.
(1) INTERIM PROVISION OF INFORMATION.—The Secretary shall, as determined appropriate, periodically during such emergency period, post on the internet website of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid services data on utilization of telehealth and other virtual services under the Medicare program and the impact of characteristics described in such utilization.

(ii) REPORT.—Not later than 15 months after date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to Congress a report on the study and the relevant subpoena power, together with recommendations for such legislation and administrative action as the Secretary determines appropriate.

SA 2564. Mr. MORAN submitted an amendment intended to be proposed to amendment SA 2499 proposed by Mr. MCCONNELL to the bill S. 178, to concur in the Senate amendment to the House amendment, striking clause (i) and inserting the following:

(i) SEC. 202. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES. (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The SARS-CoV-2 virus that originated in China and causes the disease COVID-19 has caused untold misery and devastation throughout the world, including in the United States.

(2) For months, frontline health care workers and health care facilities have fought the virus with courage and resolve. They did so at first with very little information about how to fight it. They learned that, in addition to small business concerns, any business concern, nonprofit organization, veterans organization, or Tribal business concern described in section 3(a)(5)(B) employs not more than the greater of—

(1) 500 employees; or

(2) if applicable, the size standard in number of employees established by the Administration for the industry in which the business concern, nonprofit organization, veterans organization, or Tribal business concern is located.

(II) is as described in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 3(a)(5)(B).

(b) PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM. Section 7(a)(36)(D) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(36)(D)) is amended by inserting before the period "as well as" the following:

(TITLE II—SAFE TO WORK

SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE. This title may be cited as the “Safe Guarding America’s Frontline Employees To Offer Work Opportunities Required to Kickstart the Economy Act” or the “SAFE TO WORK Act.”

SEC. 202. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES. (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The SARS-CoV-2 virus that originated in China and causes the disease COVID-19 has caused untold misery and devastation throughout the world, including in the United States.
precisely the sort of conduct that should be subject to congressional regulation.

(18) Lawsuits against health care workers and facilities pose a similarly dangerous risk to interstate commerce. Interstate commerce will not truly rebound from this crisis until the virus is defeated, and that will not happen unless health care workers and facilities are not vigorously sued and treated patients with coronavirus and those otherwise impacted by the response to coronavirus.

(19) Specifying health care workers and facilities to onerous litigation even as they have done their level best to combat a virus about which very little was known when it arrived in the United States would undermine important health care resources from hospitals and providers to courtrooms.

(20) Such a diversion would substantially affect interstate commerce by degrading the national capacity for combating the virus and saving patients, thereby substantially elongating the period before interstate commerce could fully re-engage.

(21) Congress also has the authority to determine the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States, to set the standards for causes of action that can be heard, and to establish the rules by which those causes of action should proceed. Congress therefore must act to set rules governing liability in coronavirus-related lawsuits.

(22) These rules necessarily must be temporary and carefully tailored to the interstate crisis caused by the coronavirus pandemic. They must extend no further than necessary to meet this uniquely national crisis for which a patchwork of State and local tort laws are ill-suited.

(23) Because Congress must safeguard the investment of taxpayer dollars made in the CARES Act and other coronavirus legislation so that they are used for their intended purposes and not diverted for other purposes, establishing temporary rules governing liability for coronavirus-related tort claims is a necessary and proper means of carrying into execution Congress’s power to regulate commerce among the several States.

(24) Because Congress must safeguard the investment of taxpayer dollars made in the CARES Act and other coronavirus legislation so that they are used for their intended purposes and not diverted for other purposes, establishing temporary rules governing liability for coronavirus-related tort claims is a necessary and proper means of carrying into execution Congress’s power to regulate commerce among the several States.

(25) As such, pursuant to the powers delegated to Congress by article I, section 8, clauses 1, 3, 9, and 18, and article III, section 2, clause 1 of the Constitution of the United States, the purposes of this title are to—

(1) establish necessary and consistent standards for litigating certain claims specific to the unique coronavirus pandemic;

(2) prevent the overburdening of the court systems with undue litigation;

(3) encourage planning, care, and appropriate risk management by small and large businesses, schools, colleges and universities, religious, philanthropic and other non-profit institutions, local government agencies, and health care providers;

(4) ensure that the Nation’s recovery from the coronavirus economic crisis is not burdened or slowed by the substantial risk of litigation;

(5) prevent litigation brought to extract settlements and enrich trial lawyers rather than vindicate meritorious claims;

(6) protect interstate commerce from the burdensome and unreasonable virus-related litigation; and

(7) ensure the economic recovery proceeds without artificial and unnecessary delay;

(8) protect the interests of the taxpayers by ensuring that emergency taxpayer support continues to aid businesses, workers, and health care providers rather than enrich trial lawyers;

(9) protect the highest and best ideals of the national economy, so businesses can produce and serve their customers, workers can work, teachers can teach, students can learn, and believers can worship.

SEC. 203. DEFINITIONS.

