Section 4 of title 3, United States Code, is amended by inserting “enacted prior to election day” after “by law”.

SEC. 104. CERTIFICATE OF ASCERTAINMENT OF APPOINTMENT OF ELECTORS.

(a) Determination.—Section 5 of title 3, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

“§ 5. Certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors

“(a) In General.—

“(1) Certification.—Not later than the date that is 6 days before the time fixed for the meeting of the electors, the executive of each State shall issue a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors, under and in pursuance of the laws of such State providing for such appointment and ascertainment enacted prior to election day.

“(2) Form of certificate.—Each certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors shall—

“(A) set forth the names of the electors appointed and the canvass or other determination under the laws of such State of the number of votes given or cast for each person for whose appointment any and all votes have been given or cast;

“(B) bear the seal of the State; and “(C) contain at least one security feature, as determined by the State, for purposes of verifying the authenticity of such certificate.

“(b) TRANSMISSION.—It shall be the duty of the executive of each State—

“(1) to transmit to the Archivist of the United States, by the most expeditious method available, the certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors; and

“(2) to transmit to the electors of such State, on or before the day on which the electors are required to meet under section 7, six duplicate-originals of the same certificate.

“(c) TREATMENT OF CERTIFICATE AS CONCLUsive.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of section

15—

“(A) the certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors issued pursuant to this section shall be treated as conclusive with respect to the determination of electors appointed by the State; and “(B) any certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors as required to be revised by any subsequent State or Federal judicial relief granted prior to the date of the meeting of electors shall replace and supersede any other certificates submitted pursuant to this section.

“(2) Determination of Federal Questions.—The determination of Federal courts on questions arising under the Constitution or laws of the United States with respect to a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors shall be conclusive.

“(d) Venue and Expedited Procedure.—

“(1) In General.—Any action brought by an aggrieved candidate for President or Vice President that arises under the Constitution or laws of the United States with respect to the issuance of the certification required under section (a)(1), or the transmission of such certification as required under subsection (b), shall be subject to the following rules:

“(A) Venue.—The venue for such action shall be the Federal district court of the Federal district in which the State capital is located.

“(B) 3-JUDGE PANEL.—Such action shall be heard by a district court of three judges, convened pursuant to section 2284 of title 28, United States Code, except that the court shall be comprised of two judges of the circuit court of appeals in which the district court lies and one judge of the district court in which the action is brought.

“(C) EXPEDITED PROCEDURE.—It shall be the duty of the court to advance on the docket and to expedite to the greatest possible extent the disposition of the action, consistent with all other relevant deadlines established by this chapter and the laws of the United States.

“(D) APPEALS.—Any appeal from the judgment of the panel convened under subparagraph (B) may be heard directly by the Supreme Court, pursuant to section 1253 of title 28, United States Code, on an expedited basis, so that a final order of the court on remand of the Supreme Court may occur on or before the day before the time fixed for the meeting of electors.
“(2) Rule of construction.—This subsection shall be construed solely to establish venue and expedited procedures in any action brought by an aggrieved candidate for President or Vice President as specified in this subsection that arises under the Constitution or laws of the United States.”.

(b) Executive of a State.—Section 21 of title 3, United States Code, as amended by section 102(b), is amended by striking paragraph (3) and inserting the following:

“(3) ‘executive’ means, with respect to any State, the Governor of the State (or, in the case of the District of Columbia, the Mayor of the District of Columbia), except when the laws or constitution of a State in effect as of election day expressly require a different State executive to perform the duties identified under this chapter.”.

(c) Conforming Amendments.—

(1) Section 9 of title 3, United States Code, is amended by striking “annex to each of the certificates one of the lists of the electors” and inserting “annex to each of the certificates of votes one of the certificates of ascertainment of appointment of electors”.

“§ 15. Counting electoral votes in Congress

“(a) IN GENERAL.—Congress shall be in session on the sixth day of January succeeding every meeting of the electors. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the hour of 1 o’clock in the afternoon on that day, and the President of the Senate shall be their presiding officer.

“(b) POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT OF SENATE.—

“(1) MINISTERIAL IN NATURE.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the role of the President of the Senate while presiding over the joint meeting shall be limited to performing solely ministerial duties.

“(2) POWERS EXPLICITLY DENIED.—The President of the Senate shall have no power to solely determine, accept, reject, or otherwise adjudicate or resolve disputes over the proper list of electors, the va-

“(c) APPOINTMENT OF TELLERS.—At the joint meeting of the Senate and House of Representatives described in subsection (a), there shall be present two tellers previously appointed on the part of the Senate and two tellers previously appointed on the part of the House of Representatives by the presiding officers of the respective chambers.

“(d) PROCEDURE AT JOINT MEETING GENerally.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The President of the Senate shall—

“(A) open the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the votes of electors appointed pursuant to a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors issued pursuant to section 5, in the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the letter A; and “(B) upon opening any certificate, hand the certificate and any accompanying papers to the tellers, who shall read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses.

