

EXECUTIVE CALENDAR—Continued

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Florida.

REQUEST FOR COMMITTEE TO MEET

Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Intelligence Committee be authorized to meet today with the Director of National Counterintelligence, and he is also leading the election security efforts on behalf of the Office of the Director of National Intelligence—that that meeting occur during today's session of the Senate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. ROMNEY). Is there objection?

The Democratic leader.

Mr. SCHUMER. Reserving the right to object. Because the Senate Republicans have no respect for the institution, we will not have business as usual here in the Senate, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The objection is heard.

The Senator from Florida.

Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, if I may, just for a moment, just for the information of the Members, then, who are on the committee, we will not be having the hearing today on the issue of election security with the person leading that effort. It is a priority of mine here.

We are scheduled to have the Director of National Intelligence tomorrow to discuss that and many more topics of great importance that I know a lot of people here have been saying we need to be having briefings over. I hope that if, in fact, the Democratic leader intends to object to that, that we should know that today as well, I hope, so that the Members will know that and make arrangements accordingly.

I yield the floor.

As I said this morning, it is only fitting that she will be the first woman to ever lie in state at the Nation's Capitol. After all, she made a life's work
