1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) The People's Republic of China (PRC) is 4 leveraging its political, diplomatic, economic, mili-
 5 tary, technological, and ideological power to become 6 a strategic, near-peer, global competitor of the 7 United States. The policies increasingly pursued by 8 the PRC in these domains are contrary to the inter-9 ests and values of the United States, its partners, 10 and much of the rest of the world.

11 (2) The current policies being pursued by the 12 PRC—

13 (A) threaten the future character of the 14 international order and are shaping the rules, 15 norms, and institutions that govern relations
 16 among states;

17 (B) will put at risk the ability of the 18 United States to secure its national interests; 19 and

1 (C) will put at risk the future peace, pros-
2 perity, and freedom of the international commu-
3 nity in the coming decades.

4 (3) After normalizing diplomatic relations with 5 the PRC in 1979, the United States actively worked 6 to advance the PRC's economic and social develop-7 ment to ensure that it participated in, and benefitted 8 from, the free and open international order. The 9 United States pursued these goals and contributed 10 to the welfare of the Chinese people by—

11 (A) increasing the PRC's trade relations
12 and access to global capital markets;

13 (B) promoting the PRC's accession to the 14 World Trade Organization;

15 (C) providing development finance and 16 technical assistance;

17 (D) promoting research collaboration;

18 (E) educating the PRC's top students;

19 (F) permitting transfers of cutting-edge 20 technologies and scientific knowledge; and 21 (G) providing intelligence and military as-22 sistance.

23 (4) It is now clear that the PRC has chosen to 24 pursue state-led, mercantilist economic policies, an 25 increasingly authoritarian governance model at home

1 through increased restrictions on personal freedoms, 2 and an aggressive and assertive foreign policy. These 3 policies frequently and deliberately undermine 4 United States interests and are contrary to core
5 United States values and the values of other nations, 6 both in the Indo-Pacific and beyond. In response to 7 this strategic decision of the CCP, the United States
8 has been compelled to reexamine and revise its strat-9 egy towards the PRC.

10 (5) The General Secretary of the Chinese Com-
11 munist Party and the President of the People’s Re-12 public of China, Xi Jinping, has elevated the “Great 13 Rejuvenation of the Chinese Nation” as central to 14 the domestic and foreign policy of the PRC. His pro-15 gram demands—

16 (A) strong, centralized CCP leadership;

17 (B) concentration of military power;

18 (C) a strong role for the CCP in the state 19 and the economy;

20 (D) an aggressive foreign policy seeking 21 control over broadly asserted territorial claims;
22 and

23 (E) the denial of any universal values and 24 individual rights that are deemed to threaten 25 the CCP.

1 (6) The PRC views its Leninist model of gov-
2 ernance, “socialism with Chinese characteristics”, as 3 superior to, and at odds with, the constitutional 4 models of the United States and other democracies.
5 This approach to governance is lauded by the CCP
6 as essential to securing the PRC’s status as a global 7 leader, and to shaping the future of the world. In a 8 2013 speech, President Xi said, “We firmly believe 9 that as socialism with Chinese characteristics devel-
10 ops further . . . it is . . . inevitable that the superi-
11 ority of our socialist system will be increasingly ap-12 parent . . . [and] our country’s road of development 13 will have increasingly greater influence on the 14 world.”.

15 (7) The PRC’s objectives are to first establish 16 regional hegemony over the Indo-Pacific and then to 17 use that dominant position to propel the PRC to be-18 come the “leading world power,” shaping an inter-19 national order that is conducive to the CCP’s inter-20 ests. Achieving these objectives requires turning the 21 PRC into a wealthy nation under strict CCP rule by 22 using a strong military and advanced technological 23 capability to pursue the PRC’s objectives, regardless 24 of other countries’ interests.

1 (8) The PRC is reshaping the current inter-
2 national order, which is built upon the rule of law
3 and free and open ideals and principles, by con-
4 ducting global information and influence operations, 5 seeking to redefine international laws and norms to 6 align with the objectives of the CCP, rejecting the 7 legitimacy of internationally recognized human 8 rights, and seeking to co-opt the leadership and 9 agenda of multinational organizations for the benefit 10 of the PRC and other authoritarian regimes at the 11 expense of the interests of the United States and the 12 international community. In December 2018, Presi-13 dent Xi suggested that the CCP views its “historic 14 mission” as not only to govern China, but also to 15 profoundly influence global governance to benefit the 16 CCP.

17 (9) The PRC is encouraging other countries to 18 follow its model of “socialism with Chinese charac-19 teristics”. During the 19th Party Congress in 2017, 20 President Xi said that the PRC could serve as a 21 model of development for other countries by utilizing 22 “Chinese wisdom” and a “Chinese approach to solv-23 ing problems”.

1 (10) The PRC is promoting its governance
2 model and attempting to weaken other models of 3 governance by—

4 (A) undermining democratic institutions;

5 (B) subverting financial institutions;

6 (C) coercing businesses to accommodate 7 the policies of the PRC; and

8 (D) using disinformation to disguise the 9 nature of the actions described in subpara-10 graphs (A) through (C).

11 (11) The PRC is close to its goal of becoming 12 the global leader in science and technology. In May 13 2018, President Xi said that for the PRC to reach 14 “prosperity and rejuvenation”, it needs to “endeavor 15 to be a major world center for science and innova-16 tion”. The PRC has invested the equivalent of bil-17 lions of dollars into education and research and de-18 velopment and established joint scientific research 19 centers and science universities.

20 (12) The PRC’s drive to become a “manufac-21 turing and technological superpower” and to pro-22 mote “innovation with Chinese characteristics” is 23 coming at the expense of human rights and long-24 standing international rules and norms with respect 25 to economic competition, and presents a challenge to

1 United States national security and the security of 2 allies and like-minded countries. In particular, the 3 PRC advances its illiberal political and social policies 4 through mass surveillance, social credit systems, and 5 a significant role of the state in internet governance.
6 Through these means, the PRC increases direct and 7 indirect government control over its citizens' every-8 day lives. Its national strategy of "civil-military fu-9 sion" mandates that civil and commercial research, 10 which increasingly drives global innovation, is lever-11 aged to develop new military capabilities.

12 (13) The PRC is using legal and illegal means 13 to achieve its objective of becoming a manufacturing
14 and technological superpower. The PRC uses state-15 directed industrial policies in anticompetitive ways to 16 ensure the dominance of PRC companies. The CCP
17 engages in and encourages actions that actively un-18 dermine a free and open international market, such 19 as intellectual property theft, forced technology 20 transfers, regulatory and financial subsidies, and 21 mandatory CCP access to proprietary data as part 22 of business and commercial agreements between Chi-23 nese and foreign companies.

24 (14) The policies referred to in paragraph (13)
25 are designed to freeze United States and other for-

1 eign firms out of the PRC market, while eroding
2 competition in other important markets. The heavy
3 subsidization of Chinese companies includes poten-
4 tial violation of its World Trade Organization com-5 mitments. In May 2018, President Xi said that the 6 PRC aims to keep the “initiatives of innovation and 7 development security . . . in [China’s] own hands”.

8 (15) The PRC is advancing its global objectives
9 through a variety of avenues, including its signature 10 initiative, the Belt and Road Initiative (referred to 11 in this section as “BRI”), which is enshrined in the 12 Chinese Constitution and includes the Digital Silk 13 Road and Health Silk Road. The PRC describes 14 BRI as a straightforward and wholly beneficial plan 15 for all countries. Eventually, it seeks to advance an 16 economic system with the PRC at its center, making 17 it the most concrete geographical representation of 18 the PRC’s global ambitions. BRI increases the eco-19 nomic influence of state-owned Chinese firms in 20 global markets, enhances the PRC’s political lever-21 age with government leaders around the world, and 22 provides greater access to strategic nodes such as 23 ports and railways. Through BRI, the PRC seeks 24 political deference through economic dependence.

1 (16) The PRC is executing a plan to establish 2 regional hegemony over the Indo-Pacific and dis-
3 place the United States from the region. As a Pa-
4 cific power, the United States has built and sup-
5 ported enduring alliances and economic partnerships 6 that secure peace and prosperity and promote the 7 rule of law and political pluralism in a free and open 8 Indo-Pacific. In contrast, the PRC uses economic 9 and military coercion in the region to secure its own 10 interests.

11 (17) The PRC’s military strategy seeks to keep 12 the United States military from operating in the 13 Western Pacific and erodes United States security 14 guarantees.

15 (18) The PRC is aggressively pursuing exclu-
16 sive control of critical land routes, sea lanes, and air 17 space in the Indo-Pacific in the hopes of eventually 18 exercising greater influence beyond the region. This 19 includes lanes crucial to commercial activity, energy 20 exploration, transport, and the exercise of security 21 operations in areas permitted under international 22 law.

23 (19) The PRC seeks so-called “reunification”
24 with Taiwan through whatever means may ulti-
25 mately be required. The CCP’s insistence that so-

1 called “reunification” is Taiwan’s only option makes 2 this goal inherently coercive. In January 2019,
3 President Xi stated that the PRC “make[s] no
4 promise to renounce the use of force and reserve[s]
5 the option of taking all necessary means”. Taiwan’s 6 embodiment of democratic values and economic lib-7 eralism challenges President Xi’s goal of achieving 8 national rejuvenation. The PRC plans to exploit Tai-9 wan’s dominant strategic position in the First Island
10 Chain and to project power into the Second Island
11 Chain and beyond.

12 (20) In the South China Sea, the PRC has exe-13 cuted an illegal island-building campaign that 14 threatens freedom of navigation and the free-flow of 15 commerce, damages the environment, bolsters the 16 PLA power projection capabilities, and coerces and 17 intimidates other regional claimants in an effort to 18 advance its unlawful claims and control the waters
19 around neighboring countries. Despite President Xi’s
20 September 2015 speech, in which he said the PRC 21 was not militarizing the South China Sea, during 22 the 2017 19th Party Congress, President Xi an-23 nounced that “construction on islands and reefs in 24 the South China Sea have seen steady progress”.