“(2) ACTION ON CERTIFICATE.—
'(A) IN GENERAL.—Upon the reading of each certificate or paper, the President of the Senate shall call for objections, if any.

'(B) REQUIREMENTS FOR OBJECTIONS.—

''(i) OBJECTIONS.—No objection shall be in order unless the objection—

''(I) is made in writing;

''(II) is signed by at least one-fifth of the Senators duly chosen and sworn and one-fifth of the Members of the House of Representatives duly chosen and sworn; and

''(III) states clearly and concisely, without argument, one of the grounds listed under clause (ii).

''(ii) GROUNDS FOR OBJECTIONS.—

The only grounds for objections shall be as follows:

''(I) The electors of the State were not lawfully certified under a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors according to section 5(a)(1).

''(II) The vote of one or more electors has not been regularly given.
“(C) CONSIDERATION OF OBJECTIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—When all objections so made to any vote or paper from a State shall have been received and read, the Senate shall thereupon withdraw, and such objections shall be submitted to the Senate for its decision; and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, submit such objections to the House of Representatives for its decision.

“(ii) DETERMINATION.—No objection may be sustained unless such objection is sustained by separate concurring votes of each House.

“(D) RECONVENING.—When the two Houses have voted, they shall immediately again meet, and the presiding officer shall then announce the decision of the questions submitted. No votes or papers from any other State shall be acted upon until the objections previously made to the votes or papers from any State shall have been finally disposed of.

“(e) RULES FOR TABULATING VOTES.—

“(1) COUNTING OF VOTES.—
“(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B)—

“(i) only the votes of electors who have been appointed under a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors issued pursuant to section 5, or who have legally been appointed to fill a vacancy of any such elector pursuant to section 4, may be counted; and “(ii) no vote of an elector described in clause (i) which has been regularly given shall be rejected.

“(B) EXCEPTION.—The vote of an elector who has been appointed under a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors issued pursuant to section 5 shall not be counted if—

“(i) there is an objection which meets the requirements of subsection (d)(2)(B)(i); and “(ii) each House affirmatively sustains the objection as valid.

“(2) DETERMINATION OF MAJORITY.—If the number of electors lawfully appointed by any State pursuant to a certificate of ascertainment of appointment of electors that is issued under section 5 is less than the number of electoral votes entitled to be cast by the State, or if an objection the grounds for which are described in subsection (d)(2)(B)(ii)(I) has been sustained, the total number of electors appointed for the purpose of determining a majority of the whole number of electors appointed as required by the Twelfth Amendment to the Constitution shall be reduced by the number of electors whom the State has failed to appoint or as to whom the objection was sustained.

“(3) LIST OF VOTES BY TELLERS; DECLARATION OF WINNER.—The tellers shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates; and the votes having been ascertained and counted according to the rules in this subchapter provided, the result of the same shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons, if any, elected President and Vice President of the United States, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the Journals of the two Houses.”.

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of contents for chapter 1 of title 3, United States Code, is amended by striking the item relating to section 15 and inserting the following:

“15. Counting electoral votes in Congress.”.

SEC. 110. RULES RELATING TO JOINT MEETING.

(a) LIMIT OF DEBATE IN EACH HOUSE.—Section 17 of title 3, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

“§ 17. Same; limit of debate in each House

“When the two Houses separate to decide upon an objection pursuant to section 15(d)(2)(C)(i) that may have been made to the counting of any electoral vote or votes from any State, or other question arising in the matter—

“(1) all such objections and questions permitted with respect to such State shall be considered at such time;

“(2) each Senator and Representative may speak to such objections or questions five minutes, and not more than once;

“(3) the total time for debate for all such objections and questions with respect to such State shall not exceed two hours in each House; and

“(4) at the close of such debate, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer of each House to put the objections and questions to a vote without further debate.”.
(b) Parliamentary Procedure.—Section 18 of title 3, United States Code, is amended by inserting “under section 15(d)(2)(C)(i)” after “motion to withdraw”.

SEC. 111. SEVERABILITY.

