I. PURPOSE AND BILL SUMMARY

The purpose of H.R. 2142 is to require the Office of the National Ombudsman at the Small Business Administration (SBA) to create a centralized website with hyperlinks to small entity compliance guides and the contact person at agencies who could provide small businesses with assistance. The legislation would also require the Office of the National Ombudsman to report on federal agencies' compliance with the Section 212 requirements of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act (SBREFA) in its annual report to Congress.

II. BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 2142 was introduced by Representative Antonio Delgado (D-NY) and Representative John Joyce (R-PA) on April 9, 2018. Section 212 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act (SBREFA) requires federal agencies to publish a "small entity compliance guide" for every rule that requires a regulatory flexibility analysis (RFA). The guide must be posted the day the final rule is published or shortly thereafter, but no later than the day the rule becomes effective. Agencies are also required to publish the guides on their websites, distribute the guides to small entities affected by the rules, and report annually to Congress.

A. BACKGROUND ON SBA'S OFFICE OF THE NATIONAL OMBUDSMAN

The SBA's Office of the National Ombudsman was created in 1996 to help small businesses overcome excessive or unfair regulatory enforcement actions by federal agencies, such as repetitive audits, investigations, or excessive fines. The Ombudsman works directly with federal agencies to ensure that actions taken against small businesses are fair and not excessive. In Fiscal Year 2017, the Office of the National Ombudsman advocated on behalf of 460 small businesses, conducted more than 130 outreach events across the country to raise the visibility of the Office, and strengthened relationships with 28 interagency partners.

B. THE NEED FOR THE CHANGES OUTLINED IN THE BILL

Section 212 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act (SBREFA) requires federal agencies to publish a "small entity compliance guide" for every rule that requires a regulatory flexibility analysis (RFA). The guide must be posted the day the final rule is published or shortly thereafter, but no later than the day the rule becomes effective. Agencies are also required to publish the guides on their websites, distribute the guides to small entities affected by the rules, and report annually to Congress.

Small businesses rarely have the resources to navigate multiple agency websites to understand their responsibilities under new laws. H.R. 2142, would make it easier for small businesses by requiring the Office of the National Ombudsman at the Small Business Administration (SBA) to create a centralized website, which would provide a "one stop shop" for small entities compliance guides. Specifically, the legislation would require the Office of the National Ombudsman at the Small Business Administration (SBA) to create a centralized website with hyperlinks to small entity compliance guides and the contact person at agencies who could provide small businesses with assistance. The legislation would also require the Ombudsman to report on federal agencies' compliance with the section 212 requirements in its annual report to Congress.

In addition, the bill would provide transparency and ensure federal agencies are complying with the SBREFA requirements. Federal agencies' compliance with the requirements has been varied. For example, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has a long-standing small business education program and regularly submits reports to the Small Business Committee each year. In the 2018 annual report, the FTC reported that the Commission did not issue any rules that were subject to Section 212 of SBREFA for the reporting period. However, it made compliance materials available for several rulemakings even though they were not required to do so by the Act. Conversely, the Surface Transportation Board reported in its 2018 annual report that the Board failed to issue a timely compliance guide for a particular rule, but promptly remedied the omission once it was realized. The legislation would require the Office of the National Ombudsman to report on federal agencies' compliance with the SBREFA requirements in its annual report to Congress.

III. HEARINGS

While multiple hearings have been held by the Committee over the past several years exploring regulatory compliance burdens specific to the small business community, no specific hearings in the 116th Congress have been held to explore reforms to SBA's Office of the National Ombudsman.

IV. COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

The Committee on Small Business met in open session, with a quorum being present, on May 1, 2019 and ordered H.R. 2142 favorably reported to the House. During the markup, no amendments were offered.

V. COMMITTEE VOTES

Clause 3(b) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires the Committee to list the recorded votes on the motion to report legislation and amendments thereto. The Committee voted by voice vote to favorably report H.R. 2142 to the House at 11:58 A.M.

VI. SECTION-BY-SECTION OF H.R. 2142

Section 1: Centralized compliance guides

This section amends section 30 of the Small Business Act by adding a new subsection requiring the Office of the National Ombudsman at the Small Business Administration (SBA) to create a centralized website that would: 1) provide hyperlinks to small entity compliance guides described under Section 212 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996; and 2) provide the contact information for the person at the agency who could provide small entities with assistance with respect to the rules that are the subject of such guide.

This section would also require the Ombudsman to report on federal agencies' compliance with the Section 212 requirements of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 in its annual report to Congress.

VII. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

The Congressional Budget Office pursuant to 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, submitted a cost estimate for H.R. 2142 that stated enacting the legislation would not increase net direct spending or on budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2030.

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, June 4, 2019.

Hon. NYDIA M. VELÁZQUEZ,
*Chairwoman, Committee on Small Business,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MADAM CHAIRWOMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 2142, a bill to amend the Small Business Act to require the Small Business and Agriculture Regulatory Enforcement Ombudsman to create a centralized website for compliance guides, and for other purposes.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is David Hughes.

Sincerely,

PHILLIP SWAGEL,
Director.

Enclosure.

H.R. 2142 would require the Small Business Administration's (SBA's) Office of the National Ombudsman to maintain a public website with links to small-entity compliance guides issued by federal agencies and those agencies' contact information. Federal agencies create small-entity compliance guides to assist small businesses in complying with federal rules and regulations. Under the bill, the National Ombudsman would assess the extent to which federal agencies are publishing those guides.

CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 2142 would have an insignificant cost. The Small Business Paperwork Relief Act of 2002 already requires the Office of Management and Budget, in consultation with the SBA, to post small-entity compliance guides online each year. The agency's compliance contacts are posted as well.

Any additional spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is David Hughes. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

VIII. UNFUNDED MANDATES

H.R. 2142 contains no intergovernmental or private sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act, Public Law No. 104-4, and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

IX. NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY, ENTITLEMENT AUTHORITY, AND TAX EXPENDITURES

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House, the Committee provides the following opinion and estimate with respect to new budget authority, entitlement authority, and tax expenditures. While the Committee has not received an estimate of new budget authority contained in the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to § 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee does not believe that there will be any additional costs attributable to this legislation. H.R. 2142 does not direct new spending, but instead reallocates funding independently authorized and appropriated.

X. OVERSIGHT FINDINGS

L. No. 111–139, or a program related to a program identified in the most recent catalog of federal domestic assistance.