In this title:

(1) APPLICABLE GOVERNMENT STANDARDS AND GUIDANCE.—The term "applicable government standards and guidance" means—

(A) any mandatory standards or regulations specifically concerning the prevention or mitigation of transmission of coronavirus issued by the Federal Government, or a State or local government with jurisdiction over an individual or entity, whether provided by executive, judicial, or legislative order; and

(B) with respect to an individual or entity that, at the time of the actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus is not subject to any mandatory standards or regulations described in subparagraph (A), any guidance, standards, or regulations specifically concerning the prevention or mitigation of transmission of coronavirus issued by the Federal Government, or a State or local government with jurisdiction over the individual or entity.

(2) BUSINESSES, SERVICES, ACTIVITIES, OR ACCOMMODATIONS.—The term "businesses, services, activities, or accommodations" means any act or business, service, activity, or accommodation that involves persons or things in interstate or foreign commerce, that involves the channels or instrumentalities of interstate or foreign commerce, that substantially affects interstate or foreign commerce, or that is otherwise an act subject to regulation by Congress as necessary and proper to carry into execution Congress’s powers to regulate interstate or foreign commerce or to spend funds for the general welfare.

(3) CORONAVIRUS.—The term "coronavirus" means any disease, health condition, or threat of harm caused by the SARS-CoV-2 virus or a virus mutating therefrom.

(4) CORONAVIRUS EXPOSURE ACTION.—

(A) In general.—The term "coronavirus exposure action" means a civil action—

(i) brought by a person who suffered personal injury or who suffered personal injury or is at risk of suffering personal injury; (ii) brought against an individual or entity engaged in businesses, services, activities, or accommodations; and

(ii) alleging that an actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus resulted in the personal injury alleged;

(I) occurred in the course of the businesses, services, activities, or accommodations of the individual or entity; and

(II) occurred—

(aa) on or after December 1, 2019; and

(bb) before the later of—

(1) the date on which there is no declaration by the Secretary of Health and Human Services under section 319F–3(c)(b) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 247d–6(b)(b)) (relating to covered countermeasures) that is in effect with respect to coronavirus, including the Declaration Under the Public Readiness and Emergency Preparedness Act for Medical Countermeasures Against COVID–19 (85 Fed. Reg. 15198) issued by the Secretary of Health and Human Services on March 17, 2020.

(B) EXCLUSIONS.—The term "coronavirus-related medical liability action" does not include—

(i) a criminal, civil, or administrative enforcement action brought by the Federal Government or any State, local, or Tribal government; or

(ii) a claim alleging intentional discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex (including pregnancy), disability, genetic information, or age.

(8) EMPLOYER.—The term "employer"—

(A) means any person serving as an employer or acting directly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employer; and

(B) includes a public agency; and

(C) does not include any labor organization (other than when acting as an employer) or any person acting in the capacity of officer or agent of such labor organization.
The term “government” means an agency, instrumentality, or other entity of the Federal Government, a State government (including multijurisdictional agencies, instrumentalities, and entities), a local government, or a Tribal government.

The term “gross negligence” means a conscious, voluntary act or omission in reckless disregard of—

(A) a legal duty;

(B) the consequences to another party; and

(C) applicable government standards and guidance.

The term “harm” includes—

(A) physical and nonphysical contact that results in personal injury to an individual; and

(B) economic and noneconomic losses.

The term “health care provider” means any person, including an agent, volunteer (subject to subparagraph (C)), contractor, employee, or other entity, who—

(i) required by Federal or State law to be licensed, registered, or certified to provide health care and is so licensed, registered, or certified (or is exempt from any such requirement);

(ii) otherwise authorized by Federal or State law to provide care (including services and supplies that are provided in a home or community-based residential setting under the State Medicaid program or a waiver of that program); or

(iii) considered under applicable Federal or State law to be a health care provider, health care professional, health care institution, or health care facility.

The term “health care facility” includes health care facility administration, supervisory, board member or trustee, or another individual responsible for directing, supervising, or monitoring the provision of coronavirus-related health care services in a comparable role.

The term “volunteer” includes volunteers that meet the following criteria—

(i) The volunteer is a health care professional providing coronavirus-related health care services.

(ii) The act or omission by the volunteer occurs—

(I) in the course of providing health care services;

(II) in the course of providing health care services that—

(aa) do not exceed the scope of the license, registration, or certification of the volunteer, as defined by the State of licensure, registration, or certification; and

(bb) not exceed the scope of license, registration, or certification of a substantially similar health professional in the State in which such act or omission occurs; and

(iii) is a good-faith belief that the individual being treated is in need of health care services.

The term “individual or entity” means—

(A) any natural person, corporation, company, trade, business, firm, partnership, joint stock company, educational institution, labor organization, or similar organization or group of organizations;

(B) any nonprofit organization, foundation, society, or association organized for religious, charitable, educational, or other purposes; or

(C) any State, Tribal, or local government.

The term “local government” means any unit of government within a State, including a—

(A) county;

(B) borough;

(C) municipality;

(D) city;

(E) town;

(F) township;

(G) parish;

(H) local public authority, including any public housing agency under the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437 et seq.);

(i) special district;

(j) school district;

(k) intrastate district;

(L) council of governments, whether or not an agency or instrumentality of—

(m) multiple units of local government (including units of local government located in different States); or

(n) an intra-State unit of local government.