1 (21) The PRC is rapidly modernizing the PLA
2 to attain a level of capacity and capability superior
3 to the United States in terms of equipment and con-4 duct of modern military operations by shifting its 5 military doctrine from having a force “adequate 6 [for] China’s defensive needs” to having a force 7 “commensurate with China’s international status”.
8 Ultimately, this transformation could enable China
9 to impose its will in the Indo-Pacific region through 10 the threat of military force. In 2017, President Xi
11 established the following developmental benchmarks
12 for the advancement of the PLA:

13 (A) A mechanized force with increased
14 informatized and strategic capabilities by 2020.

15 (B) The complete modernization of China’s 16 national defense by 2035.

17 (C) The full transformation of the PLA
18 into a world-class force by 2050.

19 (22) The PRC’s strategy and supporting poli-20 cies described in this section undermine United 21 States interests, such as—

22 (A) upholding a free and open inter-23 national order;

1 (B) maintaining the integrity of inter-
2 national institutions with liberal norms and val-3 ues;

4 (C) preserving a favorable balance of 5 power in the Indo-Pacific;

6 (D) ensuring the defense of its allies;

7 (E) preserving open sea and air lanes;

8 (F) fostering the free flow of commerce 9 through open and transparent markets; and 10 (G) promoting individual freedom and 11 human rights.

12 (23) The global COVID–19 pandemic has in-13 tensified and accelerated these trends in the PRC’s 14 behavior and therefore increased the need for United 15 States global leadership and a competitive posture.
16 The PRC has capitalized on the world’s focus on the 17 COVID–19 pandemic by—

18 (A) moving rapidly to undermine Hong 19 Kong’s autonomy, including imposing a so-
20 called “national security law” on Hong Kong;

21 (B) aggressively imposing its will in the 22 East and South China Seas;

23 (C) contributing to increased tensions with 24 India; and

1 (D) engaging in a widespread and govern-
2 ment-directed disinformation campaign to ob-
3 scure the PRC Government’s efforts to cover up
4 the seriousness of COVID–19, sow confusion
5 about the origination of the outbreak, and dis-
6 credit the United States, its allies, and global 7 health efforts.

8 (24) In response to the PRC’s strategy and 9 policies, the United States must adopt a policy of 10 strategic competition with the PRC to protect and 11 promote our vital interests and values.

12 (25) The United States policy of strategic com-13 petition with respect to the People’s Republic of 14 China is part of a broader strategic approach to the 15 Indo-Pacific and the world which centers with 16 United States allies and partners to advance shared 17 values and interests and to preserve and enhance a 18 free, open, democratic, inclusive, rules-based, stable, 19 and diverse region.

2 (a) OBJECTIVES.—It is the policy of the United 3 States, in pursuing strategic competition with the PRC, 4 to pursue the following objectives:

5 (1) The United States global leadership role is 6 sustained and its political system and major founda-
7 tions of national power are postured for long-term 8 political, economic, technological, and military com-
9 petition with the PRC.

10 (2) The balance of power in the Indo-Pacific re-
11 mains favorable to the United States and its allies.
12 The United States and its allies maintain unfettered 13 access to the region, including through freedom of 14 navigation and the free flow of commerce, consistent 15 with international law and practice, and the PRC 16 neither dominates the region nor coerces its neigh-17 bors.

18 (3) The allies and partners of the United 19 States—

20 (A) maintain confidence in United States
21 leadership and its commitment to the Indo-Pa-22 cific region;

23 (B) can withstand and combat subversion
24 and undue influence by the PRC; and

1 (C) align themselves with the United 2 States in setting global rules, norms, and stand-3 ards that benefit the international community.

4 (4) The combined weight of the United States
5 and its allies and partners is strong enough to dem-6 onstrate to the PRC that the risks of attempts to 7 dominate other states outweigh the potential bene-8 fits.

9 (5) The United States leads the free and open 10 international order, which is comprised of resilient 11 states and institutions that uphold and defend prin-
12 ciples, including sovereignty, rule of law, individual 13 freedom, and human rights. The international order 14 is strengthened to defeat attempts at destabilization 15 by illiberal and authoritarian actors.

16 (6) The key rules, norms, and standards of 17 international engagement in the 21st century are 18 maintained, including the—

19 (A) protection of human rights, commer-
20 cial engagement and investment, and tech-21 nology; and

22 (B) that such rules, norms, and standards
23 are in alignment with the values and interests
24 of the United States, its allies and partners, 25 and the free world.

1 (7) Assure that the CCP does not—

2 (A) subvert open and democratic societies;

3 (B) distort global markets;

4 (C) manipulate the international trade sys-
5 tem;

6 (D) coerce other nations via economic and 7 military means; or

8 (E) use its technological advantages to un-9 dermine individual freedoms or other states' na-10 tional security interests.

11 (8) The United States deters military con-12 frontation with the PRC and both nations work to 13 reduce the risk of conflict.

14 (b) POLICY.—It is the policy of the United States, 15 in pursuit of the objectives set forth in subsection (a)—

16 (1) to strengthen the United States domestic 17 foundation by reinvesting in market-based economic 18 growth, education, scientific and technological inno-19 vation, democratic institutions, and other areas that 20 improve the United States ability to pursue its vital 21 economic, foreign policy, and national security inter-22 ests;

23 (2) to pursue a strategy of strategic competition 24 with the PRC in the political, diplomatic, economic, 25 development, military, informational, and techno-

1 logical realms that maximizes United States
2 strengths and increases the costs for the PRC of 3 harming United States interests and values of those 4 of United States allies and partners;

5 (3) to lead a free, open, and secure inter-
6 national system characterized by freedom from coer-7 cion, rule of law, open markets and the free flow of 8 commerce, and a shared commitment to security and 9 peaceful resolution of disputes, human rights, and 10 good and transparent governance;

11 (4) to strengthen and deepen United States alli-
12 ances and partnerships, prioritizing the Indo-Pacific 13 and Europe, by pursuing greater bilateral and multi-14 lateral cooperative initiatives that advance shared in-

8 SEC. 5. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

9 It is the sense of Congress that the execution of the 10 policy described in section 4(b) requires the following ac-
11 tions:

12 (1) Strategic competition with the PRC will re-
13 quire the United States—

14 (A) to marshal sustained political will to 15 protect its vital interests, promote its values, 16 and advance its economic and national security 17 objectives for decades to come; and

18 (B) to achieve this sustained political will, 19 persuade the American people and United 20 States allies and partners of—

21 (i) the challenges posed by the PRC;

22 and

23 (ii) the need for long-term competition
24 to defend shared interests and values.

1 (2) The United States must coordinate closely 2 with allies and partners to compete effectively with 3 the PRC, including to encourage allies and partners
4 to assume, as appropriate, greater roles in balancing 5 and checking the aggressive and assertive behavior
6 of the PRC.

7 (3) The President of the United States must 8 lead and direct the entire executive branch to make 9 the People's Republic of China as the greatest geo-10 political and geoeconomic challenge for United 11 States foreign policy, increasing the prioritization of 12 strategic competition with the PRC and broader 13 United States interests in the Indo-Pacific region in 14 the conduct of foreign policy and assuring the alloca-15 tion of appropriate resources adequate to the chal-16 lenge.

17 (4) The head of every Federal department and 18 agency should designate a senior official at the level
19 of Under Secretary or above to coordinate the de-20 partment's or agency's policies with respect to stra-21 tegic competition with the PRC.

22 (5) The ability of the United States to execute 23 a strategy of strategic competition with the PRC will 24 be undermined if our attention is repeatedly diverted

1 to challenges that are not vital to United States eco-2 nomic and national security interests.

3 (6) In the coming decades, the United States
4 must prevent the PRC from—

5 (A) establishing regional hegemony in the 6 Indo-Pacific; and

7 (B) using that position to advance its as-8 sertive political, economic, and foreign policy
9 goals around the world.

10 (7) The United States must ensure that the 11 Federal budget is properly aligned with the strategic 12 imperative to compete with the PRC by—

13 (A) ensuring sufficient levels of funding to 14 resource all instruments of United States na-15 tional power; and 16 (B) coherently prioritizing how such funds 17 are used.

18 (8) Sustained prioritization of the challenge
19 posed by the PRC requires—

20 (A) bipartisan cooperation within Con-21 gress; and

22 (B) frequent, sustained, and meaningful
23 collaboration and consultation between the exec-
24 utive branch and Congress.

1 (9) The United States must ensure close inte-
2 gration among economic and foreign policymakers,
3 the private sector, civil society, universities and aca-
4 demic institutions, and other relevant actors in free
5 and open societies affected by the challenges posed
6 by the PRC to enable such actors—

7 (A) to collaborate to advance common in-8 terests; and

9 (B) to identify appropriate policies—

10 (i) to strengthen the United States
11 and its allies;

12 (ii) to promote a compelling vision of 13 a free and open order; and 14 (iii) to push back against detrimental

15 policies pursued by the CCP.

16 (10) The United States must ensure that all 17 Federal departments and agencies are organized to 18 reflect the fact that strategic competition with the 19 PRC is the United States top foreign policy priority, 20 including through the assigned missions and location 21 of United States Government personnel, by—

22 (A) dedicating more personnel in the Indo-23 Pacific region, at posts around the world, and 24 in Washington DC, with priorities directly rel-

1 evant to advancing competition with the Peo-
2 ple's Republic of China;

3 (B) placing greater numbers of foreign 4 service officers, international development pro-
5 fessionals, members of the foreign commercial 6 service, intelligence professionals, and other 7 United States Government personnel in the 8 Indo-Pacific region; and

9 (C) ensuring that this workforce, both ci-
10 vilian and military, has the training in lan-
11 guage, technical skills, and other competencies
12 required to advance a successful competitive
13 strategy with the PRC.

