The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

MORNING-HOUR DEBATE

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to the order of the House of January 4, 2021, the Chair will now recognize Members from lists submitted by the majority and minority leaders for morning-hour debate.

The Chair will alternate recognition between the parties, with time equally allocated between the parties and each Member other than the majority and minority leaders and the minority whip limited to 5 minutes, but in no event shall debate continue beyond 11:50 a.m.

RECOGNIZING RION-BOWMAN VFW POST

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. CLINE) for 5 minutes.

Mr. CLINE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Rion-Bowman VFW Post in Harrisonburg, Virginia, which recently celebrated its 100th anniversary.

Founded in 1921, VFW Post 632 was the first Veterans of Foreign War chapter founded in the Shenandoah Valley and is one of the oldest in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Combat veterans of every conflict since World War II have called this post home, and it has been led by 73 dedicated commanders over the years.

Current Senior Vice Commander Christopher Rexrode noted the significance of celebrating this milestone during the pandemic, which has forced far too many veterans’ clubs across the country to close. He is thankful his post has been able to keep its doors open and continue to serve as a place for veterans to gather, connect, and share experiences and comradery on a daily basis.

Congratulations to VFW Post 632 on this great achievement, and I wish them another 100 years of success.

LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. ESHOO). The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas (Mr. GREEN) for 5 minutes.

Mr. GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise in the name of liberty and justice for all.

I rise in the name of liberty and justice for all because the criminal justice system is on trial. It is on trial in the court of world opinion. It is on trial for crimes committed against human beings in this country.

Some of the complainants would include Eric Garner, Tamir Rice, Breonna Taylor, George Floyd.

I rise in the name of liberty and justice for all because we have reached a point in our history wherein there is one case now that seems to have reached the pinnacle of the system, such that everyone is waiting to see how this case will eventually address liberty and justice for all.

One of the complaints is that in this country we have allowed arresting officers, that we confer enormous power on, literally, the power to execute when necessary.

But the question is: Will these arresting officers not only have the power to arrest, but also the power to be judge, jury, prosecutor, and executioner?

This is the question before the court of world opinion.

We have a case that embraces decades, perhaps even centuries of misconduct. My hope is that we will receive a just ruling. My prayer is that, if there is not a just ruling, we will have peaceful protests. I believe in peaceful protests. I have gone to jail participating in peaceful protests. I have gone to jail with John Lewis participating in peaceful protests. Twice, he and I were jailed together.

So I rise in the name of liberty and justice for all, understanding that we have an opportunity now to demonstrate to the world that we will not allow an arresting officer to be judge, jury, prosecutor, and executioner. But I also understand, given the history of this country, unfortunately, that things don’t always work out as I believe they should.

So my hope is that there will be peaceful protests. I also hope that the protests will take place if there is not a just verdict. There is nothing wrong with peaceful protests in this country. There is nothing wrong with confronting injustice in this country. There is nothing wrong with standing up for the rights of those who are being denied liberty and justice for all in this country.

I want to see peaceful protests if the wrong verdict is rendered. And, in my opinion, the verdict that we should have is arresting officers can’t be judge, jury, prosecutor, and executioner. There are those who would say that I don’t have the right to come to these conclusions at this time, and they are wrong.

In the court of public opinion, world opinion, many have already come to this same conclusion. I am merely echoing what they have said. As such, I am a messenger, and the message is: Let’s pray for a just decision in the court of world opinion.

HONORING THE LIFE OF JUDGE HARRY WALKER WELLFORD

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. KUSTOFF) for 5 minutes.

Mr. KUSTOFF. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Judge Harry Walker Wellford, who passed away Saturday, April 17.

Judge Wellford was a third-generation Memphian, who dedicated his life to serving his community through the... justice system, and also dedicated his life to his family.

Judge Wellford started serving his community in our great country at a young age. Like so many of his generation, the Greatest Generation, Harry served our Nation fighting in the Pacific theater during World War II. After serving our Nation overseas, Harry Wellford returned to his home State of Tennessee to obtain his law degree from Vanderbilt University.

In a poignant time for our Nation and for Memphis, Harry Wellford was an active member of the biracial Memphis Relations Committee, serving for the betterment of the Memphis community.

It was during this time that Harry Wellford became politically active, heading the west Tennessee efforts for Howard Baker’s campaign for the United States Senate; and then, in 1970, managed the campaign for his good friend, Winfield Dunn, to become Governor of Tennessee.

Harry had a good and successful law practice and was well-regarded in the legal community. It was for these reasons that Harry was nominated for a Federal judgeship in 1970 by then-President Richard Nixon. Judge Wellford was unanimously confirmed as District court judge. Later, President Ronald Reagan nominated Judge Wellford for the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, to which he was confirmed.

Judge Wellford had a long and distinguished career on the bench. A good friend of Judge Wellford was Judge Julia Gibbons, who currently serves on the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals and, in 1982, replaced Judge Wellford on the district court when he was elevated to the appellate court. Commenting on him yesterday, Judge Gibbons said: Harry was one of the people we most admire to become; he was my friend; his touch with people emanated in everything he did in life.

Madam Speaker, Harry and his wife, Katherine, were members of Idlewild Presbyterian Church before she passed away. They loved to travel, and he enjoyed spending his free time playing tennis and golf. Despite being a well-distinguished judge and a political reformer for the State of Tennessee, what mattered most to Harry was his family.

Judge Wellford’s favorite song was “Eternal Father Strong to Save,” more commonly known as “The Navy Hymn.” So appropriate for him and for his generation.

Indeed, Harry Wellford will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Today, Roberta and I are thinking about Harry and his five children: Harry, Jr.; Beatley; Buck; Kate; and Allison. Harry, thank you for your service to our great Nation.

THE EXONERATED FIVE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. ESPAILLAT) for 5 minutes.

Mr. ESPAILLAT. Madam Speaker, yesterday, April 19, marked the 32nd anniversary of a terrible assault, a sexual assault in Central Park that marked the history and marked really the story of New York City.

But it was also one that resulted in the wrongful arrest and conviction of five young Black and Latino boys for a crime that they did not commit. For years, they were known as the Central Park Five. But after years of injustice and now long after being exonerated, they are now known as the Exonerated Five.

These young men were minors. They were really young boys who were innocent of every single crime they were charged of, and still spent from 6 to 13 years behind bars. They have faced a horrendous story.

They have names. They have faces. They have first names and last names, and they are: Antron McCray, Kevin Richardson, Yusef Salaam, Raymond Santana, and Korey Wise. They will be here in the Capitol, Madam Speaker, tomorrow.

Each one of these young men were deprived of their childhoods, of their innocence, and, most important, of their futures. Racism and bigotry were at the crux of these young men being deprived of their civil liberties. It is an old tale.

These young men aren’t alone in their stories. These are the stories of so many young Black men, Brown men, and Black and Brown young women in our country. As we brace for a court decision, Madam Speaker, they will be visiting the Capitol as free men tomorrow.

But this isn’t a story just of misfortune. It is also a story of resilience, the resilience of little boys who were turned into men far too soon; the resilience of a community that never stopped fighting for justice, including grassroots organizing and Council Member Bill Perkins; and the resilience of those that continue to fight today, continue to fight for change, and continue to fight for a new just criminal justice system.

This is an opportune debate, Madam Speaker, as we brace for a court decision that we hope will be just and that the Nation will be in peace; a criminal justice system that, today, often criminalizes far too many Black and Brown young people.

We see stories like theirs replay in the evening news each and every day. So we must never forget. When we see another Black and Brown young man being targeted, pulled over, handcuffed, shot to death in the street, knees on their necks, all while they are innocent, we know that this is not justice.

That is why we need to continue in our fight transforming policing in our country. We know that is not justice. We cannot allow law enforcement to get away with the excessive force on many young people across this country and ruining their futures. We know that is not justice.

End the choke hold. End the no-knock warrants. Transform our criminal justice system. End over-policing of Black and Brown people. Abolish the death penalty. Dismantle the institutions that are rooted in white supremacy.

No one should have to lose their life or be robbed of their future, Madam Speaker, because we didn’t step up and fix our broken system. We know that is not justice.

Madam Speaker, 32 years ago, five young men from Harlem were robbed of their future, but alas they rose above and stand tall today as leaders, advocates, and activists fighting tirelessly to reimagine how we see justice in our country. They have given back to their communities and to our country, and we thank them for their perseverance, for using their voices for change and for coming here to this Capitol tomorrow.

I hope that we use this anniversary on both sides of the aisle as a reminder of how much work still needs to be done to transform our institutions to serve every single one of us.

HONORING JOANNE POWELL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas (Mr. PFLUGER) for 5 minutes.

Mr. PFLUGER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and sacrifice of Mrs. JoAnne Powell, a pillar of the San Angelo community and one of the most distinguished public servants in the U.S. House of Representatives.

JoAnne served the constituents of the 11th District of Texas for over 35 years in the San Angelo office. During this time, she solved thousands of cases with Federal agencies, helped thousands of people, and listened to the eyes and ears of the office on the ground and throughout our district.

Her pride and joy in mentoring hundreds of men and women who would later go to service agencies truly changed our Nation and our military service. She trained four Congressmen over her tenure: Tom Loeffler, Lamar Smith, Mike Conaway, and now myself. It has been a priceless honor to have her mentorship and her guidance as I begin my journey in Congress.

For top of her congressional service, the influence she and her beloved husband, Colonel Powell, have had on our community cannot be overstated. She married her childhood sweetheart, Charles Powell, in December 1954, just months after his graduation from the U.S. Naval Academy. Charles would go on to become a colonel in the U.S. Air Force and the two would take a long journey and a successful journey in service to this country before settling in San Angelo in 1988 when Colonel Powell became the wing commander of Goodfellow.

At that time, the base was scheduled for closure. Both Colonel Powell and JoAnne were instrumental in making sure that that mission of training our intelligence personnel in the Air Force, the Marines, the Army, and the Navy continued to become one of the most important in the United States.

In San Angelo, JoAnne became one of the most involved members of the Concho Valley community and received many honors for serving on boards and for her philanthropic and organizational leadership. She was the epitome of service before self, working hard and handling case-work right up until the week before she passed away.

She genuinely cared for every single person and showed Christ’s love to everybody she encountered. I cannot express how great this loss is to our team and the entire 11th District.

JoAnne and Colonel Powell, we will miss you.

HONORING GREGORIO GUTIERREZ

Mr. PFLUGER. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the life and the service of Gregorio Gutierrez, a man with a servant’s heart, a strong faith in God, and an unmatched ability to connect with all sorts of people.

Born in Mexico, Gregorio came to the United States in 1984; married his wife, Araceli, in 1990; and earned his citizenship in 2000. He followed his passion and founded Conexión San Angelo, the area’s first and only bilingual news organization. Since then he has expanded throughout west Texas, and his operation still lives today.

He was an amazing man with a strong and abiding Christ’s love for everybody she encountered. I cannot express how great this loss is to our team and the entire 11th District.

Mr. PFLUGER. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the Lipan girls basketball team who recently won the AA State Championship. I congratulate the whole team.

To Coach Amber Branson and the entire team, congratulations on yet another victory and yet another State championship.

RECOGNIZE THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. SCHIFF) for 5 minutes.

Mr. SCHIFF. Madam Speaker, an open letter to President Joseph Biden:

Mr. President, in just 5 days, the world will mark the 106th anniversary of the beginning of the Armenian genocide, the systematic murder and displacement of 1.5 million Armenian women, men, and children by the Ottoman Empire from 1915 to 1923. This will be the first April 24 of your Presidency and your first opportunity to follow through on your promise to recognize the genocide and to order decades of leadership on this issue.

On behalf of hundreds of thousands of Armenian Americans, the children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren of genocide survivors, I ask you to keep that promise and recognize the Armenian genocide.

The facts of the genocide are not in serious dispute. They were recorded in real time by American diplomats who lacked a name for the barbaric and systematic extermination of the Armenian people but knew that it was outside precedent in human history. Millions of Armenians were beaten, raped, killed, and marched across deserts by the Ottoman Empire.

From the blood and rubble, the Armenian people survived. Tens of thousands of orphaned children owe their lives to the generosity of Americans who created the Near East Relief Foundation. Those children and their descendants crossed the ocean to build lives in Los Angeles and across the nation.

You know these facts well, and you have spoken about them directly, including as a candidate for President. As President, you have power to help right decades of denial and in so doing give meaning to your statement last year when you acknowledged the genocide and said that silence is complicity.

As a candidate and now as President, you have spoken of your commitment to human rights. You have spoken of an America who leads not by example but by the power of our word. That a few years later I would be running a campaign for my former boss, Congressman John Shimkus, and I would hire a field office manager who just graduated law school to work out of our Collinsville, Illinois, campaign office. I realized very quickly she had opinions of her own—something that in political campaigns sometimes is a little difficult because as a campaign manager, I wanted to be right all the time. But she always taught me: get the stuff done and get me the information I need so I can do my job.

Jen Daulby sitting behind me was a pain in my butt during that campaign.
Fast forward: we got a chance to work together in the Shimkus congressional office. Then she went on to bigger and brighter things working for then-Chairman Goodlatte on the House Agriculture Committee, and then to top it off she had to work for Chairman Goodlatte on the Subcommittee on Judicary Committee. Then as luck would have it, in 2012 I won the closest Republican victory in the Nation. Jen was already making a name for herself in the private sector; but she wanted to come back to the Hill and be a chief of staff. I remember how painful she was to work with when we worked together on that campaign, and I just threw her in as an interview because I knew her. If there was a fifth slot and I was only interviewing four, she would have got it.

But do you know what? She came in with a plan. She wowed my wife, who was in the interview with me, and my district director, who was in the room, and she said: ‘I am Jen Caulby, and me and my husband have been running this for 6 years and has been made a lot better place because Jen Daulby was a part of it. I saw on day one as a Member of Congress, for every staff member—like she was—I watched my friends get shot on a plane, I saw when I walked into my office after a terrorist attack. My office. I have the scars to show for it. Jen was here on the floor with us on January 6. Jen was the first person I saw when I walked into my office after I watched my friends get shot on a baseball field. Jen was the first person I saw on day one as a Member of Congress. She is a leader, she is a mom, and she will always, always have my thanks, the thanks of the American people, and the thanks of this institution. But most importantly, her favorite job is being a mom to her young daughter.

I wish her well in going back to being a mom to Reagan, but I am always going to call you one of my best friends. The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to refrain from references to guests on the floor of the House.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF CHAD KALEPA BAYBAYAN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Hawaii (Mr. KAHELE) for 5 minutes.

Mr. KAHELE. Madam Speaker:

(English translation of the statement made in Hawaiian by Mr. KAHELE is as follows:) The dark, clouded heavens weep. The spirit has embarked on the path with no return.

Ua kani mai ka papa wa’a

Ua ué ka lani pō panopani

Ua léle ka ‘uhane i ke ala ho‘i’ole mai

Madam Speaker, I stand before you today to share with you and the Nation the sad news of the passing of a great navigator, leader, educator, and friend, Chad Kalepa Baybayan.

On March 8, 1975, the deep-sea voyaging canoe Hokule’a was launched. Born of legends and stories brought to life through the paintings of the acclaimed Hawaiian artist Herb Kane, it was the first Hawaiian voyaging canoe to sail Hawaii’s waters in over 600 years and became a catalyst for Hawaiian pride and identity during the Hawaiian renaissance.

At the age of 19, Kalepa’s first connection to Hokule’a was on the shores of his home island of Maui in 1975 during Hokule’a’s sail trials and crew training. This first connection inspired him and forever changed his life. He has diligently served the voyaging movement ever since, learning, growing, then mastering and teaching the next generation of navigators.

Kalepa also believed deeply in the importance of education as a vessel to expand the reach of voyaging, and the legacy of education his kupuna and lahui, his ancestors and nation, left for him to continue. Kalepa obtained a bachelor’s in Hawaiian studies and a master’s in education, all while being intimately involved with voyaging and wayfinding. He was fluent in ‘ōlelo Hawaii and had a firm belief that indigenous knowledge guiding modern technologies will hold the answers to many of the challenges facing our world today.

In his professional career, Kalepa served as the site director of Honukai, the exploration sciences division of the ‘Aha Puna‘ana Leo, where his dedication to his land, his love of voyaging inspired him to build the first Hawaiian language voyaging canoe, Hokulaka’i, that touched hundreds of students and introduced them to voyaging through the perspective of his native tongue.

Kalepa then went on to serve as the first-ever navigator in residence at the ‘Imiloa Astronomy Center at UH Hilo, which he helped to establish. His work at ‘Imiloa also allowed him to engage in the international indigenous education movement while also engaging in the various sciences, bringing the knowledge of his people to the world.

Kalepa was one of just five Native Hawaiian navigators inducted into the rank of Pwo by the late Satawalese Master Navigator Pius ‘Mau’ Piailug in 2007. When asked about the kuleana, or responsibilities of being a Pwo master navigator, Kalepa would always simply state that being Pwo is being a light for your community and for your people.

Most recently, Kalepa was key to the success of the World Wide Voyage, which took the voyaging canoe Hokule’a around the world in voyage to over 150 ports in 18 nations and to these very shores of Washington, D.C., in May 2016, bringing attention to the health of the oceans, its people, and the need for a more sustainable world. He inspired others to action while at the same time creating opportunities, oftentimes when they least expect it, for them to fulfill their responsibilities to their communities.

Madam Speaker, on April 8, 2021, Kalepa took his final voyage from this earthly realm, e ola mau loa ka inoa ‘o Chad Kalepa Baybayan. His legacy will live on. May we learn from this legacy of service as we lead this Nation and navigate the waters ahead. Mahalo. The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Hawaii will provide a translation of his remarks to the Clerk.

RECOGNIZING ROZALYNN FEDERLINE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. NORMAN) for 5 minutes.

Mr. NORMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Rozalynn Federline for her substantial political investment in my district. She most recently served as the president of the Clover-Wylie Republican Women, the largest Republican women’s organization in the Fifth District of South Carolina.

Rozalynn held this position for 3 years. She has given contributions to the conservative movement in York County. She was also a volunteer for the Clover Lake Wylie Preservation Park District and played an active role in collecting signatures to get their referendum on the ballot.

Prior to moving to South Carolina, Rozalynn served as a board member and president of the Ocean Springs Republican Women in Mississippi. She later joined the Jackson County Republican Party executive committee. Rozalynn was the first female Republican to run for alderman in Ocean Springs. Unfortunately, she lost to the Democratic incumbent by only 23 votes.

Rozalynn also served on the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce executive committee for 4 years, where she was chosen as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America in 1983.

She was president of both the Taconi Elementary Parent Teachers Organization and the Taconi Business Club children’s charity in Mississippi.

Throughout her career, Rozalynn held her own as an international ocean sales account executive at CSX Corporation and Maersk Incorporated, which were two of the largest shipping companies in the world.

One of Clover’s most hardworking and loyal constituents, Rozalynn has proven herself an asset to the community. Rozalynn’s continued dedication to promoting conservative values in South Carolina and beyond is a blessing that will never go unnoticed.

She and her husband, Chip, echoed and lived the motto: To live is to serve.

RECOGNIZING HOMER’S MUSIC

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Nebraska (Mr. Bacon) for 5 minutes.

Mr. BACON. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Small Business Month to recognize Homer’s Music, a small business and top tourist attraction in Nebraska’s Second District.

This year, they celebrate 50 years of service to and entrepreneurship in our community. For those 50 years, Homer’s Music has expanded to nearly a dozen locations in Nebraska and Iowa, but only the original Omaha location remains today.

Established in 1971, Homer’s Music is one of Nebraska’s best music retailers and was featured in national publications, including The Wall Street Journal and The New York Times. While they are known for selling vintage records, their love for music and its history remains timeless.

It is one thing to own a business, but it is another to keep it alive for decades. Despite the ongoing pandemic that has financially impacted many local shops and businesses throughout America, Homer’s Music has remained intact.

Small businesses are the backbone of our economy, many of which are family or minority-owned. Today, and every day, we thank all small businesses in our community and across Nebraska for their passion, entrepreneurship, and advancement to our State’s economy and culture.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Nebraska (Mr. Bacon) for 5 minutes.

Mr. BACON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to remember and honor Bobby Ryon of Hinesville, Georgia, who sadly passed away on March 20 at the age of 80.

Bobby Ryon lived a remarkable life and touched countless lives. He was a lifelong resident of Hinesville, Georgia, and was a proud graduate of Bradwell Institute’s class of 1974.

Everyone who knew Bobby remembers his kind and gentle spirit. He was a former city of Hinesville council member, and served in various capacities in many organizations, including Liberty County Hospital Authority, Liberty County Chamber of Commerce, Diversity Health Clinic, and Hinesville Housing Authority.

Through every position he had, he worked to better his community and every life he touched. Many say that his greatest love was his family, and those who knew him best know his greatest love also was his Lord.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family, friends, and all who knew him during this most difficult time.

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF JAMES ROBERT “BOBBY” RYON, JR.

Mr. BACON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to remember and honor Bobby Ryon of Hinesville, Georgia, who sadly passed away on March 20 at the age of 80.

Bobby Ryon lived a remarkable life and touched countless lives. He was a lifelong resident of Hinesville, Georgia, and was a proud graduate of Bradwell Institute’s class of 1974.

CONSOLIDATING BRUNSWICK HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT TEACHERS

Mr. BACON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 250th anniversary of the founding of Brunswick, Georgia.

Located on the southeast coast of Georgia, Brunswick was the first European settlement in what is now the city of Brunswick. In 1771, the council of the Royal Province of Georgia ordered the city of Brunswick to be laid out on Carr’s land. The city was platted by George McIntosh, copying the Orlethope Plan of Savannah.

Since its founding, the city of Brunswick has overcome fires, hurricanes, wars, and pandemics and has flourished as a coastal city.

Despite such trying times in the past year due to the pandemic, businesses have continued to emerge and the spirit of the people continues to shine.

It has been 250 years since the momentous decision to establish Brunswick as a city, and I want to recognize the great citizens and public officials of Brunswick who have made it and continue to make it a tremendous community and place to live.
Let this anniversary serve as a reminder of all that we have gone through in the past and how capable we are of making it through these trying times together.

HONORING THE LIFE OF BARBARA FLAUMENBAUM

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. FITZPATRICK) for 5 minutes.

Mr. FITZPATRICK. Madam Speaker, I rise today in tribute to the life and legacy of Mrs. Barbara Flaumenbaum, the late mother-in-law of a member of our team, Mr. Peter Chong.

Born in West Oak Lane, Philadelphia, Barbara worked tirelessly as a lab technician for many years and had a spirit that warmed and welcomed all lucky enough to cross her path. You didn’t have to know her well to see and understand how deeply she valued generosity and compassion. Not a day went by when Barbara did not exemplify these traits. She instilled these qualities and so much more in her family and the many lives she touched, including her son-in-law, Peter.

Barbara’s husband of over 45 years, Steven, raised two incredible daughters, Alisha and Lindsay. Family was everything to Barbara, and what Barbara loved most about life was being a mother and, most recently, a grandmother to her two grandsons, Ethan and Benjamin.

They say the best measure of a life well-lived has less to do with the number of our accomplishments, but more to do with the number of lives we have touched.

Madam Speaker, it is clear that Barbara’s was a life well-lived and one that will be greatly missed by all.

REMAINING FOCUSED ON INFRASTRUCTURE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida (Mr. BILIRAKIS) for 5 minutes.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Madam Speaker, I recently met with local and State leaders about the infrastructure needs of our community, which are significant. There is widespread agreement that an investment in our Nation’s infrastructure is needed to alleviate traffic, improve flooding conditions, and address other safety concerns.

Imagine my disappointment, Madam Speaker, to learn that less than 10 percent of President Biden’s $2 trillion infrastructure package will be spent on roads and bridges. Also of concern, less than 2 percent of the package is allocated for waterways, locks, dams, ports, and airports, which are all very important to the State of Florida; and less than 50 percent is allocated for much-needed broadband expansion, which would help to address the digital divide in our country.

These traditional infrastructure projects, coupled with infrastructure Investments that are linked to our Nation’s security, such as safeguarding our energy grid, water systems, and other critical assets from cyber and other attacks, are the types of projects my constituents want to see funded.

Unfortunately, President Biden is using the guise of infrastructure spending, which enjoys relatively high support among Americans—it is really a bipartisan issue—to push highly partisan and unpopular policy proposals, such as corporate tax hikes. Many of these policies will hurt American consumers and workers.

The vast majority of spending in the bill consists of non-infrastructure expenditures. For example, the bill contains $400 billion in expansion of Medicaid; $213 billion in spending for housing initiatives; $100 billion of additional funding for schools, without any type of requirement for them to reopen; $50 billion for a new office at the Department of Homeland Security; $35 billion for climate science; and $10 billion for a new “Civilian Climate Corps.”

Adding insult to injury, Madam Speaker, this astronomical spending plan would be funded through tax increases. This current proposal fails to address our Nation’s $6 trillion critical infrastructure needs and falls short of meeting my constituents’ expectations.

We can do better, Madam Speaker, if we work together. My constituents want their elected officials to work together, think outside the box, improving opportunities for our families and our community. They do not want to see us use our time in Washington to play political games. Please be assured I will remain focused on this paramount objective.

SUPPORTING RIGHT-TO-WORK LAWS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. BROOKS) for 5 minutes.

Mr. BROOKS. Madam Speaker, earlier this month, employees at Amazon’s Bessemer, Alabama, fulfillment facility rejected unionization by a 1,798-738 vote. That is a monumental 70 percent against unions to a meager 30 percent for unions.

Bam! That kind of vote sends a powerful anti-union, pro-liberty message to America and the world.

I applaud Amazon’s Bessemer employees for rejecting unionization attempts by out-of-state agitators, from the President to Hollywood actors and on down. A primary reason why Amazon chose to locate nearly 6,000 good-paying jobs in Alabama is Alabama’s nonunion reputation.

Alabama maintains that reputation because Bessemer’s overwhelming anti-union vote, thus enabling companies to relocate even more good-paying jobs from union States up north into Alabama.

Alabama is a right-to-work State.

What does ‘right to work’ mean?

Right-to-work laws protect citizens from being forced against their will to join a union, pay union dues, and subject themselves to union bosses.

Alabama’s right-to-work status gives Alabama a strong economic advantage over forced union States. For example, 69 percent of jobs restored from overseas back into America between 2010 and 2019 have gone to right-to-work States. U.S. Commerce Department data, adjusted for cost-of-living differences, revealed that 2019’s manufacturing job pay in right-to-work States averaged $33,000 per employee, $4,000 more than in forced union States. That is a big difference in pay.

According to Bureau of Labor Statistics data, right-to-work States’ overall job growth was a robust 11 percent over the past decade versus a meager 2.4 percent in forced union States. When that data is limited to manufacturing jobs only, right-to-work States, over the past decade, enjoyed a very good 9.1 percent increase in manufacturing jobs while forced union States had a horrible two-tenths of 1 percent cut in manufacturing jobs.

Better yet, 2018 Census data reveals that after-tax mean income per household, after cost-of-living adjustment, was $64,572 in right-to-work States versus $60,244 in forced union States. That is, on average, $4,328 more real, adjusted for cost of living, income per capita in right-to-work versus union States. That is a huge difference.

Madam Speaker, the economic data clearly proves that right-to-work laws benefit workers. Consistent with that economic prosperity and desire for freedom and liberty—after all, no one likes being told what they can and cannot do—74 percent of Americans say they support right-to-work laws, according to a recent Gallup Poll.