Personal injury.—The term “personal injury” means—

(A) actual or potential physical injury to an individual or death caused by a physical injury; and

(B) includes mental suffering, emotional distress, or similar injuries suffered by an individual in connection with a physical injury.

Subtitle A—Liability Relief

Part I—Liability Limitations for Individuals and Entities Engaged in Businesses, Services, Activities, or Accommodations

Sec. 211. Application of Part.

(a) Class of Action—Tribal Sovereign Immunity.—

(1) Cause of Action.—

(A) in general.—This part creates an exclusive cause of action for coronavirus exposure actions.

(B) liability.—A plaintiff may prevail in a coronavirus exposure action in accordance with the requirements of this subtitle.

(C) application.—The provisions of this part shall apply to—

(i) any coronavirus exposure action filed on or after such date of enactment.

(ii) any coronavirus exposure action filed before the date of enactment of this Act and that is pending on such date of enactment; and

(iii) any coronavirus exposure action filed on or after such date of enactment.

(2) preservation of liability limits and defenses.—Except as expressly provided in this part, nothing in this part expands any liability otherwise imposed or limits any defense otherwise available under Federal, State, or Tribal law.

(3) immunity.—Nothing in this part abrogates the immunity of any State, or waives the immunity of any Tribal government. The limitations on liability provided under this part shall control in any action properly filed against a State or Tribal government pursuant to a duly executed waiver by the State or Tribe of sovereign immunity and stating claims within the scope of this subtitle.

(b) preemption and superseding.—

(1) in general.—Except as described in paragraphs (2) through (17), this part preempts and supersedes any Federal, State, or Tribal law, including statutes, regulations, rules, or standards that are enacted, promulgated, or established under common law, related to recovery for personal injuries caused by actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus.

(2) superseder.—Nothing in this part shall be construed to affect the applicability of any provision of any Federal, State, or Tribal law that imposes standards or regulations, rules, or guidelines, or establishes a workers’ compensation scheme or program, or otherwise affords greater protection to defendants in any coronavirus exposure action, than are provided in this part. Any such provision of Federal, State, or Tribal law shall be applied in addition to the requirements of this part and not in lieu thereof.

(3) workers’ compensation laws not preempts or supersedes.—This part shall be construed to affect the applicability of any State or Tribal law providing for a workers’ compensation scheme or program, or any State or Tribal law that imposes standards or regulations, rules, or guidelines, or establishes a workers’ compensation scheme or program, or otherwise affords greater protection to defendants in any coronavirus exposure action, than are provided in this part. Any such provision of Federal, State, or Tribal law shall be applied in addition to the requirements of this part and not in lieu thereof.

(4) enforcement actions.—Nothing in this part shall be construed to impair, limit, or affect the authority of the Federal Government, or of any State, local, or Tribal government, to bring any criminal, civil, or administrative enforcement action against any individual or entity.

(5) discrimination claims.—Nothing in this part shall be construed to affect the applicability of any provision of any Federal, State, or Tribal law that creates a cause of action for intentional discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex (including pregnancy), disability, genetic information, or age.

(6) maintenance and care.—Nothing in this part shall be construed to affect a man’s right to claim maintenance and care benefits.

(7) statute of limitations.—A coronavirus exposure action may not be commenced in any Federal, State, or Tribal court on or after the date of the actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus.
SEC. 212. LIABILITY; SAFE HARBOR.

(a) REQUIREMENTS FOR LIABILITY FOR EXPOSURE TO CORONAVIRUS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as otherwise provided in this part or any other Federal, State, or Tribal law, no individual or entity engaged in businesses, services, activities, or accommodations shall be liable in any coronavirus-related medical liability action filed on or after such date of enactment for the acts or omissions of any third party, unless—

(1) the individual or entity was subject, the individual or entity did not make reasonable efforts in light of all the circumstances to comply with the applicable government standards and guidance for purposes of subsection (a)(1) unless the plaintiff establishes by clear and convincing evidence that—

(i) the individual or entity was not making reasonable efforts in light of all the circumstances to comply with the applicable government standards and guidance issued by 1 or more of the governments constituting applicable government standards and guidance issued by 1 or more of the governments conflicting with the applicable government standards and guidance issued by 1 or more of the governments, the individual or entity shall be required to have made reasonable efforts in light of all the circumstances to comply with the applicable standards and guidance issued by any government to whose jurisdiction the individual or entity is subject.

(ii) any other provision of law that imposes stricter limits on damages or liabilities for personal injury caused by, relates to, or is in any way associated with an omission by a health care provider in the course of arranging for or providing coronavirus-related health care services, or otherwise affords greater protection to defendants in any coronavirus-related medical liability action than are provided in this part. Any such provision of Federal, State, or Tribal law shall be applied in addition to the requirements of this part and not in lieu thereof.