14 (11) The United States must place renewed em-15 phasis on strengthening the nonmilitary instruments
16 of national power, including diplomacy, information, 17 technology, economics, foreign assistance and devel-
18 opment finance, commerce, intelligence, and law en-19 forcement, which are crucial for addressing the 20 unique economic, political, and ideological challenges 21 posed by the PRC.

22 (12) The United States must sustain resourcing 23 for a Pacific Deterrence Initiative, which shall be 24 aligned with the overarching political and diplomatic 25 objectives articulated in the Asia Reassurance Initia-

1 tive Act (Public Law 115–409), and must prioritize 2 the military investments necessary to achieve United 3 States political objectives in the Indo-Pacific, includ-
4 ing—

5 (A) promoting regional security in the 6 Indo-Pacific;

7 (B) reassuring allies and partners while 8 protecting them from coercion; and 9 (C) deterring conflict with the PRC.

10 (13) Competition with the PRC requires the 11 United States skillful adaptation to the information
12 environment of the 21st century. United States pub-13 lic diplomacy and messaging efforts must effec-
14 tively—

15 (A) promote the value of partnership with 16 the United States;

17 (B) highlight the risks and costs of 18 enmeshment with the PRC; and

19 (C) counter CCP propaganda and 20 disinformation.

15 implications for United States national interests and 16 the interests of the countries identified in paragraph 17 (1), with respect to the PRC's involvement and in-18 fluence in developing country energy production or 19 transmission; and

20 (4) outlines current and planned efforts by the 21 United States to partner with the countries identi-22 fied in paragraph (1) on energy matters that sup-23 port shared interests between the United States and 24 such countries.

1 (b) TRANSMITTAL.—The assessment required in sub-

8 Connectivity

9 SEC. 121. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY
10 ISSUES.

11 (a) STATEMENT OF POLICY ON LEADERSHIP IN 12 INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS SETTING.—It is the sense of 13 Congress that the United States must lead in international 14 standard-setting bodies that set the governance norms and 15 rules for critical digitally enabled technologies in order to 16 ensure that these technologies operate within a free, se-17 cure, interoperable, and stable digital domain.

18 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
19 gress that the United States, along with allies and part-20 ners, should lead an international effort that utilizes all 21 of the economic and diplomatic tools at its disposal to 22 combat the expanding use of information and communica-
23 tions technology products and services to surveil, repress, 24 and manipulate populations (also known as “digital 25 authoritarianism”).

1 (c) NEGOTIATIONS FOR DIGITAL TRADE AGREE-
2 MENT.—It is the sense of Congress that the United States
3 Trade Representative should negotiate bilateral and 4 plurilateral agreements relating to digital goods with the 5 European Union, Japan, Taiwan, the member countries
6 of the Five Eyes intelligence-sharing alliance, and other 7 nations, as appropriate.

8 (d) FREEDOM OF INFORMATION IN THE DIGITAL 9 AGE.—It is the sense of Congress that the United States
10 should lead a global effort to ensure that freedom of infor-11 mation, including the ability to safely consume or publish 12 information without fear of undue reprisals, is maintained 13 as the digital domain becomes an increasingly integral 14 mechanism for communication.

15 (e) EFFORTS TO ENSURE TECHNOLOGICAL DEVEL-16 OPMENT DOES NOT THREATEN DEMOCRATIC GOVERN-
17 ANCE OR HUMAN RIGHTS.—It is the sense of Congress
18 that the United States should lead a global effort to de-19 velop and adopt a set of common principles and standards 20 for critical technologies to ensure that the such tech-21 nologies cannot be abused by malign actors, whether they 22 are governments or other entities, and that they do not 23 threaten democratic governance or human rights.

24 (f) FORMATION OF DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY TRADE
25 ALLIANCE.—It is the sense of Congress that the United

1 States should examine opportunities for diplomatic nego-
2 tiations regarding the formation of mutually beneficial al-
3 liances relating to digitally enabled technologies and serv-4 ices.

12 (1) expand and increase secure Internet access 13 and digital infrastructure in emerging markets;

14 (2) protect technological assets, including data;

15 (3) adopt policies and regulatory positions that 16 foster and encourage open, interoperable, reliable,

21 (d) MALIGN INFLUENCE.—In this section, the term
22 “malign influence” with respect to the Chinese Com-

24 ducted by the Chinese Communist Party or entities acting 25 on its behalf that—

1 (1) undermine a free and open international

18 and governance models.

19 SEC. 133. FINDINGS ON CHINESE INFORMATION WARFARE
20 AND MALIGN INFLUENCE OPERATIONS.

21 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
22 ings:

23 (1) In the report to Congress required under 24 section 1261(b) of the John S. McCain National De-25 fense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2019 (Pub-

1 lic Law 115–232), the President laid out a broad 2 range of malign activities conducted by the Govern-
3 ment of China and its agents and entities, includ-
4 ing—

5 (A) propaganda and disinformation, in 6 which “Beijing communicates its narrative 7 through state-run television, print, radio, and 8 online organizations whose presence is prolifer-9 ating in the United States and around the 10 world”;

11 (B) malign political influence operations, 12 in which “front organizations and agents which 13 target businesses, universities, think tanks,
14 scholars, journalists, and local state and Fed-
15 eral officials in the United States and around 16 the world, attempting to influence discourse”; 17 and

18 (C) malign financial influence operations, 19 characterized as “misappropriation of tech-
20 nology and intellectual property, failure to ap-21 propriately disclose relationships with foreign 22 government sponsored entities, breaches of con-23 tract and confidentiality, and manipulation of 24 processes for fair and merit-based allocation of 25 Federal research and development funding”.

1 (2) Chinese information warfare and malign in-
2 fluence operations are ongoing. In January 2019,
3 the Director of National Intelligence, Dan Coats, 4 stated, “China will continue to use legal, political,
5 and economic levers—such as the lure of Chinese
6 markets—to shape the information environment. It 7 is also capable of using cyber attacks against sys-
8 tems in the United States to censor or suppress 9 viewpoints it deems politically sensitive.”.

10 (3) In February 2020, the Director of the Fed-
11 eral Bureau of Investigation, Christopher Wray, tes-12 tified to the Committee on the Judiciary of the 13 House of Representatives that the People’s Republic
14 of China has “very active [malign] foreign influence 15 efforts in this country,” with the goal of “trying to 16 shift our policy and our public opinion to be more 17 pro-China on a variety of issues”.

18 (4) The People’s Republic of China’s informa-
19 tion warfare and malign influence operations con-
20 tinue to adopt new tactics and evolve in sophistica-21 tion. In May 2020, the Special Envoy and Coordi-
22 nator of the Global Engagement Center (GEC), Lea 23 Gabrielle, stated that there was a convergence of 24 Russian and Chinese narratives surrounding 25 COVID–19 and that the GEC had “uncovered a new

1 network of inauthentic Twitter accounts” that it as-2 sessed was “created with the intent to amplify Chi-3 nese propaganda and disinformation”. In June 4 2020, Google reported that Chinese hackers at-5 tempted to access email accounts of the campaign 6 staff of a presidential candidate.

7 (5) Chinese information warfare and malign in-
8 fluence operations are a threat to the national secu-9 rity, democracy and the economic systems of the 10 United States, its allies and partners. In October 11 2018, Vice President Mike Pence warned that “Bei-12 jing is employing a whole-of-government approach, 13 using political, economic, and military tools, as well
14 as propaganda, to advance its influence and benefit 15 its interests in the United States.”.

16 (6) In February 2018, the Director of the Fed-
17 eral Bureau of Investigation, Christopher Wray, tes-
18 tified to the Select Committee on Intelligence of the 19 Senate that the People’s Republic of China is taking 20 advantage of and exploiting the open research and 21 development environments of United States institu-22 tions of higher education to utilize “professors, sci-23 entists and students” as “nontraditional collectors” 24 of information.

25 (b) PRESIDENTIAL DUTIES.—The President shall—

1 (1) protect our democratic institutions and 2 processes from malign influence from the People’s 3 Republic of China and other foreign adversaries; and 4 (2) consistent with the policy specified in para-

5 graph (1), direct the heads of the appropriate Fed-6 eral departments and agencies to implement Acts of 7 Congress to counter and deter Chinese and other 8 foreign information warfare and malign influence op-9 erations without delay, including—

10 (A) section 1043 of the John S. McCain 11 National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal 12 Year 2019 (Public Law 115–232), which au-
13 thORIZES a coordinator position within the Na-
14 tional Security Council for countering malign
15 foreign influence operations and campaigns;

16 (B) section 228 of the National Defense
17 Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (Public 18 Law 116–92), which authorizes additional re-19 search of foreign malign influence operations on 20 social media platforms;

21 (C) section 847 of such Act, which requires
22 the Secretary of Defense to modify contracting 23 regulations regarding vetting for foreign owner-24 ship, control and influence in order to mitigate 25 risks from malign foreign influence;

1 (D) section 1239 of such Act, which re-
2 quires an update of the comprehensive strategy 3 to counter the threat of malign influence to in-4 clude the People’s Republic of China;

5 (E) section 5323 of such Act, which au-6 thORIZes the Director of National Intelligence to 7 facilitate the establishment of Social Media 8 Data and Threat Analysis Center to detect and 9 study information warfare and malign influence 10 operations across social media platforms; and

11 (F) section 119C of the National Security
12 Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3059), which authorizes 13 the establishment of a Foreign Malign Influence
14 Response Center inside the Office of the Direc-
15 tor of National Intelligence.