Despite overwhelming American support for right-to-work laws, dictatorial Socialists in March rammed through the House a bill that repeals all right-to-work laws in America. Worse yet, dictatorial Socialists seek to use President Biden’s infrastructure bill to slip in a provision that repeals all right-to-work laws in America. I hope neither of these terrible dictatorial bills ever reaches President Biden’s desk. Certainly, I will vote against them and I will vote for freedom, liberty, and protection of America’s right-to-work laws.

Madam Speaker, America would be stronger if more States would enact right-to-work laws. I encourage citizens and elected officials to promote right-to-work laws, freedom of choice, and the freedom and liberty right-to-work laws represent.

IMPORTANCE OF BIPARTISAN ENGAGEMENT ON INFRASTRUCTURE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. Torres of California). The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida (Mr. Gimenez) for 5 minutes.

Mr. GIMENEZ. Madam Speaker, I rise today to address the House on the importance of bipartisan engagement on infrastructure.

Yesterday afternoon, I had the privilege of sitting in the Oval Office with President Biden as we, along with a small group of Senators and Representatives, discussed the best way possible to move forward on infrastructure.

Our commitment is clear: Republicans agree that we should put more resources and key investments into the things that we consider the traditional definition of infrastructure. This includes our roads and highways, bridges, ports, and waterways. In order to maintain our competitiveness in the world, strategic investments in things like public transportation and improved air and rail mobility are also key.

We also need to continue fostering American entrepreneurship and private investment in the area of automotive technology with numerous auto companies making big gains in automotive vehicles running on clean, safe, sustainable energy sources, as well as creating an economic environment where they can continue to build out their own electric charging station networks.

Republicans also understand the importance of the technology side of infrastructure, such as the need to expand rural broadband, fortify our cybersecurity to protect critical assets from foreign adversaries, and improving our telecommunication networks across the country. These are all key areas where Republicans and Democrats can come together and work on infrastructure solutions in a broad, bipartisan way.

As it was made clear to the President, unfortunately, the current proposal floating around goes well beyond that scope and includes funding for projects that are not infrastructure. As much as some of our Members on the other side of the aisle want to speak it into truth, the expansion of social welfare programs is not infrastructure.

If my colleagues want to engage in a rigorous debate over the merits of expanding Medicaid and providing elder care, or whatever else they want to put into this infrastructure proposal, they ought to bring separate bills onto the floor. I am sure my colleagues on this side of the aisle will be happy to engage in that debate.

What we cannot allow is for these provisions to be snuck into a big spending package under the guise of infrastructure.

I do have a small glimmer of hope that there is a bipartisan avenue for moving an infrastructure package. In order to get it done, it is going to take compromise between both sides. President Biden and my colleagues on the other side of the aisle must engage in earnest negotiations with Republicans.

Let’s put all of our cards on the table and bring forward targeted legislation that actually supports American infrastructure.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until noon today.

Accordingly (at 10 o’clock and 57 minutes a.m.), the House stood in recess.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Stanton) at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

God our judge, as we anxiously await the verdict from the jury in Minnesota, we plead our case with You. As a country, we are rent with acrimony, torn by our individual understandings of right and wrong, facts and feelings, and divided by a host of opinions on crime and punishment.

Call us to lay all of this—as hopeless as it appears—on Your judgment seat. Then lay Your divine hand upon the outcome of this case, and also on our compatriots’ anger, their thoughts of revenge, and the insatiable need to destroy. Stay any inclinations toward violence and remind us that vengeful behavior is no more justified than the acts of those who precipitated that grief and harm and ignited our cities.

Be merciful on this Nation—despite how we have turned our backs on Your perfect love. As You inevitably judge our response to the incidents of unrest that plague our land, forgive our iniquity and heal our brokenness. Redeem the soul of our country.

Then inspire these leaders of our government to find ways to represent back to their districts and to our communities a better way toward reconciling this divide. Call them to follow Your example of compassion and care, humility and love.

In Your saving name we pray. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 11(a) of House Resolution 188, the Journal of the last day’s proceedings is approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. Hagedorn) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. HAGEDORN led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to 15 requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

THE NORTHERN BORDER

(Mr. Higgins of New York asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HIGGINS of New York. Mr. Speaker, it has been 365 days since the United States-Canadian border closed, and the closure was just extended another 30 days.

Families on both sides of the border have been torn apart. People who love each other, parents, and grandchildren are unable to see each other. Vaccinated citizens of both countries significantly lower the risk of getting COVID and wearing face masks significantly lowers the risk of giving COVID.

We need a plan to open the U.S.-Canadian border with vaccines, face masks, and good physical distancing. We can do so safely and successfully.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

(Mr. Hagedorn asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAGEDORN. Mr. Speaker, workforce development is key to sustaining jobs and economic growth. Manufacturers, small businesses, trade unions, and industry groups are concerned about the increasing skilled labor shortage. Unfortunately, current law limits the use of eligible savings accounts to help reduce the costs of obtaining advanced technical certifications.

My legislation, the American Workforce Empowerment Act, would allow 529 savings accounts to be used for non-degree technical training certificate programs, tools, and any tests that are required for certification.

As the American workforce rebounds, we will see increased need for skilled workers to meet rising manufacturing, shipping, and construction demand. These skilled labor positions are good-paying jobs that help provide economic stability for hardworking Americans and are essential to the expansion of our Nation's economy.

CONGRATULATING CAPTAIN JONATHAN TURNBULL

(Mr. BERGMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BERGMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Captain Jonathan Turnbull on his promotion to major in the United States Army.

Captain Turnbull of Gaylord, Michigan, was deployed in Syria where he worked with local forces and non-governmental organizations to stabilize the area and provide humanitarian assistance.

On January 16, 2019, an ISIS suicide bomber forever changed the course of his life and the life of his brothers. Four Americans were killed on that day, and Jonathan received life-threatening injuries. His courage and bravery on that day and each day since has inspired countless Americans as he recovered and continued his service.

Jonathan is the epitome of an American patriot and embodies the fighting spirit of our Nation's Armed Forces. He has fought for his life and his country and has truly earned this promotion to major.

I speak for the entire First District when I say how proud we are of Jonathan, his service, and his commitment.

I wish him, Samantha, Ian, and baby Scotty all the best in the many years to come.

MOUNT NOTRE DAME GIRLS BASKETBALL

(Mr. WENSTRUP asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WENSTRUP. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Mount Notre Dame High School girls basketball team on winning the Ohio High School Athletic Association championship.

Mount Notre Dame captured the Division I State championship title after beating Newark in a 2-point double overtime thriller. This championship was the eighth championship for the Mount Notre Dame basketball program—the most in Ohio school history.

Coach Scott Rogers led his team to a 28-0 record, a number two national ranking, and has won 72 consecutive games.

Among the team’s many talented athletes is junior guard KK Bransford who was recently named Ohio’s Ms. Basketball.

I commend Coach Scott Rogers and the entire Mount Notre Dame girls basketball team for this historic accomplishment and tradition of excellence.

Congratulations, again, to the Mount Notre Dame players, to Coach Rogers and his staff, and to the Mount Notre Dame faithful.

THE SOUTHERN BORDER

(Mr. GUEST asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUEST. Mr. Speaker, since mid-January we have seen a surge of immigrants coming into the country along our southwest border. The numbers are staggering, and the situation along the border continues to deteriorate daily.

In March, over 172,000 individuals were encountered by law enforcement, the highest number of monthly encounters in the last 15 years.

Last week I had the opportunity to visit the border and met with both Federal and State law enforcement officers. We heard repeatedly that recent changes by the Biden administration have driven the overwhelming surge.

Lost in the border conversation is the incredible amount of resources being diverted to try and manage the immigrants we are encountering. This shift in resources is being exploited by drug cartels who continue to use the southwest border as the primary pipeline to bring cocaine, methamphetamine, and fentanyl into the country.

The question can no longer be: Is there a crisis along the border? But instead it should be: How long will the crisis last, and how bad must the crisis become before the President will act?

THE SOUTHERN BORDER

(Mr. GROTHMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. GROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to address what I think is the biggest crisis to our sovereignty since I have been here, and that is what is going on at the border.

It is hard to think of something new to say, but I want to point out as we pursue an open borders policy that it greatly increases the power of the Mexican cartels.

Because the Mexican cartels have a monopoly on letting people in this country, I heard a story of two people who weren’t part of the cartels trying to sneak people across. Two of them were skinning alive, and a third one was partially skinned and sent back to say: This is what happens if you try to push people across without going through the cartels.

I would like to address the 70,000 people who died from illegal drug use this year. I was recently at the Milwaukee DEA, and I was told last year 540 people in Milwaukee County died of illegal drug use, and the local agents suspected that all 540 were killed by drugs or ingredients from drugs that came across the Mexican border.

Please, President Biden, do something about the crisis on the border.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to address their remarks to the Chair.

LOCAL GRAMMY WINNER JAMES BLACHLY

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate James Blachly on his 2021 Grammy win.

In April 2018, Blachly and the Johnstown Symphony Orchestra performed the U.S. world premiere of Dame Ethel Smyth’s "The Prison." It was this performance that won the 2021 Grammy.

Serving as the music director of the Johnstown Symphony Orchestra and as music director of the Experiential Orchestra, Mr. Blachly is known for his innovative programming which aims to increase audience engagement.

James is an incredibly talented conductor and composer. In 2016, he was the only conductor from the United States invited to participate in the first annual Young Conductors Showcase as part of El Sistema’s 40th anniversary celebration, and he was the only U.S. conductor to be invited as Conducting Fellow in Maestra Marin Alsop’s final year at the Cabrillo Festival of Contemporary Music.

Congratulations to James and the Johnstown Symphony. Their hard work and dedication have truly paid off.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, April 20, 2021.

HON. NANCY PELOSI,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MADAM SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 2(h) of Rule II
ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro temore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will postpone further proceedings today on motions to suspend the rules on which the yeas and nays are ordered.

The House will resume proceedings on postponed questions at a later time.

TRAINING IN HIGH-DEMAND ROLES TO IMPROVE VETERAN EMPLOYMENT ACT

Mr. TAKANO. Madam Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 2523) to amend the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 to improve the COVID–19 Veteran Rapid Retraining Assistance program, to make certain technical corrections to the Johnny Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care Improvement Act of 2020, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill. The text of the bill is as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Training in High-Demand Roles to Improve Veteran Employment Act” or the “THRIVE Act”.

SEC. 2. IMPROVEMENTS TO COVID–19 VETERAN RAPID RETRAINING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.

(1) by striking paragraph (3) of subsection (c) and inserting the following new paragraph (3):

“(3) DETERMINATION OF HIGH-DEMAND OCCUPATIONS.—

“(A) INITIAL IMPLEMENTATION.—In carrying out this section, the Secretary shall use the list of high-demand occupations prepared in conjunction with the Secretary of Labor.

“(B) MODIFICATIONS.—The Secretary of Veterans Affairs may add and remove occupations from the list under subparagraph (A) as the Secretary determines appropriate.”;

(2) in subsection (d)(5) (A) in the matter preceding subparagraph (A), by inserting “(other than such a program pursued solely through distance learning on a part-time or less)” after a half-time basis or less’’;

(3) by redesignating subsections (f), (g), and (h) as subsections (k), (l), and (m), respectively;

(4) by inserting after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

“(f) EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary of Veterans Affairs, in consultation with the Secretary of Labor, shall contact each veteran who completes a covered program of education under the retraining assistance program under this section; and

“(g) NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Veterans Affairs shall seek to enter into a memorandum of understanding with one or more qualified nonprofit organizations for the purpose of facilitating the employment of veterans who participate in the retraining assistance program under this section.

“(2) QUALIFIED NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION.—

“For purposes of this subsection, a qualified nonprofit organization is a nonprofit organization that—

“(A) is an association of businesses; and

“(B) has at least two years of experience providing job placement services for veterans.”;

(5) in subsection (l), as so redesignated, by—

(A) by striking “No retraining assistance may be paid under this section after the date that is 21 months after the date of the enactment of this Act” and inserting “No retraining assistance may be paid under this section for a covered program of education that begins on or after December 11, 2022’’; and

(B) by adding at the end the following new subsection:

“(m) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

“(1) the term ‘covered public health emergency’ means the declaration—

“(A) of a public health emergency, based on an outbreak of COVID–19 by the Secretary of Health and Human Services under section 319 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 247d); or “(B) of a domestic emergency, based on an outbreak of COVID–19 by the President, the Secretary of Homeland Security, or State, or local authority.

“(2) the term ‘veteran’ means—

“(i) a person who served in the active military, naval, or air service, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable; or

“(ii) a member of the armed forces of the United States, who served in the Reserves or the National Guard, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable; or “(iii) a member of the armed forces of the United States, who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable, and who served in active military service for a period of 30 days or longer by reason of the covered public health emergency.

“(3) the term ‘veteran employment status’ has the meaning given such term in section 101 of title 10, United States Code.”.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro temore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair. Accordingly (at 12 o’clock and 13 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Ms. JAYAPAL) at 2 o’clock and 15 minutes p.m.

"(A) each State department or agency admin- istered at, or colocated with, a univer- sity or university system that offers courses or programs of education that are subject to approval under this chapter by the State appro- ving agency.

"(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply as if in- cluded in the enactment of the Johnny Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2020 (Public Law 116–315).
This legislation is endorsed by many VSOs, including the Student Veterans of America, the National Association of State Approving Agencies, Paralyzed Veterans of America, and Disabled American Veterans.

I wish to thank Speaker PELOSI and Leader HOYER for bringing H.R. 2523, as amended, to the floor so quickly. I urge the rest of my colleagues to support this legislation to ensure VA can deliver assistance to our veterans as quickly as possible.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BOST. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 2523, as amended, the Training in High-Demand Roles to Improve Veteran Employment Act, or THRIVE Act.

This legislation would make needed improvements to the American Rescue Plan of 2021. It would also make several technical corrections to the Johnny Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care and Improvement Act of 2020. COVID–19 has had a profound impact on our economy. It has closed small businesses across the country and left millions of Americans unemployed. That includes an estimated half a million veterans. Before the pandemic, the veterans unemployment rate was at a near record low. Today, it is almost double that.

We must help our veterans get back to work. For our Veterans Economic Recovery Act earlier this year to do just that. That bill created the Veterans Rapid Retraining Assistance Program, or V-RAP. V-RAP allows veterans who are unemployed because of COVID–19 to receive rapid retraining to compete for high-demand jobs.

The bulk of the Veterans Economic Recovery Act was enacted as part of the American Rescue Plan. Unfortunately, Speaker Pelosi used the reconciliation process to pass the ARP, there were several provisions of V-RAP that were not included. That is why I was pleased to work with Chairman LEVIN on the bill before us today. It would finish the job and ensure that V-RAP is set up for success.

Specifically, the THRIVE Act would allow the VA to add jobs to the in-demand occupations list so the training leads to meaningful employment; require the GAO to report on the overall effectiveness of V-RAP; and make changes to how the VA pays schools for training that participants receive so that it can be used by the veterans very quickly.

While I am glad the changes are being made, it is unfortunate they were not initially addressed in the ARP.

The THRIVE Act also includes the text of the bill by Representative TORRES of California. Her bill would add information to the GI Bill comparison tool to let the veterans know if schools have a religious affiliation or have historically served a particular minority population. This will help veterans be better informed when they decide to use their GI Bill benefits.

I thank Representative TORRES for her work, and I am glad that we were able to include her legislation in this bill.

I am grateful to Chairman TAKANO and Congressman LEVIN for working with me on the THRIVE Act. I am confident that it will help veterans get back on their feet.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support it, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. TAKANO. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from California (Mr. LEVIN), the chairman of the Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity, the author of the bill, and also my good friend and fellow Californian.

Mr. LEVIN of California. Madam Speaker, I thank our great chairman, Mr. TAKANO, and our ranking member for their great work. It is an honor to continue serving our veterans in a bipartisan manner and to chair the relevant subcommittee.

As the Representative for Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton and thousands of military families in the region, I am incredibly proud of the work we have accomplished in the past few years for our Nation’s veterans.

Back in January of this year, the Johnny Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act was signed into law. It was a historic omnibus bill for veterans that strengthened many benefits and services for those who have served our country. It was a great bipartisan accomplishment. Again, I am grateful to all of my colleagues for getting it across the finish line.

It included provisions to improve services for homeless veterans, to protect GI Bill benefits, improve the Transition Assistance Program for service members returning to civilian life, and so much more. It was the product, again, of bipartisan, bicameral work, proof that we can do things on a bipartisan basis here in Washington, D.C., and I was proud to help lead that bill.

Most recently, we passed the American Rescue Plan, a landmark piece of legislation to help Americans get through this pandemic, including our veterans who have struggled to get back on their feet during this difficult time.

A key piece of that bill was nearly $400 million for a rapid retraining program for veterans who have lost their jobs due to COVID–19. It is crucial that we continue to provide support for veterans as a result of this pandemic and don’t have access to other veteran education benefits.

Both of these bills were huge accomplishments; but, like all legislation, they weren’t perfect, and there are still steps that we must take to make these programs work even better for the veterans they are intended to serve.
That is why I was proud to introduce legislation with Ranking Member Mike Bost of the House Veterans' Affairs Committee, amending the American Rescue Plan and the Isakson-Roe legislation to improve job training and education programs for our veterans.

Fourth, our bill makes changes to the Rapid Retraining Assistance Program so we are focusing on high-demand occupations.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. TAKANO. Madam Speaker, I yield an additional 1½ minutes to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEVIN of California. Madam Speaker, it will also improve the VA's communication with veterans about employment placement services. It will clarify veterans' eligibility for housing stipends under the retraining program. And it will ensure the VA works with qualified nonprofit business associations to facilitate the employment of part-time and veteran-owned businesses.

Nothing in this bill is controversial. It is all about improving existing veterans' programs so they can get back to work and make the most of the services they have earned and deserve.

Madam Speaker, I urge all of you to pass this bill without delay, and I urge all of my colleagues to support it.

Mr. BOST. Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. TAKANO. Madam Speaker, I have no further speakers at this time, I am prepared to close, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BOST. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. CAWTHORN).

Mr. CAWTHORN. Madam Speaker, America's veterans are facing an unemployment crisis that threatens their livelihoods. While this current government focuses on giving jobs to illegal immigrants, approximately half a million veterans are out of work as of March 2021.

Americans often talk about their love of our troops. As politicians, we often take victory laps through our districts meeting veterans and pledging to work for them. Now it is time for us to act on that pledge. The THRIVE Act represents a commonsense step to empower both veterans and educational institutions who provide much-needed workforce training.

I come from a family of veterans. For six generations, the men of my family have served their country proudly in the Armed Forces. I represent the first and the only member of my family who has served in the military. I come from a family of veterans.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 330 and ask for its immediate consideration. The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 51, WASHINGTON, D.C. ADMISSION ACT; PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 1333, ACCELERATING THE RETURN OF U.S. TROOPS FROM AFGHANISTAN ACT OF 2021; PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 1333, NATIONAL ORIGIN-BASED ANTIDISCRIMINATION FOR NONIMMIGRANTS ACT; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Resolved, That upon adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 51) to provide for the admission of the State of Washington, D.C. into the Union. All points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended, shall be considered as waived.

Mr. BOST, Madam Speaker, I want to thank the chairman for being involved in moving forward with this legislation, especially Chairman TAKANO, and I encourage all of my colleagues to support this bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The Speaker pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. TAKANO) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2523, as amended.

The previous question was taken.

The Speaker pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. PERRY. Madam Speaker, on that motion, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. CAWTHORN. Madam Speaker, I call on the House to pass this bill. I appreciate the bipartisan way in which we moved forward on this bill. I want to thank all my colleagues, and I urge all of them to join me in passing H.R. 2523, as amended.

The Speaker pro tempore. Pursuant to section 8 of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this motion are postponed.

Resolved, That upon adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 51) to provide for the admission of the State of Washington, D.C. into the Union. All points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended, shall be considered as waived.

Mr. BOST, Madam Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for being involved in moving forward with this legislation, especially Chairman TAKANO, and I encourage all of my colleagues to support this bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The Speaker pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. TAKANO) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2523, as amended.

The previous question was taken.

The Speaker pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

H. Res. 330

Resolved, That upon adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 51) to provide for the admission of the State of Washington, D.C. into the Union. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived.

The amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on the Judiciary now printed in the bill shall be considered as adopted. The bill, as amended, shall be read. The previous question shall be considered as agreed to, to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary or their respective designees; and (2) one motion to recommit.

Sec. 3. Upon adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 1333) to transfer and limit Executive Branch authority to restrict the entry of a class of aliens. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived.

The amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on the Judiciary now printed in the bill shall be considered as adopted. The bill, as amended, shall be read. The previous question shall be considered as agreed to, to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary or their respective designees; and (2) one motion to recommit.

Sec. 4. House Resolution 316 is hereby adopted.

Sec. 5. House Resolution 188, agreed to March 8, 2021, is amended—

(1) in section 11, by striking “April 22, 2021” and inserting “April 20, 2021”;

(2) in section 16, by striking “calendar day of April 22, 2021” and inserting “legislative day of May 20, 2021”;

Sec. 6. (a) At any time through the legislative day of Thursday, April 22, 2021, the Speaker may entertain motions offered by the Majority Leader or a designee that the House suspend the rules as though under clause 8 of rule XX, and the Chair shall put the question on any such motion without debate or intervening motion.

(b) A measure referred to in subsection (a) in the form of any measure that was the object of a motion to suspend the rules on the legislative day of April 19, 2021, or April 20, 2021, on which the yeas and nays were ordered and further proceedings postponed pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 1333) to transfer and limit Executive Branch authority to restrict the entry of a class of aliens. All points of order against such measures are waived.

(c) Upon the offering of a motion pursuant to subsection (a) concerning multiple measures that was the object of a motion to suspend the rules on the legislative day of April 19, 2021, or April 20, 2021, on which the yeas and nays were ordered and further proceedings postponed pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Speaker may entertain motions offered by the Majority Leader or a designee that the House suspend the rules as though under clause 8 of rule XX, and the Chair shall put the question on any such motion without debate or intervening motion.

(b) A measure referred to in subsection (a) in the form of any measure that was the object of a motion to suspend the rules on the legislative day of April 19, 2021, or April 20, 2021, on which the yeas and nays were ordered and further proceedings postponed pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 1333) to transfer and limit Executive Branch authority to restrict the entry of a class of aliens. All points of order against such measures are waived.

Sec. 7. (a) House Concurrent Resolution 30 is hereby adopted.

(b) For purposes of the joint session to receive the President of the United States on April 28, 2021, former Members, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners shall not be admitted to the Hall of the House or rooms leading thereto.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Maryland is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, for the purpose of debate only, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. RESCHENTHALER), pending which I yield myself such time as I may consume. During consideration of this resolution, all time yielded is for the purpose of debate only.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members be given 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Maryland?

There was no objection.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, today the Rules Committee met and reported a rule, House Resolution 330, providing for three measures.

First, the rule provides for consideration of H.R. 51, the Washington, D.C. Admission Act. It provides 1 hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Oversight and Reform and provides for one motion to recommit.

The rule provides for consideration of H.R. 1333, the NO BAN Act, and H.R. 1573, the Access to Counsel Act of 2021, both under closed rules. The rule provides an hour of debate on each bill equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Oversight and Reform and provides for one motion to recommit.

The rule deems as passed H.R. 316, providing for the expenses of certain committees in Con. Res. 95, providing for a joint session of Congress to receive a message from the President of the United States. The rule also restricts former Members' access to the House floor during the joint session.

Additionally, the rule provides authority through April 22 for the majority leader or his designee to move to en banc postponed votes on any suspension bill considered on April 19 or 20 on which the yeas and nays were ordered. Finally, the rule provides for recess instructions, same day, and suspension authority through May 20.

Madam Speaker, Tocqueville wrote in “Democracy in America” that in our country voting rights and democracy are always either contracting and retreating forward by voting or voting rights and democracy are growing and expanding.

What a proud day for the United States Congress when we get to keep the trajectory of American democracy moving forward by voting to admit a new State to our beloved Union.

America began with 13 original States, and we in Congress have exercised our powers under Article IV, Section 3 different times to admit 37 new States to the Union, which means that nearly 75 percent of the States in America today were admitted after the original 13.

Today, we can keep the dynamics of democratic political growth and inclusion going in America by beginning the process of admitting Washington, Douglass Commonwealth to the Union by passing H.R. 51.

We have the opportunity to do something that has happened here since 1959, when Alaska and Hawaii were admitted to the Union in January and in August of that year.

We can vote to admit a new State to the Union, and what a State it will be: A community of 712,000 taxable, draftable, law-abiding American citizens who actually pay more Federal taxes per capita now than the people of any State, more in hard dollars than the people of 22 States combined. It is a community of people who have fought in every war that the Union has ever fought, going all the way back to the American Revolution.

And it was a community, significantly, that came to the aid of democracy that came to the aid of the Union, that came to the aid of this Congress when we called on January 6, 2021.

More than 850 officers in the Metropolitan Police Department came and fought shoulder to shoulder with our Capitol officers in what has been described as waves of medieval violence by insurrectionists and Fascists attacking them with bats and sticks and American flagpoles and Confederate flagpoles and Trump flagpoles. They sent more than 150 National Guardsmen from Washington, D.C., 154 D.C. National Guard, 850 Metropolitan Police Department to come and defend a democracy that they are not yet a part of.

Now think about that. We had people who came and stormed the Capitol, laid siege to the Congress of the United States with fictionalized claims about a denial of their right to vote, and right in this city there are 712,000 American citizens who we know have their voting rights denied every single day, their rights to representation denied every single day, and they came to defend us against those who would have torn down the very citadel of democracy.

Think about that when we are deciding how to vote on H.R. 51.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I thank the distinguished gentleman from Maryland for yielding me the floor.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.
actually complicate the job of Border Patrol agents while costing taxpayers $255 million over the next 5 years.

With a 233 percent increase in fentanyl seizures at our southern border, it is a shame that my liberal colleagues are actually creating more work for Border Patrol. Instead, we should provide these brave men and women with much-needed resources to address the national security and public health consequences of the Biden border crisis.

Lastly, this solution makes in order H.R. 51, legislation admitting the present District of Columbia as the 51st State and authorizing special elections for two Senators and one Representative.

This is nothing more than an unconstitutional power grab by Democrats to gain two ultraprogressive D.C. Senate seats and force radical, far-left policies on the American people.

Our Founding Fathers never intended for D.C. to become a State. In Federalist No. 43, James Madison argued that if the Capital City were situated within a State, the Federal Government would be subject to undue influence by the host State. As such, Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the U.S. Constitution establishes a neutral district for our Nation’s representatives to meet and vote on equal ground.

Further, the 23rd Amendment grants three Presidential electors specifically for the District. The original meaning of the "district" in the Constitution, and the necessary repeal of the 23rd Amendment, requires an amendment to the Constitution in order for D.C. to even become a State.

Just don't take my word for it, though. Since 1963, every Justice Department, Republican and Democrat, that has addressed the issue of D.C. statehood has concluded that Congress does not have the authority to alter the status of the city legislatively.

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy thought it was inconceivable that D.C. would be granted statehood without repealing the 23rd Amendment and that the result would "produce an absurdity." Again, those are the words of RFK.

Finally, the legislation before us today does nothing to address the financial implications of D.C. statehood. According to a 2020 study, D.C. ranked 150th among the largest cities for its lack of operating efficiency—150 out of 150.

The Federal Government provides billions of dollars to D.C. each year for everything from the judicial system to the pension system. Yet, House Democrats have failed to prove this measure through that, under H.R. 51, the Federal Government will remain responsible for funding many of the new State's functions.

The status of the city is no incentive for the new State to work toward financial self-sufficiency, meaning Americans in other States would be forced to fund D.C. Democrats’ priorities.

