

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2864

To require automatic sealing of certain criminal records, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 28, 2021

Ms. BLUNT ROCHESTER (for herself and Mr. RESCHENTHALER) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

---

A BILL

To require automatic sealing of certain criminal records, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Clean Slate Act of 5 2021”.

6 SEC. 2. SEALING OF CERTAIN RECORDS.

7       (a) AMENDMENT.—Subchapter A of chapter 227 of 8 title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the 9 end the following:

1   “§ 3560. Automatic sealing of certain records

2       “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

3           “(1) the term ‘covered individual’ means an in-
4           dividual who—

5              “(A) is not a sex offender;

6              “(B) has been—

7                  “(i) arrested for a Federal offense for 8                  which the individual was not convicted; or 9                  “(ii) convicted of an offense under 10                 section 404 of the Controlled Substances 11                 Act (21 U.S.C. 844) or any Federal non-12                 violent offense involving marijuana;

13              “(C) in the case of a conviction described 14                 in subparagraph (B)(ii), has fulfilled each re-15                 quirement of the sentence for the offense, in-16                 cluding—

17                  “(i) completing each term of imprison-
18                 ment, probation, or supervised release; and

19                  “(ii) satisfying each condition of im-
20                 prisonment, probation, or supervised re-21                 lease; and 22              “(D) has not been convicted for any of-23                 fense related to treason, terrorism, access and 24                 transmission of sensitive defense information,

25                 or other national security related convictions;

1               “(2) the term ‘marijuana’ has the meaning 2       given the term ‘marihuana’ in section 102 of the 3       Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802);

4               “(3) the term ‘nonviolent offense’ means an of-5       fense that is not a crime of violence, as defined in 6       subparagraphs (A) and (C) of section 3156(a)(4); 7       and

8               “(4) the term ‘sex offender’ has the meaning
9       given the term in section 111 of the Adam Walsh 10      Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 (34 U.S.C.
11      20911).

12       “(b) AUTOMATIC SEALING FOR CERTAIN ARRESTS
13 AND NONVIOLENT OFFENSES.—

14               “(1) IN GENERAL.—At the time of sentencing 15       of a covered individual for a conviction for an of-16       fense pursuant to section 404 of the Controlled Sub-17       stances Act (21 U.S.C. 844) or any Federal non-18       violent offense involving marijuana, the court shall 19       enter an order that each record and portion thereof 20       that relates to the offense shall be sealed automatic-21       ally on the date that is 1 year after the covered in-22       dividual fulfills each requirement of the sentence, in-
23       cluding—

24               “(A) completing each term of imprison-
25       ment, probation, or supervised release; and

“(B) satisfying each condition of imprisonment, probation, or supervised release.

3               “(2) ACQUITTAL; DETERMINATION NOT TO FILE
4               CHARGES.—

5                         “(A) ACQUITTAL.—Not later than 60 days 6                         after the date on which a covered individual is 7                         acquitted, exonerated, or otherwise subject to a 8                         judgment which did not result in a conviction 9                         for a Federal offense, each record or portion 10                         thereof that relates to the Federal offense shall 11                         be sealed automatically.

12                   “(B) DETERMINATION NOT TO FILE
13 CHARGES.—

14                         “(i) IN GENERAL.—If a covered indi-15                         vidual is arrested for a Federal offense and 16                         the Government does not file charges
17                         against the covered individual in relation 18                         to the Federal offense before the date that 19                         is 180 days after the date on which the ar-20                         rest was made, each record or portion 21                         thereof that relates to the arrest and Fed-22                         eral offense shall be sealed automatically 23                         on such date.

24                                 “(ii) UNSEALING FOR FILING OF 25 CHARGES.—At the request of the Govern-

1                   ment, a court may unseal a record sealed
2                   under clause (i) in order for the Govern-3                   ment to file charges against the covered in-4                   dividual in relation to the Federal offense
5                   described in clause (i).