16 SEC. 134. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE 17 FULBRIGHT-HAYS PROGRAM.

18 There are authorized to be appropriated, for the 6-19 year period beginning on September 30, 2021, 20 $105,500,000, which shall be expended to promote edu-
21 cation, training, research, and foreign language skills 22 through the Fulbright-Hays Program, in accordance with 23 section 102(b) of the Mutual Educational and Cultural 24 Exchange Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2452(b)).

1 SEC. 135. SENSE OF CONGRESS CONDEMNING ANTI-ASIAN 2 RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION.

3 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
4 ings:

5 (1) Since the onset of the COVID–19 pan-6 demic, crimes and discrimination against Asians and 7 those of Asian descent have risen dramatically
8 worldwide. In May 2020, United Nations Secretary-
9 General Antonio Guterres said “the pandemic con-10 tinues to unleash a tsunami of hate and xenophobia, 11 scapegoating and scare-mongering” and urged gov-12 ernments to “act now to strengthen the immunity of 13 our societies against the virus of hate”.

14 (2) Asian American and Pacific Island (AAPI)
15 workers make up a large portion of the essential 16 workers on the frontlines of the COVID–19 pan-
17 demic, making up 8.5 percent of all essential
18 healthcare workers in the United States. AAPI 19 workers also make up a large share—between 6 per-20 cent and 12 percent based on sector—of the bio-21 medical field.

22 (3) The United States Census notes that Amer-23 icans of Asian descent alone made up nearly 5.9 per-24 cent of the United States population in 2019, and 25 that Asian Americans are the fastest-growing racial

1 group in the United States, projected to represent 2 14 percent of the United States population by 2065.

4 gress that—

5 (1) the reprehensible attacks on people of Asian 6 descent and concerning increase in anti-Asian senti-
7 ment and racism in the United States and around 8 the world have no place in a peaceful, civilized, and 9 tolerant world;

10 (2) the United States is a diverse nation with 11 a proud tradition of immigration, and the strength 12 and vibrancy of the United States is enhanced by 13 the diverse ethnic backgrounds and tolerance of its 14 citizens, including Asian Americans and Pacific Is-15 landers;

16 (3) the United States Government should en-17 courage other foreign governments to use the official 18 and scientific names for the COVID–19 pandemic,
19 as recommended by the World Health Organization
20 and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; 21 and

22 (4) the United States Government and other 23 governments around the world must actively oppose 24 racism and intolerance, and use available and appro-

1 appropriate tools to combat the spread of anti-Asian rac-
2 ism and discrimination.

3 SEC. 136. SUPPORTING INDEPENDENT MEDIA AND COUN-
4 TERING DISINFORMATION.

5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
6 ings:

7 (1) China is increasing its spending on public
8 diplomacy including influence campaigns, adver-
9 tising, and investments into state-sponsored media
10 publications outside of China. These include, for ex-11 ample, more than $10,000,000,000 in foreign direct 12 investment in communications infrastructure, plat-
13 forms, and properties, as well as bringing journalists
14 to China for training programs.

15 (2) The PRC, through the Voice of China, the 16 United Front Work Department, and UFWD’s
17 many affiliates and proxies, has obtained unfettered
18 access to radio, television, and digital dissemination 19 platforms in numerous languages targeted at citi-20 zens in other regions where China has an interest in 21 promoting public sentiment in support of the Chi-22 nese Communist Party and expanding the reach of 23 its misleading narratives and propaganda.

24 (3) Even in Western countries, China spends 25 extensively on influence operations, such as a

1 $500,000,000 advertising campaign to attract cable
2 viewers in Australia and a more than $20,000,000
3 campaign to influence United States public opinion
4 via the China Daily newspaper supplement.

5 (b) THE UNITED STATES AGENCY FOR GLOBAL 6 MEDIA.—The United States Agency for Global Media
7 (USAGM) and affiliate Federal and non-Federal entities
8 shall undertake the following actions to support inde-
9 pendent journalism, countering disinformation, and break-
10 ing the firewall and combatting surveillance in countries
11 where the Chinese Communist Party and other malign ac-12 tors are promoting disinformation, propaganda, and ma-13 nipulated media markets:

14 (1) Radio Free Asia shall expand domestic cov-
15 erage and digital programming for all RFA China 16 services and other affiliate language broadcasting 17 services.

18 (2) USAGM shall increase funding for Radio
19 Free Asia’s Mandarin, Tibetan, Uyghur, and Can-20 tonese language services.

21 (3) Voice of America shall establish a real-time 22 disinformation tracking tool similar to Polygraph for 23 Russian language propaganda and misinformation.

24 (4) USAGM shall expand existing training and 25 partnership programs that promote journalistic

1 standards, investigative reporting, cybersecurity, and 2 digital analytics to help expose and counter false
3 CCP narratives.

4 (5) The Open Technology Fund shall continue 5 and expand work to support tools and technology to 6 circumvent censorship and surveillance by the CCP, 7 both inside China as well as abroad where China has 8 exported censorship technology, and increase secure 9 peer to peer connectivity and privacy tools.

10 (c) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There is 11 authorized to be appropriated, for each of fiscal years
12 2022 through 2026 for the United States Agency for 13 Global Media, $100,000,000 for ongoing and new pro-
14 grams to support local media, build independent media, 15 combat Chinese disinformation inside and outside of 16 China, invest in technology to subvert censorship, and 17 monitor and evaluate these programs.

18 (d) SUPPORT FOR LOCAL MEDIA.—The Secretary of 19 State, acting through the Assistant Secretary of State for 20 Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor and in coordina-
21 tion with the Administrator of the United States Agency
22 for International Development, shall support and train 23 journalists on investigative techniques necessary to ensure 24 public accountability related to the Belt and Road Initia-
25 tive, the PRC's surveillance and digital export of tech-

1 nology, and other influence operations abroad direct or di-
2 rectly supported by the Communist Party or the Chinese 3 government.

4 (e) INTERNET FREEDOM PROGRAMS.—The Bureau
5 of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor shall continue 6 to support internet freedom programs.

7 (f) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There is 8 authorized to be appropriated, for each of fiscal years 9 2022 through 2026, $170,000,000 for ongoing and new 10 programs in support of press freedom, training, and pro-11 tection of journalists.

12 SEC. 137. GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT CENTER.

13 (a) FINDING.—Congress established the Global En-
14 gagement Center to “direct, lead, and coordinate efforts” 15 of the Federal Government to “recognize, understand, ex-16 pose, and counter foreign state and non-state propaganda 17 and disinformation globally”.

18 (b) EXTENSION.—Section 1287(j) of the National 19 Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (22 20 U.S.C. 2656 note) is amended by striking “the date that 21 is 8 years after the date of the enactment of this Act” 22 and inserting “December 31, 2027”.

23 (c) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
24 gress that the Global Engagement Center should expand 25 its coordinating capacity through the exchange of liaison

1 officers with Federal departments and agencies that man-2 age aspects of identifying and countering foreign 3 disinformation, including the National Counterterrorism
4 Center at the Office of the Director of National Intel-5 ligence and from combatant commands.

6 (d) HIRING AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding any 7 other provision of law, the Secretary of State, during the 8 five year period beginning on the date of the enactment 9 of this Act and solely to carry out functions of the Global 10 Engagement Center, may—

11 (1) appoint employees without regard to the 12 provisions of title 5, United States Code, regarding 13 appointments in the competitive service; and 14 (2) fix the basic compensation of such employ-

15 ees without regard to chapter 51 and subchapter III
16 of chapter 53 of such title regarding classification
17 and General Schedule pay rates.

23 OF 1950.—

3 duction Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. 4565) is amended—

4 (A) in subparagraph (A)—

5 (i) in clause (i), by striking “; and”
6 and inserting a semicolon;

15 region in bilateral and regional foreign assistance
16 (FA) resources and $798,000,000 in the fiscal year 17 2020 diplomatic engagement (DE) budget. These 18 amounts represent only 5 percent of the DE budget
19 and only 4 percent of the total Department of State-20 USAID budget.

21 (2) Over the last 5 years the DE budget and 22 personnel levels in the Indo-Pacific averaged only 5 23 percent of the total, while FA resources averaged 24 only 4 percent of the total.

1 (3) In 2020, the Department of State began a 2 process to realign certain positions at posts to en-
3 sure that its personnel footprint matches the de-4 mands of great-power competition, including in the 5 Indo-Pacific.

6 (b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—

7 (1) It shall be the policy of the United States

11 Subtitle B—International Security 12 Matters

13 SEC. 221. DEFINITIONS.

14 In this subtitle:

15 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
16 TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-17 mittees” means—

18 (A) the Committee on Foreign Relations, 19 the Select Committee on Intelligence, and the 20 Committee on Appropriations of the Senate;
21 and

22 (B) the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the 23 Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, 24 and the Committee on Appropriations of the 25 House of Representatives.

1 (2) COMPANY.—The term “company” means
2 any corporation, company, limited liability company, 3 limited partnership, business trust, business associa-
4 tion, or other similar entity.

5 (3) OTHER SECURITY FORCES.—The term
6 “other security forces”—

7 (A) includes national security forces that 8 conduct maritime security; and

9 (B) does not include self-described militias 10 or paramilitary organizations.

11 SEC. 222. FINDINGS.

12 Congress makes the following findings:

13 (1) The People’s Republic of China aims to use 14 its growing military might in concert with other in-15 struments of its national power to displace the 16 United States in the Indo-Pacific and establish he-17 gemony over the region.

