HONORING BARRY STERLING

HON. JARED HUFFMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 11, 2020

Mr. HUFFMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise with my colleague Congressman MIKE THOMPSON today in memory of Barry Sterling who passed away on July 26, 2020 at the age of 90 after a lifetime of exemplary service to his community and the California winemaking industry.

Mr. Sterling was born in Los Angeles on October 25, 1929. He spent his formative years living in Southern California before moving to Northern California to attend Stanford University, where his law school classmates included future Supreme Court Justices William Rehnquist and Sandra Day O'Connor. Importantly, Mr. Sterling also met Audrey Shapiro at Stanford. The two were married in 1952, and this month would have marked their 68th wedding anniversary.

Following law school, the Sterlings moved to Washington, D.C., where Mr. Sterling served in the Judge Advocate General Corps and they welcomed their daughter, Joy. Upon moving back to Los Angeles, Mr. Sterling opened his own corporate law firm and the Sterlings soon welcomed a son, Laurence. The family moved to France in 1967 where their dream of living on a vineyard was cultivated. Towards this end, they returned to California and founded Iron Horse Vineyard. Many were skeptical of this purchase given the colder climate and the prevailing theory that chardonnay and pinot noir grapes would not thrive in western Sonoma. Undaunted, the Sterlings opened their winery in 1979, with the first of their sparkling wines released in 1980.

In 1983, the Sterlings helped to establish a federal designation for their distinctive wine area, known as the Green Valley American Viticultural Area. Only a few years later, Iron Horse was served during the Geneva summit meetings between President Ronald Reagan and Soviet General Mikhail Gorbachev, ending the Cold War. Since then, Iron Horse has been consistently served at White House dinners. Iron Horse also produces wines to support charitable causes including a cuvee for ocean conservation in partnership with National Geographic and a vintage Brut that benefited the Redwood Empire Food Bank, which is the largest hunger-relief organization serving the north coast of California. In addition to winemaking, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling were founding members of the Los Angeles Music Center and the Los Angeles Art Museum. Mr. Sterling was on the board of the San Francisco Symphony, a Lifetime Trustee of the Leakey foundation, and he was actively engaged in Democratic politics. In 2005, Mr. Sterling semi-retired from running the business of Iron Horse but he remained involved in its operations until he passed away.

Mr. Sterling is survived by his wife, Audrey; children Joy, Laurence and his wife Terry; grandchildren Justine, Mike, Barrie, and Joseph; and great-grandson Calvin.

Madam Speaker, please join Rep. THOMPSON and me in extending our appreciation for Mr. Sterling's many accomplishments and relaying our deep condolences to his family, friends, and colleagues. His was a life well lived, and while he will be missed by many, Mr. Sterling's legacy will live on through the indelible positive impact he had on his family, friends, and the extended winemaking industry.