6                   “(iii) LIMITATION.—If a record is un-7                   sealed under clause (ii), the record may 8                   only be resealed in accordance with para-
9                   graph (1) or subparagraph (A) of this 10                  paragraph.

11                  “(c) EFFECT OF SEALING ORDER.—

12                  “(1) PROTECTION FROM ACCESS.—Except as 13                  provided in paragraph (4), a record that has been 14                  sealed under this section or section 3560A shall not 15                  be accessible to any person.

16                  “(2) PROTECTION FROM PERJURY LAWS.—

17                  “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in 18                  subparagraph (B), an individual whose record 19                  has been sealed pursuant to this section shall 20                  not be required to disclose the existence of or 21                  any information contained in the individual’s 22                  sealed record, and shall not be subject to pros-23                  ecution under any civil or criminal provision of 24                  Federal or State law relating to perjury, false 25                  swearing, or making a false statement, includ-

7               “(B) EXCEPTION.—An individual whose 8 record has been sealed pursuant to this section 9 shall disclose information contained in such 10 record—

11                         “(i) when testifying in court;

12                         “(ii) in the course of questioning by a

13                         law enforcement officer in connection with

14                         a subsequent criminal investigation; or 15                         “(iii) in connection with employment

16                         described in subclause (I) or (II) of para-

17                         graph (4)(A)(ii) that the individual is seek-

18                         ing.

19       “(3) BACKGROUND CHECKS.—Except as pro-20       vided in paragraph (4), the existence of a record of 21       an individual which has been sealed pursuant to this 22       section, or the information contained therein, shall 23       not be included in any background check conducted 24       on such individual.

25                  “(4) EXCEPTIONS.—

1                 “(A) LAW ENFORCEMENT AND COURT AC-
2                 CESS.—An officer or employee of a law enforce-3                 ment agency or a court may access a record of 4                 an individual which has been sealed pursuant to 5                 this section and is in the possession of the 6                 agency or court, or another law enforcement 7                 agency or court, solely—

8                         “(i) for investigatory or prosecutorial 9                 purposes; or

10                         “(ii) for a background check that re-11                 lates to—

12                         “(I) employment with a law en-13                 forcement agency;

14                         “(II) any position that a Federal 15                 agency designates as a—

16                         “(aa) national security posi-17                 tion; or

18                         “(bb) high-risk, public trust 19                 position; or

20                         “(III) the manufacture, importa-
21                 tion, sale, transfer, possession, or car-
22                 rying of firearms, explosives, or am-23                 munition.

24                 “(B) DISCLOSURE.—An officer or em-
25                 ployee of a law enforcement agency or a court

1           may disclose information contained in a sealed
2           record only in order to carry out the purposes
3           described in subparagraph (A).

4        “(d) INDIVIDUAL ACCESS.—Any individual whose 5 record has been sealed pursuant to this section or section 6 3560A may access the information contained in the indi-
7 vidual’s sealed record.

8        “(e) PENALTY FOR UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE.— 9           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Whoever knowingly ac-
10 cesses or discloses information contained in a record
11 sealed under this section or section 3560A in a man-12 ner that is prohibited under this section, shall be 13 fined under this title, imprisoned for not more than 14 1 year, or both.

15          “(2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in 16 this subsection prevents a covered individual or an 17 individual who was the crime victim (as such term 18 is defined in section 3771(e)) from accessing or dis-19 closing information contained in record sealed under 20 this section or section 3560A.

21          “(f) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-
22 tion or section 3560A shall abrogate or constrain the au-
23 thority of a judge or judicial body to vacate a judgment 24 or sentence.

1       “(g) RULEMAKING.—The Attorney General shall, by 2 rule, establish a process to ensure that any record in the 3 possession of a Federal agency required to be sealed under 4 this section is automatically sealed in accordance with this 5 section.