(b) EXCEPTIONS.—For purposes of subsection (a)(1), a change to a policy or practice by an individual or entity before or after the actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus shall not be evidence of liability for the actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus.

(c) THIRD PARTIES.—No individual or entity shall be held liable in a coronavirus exposure action for the acts or omissions of a third party, unless—

(1) the individual or entity had an obligation under general common law principles to control the acts or omissions of the third party; or

(2) the third party was an agent of the individual or entity.

(d) MITIGATION.—Changes to the policies, practices, procedures, or standards of an individual or entity for complying with the applicable government standards and guidance after the time of the actual, alleged, feared, or potential for exposure to coronavirus shall not be considered evidence of liability or culpability.

PART II.—LIABILITY LIMITATIONS FOR HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS

SEC. 221. APPLICATION OF PART.

(a) IN GENERAL.—(1) PROOF OF FAULT.—(A) IN GENERAL.—This part creates an exclusive cause of action for coronavirus-related medical liability actions.

(B) LIABILITY.—A plaintiff may prevail in a coronavirus-related medical liability action only in accordance with the requirements of this subtitle.

(C) APPLICATION.—The provisions of this part shall apply to—

(i) any cause of action that is a coronavirus-related medical liability action that was filed before the date of enactment of this Act and that is pending on such date of enactment; and

(ii) any coronavirus-related medical liability action filed on or after such date of enactment.

(2) PRESERVATION OF LIABILITY LIMITS AND DEFENSES.—Except as otherwise explicitly provided in this part, nothing in this part expands any liability otherwise imposed or limits any defense otherwise available under Federal, State, or Tribal law.

(3) IMMUNITY.—Nothing in this part abrogates the immunity of any State, or waives the immunity of any Tribal government. The limitations on liability provided under this part shall be applied in a Federal rule applicable to a civil action brought for a vaccine-related injury or death, this part does not affect the application of that rule to such an action.

(b) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—A coronavirus-related medical liability action may not be commenced in any Federal, State, or Tribal court more than 1 year after the date of the alleged harm, damage, breach, or tort, unless tolled for—

(1) proof of fraud;

(2) intentional concealment; or

(3) the presence of a latent body, which has no therapeutic or diagnostic purpose or effect, in the person of the injured person.

SEC. 222. LIABILITY FOR HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS AND HEALTH CARE FACILITIES DURING CORONAVIRUS PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY.

(a) REQUIREMENTS FOR LIABILITY FOR CORONAVIRUS-RELATED HEALTH CARE SERVICES.—(1) EXCEPT—Except as described in paragraphs (2) through (6), this part preempt[s] any State or Tribal law, including statutes, regulations, rules, or standards that are enacted, promulgated, or established under common law, regarding protection of health care providers in the course of arranging for or providing coronavirus-related health care services.

(b) STRICHER LAWS NOT PREEMPTED OR SUPERSEDED.—Nothing in this part shall be construed to affect the applicability of any provision of any Federal, State, or Tribal law that imposes stricter limits on damages or liabilities for personal injury caused by, relates to, or is in any way associated with an omission by a health care provider in the course of arranging for or providing coronavirus-related health care services.
PART III—SUBSTANTIVE AND PROCEDURAL PROVISIONS FOR CORONAVIRUS-RELATED ACTIONS

SEC. 201. JURISDICTION.

(a) JURISDICTION.—The district courts of the United States shall have concurrent original jurisdiction of any coronavirus-related action filed in or removed to a district court of the United States in accordance with section 1446 of title 28, United States Code, except that—

Overcoming Barriers to Adoption of Composites in Sustainable Infrastructure, as appropriate, to help facilitate the adoption of composite technology in infrastructure in the United States. In implementing such recommendations, the Secretary, acting through the Director shall, with respect to the use of composite technology in infrastructure—

(1) not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, develop a design for a data clearinghouse to identify, gather, validate, and disseminate existing design criteria, tools, evaluation methods and services, guidelines, and standards in a timely manner;

(2) not later than 18 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, establish the data clearinghouse described in paragraph (1);

(3) when it would not duplicate or displace building product-specific private sector developed methods and resources, develop methods and resources for testing and evaluating safe and appropriate uses of composite materials for infrastructure, including—

(A) conditioning protocols, procedures and models;

(B) screening and acceptance tools; and

(C) minimum allowable design data sets that can be converted into design tools; and

(4) work with other Federal agencies, as appropriate, to identify environmental impacts and recyclability of composite materials.

(b) STANDARDS COORDINATION.—The Secretary, acting through the Director, shall assure that the appropriate Institute staff consult regularly with standards developers, evaluation and accreditation bodies, members of the composites industry, institutions of higher education, and other stakeholders in order to facilitate the adoption of standards for use of composite materials in infrastructure that are based on the research and testing results and other information developed by the Institute.

(c) PILOT PROGRAM.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to the availability of appropriations, commencing not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology shall, in consultation with the Industry-University Cooperative Research Centers Program of the National Science Foundation, conduct a pilot program to assess the feasibility and advisability of adopting composite technology in sustainable infrastructure.