18 (2) The military balance of power in the Indo-19 Pacific region is growing increasingly unfavorable to 20 the United States because—

21 (A) the PRC is rapidly modernizing and 22 expanding the capabilities of the PLA to project 23 power and create contested areas across the en-
24 tire Indo-Pacific region;

1 (B) PLA modernization has largely fo-
2 cused on areas where it possesses operational 3 advantages and can exploit weaknesses in the 4 United States suite of capabilities; and

5 (C) current United States force structure
6 and presence do not sufficiently counter threats
7 in the Indo-Pacific, as United States allies, 8 bases, and forces at sea in the Indo-Pacific re-9 gion are concentrated in large bases that are 10 highly vulnerable to the PRC's strike capabili-11 ties.

12 (3) This shift in the regional military balance
13 and erosion of conventional deterrence in the Indo-14 Pacific region—

15 (A) presents a substantial and imminent
16 risk to the security of the United States; and 17 (B) left unchecked, could embolden the 18 PRC to take actions, including the use of mili-19 tary force, to change the status quo before the 20 United States can mount an effective response.

21 (4) The PRC sees an opportunity to diminish
22 confidence among United States allies and partners 23 in the strength of United States commitments, even 24 to the extent that these nations feel compelled to 25 bandwagon with the PRC to protect their interests.

1 The PRC is closely monitoring the United States re-2 action to PRC pressure and coercion of United 3 States allies, searching for indicators of United 4 States resolve.

5 (5) Achieving so-called “reunification” of Tai-6 wan to mainland China is a key step for the PRC 7 to achieve its regional hegemonic ambitions. The 8 PRC has increased the frequency and scope of its 9 exercises and operations targeting Taiwan, such as 10 amphibious assault and live-fire exercises in the Tai-11 wan Strait, PLA Air Force flights that encircle Tai-12 wan, and flights across the unofficial median line in 13 the Taiwan Strait. The Government of the PRC’s
14 full submission of Hong Kong potentially accelerates 15 the timeline of a Taiwan scenario, and makes the 16 defense of Taiwan an even more urgent priority.

17 (6) The defense of Taiwan is critical to—

18 (A) defending the people of Taiwan;

19 (B) limiting the PLA’s ability to project
20 power beyond the First Island Chain, including 21 to United States territory, such as Guam and 22 Hawaii;

23 (C) defending the territorial integrity of 24 Japan;

1 (D) preventing the PLA from diverting
2 military planning, resources, and personnel to 3 broader military ambitions; and

4 (E) retaining the United States credibility
5 as a defender of the democratic values and free-
6 market principles embodied by Taiwan’s people 7 and government;

8 (7) The PRC capitalized on the world’s atten-
9 tion to COVID–19 to advance its military objectives
10 in the South China Sea, intensifying and accel-11 erating trends already underway. The PRC has sent 12 militarized survey vessels into the Malaysian Exclu-13 sive Economic Zone, announced the establishment of 14 an administrative district in the Spratly and Paracel 15 Islands under the Chinese local government of 16 Sansha, aimed a fire control radar at a Philippine 17 navy ship, encroached on Indonesia’s fishing
18 grounds, sunk a Vietnamese fishing boat, announced 19 new “research stations” on Fiery Cross Reef and 20 Subi Reef, landed special military aircraft on Fiery 21 Cross Reef to routinize such deployments, and sent 22 a flotilla of over 200 militia vessels to Whitsun Reef, 23 a feature within the exclusive economic zone of the 24 Philippines.

1 (8) On July 13, 2020, the Department of State
2 clarified United States policy on the South China
3 Sea and stated that “Beijing’s claims to offshore re-4 sources across most of the South China Sea are 5 completely unlawful”.

6 (9) These actions in the South China Sea en-
7 able the PLA to exert influence and project power
8 deeper into Oceania and the Indian Ocean. As Admi-
9 ral Phil Davidson, Commander of Indo-Pacific Com-
10 mand, testified in 2019, “In short, China is now ca-
11 pable of controlling the South China Sea in all sce-12 narios short of war with the United States.”.

13 (10) The PLA also continues to advance its 14 claims in the East China Sea, including through a 15 high number of surface combatant patrols and fre-16 quent entry into the territorial waters of the 17 Senkaku Islands, over which the United States rec-18 ognizes Japan’s administrative control. In April 19 2014, President Barack Obama stated, “Our com-
20 mitment to Japan’s security is absolute and article 21 five [of the U.S.-Japan security treaty] covers all 22 territory under Japan’s administration, including the 23 Senkaku islands.”.

24 (11) On March 1, 2019, Secretary of State Mi-
25 chael R. Pompeo stated, “As the South China Sea

1 is part of the Pacific, any armed attack on Phil-
2 ippine forces, aircraft, or public vessels in the South
3 China Sea will trigger mutual defense obligations
4 under Article 4 of our Mutual Defense Treaty.”.

5 (12) The PLA is modernizing and gaining crit-6 ical capability in every branch and every domain, in-7 cluding—

8 (A) positioning the PLA Navy to become a 9 great maritime power or “blue-water” navy that 10 can completely control all activity within the 11 First Island Chain and project power beyond it 12 with a fleet of 425 battle force ships by 2030;

13 (B) increasing the size and range of its 14 strike capabilities, including approximately 15 1,900 ground-launched short- and intermediate-16 range missiles capable of targeting United 17 States allies and partners in the First and Sec-18 ond Island chains, United States bases in the 19 Indo-Pacific, and United States forces at sea;

20 (C) boosting capabilities for air warfare,
21 including with Russian-origin Su-35 fighters
22 and S-400 air defense systems, new J-20 5th
23 generation stealth fighters, advanced H-6
24 bomber variants, a long-range stealth bomber, 25 and Y-20 heavy lift aircraft; and

1 (D) making critical investments in new do-
2 mains of warfare, such as cyber warfare, elec-
3 tronic warfare, and space warfare.

4 (13) The PRC is pursuing this modernization
5 through all means at its disposal, including its Mili-
6 tary-Civil Fusion initiative, which enlists the whole
7 of PRC society in developing and acquiring tech-
8 nology with military applications to pursue techno-9 logical advantage over the United States in artificial 10 intelligence, hypersonic glide vehicles, directed en-
11 ergy weapons, electromagnetic railguns, counter-12 space weapons, and other emerging capabilities.

13 (14) The United States lead in the development 14 of science and technology relevant to defense is erod-15 ing in the face of competition from the PRC. United 16 States research and development spending on de-17 fense capabilities has declined sharply as a share of 18 global research and development. The commercial 19 sector's leading role in innovation presents certain 20 unique challenges to the Department of Defense's 21 reliance on technology for battlefield advantage.

22 (15) The PRC has vastly increased domestic re-23 search and development expenditures, supported the 24 growth of new cutting-edge industries and tapped

1 into a large workforce to invest in fostering science 2 and engineering talent.

3 (16) The PRC is increasing exports of defense
4 and security capabilities to build its defense tech-
5 nology and industrial base and improve its own mili-
6 tary capabilities, as well as its influence with coun-7 tries that purchase and become dependent on its 8 military systems.

9 SEC. 223. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING BOLSTERING
10 SECURITY PARTNERSHIPS IN THE INDO-PA-
11 CIFIC.

12 It is the Sense of Congress that steps to bolster
13 United States security partnership in the Indo-Pacific 14 must include—

15 (1) supporting Japan in its development of 16 long-range precision fires, munitions, air and missile 17 defense capacity, interoperability across all domains, 18 maritime security, and intelligence, and surveillance 19 and reconnaissance capabilities;

20 (2) launching a United States-Japan national 21 security innovation fund to solicit and support pri-22 vate sector cooperation for new technologies that 23 could benefit the United States and Japan's mutual 24 security objectives;

1 (3) promoting a deeper defense relationship be-2 tween Japan and Australia, including supporting re-3 ciprocal access agreements and trilateral United 4 States-Japan-Australia intelligence sharing;

5 (4) encouraging and facilitating Taiwan’s accel-
6 erated acquisition of asymmetric defense capabilities,
7 which are crucial to defending the islands of Taiwan
8 from invasion, including long-range precision fires, 9 munitions, anti-ship missiles, coastal defense, anti-10 armor, air defense, undersea warfare, advanced com-
11 mand, control, communications, computers, intel-
12 ligence, surveillance and reconnaissance (C4ISR), 13 and resilient command and control capabilities, and 14 increasing the conduct of relevant and practical 15 training and exercises with Taiwan’s defense forces;
16 and

17 (5) prioritizing building the capacity of United 18 States allies and partners to protect defense tech-19 nology.

20 SEC. 224. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

21 It shall be the policy of the United States to—

22 (1) prioritize the Indo-Pacific region in United 23 States foreign policy, and prioritize resources for 24 achieving United States political and military objec-25 tives in the region;

1 (2) exercise freedom of operations in the inter-
2 national waters and airspace in the Indo-Pacific 3 maritime domains, which are critical to the pros-
4 perity, stability, and security of the Indo-Pacific re-5 gion;

6 (3) maintain forward-deployed forces in the 7 Indo-Pacific region, including a rotational bomber 8 presence, integrated missile defense capabilities,
9 long-range precision fires, undersea warfare capabili-
10 ties, and diversified and resilient basing and rota-11 tional presence, including support for pre-positioning 12 strategies;

13 (4) strengthen and deepen the alliances and 14 partnerships of the United States to build capacity 15 and capabilities, increase multilateral partnerships,
16 modernize communications architecture, address
17 anti-access and area denial challenges, and increase 18 joint exercises and security cooperation efforts;

19 (5) reaffirm the commitment and support of the 20 United States for allies and partners in the Indo-Pa-21 cific region, including longstanding United States 22 policy regarding—

23 (A) Article V of the Treaty of Mutual Co-24 operation and Security between the United

1 States and Japan, signed at Washington Janu-
2 ary 19, 1960;

3 (B) Article III of the Mutual Defense
4 Treaty between the United States and the Re-
5 public of Korea, signed at Washington October 6 1, 1953;