6       “(h) APPLICABILITY.—This section shall apply to an 7 arrest that occurred or conviction that was entered before, 8 on, or after the date of enactment of this section. Not later 9 than 2 years after the date of the enactment of this sec-
10 tion, the Attorney General shall ensure that any record 11 related to an arrest or conviction that occurred or was en-12 tered prior to the automatic sealing of such a record, 13 which record is required to be sealed under this section, 14 is so sealed.

15      “(i) EMPLOYER IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.—An 16 employer who employs or otherwise engages an individual
17 whose criminal records were sealed pursuant to this sec-
18 tion shall be immune from liability for any claim arising
19 out of the misconduct of the individual, if the misconduct
20 relates to the portion of the criminal records that were 21 sealed pursuant to this section.

22      “(j) ESTABLISHMENT OF PARTNERSHIPS.—

23       “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Administrative Office
24 of the United States Courts or the Attorney General 25 may enter into a contract with or make grants to an

1 organization with expertise in creating digital and 2 technological systems to develop an efficient and ef-3 fective process for automatically sealing records in 4 accordance with this section.

5                 “(2) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—
6 There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out 7 this subsection—

8                 “(A) $2,000,000 to the Administrative Of-9 fice of the United States Courts; and 10                 “(B) $2,000,000 to the Attorney General.

11 “§ 3560A. Sealing of certain records upon petition

12                 “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

13                 “(1) the term ‘covered nonviolent offense’
14 means a Federal criminal offense that is not—

15                 “(A) a crime of violence (as defined in sub-16 paragraphs (A) and (C) of section 3156(a)(4)); 17 or

18                 “(B) a sex offense (as that term is defined
19 in section 111 of the Sex Offender Registration 20 and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. 20911));

21                 “(2) the term ‘eligible individual’ means an in-22 dividual who—

23                 “(A) has been convicted of a covered non-24 violent offense;

1                 “(B) has fulfilled each requirement of the 2                 sentence for the covered nonviolent offense, in-
3                 cluding—

4                     “(i) completing each term of imprison-
5                 ment, probation, or supervised release; and

6                     “(ii) satisfying each condition of im-
7                 prisonment, probation, or supervised re-
8                 lease;

9                 “(C) has not been convicted of more than 10                 2 felonies that are covered nonviolent offenses, 11                 including any such convictions that have been 12                 sealed (except that for purposes of this sub-13                 paragraph, 2 or more felony convictions that 14                 are covered nonviolent offenses arising out of 15                 the same act, or acts committed at the same 16                 time, shall be treated as one felony conviction);

17                 “(D) has not been convicted of any felony 18                 that is not a covered nonviolent offense; and 19                 “(E) has not been convicted for any of-

20                 fense related to treason, terrorism, access and 21                 transmission of sensitive defense information,
22                 or other national security related convictions;

23                 “(3) the term ‘petitioner’ means an individual 24                 who files a sealing petition;

1           “(4) the term ‘protected information’, with re-
2 spect to a covered nonviolent offense, means any ref-3 erence to—

4           “(A) an arrest, conviction, or sentence of 5 an individual for the offense;

6           “(B) the institution of criminal pro-
7 ceedings against an individual for the offense;
8 or

9           “(C) the result of criminal proceedings de-10 scribed in subparagraph (B);

11           “(5) the term ‘sealing hearing’ means a hearing 12 held under subsection (c)(2); and 13           “(6) the term ‘sealing petition’ means a petition 14 for a sealing order filed under subsection (b).

15           “(b) RIGHT TO FILE SEALING PETITION.—

16           “(1) IN GENERAL.—On and after the date that 17 is 1 year after the date on which the eligible indi-18 vidual has fulfilled each requirement described in 19 subsection (a)(2)(B), an eligible individual may file 20 a petition for a sealing order with respect to a cov-21 ered nonviolent offense in a district court of the 22 United States.