Again, House Democrats are pushing ahead to admit a new State to the Union purely for partisan gain while ignoring the constitutional, practical, and legal challenges in doing so. That is why I urge my colleagues to oppose this rule.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Let me address a couple of the spurious constitutional objections that have been raised by our colleagues on the other side.

To begin with, it would be unconstitutional to turn the District of Columbia into a State. It would almost certainly be that, but that is not what the proposal is. The proposal is to redraw the boundaries of the District of Columbia to cede the residential lands to the new State to admit it. For that, there is both sound constitutional and historical precedent.

For one. In Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 says that Congress shall “exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever” over the district that is to become the seat of government, meaning that Congress has the authority to modify the boundaries of the District of Columbia, which it has done.

It did that, actually, in 1791. Not long after the original boundaries were set, James Madison and 13 other Founders themselves voted to alter the boundaries. Our colleagues seem to believe that the boundaries of the District can’t be altered by Congress.

In 1846, most significantly, Congress gave one-third of the District of Columbia to the Commonwealth of Virginia at the behest of slave masters, who correctly anticipated that the slave traffic would be abolished within the District of Columbia. It was given back, demonstrating that the authority of Congress to change the boundaries of the District exists.

If Congress can alter the boundaries of the District of Columbia in 1846 in order to serve the slave masters and to protect their institution, surely the Congress in 2021 can modify the boundaries of the District in order to admit a new State and empower hundreds of thousands of people to live in political equality in the country.

My distinguished colleague from Pennsylvania invites us to believe that the 23rd Amendment is a constitutional impediment to adopting statehood for Washington, D.C. He doesn’t explain why it is unconstitutional. He just asserts it would be unconstitutional.

The 23rd Amendment was adopted in order to give people living within the seat of government the possibility of voting for President and to have electoral college votes in a manner decided by Congress and then, in Section 2, required Congress to act in order to organize the electoral college in the manner of a State legislature organizing the electoral college for the State.

As I understand H.R. 51, introduced by Congresswoman NORTON, this problem is taken care of at the moment of statehood admission because it repeals the statute which organizes the electoral college for the District of Columbia.

In other words, the moment the new State comes into being, the current statute that organizes the Presidential elections is repealed, so there is nothing to worry about. I agree that there is a certain kind of messiness in still having 23rd Amendment on the books, but Congresswoman NORTON has said she will be the first to introduce a formal constitutional amendment to repeal the 23rd, and who would oppose it?

Our colleagues have not been able to find a single person who would oppose it. Everybody would agree it would be simply nonsensical to keep it within the Constitution once the 712,000 people who have negotiated an exodus from the Federal seat of government in order to become their own State.

For me, I think that this is a red herring. It is an irrelevant distraction to this journey toward statehood and political equality that we are on.

Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from the District of Columbia (Ms. NORTON).

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, I thank my good friend for yielding and for his support of H.R. 51.

The rule before us is not ordinary. It is the prelude to history, and I use that word advisedly. Last Congress, the House passed the D.C. statehood bill, the first time either Chamber of Congress had passed the bill. This Congress with Democrats controlling the House, Senate, and White House, D.C. statehood is within reach for the first time in history.

As a result of education from House proceedings like today’s, 54 percent of the American people support D.C. statehood according to a wide-ranging poll that has just been released, and we predict that with increasing exposure, that percentage will continue to rise.

The 220 years since D.C. became our capital, District residents, who have had all of the obligations of citizenship, including paying full Federal taxes and serving in the Armed Forces, have been excluded from much of American democracy. The citizens who live in our Nation’s Capital have never had voting representation on the floor of either Chamber of Congress, and Congress has always had the final say on their local affairs. This is uniquely un-American. It is undemocratic.

For me, it is deeply personal. My own family has lived in D.C. since my great-grandfather Richard Holmes as a slave walked away from a plantation in Virginia and made his way to D.C. almost 200 years ago. Richard Holmes made it as a free man—a free D.C. man but not to equal citizenship so far for our family.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentlewoman has expired.
Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, I yield the gentlewoman from the District of Columbia an additional 1 minute.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman from the District of Columbia is recognized for an additional 1 minute.

Ms. NORTON. During debate on D.C. statehood Thursday, we will make the case that Congress has the constitutional authority to admit the State of Washington, D.C., and that the State would meet all the elements Congress has outlined in admission decisions.

For now, it is sufficient to note that throughout its existence in the United States the United States has flattered itself as a democracy, even though it is the only democratic country that denies voting representation in the national legislature to the residents of the capital. With passage of this rule today and the D.C. statehood bill on Thursday, the United States will be one step closer to deserving the term democracy.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I thank the gentlewoman very much for her comments, and I want to reemphasize the point that she made at the end, which is that Congress has the exclusive authority to admit new States.

Congress has admitted 37 new States. None of them have ever been struck down by a court, despite serious constitutional objections being raised against almost every State.

Everyone knew that Hawaii and Alaska could not be admitted because they were not contiguous. Everyone knew that Texas couldn't be admitted because it was a separate republic, and there was no authority to admit a republic to the Union. It was said Utah couldn't be admitted because they were practicing polygamy there. And so on.

There have always been constitutional objections made, but the courts have always deemed this to be a political question, which means that, in the juridical context, it is up to Congress to decide. And Congress has always been guided, in the final analysis, by the overriding dynamic of American political history, which is democracy has to govern for people who live here.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, my colleague may have said that these are merely my assertions. They are certainly my arguments, but they are also supported by others, particularly well-known members of the liberal party.

The former Mayor of D.C. himself, Mayor Walter Washington, said: "I would have problems with statehood in terms of exacting from it some enclaves, or little enclaves all around the city. Ultimately, it seems to me that would erode the very fabric of the city itself and the viability of the city."

Again, that was the former Mayor of Washington, D.C., who was talking about the enclaves that are being called for.

Additionally, the former D.C. Delegate Walter Fauntroy himself said that a bill like this would be in direct defiance of the prescription of the Founding Fathers.

As far as the constitutional argument, it is not just me making the assertion that this would be unconstitutional because there is an issue, and that is the 23rd Amendment. Don't take it from me. Look at the Carter administration DOJ. They said that to provide statehood for the District would have to be by constitutional amendment. Otherwise, it would ignore the Framers' intent.

John Harmon, Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Legal Counsel, in a letter to the Mr. Speaker said that this would have to be accomplished through constitutional amendment.

Further, RFK, Robert Kennedy, said that Congress likely did not have the constitutional authority to admit a new State under clause 17 to shrink the Federal district to essentially the same size that is being discussed.

The argument that the Federal district constituting the seat of government is a part of our constitutional system is substantially strengthened by the adoption of the 23rd Amendment. Thinking that we can merely repeal an amendment through legislative action, that is not how the Constitution works; otherwise, you wouldn't have had the 21st Amendment, which was needed to repeal the 18th Amendment. We could have just merely repealed it.

Additionally, there are talks about this now being a political exercise. My colleague has been quoted, actually, in The Washington Post saying that "there is a national political logic for it"—"it" being D.C. statehood. Because the Senate has become the principal obstacle to social progress on a whole range of issues—not my words; my colleague's words—this issue is all about a power grab.

We are talking about another issue that is on this rule, immigration.

Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to insert the text of my amendment in the RECORD, along with any extraneous material, immediately prior to the vote on the previous question.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

There was no objection.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from New York (Mr. KATKO), the lead Republican on the House Committee on Homeland Security, my good friend and colleague here to explain the amendment.

Mr. KATKO. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to moving the previous question so that we can consider the bipartisan legislation I introduced, along with several of my colleagues, to address a crisis along the southwest border and provide resources for the men and women of the Department of Homeland Security who are serving on the front lines of this security and humanitarian nightmare created by the policies of this administration.

I just returned from my second trip to the border in recent weeks. Any of us who have traveled there recently can observe what is happening and can attest to just how bad the crisis on the ground really is.

At the border itself, it is wide open. The wall construction has stopped.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I was a Federal organized crime prosecutor for 20 years before coming to Congress, and I worked on the border as a Federal organized crime prosecutor going after cartels. I can tell you that they own the border.

If someone wants to cross the border, they have to pay. Chinese are paying $50,000 to $70,000 per person. Mexicans and Central Americans are paying $1,000 a person to come across.

Every single day that the crisis goes on, the cartels are getting enriched to the tune of at least $15 million a day. In the last month, it is highly likely they were probably enriched to the tune of close to $1 billion in a month.

are smart enough to know: If I throw 100 people across the border over here, all the agents have to come off and deal with them. And then that place that they came off from, we are going to go right across there with the drugs.

In the Rio Grande Valley sector, no one is 2,000 percent increase in fentanyl coming across the border. Fentanyl is killing kids all over this country. It is mixed with heroin; it is killing our kids. That is what the Border Patrol agents are telling us because all they want to do is to be able to enforce the laws on the books and to have the ability to do so. They do not have the ability to do so because of the administration’s change of policies on January 22. They say there is a direct correlation.

Yes, there are problems in Central America. They have been there for 20 to 30 years; they haven’t changed. If I had kids down there, I would bring them up to the border, too. But there is a right way to do things, and there is a wrong way. Running across the border and creating this crisis is the wrong way.

Madam Speaker, let me tell you what I saw at the detention centers like Donna.

People are put in pens, for lack of a better term. Thirty, forty people are supposed to be in there. I saw hundreds. I sent a picture to my wife. There are so many kids. They were all wrapped up in aluminum blankets. You couldn’t see anything other than the aluminum blankets. They were literally stacked next to each other like cordwood.

Not a single child was tested. They are released from that facility because they just can’t keep them there, and they are released without being tested.

When we were at the border, we encountered a couple of people at the border at midnight. The next morning, on a flight to Dallas-Forth Worth, they were on that flight. No ID. No idea who they were.

They put them on a plane without identification. They put them on a plane highly likely without testing because they said they are not testing right away. But when they do test, they know that 10 to 15 percent of these kids test positive for COVID.

They are putting people in our communities all across this country, not telling those communities that they are coming. They are coming in pairs, like animals boarding Noah’s Ark together. The women and the kids are put on the buses; the men are left behind. They had kids down there, I would bring them up to the border, too. But there is a right way to do things, and there is a wrong way. Running across the border and creating this crisis is the wrong way.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues, in a bipartisan fashion, to support the security of the United States. This is what President Biden did on January 20. This is about saying, going forward, when we have these crises and they will occur again—that we are ready next time, that there is money set aside for the salaries of our law enforcement professionals. This fund will help prevent a humanitarian crisis from spiraling out of control, as it has on this one and on others before it, candidly.

If you don’t know this, I will tell you: The money that is being spent to deal with this crisis now is being taken away from the funds set aside for the salaries of our law enforcement professionals on the border. That is a fact.

We support the border security professional. This fund will create a $1 billion fund to be made available in support of our frontline enforcement personnel. It requires transparent metrics that were triggered when certain events happened, and it supports border security and law enforcement professionals. This funding would help prevent a humanitarian crisis from spiraling out of control, as it has on this one and on others before it, candidly.

That is what is going on. In the Donna facility alone, we are spending millions of dollars a day to deal with this. There is nothing more tragic than seeing an 11-year-old girl who was sexually assaulted on her way up to the border and who is pregnant there.

That is what is going on. That is the reality of the situation, and it is an unforged error that we didn’t need to have. The administration, candidly, was caught short. But candidly, too, previous administrations were caught short with border surges.

So, I am not here to complain about the situation. I am here to offer a solution, and the solution is our bill, which I mentioned.

In addition to ensuring future preparedness along the border, this provision will create a $1 billion fund to be made available in support of our frontline enforcement personnel. It requires transparent metrics that were triggered when certain events happened, and it supports border security and law enforcement professionals. This funding would help prevent a humanitarian crisis from spiraling out of control, as it has on this one and on others before it, candidly.

If you don’t know this, I will tell you: The money that is being spent to deal with this crisis now is being taken away from the funds set aside for the salaries of our law enforcement professionals on the border. That is a fact.

We support the border security professional. This fund will create a $1 billion fund to be made available in support of our frontline enforcement personnel. It requires transparent metrics that were triggered when certain events happened, and it supports border security and law enforcement professionals. This funding would help prevent a humanitarian crisis from spiraling out of control, as it has on this one and on others before it, candidly.

Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to my colleague from Pennsylvania (Ms. SCALONI).

Ms. SCALONI. Madam Speaker, I rise in strong support of the rule providing for consideration of the NO BAN Act, the Access to Counsel Act of 2021, and the Washington, D.C. Admission Act. All three bills advance important policies that I am proud to support.

I will never forget the night in January 2017 that the Trump administration’s ban on travel from Muslim countries went into effect. I was not yet in Congress, and my job involved coordinating free legal services across the U.S., including representation for immigrants.

As foreign citizens landed in the U.S., they were told that their travel papers were revoked while they were in the air, and some were taken into custody and some were immediately deported. Families were separated, and friends and relatives arriving to pick up loved ones at U.S. airports frantically tried to get information about them. Many were denied the right to counsel, who were trying to reach them.

Attorneys and immigration agencies across the country immediately mobilized to help those impacted by the illegal and ill-conceived ban. I spent the next few weeks working around the clock, dispatching volunteers to airports, mobilizing translators, and organizing legal efforts.

Having seen the chaos and cruelty caused by the Trump administration’s ill-fated ban, I am particularly pleased by the opportunity to pass the NO BAN Act and the Access to Counsel Act.

First, the NO BAN Act would ensure that no future administration would have the authority to discriminate against people based on their religious background or national origin when choosing to restrict the entry of immigrants into our country.

Having witnessed the chaos and cruelty of the Muslim ban, I wholeheartedly support this legislation, which would prevent future administrations from similarly abusing their executive authority.

I am also proud to support the Access to Counsel Act, which would ensure that individuals at ports of entry can seek legal advice, whether from volunteers or at their own expense, during the screening process. Access to counsel is critical for ensuring the fair and equitable treatment of all, but especially in immigration matters where the law is complicated and the consequences so grave.

Madam Speaker, I support these three bills, which would make our immigration laws more fair and protect due process.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, we hear a lot about no taxation without representation. But there is representation. We forget that D.C. has three electoral votes. That is the 23rd Amendment. They have a Delegate in Congress. They also have local government headed by a mayor. They have the Home Rule Act.

But taxation does bring up a serious issue because D.C. would need to raise taxes if it were to become a State. It simply is not self-sufficient economically. It costs more from the Federal Government than any other area in the United States; $73,000 per capita, to be exact. That is astronomical when you think about it. The second highest State is Virginia at $16,000 per capita. Again, D.C. takes $73,000 per capita. If this were to go through, D.C. would need to raise revenue. Because of the finances, the U.S. cannot land in the District, you would then have to have more taxation, presumably through two ways: One, a commuter tax, taxing people that come into the District from other areas; or, two, you would have to tolling being into the District. Both of these are incredibly problematic.

The first one, a commuter tax, would actually create the problem my liberal colleagues are saying exists in the first place, no taxation without representation, because you would have the District of Columbia taxing people from, presumably, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, where have you, for commuting into the District. They didn’t have representation here. That is actually taxation without representation.

Further, if you were to toll roads leading into the District, you would infringe upon a Constitutional rights to petition the government. Imagine how much a tour bus would have to pay if they wanted to come here in the District.

But I was talking about the Home Rule Act and not talking about the 23rd Amendment, and it reminded me that there was an allegation that Republicans somehow don’t care about this issue. It is actually the opposite. Republicans are the ones who have advanced more rights for the District of Columbia. Think about it.

It was actually the Kennedy and the Carter administrations, both their Departments of Justice concluded that, for D.C. to have representation, it would have to acquire a constitutional amendment. They were on our side of this argument. Historically, it was President Eisenhower who pushed through the 23rd Amendment to get D.C. three electoral votes. And just in case Republicans, Prescott Bush, grandfather of George W. Bush, who was instrumental in passing the 23rd Amendment. They were both Republicans. And it was President Nixon who signed the Home Rule Act into law. This has been a Republican-led since the very beginning.

There was also an argument about D.C. residents, that this is somehow a civil rights issue. Civil rights, that is an actual term of art. Civil rights is a violation when the rights are denied because a person is who the person is. D.C. residents don’t have a lack of representation in Congress because of who they are, but, instead, of where they chose to live.

And this isn’t just me making this argument. The late Democrat, Representative John Dingell, made a similar argument, and I will quote the late Representative Dingell: I have supported every single civil rights measure that has passed this Congress since 1955, but we have to look at the facts before us. No citizen in Washington, D.C., is chained to the pillars of the U.S. Capitol. They can leave any time they want. To say this is somehow a civil rights violation is insulting to actual civil rights violations.”

Then let’s go back to the three electoral votes issue. If we do follow this course of action and not repeal the 23rd Amendment before the Statehood, you are going to have, as my colleague from Maryland just admitted, a sloppy and messy situation where the new State gets three electoral votes, and then the Federal enclave gets three electoral votes.

Well, who lives in the Federal enclave? It would be the First Family.

So you would, presumably, give the incumbent three electoral votes in the election, and then D.C. itself three electoral votes.

Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentlewoman from Oklahoma (Mrs. BICE).

Mrs. BICE of Oklahoma. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Pennsylvania for yielding.

Madam Speaker, I rise today in opposition to the combined rule and to the underlying measures, including H.R. 51, the Washington, D.C. Admission Act.

Again, our friends across the aisle are making an attempt to gain more control in Congress, this time in the Senate, by trying to hide behind the guise that residents of the District of Columbia do not have the means for adequate representation in Congress.

Where Americans deserve full voting representation from their national government, our forefathers never intended for the Federal seat of government to serve as a State. The Founders imagined the Capitol to be a neutral ground for equal sovereign States to work together to conduct the Nation’s business.

This bill does not at all follow what our forefathers envisioned. H.R. 51 overlooks the U.S. Constitution in which Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 designated Washington as a Federal district, not a State. That alone should make this legislation unconstitutional.

Because the District of Columbia’s status is spelled out, it would take a constitutional amendment to get D.C. residents permission for this Democratic power play. There have been several alternative proposals and amendments put forward by Republicans, none of which have been heard.

My colleague, Representative Dusty Johnson from South Dakota, has proposed the District of Columbia–Maryland Reunion Act, which I have cosponsored, to return the majority of D.C. residential areas back to the State of Maryland. The National Mall and other Federal buildings would remain as the District of Columbia. Before we create a new State, we should return D.C.’s residential areas back to the ones they were designed for.

With H.R. 51, Democrats have yet again failed to examine the consequences of their rushed actions to gain more control in Congress. The District of Columbia has received billions of dollars from the Federal Government to fund its entire judicial branch of government, among other things, which would end under statehood.

But Democrats weren’t thinking about how to make D.C. a State before proposing H.R. 51. The only thought in their minds was two more Senate seats, more control of the government, more control of the American taxpayer dollars, more out-of-control spending, more Federal overreach into the lives of everyday Americans.

We have been down this path many times in Congress, voting yet again on a bill that has had no input from Republicans, nor has had much chance of receiving any Republican support on the floor.

President Biden was elected on the premise of working together with Republicans, extending a hand across the aisle to do what is best for the American people. I have struggled to find many examples of that bipartisanism to share with my constituents in Oklahoma. But what I do have are plenty of examples of Democratic power plays, an unwillingness to let the voices of Republicans be heard, and H.R. 51 stands as a prime example of both.

Madam Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to oppose the combined rule and to oppose H.R. 51.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, the gentlemanwoman invites us to return the District of Columbia to Maryland, which, of course, debunks the argument that Congress cannot modify the boundaries of the District of Columbia. But, in any event, that is not what the Washington, D.C., area needs or asked for. They have used their rights as American citizens under the Ninth Amendment of the Constitution to organize a new State and to petition Congress for admission to the Union. Neither has the Maryland General Assembly asked for a return of the land to Maryland. So that certainly answers a set of political conditions that don’t exist in the real world.

Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Texas (Ms. JACKSON LEE).

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Maryland for yielding. And I particularly thank the gentlewoman from Washington, D.C., the 51st State, the Honorable Eleanor Holmes Norton for her hard work.

Is anybody in Washington, D.C., raising their hand to be able to participate in the legislation that my friends are offering on this floor, which is to partition—we know what partition means—colored people in dominion, and put them wherever the Federal Government thinks that they should belong? I think they need to think twice about that.

And, really, if this is a country of the people and for the people, if this is a House of Representatives, then the people of Washington, D.C., deserve to be represented, and they deserve to be represented by the four squares of the district and the people of the United States Congress.

I am appalled that we would, over the decades, ignore the blood that was shed by those from Washington, D.C., the history that was made by those from Washington, D.C., and the service that was given by those from Washington, D.C.

So I rise to support the legislation that provides for the Washington, D.C., Admission Act, H.R. 51. I thank the leadership for that legislation. In the rule, we have a combination of restoring rights. That is what H.R. 51 does, restoring and igniting rights.

H.R. 1573, Access to Counsel Act, of my friend and colleague from Washington State, is a commonsense initiative. We are a nation of laws. Do we not respect the right to counsel?

Yes, these are persons who are noncitizens, but they have the right, if in secondary detention, to call a relative, to call a lawyer, which they pay for.

What about little Ali?

As I rushed to the airport on that fateful day when the President of the United States, President Trump, declared that all Muslims were banned, what an outrageous experience; and an outrageous experience that I have had with other entries that have been detained, where they couldn’t call an uncle or aunt, they couldn’t call their mother, their father, their wife.

Well, little Ali could not call his relatives that were outside the gate waiting for him. Where did that 15-year-old Egyptian with documented papers wind up? He wound up in Chicago, in a children’s detention facility.

So I supported the right to counsel, H.R. 1573, the Access to Counsel Act.

And, finally, H.R. 1333. Ali came under the Bagram ban by President Trump; let’s just say it, an outrageous act. We literally got off the plane, Members of Congress who were flying in from Washington, and rushed to the airport because of what was happening to our constituents.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, there was talk about retrospection. There can be arguments that the former retrocession was actually unconstitutional. In fact, the House of Representatives tried to pass a bill to say just that. It passed, and it, unfortunately, sat in the Senate Judiciary Committee without passing and challenges to the Supreme Court were dismissed on procedural grounds.

Additionally, we have to remember the many reasons why the District is just that, a district. It is because the Founding Fathers did not want to create an imperial State that would have too much influence and control over the Capitol.

My colleague from Maryland actually wrote about this in 1990 in a law review article published in the Catholic University Law Review. “The Representatives from the new State, likely living minutes from their offices, will theoretically devote more time to institutional and committee politics and less to constant travel back and forth across the country, increasing their importance and influence on Capitol Hill.”

That was my colleague from Maryland. That is not my assertion.

If D.C. does become a State, Madam Speaker, you will create almost by definition a super Congressman in this body and two super Senators that yield much more influence than others who have to travel back and forth to their district.

Madam Speaker, I yield such time as she may consume to the gentlewoman from Arizona (Mrs. Lesko).

Mrs. LESKO. Madam Speaker, the underlying legislation we are considering in this rule is extremely alarming. We have two out-of-touch immigration bills that do nothing to address our current immigration crisis, and they have a bipartisan priority that reeks of the swamp and is simply unconstitutional.

H.R. 1333 restricts any President’s authority to suspend entry into the United States from certain foreign nations for national security or public health reasons putting the safety of Americans at risk.

With H.R. 1573, it appears my colleagues on the other side of the aisle plan to address the crisis at our southern border by sending in the lawyers. President Biden created a crisis, and this bill just continues to encourage more people to come and cross our border illegally.
We wrap up this rule with the most ridiculous legislation of all, the unconstitutional H.R. 51. Our Founders envisioned our Nation’s Capitol set apart from the States and enshrined that in our Constitution. No action by this body can make Washington, D.C. a State. There is no reason to take such action other than to ensure the Democratic Party receives two more seats in the United States Senate.

Madam Speaker, I stand in opposition to the underlying bill, and I urge my colleagues to join me in the fight against this bill. Mr. RASKIN, Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. HOVER).

Mr. HOYER. Madam Speaker, first of all, I rise in strong support of this resolution. It makes in order that we will not discriminate against people based upon their religion or the State from which they come or the nation from which they come. It says not at our cost, but at their cost they have the right to vote, which seems to me to be a basic premise in America.

Then, thirdly, which we hear so much lamentation about, it gives to 700,000-plus people in the District of Columbia equal status with the 500,000 people in Wyoming. Now, perhaps if my friends from the other side of the aisle, Madam Speaker, thought that there were going to be two Republican Senators elected, they would be for it. I say perhaps, but I believe there is no doubt about that.

I am proud to be a strong supporter of that legislation, and I will tell my Republican friends who talk about human rights around the world so often—properly so—that Washington, D.C., is the only capital in the free world whose residents do not have a representative in the parliament of their country—the only one.

There is no reason why the gentlewoman who sits in front of me, ELEONOR HOLMES NORTON—who is an extraordinary American and an extraordinary patriot who serves her Nation so incredibly well and is elected by those 700,000 people—why she is less so incredibly well and is elected by them.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Madam Speaker, it is interesting to hear my colleague from Maryland’s newfound positions because, in the 1990s, I believe the majority leader actually had the opposite viewpoint and took the opposite vote. But then again, things can change, and so can opinions. Madam Speaker, I also interact with my colleagues on the other side of the aisle. I urge all of my colleagues to pick up the dictionary, turn to the Cs, and look up confront. Confront is to face the facts. Confront is to face the truth. Confront is to face the challenges that we have, and that is what Ms. WATERS urged.

I urge all of my colleagues to support that motion. I urge all of my colleagues to pick up their dictionary, turn to the Cs, and look up confront. Confront is to face the facts. Confront is to face the truth. Confront is to face the challenges that we have, and that is what Ms. WATERS urged.

I would suggest to my friend, the minority leader, Madam Speaker, that if enough people want it, they have the right to vote, particularly when no action was taken by her party regarding Mrs. GREENE’s remarks.

It is, frankly, exploiting the pain of so many families and communities to turn Chairwoman WATERS’ concern for justice into a partisan cudgel.

As my friend, the dearly departed Elijah Cummings used to say and would surely say now, “We are better than this.”

So when the minority leader offers her resolution to table and urge all my colleagues to support that motion.

I urge all of my colleagues to pick up their dictionary, turn to the Cs, and look up confront. Confront is to face the facts. Confront is to face the truth. Confront is to face the challenges that we have, and that is what Ms. WATERS urged.

So if one of us stands up and says we need to confront this, and we need to be confrontational and we need to get up in people’s faces and say: This is the truth and we need to act and that would be subject to admonition, then I suggest to my friend, Madam Speaker, and my friends in this House, that we all confront.

We came here to represent people and to confront their needs, to confront their fears, and to confront their wants. Yes, we will, that is advocacy. Of course, it is. So I ask my friends not only to vote for this rule, but to vote for the motion to table my friend’s motion that I anticipate.

We could spend all our time here, Madam Speaker. We have been on this side of the aisle, as my friend, the leader knows, and we haven’t had all the resolutions that have been introduced on my side of the aisle. This makes it harder, however, not to proceed on numerous resolutions on my side of the aisle. Let us table this resolution on behalf of this institution and every Member in it.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, I have no further speakers, and I reserve the balance of my time to close.
For those reasons, Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote “no” on the previous question and “no” on the underlying measure. I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. RASKIN. Madam Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Madam Speaker, let me start by saying that the majority leader hardly needs me to defend him, but I know that he was a strong supporter of the D.C. voting rights constitutional amendment where there was actually bipartisan support.

In those days, Republicans understood the grievous injustice being perpetrated against the people of Washington, D.C., and they supported granting people in D.C. two Senators, or what my colleague would call two ultraliberal Senators, as well as the Representatives in the House to which they were due.

