A BILL

To authorize the National Service Animals Monument Corporation to establish a commemorative work in the District of Columbia and its environs, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “National Service Ani-
5       mals Memorial Act”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress finds that—

1           (1) the National Service Animals Monument
2 Corporation's mission is to honor and recognize the 3 broad scope of service animals, including working
4 animals, through the creation of a memorial to edu-
5 cate the public of the contributions by service ani-
6 mals and the human-animal bond between service
7 animals and their handlers, whether a person with 8 a disability, a law enforcement officer, military per-9 sonnel, or other handler;

10           (2) formalized service animal work began in 11 1929 when the Eustice School in New Jersey estab-
12 lished the first guide-dog school;

13           (3) the purple poppy is the international symbol
14 for the service and sacrifice of service animals;

15           (4) on February 24 of each year, National 16 Service Animals Day is celebrated in the United 17 States and throughout the world;

18           (5) service and working animals, such as dogs,
19 horses, homing pigeons, donkeys, mules, dolphins,
20 sea lions, and other animals, have worked alongside 21 and supported humans throughout history and have 22 created strong human-animal bonds, including—

23           (A) during the Revolutionary War, horses
24 served in combat carrying soldiers, as well as 25 transporting the wounded and critical supplies;

1 (B) during World War I and World War

2 II—

3 (i) homing pigeons served as critical
4 messengers with tiny message capsules at-
5 tached to their legs that were used to send 6 communications that saved the lives of 7 countless soldiers, resulting in many pi-
8 geons becoming the target of enemy fire;
9 and

10 (ii) donkeys and mules transported
11 food, supplies, and wounded
12 servicemembers; and

13 (C) during the war in Afghanistan—

14 (i) military working dogs safeguarded
15 the lives of thousands of servicemen by 16 clearing areas of improvised explosion de-17 vices; and

18 (ii) in one example, Lucca, a German
19 Shepherd-Belgian Malinois service dog,
20 was employed by the United States Marine
21 Corps for 6 years and trained to detect ex-
22 plosives, deploying twice to Iraq and once
23 to Afghanistan, supporting over 400 mis-
24 sions without a single human fatality, and 25 ultimately sustaining an injury and ampu-

1                   tation in 2012 due to an improvised explo-
2                   sive device while on patrol in Afghanistan;

3                   (6) the bonds formed between military per-
4                   sonnel and law enforcement and their working dogs 5                   are so strong that they have risked their lives will-6                   ingly to save the other;

7                   (7) the tasks that service dogs perform for per-
8                   sons with disabilities are essential activities of daily 9                   living, such as guiding people with visual impair-10                  ments, signaling sounds for those who are deaf, re-
11                  trieving items for people with mobility issues, alert-
12                  ing about impending cardiac episodes or seizures,
13                  turning on lights, providing stability for their owner
14                  while standing, and pressing elevator and accessi-
15                  bility buttons;

16                  (8) in addition to service animals' help with 17                  functional tasks and missions, the human-animal
18                  bond provides handlers the ability to live independ-
19                  ently, work confidently, and socialize freely;

20                  (9) shelter dogs can be trained as service ani-
21                  mals;

22                  (10) service animals, such as horses and dogs—

23                         (A) support a variety of health and ther-
24                         apy services, including for people with autism,

1 schizophrenia, depression, anxiety, and bipolar
2 disorder; and

3 (B) specifically, can support
4 servicemembers and veterans who experience
5 traumatic brain injury and post-traumatic
6 stress disorder;

7 (11) search and rescue dogs working with civil-
8 ian or law enforcement handlers make United States
9 communities and the Nation safer when they assist 10 with the rescue of lost children, seniors, and other 11 at-risk individuals, including in the event of natural 12 or manmade disasters, for example—

13 (A) service animals have supported search
14 and rescue missions after terrorist attacks, in-
15 cluding September 11 and the Oklahoma City 16 bombing; and

17 (B) service animals have supported local 18 search and rescue missions involving lost chil-
19 dren, such as—

20 (i) the service dog Mercy, a blood-
21 hound with the Lee County, Florida, Sher-
22 iff's department, who tracked a 12-year-old
23 girl for more than a half mile through 24 thick woods after she went missing during 25 Tropical Storm Elsa in July 2021; and

1 (ii) the service dog Gandalf, trained
2 by the South Carolina Search and Rescue
3 Dog Association, who found a 12-year-old
4 boy who had vanished from a campsite in 5 the Blue Ridge Mountains in North Caro-
6 lina in March 2019;

7 (12) the extraordinary abilities of service ani-
8 mals, including smell, sensing, hearing, eyesight, and 9 empathy, make them uniquely capable of helping hu-
10 mans, including by assisting with the identification
11 of illegal drugs, detecting an impending seizure, 12 hearing a person buried beneath rubble, or seeing an 13 expensive or vital tool dropped by a naval diver;

14 (13) service animals provide well-documented
15 value to human health, safety, and security; and

16 (14) the National Service Animals Memorial 17 will represent a place of pride, introspection, and 18 education to pay tribute to the contributions and 19 sacrifices made by all service animals and their han-
20 dlers throughout history.
