

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

RECOGNIZING NANCY W. SCHULZE

HON. GREGORY F. MURPHY

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. MURPHY of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I rise to pay a heart-felt tribute to speaker, singer, activist, servant leader, forward thinker, and prayer warrior Nancy Schulze. Mrs. Schulze is an incredibly gifted individual who has spent her life using those gifts in service to others. Nancy's achievements and accomplishments are too numerous to catalog, but among them are performing in the Capitol Rotunda, as well as at Galas honoring First Ladies Barbara Bush, and Laura Bush. In 2008, she founded the Republican Congressional Wives Speakers in Washington and holds annual seminars for this group featuring top experts in the fields of speaking, media, training and thought leadership. She is cofounder of the American Prayer Initiative. She has spoken at the Global Pastors Wives Conference, the National Republican Women's Summit in Washington, the Christian Women in Media Association and the Inaugural Prayer Breakfast for the Governor of New York. She is a Colson Center Centurion, having completed a year-long intensive master's level course on world view in 2010. Nancy has spoken at the National Prayer Breakfast as well as events for Members of the U.S. Senate, House and Presidency. She is currently involved in many endeavors including Physicians for Reform to repair our broken healthcare system.

Given her list of accomplishments, the most astounding thing about Nancy Schulze is her seemingly unending energy and passion to work for the good of this nation. Her efforts would not be possible without her compassion and extraordinary commitment to excellence. Madam Speaker, please join me in honoring this patriot, public servant, faithful Christian, and my friend, Nancy Schulze.

CELEBRATING THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF KNX

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. SCHIFF. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor KNX News Radio (KNX) upon its one-hundredth anniversary.

KNX began humbly in the back bedroom of the home of founder Fred Christian, a former wireless operator and manager at one of the first radio supply stores in Los Angeles. On September 10, 1920, with parts from his store, Mr. Christian set up an amateur radio station with the call letters 6ADZ. At the time, the station was one of only two stations broadcasting music in Southern California. In 1922, Mr. Christian built a new 100-watt transmitter and was given the call letters KNX, still used today. That year, the radio station started broadcasting a nightly newscast, one of the first heard in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Times called the broadcast "one of the best in the land."

KNX quickly became known as "The Voice of Hollywood," an invaluable news resource for the community and the nation. KNX has a long and illustrious history in Southern California, predating the Hollywood Sign and the Rose Bowl stadium. In 1925, KNX provided what is thought to be the first accurate news coverage of the Santa Barbara earthquake. Five years later, in 1930, KNX became the first station to broadcast the Academy Awards. That timely, accurate reporting became its hallmark.

Over the last century, KNX has provided unwavering coverage of local and national news stories. In 1938, the station aired Orson Welles' infamous adaptation of "The War of the Worlds" from its new Columbia Square studio complex. That studio went on to host and record precedent-setting broadcasts, including performances by Lucille Ball, Frank Sinatra, and Bing Crosby. In 1968, a landmark year for KNX, the station provided comprehensive coverage of the Vietnam War protests and the assassination of Martin Luther King. The same year, KNX provided critical breaking news coverage of the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy, with live on-the-ground coverage from the Ambassador Hotel and Central Receiving Hospital.

Today, KNX, a national Edward R. Murrow award-winner for "Breaking News," continues its steadfast commitment to the community by providing instrumental coverage of local and national news stories, and in depth reporting and analysis on biggest issues facing all Southern Californians. That's why millions across Southern California tune in every day, whether they are just waking up or heading home from work, and everywhere in between.

The staff, from the producers to the reporters and anchors, who have worked tirelessly over the last century to serve their community deserve our thanks for their dedication and service for our community. KNX Radio Station is a pillar of Southern California, and I ask all Members to join me in congratulating KNX on the hundred-year anniversary of its founding.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE LIFE-SAVING SERVICE OF DR. LAURENT DUVERNAY-TARDIF, C.Q.