23           “(2) NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO FILE PETI-
24 TION.—

1                 “(A) IN GENERAL.—If an individual is 2                 convicted of a covered nonviolent offense and 3                 will potentially be eligible to file a sealing peti-4                 tion with respect to the offense upon fulfilling 5                 each requirement of the sentence for the offense
6                 as described in subsection (a)(2)(B), the court 7                 in which the individual is convicted shall, in 8                 writing, inform the individual, on each date de-9                 scribed in subparagraph (B), of—

10                 “(i) that potential eligibility; 11                 “(ii) the necessary procedures for fil-12                 ing the sealing petition; and 13                 “(iii) the benefits of sealing a record.

14                 “(B) DATES.—The dates described in this 15                 subparagraph are—

16                 “(i) the date on which the individual 17                 is convicted; and 18                 “(ii) the date on which the individual 19                 has completed every term of imprisonment, 20                 probation, or supervised release relating to 21                 the offense.

22                 “(c) PROCEDURES.—

23                 “(1) NOTIFICATION TO PROSECUTOR.—If an in-24                 dividual files a petition under subsection (b), the dis-

1       trict court in which the petition is filed shall provide 2       notice of the petition—

3               “(A) to the office of the United States at-4               torney that prosecuted the petitioner for the of-5               fense; and

6               “(B) upon the request of the petitioner, to 7               any other individual that the petitioner deter-8               mines may testify as to the—

9                       “(i) conduct of the petitioner since the 10                  date of the offense; or 11                       “(ii) reasons that the sealing order 12                  should be entered.

13               “(2) NOTIFICATION TO CRIME VICTIMS.—Upon 14                  receipt of a notification under paragraph (1)(A) by 15                  an office of the United States attorney, the office 16                  shall make reasonable efforts to identify any indi-17                  vidual who was a crime victim (as such term is de-18                  fined in section 3771) of the offense and provide no-19                  tice of the petition.

20               “(3) HEARING.—

21               “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180
22                  days after the date on which an individual files 23                  a sealing petition, the district court shall—

1                     “(i) except as provided in subparagraph 2                     (D), conduct a hearing in accordance 3                     with subparagraph (B); and 4                     “(ii) determine whether to enter a sealing order for the individual in accordance 5                     with paragraph (4).

7                     “(B) OPPORTUNITY TO TESTIFY AND 8                     OFFER EVIDENCE.—

9                     “(i) PETITIONER.—The petitioner
10                     may testify or offer evidence at the sealing 11                     hearing in support of sealing.

12                     “(ii) PROSECUTOR.—The office of a United States attorney that receives notice under paragraph (1)(A) may send a representative to testify or offer evidence at the sealing hearing in support of or against sealing.

18                     “(iii) OTHER INDIVIDUALS.—At the request of a petitioner, the district court in which the petition is filed shall issue a subpoena requiring an individual who receives notice under paragraph (1)(B) to testify or offer evidence at the sealing hearing as to the issues described in clauses (i) and (ii) of that paragraph.

1                   “(C) MAGISTRATE JUDGES.—

2                   “(i) IN GENERAL.—A magistrate 3                   judge may preside over a hearing under 4                   this paragraph, and submit to a judge of 5                   the court proposed findings of fact and 6                   recommendations for the disposition, by a 7                   judge of the court, of any sealing petition 8                   filed under this subsection.

9                   “(ii) RECOMMENDATIONS.—Not later
10                  than 14 days after being served with a 11                  copy, any party may serve and file written 12                  objections to the proposed findings and 13                  recommendations of the magistrate judge 14                  as provided by rules of court. A judge of 15                  the court shall make a de novo determina-
16                  tion of those portions of the report or spec-
17                  ified proposed findings or recommenda-
18                  tions to which objection is made. A judge 19                  of the court may accept, reject, or modify, 20                  in whole or in part, the findings or rec-
21                  ommendations made by the magistrate
22                  judge. The judge may also receive further 23                  evidence or recommit the matter to the 24                  magistrate judge with instructions.

1                 “(D) WAIVER OF HEARING.—If the petitioner
2                 and the United States attorney that receives notice under paragraph (1)(A) so agree, 3                 the court shall make a determination under paragraph (4) without a hearing.