7 (C) Article IV of the Mutual Defense Trea-
8 ty between the United States and the Republic
9 of the Philippines, signed at Washington Au-
10 gust 30, 1951, including that, as the South 11 China Sea is part of the Pacific, any armed at-12 tack on Philippine forces, aircraft or public ves-13 sels in the South China Sea will trigger mutual 14 defense obligations under Article IV of our mu-15 tual defense treaty;

16 (D) Article IV of the Australia, New Zea-17 land, United States Security Treaty, done at 18 San Francisco September 1, 1951; and

19 (E) the Southeast Asia Collective Defense
20 Treaty, done at Manila September 8, 1954, to-21 gether with the Thanat-Rusk Communique of 22 1962; and

23 (6) collaborate with United States treaty allies
24 in the Indo-Pacific to foster greater multilateral se-

1 security and defense cooperation with other regional 2 partners;

3 (7) ensure the continuity of operations by the 4 United States Armed Forces in the Indo-Pacific re-5 gion, including, as appropriate, in cooperation with 6 partners and allies, in order to reaffirm the principle 7 of freedom of operations in international waters and 8 airspace in accordance with established principles 9 and practices of international law;

10 (8) sustain the Taiwan Relations Act (Public 11 Law 96–8; 22 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.);

12 (9) sustain the “Six Assurances” provided by 13 the United States to Taiwan in July 1982 as the 14 foundations for United States-Taiwan relations, and 15 to deepen, to the fullest extent possible, the exten-16 sive, close, and friendly relations of the United 17 States and Taiwan, including cooperation to support 18 the development of capable, ready, and modern 19 forces necessary for the defense of Taiwan;

20 (10) enhance security partnerships with India,

10 It is the policy of the United States to sustain max-

3 TIONS.

4 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
5 gress that—

6 (1) although it casts the Belt and Road Initia-

8 Republic of China is also utilizing the BRI to ad-
9 vance its own security interests, including to expand 10 its power projection capabilities and facilitate great-11 er access for the People’s Liberation Army through 12 overseas military installations; and

13 (2) the expansion of the People’s Liberation
14 Army globally through overseas military installations
15 will undermine the medium- and long-term security 16 of the United States and the security and develop-17 ment of strategic partners in critical regions around 18 the world, which is at odds with United States goals
19 to promote peace, prosperity, and self-reliance
20 among partner nations, including through the Mil-21 lennium Challenge Corporation.

22 (b) LIMITATION ON ASSISTANCE.—Except as pro-23 vided in subsection (c), for fiscal years 2022 through

14 economic development while countering efforts 15 by the Government of the People’s Republic of 16 China to leverage predatory economic practices 17 as a means of political and economic coercion in 18 the Indo-Pacific region and beyond;

19 (E) to promote the values of democracy 20 and human rights, including through efforts to 21 end the repression by the Chinese Communist 22 Party of political dissidents and Uyghurs and 23 other ethnic Muslim minorities, Tibetan Bud-
24 dhists, Christians, and other minorities;

1 (F) to respond to the crackdown by the 2 Chinese Communist Party, in contravention of 3 the commitments made under the Sino-British 4 Joint Declaration of 1984 and the Basic Law
5 of Hong Kong, on the legitimate aspirations of 6 the people of Hong Kong; and

7 (G) to counter the Chinese Communist

12 challenges, including pandemics and climate change;

13 (4) the United States and Canada should en-
14 hance cooperation to counter Chinese disinformation,

12 to effectively defend the Northern Hemisphere 13 against the range of threats by peer competitors, in-14 cluding long range missiles and high-precision weap-15 ons.

21 China's apparent arbitrary detention and abusive

25 deeply concerning;

1 (2) the Government of Canada has shown inter-

5 including those pursuant to the Extradition

24 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-

1 (1) the Government of China is exporting its

5 (2) the inclusion of communication networks

15 PART II—TRANSATLANTIC ALLIANCE

16 SEC. 255. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON THE TRANSATLANTIC
17 ALLIANCE.

18 It is the sense of Congress that—

19 (1) the United States, the European Union,
20 and countries of Europe are close partners, sharing 21 values grounded in democracy, human rights, trans-
22 parency, and the rules-based international order es-
23 tablished after World War II;

24 (2) without a common approach by the United 25 States, European Union, and countries of Europe on

1 connectivity, trade, transnational problems, and sup-2 port for democracy and human rights, the People's 3 Republic of China will continue to increase its eco-4 nomic, political and security leverage in Europe;

5 (3) the People's Republic of China's deployment 6 of assistance to European countries following the 7 COVID-19 outbreak showcased a coercive approach
8 to aid, but it also highlighted Europe's deep eco-9 nomic ties to China;

10 (4) as European states seek to recover from the 11 economic toll of the COVID-19 outbreak, the United 12 States must stand in partnership with Europe to 13 support our collective economic recovery and rein-14 force our collective national security and defend 15 these shared values;

16 (5) the United States, European Union, and 17 other European countries should coordinate on joint 18 strategies to diversify reliance on supply chains away 19 from the People's Republic of China, especially in 20 the medical and pharmaceutical sectors;

21 (6) the United States, European Union, United 22 Kingdom, and the countries of Europe should lever-23 age their respective economic innovation capabilities 24 to support the global economic recovery from the 25 COVID-19 recession and draw a contrast with the

1 centralized economy of the People's Republic of 2 China;

3 (7) the United States and European Union
4 should accelerate efforts to de-escalate their trade
5 disputes, including negotiating a United States-Eu-
6 ropean Union trade agreement that benefits workers
7 and the broader economy in both the United States
8 and European Union;

9 (8) the United States, European Union, and 10 Japan should continue trilateral efforts to address
11 economic challenges posed by the People's Republic
12 of China;

13 (9) the United States, European Union, and 14 countries of Europe should enhance cooperation to 15 counter Chinese disinformation, influence operations, 16 and propaganda efforts;

17 (10) the United States and European nations
18 share serious concerns with the repressions being 19 supported and executed by the Government of 20 China, and should continue implementing measures 21 to address the Government of China's specific 22 abuses in Tibet, Hong Kong, and Xinjiang, and 23 should build joint mechanisms and programs to pre-24 vent the export of China's authoritarian governance 25 model to countries around the world;

1 (11) the United States and European nations
2 should remain united in their shared values against 3 attempts by the Government of China at the United 4 Nations and other multilateral organizations to pro-5 mote efforts that erode the Universal Declaration of 6 Human Rights, like the “community of a shared fu-7 ture for mankind” and “democratization of inter-8 national relations”;

9 (12) the People’s Republic of China’s infra-10 structure investments around the world, particularly 11 in 5G telecommunications technology and port infra-
12 structure, could threaten democracy across Europe
13 and the national security of key countries;

14 (13) as appropriate, the United States should 15 share intelligence with European allies and partners 16 on Huawei’s 5G capabilities and the intentions of 17 the Government of China with respect to 5G expan-
18 sion in Europe;

19 (14) the European Union’s Investment Screen-
20 ing Regulation, which came into force in October 21 2020, is a welcome development, and member states 22 should closely scrutinize Chinese investments in their 23 countries through their own national investment 24 screening measures;

1 (15) the President should actively engage the 2 European Union on the implementation of the Ex-3 port Control Reform Act regulations and work to 4 align the law’s regulations with European Union pri-5 orities;

6 (16) the President should strongly advocate for 7 the listing of more items and technologies to restrict 8 dual use exports controlled at the National Security
9 and above level to the People’s Republic of China
10 under the Wassenaar Arrangement;

11 (17) the United States should explore the value 12 of establishing a body akin to the Coordinating 13 Committee for Multilateral Export Controls
14 (CoCom) that would specifically coordinate the ex-
15 port of United States and European Union sensitive 16 technologies to the People’s Republic of China; and

17 (18) the United States should work with coun-18 terparts in Europe to—

19 (A) evaluate United States and European 20 overreliance on Chinese goods, including in the 21 medical and pharmaceutical sectors, and de-22 velop joint strategies to diversify supply chains;

23 (B) counter Chinese efforts to use
24 COVID–19-related assistance as a coercive tool
25 to pressure developing countries by offering rel-

1 evant United States and European expertise 2 and assistance; and

3 (C) leverage the United States and Euro-
4 pean private sectors to advance the post-
5 COVID–19 economic recovery.

17 Human Rights Policy Act of 2020 (Public Law 116–145; 18 22 U.S.C. 6901 note), as amended by section 302, is fur-19 ther amended—

20 (1) by redesignating subparagraphs (F) as sub-21 paragraph (G); and

22 (2) by inserting after subparagraph (E) the fol-23 lowing:

1 “(F) Systematic rape, coercive abortion,
2 forced sterilization, or involuntary contraceptive
3 implantation policies and practices.”.

4 (b) EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICABILITY.—The amend-5 ment made by subsection (a)—

6 (1) takes effect on the date of the enactment of 7 this Act; and

8 (2) applies with respect to the first report re-9 quired by section 6(a)(1) of the Uyghur Human 10 Rights Policy Act of 2020 submitted after such date 11 of enactment.

12 TITLE IV—INVESTING IN OUR 13 ECONOMIC STATECRAFT

14 SEC. 401. FINDINGS AND SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING 15 THE PRC’S INDUSTRIAL POLICY.

16 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
17 ings:

18 (1) The People’s Republic of China, at the di-
19 rection of the Chinese Communist Party, is advanc-20 ing an ecosystem of anticompetitive economic and 21 industrial policies that—

22 (A) distort global markets;

23 (B) limit innovation;

1 (C) unfairly advantage PRC firms at the 2 expense of the United States and other foreign 3 firms; and

4 (D) unfairly and harmfully prejudice con-
5 sumer choice.

6 (2) Of the extensive and systemic economic and 7 industrial policies pursued by the PRC, the mass
8 subsidization of Chinese firms, intellectual property 9 theft, and forced technology transfer are among the 10 most damaging to the global economy.