(2) DURATION.—The Director shall carry out the pilot program during the 4-year period beginning on the date of the commencement of the pilot program.

(3) REPORTS.

(A) PRELIMINARY REPORT.—Not later than the date that is 2 years after the date of the commencement of the pilot program, the Director shall submit to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology of the House of Representatives a report on the preliminary findings of the Director with respect to the pilot program.

(B) FINAL REPORT.—Not later than the date that is 90 days after the date of the completion of the pilot program, the Director shall submit to the committees referred to in subparagraph (A) a report on the findings of the Director with respect to the pilot program.

The bill (S. 384), as amended, was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, was read the third time, and passed.

HONORING FREDERICK WILLIAM RUSTEBERG
HON. FILEMON VELA OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Mr. VELA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to the extraordinary life of Frederick William Rusteberg of Brownsville, Texas. Mr. Rusteberg played an instrumental role in the economic and educational development of the Brownsville community.

Born in Brownsville, Texas, on July 1, 1946, Mr. Rusteberg attended Brownsville High School and then Texas A&M University, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in finance. He later attended Texas Tech University, where he completed his graduate studies and met his future wife, Frances Hill.

In his youth he trained as a Huey helicopter pilot and served in the U.S. Army as a First Lieutenant in South Korea. He later returned to Brownsville where he worked as the assistant Port Director at the Port of Brownsville. He then went on to become the Vice-President at First National Bank, and in 1984, became the founding President and CEO of IBC Bank in Brownsville, where he served for over 35 years until his retirement.

Mr. Rusteberg was not only a successful businessman; he was also a respected leader in his community. He served on many academic and city boards throughout his career where he helped to build the city of Brownsville’s economy and raise millions of dollars to support education in the Rio Grande Valley. His family established the first scholarship endowment at the University of Texas at Brownsville, now known as the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley.

Mr. Rusteberg was a man of great character who helped inspire and motivate those around him. In an interview with UT Brownsville Mr. Rusteberg said, “I believe we have a certain amount of control over our destiny—you can either sit by and watch things happen, or you can help make them happen.” Mr. Rusteberg made great things happen.

Mr. Rusteberg is survived by his loving wife Frances, his children William (Tammy) Rusteberg and Liz Rusteberg (Chad) Hainley, his two grandchildren Jessie and William Hainley, and his sisters Joy (Bill) Burns and June (Adolph) Dittman.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the life of Mr. Frederick William Rusteberg. He will be remembered as a great banker, a great boss, a great mentor and a great friend. He was a fundamental part of the South Texas community and his legacy will forever be remembered. I join his family in honoring his exemplary life.

INTRODUCTION OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURTS IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 2020

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON
OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, today, I introduce the District of Columbia Courts Improvement Act of 2020. This bill would make several important changes to improve the operations of the D.C. Courts.

First, this bill would eliminate the consent requirement for D.C. Superior Court magistrate judges in certain situations. Currently, consent from the parties involved is required for a magistrate judge to perform duties in the Civil, Criminal and Probate Divisions of the Superior Court. Removing this requirement from the Civil and Probate Divisions in certain matters will further the efficiency of the judicial process. The bill also authorizes magistrate judges to issue search and arrest warrants and gives all magistrate judges contempt authority.

Next, the bill updates several aspects of juror service in the Superior Court. First, it ties Superior Court juror pay to the pay jurors receive in federal court. Currently, the Board of Judges of the Superior Court has authority to set the pay of jurors, but it is capped at the rate paid to federal jurors. Despite this, Superior Court jurors are currently paid less than federal jurors. The bill also modernizes juror summonses by allowing jurors to complete the questionnaire electronically, which will save the court money on postage and staff time. The bill further allows jurors who are 70 years old or older to be excused from jury service if the individual so chooses.

The bill also makes improvements for the employees of the courts. D.C. Courts non-judicial employees and Public Defender Service (PDS) employees are deemed to be federal employees for the purposes of early retirement provisions in federal law, but the Courts and PDS do not currently have the permanent authority to make voluntary separation incentive payments or “buyouts”—to employees who separate by voluntary retirement or by resignation, unlike the authority possessed by federal executive and judicial branches. The D.C. Courts and PDS currently have this authority in fiscal year 2020 under the fiscal year 2020 District of Columbia Appropriations bill, but this bill would provide permanent authority.

Next, this bill allows the District of Columbia Courts to pay attorneys appointed to represent indigent defendants in criminal proceedings and indigent children in delinquency and need of supervision proceedings up to the amount currently allowed in federal court. The D.C. Courts’ current rate has not been updated in eight years. and is $42 per hour less than the federal rate. Similarly, the bill eliminates the $25 hourly rate fixed rate for D.C. Criminal Justice Act investigators. Federal investigators in D.C. are currently paid $65 an hour, and up to $75 an hour in death penalty and other complex cases.