HON. EMANUEL CLEAVER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. CLEAVER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the lifesaving service of Dr. Laurent Duvernay-Tardif. From his youth in Montreal to his football career in Kansas City, Dr. Duvernay-Tardif has proven himself to be a hero in more ways than one. His story is timely; it is instructive; and it is extraordinary.

When Dr. Duvernay-Tardif helped bring the Lombardi Trophy back home to Kansas City after fifty long years, I did not think I could gain a deeper sense of admiration or gratitude for the Chiefs. Since then, however, that same sense of gratitude has grown even more profound. Today, it is my honor to join his teammates, Coach Andy Reid, and our great city in saying Merci, Docteur Duvernay-Tardif, for your vital and noble work fighting the deadly coronavirus pandemic on the frontlines.

From watching college lectures at half-speed with an English dictionary in hand, to working as an NFL lineman while earning a medical degree, Dr. Duvernay-Tardif has spent his whole life defying expectations. When he graduated from McGill University Faculty of Medicine in May 2018 with a doctorate in medicine and master's in surgery, it had already been four years since he was drafted into the NFL just after assisting an emergency C-section. Since joining the NFL, he has worked overnights at the hospital, slept in the locker room wearing his scrubs, and never stopped putting forth the utmost effort for his team—whether under stadium lights or fluorescent medical lamps. Moreover, he has stepped up to make football a safer sport with his presence on the NFL's Health and Safety Committee and given back to his community through the LDT Foundation. And, of course, he also helped deliver a historic win to a grateful city. As I consider Dr. Duvernay-Tardif's remarkable story, I see an athlete in the O.R. and a surgeon on the field. In both, I see an indomitable spirit.

And when the world called upon a new breed of soldier to fight an invisible threat, Dr. Duvernay-Tardif answered that call without hesitation. Even before securing a position at a healthcare facility, he was using his platform and expertise to inform and educate. Now, as an orderly at a long-term care facility, he is doing the unglamorous, lifesaving work of caring for and protecting those most vulnerable to this virus. Recently, in order to continue this critical work, he became the first professional football player to opt-out of the upcoming season. Like him, I support every player's personal decision on the matter. However, I must say that I see in his decision the same young man who, on a year-long sailing expedition, used to be summoned at midnight to take the helm while his family slept. He knows what it means to sail in the darkness of night, when there is nothing to guide you but your own radar.

As a Chiefs super-fan, as a citizen, as one of millions across the globe staring down this specter, it is my honor to express in this forum how proud Dr. Duvernay-Tardif continues to make all of us in Kansas City. He guarded Patrick Mahomes, and now, he is guarding all of us. Madam Speaker, please join me and my constituents in Missouri's 5th District in wishing Dr. Duvernay-Tardif safety, health, and good fortune as he serves his community during this pandemic. I also want to assure him and his colleagues across the country that I will do everything I can to be a voice for the urgent needs of the medical community in the halls of Congress. In fact, let us all join in that pledge. Heroes like Dr. Duvernay-Tardif are on the line, helmet-to-helmet with this threat, standing between us and total catastrophe. They are guarding us so that we can do our jobs. It is the end of the fourth quarter, we have no more time-outs, and our team has come to a standstill. We have had a play on the books since May, and it is time to put it in the field because time is running out. Dr. Duvernay-Tardif is fighting for our lives. It is time we had his back.

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

HONORING MR. ROBERT REILLY

HON. MAX ROSE

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. ROSE of New York. Madam Speaker, I would like to acknowledge today the efforts of Robert Reilly, who throughout this turbulent year has gone out of his way to support his workforce at RTR Financial on Staten Island. It is well known within RTR Financial that when you work for Mr. Reilly you become part of the family; he often says that "family comes first."

During the early months of pandemic, Mr. Reilly exemplified these values by ensuring that every single employee had their needs met. He became an early adopter of remote-work to keep his employees safe, and invested in his employees to make sure they were properly equipped for this new environment. Mr. Reilly's kindness did not stop there, for he continues to support his workplace family through the transition back to the office. Robert has consistently reassured his employees as well as keeping them informed about local testing initiatives.

