7         (b) DUTIES.—The Commission shall perform the fol-
8     lowing duties:

9                 (1) Identify and compile a corpus of informa-

15         including:

16                             (i) “blue discharges” and other forms
17         of discharge based on sexual orientation
18         that rendered former members of the 19         Armed Forces ineligible for veterans’ bene-
20         fits;

21                             (ii) military documents published in 22         1942 that linked homosexuality to psy-
23         chopathy;

24                             (iii) 1963 Army Regulation 40-501,
25         which banned gender transitioning or 26         transitioning members of the Armed

1                   Forces under the reasoning that they were 2                   “mentally unfit”; and

3                   (iv) the Department of Defense direc-
4                   tive dated 1981 that unequivocally stated
5                   that homosexuality was incompatible with 6                   military service and banning all homo-
7                   sexual individuals from service; and

8                   (B) the arguments that led to the creation
9                   of the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy, including 12                  cohesion.

13                  (2) Hold public hearings in such cities of the 14                  United States as it finds appropriate, and do com-15                  munity outreach and other public relations efforts in 16                  order to advertise such hearings and the opportunity 17                  to give testimony.

18                  (3) Gather testimonies, written and oral, from 19                  LGBTQ members of the Armed Forces and veterans

21                  names given.

22                  (4) Examine the impacts that discriminatory 23                  policy had on the physical and mental well-being of 24                  members of the Armed Forces.

1                         (5) Examine the lasting impacts, including psy-
2                         chological, financial, and employment-related, that 3                         military policy has had on veterans and members of 4                         the Armed Forces who were discharged due to their 5                         sexual orientation or gender identity.

6                         (6) Examine disparate impact that policies such 7                         as the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy and the 8                         Transgender Service Ban, had on minority groups in 9                         the Armed Forces, particularly racial minorities and 10                         women.

11                         (7) Recommend appropriate ways to educate
12                         the American public about institutionalized and Gov-13                         ernment-sanctioned discrimination.

14                         (8) Recommend appropriate remedies to ad-

17                         for enforcing discrimination that led to psycho-
18                         logical, emotional, and physical harm of U.S.
19                         troops and their families;

20                             (B) discharge upgrades and record amend-
21                         ment may be streamlined through the Boards
22                         for Correction of Military Records, including

24                         records by the members of the Armed Forces to 25                         whom they pertain;

(C) the service of LGBTQ individuals in the Armed Forces may be made more visible in materials distributed by the Secretaries of Defense and Veterans Affairs;

(D) Diversity and Inclusion policies of the Department of Defense may be revised, and how resources may be committed to diversity training; and

(E) health care, furnished by such Secretaries to members of the Armed Forces and for veterans, may include more resources to meeting the needs of LGBTQ patients, including improved data collection on LGBTQ patients, mental health counseling, and other medical necessities.
