Experience

Evalynn, better known as “Eve”, served as Dikita’s CFO for 26 years prior to transitioning to President & CEO in 2010. Following and guided by her father, the company has grown to unprecedented heights. Under her leadership, the company has continued to thrive in new markets and has obtain larger, notable projects. Eve has gained the trust of clients, community stakeholders and her professional staff. She is directly responsible for the company’s growth nationally, where it has enjoyed contracts with MPOs and transit authorities such as CTA in Chicago, MATA in Memphis, MTC in San Francisco, RTD in Denver, SANDAG in San Diego, NORTA in New Orleans, Metro in Houston, to name a few. Dikita’s largest client is Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART), where the company has managed transit and NTD data for the last 28 consecutive years. Recently, Dikita completed a prime role as a 49% JV partner designing and managing the construction of DART’s last 3 miles of light rail.