This bill also would move the appointment and removal of the Register of Wills (ROW) and supervisory responsibilities from the Superior Court and the Chief Judge of the Superior Court; respectively, to the Executive Officer of the D.C. Courts. This change would provide the Executive Officer oversight of the personnel for the entire Probate Division, including the ROW, which will improve efficiency in making personnel decisions and in the overall administration of the Probate Division.

While both the federal government and the District of Columbia government have statutory authority to give retroactive pay increase to employees on board at the time the increase is ordered and to employees who have retired (not resigned) or died between the date the increase becomes effective and the date it is ordered, the D.C. Courts do not have this authority. This bill corrects this deficiency.

The bill also makes corrections to portions of the D.C. Code that reference the Domestic Violence Division where it still refers to its old name, the Domestic Violence Unit, and updates the title 11 of the D.C. Code references individuals with intellectual disabilities.

Under the Home Rule Act, Congress has exclusive jurisdiction over title 11 of the D.C. Code (relating to organization and jurisdiction of the local D.C. Courts). Because of this, in recent history, legislation to improve the operations of the D.C. Courts has been enacted into law every few years. I hope this bill will likewise be adopted, and hopefully in a bipartisan manner.

I urge my colleagues to support this important bill.

RECOGNIZING CLARKDALE POLICE OFFICER CARLOS GODINA

HON. PAUL A. GOSAR
OF ARIZONA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Mr. GOSAR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the valor of Clarkdale, Arizona Police Officer Carlos Godina on February 27, 2020. Officer Godina’s selfless action in the midst of a confusing and dangerous scene relieved a family in deep distress.

Responding to a medical call, Officer Godina arrived at a crime scene after a suspect had attacked a grandmother and her grandchild with a blunt object. In fact, shortly after arriving, the suspect charged Officer Godina with the same object, forcing Godina to use nonlethal force to push the suspect inside and away from the woman.

It was this time that Officer Godina learned the injured child was also inside the home, and without hesitation, he rushed into the house, again confronted by the suspect who was now also wielding a butcher knife. Determining that the child was in a critical state, Godina called upon the suspect to submit to custody so the child could be cared for. Instead, the suspect charged with both weapons, requiring Godina to use lethal force.

Officer Godina’s composure saved the grandmother's life and preserved the suspect’s life as long as possible. While I am heartbroken to announce that the child succumbed to his injuries, Godina’s selfless action allowed medical attention to provide enough time for the mother to spend the last minutes of their child’s life with them.

Madam Speaker, I am here to recognize Officer Godina’s bravery and professionalism in this active and dangerous situation. Officer Godina displayed the best qualities of our country’s police officers, and at a time when police across the nation are wrongly looked down on, Officer Godina reminds us of our officers’ service to the nation and the constant safety we take for granted on the backs of their sacrifice.

Mr. HICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, due to a recommendation by the Attending Physician to quarantine due to an interaction with a person having a confirmed COVID-19 infection diagnosis, I was unable to be present during House votes.

Had I been present, I would have voted NAY on Roll Call No. 168; NAY on Roll Call No. 169; YEA on Roll Call No. 170; NAY on Roll Call No. 171; NAY on Roll Call No. 172; NAY on Roll Call No. 173; NAY on Roll Call No. 174; NAY on Roll Call No. 175; YEA on Roll Call No. 176; YEA on Roll Call No. 177; and NAY on Roll Call No. 178.

IN HONOR OF THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF ROSA JAMES

HON. EMANUEL CLEAVER
OF MISSOURI
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Mr. CLEAVER. Madam Speaker, I rise today with a heavy heart to honor the life and legacy of Ms. Rosa James: an invaluable leader in Kansas City’s African American community who dedicated her life to improving public education issues, encouraging voter registration, and addressing civil and racial injustices. On Tuesday, July 22, 2020, Ms. Rosa James was called home to heaven after a profoundly impactful 86 years of life and service. Ms. Rosa James was born and raised in Charlotte, North Carolina, she received the bulk of her education. In the early 1960s, Ms. James moved to Kansas City, Missouri where she served as a reading specialist for the Kansas City Public Schools for the next 36 years. Ms. James retired from this work in 1998 but remained committed to serving the education system. Ms. James also befriended and mentored future superintendent Mark Bedell—a testament to her desire to positively shape education in Kansas City for generations to come. Ms. James’ retirement would only be the beginning of her journey to solving persistent issues and working to dismantle injustices.

Ms. Rosa James also spent many years of her life bridging the racial divides that continue to persist throughout our nation today. As someone who came of age and worked when the African American Civil Rights movement was at its peak, Ms. James dedicated herself to furthering the movement and actively advocated for the adoption of various civil rights bills in the 1960s. Even after the Civil Rights Act of 1968 was passed, Ms. James continued to work toward racial justice, serving as a board member for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and as an executive committee member for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). Her work with the NAACP earned her the Kansas City Spirit Award and the NAACP President’s award. Ms. James also served as the 7th-ward committeewoman for the Jackson County Democratic Committee, helping distribute ballot information on election days, and would serve as a member of the municipal judicial nominating commission.