There were certainly people who were saying there were other ways of accomplishing it. Now, unfortunately, that bipartisan consensus collapsed even though it passed the Senate and the House back in the day. I don’t hear any of my colleagues saying they are for it now.

Mr. HOYER, the majority leader, is supporting the only viable vehicle for getting equal rights for people in Washington, D.C., that exists today, which is statehood, which is how 37 new States entered the Union with Congress’ exercise of its powers under Article IV of the Constitution.

The gentleman waxed eloquent about the vision of a great Capital City, but being a strict textualist, I assume that he wants to pay some attention to the text of the Constitution. Article I, Section 8, Clause 17, the District Clause, sets a maximum, a ceiling that the District may be no more than 10 miles square, but there is no minimum there. It didn’t say it must be at least 6 miles square or 2 miles square or 3 miles. No, that is up to Congress. In other words, it is a political question within congressional power, over the District of Columbia.

Finally, the gentleman, I suppose, gets to the heart of the matter when he says that, for him, it is all about two ultraliberal Senators. I would ask every Member of this body to think about that for a second, reflect on that.

In America, I don’t think we deny people voting rights based on how they are going to vote. I don’t think we deny everyone the right to have a political voice, a political voice that is consistent with their oath to the Constitution, consistent with their oath to the rule of law and to the judicial branch and our function.”.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

I so direct the Clerk to call the roll.

RAISING A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. MCCARTHY. Madam Speaker, I rise to a question of the privileges of the House, and I offer H. Res. 331.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the resolution. The Clerk read as follows:

H. Res. 331

Whereas on the evening of April 17, 2021, Representative Maxine M. Waters of California joined protestors in Brooklyn Center, Minnesota, who were gathered outside the Brooklyn Center Police Department;

Whereas Representative Maxine M. Waters said, “We’re looking for a guilty verdict” in the trial of Derek Chauvin;

Whereas Representative Maxine M. Waters said that if there was not a guilty verdict, protestors on the street should “... stay on the street, and we’ve got to get more active, we’ve got to get more confrontational, we’ve got to make sure they know we mean business;”

Whereas on April 19, 2021, the judge in the trial of Derek Chauvin, Judge Peter Cahill, said in reply to Derek Chauvin’s defense attorneys, “I’ll give you that Congresswoman Waters may have given you something on appeal that may result in this whole trial being overturned;”

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That Judge Cahill stated, “I wish elected officials would stop talking about this case, especially in a manner that is disrespectful to the rule of law and to the judicial branch and our function.”;

Whereas Judge Cahill stated, “I think if they want to give their opinions, they should do so in a respectful manner, and in a manner that is consistent with their oath to the rule of law and to the Constitution. To respect the coequal branch of government. Their failure to do so I think is abhorrent.”; Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That:

(1) Representative Maxine M. Waters of California be censured;

(2) Representative Maxine M. Waters forthwith present herself in the well of the House for the pronouncement of censure; and

(3) Representative Maxine M. Waters be censured with the public reading of this resolution by the Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The resolution qualifies.

MOTION TO TABLE

Mr. HOYER. Madam Speaker, I have a motion at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoyer moves that the resolution be laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to table.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. MCCARTHY. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

SEC. 3. EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT STEERING COMMITTEE AND ACTION PLAN.

(a) In General.—Title VII of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 341 et seq.) is amended by adding after the end of the following new section:

“SEC. 711. EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT.

“(a) Steering Committee.—Not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this section, the Secretary shall establish an employee engagement steering committee, including representatives from operational components, headquarters, and field components, including supervisory and non-supervisory personnel, and employee labor organizations that represent Department employees, and chaired by the Under Secretary for Management, to carry out the following activities:

“(1) Identify factors that have a negative impact on employee engagement, morale, and communications within the Department, such as perceptions about limitations on career opportunities, collected through employee feedback platforms, including through annual employee surveys, questionnaires, and other communications, as appropriate;

“(2) Identify, develop, and distribute initiatives and best practices to improve employee engagement, morale, and communications within the Department, including through annual employee surveys, questionnaires, and other communications, as appropriate;

“(3) Monitor efforts of each component to address employee engagement, morale, and communications based on employee feedback programs, including surveys, questionnaires, and other communications, as appropriate.

“(4) Advise the Secretary on efforts to improve employee engagement, morale, and communications within specific components and across the Department.

“(5) Conduct regular meetings and report, not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, to the Under Secretary for Management, the head of each component, and the Secretary on Department-wide efforts to improve employee engagement, morale, and communications.

“(b) Action Plan; Reporting.—The Secretary, through the Chief Human Capital Officer, shall—

“(1) not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this section, the Secretary shall establish an annual employee engagement, morale, and communications plan of the Department; and

“(2) require the head of each component to—

“(A) develop and implement a component-specific employee engagement plan to address the action plan required under paragraph (1), including the activities and objectives of the steering committee and employee feedback provided through annual employee surveys, questionnaires, and other communications, as appropriate, and set forth how employees and, where applicable, their labor representatives are to be integrated in developing programs and initiatives;

“(B) monitor progress on implementation of such action plan; and “(C) provide to the Chief Human Capital Officer and the steering committee quarterly reports on actions planned and progress made under this paragraph.

“(c) Term of Section.—This section shall terminate on the date that is five years after the date of the enactment of this section.”;

(b) Clerical Amendment.—The table of contents in section 1(b) of the Homeland Security Act of 2002, as added by section 3 of this Act, is further amended by inserting after the item relating to section 711 the following new item:

“Sec. 712. Annual employee award program.”

SEC. 5. INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION AND IMPLEMENTATION PLAN.

(a) In General.—Not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General of the United States shall investigate whether the application in the Department of Homeland Security of discipline and adverse actions is administered in an equitable and consistent manner that results in the same or substantially similar disciplinary outcomes across the Department for misconduct by a non-supervisory or supervisor employee who engaged in the same or substantially similar misconduct.

(b) Consultation.—In carrying out the investigation described in subsection (a), the Comptroller General of the United States shall consult with the Secretary for Management of the Department of Homeland Security and the employee engagement steering committee established pursuant to subsection (b)(1) of section 711 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (as added by section 3(a) of this Act).
(c) ACTION BY UNDER SECRETARY FOR MANAGEMENT.—Upon completion of the investigation described in subsection (a), the Under Secretary for Management of the Department of Homeland Security shall review the findings and recommendations of such investigation and implement a plan, in consultation with the employee engagement steering committee established pursuant to subsection (b)(1) of section 711 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002, to correct any relevant deficiencies identified by the Comptroller General of the United States in such investigation. The Under Secretary for Management shall direct the employee engagement steering committee to review such plan to inform committee activities and action plans authorized under such section 711.

SECTION 6. IMPACTS OF SHUTDOWN.

Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall report to the Committee on Homeland Security of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate regarding the direct and indirect impacts of the lapse in appropriations between December 22, 2018, and January 25, 2019, on—

(1) Department of Homeland Security human resources operations;

(2) The Department’s ability to meet hiring benchmarks; and

(3) Retention, attrition, and morale of Department personnel.

YOUNG AFRICAN LEADERS INITIATIVE ACT OF 2021

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Young African Leaders Initiative Act of 2021” or “YALI Act of 2021.”

SECTION 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) the Young African Leaders Initiative, launched in 2010, is a signature effort to invest in the next generation of African leaders;

(2) Africa is a continent of strategic importance and it is vital for the United States to support strong and enduring partnerships with the next generation of African leaders;

(3) the United States Government should prioritize investments to build the capacity of young African leaders in sub-Saharan Africa, including through efforts to enhance leadership skills, encourage entrepreneurship, strengthen public administration, and the role of civil society, and connect young African leaders continentally and globally across the private, civic, and public sectors.

SECTION 3. YOUNG AFRICAN LEADERS INITIATIVE PROGRAM.

(a) IN GENERAL.—There is established in the Department of State the Young African Leaders Initiative ("YALI") program.

(b) PURPOSE.—The YALI program shall seek to build the capacity of young African leaders in sub-Saharan Africa in the areas of business, civic engagement, and public administration, including through efforts to—

(1) support young African leaders by offering briefings, development, training, and networking opportunities, particularly in the areas of leadership, innovation, civic engagement, elections, human rights, entrepreneurship, governance, and public administration; and

(2) provide increased economic and technical assistance to young African leaders to promote economic growth and strengthen ties between United States and African businesses.

(c) FELLOWSHIPS.—The YALI program shall award fellowships under the Mandela Washington Fellowship for Young African Leaders program to young African leaders ages 18 to 35 who demonstrate strong capabilities in entrepreneurship, innovation, public service, and leadership, and who have had a positive impact in their communities, organizations, or institutions.

(d) REGIONAL LEADERSHIP CENTERS.—The YALI program shall seek to establish regional leadership centers in sub-Saharan Africa to offer training to young African leaders ages 18 to 35 who have demonstrated strong capabilities in entrepreneurship, innovation, public service, and leadership, and who have had a positive impact in their communities, organizations, or institutions.

(e) ACTIVITIES.

(1) UNITED STATES-BASED ACTIVITIES.—The Secretary of State, in coordination with the Administrator for the United States Agency for International Development and the heads of other relevant Federal departments and agencies, shall oversee all United States-based activities carried out under the YALI program, including the following:

(A) The participation of Mandela Washington fellows in a six-week Leadership Institute at a United States university or college in human resource management, public management, including academic sessions, site visits, professional networking opportunities, leadership training, community service, and other activities.

(B) The participation of Mandela Washington fellows in an annual Mandela Washington Fellowship Summit, to provide such fellows the opportunity to meet with United States leaders from the private, public, and non-profit sectors.

(2) AFRICA-BASED ACTIVITIES.—The Secretary of State, in coordination with the Administrator for the United States Agency for International Development and the heads of other relevant Federal departments and agencies, should continue to support YALI programs in sub-Saharan Africa, including the following:

(A) Access to continued leadership training and other professional development opportunities for Mandela Washington Fellowship for Young African Leaders alumni upon their return to their home countries, including online courses, technical assistance, and access to funding.

(B) Training for young African leaders at regional leadership centers established in accordance with section (d)(1), including through online and in-person courses offered by such centers.

(C) Opportunities for networking and engagement with—

(i) Other alumni of the Mandela Washington Fellowship for Young African Leaders;

(ii) Alumni of programs at regional leadership centers established in accordance with subsection (d); and

(iii) United States and like-minded diplomatic missions, business leaders, and others as appropriate.

(3) IMPLEMENTATION.—To carry out this subsection, the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development and the heads of other relevant Federal departments and agencies shall seek to partner with the public, private, and civil sector organizations, or institutions, to leverage United States investments and resources and to develop regional partnerships, provide leadership training, and identify, develop, and implement public private partnerships to offer training to young African leaders.

(f) IMPLEMENTATION PLAN.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development and the heads of other relevant Federal departments and agencies, shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a public strategy implementing the YALI program, including the following:

(1) A description of clearly defined program goals, targets, and planned outcomes for the duration of implementation of the program.

(2) A strategy to monitor and evaluate the program and progress made toward achieving such goals, targets, and planned outcomes.

(3) A strategy to ensure the program is promoting United States foreign policy goals in Africa, including ensuring that the program is clearly branded as paired with robust public diplomacy efforts.

(g) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter for 5 years, the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development, shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees and publish in a publicly accessible, internet-based form, a report on the following:

(1) The progress made toward achieving the goals, targets, and planned outcomes described in subsection (f)(1), including an overview of the program implemented in the previous year and an estimated number of beneficiaries.

(2) An assessment of how the YALI program is contributing to and promoting United States-Africa relations, particularly in areas of increased private sector investment, trade promotion, support to civil society, improved public administration, and fostering entrepreneurship and youth empowerment.

(3) Recommendations for improvements or changes to the program and implementation plan, if any, that would improve their effectiveness during subsequent years of implementation of the program.

(h) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES DEFINED.—In this section, the term “appropriate congressional committees” means—

(1) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives; and

(2) the Committee on Foreign Relations and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate.

(i) SUNSET.—The requirements of this section shall terminate on the date that is 5 years after the date of the enactment of this Act.

CYBER DIPLOMACY ACT OF 2021

H.R. 1251

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the “Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021”.

(b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for this Act is as follows:

Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.
Sec. 2. Findings.
Sec. 3. Definitions.
Sec. 4. United States international cyber-space policy.
Sec. 5. Department of state responsibilities.
Sec. 6. International cyberspace executive arrangement.
Sec. 7. International strategy for cyber-space.
Sec. 8. Annual country reports on human rights practices.
Sec. 9. GAO report on cyber diplomacy.
Sec. 10. Sense of congress on cybersecurity sanctions against north korea and cybersecurity legislation in vietnam.
SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The stated goal of the United States International Strategy for Cyberspace, launched on May 16, 2011, is to "work internationally to promote an open, interoperable, secure, and reliable information and communications infrastructure that supports international trade and commerce, strengthens international security, and fosters free expression and innovation . . . in which responsible behavior by all States' actions, sustain partnerships, and support the rule of law in cyberspace".

(2) In its June 24, 2013, report, the Group of Governmental Experts on Developments in the Field of Information and Telecommunications in the Context of International Security (referred to in this section as "GGE"), established by the United Nations General Assembly, concluded that "State sovereignty and the international norms and principles that flow from it apply to States' conduct of information and communications technology (ICT)-related activities and to their jurisdiction over ICT infrastructure with their territory".

(3) In January 2015, China, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Tajikistan, and Uzbekistan proposed a troubling international code of conduct for cybersecurity, which could be used as a pretext for restricting political dissent, and includes "curbing the dissemination of information that incites terrorism, extremism or fanatical hatred on ethnic, racial or religious grounds".

(4) In its July 20, 2015, consensus report, GGE found that "norms of responsible State behavior can reduce risks to international peace, security and stability".

(5) On September 25, 2015, the United States, China and Japan announced a commitment that neither country's government "will conduct or knowingly support cyber-enabled theft of intellectual property, including trade secrets or other confidential business information, with the intent of providing competitive advantages to companies or commercial sectors".

(6) At the Antalya Summit on November 15 and 16, 2015, the Group of 20 Leaders’ communique—

(A) affirmed the applicability of international law to state behavior in cyberspace;

(B) called on states to refrain from cyber-enabled theft of intellectual property for commercial gain;

(C) endorsed the view that all states should abide by norms of responsible behavior.

(7) The March 2016 Department of State International Cybersecurity Policy Strategy noted that "the Department of State anticipates a continued increase and expansion of our cyber-focused diplomatic efforts for the foreseeable future."

(8) On December 1, 2016, the Commission on Enhancing National Cybersecurity, which was established within the Department of Homeland Security by Executive Order 13718 (81 Fed. Reg. 7441), recommended that "the President should appoint an Ambassador for Cybersecurity to lead U.S. engagement with the international community on cybersecurity strategies, standards, and practices".

(9) On April 11, 2017, the 2017 Group of 20 Declaration on Responsible State Behavior in Cyberspace—

(A) recognized "the urgent necessity of increased international cooperation to promote security and stability in cyberspace";

(B) declared that "the effective implementation of international law to State behavior in cyberspace, the promotion of voluntary, non-binding norms of responsible State behavior during peacetime, and the development and the implementation of practical cyber confidence building measures (CBMs) between States"; and

(C) restated "the same rights that people have offline must also be protected online".

(10) In testimony before the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate on May 11, 2017, Director of National Intelligence Daniel R. Coats identified six cyber threat actors, including:

(A) Russia, for "efforts to influence the 2016 U.S. election";

(B) China, for "actively targeting the U.S. Government, its allies, and U.S. companies for cyber espionage";

(C) Iran, for "leveraging[ng] cyber espionage, propaganda, and attacks to support its security policy priorities, influence foreign perceptions, and counter threats";

(D) North Korea, for "previously conducting[ng] cyber-attacks against U.S. commercial entities—specifically, Sony Pictures Entertainment in 2014";

(E) terrorists, who "use the Internet to organize, recruit, spread propaganda, raise funds, collect intelligence, inspire action, and coordinate operations"; and

(F) criminals, who "are also developing and using sophisticated cyber tools for a variety of purposes, to include theft, extortion, and facilitation of other criminal activities".

(A) designates the Secretary of State to lead an interagency effort to develop an engagement strategy for international cooperation on cybersecurity;

(B) notes that "the United States is especially dependent on a globally secure and resilient Internet and must work with allies and other partners toward maintaining . . . dependable Internet service and cyber-enabled theft of intellectual property, including trade secrets or other confidential business information, with the intent of providing competitive advantages to companies or commercial sectors".

SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

In this Act:

(1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.—The term "appropriate congressional committees" means the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate and the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives.

(2) INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY.—The terms "information and communications technology" and "ICT" include hardware, software, and other products or services primarily intended to fulfill or enable the information processing and communication by electronic means, including transmission and display, including via the Internet.

(3) EXECUTIVE AGENCY.—The term "Executive agency" has the meaning given the term in section 105 of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 4. UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL CYBER-SPACE POLICY STRUCTURE

(a) In General.—It is the policy of the United States to work internationally to promote an open, interoperable, reliable, and secure Internet governed by the multi-stakeholder model, which—

(1) promotes human rights, democracy, and the rule of law, including freedom of expression, innovation, communication, and economic prosperity; and

(2) respects privacy and guards against deception, fraud, and theft.

(b) Implementation.—In implementing the policy described in subsection (a), the President, in consultation with outside actors, including private sector companies, non-governmental organizations, security researchers, and other relevant stakeholders, shall pursue the following objectives:

(1) Clarifying the applicability of international laws and norms to the use of ICT.

(2) Reducing and limiting the risk of escalation and retaliation in cyberspace, damage to critical infrastructure, and other malicious cyber activity that impairs the use and operation of critical infrastructure that provides services to the public.

(3) Cooperating with like-minded democratic countries that share common values and cyberspace policies with the United States, including respect for human rights, democracy, and the rule of law, to advance such values and policies internationally.

(4) Encouraging the responsible development of new, innovative technologies and ICT products that strengthen a secure Internet architecture that is accessible to all.

(5) Security and implementing commitments on responsible country behavior in cyberspace based upon accepted norms, including the following:

(A) Countries should not conduct, or knowingly support, cyber-enabled theft of intellectual property, including trade secrets or other confidential business information, with the intent of providing competitive advantages to companies or commercial sectors.

(B) Countries should take all appropriate and reasonable steps to protect their territories clear of intentionally wrongful acts using ICTs in violation of international commitments.

(C) Countries should conduct or knowingly support ICT activity that, contrary to international law, intentionally damages or otherwise impairs the use and operation of critical infrastructure providing services to the public, and should take appropriate measures to protect their critical infrastructure from ICT threats.

(D) Countries should not conduct or knowingly support malicious international activity that, contrary to international law, harms the information systems of authorized emergency response teams (also known as ‘‘computer emergency response teams’’ or ‘‘security incident response teams’’) of another country or authorizes emergency response teams to engage in malicious international activity.

(E) Countries should respond to appropriate requests for assistance to mitigate malicious ICT activity emanating from their territory and aimed at the critical infrastructure of another country.

(F) Countries should not restrict cross-border data flows or require local storage or processing of data.

(G) Countries should protect the exercise of human rights and fundamental freedoms on the Internet and commit to the principle that the human rights that people have offline should also be protected online.

(6) Advancing, encouraging, and supporting the development and adoption of internationally recognized technical standards and best practices.

SEC. 5. DEPARTMENT OF STATE RESPONSIBILITIES

(a) In General.—Section 1 of the State Department Basic Authorities Act of 1956 (22 U.S.C. 2651a) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subsection (g) as subsection (h); and

(2) by inserting after subsection (f) the following:

"(g) BUREAU OF INTERNATIONAL CYBERSPACE POLICY.—"
(1) IN GENERAL.—There is established, within the Department of State, a Bureau of International Cyberspace Policy (referred to in this subsection as the ‘Bureau’). The head of the Bureau shall promote and implement the policies of the United States described in section 4 of the Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021.

(ii) to lead the Department of State’s diplomatic cyberspace efforts, including efforts relating to international cybersecurity, Internet access, Internet freedom, digital economy, cybercrime, deterrence and international responses to cyber threats, and other issues that the Secretary assigns to the Bureau;

(iii) to coordinate cyberspace policy and other interagency efforts within the Department of State and with other components of the United States Government, including through the Cyberspace Policy Coordinating Committee described in paragraph (6), and by convening other coordinating meetings with appropriate officials from the Department and other components of the United States Government on a regular basis;

(iv) to promote an open, interoperable, reliable, unfettered, and secure information and communications technology infrastructure globally;

(v) to represent the Secretary of State in interagency efforts to develop and advance the policy described in section 4 of the Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021;

(vi) to act as a liaison to civil society, the private sector, academia, and other public and private entities on relevant international cyberspace issues;

(vii) to lead United States Government efforts to establish a global deterrence framework for malicious cyber activity;

(viii) to lead executive adversary-specific strategies to influence adversary decisionmaking through the imposition of costs and deterrence strategies, in coordination with the Under Secretary for Management; and

(ix) to advise the Secretary and coordinate with foreign governments on external responses to national security-level cyber incidents, including coordination on diplomatic response efforts to support allies threatened by malicious cyber activity, in conjunction with members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and other like-minded countries;

(x) to promote the adoption of national processes and programs that enable threat detection, prevention, and response to malicious cyber activity emanating from the territory of a foreign country, including as such activity relates to the United States’ European presence; and

(xi) to promote the building of foreign capacity relating to cyberspace policy priorities;

(xii) to promote the maintenance of an open and interoperable Internet governed by the multistakeholder model, instead of by centralized government control;

(xiii) to develop an international regulatory environment for technology investments and the Internet that benefits United States economic and national security interests;

(xiv) to promote cross-border flow of data and combat international initiatives seeking to impose legal requirements on United States businesses;

(xv) to promote international policies to protect the integrity of United States and international Internet infrastructure from foreign-based, cyber-enabled threats;

(xvi) to lead engagement, in coordination with other Executive agencies, with foreign governments on relevant international cyberspace and digital economy issues as described in the Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021; and

(xvii) to develop and execute adversary-specific policies to secure radio frequency spectrum for United States businesses and national security needs;

(xviii) to promote and protect the exercise of human rights, including freedom of speech and religion, through the Internet;

(xix) to promote international initiatives to strengthen civilian and private sector resiliency to threats in cyberspace;

(xx) to build capacity of United States diplomatic officials to engage on cyberspace issues;

(xxi) to encourage the development and adoption by foreign countries of internationally recognized standards, policies, and best practices;

(xxii) to consult, as appropriate, with other Executive agencies with related functions vested in such Executive agencies by law; and (xxiii) to conduct such other matters as the Secretary of State may assign.

(3) ORGANIZATIONAL PLACEMENT.—During the 1-year period beginning on the date of the enactment of the Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021, the head of the Bureau shall report to the Under Secretary for Political Affairs or to an official holding a higher position in the Department of State than the Under Secretary for Political Affairs.

(b) OTHER MEETINGS.—The head of the Bureau shall convene other coordinating meetings with appropriate officials from the Department of State and other components of the United States Government to ensure regular coordination and collaboration on cross-cutting cyber policy issues.

(c) UNITED NATIONS.—The Permanent Representative of the United States to the United Nations should use the voice, vote, and influence of the United States to oppose any measure that is inconsistent with the policy described in section 4.

SEC. 6. INTERNATIONAL CYBERSPACE EXECUTIVE ARRANGEMENTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The President is encouraged to enter into executive arrangements with foreign governments that support the policy described in section 4.

(b) TRANSMISSION TO CONGRESS.—Section 112b of title 1, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (a) by striking “International Relations” and inserting “Foreign Affairs”; and

(2) in subsection (e)(2)(B), by adding at the end the following new clause:

“(iii) A bilateral or multilateral cyberspace agreement.”;

(3) by redesigning subsection (f) as subsection (g); and

(4) by inserting after subsection (e) the following new subsection:

“IN GENERAL.—There is established, within the Department of State, a Bureau of International Cyberspace Policy (referred to in this subsection as the ‘Bureau’). The head of the Bureau shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as the Secretary of State shall prescribe, including implementing the policy of the United States described in section 4 of the Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021.

The head of the Bureau shall—

(i) serve as the principal cyberspace policy official within the senior management of the Department of State and as the advisor to the Secretary of State for cyberspace issues;

(ii) lead the Department of State’s diplomatic cyberspace efforts, including efforts relating to international cybersecurity, Internet access, Internet freedom, digital economy, cybercrime, deterrence and international responses to cyber threats, and other issues that the Secretary assigns to the Bureau;

(iii) coordinate cyberspace policy and other interagency efforts within the Department of State and with other components of the United States Government, including through the Cyberspace Policy Coordinating Committee described in paragraph (6), and by convening other coordinating meetings with appropriate officials from the Department and other components of the United States Government on a regular basis;

(iv) promote an open, interoperable, reliable, unfettered, and secure information and communications technology infrastructure globally;

(v) represent the Secretary of State in interagency efforts to develop and advance the policy described in section 4 of the Cyber Diplomacy Act of 2021;

(vi) act as a liaison to civil society, the private sector, academia, and other public and private entities on relevant international cyberspace issues;

(vii) lead United States Government efforts to establish a global deterrence framework for malicious cyber activity;

(viii) lead executive adversary-specific strategies to influence adversary decisionmaking through the imposition of costs and deterrence strategies, in coordination with the Under Secretary for Management; and

SEC. 8. DETERMINATION OF BUDGETARY EFFECTS.

The budgetary effects of this Act, for the purpose of complying with the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010, shall be determined by reference to the latest budgetary materials transmitted to the Congress by the Chairman of the House Budget Committee, provided that such statement has been submitted prior to the vote on passage.

SUPPORTING PEOPLE OF BELARUS AND THEIR CIVIL SOCIETY.

