

Frank Lowenstein

Frank Lowenstein served as Special Envoy for Israeli-Palestinian Negotiations and Senior Advisor to Secretary Kerry at the U.S. Department of State from July 2014 to January 2017. He was directly involved in all aspects of the Obama Administration's efforts, including negotiations between the Israelis and Palestinians in 2013 and 2014. He received the State Department's Distinguished Service Award, the highest honor awarded by the Department.

Prior to joining the State Department, Mr. Lowenstein served Staff Director and Chief Counsel for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee (SFRC) from 2009 until 2011.

Mr. Lowenstein is currently an Executive Director at APCO Worldwide and the international head of the firm's Global Solutions Practice Group.