Packages of sanitizer and other safety equipment are given to employees weekly, and Mr. Reilly has allowed many to continue their remote-work indefinitely. I want to thank him for setting a positive example and for proving that the best way for businesses to navigate these tough times is by investing in the safety and well-being of their employees.

HONORING THE SERVICE AND SACRIFICE OF SOUTH FLORIDA'S FIRST RESPONDERS

HON. THEODORE E. DEUTCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. DEUTCH. Madam Speaker, today, I rise to honor South Florida's first responders, as they continue to serve our communities through these unprecedented times.

As we all know too well, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a global pandemic on March 11, 2020. In response, many states and municipalities imposed restrictions and closures on business and individual activities to reduce the spread of the virus. Despite taking these drastic, yet necessary, steps, the virus struck South Florida much harder than other areas of the state.

Putting themselves at great personal risk, our first responders have been the first line of defense for our communities during the COVID health crisis; even as they continued to fight fires, handle emergency health situations, and keep our communities safe.

That is why I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring our first responders, and their service and sacrifice to our communities. We owe them all a great debt of gratitude.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. O'HALLERAN. Madam Speaker, on September 14, 2020, I did not have a chance to cast my vote for two bills on the floor of the House of Representatives. I would have voted in favor of H.R. 4894, the Congressional Budget Justification Transparency Act of 2020, and S. 2193, the CHARGE Act.

CELEBRATING MR. ARLIN PATTERSON'S 95TH BIRTHDAY

HON. MO BROOKS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. BROOKS of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Arlin Patterson on the occasion of his 95th birthday.

Arlin Patterson, or Pat, as he is lovingly called, was born on November 28, 1925 in Memphis, Tennessee. At eighteen, he graduated from Messick High School and enrolled at Memphis State College. Shortly after, World War II interrupted his education and on January 7, 1944, Pat was drafted into the U.S. Navy.

Pat began his training as a signalman in Samson, New York. He went on to serve as the personal signalman to two Commodores on the USS Flint and served on the maiden voyage of the USS Amsterdam. While serving on the USS Amsterdam, he participated in the shelling of Tokyo, Honshu, Muroran, and Hokkaido. Finally, on September 2, 1945, the USS Amsterdam arrived in Tokyo Bay and was moored next to the USS Missouri, where the surrender of Japan took place just the day before.

After the war, Pat returned to Memphis State College and, in 1950, graduated with honors in Business Administration. While there, Pat also served as the President to the Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity and was nominated to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities—the highest honor that can be bestowed on a Memphis State College student.

After college, Pat worked as a salesman and actively served in The Exchange Club, Memphis Sales Managers Club, and the Children's Health Center. He went on to receive the Distinguished Service Award in 1951 and 1953. Later in his life, Pat opened his own business, Business Products, Incorporated, and in 2011, the Memphis City Council proclaimed April 16th the Mr. Pat Patterson Day in honor of his exemplary service during World War II.

Pat and his wife, Joyce, have always been active in their local church, where Pat served as an usher, Sunday School teacher, and financial leader of the church. In 2018, Pat and Joyce, moved to Huntsville, Alabama and became involved with Honored Legacies for Veterans. As a result, the Madison, Alabama Rotary Club presented Pat with the Veteran of the Week honor in the newspaper.

Madam Speaker, Pat Patterson's work ethic, mental and physical stamina, and passion for service embody the "greatest generation."

I wish Pat and his entire family the very best as they celebrate Pat's 95th birthday.

IN RECOGNITION OF GEORGE CATHEY

HON. VICKY HARTZLER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mrs. HARTZLER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and commend George Cathey for his distinguishing and exemplar service during the Revolutionary War. George Cathey was a volunteer soldier that, like many of our soldiers today, embodied the courage and bravery that is reflected in our American spirit.

George Cathey served three times in the Revolutionary War; first as a Private, and later as both a Lieutenant and Captain. He fought in the skirmishes at Big Bear Town, Silver Creek and Ransoms Ford, and later in the battle of Cowpens.

