minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BURCHETT. Mr. Speaker, during the coronavirus pandemic, community organizations in east Tennessee stepped up to help our neighbors in need. I rise today to highlight the efforts of Random Acts of Flowers, which recently delivered its 500,000th bouquet; and to recognize the retirement of its founder, my good friend, Larsen Jay.

In 2007, Larsen Jay was in the hospital recovering from an accident, and he noticed many patients weren't receiving visitors or flowers. He reflected on the amount of support he received and wanted others to have that encouragement, too. Larsen founded Random Acts of Flowers in 2008 to deliver repurposed flowers to local hospital patients and seniors in nursing homes.

The nonprofit recycles arrangements donated from events like weddings and makes them into beautiful floral bouquets. Since opening its doors in Knoxville, the nonprofit has grown to serve folks in Indianapolis and Tampa Bay, Florida.

Random Acts of Flowers has safely resumed operations after a pause during the coronavirus pandemic. Isolation continues to be a serious problem for seniors and those in poor health during this crisis, but outstanding organizations like Random Acts of Flowers are here to let our neighbors know they are loved and supported.

Mr. Speaker, after reaching the milestone of delivering half a million bouquets, Larsen Jay announced his retirement from Random Acts of Flowers. He has long been active in community service, currently serving as chairman of the Knox County Commission.

I know he will continue to find ways to make an impact in our community. I thank him for his efforts to make Random Acts of Flowers a successful and meaningful organization in east Tennessee and I congratulate the nonprofit on its 500,000th delivery.

HONORING KOREAN WAR
VETERANS

(Mr. KELLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. KELLER. Mr. Speaker, last week I had the honor of presenting Korean Ambassador of Peace Medals to Korean war veterans and their families in Towanda, Pennsylvania. The Korean Ambassador of Peace Medal is an honor from the Embassy of the Republic of Korea for American veterans who served in the Korean war.

One of the greatest parts of representing Pennsylvania's 12th Congressional District is hearing our veterans' stories of service and sacrifice for our Nation. As the names of these heroes are read on the House floor, it is my hope that their legacies echo through these Halls and across America for generations to come:

Glen Ellis, United States Navy;
Silas Mills, United States Army;
Charles Miller, United States Army;
Kent Edsell, United States Marine Corps;

Nicholas Williams, United States Navy;

Edward Moritz, United States Army;
Earl Mayo, United States Army;
Carlton Repsher, Jr., United States Army; and

Keith Haight, Sr., United States Marine Corps.

It is incumbent upon us to honor these individuals and reflect on their heroism in the name of liberty and our American way of life.