11 (3) Through regulatory interventions and direct 12 financial subsidies, the CCP, for the purposes of ad-
13 vancing national political and economic objectives, 14 directs, coerces, and influences in anti-competitive
15 ways the commercial activities of firms that are di-16 rected, financed, influenced, or otherwise controlled 17 by the state, including state-owned enterprises, and 18 ostensibly independent and private Chinese compa-
19 nies, such as technology firms in strategic sectors.

20 (4) The PRC Government, at the national and 21 subnational levels, grants special privileges or status 22 to certain PRC firms in key sectors designated as 23 strategic, such as telecommunications, oil, power, 24 aviation, banking, and semiconductors. Enterprises
25 receive special state preferences in the form of favor-

1 able loans, tax exemptions, and preferential land ac-
2 cess from the CCP.

3 (5) The subsidization of PRC companies, as de-4 scribed in paragraphs (3) and (4)—

5 (A) enables these companies to sell goods
6 below market prices, allowing them to outbid 7 and crowd out market-based competitors and 8 thereby pursue global dominance of key sectors;

9 (B) distorts the global market economy by 10 undermining longstanding and generally accept-11 ed market-based principles of fair competition, 12 leading to barriers to entry and forced exit from 13 the market for foreign or private firms, not only 14 in the PRC, but in markets around the world;

15 (C) creates government-sponsored or sup-16 ported de facto monopolies, cartels, and other 17 anti-market arrangements in key sectors, lim-18 iting or removing opportunities for other firms;
19 and

20 (D) leads to, as a result of the issues de-
21 scribed in paragraphs (A) through (C), declines 22 in profits and revenue needed by foreign and 23 private firms for research and development.

24 (6) The CCP incentivizes and empowers Chi-
25 nese actors to steal critical technologies and trade

1 secrets from private and foreign competitors oper-
2 ating in the PRC and around the world, particularly 3 in areas that the CCP has identified as critical to 4 advancing PRC objectives. The PRC, as directed by 5 the CCP, also continues to implement anti-competi-
6 tive regulations, policies, and practices that coerce 7 the handover of technology and other propriety or 8 sensitive data from foreign enterprises to domestic 9 firms in exchange for access to the PRC market.

10 (7) Companies in the United States and in for-11 eign countries compete with state-subsidized PRC 12 companies that enjoy the protection and power of 13 the state in third-country markets around the world.
14 The advantages granted to PRC firms, combined
15 with significant restrictions to accessing the PRC 16 market itself, severely hamper the ability of United 17 States and foreign firms to compete, innovate, and 18 pursue the provision of best value to customers. The 19 result is an unbalanced playing field. Such an 20 unsustainable course, if not checked, will over time 21 lead to depressed competition around the world, re-22 duced opportunity, and harm to both producers and 23 consumers.

24 (8) As stated in the United States Trade Rep-
25 resentative's investigation of the PRC's trade prac-

1 tices under section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974
2 (19 U.S.C. 2411), conducted in March 2018, “When 3 U.S. companies are deprived of fair returns on their 4 investment in IP, they are unable to achieve the 5 growth necessary to reinvest in innovation. In this 6 sense, China’s technology transfer regime directly 7 burdens the innovation ecosystem that is an engine
8 of economic growth in the United States and simi-9 larly-situated economies.”.

10 (9) In addition to forced technology described 11 in this subsection, the United States Trade Rep-
12 resentative’s investigation of the PRC under section 13 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2411) also 14 identified requirements that foreign firms license
15 products at less than market value, government-di-16 rected and government-subsidized acquisition of sen-17 sitive technology for strategic purposes, and cyber 18 theft as other key PRC technology and industrial 19 policies that are unreasonable and discriminatory.
20 These policies place at risk United States intellectual 21 property rights, innovation and technological devel-22 opment, and jobs in dozens of industries.

23 (10) Other elements of the PRC’s ecosystem of 24 industrial policies that harm innovation and distort 25 global markets include—

1 (A) advancement of policies that encourage 2 local production over imports;

3 (B) continuation of policies that favor
4 unique technical standards in use by Chinese 5 firms rather than globally accepted standards, 6 which often force foreign firms to alter their 7 products and manufacturing chains to compete;

8 (C) requirements that foreign companies 9 disclose proprietary information to qualify for 10 the adoption of their standards for use in the 11 PRC domestic market; and 12 (D) maintenance of closed procurement

13 processes, which limit participation by foreign 14 firms, including by setting terms that require 15 such firms to use domestic suppliers, transfer 16 know-how to firms in the PRC, and disclose 17 proprietary information.

18 (11) The Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) and 19 associated industry-specific efforts under this initia-
20 tive, such as the Digital Silk Road, are key vectors
21 to advance the PRC's mercantilist policies and prac-22 tices globally. The resulting challenges do not only 23 affect United States firms. As the European Cham-
24 ber of Commerce reported in a January 2020 report, 25 the combination of concessional lending to Chinese

1 state-owned enterprises, nontransparent procure-2 ment and bidding processes, closed digital standards, 3 and other factors severely limit European and other 4 participation in BRI and make “competition [with 5 Chinese companies] in third-country markets ex-
6 tremely challenging”. This underscores a key objec-
7 tive of BRI, which is to ensure the reliance of infra-
8 structure, digital technologies, and other important
9 goods on PRC supply chains and technical stand-10 ards.

11 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
12 gress that—

13 (1) the challenges presented by a nonmarket
14 economy like the PRC’s economy, which has cap-
15 tured such a large share of global economic ex-
16 change, are in many ways unprecedented and re-17 quire sufficiently elevated and sustained long-term 18 focus and engagement;

19 (2) in order to truly address the most detri-
20 mental aspects of CCP-directed mercantilist eco-21 nomic strategy, the United States must adopt poli-22 cies that—

23 (A) expose the full scope and scale of intel-24 lectual property theft and mass subsidization of 25 Chinese firms, and the resulting harm to the

1 United States, foreign markets, and the global 2 economy;

3 (B) ensure that PRC companies face costs
4 and consequences for anticompetitive behavior;

5 (C) provide options for affected United 6 States persons to address and respond to un-7 reasonable and discriminatory CCP-directed in-8 dustrial policies; and

9 (D) strengthen the protection of critical 10 technology and sensitive data, while still fos-
11 tering an environment that provides incentives 12 for innovation and competition;

13 (3) the United States must work with its allies 14 and partners through the Organization for Economic 15 Cooperation and Development (OECD), the World
16 Trade Organization, and other venues and fora—

17 (A) to reinforce long-standing generally ac-
18 cepted principles of fair competition and market
19 behavior and address the PRC's anticompetitive 20 economic and industrial policies that undermine 21 decades of global growth and innovation;

22 (B) to ensure that the PRC is not granted
23 the same treatment as that of a free-market 24 economy until it ceases the implementation of 25 laws, regulations, policies, and practices that

1 provide unfair advantage on PRC firms in fur-
2 therance of national objectives and impose un-
3 reasonable, discriminatory, and illegal burdens 4 on market-based international commerce; and

5 (C) to align policies with respect to curbing 6 state-directed subsidization of the private sec-7 tor, such as advocating for global rules related 8 to transparency and adherence to notification
9 requirements, including through the efforts cur-
10 rently being advanced by the United States, 11 Japan, and the European Union; and 12 (4) the United States and its allies and part-13 ners must collaborate to provide incentives to their 14 respective companies to cooperate in areas such as—

15 (A) advocating for protection of intellectual 16 property rights in markets around the world;

17 (B) fostering open technical standards;

18 and

19 (C) increasing joint investments in over-20 seas markets.

21 that such information would be released by the 23 (B) subsequently consents to the release of 24 such information.

20 House of Representatives.

21 (b) REPORT.—

22 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days
23 after the date of the enactment of this Act, and an-24 nually thereafter for the following 5 years, the Sec-25 retary of State, in consultation with the Director of

1 National Intelligence and the Secretary of the Treas-
2 ury, shall submit an unclassified report to the appro-3 priate committees of Congress that describes the 4 risks posed to the United States by the presence in 5 United States capital markets of companies incor-6 porated in the PRC.

7 (2) MATTERS TO BE INCLUDED.—The report
8 required under paragraph (1) shall—

9 (A) identify companies incorporated in the 10 PRC that—

11 (i) are listed or traded on one or sev-

13 kets of the companies identified pursuant to 14 subparagraph (A).

16 pleting the report under paragraph (1), the Presi-17 dent shall consider whether a company identified 18 pursuant to paragraph (2)(A)—

13 TITLE V—ENSURING STRATEGIC 14 SECURITY

15 SEC. 501. FINDINGS ON STRATEGIC SECURITY AND ARMS 16 CONTROL.

17 Congress makes the following findings:

18 (1) The United States and the PRC have a 19 shared interest in strategic security through enforce-
20 able arms control and non-proliferation agreements.

21 (2) The United States has long pursued and 22 continues to seek effective, verifiable, and enforce-
23 able arms control and non-proliferation agreements
24 that support United States and allied security by—

1 (A) controlling the spread of nuclear mate-
2 rials and technology;

3 (B) placing limits on the production, stock-
4 piling, and deployment of nuclear weapons;

5 (C) decreasing misperception and mis-6 calculation; and

7 (D) avoiding destabilizing nuclear arms
8 competition.

9 (3) In May 2019, Director of the Defense Intel-10 ligence Agency Lieutenant General Robert Ashley 11 stated, “China is likely to at least double the size of 12 its nuclear stockpile in the course of implementing 13 the most rapid expansion and diversification of its 14 nuclear arsenal in China’s history.”. The PLA is 15 building a full triad of modernized fixed and mobile 16 ground-based launchers and new capabilities for nu-17 clear-armed bombers and submarine-launched bal-18 listic missiles.