When this Nation's freedom was secure, George Cathey was later granted a pension in 1833 while living in Cooper County, Missouri, with his wife Margaret and their ten children. George Cathey later died on December 14, 1840, at age 85. However, his legacy lives on through our enduring freedoms that we still maintain today.

As we approach our Nation's 250th Birthday, it is only fitting that we honor those who fought for our freedom. George Cathey is one of those soldiers and today, we honor his legacy of freedom we all enjoy.

COMMEMORATING THE LIFE OF
BEN JONES

HON. BILL HUIZENGA

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. HUIZENGA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the life of Ben Jones, a beloved high school football coach at Cranbrook Kingswood High School, who recently passed away at the age of 30 in a traffic accident.

Ben went to Muskegon Catholic Central High School, where he played football, basketball, baseball and track. He led his football team to a state championship as a senior in 2008. While at Central Catholic, Ben found his favorite motto, "Get To." Every day, Ben would tell his teammates how they 'get to' play football today. Ben went on to play football at Hillsdale College. His teammates remember him as the hardest worker on the field, a great teammate and an even better friend.

Not surprisingly, Ben was also a great football coach. His players knew him as not only someone who understood the game, but someone who knew how to lead and loved his players. The players know that Coach Jones cared about their lives at home, how they were doing in school, and how they were developing as men.

"Get To" wasn't just a motto to Ben. It was how he lived his life. He attacked each day with enthusiasm, hope and excitement. The Muskegon Catholic Central, Hillsdale College, and Cranbrook communities have lost a dear friend and mentor. He will be greatly missed.

My Prayers go out to Ben's parents, Theresa and Bruce Jones, his sister Alissa, his brother Nate, his extended family, his friends, and the countless others who will mourn for him.

Madam Speaker, I join with those throughout Michigan in remembering the extraordinary life and legacy that Coach Jones has left behind.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 100TH BIRTHDAY OF MRS. BERNICE
TODD

HON. EMANUEL CLEAVER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. CLEAVER. Madam Speaker, I rise today with profound joy, deep admiration, and endless blessings to recognize the 100th birthday of Mrs. Bernice Todd. One cannot tell the story of America without telling the story of Kansas City Jazz, and one cannot tell the story of Kansas City Jazz without telling the story of Bernice Todd.

Mrs. Bernice Todd was born September 8, 1920, and has made significant contributions to the Jazz music and culture of the 18th and Vine District of Kansas City. She performed with many of the big bands and Jazz greats of her day, both as a stellar singer and as a skilled dancer. However, Jazz was not only a career for Mrs. Todd. It was also a family affair. Her husband, Oliver Todd, was a trumpet player and bandleader who would go on to become a fixture of the burgeoning Jazz scene in Kansas City, playing with everyone from Count Basie to Duke Ellington. And when a certain young virtuoso named Charlie Parker still carried his makeshift horn in a cloth sack, he would often come over to the Todds' home to eat lunch and play some music. Mrs. Todd was actually just one week younger than the Bird, and the three of them became close friends. Often, Parker would leave his horn in their living room and ask them to bring it to his performance the next night. Needless to say, the horn bought them free admission.

Mrs. Todd is a mother, a grandmother, and a friend to many. She has also been a loyal member of the St. James United Methodist Church, where I was a pastor for thirty-seven years. From personal experience, I can attest that Mrs. Todd keeps us all laughing. Mrs. Todd is also a caretaker of our Jazz history, as well as our Jazz musicians, through her involvement with the Coda Jazz Fund, which pays funeral and burial expenses for area Jazz musicians whose families cannot afford them. As I have said before, a gift is never truly received until you acknowledge the giver. Mrs. Todd has honored so many determined artists with that sacred acknowledgement as they enter the coda of their life. It is an honor to be able to acknowledge Mrs. Todd's legacy while her chorus is in full swing.