4                 “(4) BASIS FOR DECISION.—

5                 “(A) IN GENERAL.—In determining whether to enter a sealing order with respect to protected information relating to a covered non-violent offense, the court—

6                     “(i) shall consider—

7                         “(I) the petition and any documents in the possession of the court;
8                         and

9                         “(II) all the evidence and testimony presented at the sealing hearing, if such a hearing is conducted;

10                         “(ii) may not consider any non-Federal nonviolent crimes for which the petitioner has been arrested or proceeded against, or of which the petitioner has been convicted; and 11                         “(iii) shall balance—

12                         “(I)(aa) the interest of public knowledge and safety; and

1                         “(bb) the legitimate interest, if 2                         any, of the Government in maintain-
3                         ing the accessibility of the protected
4                         information, including any potential 5                         impact of sealing the protected infor-
6                         mation on Federal licensure, permit, 7                         or employment restrictions; against

8                         “(II)(aa) the conduct and dem-9                         onstrated desire of the petitioner to be 10                         rehabilitated and positively contribute 11                         to the community; and 12                         “(bb) the interest of the peti-

13                         tioner in having the protected infor-14                         mation sealed, including the harm of 15                         the protected information to the abil-16                         ity of the petitioner to secure and 17                         maintain employment.

18                         “(B) BURDEN ON GOVERNMENT.—The 19                         burden shall be on the Government to show 20                         that the interests under subclause (I) of sub-21                         paragraph (A)(iii) outweigh the interests of the 22                         petitioner under subclause (II) of that subpara-23                         graph.

24                         “(5) WAITING PERIOD AFTER DENIAL.—If the 25                         district court denies a sealing petition, the petitioner

1 may not file a new sealing petition with respect to 2 the same offense until the date that is 2 years after 3 the date of the denial.

4       “(6) UNIVERSAL FORM.—The Director of the 5       Administrative Office of the United States Courts 6       shall create a universal form, available over the 7       Internet and in paper form, that an individual may 8       use to file a sealing petition.

9       “(7) FEE WAIVER.—The Director of the Ad-10      ministrative Office of the United States Courts shall 11      by regulation establish a minimally burdensome
12      process under which indigent petitioners may obtain 13      a waiver of any fee for filing a sealing petition.

14       “(8) EFFECT OF SEALING.—Subsections (c)
15      through (e) of section 3560 shall apply to any record 16      that is sealed under this section.

17       “(9) PUBLIC DEFENDER ELIGIBILITY.—The 18      district court shall appoint counsel in accordance 19      with the plan of the district court in operation under 20      section 3006A to represent a petitioner for purposes 21      of this section.

22       “(d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-23      tion may be construed to require a covered individual (as 24      such term is defined in section 3560) to submit a sealing

1 petition with respect to records required to be automati-
2 cally sealed under section 3560.

3       “(e) REPORTING.—Not later than 2 years after the 4 date of enactment of this section, and each year there-
5 after, each district court of the United States shall issue 6 a public report that—

7           “(1) describes—

8              “(A) the number of sealing petitions grant-9 ed and denied under this section; and 10             “(B) the number of instances in which the 11 office of a United States attorney supported or 12 opposed a sealing petition;

13             “(2) includes any supporting data that the 14 court determines relevant and that does not name 15 any petitioner; and

16             “(3) disaggregates all relevant data by race, 17 ethnicity, gender, and the nature of the offense.

18        “(f) EMPLOYER IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.—An 19 employer who employs or otherwise engages an individual
20 whose criminal records were sealed pursuant to this sec-
21 tion shall be immune from liability for any claim arising
22 out of the misconduct of the individual, if the misconduct
23 relates to the portion of the criminal records that were 24 sealed pursuant to this section.”.

1       (b) TABLE OF SECTIONS.—The table of sections for 2 subchapter A of chapter 227 of title 18, United States
3 Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to 4 section 3559 the following:

“3560. Automatic sealing of certain records.
“3560A. Sealing of certain records upon petition.”.