19 (4) In June 2020, the Department of State 20 raised concerns in its annual “Adherence to and 21 Compliance with Arms Control, Nonproliferation, 22 and Disarmament Agreements and Commitments”
23 report to Congress that the PRC is not complying 24 with the “zero-yield” nuclear testing ban and ac-

1 cused the PRC of “blocking the flow of data from 2 the monitoring stations” in China.

3 (5) The Department of Defense 2020 Report on 4 Military and Security Developments Involving the 5 People’s Republic of China states that China “in-6 tends to increase peacetime readiness of its nuclear 7 forces by moving to a launch on warning posture 8 with an expanded silo-based force”.

9 (6) The Department of Defense report also 10 states that, over the next decade, China’s nuclear 11 stockpile—currently estimated in the low 200s—is 12 projected to least double in size as China expands 13 and modernizes its nuclear force.

14 (7) The PRC is conducting research on its first 15 potential early warning radar, with technical co-16 operation from Russia. This radar could indicate 17 that the PRC is moving to a launch-on warning pos-18 ture.

19 (8) The PRC plans to use its increasingly capa-
20 ble space, cyber, and electronic warfare capabilities 21 against United States early warning systems and 22 critical infrastructure in a crisis scenario. This poses 23 great risk to strategic security, as it could lead to 24 inadvertent escalation.

1 (9) The PRC's nuclear expansion comes as a 2 part of a massive modernization of the PLA which, 3 combined with the PLA's aggressive actions, has in-4 creasingly destabilized the Indo-Pacific region.

5 (10) The PLA Rocket Force (PLARF), which 6 was elevated in 2015 to become a separate branch
7 within the PLA, has formed 11 new missile brigades
8 since May 2017, some of which are capable of both 9 conventional and nuclear strikes. Unlike the United 10 States, which separates its conventional strike and 11 nuclear capabilities, the PLARF appears to not only 12 co-locate conventional and nuclear forces, including 13 dual-use missiles like the DF-26, but to task the 14 same unit with both nuclear and conventional mis-
15 sions. Such intermingling could lead to inadvertent 16 escalation in a crisis. The United States Defense In-17 telligence Agency determined in March 2020 that 18 the PLA tested more ballistic missiles than the rest 19 of the world combined in 2019.

20 (11) A January 2021 report from the Institute
21 for Defense Analysis found that many United States
22 and international observers viewed China's no first-23 use policy with skepticism, especially in the wake of 24 the expansion and modernization of its nuclear capa-25 bilities.

1 (12) The long-planned United States nuclear 2 modernization program will not increase the United 3 States nuclear weapons stockpile, predates China's 4 conventional military and nuclear expansion, and is 5 not an arms race against China.

6 (13) The United States extended nuclear deter-
7 rence—

8 (A) provides critical strategic security 9 around the world;

10 (B) is an essential element of United 11 States military alliances; and 12 (C) serves a vital non-proliferation func-13 tion.

14 (14) As a signatory to the Treaty on the Non-15 Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, done at Wash-
16 ington, London, and Moscow July 1, 1968, the PRC
17 is obligated under Article Six of the treaty to pursue 18 arms control negotiations in good faith.

19 (15) The United States has, on numerous occa-
20 sions, called on the PRC to participate in strategic 21 arms control negotiations, but the PRC has thus far 22 declined.

23 (16) The Governments of Poland, Slovenia, 24 Denmark, Norway, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, the 25 Netherlands, Romania, Austria, and Albania, as well

1 as the Deputy Secretary General of the North Atlan-2 tic Treaty Organization, have all encouraged the 3 PRC to join arms control discussions.

4 SEC. 502. COOPERATION ON A STRATEGIC NUCLEAR DIA-
5 LOGUE.

6 (a) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—It is the policy of the 7 United States—

8 (1) to pursue, in coordination with United 9 States allies, arms control negotiations and sus-
10 tained and regular engagement with the PRC—

11 (A) to enhance understanding of each oth-
12 er's respective nuclear policies, doctrine, and ca-13 pabilities;

14 (B) to improve transparency; and 15 (C) to help manage the risks of miscalcula-16 tion and misperception;

17 (2) to formulate a strategy to engage the Gov-18 ernment of China on relevant bilateral issues that 19 lays the groundwork for bringing the People's Re-20 public of China into an arms control framework, in-21 cluding—

22 (A) fostering bilateral dialogue on arms 23 control leading to the convening of bilateral 24 strategic security talks;

25 (B) negotiating norms for outer space;

1 (C) developing pre-launch notification re-
2 gimes aimed at reducing nuclear miscalculation;
3 and

4 (D) expanding lines of communication be-5 tween both governments for the purposes of re-6 ducing the risks of conventional war and in-7 creasing transparency;

8 (3) to pursue relevant capabilities in coordina-
9 tion with our allies and partners to ensure the secu-
10 rity of United States and allied interests in the face 11 of the PRC's military modernization and expansion, 12 including—

13 (A) ground-launched cruise and ballistic 14 missiles;

15 (B) integrated air and missile defense;

16 (C) hypersonic missiles;

17 (D) intelligence, surveillance, and recon-
18 naissance;

19 (E) space-based capabilities;

20 (F) cyber capabilities; and 21 (G) command, control, and communica-

22 tions;

23 (4) to maintain sufficient force structure, pos-24 ture, and capabilities to provide extended nuclear de-25 terrence to United States allies and partners;

1 (5) to maintain appropriate missile defense ca-
2 capabilities to protect threats to the United States 3 homeland and our forces across the theater from 4 rogue intercontinental ballistic missiles from the 5 Indo-Pacific region; and

6 (6) to ensure that the United States declaratory
7 policy reflects the requirements of extended deter-8 rence, to both assure allies and to preserve its non-9 proliferation benefits.

10 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
11 gress that—

12 (1) in the midst of growing competition between 13 the United States and the PRC, it is in the interest 14 of both nations to cooperate in reducing risks of con-15 ventional and nuclear escalation;

16 (2) a physical, cyber, electronic, or any other 17 PLA attack on United States early warning sat-18 ellites, other portions of the nuclear command and 19 control enterprise, or critical infrastructure poses a 20 high risk to inadvertent but rapid escalation;

21 (3) the United States and its allies should pro-22 mote international norms on military operations in 23 space, the employment of cyber capabilities, and the 24 military use of artificial intelligence, as an element

1 of risk reduction regarding nuclear command and 2 control; and

3 (4) United States allies and partners should 4 share the burden of promoting and protecting such 5 norms by voting against the PRC's proposals re-6 garding the weaponization of space, highlighting un-7 safe behavior by the PRC that violates international 8 norms, such as in rendezvous and proximity oper-9 ations, and promoting responsible behavior in space 10 and all other domains.

11 SEC. 503. REPORT ON UNITED STATES EFFORTS TO EN- 12 GAGE THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA ON 13 NUCLEAR ISSUES AND BALLISTIC MISSILE
14 ISSUES.

15 (a) REPORT ON THE FUTURE OF UNITED STATES-16 CHINA ARMS CONTROL.—Not later than 180 days after 17 the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of 18 State, in coordination with the Secretary of Defense and 19 the Secretary of Energy, shall submit to the appropriate 20 committees of Congress a report, and if necessary a sepa-21 rate classified annex, that examines the approaches and 22 strategic effects of engaging the Government of China on 23 arms control and risk reduction, including—

24 (1) areas of potential dialogue between the Gov-
25 ernments of the United States and the People's Re-

1 public of China, including on ballistic, hypersonic
2 glide, and cruise missiles, conventional forces, nu-
3 clear, space, and cyberspace issues, as well as other 4 new strategic domains, which could reduce the likeli-5 hood of war, limit escalation if a conflict were to 6 occur, and constrain a destabilizing arms race in the 7 Indo-Pacific;

8 (2) how the United States Government can 9 incentivize the Government of China to engage in a 10 constructive arms control dialogue;

11 (3) identifying strategic military capabilities of 12 the People's Republic of China that the United 13 States Government is most concerned about and how 14 limiting these capabilities may benefit United States
15 and allied security interests;

16 (4) mechanisms to avoid, manage, or control
17 nuclear, conventional, and unconventional military 18 escalation between the United States and the Peo-19 ple's Republic of China; and 20 (5) opportunities and methods to encourage 21 transparency from the People's Republic of China.

22 (b) REPORT ON ARMS CONTROL TALKS WITH THE 23 RUSSIAN FEDERATION AND THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF 24 CHINA.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the 25 enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State, in consulta-

1 tion with the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of 2 Energy, shall submit to the appropriate committees of 3 Congress a report that describes—

4 (1) a concrete plan for arms control talks that 5 includes both the People’s Republic of China and the 6 Russian Federation;

7 (2) if a trilateral arms control dialogue does not 8 arise, what alternative plans the Department of 9 State envisages for ensuring the security of the 10 United States and its allies security from Russian 11 and Chinese nuclear weapons;

12 (3) effects on the credibility of United States
13 extended deterrence assurances to allies and part-14 ners if the United States is faced with two nuclear-15 armed peer competitors and any likely corresponding 16 implications for regional security architectures;

17 (4) efforts at engaging the People’s Republic of 18 China to join arms control talks, whether on a bilat-19 eral or multilateral basis; and 20 (5) the interest level of the Government of 21 China in joining arms control talks, whether on a bi-22 lateral or multilateral basis.

23 (c) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS DE-24 FINED.—In this section, the term “appropriate commit-25 tees of Congress” means—

1 (1) the Committee on Foreign Relations, the
2 Committee on Armed Services, and the Committee
3 on Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate;
4 and

5 (2) the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the 6 Committee on Armed Services, and the Committee
7 on Energy and Commerce of the House of Rep-8 resentatives.