H.R. Res. 124

Whereas Belarusian civil society, led by Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya, has called for the resignation of Alyaksandr Lukashenka, the peaceful transition of power, the organization of new, free, and fair elections and the release of all political prisoners;

Whereas Belarusian opposition leaders have faced intimidation, harassment, and detention, including during the forced exile of Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya in Lithuania as well as the kidnapping and imprisonment of Maria Kolesnikova and other opposition leaders;

Whereas in the months since the election, Belarusian authorities have arbitrarily detained and brutally assaulted thousands of peaceful protesters, journalists, and opposition figures, of which hundreds remain in detention;

Whereas human rights groups have documented hundreds of horrific accounts of torture, including sexual violence and rape, along with other instances of ill-treatment and excessive force used against detainees arrested for peaceful protest;

Whereas on August 13 and 14, 2020, relatives of detainees held in the infamous Akrestsina detention center in Minsk recorde the sounds of “incessant beatings which were clearly audible in the street, and numerous voices screaming out in agony while seeking or begging for help”;

Whereas thousands of Belarusians have fled to neighboring countries seeking political asylum;

Whereas independent journalists and the free media have faced intimidation, violence, mass arrests and prosecution, with many foreign journalists being stripped of their accreditation;

Whereas Katsyaryna Andreyeva and Darya Chultsovtavcova, two journalists who work for Belsat, an independent Polish-based satellite television station aimed at Belarus, have each been sentenced to two years in prison simply for reporting live from a rally in Minsk in November 2020;

Whereas Ihar Losik, a popular Belarusian blogger on Telegram, went on a hunger strike for 6 weeks to protest the politically-motivated charges that he helped organize riots after the fraudulent presidential election;

Whereas member states of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), of which the United States and Belarus are members, invoked paragraph 12 of the 1990 Moscow Confer.ence on the Human Dimension of the OSCE (Moscow Mechanism) to establish a mission of experts to review allegations of human rights violations;

Whereas the OSCE Rapporteur’s Report under the Moscow Mechanism on Alleged Human Rights Violations related to the presidential elections of August 9, 2020, in Belarus, published November 5, 2020, concluded that there was “overwhelming evidence that the presidential elections of 9 August 2020 [had] been grossly massive and systematic human rights violations [had] been committed by the Belarusian security forces in response to peaceful democratic protests and protests”;

Whereas women have played a leading role in peaceful demonstrations across the country, protesting the police brutality and mass detentions by wearing red and white, carrying flowers, and forming “solidarity chains”;

Whereas the information technology (IT) infrastructure in Belarus has played a prominent role in the democratic movement by demanding an end to violent oppression, as well as creating safe platforms for democratic discussions and protests;
Whereas Belarusian authorities have continuously disrupted internet channels in an attempt to limit communication among demonstrators and targeted lead technology companies and their employees advocating for democracy;

Whereas Belarusian state-owned television channels have encouraged violence against peaceful demonstrators;

Whereas a recent survey of IT specialists found that 15 percent of IT specialists working in Belarus have already relocated to neighboring countries and over 30 percent of IT specialists no longer want to work in Belarus, resulting in a devastating loss of talent and possibly permanently damaging the Belarusian technology industry along with the Belarusian economy;

Whereas hundreds of former law enforcement officers in Belarus who have been defected in defiance of illegal orders to commit human rights violations and cover up crimes against civilians and those who have assisted law enforcement officers in deflicting have faced harassment, financial penalties, arrest, detention, and other punitive measures; and

Whereas several peaceful demonstrators have been killed by police violence, including 31-year-old Roman Bondarenko who was violently beaten by plainclothes police officers and, as a result, suffered head injuries and died two days later;

Whereas Belarusian universities continue to expel students and dismiss educators and researchers for participating in peaceful protests;

Whereas child protective services have threatened multiple civic activists with termination of parental rights for bringing minor children to peaceful protests; and

Whereas factory workers at state-owned enterprises have been continuously harassed for taking part in independent trade unions and have been forced to sign political letters opposing sanctions by the European Union under threat of termination of their employment;

Whereas a transatlantic community of legislators has emerged in support of uplifting the democratic aspirations of the Belarusian people;

Whereas international advocacy, including by co-host Latvia, succeeded in preventing the illegitimate Government of Belarus from hosting the 2021 Ice Hockey World Championship;

Whereas the United States, the European Union, United Kingdom, and Canada have enacted sanctions and other punitive measures against dozens of individuals and entities found responsible for the perpetration of violence against peaceful demonstrators, opposition members, and journalists, among others; and

Whereas Alyaksandr Lukashenka continues to undermine the sovereignty and independence of Belarus through efforts to integrate Belarus into a so-called ‘Union State’ under the control of Russia;

Whereas Representatives passed the Belarus Democracy, Human Rights, and Sovereignty Act of 2020 with unanimous consent, sending a clear message of overwhelming support for the peaceful transition of power in Belarus; and

Whereas the Belarusian opposition, led by Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya, organized a Day of Solidarity on February 7, 2020, where thousands of Belarusians around the world demonstrated their support for the six months of historic peaceful protests since the fraudulent presidential election that took place on August 9, 2020. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives

(1) finds that the August 9, 2020, presidential election in Belarus was neither free nor fair and, therefore, does not recognize the government-announced results by Alyaksandr Lukashenka as the legitimate President of Belarus;

(2) calls for new free and fair elections under Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe observation;

(3) affirms that the people of Belarus have the right to determine the future of Belarus without unwelcome intervention from the Russian Federation or any outside actors in violation of Belarusian independence and sovereignty;

(4) condemns the human rights violations committed by Belarusian authorities, including peaceful demonstrators, civil society activists, opposition leaders, students, educators, employees at state-owned enterprises, medical personnel, and journalists, and calls for such authorities to halt any further acts of violence against civilians;

(5) calls for the immediate release of all political prisoners and those unlawfully detained in connection with the peaceful demonstrations including independent journalists and family members of United States citizens;

(6) recognizes the sacrifices and bravery of the Belarusian people and the incredible organization by Belarusian women to peacefully demand a free and fair democratic process while enduring the state-sponsored violence that followed the August 9, 2020, election;

(7) calls on Alyaksandr Lukashenka and Belarusian authorities to engage in an open and constructive dialogue with the opposition members and other stakeholders to bring about a peaceful transition of power;

(8) calls for the protection of civil society actors and members of the opposition against arbitrary arrest and violence while conducting the democratic transition of power in Belarus;

(9) recognizes the Coordination Council established by Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya as a legitimate institution to participate in a dialogue on a peaceful transition of power;

(10) urges continued cooperation among the United States and its transatlantic allies and partners to explore avenues in support of the democratic movement in Belarus;

(11) calls for further targeted sanctions coordinated between the United States, the European Union, Canada, and other allies and partners against Belarusian authorities who committed human rights violations and engaged in activities that resulted in the falsification of the August 9, 2020, election results;

(12) encourages when considering, in coordination with transatlantic partners, the sanctioning of Belarusian state-owned companies that have directly violated the rights of their workers as a result of their participation in or in connection to the ongoing democratic movement in Belarus that the Administration take into consideration the potential implications of making these companies more vulnerable to takeovers by Russian or other foreign entities;

(13) calls on the transatlantic community to review and consider reassessing any financial assistance that supports the Lukashenka regime, including participation in state debt issuances or procurement contracts;

(14) supports increasing funds available for foreign assistance to Belarusian civil society groups as well as legal assistance for activists and independent journalists, among others, called for in the Belarus Democracy, Human Rights, and Sovereignty Act of 2020; and

(15) urges the President to provide the United States Agency for Global Media with a surge capacity (as such term is defined in section 316 of the United States International Broadcasting Act of 1994 (22 U.S.C. 6216)) for programs and activities in Belarus, including to protect brave independent journalists reporting from within Belarus as called for in the Belarus Democracy, Human Rights, and Sovereignty Act of 2020; and

Calls on the transatlantic community to support the aspirations of the people of Belarus for democracy, human rights, and the rule of law, and reaffirms that the fulfillment of such aspirations is critical to ensuring the continued strength of Belarusian sovereignty and territorial integrity.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Ms. CRAIG, pursuant to section 6 of House Resolution 330, the ordering of the yeas and nays, and nays on postponed motions to suspend the rules with respect to such measures is vacated to the end that all such motions are considered as withdrawn.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. HOYER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill and the resolution.

The question was taken.

Mr. ROY. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

Mr. ROY. Madam Speaker, in the affirmative, the ayes have it.
Mr. BURGESS changed his vote from "nay" to "yea." So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended, the bills were passed, and the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The motion to reconsider is laid on the table.

Mr. BIGGS. Madam Speaker, I object. The SPEAKER pro tempore. Objection is heard.

DELETIONS OF SPONSORS FROM PUBLIC BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

H.R. 2091: Mr. Crawford.
The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable ALEX PADILLA, a Senator from the State of California.

PRAYER
The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal God, who uphold us with Your might, keep our Senators sure-footed as they travel through these challenging times.

Lord, lead them safely over the treacherous heights they must sometimes move. Open their eyes that they may see glimpses of truth from Your Divine precepts that will illuminate their paths.

Lord, remind them that victory comes from You, the God of our salvation. Continue to use them as guardians of freedom.

Lord, we thank You for the life and legacy of former Vice President of the United States Walter Mondale.

We pray in Your great Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE
The Presiding Officer led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

APPOINTMENT OF ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Pending:
Schumer (for Hirono/Collins) Amendment No. 1445, of a perfecting nature.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER
The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Democratic leader is recognized.

REMEMBERING WALTER FREDERICK MONDALE
Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, last night, the country lost a giant of Democratic politics, a kind and revered public servant, a Vice President who reimagined the position and expanded Americans’ views of who could hold America’s highest offices. Walter Mondale, known to friends and foes alike as “Fritz,” died at the age of 93.

As President Carter’s right-hand man, Fritz revolutionized the role of the Vice Presidency. There is an old yarn about two brothers: One went off to sea, and the other became Vice President. Neither was heard from again. That is not true of Walter Mondale.

Walter Mondale was an uncooperative subject for those Vice Presidential comedians. Not only was he often the last person in the room with the President when the tough decisions were made, but he became an unofficial ambassador for the administration. His relationship with Prime Minister Begin of Israel helped paved the way for a peace treaty between Israel and Egypt at Camp David in 1978.

In his ultimately unsuccessful run for the Presidency, Walter Mondale’s pick of my fellow New Yorker, the late Geraldine Ferraro, as Vice President was an early crack in the glass ceiling that our current Vice President, KAMALA HARRIS, would eventually shatter.

Walter Mondale will be remembered as a lion of progressive politics; an ardent defender of civil rights, aid to schoolchildren, childcare, healthcare, and consumer protections. Mondale once said:

My whole life I worked on the idea that government can be an instrument for social progress. We need that progress. Fairness requires it.

Indeed, as Mondale said, we need government to make social progress.

As we say goodbye to one of our country’s most decent public servants, let us follow in his example.

MARIJUANA

Mr. President, now on a much different subject, today is what you might call a very unofficial American holiday, 4/20. It is as appropriate a time as any to take a hard look at our laws that have overcriminalized the use of marijuana and put it on a par with heroin, LSD, and other narcotics that bear little or no resemblance in their effects.
either on individuals or on society, more broadly.

The war on drugs has too often been a war on people, particularly people of color. For decades, young men and women—disproportionately, young men of color—have been arrested and jailed for even carrying a small amount of marijuana, a charge that often came with exorbitant penalties and a serious criminal record from which they might never recover, being rejected from job after job because this minor, minor deviation from the law was listed as a serious criminal record.

It makes no sense. It is time for change. I believe the time has come to end the Federal prohibition on marijuana in this country, and I am working with Senators Booker and Wyden on legislation to do just that. My thinking on this issue has evolved.

A number of States—including, very recently, the State of New York—have legalized the recreational use of marijuana for adults, and those experiments, by and large, have been a success. The doom-and-gloom predictions, when States like Colorado or Oregon went forward and decriminalized and legalized marijuana, never occurred.

In State after State, through ballot initiatives and constitutional amendments, the American people are sending a clear message that they want this policy changed. Senators Booker, Wyden, and I are going to continue to work on our legislation, and in the near future, we hope to have a draft of a comprehensive reform effort, not only to end the Federal prohibition on marijuana but to ensure restorative justice, protect public health, and implement responsible taxes and regulations. This was the approach taken by legislators in New York. I believe it is the right approach, and it serves as a model that the Senate should deal with the issue in Congress.

Hopefully, the next time this unofficial holiday, 4/20, rolls around, our country will have made progress in addressing the massive overcriminalization of marijuana in a meaningful and comprehensive way.

VOTING RIGHTS

Mr. President, now on voting rights, today in the Judiciary Committee, Senators will hear testimony from a number of public officials and experts about the voter suppression laws since the 2020 election, including former Georgia gubernatorial candidate Stacey Abrams.

These voter suppression laws—more than 250 proposed laws in more than 40 States—constitute a grave and immediate threat to the very core of our democracy. In ways both large and small, they seek to restrict the franchise, often targeting minority communities, younger voters, and dense urban districts.

Our Republican colleagues have tried in vain to defend these laws as meaningful and appropriate protections against voter fraud. In many cases, those attempts have been just laughable.

Just to take one example from earlier this week, the Republican-led Montana State Legislature passed a law that would have disqualified any state that issues driver’s licenses to undocumented individuals. This act would have meant that even those who are legally resident in the United States—constitute a grave and immediate threat to the very core of our democracy would no longer allow student IDs to be used as a sole ballot form of identification. Just think about that for a moment. What problems are the Republicans in Montana trying to solve? In many cases, the law would have been aimed at 18-year-olds showing up with student IDs to commit voter fraud? No, there certainly hasn’t been. We all know what is going on here. Younger voters have been shown to be more Democratic. So Montana Republicans have made it harder for them to vote. It is despicable—just despicable—and these laws are moving through State legislatures all across the country, including the most recent one in Georgia, which, among other crucial reforms, makes it a crime to provide food and water to voters waiting in line at the poles, even though in minority areas the lines are often much longer because there are fewer polling places.

I know my Democratic colleagues on the Judiciary are going to shine a spotlight on all of these efforts, and I applaud Chairman Durbin for holding this very important hearing today. Voting rights are a topic that deserves continued national attention. It is a top priority for this Democratic Senate majority.

PUERTO RICO

Finally, Mr. President, you couldn’t find a better study in contrasts than the Trump administration and the Biden administration. On so many issues, the executive branch is finally returning to competence, undoing the damage wrought by 4 years of Trump’s Presidency.

One important example came last night. When it comes to this disaster aid, I am so glad the Biden administration is rectifying the issue. I hope we never repeat such a shameful delay.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The acting President pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. McConnell. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

RECOGNITION OF THE MINORITY LEADER

The Republican leader is recognized.

Mr. McConnell. Mr. President, the situation on our southern border is bad and getting worse. Last month saw overall migrant totals hit a nearly two-decade high. More unaccompanied minors have arrived than during any prior month on record.

These kids, crowded in underequipped facilities, tended by increasingly overwhelmed personnel, have become the heart-wrenching face of this crisis. Yet the most resolve, the most strength that this administration has shown on the border has been their commitment to their talking points, their refusal to call the crisis a crisis.

This past weekend, the President of the United States himself slipped up and used that forbidden word. But—forget this—he was then overruled by his own staff. Yesterday, his Press Secretary said President Biden actually didn’t intend to describe the situation as a crisis. Fascinating.

But then, yesterday, at last, we saw this administration take some new action on immigration. Finally, some proactive steps. Memos were issued to Immigration and Customs Enforcement and CBP with new instruction. Were they new policies to stem the crisis? No. Stepped-up enforcement? No. A way to fix the administration’s signals that have induced these new waves of... vulnerable people to try their luck? No, not this either.

Here was the big news: The government will be adopting new, more politically correct rhetoric. Under this administration, we will no longer have “illegal aliens,” not because they will secure the border; just because they now will be called “noncitizens” or “undocumented migrants” and so on. These priorities are almost a parody of left-wing governance: not securing the border but better plans for the children, just woke proofreading. This is not going to get the job done.

Fentanyl and fentanyl analogues that pour into our country impose a staggering, tragic loss. In 2020, the CDC recorded more overdose deaths than any year on record. They attributed the spike primarily to synthetic opioids like fentanyl.

My home State of Kentucky logged a 50-percent year-on-year increase in overdose deaths. Fentanyl and its constantly changing analogues are as toxic and lethal an illegal drug as there is. We are talking about substances that can be orders of magnitude more potent than morphine.

Customs and Border Protection says fentanyl seizures jumped more than 70 percent in fiscal year 2020. They are on pace for another record year in 2021. Much of this poison is manufactured in and exported from China.

The scope of this crisis is truly staggering. But incredibly, some on the political left want to respond to this national crisis by letting the criminal status of fentanyl analogues lapse this spring.

People want to let these drugs become legal. They actually want to let these drugs become legal. I am not making this up. Fentanyl analogues are poised to fall off the schedule of controlled substances in just a few weeks if Congress does not act, and some corners of the soft-on-crime left want us to do nothing. They are uncharacteristically happy with the sentences that can be orders of magnitude more potent than morphine.

My colleagues on both sides of the aisle share my concerns. I expect that the administration’s representatives will face tough questions about the rationale behind their plan for a rushed withdrawal.

So it is appropriate to ask: Does the Taliban share the administration’s commitment to a negotiated solution, to not harming Afghan women or girls or seeking vengeance on those who remain? Staves from the United States to root out terror? Somehow I doubt it.

How does the administration plan to maintain our insight into terrorist activities or our ability to strike them without a presence on the ground, to sustain our partners who are doing the fighting? I worked hard to find common ground on stabilizing the region on foreign policy, but if the White House is serious about making America, our allies, and our interests more secure, it will need to start taking toward a more enduring approach centered around this administration on foreign policy, and not just because they now will be called “noncitizens” or “undocumented migrants” and so on.

These priorities are almost a parody of left-wing governance: not securing the border but better plans for the children, just woke proofreading. This is not going to get the job done.

OPIOID EPIDEMIC

Mr. President, on a related matter, of course, the flow of actual people is not our only border security problem. Americans are dying and communities are being hollowed out because foreign drug dealers and profiteers have taken our opioid crisis as a business opportunity.

Fentanyl and fentanyl analogues that pour into our country impose a staggering, tragic loss. In 2020, the CDC recorded more overdose deaths than any year on record. They attributed the spike primarily to synthetic opioids like fentanyl.

My home State of Kentucky logged a 50-percent year-on-year increase in overdose deaths. Fentanyl and its constantly changing analogues are as toxic and lethal an illegal drug as there is. We are talking about substances that can be orders of magnitude more potent than morphine.

Customs and Border Protection says fentanyl seizures jumped more than 70 percent in fiscal year 2020. They are on pace for another record year in 2021. Much of this poison is manufactured in and exported from China.

The scope of this crisis is truly staggering. But incredibly, some on the political left want to respond to this national crisis by letting the criminal status of fentanyl analogues lapse this spring.

People want to let these drugs become legal. They actually want to let these drugs become legal. I am not making this up. Fentanyl analogues are poised to fall off the schedule of controlled substances in just a few weeks if Congress does not act, and some corners of the soft-on-crime left want us to do nothing. They are uncharacteristically happy with the sentences that can be orders of magnitude more potent than morphine.

My colleagues on both sides of the aisle share my concerns. I expect that the administration’s representatives will face tough questions about the rationale behind their plan for a rushed withdrawal.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, last fall, there was a moment when around the country, many Republican voters, that if elected—Democrats in the House, the Senate, and the White House—if they had the whole of government, they would try to implement massive change, transformative change, as it was described. There has been a consistent view articulated by Democrats in other places around the country that it would never happen because Joe Biden, after all, is a moderate. These ideas are crazy ideas. Nobody would ever do some of the things that are being talked about.

Well, I have to say that pretty much everything that was predicted is now coming true, at least as it pertains to legislation that is being advanced by Democrats here in the Congress and by the White House, starting, of course, with the massive amount of spending, the massive expansion of the government.

We saw that with the coronavirus relief bill, which ended up being about $2 trillion. That was on top of the $4 trillion that Congress, in a bipartisan way last year, had put toward coronavirus relief. Much of that $2 trillion—in fact, most of it, about 90 percent of it—didn't have anything to do with coronavirus. Only about 10 percent of all that spending of nearly $2 trillion was actually related to the coronavirus. Most of it was other things that Democrats had wanted to fund, that had been on their wish list, if you will, for some time, and expanding government. That is another $2.5 to $3 trillion expansion of government, new spending financed—some with tax increases but a lot of it just adding to the debt, just putting it on the credit card and handing it off to our children and grandchildren, something that has been routinely done around here for a long time.

Mr. President, what I think people should find concerning is that the worst fears predicted about what the left might do if in charge of this country are, in fact, coming true. Much of this new spending—by the way, the infrastructure bill is a first installment. There is another bill to follow, we are told, that would include more trillions in spending, dealing with other issues, including healthcare.

You have this massive expansion of government, massive amount of new spending, unprecedented, truly unprecedented in history, coupled with massive tax hikes, also unprecedented. What is being talked about just in the first infrastructure bill is over $1 trillion in new taxes. The taxing, spending, borrowing patterns that we predicted would happen are, in fact, coming true.

Add that to other things that were suggested and proposed through-out the fall and the course of the campaigns. Subsequent to that included adding DC as a State. So adding DC as a State is going to pass the House of Representatives. I am not sure if they are voting on it today, but it has either been voted on or will be voted on. It will pass the House of Representatives.

That is a very, very serious, serious proposal which dramatically changes the U.S. Senate and, I believe, what the Founders intended with respect to the District of Columbia.

Then you add to it legislation that has already passed the House and is being contemplated being passed here in the Senate that would federalize elections in this country, that would codify ballot harvesting, and that would ban voter ID, photo ID, which is something that, I think, most Americans strongly support. When it comes to election integrity, to make sure that the people who are voting actually are who they say they are. Voter ID is a pretty important part of that. It would have the taxpayers finance—publicly fund—campaigns in this country. Add to that that the American taxpayers, among all of the other things that they have to finance in the government, also want to finance the campaigns that they have to sit through.

It would politicize the Federal Election Commission, which, in the past, has been a balanced—three Republican, three Democrat—bipartisan committee that has overseen and regulated elections in this country. So it would politicize it and give the Democrats an advantage, a partisan advantage, on the Federal Election Commission.

All of those things are in this election legislation that I mentioned—I mean, I am talking literally transform—the way we do elections in this country, which historically and by way of the Constitution and the law have been handled and administered at the State level. States have been very involved.

What this would do is consolidate more power in Washington, DC, and pull the regulation of elections up to the Federal Government, coupled with all of the changes that I just mentioned. There is no way—absolutely no way—that even if passed they could be done, could be implemented, for the upcoming 2022 election, which secretaries of state from across the country, including Democratic secretaries of state, have indicated.

So that is another thing that is on the liberal wish list that I mentioned: the federalizing of our elections—taking them away from the States where, historically, elections have been administered and bringing them here, essentially nationalizing our elections.

Then there is the Green New Deal. The Green New Deal is, I believe, being revived again today by a number of Democratic Senators and House Members—something, again, that would completely change the way we fuel our country in ways that would drive up dramatically the costs that an average consumer in this country and an average family would have to pay for energy. It would be done through mandates, regulations, and heavy-handed government requirements as opposed to incentivizing some of these things that, I think, we all agree we should be doing when it comes to cleaning up our environment. The Green New Deal is the opposite of that. The Green New Deal is a government, Washington, DC, mandate, requirement, heavy-handed regulatory approach to that issue and something that has struck fear in the hearts of literally tens of millions of Americans since it began being talked about only a few years ago.

Those are just a handful on the list of what I would call horrors for which the left has been advocating for some time in this country. All of these things could be accomplished if the Democrats are able to follow through with another thing that they said they would never do and are now talking about and if they have the votes—then they would do, and that is to do away with the legislative filibuster, which is a feature of our democracy that goes back literally 200 years to our Nation's founding and has ensured through those years that the minority has had voice in our policy-making process; that there is an opportunity for both sides to collaborate, compromise, and to ensure that there isn't majoritarian rule. The Founders were very firm about that idea. They thought there needed to be checks and balances against that, and the legislative filibuster has provided that for 200 years.

It is something that we refused to do—President Trump, when he asked repeatedly during the last 4 years of the Trump Presidency, by the President himself, to get rid of the legislative filibuster—because we believe it is essential as a feature of our democracy, which protects the minority in this country, the minority rights, the voice of the minority, in our policymaking process. It ensures that we get solutions that, ultimately, are durable over time because they have been negotiated in a way that requires the input from both sides of the political equation.

That is something that has been sacred, so sacred, even despite the fact that President Trump, on 34 different occasions, asked the Republicans—or probably would say, “would a gentle word be a gentle word”—and essentially said that the Republicans in the Senate needed to get rid of the legislative filibuster. He either did that by tweet or by public statement. It was clear that he believed that a priority in order to implement his agenda. We resisted that. We resisted that even though we would have benefited from it on numerous occasions when it came to moving legislation through the Senate.

For the past 6 years, we had the majority, and for the past 4 years, we had the Presidency up until January of this year, and notwithstanding the constant barrage of suggestions—again, putting it mildly—to get rid of the legislative filibuster by a President from our own party, we resisted that simply because we believed the legislative filibuster is such an essential and critical part of our democracy.

So here we go. The Democrats get elected. They have, on countless occasions, told me privately—individual Senators on their side of the aisle—that there is no way. We would never do that. We will never get rid of the legislative filibuster. It is too important. We are not going to do that. In fact, 33 Democrats signed a letter as recently as 3 years ago, basically, essentially ratifying their support for the legislative filibuster and, as to the suggestion that it would be a terrible, wrong thing to do for this country—essentially coming out strongly, strongly supporting the legislative filibuster. These are 33 Democratic Senators here in the U.S. Senate coming out in support of the legislative filibuster.

Now, the shoe is on the other foot. They are in the majority. They have been in the majority for about 2 months, and they are already talking about it openly, and many have come out and endorsed the idea. Frankly, to be honest with you, I think it would have been done already had it not been for a couple of Democrats who, I think, are thoughtful enough, contemplative enough, and revering enough of our institutions in this country not to be run over by the majority on their side and do away with something that is just so critical to the fabric of our Nation’s not only heritage and history but to our future. If it were not for that, I think it would have been done already. I think the Senator from New York, the Democratic leader, in a New York minute would get rid of the legislative filibuster if he had the votes to do it, partly out of fear that he would be savaged by his “woke” left if he wouldn’t do it.

Obviously, the President, President Biden, whom, as I mentioned earlier, many people thought would govern as a moderate and a unifier and as someone who fiercely defended the legislative filibuster as a U.S. Senator and made speeches on this very floor in defending fiercely the legislative filibuster, is probably in line to be thinking of getting rid of it in order to implement massive tax hikes, massive spending increases, and a massive growth in government—an expansion of government unlike anything we have seen in history, including the New Deal. This would dwarf that by comparison.

DC statehood, federalizing our elections, and passing the Green New Deal, all of that could be done with 51 votes if they could blow up and get rid of the legislative filibuster. I think all of those are very real, not hypotheticals—real. These are things that have already passed or are going to pass the House of Representatives and are being considered here on the floor of the U.S. Senate, including today when, I think, the Green New Deal is being reintroduced. These are legislative proposals that are so far out of the political mainstream in the things that they are contemplating that it is hard to believe.

Just as an example of the impact that these tax increases could have, look at what the tax cuts that were passed—the reform act that was passed in 2017—were doing in terms of the economy and the benefits that they were having across all demographic sectors in this country. Up until the pandemic, we had the best economy probably in 50 years. We had the lowest unemployment rate, for sure. We had gas at $2. In fact, we saw wage levels among particularly minority groups.

In fact, this is census data from 2019 that shows that the real median household income hit its highest level ever for African-American, Hispanic, and Asian-American workers and retirees. The 2019 poverty rate was the lowest in more than 50 years for children at 14.4 percent, the lowest ever for individuals at 10.5 percent, for families at 8.5 percent, and for households headed by unmarried women at 22.2 percent. More than 10 years after the 1990s economic expansion, the 2019 gains shattered all records as real household income leapt by $4,379 in 2019 alone, 13 times the average annual gain since data were first collected.

So the tax policies we had in place were working, and there have been record income gains, especially among lower income Americans. The poverty rate, as I mentioned, plummeted 11 percent in 2019, the most in 53 years. Things were moving in the right direction. So the question is, If it isn’t broken, why fix it? Why would we go and impose taxes in a massive way at a time when the economy is growing and expanding and creating better paying jobs?

What I would argue for those in any income group and across any ethnic group is that the best solution for improving their standard of living and their quality of life is to have a growing, expanding economy that is throwing off better paying jobs and higher wages. That is what raises the income level for every American, and that is what we ought to be looking for, not how much government can we pull back to Washington, DC, and how much government can do for you but how we can put the right policies in place that conditions in place for economic growth that will stimulate the kind of investment that will create those good-paying jobs and start lifting wages across this country.

It is about growth in our economy. I would argue. It is about good-paying jobs. It is about higher wages. That is what our arguments here ought to be about. Instead, right now, we are talking about growing government and increasing taxes and reversing what, I would argue, is a lot of progress that I just mentioned, that being from the 2019 U.S. Census Bureau’s data.

Why would we go back on the great progress that has been made? Why would we start to contemplate some of these suggestions that I mentioned, from the tax hikes, the spending increases, the federalizing of our elections, the Green New Deal, and repealing the filibuster which, again, would consolidate more control, more power, in the hands of a few people here rather than keeping it distributed? It would consolidate more and more power in Washington, DC.