The profound impacts Ms. Rosa James had on the Greater Kansas City area extended to the citizens and those she worked with and mentored as well, always striving to make a positive effect on everyone with whom she interacted. Dr. Mark Bedell, Superintendent of Kansas City Public Schools, said that Ms. James “was a great, great lady who genuinely cared about this school district and the children in this community.” Each and every person that knew Ms. James, even those whom she simply helped register to vote, attest not only to her incredible commitment to bettering the community and the city, but also to her warm-hearted kindness that filled the room.

Ms. James was someone who had a passion for public service, politics, and bringing about that change. In every instance where there was an injustice, she was there, standing alongside others attempting to fix it. Her immeasurable commitment to bettering public schools, registering voters, and addressing racial injustices, along with herAppears several times in the text.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF CONGRESSMAN G.V. “SONNY” MONTGOMERY

HON. MICHAEL C. GUEST OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Mr. GUEST. Madam Speaker, the State of Mississippi is known for many things—its magnolias, catfish, southern charm, and Sonny Montgomery. Today, August 5, is the 100th anniversary of his birth and I would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to this legendary figure in Mississippi history.

Congressman Sonny Montgomery was a soldier, a public servant, a Veteran, and a southern gentleman. His friends called him “Mr. Veteran” and “Mr. National Guard.” He loved his family, his friends, his university, his state, his country and our God.

No one could meet Sonny Montgomery and not love his infectious smile and genuine warmth. He had an easy grin that made all his encounters feel like an old and trusted friend. While he travelled around the world, everyone knew Sonny’s home was Meridian, Mississippi. And Mississippians knew and loved Sonny and they will for many generations to come.

Sonny Montgomery was guided by faith and principle. His strong character and integrity endeared him to many without their political allegiances or social status. He was genuinely well liked on Capitol Hill, and no one on either side of the aisle ever questioned his sincerity, his integrity, or his independence. Sonny believed that partisanship should never get in the way of what he saw was good for the nation. His philosophy for life and leadership focused on faith, patriotism, relationships and perseverance. This is what Sonny Montgomery called “staying the course.”

After graduating from Mississippi State University in 1943, Sonny Montgomery was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He served with the 12th Armored Division in Europe during World War II and earned the Bronze Star Medal with “V” for Valor device for capturing a German machine gun nest.

After World War II, he joined the Mississippi Army National Guard. In 1951, he served on active duty again during the Korean War as a member of the 31st Infantry Division. In May 1961, as a Lieutenant Colonel, Sonny escorted a group of Freedom Riders from the Alabama border to Jackson. Our late colleague John Lewis was on that bus. Sonny retired as a major general in 1980 after 35 years of military service.

On January 3, 1967, Sonny Montgomery was sworn in as a Congressman from the district he represents today. Sonny’s greatest legislative victory was the enactment of the bill which bears his name—the Montgomery GI Bill. As a World War II Veteran, he believed the country should provide educational benefits to its service members, and the combination of military service and a college degree would make these individuals valuable assets to the country. Sonny Montgomery saw the educational shortfall as a direct threat to America’s military readiness and national security and used the GI Bill to reinvigorate the volunteer base of America’s military.

In October 1984, President Ronald Reagan signed into law the Montgomery GI Bill. Under the new education benefits, Veterans with two years of active service who contributed $1,200 of their own money were eligible to receive tuition payments of $300 a month for 36 months. The new GI Bill was also the first to offer educational benefits to National Guard and Reserve personnel.

Another of Sonny Montgomery’s achievements was the creation of the Department of Veterans Affairs. His bipartisan efforts elevated the Veterans Administration into an official cabinet department in March 1989. President George H. W. Bush offered Montgomery the position of secretary of the new department, but he decided to continue to serve the people of Mississippi in Congress.

As freshman members of the 90th Congress, Sonny Montgomery and George H. W. Bush began a friendship that lasted until the Congressman passed away. It is said this bipartisan coalition was only challenged during their “do or die” dollar a game paddleball matches in the House gym with more bragging rights on the line. President Bush wrote, “While I served in Congress and after that in the Executive Branch of government, Sonny remained a close confidant, a man whose judgement I always trusted, a man whose friendship gave me comfort when the going got tough.” Sonny was a frequent visitor to the nearby Hôtel and often spent holidays with the Bush family.

Sonny Montgomery served along with the administrations of seven presidents during his three decades in the House chamber. His legacy of public service stretches across generations and party lines and is a testament to America’s strong national defense. Sonny retired from Congress in 1997 and returned to Meridian. Sonny was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President George W. Bush in 2005.

Sonny Montgomery was a loyal son to Mississippi, from his birth to his passing, he was one of ours. But his work and legacy belong to America. We are all indebted to Sonny for making our great nation what it is today. Sonny Montgomery said, “Patriotism is a pretty simple word, but also a beautiful word to most Americans.” Sonny Montgomery exemplified patriotism. The gentleman from Mississippi is recognized and remembered on the 100th anniversary of his birth.