Since I began thinking about this momentous occasion, there's a song that's been stuck in my head. It is from an old compilation of Jazz standards released December of 1945, just a little over a year after I was born. The album sleeve must have weighed ten tons with heft of the names which graced it: Jay McShann, Nat "King" Cole, and of course, Oliver Todd. The song, by McShann, with Mrs. Todd's late husband on trumpet, is an instrumental version of an old standard. Nevertheless, I remember the lyrics well: "I used to walk in the shade," it went, "With those blues on parade / But I'm not afraid / This rover crossed over / If I never have a cent / I'd be rich as Rockefeller / Gold dust at my feet / On the sunny side of the street."

Now, as we stand not only at Mrs. Todd's centennial, but Charlie Parker's as well, I cannot help but reflect on our collective good fortune. We lost the Bird in '55, but God has generously allowed us a full century of Bernice. For that, I am immensely grateful. Madam Speaker, please join me, the world of Jazz, and everyone in Missouri's Fifth Congressional District in wishing Mrs. Bernice Todd a happy 100th birthday. Here's to many more years, Mrs. Todd, "on the sunny side of the street."

PEG FITZGERALD

HON. JOE COURTNEY

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. COURTNEY. Madam Speaker, I rise to provide my warmest congratulations and thanks to Peg Fitzgerald, a long-time resident and public servant in the State of Connecticut, who is retiring on October 1st after more than 42 years of service to our state. Like so many other citizens of our great state, I had the privilege to interact with Peg in government and had a front-row seat to watch her skillful use of shrewd intelligence, empathy and humor to advance the public interest in whatever role she took on. I first met Peg when I was an intern at the State Capitol for then-State Representative Sam Gejdenson in 1978 when Peg first went to work at the State Budget Office under Governors Ella Grasso and William O'Neill. Despite being a young woman given the weighty task of securing legislative support for the Governor's budget, she did not back down and could go toe-to-toe with the crustiest older male legislators and yet still make them laugh at her sharp Irish wit. When she would walk into Sam's committee room, he would yell, "Hey Irish, what's going on?" and the two of them would start busting each other, leaving all of us in stitches. It was like watching a sitcom.

Seriously though, during her twelve years at the State Capitol, Peg worked with legislative leaders on both sides of the aisle, crafting compromises and ultimately promoting bills that would advance the health and welfare of citizens of the State of Connecticut. She provided training, guidance, and supervision to dozens of state agencies and their staff at the state Capitol in their own advocacy efforts for the Executive Branch.

In 1990, Peg joined the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority, bringing with her outstanding expertise in the legislative process and a passion for affordable housing. In her thirty years at CHFA, Peg has continuously fought for the underserved, and taught dozens of employees what it means to be a true public servant.

For Peg, service to others never stopped at the office. When Peg wasn't at the Capitol, she often dedicated her time to organizing food drives or donations for local hunger relief organizations or finding homes for animals in need of adoption, including her own, many times over.

Peg Fitzgerald—through four decades—has been the embodiment of public service, showing a uncompromising commitment to the public good, a passion for the democratic process and a dogged determination to help those most in need.

I thank Peg for her service to the State of Connecticut and offer best wishes to her on her well-deserved retirement.

IN RECOGNITION OF KAROLE
HONAS SERVICE TO IDAHO

HON. MICHAEL K. SIMPSON

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. SIMPSON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate my friend Karole Honas on a well-earned retirement after an extraordinary broadcasting career.

Karole grew up in Gooding, Idaho and graduated from the University of Idaho with a degree in radio-TV, communications. Shortly after graduation she married her husband, Ken. They have been happily married for forty years.

Karole started her career at KPVI in Pocatello. After seven years, she left KPVI to raise her three sons. In 1990 Jay Hildebrandt called and asked her to fill in as an anchor for 6 weeks while another anchor was on maternity leave. Those 6 weeks turned into thirty years of co-anchoring with Jay Hildebrandt. Together they were an iconic news team that the community trusted.