That kind of brings me to the topic for today that is on that list of horribles and things that would undermine the integrity of our political institutions in a way that these other things would as well. This is the kind of thing that we need to be concerned about, not to say, on a much, much higher, much expanded level, and that is packing the Supreme Court which, again, people thought was a hypothetical. That was one of those things to which people said, “Oh, no, those Democrats, are not that crazy. There are some moderate Democrats out there. There are some people who would stand up in the way of that and keep something that crazy from happening.”

Well, it didn’t take very long. It only took a week—just 1 week after President Biden established his Commission to study Court packing, which is another ostensibly Supreme Court reform, for the Democratic Members of Congress in both Houses to introduce legislation that would actually pack the Court. This is no longer a hypothetical. This is the question on this side of the aisle and the Democrats in the House of Representatives who are openly advocating for packing the Supreme Court in the form of legislation and not just adding a couple of members but adding enough members to give them a majority on them a majority on the U.S. Supreme Court.

Now, many people are probably wondering what the crisis was that precipitated this legislation, a crisis so grave that these Democrats couldn’t even wait for the results of the President’s stacked Commission. President Biden’s Commission, which is stacked with Democrats to give them the result that they want, is supposed to report back in the timeframe of, I believe, about 6 months. They didn’t even wait for that. They had to introduce a bill that would pack the Court. So why did they have to do that? Well, I will tell you.

The crisis that requires us to immediately add four additional Justices to the Supreme Court after 150 years of having the Court at its current size is that a duly elected Republican President was able to get three Supreme Court nominees approved. Apparently, by confirming a duly elected President’s Supreme Court nominees, the Republicans stole the Court’s majority which, I guess, apparently, rightfully, belongs to the Democrats, and in doing so, it “politicized the Supreme Court” and “threatened the rights of millions of Americans.”

This legislation, the bill’s Senate sponsor says, will “restore the Court’s balance and public standing” and “begin to repair the damage done to our judiciary and democracy.” That is from the Democrat sponsor’s statement to this legislation. It is necessary to “restore the Court’s balance and public standing” and “repair the damage done to our judiciary and democracy.”

Well, there is only one problem, of course, and that is that this supposed crisis of confidence in the Supreme Court doesn’t actually exist. A majority of Americans approve of the job the Supreme Court is doing. The Supreme Court’s approval rating actually increased—increased not even wait for the results of the Trump administration.

If the junior Senator from Massachusetts, who is one of the sponsors of this legislation, is looking to address a crisis of confidence, perhaps he should take a look at Congress, whose approval rating is consistently far lower than that of the Supreme Court.

The real crisis—the real crisis we are facing—is not a crisis of confidence in the Court. It is that Democrats are apparently willing to do long-term damage to our democracy for partisan gain.

Yes, Democrats are being hypocritical, and, yes, their Court-packing proposal is outrageously and transparently partisan. But, more than that, it is dangerous because Democrats’ Court packing would eliminate public confidence in the nonpartisan character of the Court.

Right now, the Supreme Court is generally seen—being at least somewhat above the partisan fray, as the Founders intended—a fact that I think is reflected in the Court’s positive approval rating.

And while some Justices are regarded as more conservative and some as more liberal, Americans don’t see Justices as partisan in the way that we see politicians as partisan, and rightly so. I can think of more than one significant case where supposedly conservative Justices have sided with the Court’s liberals, and there are plenty of cases where all of the Supreme Court’s Justices have ruled unanimously.

As Justice Breyer pointed out in his recent speech condemning Court packing, “It just does not fit neatly into conservative or liberal categories.”

But that perception of Supreme Court Justices as above partisanship would not last long if Democrats succeeded in their proposal. Just think about it. We have had the same number of Supreme Court Justices, nine—nine Justices—for more than 150 years. One hundred and fifty years, and then Democrats sweep in, proposing to expand the Court. The Court isn’t to their liking, and propose adding four Justices, all of them appointed in one fell swoop by a Democratic President. And that is in addition to any nominations the President might make in the ordinary course of things.

Does any Democrat sincerely think that after that any Republican would regard the Supreme Court as nonpartisan? Or, for that matter, how many Democrats would regard the Supreme Court as nonpartisan?

Just imagine if the roles were reversed. Imagine that Republicans were proposing to expand the Supreme Court and add four Republican-nominated Justices. Imagine the howls of outrage that would ensue, and rightly so. Democrats, the media, the far left—all would rightfully decry the politicization of the Supreme Court.

Yet Democrats expect us to believe that if it is Democrats who do this, if it is Democrats who pack the Supreme Court, somehow this move is not a partisan and self-serving one?

As Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg said, “If anything would make the court look partisan, it would be that—one side saying, ‘When we’re in power, we’re going to enlarge the number of judges, so we would have more people who would vote the way we want them to.’”

That is from the late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

Or, in the words of Justice Breyer, “I hope and expect that the court will retain its authority, an authority that..."

BORDER SECURITY

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, today I come to the floor to talk about what is very obvious on television—the crisis at the southern border.

During the past several months, the American people have watched as a full-blown crisis has developed. It has reached a catastrophic phase, and it is not getting any better.

Let me reemphasize that whatever the Biden administration wants to call it, it is a crisis. Simply put, the administration is in denial, and that denial has caused a humanitarian and national crisis. For example, border crossings are at the highest level we have seen in the last 15 years. Last month, Customs and Border Patrol, Border Protection, encountered more than 180,000 unauthorized crossings at the southern border. That number includes almost 19,000 unaccompanied children, which is the highest number ever recorded in a single month.

The surge has overwhelmed personnel and prompted the Biden administration to put out—would you believe this?—emergency calls for volunteers. They did that from across the Federal Government. According to news reports based on recent Biden administration emails, the administration is recruiting NASA employees to sit with children at border facilities. Really? That is NASA. The border crisis is so bad that the Biden administration is trying to pull people from NASA and place them at the border.

My fellow Senators, this situation is out of control. This is a humanitarian and national security crisis. Terrorists, smugglers, criminals have seen this as their golden opportunity, and they are taking advantage of it.

This can't continue. I have written to the Biden administration. I have visited the border in person. I have seen overwhelmed facilities. I have heard the calls of the cartel members and human smugglers yelling insults from across the Rio Grande, taunting Senators—yes, taunting Senators.

Senator CORNYN and I have written to the chairman of the Judiciary Committee strongly urging him to hold border security hearings. During the Trump administration, while I served as chairman of the full committee and Senator CORNYN served as subcommittee chairman, we held no less than 15 hearings on oversight of the Department of Homeland Security and various other immigration policy. As chairman of the committee during the first 2 years of the Trump administration, I held hearings on immigration topics of bipartisan interest to all committee members, including Democratic committee members. Those hearings included oversight of family reunification efforts and the Trump administration's decision to end DACA programs.

In that very same way, I am hopeful that Chairman DURBIN will be willing to hold hearings on matters of great importance to me and committee members on both sides of the aisle. I am ready to work with him to put together hearings that address these problems productively.

During the Easter recess, I instructed my oversight and investigative staff to get a classified briefing from the Department of Homeland Security, Customs and Border Protection, and Immigration and Customs Enforcement. That briefing provided important and time-sensitive information that further solidifies my belief that the Biden administration's border crisis is a national security problem.

Moreover, the Biden administration's denial that there is a border crisis is itself a national security problem. You can't solve a problem if you refuse to admit that there is such a problem existing. This head-in-the-sand attitude will cost lives. That is what is so sad about the situation. It is not making anyone's life any better. In fact, it is putting lives at risk. American lives and immigrant lives. Yet the administration refuses to solve the problem.

Earlier this month, I requested that the Department of Homeland Security, Customs and Border Protection, and immigration and customs enforcement have a briefing before the full Judiciary Committee, Republicans and Democrats, on a member level. Members need to fully understand the national security problems at the border with respect to terrorists, narcotics traffickers, human smugglers, and every one of their criminal counterparts. We must also be fully read in to the methods and means that they use to plan and accomplish their criminal goals.

Yesterday, in response to my request of these Agencies, the committee had that briefing. What we learned is that the crisis at the border is getting worse, and bad actors are expanding their technological edge to become more efficient at accomplishing their criminal goals. Human smuggling networks, cartels, and other bad actors are continuing to take full advantage of the crisis.

As to where we go from here, the Biden administration knows it has a crisis on its hands. It is time to stop the denial and act now to solve this border crisis.

INFORMATION SHARING

Mr. President, on another issue, I would like to address my fellow Senators. This deals with counterfeiters and the need for the Federal Government to modernize its approach to information sharing.

Counterfeiters pose a danger to the health and safety of consumers. They also infringe on U.S. intellectual property rights and unfairly benefit international criminals.

This will come as no surprise to anyone: The majority of fake goods come from China and Hong Kong. And the truth is, we are the biggest loser when it comes to our intellectual property-related crime and activity.

Unfortunately, the problem of counterfeits has gotten worse during the pandemic. Americans are increasingly turned to e-commerce to buy goods like personal protective equipment, household products, as well as household cleaners, children's toys, and a lot of other items I won't list.

Unfortunately, when there is money to be made, criminals will find out how to profit and do it at the expense of others, even in the event of a global pandemic. However, there is some good news. We have ways of addressing the problem.

Last week, I introduced legislation that will give U.S. Customs and Border Protection more authority to share information with rights holders and other interested parties on suspected counterfeit merchandise. This is an issue I first identified as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee when I investigated counterfeit goods online.

During this investigation, I discovered that certain U.S. laws prevent Customs and Border Protection from sharing key pieces of information with their private sector partners. As a result, it is harder for Customs and Border Protection and its private sector partners to detect and disrupt counterfeiting networks. If they could work together and the law allowed it, it would be a lot easier to tackle the problem.

To give credit where it is due, Customs and Border Protection has recognized this problem and is taking steps to rectify it through the 21st Century Customs Framework—for short, 21CF—to improve data-sharing capabilities in real time. However, without statutory authority from Congress, in some ways, Customs and Border Protection has one hand tied behind its back.

My bill will get rid of some of these barriers for the agency. It is one small but very crucial step toward a more secure supply chain.

Sharing information is a simple solution that often gets overlooked. However, we can be asking our industry to create comprehensive strategy against counterfeit activity. So I am asking my colleagues to join me in making this legislative fix so that we may create a supply chain that addresses a 21st-century problem.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.
The bill clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. CORNYN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Mr. CORNYN. Mr. President, in a State as big as Texas—as the Presiding Officer knows, having lived in and around Houston for a number of years in his previous life—we rely on a strong network of roads and bridges to travel safely and efficiently.

We have I–35, which spans the entire length of Texas, from north to south, and from Laredo all the way to Laredo, Texas—Fort Worth. Much of that stretch, it seems like and feels like, is constantly under some construction.

There are bridges that are part of people’s daily commutes, like RM 2900 in Kingsland. And this bridge was destroyed by floodwaters a few years back, it didn’t just create inconvenience in the community but also risks. It could take a firefighter an hour to get around the water.

Fortunately, the Texas Department of Transportation and construction crews didn’t waste any time, and I was able to join the dedication less than a year later. You heard that right. The bridge was destroyed, and less than a year later we dedicated the opening of that bridge.

Then we have critical projects in the works, like the “forts to ports” corridor of I–14, which stretches from Fort Hood to Laredo all the way to the Gulf of Mexico. This will connect our critical military installations to our seaports and provide a serious boost to our military readiness.

These are much more than just roads and bridges. They are vital parts of our daily lives, trade, emergency response, and, of course, national security.

And as we welcome more new Texans every day, things are nearing a breaking point. Texas punch above our weight much longer when it comes to our transportation infrastructure. It is time—and I believe it is a bipartisan belief that this is the time—to invest in our Nation’s infrastructure, and we know, historically, that this has not been a partisan issue.

I am pro-infrastructure, and I imagine every person in this Chamber would tell you the same thing, regardless of whether they are from a red State or blue State. I have a strong history of working together to fund the networks of roads, bridges, airports, railroads, tunnels, and the ports that the American people rely on. For example, in 2015, we passed a 5-year highway and transportation bill called the FAST Act, with overwhelming bipartisan support. It received 83 votes here in the Senate and 359 votes in the House, as well as the signature of President Obama. This legislation provided the certainty and stability for States and communities to make long-term investments in critical projects, and it was the first of its kind in more than a decade.

Last Congress, we were poised to pass a similar bill. The Environment and Public Works Committee developed a truly bipartisan example of an infrastructure bill that built on the success of the FAST Act. That was led by Chairman MARKEY and Ranking Member CARPER, at the time, but it was unanimous. This legislation included provisions to rebuild our crumbling roads and bridges and improve road safety, protect the environment, and grow the economy. Once again, it received bipartisan support and passed the committee with unanimous support.

As we know, the last year has brought us untold changes and, unfortunately, put this and other legislative goals on pause while we battled COVID–19. But now is the time to pick up where we left off and get a strong infrastructure bill signed into law.

Un fortunately, the proposal by the administration is a far cry from what the American people expect. After all, the cost of the plan is beyond comprehension. The nonpartisan Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget estimated the cost will be $2.65 trillion, nearly nine times the size of the last highway bill.

When talking about this proposal, one House Democrat said: “It’s gonna be a kitchen sink.”

The founding director of the Cornell Program in Infrastructure Policy said: “The administration certainly has a "giant definition" for what constitutes "infrastructure."”

But even journalists are making fun of the scope of this plan, with one writer saying: “Maybe the real meaning of infrastructure is what’s in our hearts.”

Well, these aren’t just jokes. Only about 5 percent of this proposal is directed at roads and bridges, what some have called core infrastructure. In fact, it puts more money toward electric vehicle charging stations than the paving that we drive on every day.

The proposal funds a long list of programs that are a far cry from what most people consider to be infrastructure: caregiving for the elderly and disabled, community colleges, programs to improve diversity in STEM careers. All of these are significant and important issues, but they don’t belong in an infrastructure bill—certainly not one that proposes to raise taxes on the American people or to create more debt.

There are the most absurd policies that really resemble the Green New Deal, which I note was just referred to Senator MARKET and Congresswoman OCAÑO-COTTEE: more than $260 billion to build or retrofit more than 2 million “affordable and sustainable” places to live, a “Civilian Climate Corp,” and an unrealistic goal of 100 percent renewable-generated electricity by 2035.

My State is an all-of-the-above State when it comes to energy, but I can tell you that if all you are depending on is renewable energy, without appropriate attention to the baseload you need, you are going to end up like we did, unfortunately, just a couple of months ago, with electricity going down due to extreme weather.

I support efforts to rebuild our infrastructure, but this is not an infrastructure bill. This is, really, much closer to the Green New Deal 2.0. It is an encore to the nearly $2 trillion wish list that our Democratic colleagues rammed through on a partisan basis earlier this year.

Any attempt to claim that Republicans won’t work with Democrats on an infrastructure bill is completely disingenuous because this is not a good-faith attempt at bipartisanship.

I would be happy to work with our colleagues on the other side of the aisle to craft an infrastructure bill that addresses our legitimate infrastructure problems, and I think every person on this side would agree with that. That would include traditional transportation systems, as well as certain forms of nontraditional infrastructure, for example, broadband.

The pandemic has really highlighted the digital divide that exists across our country, and as Americans relied on the internet to work, school, for telehealth, and a long list of other activities, it has become increasingly apparent that we are far from where we should be when it comes to broadband access in this country.

Any bipartisan support for a bill that addresses our most urgent infrastructure needs without tackling unrelated partisan priorities. As far as the price tag of the bill, I am not married to a particular number. The last highway bill that became law was roughly $300 billion, and I think we all agree there is a need to pursue something bigger and bolder. But that needs to be limited to infrastructure.

The final price tag of that bill should be the result of bipartisan negotiations between Democrats and Republicans, not in numbers handed down from the administration, unilaterally.

There is one point I want to make abundantly clear: A bipartisan infrastructure bill must exist instead of, not in addition to, our Democrat colleagues’ unrelated priorities. We can’t work in a bipartisan way to pass one bill only to have our Democratic colleagues then attempt to jam through on a partisan basis on reconciliation another long list of partisan priorities. In other words, we have to choose, and what I suggest we choose is bipartisan infrastructure legislation.

The choice before our Democratic colleagues is whether to work together or attempt to go it alone. You really can’t have both.

We also need to be serious about paying for our infrastructure in a sustainable way. We have just spent trillions of dollars on coronavirus, not to mention the long list of priorities included in the most recent partisan bill.

This is not a time to continue the spending spree. Investments in our roads and bridges are needed, but we need to figure out how they will be paid for. The massive tax hikes that the President has proposed are not a viable option. The burden will be borne by both American employers and workers.

In previous years, the vast majority of infrastructure funding came from the highway trust fund. Every State sends dollars to this fund, which finances infrastructure across the country. But the formula to distribute the funding is out of date and is facing serious deficiencies.

Making matters worse, Texans are getting short-changed and carrying the weight of these shortfalls, as a so-called donor State. We get 92 cents back on every dollar we send to Washington, DC.

The President has, indeed, proposed the largest set of tax hikes in more than a half a century. Economics 101 would teach you that tax increases aren’t a clear and easy way to boost revenue, especially when your economy is already on fragile footing.

I hope our friends on the other side of the aisle will be willing to work with us to pass a true infrastructure bill, one that will, first and foremost, improve roads, bridges, airports, and other critical projects all across the country.

Notably, we must find a responsible way to pay for this, but tax hikes are not the right tool for that. We have always had this idea in the highway trust fund that user fees—the people that buy gasoline and use the roadways—were the ones to pay for them, not pay for them out of general revenue. And I think we need to continue down this user-fee model as opposed to deficit spending and adding to our debt.

Again, in closing, let me just say, if our Democratic friends want to act in a bipartisan way, there are people on this side of the aisle, including me, that would be happy to sit down and start talking. But, first of all, our Democratic colleagues must agree to abandon their long wish list of unrelated partisan provisions. They can’t work with us on an infrastructure bill and then follow it with a reconciliation bill that includes the kitchen sink.

A bipartisan bill to rebuild our crumbling roads and bridges is possible. We have done it before, and we can do it again.

I yield the floor.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the President will proceed to executive session and resume debate on the nomination of Gary Gensler, of Maryland, to be a Member of the Securities and Exchange Commission for a term expiring June 5, 2026. (Re-appointment)

The senior assistant legislative clerk read the nomination of Gary Gensler, of Maryland, to be a Member of the Securities and Exchange Commission for a term expiring June 5, 2026. (Re-appointment)

CLOTURE MOTION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Pursuant to rule XXII, the Chair lays before the Senate the pending cloture motion, which the clerk will state.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the nomination of Executive Calendar No. 34, Gary Gensler, of Maryland, to be a Member of the Securities and Exchange Commission for a term expiring June 5, 2026. (Re-appointment)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. By unanimous consent, the mandatory quorum call has been waived.

The question is, Is it the sense of the Senate that debate on the nomination of Gary Gensler, of Maryland, to be a Member of the Securities and Exchange Commission for a term expiring June 5, 2026, shall be brought to a close?

The yeas and nays are mandatory under the rule.

The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. THUNE. The following Senator is necessarily absent: the Senator from South Carolina (Mr. SCOTT).

REMEMBERING WALTER FREDERICK MONDALE

Ms. KLOBUCHAR. Mr. President, as we await a very important moment for justice in my State today. Our work goes on.

I am here today, first of all, to acknowledge the loss of my mentor, Vice President Walter Mondale. He caught the Nation’s attention fighting for justice. So, it is such a moment. He worked on the forefront of the right to counsel in the landmark case Gideon v. Wainwright.

He followed in the footsteps of Hubert Humphrey to arrive in the Senate. He did great things passing civil rights legislation.

As Vice President, he defined the office of the modern-day Vice President. He was “Fritz” to us. He was our attorney general, our Senator, and our Vice President, and I know he is up there right now rooting for justice.

I am going to speak more about Walter Mondale next week. Senator SMITH,
Senator Grassley, and I have a resolution honoring him for his time in the Senate and for his time as Vice President, which we will be presenting next week.

NOMINATIONS OF VANITA GUPTA AND LISA O. MONACO

Mr. President, now, in the name of justice and the idea that justice must keep rolling along, I want to talk a little bit about some of the people we need in place as we look to the future, as we look to the future of police reform and the progress that you have done, as the lead on this bill, Mr. President, and the work we have to do.

To do that, we need a functioning Justice Department. We have an Attorney General who is excellent in Merrick Garland. We congratulate Lisa Monaco, who is expected to be confirmed later today with a strong bipartisan vote.

But we need more. We need the presence of true leaders in the Justice Department to see Kristen Clarke and Vanita Gupta confirmed.

Walter Mondale was someone who always raised the bar. He was someone who was ahead of his time. When he introduced housing legislation and childcare legislation, so we often heard people say: Oh, why are you doing that right now?

I think that is a little bit like the experience of these two women, ahead of their time, doing the right thing, speaking of raising the bar.

We know that when many of the women of the Senate come to the floor, something important is going on. And given the challenges our States face today, the stakes are high.

So today we make the case for Vanita Gupta and Kristen Clarke, and we address the unfair and unsubstantiated attacks we have heard from the other side of the aisle against these eminently qualified women. I have worked closely with Ms. Gupta and Ms. Clarke for many years, and I am confident they will lead the Department of Justice with honor and integrity.

Their nominations also represent the historic opportunity to make progress toward the goal of ensuring that the government looks more like the people it represents, especially at the Department of Justice. When we confirm Ms. Gupta, she will be the first civil rights lawyer and the first woman of color to serve as the Attorney General. And when we confirm Ms. Clarke, she will be the first Senate-confirmed leader of the Civil Rights Division to be a woman of color.

They will bring years of experience to bear to take on the challenges we have right now, like hate crimes, in which we are taking action this week in the Senate; like voting rights, on which we just had a hearing today in the Judiciary Committee, and in just a few weeks we will be marking up the For the People Act in the Rules Committee, which I chair.

As my State and my country are reeling after the killing of Daunte Wright, and as we await the verdict in the murder of George Floyd, we need Ms. Gupta and Ms. Clarke at the Department of Justice to take on systemic police and criminal justice reform.

They are also the leaders that Attorney General Garland wants at the Department, which I asked him about at his nomination hearing. He said Vanita Gupta and Kristen Clarke “have skills that I do not have; they have experience that I do not have.” And he said: “No human being can have all of the skills necessary to run the Justice Department and I need this leadership team if I’m going to be successful.”

Attorney General Garland, who was confirmed by a bipartisan vote of 76 to 23, needs his team to be successful. That is something all of us should want.

After what we saw during the previous administration, it is essential that the leaders of the Justice Department are committed to its independence in order to restore trust in our justice system. This is a priority for the Attorney General, and it is a priority for Vanita Gupta and Kristen Clarke.

Vanita Gupta has demonstrated her commitment to the pursuit of justice for her entire career. As an attorney for the ACLU Legal Defense and Educational Fund, she worked on the frontlines fighting in court to protect the civil rights of some of the most vulnerable people.

Later, at the American Civil Liberties Union, she represented cases on behalf of immigrant children and worked to end mass incarceration while keeping communities safe.

While serving as our country’s chief civil rights prosecutor at the Department of Justice during the Obama administration, Ms. Gupta led critical work on criminal justice reform, prosecuting hate crimes and human trafficking, defending the right to vote, and protecting the rights of the LGBTQ community and those with disabilities.

As president of the Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, the Nation’s oldest, largest, and most diverse civil and human rights coalition, Ms. Gupta has a record of fighting for all Americans with dedication and a willingness to work across ideological lines to achieve results.

Ms. Gupta’s deep experience at the Department of Justice and her years as a civil rights attorney make her eminently qualified to serve as Associate Attorney General.

And I have seen—as I know you have, Mr. President—her work firsthand. I was one of the sponsors of the FIRST STEP Act, which made much needed reforms, a bill that you spent so much leadership on. And Ms. Gupta worked with us, as she brought a broad range of organizations and experts in support of the bill to the Department of Justice and civil liberties groups.

Grover Norquist, a Republican and president of Americans for Tax Reform, who supported the FIRST STEP Act, described Ms. Gupta as “an honest broker; someone with an ability not only to understand, but also appreciate, different perspectives. She was someone who sought consensus.”

I look at what it has been through for the last year and as we wait this verdict at this moment, that is exactly the kind of person we need at the Department right now. And, if you have any lingering questions, I say to my colleagues, just take a look at the Department right now. And if you have come out in support of her nomination. Just look at them. She is the right person for the job at the right time.

Then there is Kristen Clarke, nominated to be Assistant Attorney General to lead the Civil Rights Division at the Department of Justice. Ms. Clarke has spent her entire 20-year career fighting for civil rights and equal justice under the law.

In her career, she worked as an attorney in the Criminal Section of the Civil Rights Division at the Justice Department, for the Bush Administration. She investigated and prosecuted hate crimes and human trafficking. She also worked in the Division’s voting section.

Since 2016, she has been the president and executive director of the Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, one of the country’s largest and most important civil rights organizations, dedicated to the pursuit of equal justice for all. It is important to note the history of the Lawyers’ Committee, which was created at the request of President John F. Kennedy in the summer of 1963, perhaps the defining year of the civil rights movement. This is an organization of attorneys founded to organize their peers to use their training to advance civil rights for all Americans. Isn’t that just who we want leading the Civil Rights Division at the Department of Justice?

I have worked with Ms. Clarke for many years on election issues. She testified before the Rules Committee and impressed everyone on both sides of the aisle.

At that time, she said that following the direction of many, she is going to work to ensure “that the Civil Rights Division . . . is using the tools in its arsenal”—and she said that now as she sought reconfirmed in this position, “the Voting Rights Act, the National Voter Registration Act, the Uniformed and Overseas Absentee Citizens Voting Act—to ensure that eligible Americans have access to the ballot in our country.”

She also mentioned that she was here in the Senate Chamber in 2006, when this body passed the reauthorization of the Voting Rights Act—on what vote?—98 to 0. That is why she has support from Republicans and Democrats who work on these issues.

Trevor Potter, who previously chaired the FEC as a Republican Commissioner, called Ms. Clarke “one of the foremost legal experts in the country on voting rights” and described her as “smart, honest, and deeply committed to equal justice under law.”

Tray Grayson, former Secretary of State from Kentucky, who is a Republican, also praised Ms. Gupta for her qualifications as chair of the Republican Association of Secretaries of State, sent a letter expressing his strong support of Ms. Clarke.

And we have also heard from former Assistant Attorneys General of the Civil Rights Division who served in both Republican and Democratic administrations, who wrote:

We found Ms. Clarke to be an excellent candidate from the standpoint of experience, temperament and commitment to the rule of law. She has the experience, the commitment and the passion to do this job.

By the end of the Trump administration, the Justice Department’s reputation was tarnished and the morale of its employees was lower than at any point since Watergate.

Thankfully, President Biden has named a professional, highly qualified team to lead the Justice Department and to restore its place of prominence and moral authority in following the rule of law.

It is significant that the Senate confirmed Merrick Garland as Attorney General and will shortly confirm Lisa Monaco as Deputy Attorney General with strong bipartisan support.

I am disappointed that Vanita Gupta, a similarly well-qualified nominee, is not receiving the same bipartisan support.

A few weeks ago, I sat in the Judiciary Committee for nearly 2 hours, listening to my Republican colleagues smear Ms. Gupta with lies about her record—lies like that she wants to decriminalize all drugs, that she wants to defend the police, that she is somehow responsible for the production of crystal meth in Michigan.

When Chair Durbin finally called for a vote, not a single Republican supported Ms. Gupta’s nomination. As I sat there listening to these lies and smears, I asked myself a question, and I am still pondering that question today: What exactly are Republicans afraid of?