(a) In General.—Title 3, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 21 the following new section:

§ 22. Severability

“If any provision of this chapter, or the application of a provision to any person or circumstance, is held to be unconstitutional, the remainder of this chapter, and the application of the provisions to any person or circumstance, shall not be affected by the holding.”.
```

(b) Conforming Amendment.—The table of contents for chapter 1 of title 3, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

22. Severability.

TITLE II—PRESIDENTIAL TRANSITION IMPROVEMENT ACT

SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as “Presidential Transition Improvement Act”.

* S 4573 18
SEC. 202. MODIFICATIONS TO PRESIDENTIAL TRANSITION ACT OF 1963.

(a) In General.—Section 3 of the Presidential Transition Act of 1963 (3 U.S.C. 102 note) is amended by striking subsection (c) and inserting the following:

“(c)(1) Apparent Successful Candidates.—

“(A) In general.—For purposes of this Act, the ‘apparent successful candidate’ for the office of President and Vice President, respectively, shall be determined as follows:

“(i) If all but one eligible candidate for the office of President and one eligible candidate for the office of Vice President, respectively, concede the election, then the candidate for each such office who has not conceded shall be the apparent successful candidate for each such office.

“(ii) If, on the date that is 5 days after the date of the election, more than one eligible candidate for the office of President has not conceded the election, then each of the remaining eligible candidates for such office and the office of Vice President who have not conceded shall be treated as the apparent successful candidates until such time as a single candidate for the office of President is treated as the apparent successful candidate pursuant to clause (iii) or clause (iv).

“(iii) If a single candidate for the office of President or Vice President is determined by the Administrator to meet the qualifications under subparagraph (B), the Administrator may determine that such candidate shall solely be treated as the apparent successful candidate for that office until such time as a single candidate for the office of President is treated as the apparent successful candidate pursuant to clause (iv).

“(iv) If a single candidate for the office of President or Vice President is the apparent successful candidate for such office under subparagraph (C), that candidate shall solely be treated as the apparent successful candidate for that office.

“(B) Interim discretionary qualifications.—On or after the date that is 5 days after the date of the election, the Administrator may determine that a single candidate for the office of President or Vice President shall be treated as the sole apparent successful candidate for that office pursuant to subparagraph (A)(iii) if it is substantially certain the candidate will receive a majority of the pledged votes of electors, based on consideration of the following factors:

“(i) The results of the election for such office in States in which significant legal challenges that could alter the outcome of the election in the State have been substantially resolved, such that the outcome is substantially certain.

“(ii) The certified results of the election for such office in States in which the certification is complete.

“(iii) The results of the election for such office in States in which there is substantial certainty of an apparent successful candidate based on the totality of the circumstances.

“(C) MANDATORY QUALIFICATIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subparagraph (A) or (B), a candidate shall be the sole apparent successful candidate for the office of President or Vice President pursuant to subparagraph (A)(iv) for purposes of this Act if—

“(I) the candidate receives a majority of pledged votes of electors of such office based on certifications by States of their final canvass, and the conclusion of any recounts, legal actions, or administrative actions pertaining to the results of the election for such office;

“(II) in the case where subclause (I) is not met, the candidate receives a majority of votes of electors of such office at the meeting and vote of electors under section 7 of title 3, United States Code; or “(III) in the case where neither subclause (I) or (II) is met, the candidate is declared as the person elected to such office at the joint session of Congress under section 15 of title 3, United States Code.

“(ii) CLARIFICATION IF STATE UNABLE TO CERTIFY ELECTION RESULTS OR APPOINTS MORE THAN ONE SLATE OF ELECTORS.—For purposes of subclauses (I) and (II) of clause (i), if a State is unable to certify its election results or a State appoints more than one slate of electors, the votes of the electors of such State shall not count towards meeting the qualifications under such subclauses.

“(2) PERIOD OF MULTIPLE POSSIBLE APPARENT SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES.—During any period in which there is more than one possible apparent successful candidate for the office of President—

“(A) the Administrator is authorized to provide, upon request, to each remaining eligible candidate for such office and the office of Vice President described in paragraph (1)(A)(ii) access to services and facilities pursuant to this Act;

“(B) the Administrator, in conjunction with the Federal Transition Coordinator designated under section 4(c) and the senior career employee of each agency and senior career employee of each major component and subcomponent of each agency designated under subsection (f)(1) to oversee and implement the activities of the agency, component, or subcomponent relating to the Presidential transition, shall make efforts to ensure that each such candidate is provided equal access to agency information and spaces as requested pursuant to this Act;

“(C) the Administrator shall provide weekly reports to Congress containing a brief summary of the status of funds being distributed to such candidates under this Act, the level of access to agency information and spaces provided to such candidates, and the status of such candidates with respect to meeting the qualifications to be the apparent successful can-candidate for the office of President or Vice President under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (1);

“(D) if a single candidate for the office of President or Vice President is treated as the apparent successful candidate for such office pursuant to subparagraph (A)(iii) or (A)(iv) of paragraph (1), not later than 24 hours after such treatment is effective, the Administrator shall make available to the public a written statement that such candidate is treated as the sole apparent successful candidate for such office for purposes of this Act, including a description of the legal basis and reasons for such treatment based on the qualifications under subpara-graph (B) or (C) of paragraph (1), as applicable.

“(3) DEFINITION.—In this subsection, the term ‘eligible candidate’ has the meaning given that term in subsection (h)(4).”.

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—The Presidential Transition Act of 1963 (3 U.S.C. 102 note) is amended—