In addition to her role at KIFI with Jay, Karole mentored new journalists who were getting started in the industry. She also spent fourteen years as an adjunct instructor at Idaho State University. She has served as a member of the advisory board for the School of Journalism and Mass Media in the College of Letters, Arts and Social Sciences at the University of Idaho. She continues to reach out to students interested in television news, informing them of internship opportunities and job openings at her station and elsewhere.

Karole has served on several community boards and committees. As an active member of her community, Karole is committed to leaving this area better than she found it.

It has been my privilege to be interviewed by Karole throughout my political career. Even though we were friends she didn't hold back the tough questions. I have always appreciated her honesty and fairness.

Madam Speaker, Karole Honas has provided an immeasurable service to Eastern Idaho for the last thirty years. I want to thank her for that service and wish her well in a well-earned retirement.

IN APPRECIATION OF MAJOR ANDREW CROWE FOR HIS SERVICE TO THE UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

HON. MICHAEL WALTZ

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. WALTZ. Madam Speaker, today I recognize Major Andrew Joseph Crowe of the United States Army for his extraordinary dedication to duty and service to our Nation. Major Crowe recently transitioned from his assignment as an Army Congressional Liaison in the House of Representatives to attend Army Command and General Staff College with follow on assignment at Fort Belvoir.

MAJ Crowe, having grown up in a non-military family, joined the Reserve Officers Training Corps through Western Michigan University and commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in 2006. He has held numerous leadership positions in a variety of units, highlighted by combat service in Iraq and Afghanistan with the 25th Infantry Division and the 75th Ranger Regiment. During his time in Washington, MAJ Crowe attended The George Washington University earning his Masters Degree in Legislative Affairs and served as a Congressional Fellow for Congressman JOE WILSON of South Carolina.

In the winter of 2017, MAJ Crowe was selected to serve as a Congressional Liaison in the United States Army House Liaison Division. As the primary liaison between Members of the House of Representatives, their Staffs, Committees, and the Army, he provided insight and understanding of Army policies, actions, operations, and requirements. His firsthand knowledge of the military, its culture, and traditions has been a tremendous benefit to Congressional offices. His wit and humor kept everyone around him in good spirits and kept me on my toes. As a busy freshman office with great ambition, our legislative successes would not have been possible without him.

In 2019, I had traveled with MAJ Crowe to Normandy France for the 75th Anniversary of D-Day. It was a historically significant event in which MAJ Crowe planned and executed the largest overseas CODEL in history.

Madam Speaker, it has been a pleasure to work with MAJ Crowe during his time as an Army Congressional Liaison Officer in the House of Representatives. On behalf of a grateful Nation, it is my honor to recognize the selfless service and sacrifice of Major Andrew Crowe, his wife, Michelle, and their children, Charlie and Samantha. I wish them the very best as they continue their journey in the United States Army. They have dedicated their lives to the service of our Nation.

Rangers Lead The Way.

HON. JOHN GARAMENDI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. GARAMENDI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Jack L. Loveall. Affectionately known as "Captain Jack", he led a life best defined as that of a loving family man, mentor, humanitarian, and labor leader of over 60 years. Jack embodied the American dream and will be remembered as a legendary figure in the cause of justice and fairness for working people and their families.

Born on Leap Day, February 29, 1936, Jack earned his first job at the age of 13 when he was hired by Wrigley Markets in Detroit as a grocery clerk. In 1958 Jack became a Union Representative for Local 876, beginning his storied work as an advocate for the American worker. His dedication to that mission led his colleagues to repeatedly select him as their representative in the upper echelons of the International Union. As an international vice president of the United Food and Commercial Workers, he served working families throughout the United States, Canada, Asia, and Europe.

In 1984, Jack was elected president of UFCW 588-Northern California, where he continued his passionate and highly effective advocacy for the members of his Union, including those who work in supermarkets, drug stores, pharmacies, food processing plants, wineries, distilleries, medical offices, and more. Captain Jack was married to his first mate, Patricia, whom he adored for 67 years. He was the father of seven, a grandfather, a great-grandfather, and a beloved mentor and teacher to countless others. His memory and legacy will be kept alive by those who use his lessons and beliefs as guideposts to building better families, better communities, and a better world while always being kind to one another.