Unlike many of President Trump’s nominees, Vanita Gupta is actually qualified to help lead the Justice Department. Throughout her career, Ms. Gupta has shown the strategic acumen, dogged determination, and coalition-building skills necessary to navigate the challenges facing our country.

As a young attorney with the ACLU, she worked to exonerate 38 wrongly convicted men and women in Tulia, TX. Mostly people of color, these individuals had been convicted of drug crimes based on the testimony of a single undercover police officer and sentenced to prison for periods of up to 434 years.

Ms. Gupta was able to show that the officer was racially biased and had a reputation for dishonesty. She demonstrated that he falsified reports and misidentified defendants. In light of this evidence, the court found that the officer “may be the most devious, non-responsive law enforcement witness I have ever encountered.”

The case was so compelling that then-Texas Governor Rick Perry pardoned 35 of the defendants. It was such a miscarriage of justice that those pardoned individuals ultimately received a $5 million settlement.

Ms. Gupta later went on to lead the Justice Department Civil Rights Division. In this role, she stood up to the rights of transgender students and prisoners, fought discrimination against service members, and defended the right to vote.

From there, Ms. Gupta served as President and CEO of the Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights where, among other things, she played a key role in passing the most significant criminal justice reform package in years.

Ms. Gupta’s qualifications are borne out by her experience and in the widespread support that she has received. Conservative leaders and longtime Republicans like Michael Chertoff, Grover Norquist, and Michael Steele have praised Ms. Gupta as a consensus builder on critical issues like voting rights and criminal justice reform.

Every major law enforcement organization, including the Fraternal Order of Police and National Sheriffs’ Association, has endorsed Ms. Gupta’s nomination.

In light of this widespread support, it is tough to take the criticisms I hear from my colleagues on the other side seriously. If Ms. Gupta supported defunding the police or decriminalizing all drugs, how did she manage to get universal support from the law enforcement community? If she is such a radical progressive, why are people like Grover Norquist and the former generals at the Bush and Trump administrations endorsing her nomination?

Republican criticism of Ms. Gupta is also hard to take seriously after they spent the past 4 years—4 years, I was there—pushing through some DOJ and judicial nominees who were either wholly unqualified, openly supported disenfranchisement of Black Americans, or were even credibly accused of sexual assault.

After 4 years of permisive deference to Donald Trump, it is rich to hear my Republican colleagues attacking and demeaning a strong, smart, and highly qualified woman of color like Vanita Gupta who serve in the Justice Department. Their attacks, in the exercise of the Senate’s constitutional duty to provide advice and consent. It is pure partisan politics at its worst.

President Biden nominated Vanita Gupta to serve as Associate Attorney General because she is the best person for the job, and the Senate should confirm her without further delay.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Hawaii.

Ms. HIRONO. Mr. President, I echo the sentiments expressed by my colleagues from Minnesota, and I rise today in strong support of Vanita Gupta to be Associate Attorney General of the United States. Today, I am focusing my remarks on Ms. Gupta, but I will have some words of support for Kristen Clarke later.

For 4 years, Donald Trump treated the Justice Department like his personal law firm. He ordered that the Department’s attorneys drop charges or reduce sentencing recommendations against his friends and cronies. He ordered investigations and prosecutions against his political enemies. He even had the Department step in to defend him against the defamation claim relating to an allegation of rape.
Donald Trump’s political appointees undermined the Department’s mission and demoralized its dedicated career civil servants through years of gross mismanagement and improper politicization. We desperately need leaders with integrity, honor, and just basic respect for the nature of the Department of Justice and empowerment of the Agency to meet the moment.

Fortunately, I am confident that both Vanita Gupta and Kristen Clarke are among the most qualified and prepared individuals to take on the daunting challenges that lie ahead.

Far too many people in this country, equal protection under the law is not a reality. All across this country, there are communities that believe—and for good reason—that the law is not on their side. Individuals fear coming forward to report that they have been a victim of a hate crime, or, even worse, law enforcement fails to identify and report racist violence and discrimination.

And the senseless killing of unarmed Black and Brown Americans at the hands of law enforcement has become an all-too-common occurrence. Just a few days ago, the country was shocked by video documenting local law enforcement officers brazenly threatening and assaulting an Army second lieutenant who was in his military uniform and simply asking to know why he had been pulled over.

If this is how the Windsor Police Department, while knowing it is being videotaped, treats an Army officer in uniform—a man who swore an oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States with his own life, if necessary—one wonders if such misconduct represents a systemic pattern or practice of abuse. This incident simply reinforces why our Nation must have a strong and proactive DOJ Civil Rights Division.

Additionally, the promise of the ADA is still not a reality for far too many Americans with disabilities. After years of disability rights being neglected or, at worst, undermined by partisan efforts, it is time for the DOJ to step up and ensure that the rights of Americans with disabilities are fully recognized, enforced, and protected.

I look forward to working with Kristen Clarke and Vanita Gupta to fulfill the promise that America made to people with disabilities, including myself, over 30 years ago.

We need Ms. Gupta and Ms. Clarke’s leadership at DOJ to energize and inspire the Department as it refocuses on its mission of ensuring the fair and impartial administration of justice for all Americans.

As a former head of the U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Division and leader of the Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, which is one of the largest civil rights organizations in the Nation, Ms. Gupta’s record shows that she is committed to advancing the rights of all Americans.

Her decades of effective leadership and advocacy are why her nomination has garnered widespread support not only from civil rights groups but also from prominent law enforcement organizations like the Fraternal Order of Police.

Likewise, Ms. Clarke is widely respected and admired as one of our country’s leading legal experts on civil rights. She has proven her effectiveness in defending the civil rights of all Americans and State officials, as well as a leader of the NAACP, and, most recently, as the president of the national Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.

Representation matters. Confirming these barrier-breaking women, who would both be the first women of color to formally occupy the positions to which they have been nominated, sends a clear message we are committed to having our Federal Government’s leadership look like the country that it serves.

There should be no doubts about these nominees qualifications for these critical DOJ leadership positions, and I urge my colleagues joining me to confirm Vanita Gupta and Kristen Clarke.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Ms. STABENOW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum be suspended.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Ms. STABENOW. Mr. President, I rise today alongside my colleagues to urge the Senate to quickly confirm Vanita Gupta as Associate Attorney General. Ms. Gupta is eminently qualified, with an impressive background in public service and broad support from civil rights organizations and law enforcement organizations. It is pretty impressive when everyone who is supporting her because of her competency and her work.

She will be effective on day one, and we don’t have a good day to lose right now. Right now, Americans are at risk of losing their fundamental rights—our right to vote, our right to be treated fairly in a court of law, and even our right to safely walk down the street and not be targeted based on what we look like, who we are. It is the job of the Department to protect these rights and so much more.

Take voting rights. Across our Nation, this right, called “sacred” by our beloved late Congressman John Lewis, is under attack. It is under attack in Michigan, as well as other States, as well as the entire country. Republicans in the Michigan Legislature are trying to push through a package of bills that would take away people’s freedom to vote. Our secretary of state has said that in some ways, it is worse than what they passed in Georgia.

Let me remind everyone that last November, in the middle of a pandemic, more people in Michigan voted than ever voted in the history of our State. When audits were done, time after time after time, it was clear there was no fraud—no fraud that they found in this election.

President, 5.5 million people in Michigan voted. Michigan counties verified it. Our State certified it. That should be something we should all celebrate. But because they didn’t like who folks voted for, they didn’t like the results, Michigan Republicans are considering Michigan voters to take away their freedom to vote.

Michigan voters need Vanita Gupta in their corner because it is a corner that she has been in before. During her time at the Department of Justice, she oversaw a number of high-profile voting rights cases, including challenges to voter suppression laws in North Carolina and Texas.

She has also been a leader in fighting discrimination. Across the country, we have seen increases in hate crimes, particularly those targeting Asian Americans. According to the group Stop AAPI Hate, there have been about 3,800 incidents of Asian Americans being targeted in the past year.

Twenty-five of those incidents happened in Michigan. I know that Asian Americans across our country are living in fear right now, wondering if it is safe to go to the grocery store or if they need to tell their elderly mom or dad not to walk alone outside.

We have an important hate crimes bill on the floor of the U.S. Senate right now. It has bipartisan support. It is terrific, and we need to get that passed. But in order to make sure we fully implement that and have the leadership in the Department to do that, we need to make sure Vanita Gupta is confirmed. Under Ms. Gupta, hate crimes and discrimination will be taken seriously at the Department of Justice.

I urge my colleagues to support her nomination and to confirm her together on the floor of the U.S. Senate. I yield the floor.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I understand a couple of my colleagues are on the way, I will defer to them when they arrive. But I want to thank, first, Senator Stabenow for her statement about Vanita Gupta.
This is an extraordinary person. The Presiding Officer, as a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee, was there for her testimony and knows her personally, and I have come to know her. When you read and learn of her personal story, it is amazing, nothing short of amazing.

She was 6 months graduated from law school when she was sent down to Texas, a town called Tulia, TX, to tackle an assignment that a veteran civil rights lawyer would have thought twice about tackling. There was a group of over 30 African Americans who had been falsely accused of drug dealing and convicted and were imprisoned when she was sent down there to try to do something after their conviction. It is an incredible story, the courage she showed 6 months out of law school, and she ultimately was successful. Those African Americans and others were pardoned by the Republican Governor of Texas, Governor Perry. They were given award for damages they had suffered as a result of it.

Her commitment to civil rights is more than just a cerebral commitment; it is a commitment where she has risked many times her personal safety to show to how much she cared for the rights of others.

Thank you for saying those kind words about her. I am hoping that the Senate will give her a chance to continue to serve our Nation.

LISA MONACO

Mr. President, I would like to speak now, if I can, to a vote that is coming up momentarily, and that is the vote for Lisa Monaco to be the next Deputy Attorney General. The Deputy Attorney General—commonly known as the DAG—is the second highest ranking official in the Justice Department. The DAG is effectively the DOJ’s chief operating officer, overseeing the Department’s day-to-day operations.

Lisa Monaco may be the most qualified individual ever nominated to be Deputy Attorney General. That is saying something, but I think we can back it up. Her credentials include a wealth of experience, her commitment to restoring independence and integrity at the Justice Department, and the broad, broad range of support she has garnered.

Let me begin with her experience. She has served at nearly every level of the Justice Department. She knows that Agency, and she knows what it can do. She was an assistant U.S. attorney, counselor and chief of staff to the Director of the FBI, Associate Deputy Attorney General, Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General, and the Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division.

She is also one of the Nation’s foremost national security experts. That is when I first met her, working in the Obama White House. As President Obama’s Deputy National Security Advisor, Ms. Monaco coordinated the Federal Government’s response to major security threats, including pandemics, terrorism, mass shootings, and cyber attacks.

Our Nation is facing serious challenges today: the COVID-19 pandemic; a gun violence pandemic; a surge in hate crimes; domestic violence extremism, which culminated in an assault on the U.S. Capitol and this very Chamber just a few short weeks ago; and global threats and challenges from Russia, China, and elsewhere. Ms. Monaco’s experience responding to security challenges and building that kind of support, and overseeing DOJ’s operations at this critical moment in history.

But it is not only Ms. Monaco’s national security expertise that makes her the right person for this role. After President Trump used the Justice Department to serve his own personal and political agenda, we need to restore a well-functioning, independent Department, committed to the principle of equal justice under the law. It is just that basic.

Ms. Monaco understands the importance of protecting DOJ’s independence. She has praised two of her mentors, Attorney General Janet Reno and FBI Director Bob Mueller, for their “reverence for the institution, for upholding the norms and traditions of independence and of doing justice without fear or favor, and never, ever, letting politics or partisanship influence an investigation or prosecution decision.”

She committed to me that she would have the same reverence. That is precisely the attitude we need to restore the Justice Department’s integrity.

It is no surprise, then, that individuals from across the political spectrum support Ms. Monaco’s nomination. The Judiciary Committee received scores of letters from a broad range of advocacy groups: the Alliance for Justice, gun safety organizations, law enforcement groups, environmental organizations, victims and survivors of crime, and so many more.

We also received a letter supporting Ms. Monaco’s nomination from 29 former senior DOJ officials who have served under Presidents of both parties, including Attorneys General Lorett Lynch and Eric Holder, who served in the Obama administration, and Attorneys General Michael Mukasey and Alberto Gonzales, who served in the George W. Bush administration. She has that kind of bipartisan support.

Those DOJ officials wrote of Ms. Monaco: “She has the values, temperament and strength to perform at the highest level of the Department.”

They went on to say: “Each of us knows how demanding this job is, with its extraordinary span of control and the need for strong principled leadership. We believe that Ms. Monaco is highly qualified for this role. She knows the Department from every angle. She understands the job. And she has prepared well for it. We urge her confirmation.”

Attorney General Garland has praised Ms. Monaco’s selection as the next Deputy Attorney General. He told us in the Judiciary Committee that he needed her on his leadership team at the Department, and so does the Nation. I look forward to voting for Ms. Monaco and supporting all of my colleagues to do the same.

ANNIVERSARY OF OKLAHOMA CITY BOMBING

Mr. President, it was an idyllic spring morning in Oklahoma City 26 years ago. Downtown, the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building was choked with activity as people went about their morning routines. Parents dropped off their children at the daycare center on the second floor, office workers sat at their desks, with fresh mugs of coffee in hand—and parked under the building was a truck containing nearly 7,000 pounds of explosive materials.

At 9:02, the truck exploded, killing more than 165 people and injuring hundreds more. Oklahoma City and America would be forever scarred by the bombing. It was the deadliest act of homegrown terrorism in modern American history. For most people, that day—April 19, 1995—is a somber day in our history, but for some, it was an opening salvo in a war against America.

More than a quarter century after the Oklahoma City bombing, the threat of violent extremism looms larger than ever before. Recently, the Department of Homeland Security warned that violent, white supremacy is now the “most persistent and lethal threat in the homeland.”

Among the hundreds of Americans arrested for suspected ties to violent White supremacy in recent years, a common theme has emerged: The FBI has uncovered references to Timothy McVeigh and his attack on Oklahoma City in “several” of these investigations. In the eyes of far-right extremists, McVeigh’s attack on Oklahoma City is a lodestar, and like McVeigh, many of the violent extremists active today are motivated by baseless, anti-government conspiracy theories, conspiracy theories like the “Big Lie,” which inspired a mob of extremists to storm the Capitol on January 6.

More than 400 people are facing Federal charges for their involvement in the January 6 insurrection. Last week, we received word of the first guilty verdict in that case. It was a who has agreed to fully cooperate with the Federal Government, is a founding member of the Oath Keepers, a far-right extremist group that helped plot the insurrection.

The defendant’s affiliation with the Oath Keepers highlights an important distinction between the extremists of yesterday, like Timothy McVeigh, and the extremists of today. Today, violent White supremacists are not only peddling debunked conspiracy theories or spreading baseless claims; they are organizing online, on radical platforms like 8chan and Parler, and coordinating attacks under the cover of anonymity.
Worse yet, these radicals have easy access to high-grade military weapons designed for one purpose: human slaughter.

The extremists of today are galvanized. They are organized. And they are using our law enforcement officials and intelligence agencies with new, modernized resources to combat the growing threat of violent White supremacy.

There are a number of steps we can take to weed out the threat of domestic terrorism. This week, the Senate is considering one such step: the COVID-19 Hate Crimes Act. It would direct Federal resources toward addressing the rise in hate crimes against members of the Asian-American and Pacific Islander, API, community. This legislation must be passed immediately.

Nearly 3,800 hate incidents against members of the API community have been reported between March of last year and February of this year.

We also will consider Senator BLUMENTHAL and Senator MORAN’S NO HATE Act, which has been added as an amendment to the bill to improve hate crimes reporting. In addition to that legislation, there are many other proactive steps we can take to address the broader threat of domestic terrorism. In March, I reintroduced the Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act. It will enhance the Federal Government’s ability to track and dismantle terrorist organizations. By establishing dedicated offices to combat domestic terrorism at the Department of Justice, the FBI, and the Department of Homeland Security, the Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act will bring the Federal Government’s efforts to weed out violent White supremacy into the 21st century.

Congress must also take steps to limit access to the weapons of war favored by violent extremists. This is a no-brainer. The House recently passed a bipartisan bill to close existing legal gaps in the background checks system. I certainly hope we can find 10 Republican votes to overcome a filibuster and get that signed into law. Let me be clear: Background checks are table stakes for combatting the public health crisis that is gun violence in America. We are just 4 months into 2021, and already there have been more than 150 mass shootings in our country.

It is time to put politics aside and save American lives.

As chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee, I was honored to gavel in the confirmation hearing for the man who led the government’s investigation into the Oklahoma City bombing: Attorney General Garland. Yesterday, with a slightly greyer head of hair and the full authority of the Justice Department behind him, Attorney General Garland returned to the site of the bombing. He promised the residents of Oklahoma City that “the Department of Justice is pouring its resources into stopping domestic violent extremists before they can attack... prosecuting those who do... and battling the spread of the kind of hate that leads to tragedies like the one we mark here today.”

The question for us here in the Senate is, Will we help Attorney General Garland lead the charge against the largest threat we face today? Will we work together to save future lives against attacks like the Oklahoma City bombing?

In Attorney General Garland, we have a leader who is committed to combating domestic terrorism. Are there enough leaders in the Senate who are willing to do the same? I sure hope so. I hope they will join me in taking immediate, meaningful action to combat the crisis of violent extremism.

I yield the floor.

Mr. DURBIN. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

NOMINATIONS OF VANITA GUPTA AND KRISTEN CLARKE

Ms. CANTWELL. Mr. President, I come to the floor this afternoon to support the nominations of Vanita Gupta and Kristen Clarke to serve in the lead- ership of the U.S. Department of Justice, and I am here, Mr. President, to say that just because you are pro-civil rights does not mean that you are somehow anti-police. To be for a Department of Justice that will help us make the right decisions in enforcing civil rights laws around the United States is what is at stake with these nominations. I personally am tired of the challenges that we have faced at home when we do not have people being held accountable. And the last administration said, instead of playing our role on consent decrees and making sure federal civil rights laws are enforced, instead they said, “We’re going to stop playing that role.”

So it is so important that we get a Department of Justice that will fight for the civil rights and civil liberties of all Americans. Both these women are highly qualified. They have defended our Constitution. They have defended the civil rights of all Americans, and they will ensure that everyone, including the police, are held accountable.

We have probably heard this afternoon my colleagues praising Vanita Gupta and supporting her to serve as Associate Attorney General, the third highest position in the U.S. Department of Justice. She is very qualified for the position. She will be the first civil rights lawyer and woman of color to serve in that role. She led the Civil Rights Division during the Obama ad- ministration and previously served as an attorney with the American Civil Liberties Union. When it came to en-believe she deserves the support of our colleagues.

In a letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee, the Fraternal Order of Police described Ms. Gupta as one who “always worked with us to find common ground even when that seemed impossible.” So it is clear that she has the support of police. So we need someone like her who is going to bring back this important role of oversight to these important issues.

Ms. Clarke is the same. She is nominated to head the Civil Rights Division where she once worked as a trial lawyer. She previously codirected the voting rights work of the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund, led the Civil Rights Bureau in the New York State Attorney General’s office, and has served as the president of the Lawyers Committee on Civil Rights Under the Law. I have called her; I have interviewed her. Why? Because I am tired of the violence and hate crimes in the State of Washington. I am tired of hearing, time and time again, about these issues. And it can be the synagogue in Spokane, where literally somebody spray-painted it. And you would think, Well, how are we going to find the spray-painted a swastika on a synagogue in Spokane? You think. How are we going to find that person? Okay. Not a lot of trouble because people actually said, We did it purposely because we are an organization who believes in this. And we wanted to get our message out. That is what we’re facing.

And several years ago, we found a bomb planted in the Martin Luther King Day Parade in Spokane, just a few years ago. So these aren’t issues that we are sending somebody over to the Department of Justice to analyze and write a report on. We are asking people to help us with the situation in the United States of America to fight hate crimes and to bring about justice on the civil rights and civil liberties of all Americans. And so we have to have people that we have confidence that they are going to uphold our laws and enforce them.

We need to have consent decrees to hold police departments accountable for systematic violations of constitutional rights. We need to defend voting rights and to make sure that hate crimes against Asian-American and Pacific Islanders are prosecuted. And so this nomination of Ms. Clarke is so important. I ask my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, if you are facing any of this in your State, please get Kristen Clarke to be there to help us address these issues.

Advocating for increased investment in mental health and social work and school resources for minority communities is something that law enforcement agrees with. They agree that we should do these things. So that is not defunding the police, yet people accuse Kristen Clarke of the same thing. She must be for defunding the police. I have talked to prosecutors throughout the State of Washington, and they will tell me that these programs that help families and communities identify these problems early are actually the best things to keep them from having to really have problems later. I certainly hope that some of the false claims that people have made about Ms. Clarke being anti-police are also continued to be struck down as untrue.

Ms. Clarke understands law enforcement must collaborate with the State, local, and Federal level. She has a solid record of working cooperatively with law enforcement for decades. She is supported by the Major Cities Chief Association, the National Association of Black Law Executives, a bipartisan group of over 70 former State attorneys general, and more than 40 police chiefs and sheriffs throughout the United States. That can’t be somebody who sounds anti-law enforcement. They have the support of law enforcement.

What we need is the support of our colleagues to say that these are serious issues and the Federal Government does play a role. That is why it is called the Department of Justice, and that is why they oversee and make sure that the civil liberties of all Americans are upheld. As attorney general and at the Lawyers Committee, Ms. Clarke played a key role in launching a Religious Rights Initiative to address faith-based discrimination to fight anti-Semitic activities. When Ms. Clarke led the Lawyers Committee, she led the charge in shutting down abhorrent anti-Semitic websites that made racist comments. Some were in connection with stormfront.org, which was a central site used to organize the 2017 Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville.

She recognized that online hate is an emerging threat and that Congress must address that threat. After seeing what happened on January 6 and the plethora of anti-Semitic paraphernalia presented here even in the Capitol as we saw riots, Ms. Clarke’s expertise and dedication to fighting online hate would be extremely beneficial to the Department and to all Americans. So I implore my colleagues, these are strong women, great qualifications, have been in the mix on these policy issues for a long time. They know what we are up against. We have to ask ourselves, Are we going to enforce the law? These women will enforce the law, and they have the support of law enforcement. We should proceed and confirm both of them. I yield the floor.

DEFENSE BUDGET

Mr. INHOFE. Mr. President, last week—no, it wasn’t last week; it was about 3 weeks ago, I guess, now. President Biden released his "skinny budget," which gave us a top-line for defense of $715 billion. This is a reduction, and I want to make sure everyone understands this because the cut is actually below inflation, and that is not where we are supposed to be.

You know, we have this document here that everyone agrees with. I don’t know one person—and this was written by six Democrats, six Republicans, and this was in 2018. This has been used as our blueprint ever since that time, and it is just remarkable the way it has become reality. And I want to make sure everyone understands this because this is what the real spending is, not what a lot of people think that it is. All of this is to say, we don’t have a good sense of China’s true defense spending, but we do know it is going up.

General McMaster called it “the largest peacetime military buildup in history.” That is what General McMaster said just the other day at one of our hearings. It is not just expanding their military; they are modernizing and professionalizing at the same time.

Secretary Austin, our Secretary of Defense, rightfully, calls China our “pace threat.” But here are a few of the ways that they have been outpacing us because they are investing where we are not investing. The American people think we are, but we are not.

China has a 355-ship Navy. You know, we were just talking about that for a long period of time here—how we are going to grow to a 350-ship Navy, and we haven’t done it. Well, China has done it. They have achieved that last year. And while we were just talking about it, they were on the attack to get two ships by 2030.

By comparison, our Navy is around 300 ships, and it is likely to stay there if our defense budget doesn’t grow.

In the air, the combatant commanders assuage that China will have more fifth-generation aircraft than we do in the Pacific by 2025, again, the fifth-generation aircraft. We are down right now to the F-35. There are not any others. We had the F-22. The F-22 was our first fifth-generation fighter, and it was one that we were all very excited about. They started out wanting 700 of them, and we ended up with 187, just for fiscal reasons. Again, that is where China is right now. That gets worse. We have a flat or declining budget here.

China is expanding its arsenal too. The Pentagon’s missile experts tell us that China is now over 350 launchers for medium-range ballistic missiles, which could hit Oahu or hitting Guam and striking the U.S. warships in the Pacific.

They have produced exact copies of our bases, our ships, and our aircraft to serve as targets. And they are out there right now shooting those targets. That is us. That is America, and they are shooting on the replicas of our equipment to show that they can down them. By the way, they hit those targets successfully. I might add. And that is a worry.

They also have thousands of short-range missiles. Many of those are going right at Taiwan. China is also dubbing its nuclear stockpile and completing their own nuclear triad. That is something only this country, that we have a triad; that is, three ways of deflecting nuclear attacks on America.

So that is what is going on right now. China’s military is charging ahead in just about every area. It is not the people who don’t think China is a problem—they say that none of the Chinese weapons are as good as ours. Well, that was true in 1990. That was true in the year 2000. That is not true anymore.

The Office of Naval Intelligence said in 2015 that China’s latest surface warships were comparable in many ways to the most modern Western ships. China has deployed thousands of ground-base missiles. We are still developing ours. They have fielded hypersonic strike weapons. We are still in the research and development.

You might remember, because we saw that, the parade that was taking place in Beijing. They were demonstrating that they have these weapons that we don’t have. And that was invested a year ago.

Just last month, the National Security Commission on Artificial Intelligence assessed that the China rate of investment is so soon 60 people we in artificial intelligence unless we do something different than we are currently doing.

And while the Chinese will spend almost $50 billion on tech infrastructure over the next few years, national security infrastructure is apparently the only thing that President Biden doesn’t consider infrastructure.

Not only is China spending more on its military, but it has the tools to beat us. Don’t take my word for it. The bipartisanship NDS—again, this is the document that we have been using, and it has been remarkably accurate, since 2018. That NDS Commission said, right in this book, the U.S. military might struggle to win or perhaps lose a war against China or Russia. That is what they said in 2018. And China has been going up ever since.

Admiral Davidson told us the other week—only 2 weeks ago—that there is no question that the United States would win a future conflict with China.

China’s military buildup isn’t just investment for the sake of it; they are already flexing their new muscle to challenge not just American allies and American interests. And the PLA has deployed missiles, radars, stealth jet fighters, and bombers to islands in the South China Sea, claiming and militarizing islands in violation of international law.

Just last year, the PLA fired anti-ship ballistic missiles into the South China Sea, clearly practicing to target U.S. Navy ships in the area. And that is what they are doing today. Those are China’s latest hypersonic missiles. We are still developing ours. They have fielded hypersonic strike weapons. We are still in the research and development.

The Office of Naval Intelligence said back in 2015 that China’s latest surface warships were comparable in many ways to the most modern Western ships. China has deployed thousands of ground-base missiles. We are still developing ours. They have fielded hypersonic strike weapons. We are still in the research and development.

China has just completed a new satellite constellation over Taiwan that allows for almost constant coverage of the island, the highest known frequency of satellite coverage in the world.

A few weeks ago, Taiwan reported the invasion of over Chinese incursion when 25 combat aircraft flew into its airspace. And as the cochair of the Taiwan Caucus, this is of specific concern to me. Some people have forgotten that aggression by nation states is not a thing of the past. People have forgotten how costly it is when deterrence fails. That is why I am arguing for sustained real growth in the defense budget. We know it is necessary. We know that it is attainable because the burden of defense spending on the economy today is half what it was at the height of the Cold War.

The Biden administration is trying to tell us that we can invest in economic and technological competition or the military competition. That is a false choice. We have to do the military.