HONORING THE LIFE OF FORMER TAIWAN PRESIDENT LEE TENG-HUI

HON. PAUL A. GOSAR
OF ARIZONA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Mr. GOSAR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of former Taiwan President Lee Teng-hui, revered as Mr. Democracy. As the first democratically elected leader of Taiwan, Lee is an icon for democracy and pluralism to not just Taiwan, but freedom loving people around the world.

Well known for the symbolism of his election and his strong maneuvering which kept Taiwan from the clutches of the People's Republic of China, we cannot forget his extensive service to Taiwan. Beginning as mayor of Taipei, he would go on to serve as the governor of the Taiwan province and vice president before assuming the presidency in 1988. It was from this position he would oversee the 1996 election, becoming the first democratically elected president. Even in the face of Chinese aggression, Lee preserved this advancement and upheld the integrity of his election. Today, Taiwan is a strong, key member of the global community of nations and serves as a symbol of freedom, human rights, and democracy for all.

Madam Speaker, I express my deepest condolences to the family of Lee Teng-hui and the people of Taiwan on his passing, and I encourage my colleagues to join me in celebrating his life and legacy as a beacon of democratic advancement.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF BRUCE WATKINS, JR.

HON. EMANUEL CLEAVER
OF MISSOURI
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, August 4, 2020

Mr. CLEAVER. Madam Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Mr. Bruce Watkins, Jr. Mr. Watkins spent his days on Earth fighting to preserve, honor, and protect the stories of the African Americans who helped build and grow Kansas City, living a life that deserves both recognition and reflection.

Mr. Watkins was born in the time of Emmett Till and Rosa Parks, into a family with a profound and unwavering commitment to advancing the cause of civil rights in Kansas City. His father was both a co-founder and the second president of Freedom, Incorporated, Kansas City's local, Black political organization, as well as the first African American elected to the City Council of Kansas City. In 1966, his father was elected a Circuit Court Clerk, making him the first Black person elected to Jackson County government, and would later become the first African American to nearly win a KC mayoral race. As a former city council member and Kansas City's first African American Mayor, I know that the path I walk was planned, plowed, and paved by Bruce Watkins, Sr. It has been an honor to watch Bruce Watkins, Jr. valiantly carry his father's mission into the 21st century.

Mr. Watkins grew up alongside the African American Civil Rights Movement, went to Southeast High School, and then studied at University of Nevada-Las Vegas' College of Business, where he graduated in 1977 with a Bachelor of Science in Human Resources Management and Services. Thirteen years later, he would return to school to earn his Associate degree at Kansas City Kansas Community College's School of Mortuary Science, before starting his career as a funeral director. Mr. Watkins was a keeper of stories. As a funeral director at the Watkins Brothers Memorial Chapel, Mr. Watkins spent thirty-one years performing the unglamorous but noble work of honoring our community's dead and supporting their grieving families. As a leading member of the Watkins Foundation, he led the campaign to have Kansas City's East Patrol Crime Lab named after prominent civil rights leader Leon Jordon, forty-five years after his assassination. As a member of Freedom, Incorporated, Mr. Watkins aided in the group's mission to register African American voters in Kansas City, elect them to local office, and ensure that the voices of Black Kansas Citians were heard within the halls of government.

And as eminent Kansas City leaders, he and his cousin Warren Watkins, Jr. fought to gain recognition for the slaves likely buried at the site of the City's new airport. Mr. Watkins was integral to that continued mission to make sure that those we welcome to our magnificent city also know of its painful past, etching a symbolic headstone of history for his ancestors whose graves remain largely unmarked.

I was proud to call Mr. Watkins a dear friend and am humbled not only by his life of service but also by the task of paying tribute to it. On this day, I wonder how to properly honor someone who spent his whole life honoring others—how one can do justice to the story of a lifelong storyteller. Perhaps, the answer lies in not only telling Mr. Watkins' story but also the stories he was passionate about preserving. When we in the Missouri 5th drive on Bruce R. Watkins Memorial Drive or pass by the Bruce R. Watkins Cultural Center—we look upon the Spirit of Freedom Fountain or drive by the Green Duck Lounge—when we tell the stories of Fred Curis or Lucile Bluford or Leon Jordon—we honor the life and work of Bruce Watkins, Jr. May God allow him to continue that work in the company of that other lifelong storyteller.

Perhaps, the answer lies in not only telling Mr. Watkins' story but also telling the stories he was passionate about preserving. When we in the Missouri 5th drive on Bruce R. Watkins Memorial Drive or pass by the Bruce R. Watkins Cultural Center—we look upon the Spirit of Freedom Fountain or drive by the Green Duck Lounge—when we tell the stories of Fred Curis or Lucile Bluford or Leon Jordon—we honor the life and work of Bruce Watkins, Jr. May God allow him to continue that work in the company of that other great storyteller, who told us all of the Sower, the Weeds, and the Mustard Seed. I think they'll get along well.

As the keeper of a history he helped make, Mr. Watkins continued a four-generation story of a family and a city that loved and challenged one another. Madam Speaker, please join me in honoring the life of Bruce Watkins, Jr. Let us all seek to emulate his example by preserving the stories that tell us who we are as a people and a nation and let one of those stories be his.