CELEBRATING MR. WILLIAM BOSHART'S 100TH BIRTHDAY

HON. MO BROOKS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mr. BROOKS of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mr. William Harvey Boshart on the occasion of his 100th birthday.

Mr. Boshart was born in Marshall County, Alabama on September 24, 1920. As a child during the Great Depression, Harvey is thankful he was able to finish his 1933 academic year. The local school system lacked funding to keep schools open but Harvey's teacher, Dr. Collins, finished the school year without pay. Later, in 1934, Harvey worked to support his family at only 14 years old.

In 1941, Harvey married Nina Hodges, which he considers to be "the best thing that ever happened to him." As newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Boshart lived on a family member's farm in Woodville, Alabama. Then in 1944, Harvey received notice he was drafted to serve in World War II. Thankfully, Harvey was able to spend Christmas with his family, but in January of 1945, Mr. Boshart was officially sworn into the U.S. Navy and began training in California.

Harvey was first assigned to the USS Menard (APA-201), a Haskell-class attack transport, on which he sailed to Pearl Harbor to train for the invasion of Okinawa, Japan. After months of training and active evasion of Japanese submarine screens, on March 16, Seaman First Class Boshart and the crew reached the Leyte Gulf in the Philippines to begin the campaign to retake Okinawa.

Later in his career, Harvey was assigned to the second USS San Jacinto (CVLS-30), on which President George H.W. Bush served. Once the war and his service were over, Harvey came home to Nina, and in 1947, they bought a farm in Rainsville, Alabama. From 1951 to 1980, Harvey served in a different capacity on Redstone Arsenal. Today, Harvey still lives in the same home he and Nina purchased in 1955, where he takes great pride in cooking and tending to his garden.

Madam Speaker, the Tennessee valley is fortunate to have such an exemplary citizen for 100 years. Harvey Boshart's bright spirit and servants' heart are a blessing to us all.

I wish Harvey and his entire family the very best as they celebrate Harvey's centennial birthday.

HONORING THE LIFE OF DANIEL C. HOLLOWAY

HON. GRACE F. NAPOLITANO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Mrs. NAPOLITANO. Madam Speaker, I rise with great sorrow to honor the life and long career of public service of City Council Member Daniel C. Holloway of La Puente, CA.

Dan was an outstanding leader for his community of La Puente, where he served in many capacities over the years. He was a local activist fighting to keep Workman High School open and was a writer of community news with his column in the Highlander Newspaper called, "The La Puente Lookout." Dan was on the planning commission, where he served as Chairman twice, and he had been on the City Council for the past 13 years receiving the highest vote total of any council member multiple times. He served as Mayor three times and Mayor Pro Tern four times. Dan was a staunch advocate for his city serving on many regional boards and commissions, including the San Gabriel Valley Council of Governments and the National League of Cities.

Dan was a hero to our country having served in the Navy. He would later join the American Legion, and he designed the La Puente Veterans Memorial at La Puente City Hall.

Dan was a mentor to many and a great champion of our students. Most recently, Dan participated in the Life Experiences About Democracy (LEAD) program which teaches community and civic engagement by giving students real life experiences participating in government meetings, interacting with public officials, and working on volunteer projects in La Puente.

Dan was a great friend to me and so many who knew and respected him. I met Dan before he ran for office when he was a constituent advocating for improvements to our schools, healthcare system, and public services on behalf of his children, including his late daughter Kimberly, and all of our children. He was known for his kindness, honesty, and integrity, and that is why he was beloved by so many.

Madam Speaker, I extend my deepest sympathies to Dan's wife of over 50 years Hilda, his children Jennifer, Christopher, and Shannon, his family and friends, and his colleagues. The City of La Puente has lost one of its greatest leaders and champions. And we have all lost a great friend.