The reality is, the Chinese are engaged in every dimension of this competition, especially the military dimension, and they are not going to stop anytime soon.

I would have to say, do we really want to be there for our allies or partners? Do we want our children and grandchildren to grow up in a world where our status of leader of the free world is in name only?

You know, my wife and I have been married for 61 years. We have 20 kids and grandkids so I have a stake in the outcome. Don’t we want, this kids, to grow up in a world where China—the same country that is committing genocide against the Uighurs, silencing free speech, and jailing activists in Hong Kong—gets to set the rules of international engagement?

This isn’t a hypothetical question. That is a question that we are answering each year when we set our military budget, and, frankly, I am disappointed in how the current administration is answering that call.

We have to be prepared to take on China from all angles of national power. And this begins with adequate resourcing of our U.S. military with real growth in the defense budget.

It is kind of a myth floating around. I know every single I have a speech someplace in the State of Oklahoma or elsewhere, there is a kind of an assumption that we in the United States really do have the best of everything. Following World War II, that was true, but that isn’t true today. And if America chooses to sit on the sidelines in this competition, and we ask our allies and partners to face China alone, the failure or deterrence becomes more likely. And that is an outcome that nobody there or here wants.

With that, I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. DAINES. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ELECTION INTEGRITY

Mr. DAINES. Mr. President, it wasn’t enough for Democrats like Stacey Abrams and President Biden to lie about the new Georgia voting law. Now, today, CHUCK SCHUMER is sending his lawyers to swarm Montana courtrooms and has taken to the Senate floor with more distortion.

This time, it is about Montana’s new voting laws.

I have a message for Leader SCHUMER and the Democrats who are trying to distort the facts and the will of Montana voters: Please get your facts straight. In Montana we are putting in place some commonsense reforms that enjoy the strong support of Montanans. Why is the leader so determined to strike down commonsense efforts to provide integrity and transparency to our elections?

Let’s talk about voter ID. A majority of Americans support needing a photo ID to cast a ballot. According to the Honest Elections Project, 77 percent of Americans support needing a photo ID to vote? to vote—77 percent. Why? Because it is common sense and because you need a photo ID to do many tasks, some quite mundane. You need a photo ID to get a hunting or fishing license. You need a photo ID to rent a hotel room, to drive a car, to rent a car, to get on an airplane, to pick up tickets at will call. If these simple tasks require a valid ID, shouldn’t protecting the integrity of America’s election process require at least the same? This isn’t the first time Leader SCHUMER and his Democratic colleagues have tried to stick their nose into Montana’s business and tried to overturn the will of Montana voters. In fact, this past election, dark money groups backed by Chuck Schumer pushed to loosen election standards, such as ballot harvesting, in Montana, and they won. This is despite the fact that nearly two-thirds of Montana voters passed a law to prohibit ballot harvesting.

Two-thirds of Montana voters passed a law to prohibit ballot harvesting. This is despite the fact that nearly two-thirds of Montana voters passed a law to prohibit ballot harvesting. Yet just like the election officials who stood up to conspiracy theories about claims of fraud in the 2020 election; Trump’s utterly unsubstantiated claims of fraud in the 2020 election; and his cronies, defended religious freedom, and protected Americans’ fundamental right to vote.

They want to trust their elections. Yet law to prohibit ballot harvesting. Two-thirds of Montana voters passed a law to prohibit ballot harvesting. This is despite the fact that nearly two-thirds of Montana voters passed a law to prohibit ballot harvesting.

President Obama recognized her leadership by making her the top civil rights official at the Department of Justice, where she protected service-members from eviction, cracked down on bar associations, and sex traffickers, defended religious freedom, and protected Americans’ fundamental right to vote. Over the past 4 years, Ms. Gupta has led the largest civil rights organization in America, where she has been at the forefront of efforts to reform our criminal justice system, strengthen our democracy, and make sure COVID relief reaches those who need it most.

That is her record. This is an outstanding record. I think my colleagues on the other side of the aisle know that it is an outstanding record because they don’t want to contend with her record. They don’t want to contest her record. They can’t defeat her nomination. They just need to use talking points that aren’t true. I heard the junior Senator from Texas say Ms. Gupta’s record “is that of an extreme partisan ideologue.” He called her an “extreme political activist.” He called her “rabid,” “radical,” and “zealot,” and that all she has done her entire career is uphold the rule of law and defend our democracy, just like the 60 judges, many of them confirmed by Republican colleagues, who rejected President Trump’s utterly unsubstantiated claims of fraud in the 2020 election; just like the election officials who stood up to conspiracy theories about the election at great risk to themselves and to their careers, who were all undetermined by powerful Members of Congress who sought to overturn the will of the voters for their own power.

I also heard the junior Senator from Texas say Ms. Gupta’s beliefs “don’t align with the majority of the American people.” I am willing to bet every single dollar in my pocket that most Americans are quite aligned with Ms. Gupta’s views.

Most Americans are very interested in having a Department of Justice that protects the right to vote, that keeps families together and kids out of prison-like conditions, to make sure that LGBT sons and daughters and neighbors can live free from discrimination. I will tell you one other thing. Unlike some people around this place, Ms. Gupta actually has a record of reaching across the aisle to get things done. She worked with Grover Norquist and the top lawyer for the Koch brothers to pass criminal justice reform. It is why they both endorsed her, along with President Biden, former Secretary of Homeland Security, and virtually every major law enforcement organization in America, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the National Sheriffs’ Association, the Major County Sheriffs of America, and the Major Cities Chiefs Association.

So it is hard to take seriously all this talk on the other side about how Ms. Gupta wants to “defund the police.” She has never supported that. When someone asked the head of the Fraternity of Police what he thought about these attacks, he called it “partisan demagoguery.” And that is exactly what it is, and he is right. There isn’t a serious debate about her record. It is a political campaign to defeat her nomination. The American people see through it, and I hope my colleagues will see through it as well. We should be lucky to have someone with Ms. Gupta’s experience and leadership at the Department of Justice.

Many years ago, I had the privilege to work at the Department, and I know how seriously the men and women there take their jobs. How grateful they would be to serve alongside someone as talented and committed to the mission as Ms. Gupta. It is why I believe tomorrow we should come to this floor and give her a reounding bipartisan vote to confirm her as the next Associate Attorney General of the United States. I urge all of my colleagues to put aside the rhetoric and the false claims. Look at the record for what it is. The police organizations have supported her. And vote yes for her nomination. I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum. The PRESIDING OFFICER (Ms. Harris). The clerk will close the record.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

MORNING BUSINESS

HONORING STATE PATROL SERGEANT JIM SMITH

Mr. GRASSLEY. Madam President, on April 13, I delivered remarks on the Senate Floor to share my condolences for Iowa State Patrol Sergeant Jim Smith, who lost his life in the line of duty. I was honored to attend Sergeant Smith’s funeral on April 16 in Independence. Jim Smith was revered as a man of strong convictions, love of family, and the proved fact rule XXII of the Senate柏 Colonel Nathan Fulk gave the following eulogy in honor of Sergeant Smith. I ask unanimous consent that the eulogy be printed in the RECORD.
TRIBUTE TO JOHN SHEPHER

Mrs. CAPITO. Madam President, I rise today to honor John Shepler, an outstanding public servant who has served both my office and the citizens of West Virginia well in his 21-year career with the Internal Revenue Service. John is retiring from his position as taxpayer advocate in order to spend more time with his family and enjoy the next stage of his life.

During his 10 years as taxpayer advocate, John was a valuable resource to my office and West Virginia’s citizens. He was well informed, quick to respond, and straightforward in his dealings as he advocated on behalf of his clients. He was a dedicated employee, fully committed to his many responsibilities. He was a pleasure to work with, and my staff were always confident that John was providing top-level service, regardless of the issue.

John also served his country through his military service with the U.S. Air Force, serving 6 years as a missile operator. John is the proud parent of daughter Stephanie Sorensen Klein, a son, younger brother, and friend gone too soon. Austin Sorensen Klein, a son, younger brother, and friend gone too soon. Austin loved to sing. He was known throughout the Overland Park community as a vocal talent. After winning the 2015 KC Superstar competition, he went on to pursue music through the men’s glee club at the University of Notre Dame and then the a cappella group at the University of Texas-Austin. Anyone who knew Austin and heard him sing will remember his sonorous voice and how his joy for music was contagious.

Austin was a kind, intelligent, patient young man who loved to learn and loved even more to make people laugh. He was a reader and, in many ways, a budding philosopher. Austin enjoyed traveling with his close family; they hiked the Black Hills and Yellowstone, toured Disney World and Washington, DC, and explored Europe, Australia, and New Zealand together. I knew a lot of people who are dear friends to me and Senator Thune, and his brothers Kevin and Keith will treasure these memories forever. Our community hurts with them as they navigate life without their beloved son and brother and I, as well as with his favorite pastimes: hunting deer and turkey, fishing, and camping.

I would like to thank John for his service and wish him well in his next phase of life. My staff will miss working with him at the IRS, but we are all happy that we had him as long as we did to provide excellent service to the citizens of West Virginia. Good Luck, John. Thank you again for your commitment to our State.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS

The following petitions and memorials were laid before the Senate and were referred or ordered to lie on the table as indicated:

POM–6. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of Maine urging the Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service to include certain nonfood essentials in the supplemental nutrition assistance program; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

SENATE PAPER 312

Whereas, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, or SNAP, is a federally governed and funded program under the United States Department of Agriculture,
Food and Nutrition Service with shared administration and oversight; and

Whereas, SNAP currently provides nutrition benefits to supplement the food budget of qualifying recipients so they can purchase healthy food but fails to account for nonfood essentials, including toilet paper, soap, deodorant, toothpaste and menstrual products;
and

Whereas, toilet paper, soap, deodorant, toothpaste and menstrual products are essential items needed for human dignity;
and

Whereas, in some cases, additional support is needed for those nonfood essentials; and

Whereas, a person who does not have access to nonfood essentials, especially menstrual products and toilet paper, may be forced to use inappropriate and unsafe alteratives, thereby putting that person’s health and the health of the person’s reproductive system at risk; and

Whereas, a person without access to nonfood essentials, especially menstrual products and toilet paper, may be forced to participate in the search for employment or many other activities due to the risk of emarrassment such as from odors or bleeding through their clothing; and

Whereas, a person who lives in an abusive situation has an increased likelihood of having difficulty accessing menstrual products and other nonfood essentials; and

Whereas, it is a matter of human justice and dignity for recipients of SNAP benefits to be granted the authority to determine what essentials they most need; and

Whereas, the residents of this State who qualify for SNAP benefits have essential needs beyond food and should therefore be granted the dignity to select how to expend their SNAP benefits based upon their essential needs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, your Memorialists, respectfully urge and request that the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service enter into rulemaking to amend the stated goal of SNAP to "raising the level of nutrition and essential-need stability among low-income households and maintaining adequate levels of nutrition and nonfood-essentials supplies by increasing the food and nonfood-essentials purchasing power of low-income families"; and be it further

Resolved, That We, your Memorialists, respectively urge and request that the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service enter into rulemaking to tackle the new SNAP reform proposal which includes the following nonfood essentials for recipient purchase: toilet paper, soap, deodorant, toothpaste and menstrual products, including but not limited to tampons, pads, liners and reusable cups, underwear and shields; and be it further

Resolved, That suitable copies of this reso-dution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to the Honorable
Joseph R. Biden, President of the United States, for consideration in the federal budget process; to the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service; to the Nutrition Service Administrator, United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service; to the Food and Nutrition Service Associate Administrator of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service; to the Northeast Regional Office of the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service; to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States; to each Member of the Maine Congressional Delegation; and to the United States Department of Agriculture,
Food and Nutrition Service; to the Northwest Regional Office of the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service; to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States; to the President of the United States Senate; to the Governor of the State of Maine; and to each Member of the Maine Congressional Delegation.

POM–7. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of Maine urging the United States Congress and the President of the United States to eliminate the Windfall Elimination Provision that penalizes Maine state retirees; to the Committee on Finance.

SENATE PAPER 332

Whereas, under current federal law, individuals who receive a Social Security ben-fit and whose retirement is derived from employment not covered under Social Secu-ritv are subject to a reduction in the Social Security benefits; and

Whereas, a reduction in Social Security benefits contained in the federal Social Security Act, 42 United States Code, Chapter 7, Subchapter II, Federal Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability
Insurance Benefits, and the Federal Government Pension Offset and the Windfall Elimination Provision, greatly affect public employees, particularly women; and

Whereas, the Windfall Elimination Provi-

Resolved, That suitable copies of this reso-dution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to the Honorable
Joseph R. Biden, President of the United States; the President of the United States
Senate; the Speaker of the United States
House of Representatives; and each Member of the Maine Congressional Delegation.

Whereas, the American Society of Civil Engineers states in its 2017 Report Card that the United States received a grade of D+ regarding the current state of infrastructure and that more than $4.5 trillion would be needed to restore the nation’s infrastructure to a state of good repair, over $2 trillion in infrastructure projects is currently not funded by the Federal Government and the remainder of infrastructure projects is inadequately funded; and

Whereas, the Maine Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers gave the State a grade of C – in 2020, including dams,
D+; hazardous waste, D+; roads, D; transit,
D+; wastewater, D+; and

Whereas, the state highway system projects a drastic funding shortfall due to particularly burdensome on the finances of low-income and moderate-income public service workers, such as school teachers, clerical workers and school cafeteria employees whose grants are low to start; and

Whereas, the Government Pension Offset and the Windfall Elimination Provision both unfairly reduce benefits for those public employees and their spouses whose careers cross the line between the private and public sectors; and

Whereas, since many lower-paying public service jobs are held by women, both the Government Pension Offset and the Windfall Elimination Provision have a disproportionate adverse effect on women’s retirement prospects; and

Resolved, That the State and local governments is needed to make up for the reductions imposed at the federal level; and

Resolved, That we, your Memorialists, respectively urge and request that the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States work together to support reform proposals that include the following protections for low-income and moderate-income government retirees:

1. Protections permitting retention of a combined public pension and Social Security benefit with no applied reductions;

2. Protections permanently ensuring that level of benefit by indexing it to inflation;
and

3. Protections ensuring that no current re-ipient’s benefit is reduced by the reform legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That suitable copies of this reso-dution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to the Honorable
Joseph R. Biden, President of the United States; the President of the United States
Senate; the Speaker of the United States
House of Representatives; and each Member of the Maine Congressional Delegation.
the pandemic related to coronavirus disease 2019 and preexisting financial deficits; drivers in the State spend over $1 billion per year in vehicle operating costs, congestion and crashes, and has the highest highway fatality rate in New England; and the State has 1,073 dams with an average age of over 100 years, and a minimum of $269 million in needed to maintain dam infrastructure; and

Whereas, a new National Infrastructure Bank and the United States Congress introduced H.R. 6422, “National Infrastructure Bank Act of 2020,” which would create a $4 trillion investment fund to help finance infrastructure needs and hire millions who have lost their jobs during the pandemic, putting them into higher-paying infrastructure and related jobs; and

Whereas, the new National Infrastructure Bank is modeled on previous successful, similar institutions that built much of the nation’s infrastructure, and under United States Presidents George Washington, James Madison, Abraham Lincoln and Franklin D. Roosevelt, by directly helping fund all of these projects, and the United States Congress introduced H.R. 6422, “National Infrastructure Bank Act of 2020,” which would create a $4 trillion investment fund to help finance infrastructure needs and hire millions who have lost their jobs during the pandemic, putting them into higher-paying infrastructure and related jobs; and

While the COVID-19 pandemic has had a dramatic impact on schools, students, and teachers across the country. Schools have needed to make significant investments to first ensure all students had equal access to remote learning and then to ensure schools could provide a safe learning environment for students returning to in-person learning; and

Whereas, Congress has approved emergency relief funding to assist schools in addressing impacts from COVID-19 pandemic. Under the recent Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021, the state of Michigan will receive more than $1.65 billion. The distribution of these funds to local schools, while Congress continues to debate providing even more emergency funding for schools; and

Whereas, The current federal formula for distributing emergency relief funding has led to large discrepancies in how much schools receive per pupil. The Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund (ESSER II Fund), and the earlier ESSER I fund, must be allocated to schools based on the Title I, Part A under Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. This complicated formula based on the number of disadvantaged and low-income students is estimated that some school districts in Michigan could receive as little as $51 per pupil while other districts could receive more than $18,481 per pupil in addition to their foundation allowance; and

Whereas, The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted school systems across the state with unprecedented and impossible to plan for expenses. All school systems have needed to invest in technology and equipment to ensure Michigan’s children could continue to learn virtually, and many school districts have purchased a safe learning environment for students and teachers in the classroom. Schools with more disadvantaged and low-income students have had additional challenges in creating remote and safe in-person learning environments. However, the Title I, Part A formula is an imperfect and inadequate solution that has led to an absurd inequity in distribution of emergency relief funds; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to change the formula for distributing coronavirus emergency relief funds for schools to allow states to distribute funds on a more equitable basis; and

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the President of the United States House of Representatives and each Member of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives of each Member of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives, and the Michigan congressional delegation.

POM-10. A concurrent resolution adopted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio urging the federal government to increase the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance programs’ security measures in light of recent developments, both internationally and domestically; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

Whereas, the 92nd Congress of the United States Session of the Senate passed, and the President signed, on June 4, 1972, the Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Congress thereby requested the legislatures of the States to consider ratification of the amendment. The thirty-seventh Congress of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and each Member of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and the Michigan congressional delegation.
 Whereas, While we are in an unprecedented pandemic, and there is great need for expediency when processing unemployment claims, there must be some form of security check to prevent claims from being made in our constituents’ names without their knowledge or consent; and
 Whereas, The federal attitude of “pay and chase” even in the face of an expediting benefit payments without traditional safeguards, must be re-evaluated and changed; and
 Whereas, Across the country, regardless of whether these fraudulent claims are through states’ traditional unemployment systems or the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program, empoyees are being double-shrapped off by domestic criminals and international thieves; and
 Whereas, This fraud deprives our state and federal governments of necessary resources during a pandemic and costs our constituents money; and
 Whereas, This fraud slows down the process by which unemployment benefits are distributed to those who are truly in need within our communities; and
 Whereas, Instituting a system that stamps out fraud will clear the way for resources to flow where they are needed more quickly and efficiently; and
 Whereas, Ohioans who receive 1099-G tax forms as a result of unemployment benefits that they did not receive must navigate a cumbersome, frustrating, and unresponsive system to clear the fraud status from their account; now to be before it.

Resolved, That we, the members of the 134th General Assembly of the State of Ohio, urge the federal government to reinforce the traditional safeguards as well as new safeguards for identification verification to ensure that the individuals requesting and receiving benefits under the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program are those who truly need it, and not fraudulent actors; and be it further Resolved, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit duly authenticated copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, to the President Pro Tempore and Secretary of the United States Senate, to each member of the Ohio Congressional delegation, to the U.S. Secretary of Labor, and the news media of Ohio.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.
Congress finds the following:
(1) For over 70 years, the United States has been the unequivocal global leader in scientific and technological innovation, and as a result the people of the United States have benefited through good-paying jobs, economic prosperity, and a higher quality of life.
(2) Without a significant increase in investment in basic and applied research to create knowledge that is a key driver of the economy of the United States innovation ecosystem, it is only a matter of time before the global competitors of the United States overtake the United States in terms of technological prowess. The country that wins the race in key technologies—such as artificial intelligence, quantum computing, advanced communications, and advanced manufacturing—and understands and supports high-quality jobs and incomes will be the superpower of the future.
(3) The Federal Government must catalyze United States innovation by boosting research investments focused on discovering, creating, commercializing, and demonstrating new technologies and manufacturing those technologies domestically throughout the country to ensure the leadership of the United States in the industries of the future.
(4) The distribution of innovation jobs and investment in the United States has become largely concentrated in just a few locations, while much of the Nation has been left out of growth in the innovation sector. More than 90 percent of the Nation’s innovation sector employment growth in the last 15 years was located in just 5 percent of metropolitan areas. The Federal Government must address this imbalance in opportunity by—
(A) dramatically increasing funding for scientific and engineering research and expanding partnerships with the private sector to build new technology hubs across the country;
(B) spreading high-quality innovation sector jobs more broadly;
(C) increasing the participation of under-represented populations, engaging workers, and collaborating with labor organizations in innovation efforts to tap the talent and potential of the entire Nation to ensure the United States leads the industries of the future; and
(D) building regional capacity in such critical areas as entrepreneurship, access to capital and other investment, and supply chain development.
(5) As President Franklin D. Roosevelt stated, “[N]ew frontiers of the mind are before us, and if they are pioneered with the same vision, boldness, and drive with which we have waged this war we can create a fuller and more fruitful employment and a fuller and more fruitful life.”

As Vannevar Bush stated in his 1945 report entitled Science, The Endless Frontier, “New products, new industries, and more jobs require continuous additional to knowledge the laws of edge of new technology and its application of that knowledge to practical purposes. Similarly, our defense against aggression demands new knowledge so that we can develop new and improved weapons. This essential, new knowledge can be obtained only through basic scientific research.”

Since their inception, the National Science Foundation and other key Federal agencies, like the Department of Energy, have carried out vital work supporting basic and applied research, ordered knowledge that is a key driver of the economy of the United States and enhances the Nation’s security.

SEC. 3. IMPROVING TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION RESEARCH AT THE NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION.
(a) PROVIDING AUTHORITY TO DISSEminate INFORMATION. —Section of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1860) is amended—
(1) in subsection (3), by striking “and” after the semicolon;
(2) in subsection (k), by striking the period at the end and inserting “; and”;
and
(3) by adding at the end the following:—
“(l) provide for the widest practicable and appropriate dissemination of information within the United States concerning the Foundation’s activities and the results thereof.”.

(b) ESTABLISHMENT OF DIRECTORATE FOR TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION.—The National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.) is amended by—

(1) in section 8 (42 U.S.C. 1866), by inserting at the end the following:

Such provision shall include the Directorate for Technology and Innovation established under section 8A.
```

(2) by inserting after section 8 the following:

```
SEC. 8A. IMPROVING RESEARCH AND ESTABLISHMENT DIRECTORATE FOR TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) COMMUNITY COLLEGE.—The term ‘community college’ means the term ‘junior or community college’ in section 312(a) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1058(f)).

(2) DISSOCIATED COUNTRY.—The term ‘dissociated country’ means a country that has been approved and designated in writing by the President for purposes of this section, after providing—

(A) no less than 30 days of advance notification and explanation to the relevant congressional committees before the designation; and

(B) in-person briefings to such committees. If requested during the 30-day advance notification period described in subparagraph (A).

(3) DIRECTORATE.—The term ‘Directorate’ means the Directorate for Technology and Innovation established under subsection (b).

(4) EMERGING RESEARCH INSTITUTION.—The term ‘emerging research institution’ means an institution of higher education with an established undergraduate student program that has, on average for the 3 years prior to an application for an award under this section, received less than $5,000,000 in Federal research funding.

(5) FEDERAL RESEARCH FACILITY.—The term ‘federal research facility’ includes a research laboratory of the Department of Agriculture and any other Federally funded research and development center.

(6) HISTORICALLY BLACK COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.—The term ‘historically Black college or university’ has the meaning given the term ‘part B institution’ in section 322 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1062(a)).

(7) INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION.—The term ‘institution of higher education’ has the meaning given the term in section 101 in the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1001(a)).

(8) KEY TECHNOLOGY FOCUS AREAS.—The term ‘key technology focus areas’ means the areas included in the most recent list under subsection (d)(2).

(9) LABOR ORGANIZATION.—The term ‘labor organization’ has the meaning given the term ‘labor organization’ in section 3 of the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 152(5)), except that such term shall also include—

(A) any organization composed of labor organizations (including a labor union federation or a State or municipal labor body); and

(B) any organization which would be included in the definition for such term under such section if the facts that the organization represents—

(i) individuals employed by the United States, any wholly owned Government corporation, any Federal Reserve Bank, or any State or political subdivision thereof;

(ii) individuals employed by persons subject to the Railway Labor Act (45 U.S.C. 151 et seq.) and who are engaged in the rail transportation industry; and

(iii) individuals employed as agricultural laborers.

(10) MINORITY-SERVING INSTITUTION.—The term ‘minority-serving institution’ means an institution described in section 371(a) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1067(a)).

(11) NATIONAL LABORATORY.—The term ‘national laboratory’ has the meaning given the term in section 2 of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 (42 U.S.C. 17300).

(12) RELEVANT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.—The term ‘relevant congressional committees’ means—

(A) the Senate Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, the Committee on Appropriations, the Committee on Foreign Relations, the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions, and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate; and

(B) the Senate Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology, the Committee on Appropriations, the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives.

(13) STEM.—The term ‘STEM’ has the meaning given section 2 of the America COMPETES Reauthorization Act of 2010 (Public Law 111–38; 42 U.S.C. 6621 note).

(14) TRIBAL COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.—The term ‘tribal college or university’ has the meaning given the term in section 316(b)(3) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1068(b)(3)).

(15) UNDERREPRESENTED POPULATIONS.—The term ‘underrepresented populations’ means women, minorities, veterans, tribal populations, persons with disabilities, and other populations that are underrepresented in STEM.

(16) UNDERWELTER COLLEGE.—The term ‘underwater college’ means the term ‘underwater college’ in section 312(a) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1058(f)).

(C) the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Appropriations, the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representa--

(d) DIRECTOR.—The Director shall have the following authorities:

(1) Establishing the leadership of the United States in critical technologies, as described in a critical national need in section 7018 of the America COMPETES Act (42 U.S.C. 6621 note).

(2) EMERGING RESEARCH INSTITUTION.—The Director shall include in the Foundation a Directorate for Technology and Innovation. The Directorate shall carry out the duties and responsibilities described in this section, in order to further the following goals:

(A) Strengthening the leadership of the United States in critical technologies, as described in a critical national need in section 7018 of the America COMPETES Act (42 U.S.C. 6621 note).

(B) Addressing and mitigating technology challenges integral to the geostrategic position of the United States through the activities authorized by this section.

(C) Enhancing the competitiveness of the United States in the key technology focus areas by improving education in the key technology focus areas and attracting students to such areas at all levels of education.

(D) Consistent with the mission and operations of the Foundation, fostering the economic and societal impact of Federally funded research and development through an accelerated translation of basic advances in the key technology focus areas into products and services, known as technology transfer, that can help achieve national goals related to economic competitiveness, domestic manufacturing, national security, improving the environment, health, and related fields.

(E) Utilizing the full potential of the United States to encourage and support the key technology focus areas by underrepresented populations.
(ii) Development of Technology Focus of the Directorate. The Director shall—

(A) through the Directorate, advance innovation in the key technology focus areas through basic and translational research and other activities described in subsection (b)(1) consistent with the most recent report conducted under section 5 of the Endless Frontier Act; and

(B) develop and implement strategies to ensure that the activities of the Directorate are directed toward the key technology focus areas in order to accomplish the goals described in subsection (b)(1) consistent with the most recent report conducted under section 5 of the Endless Frontier Act; and

(C) make the list of key technology focus areas readily available to the public and available for public comment, including, at a minimum, by publishing the list in the Federal Register even if no changes are expected to be made to it.

(ii) Extraordinary Circumstances Waiver. In extraordinary circumstances, the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy may grant the Director the ability to add or delete key technology focus areas without acting in coordination as described in clause (i). If such an ability is determined to be necessary by the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy, the Director and the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy shall not later than 15 days after such a waiver is granted, provide a detailed description and justification to the relevant congressional committees.

(iii) Activities.

(A) In General.—In carrying out the duties and functions of the Directorate, the Director—

(1) may make awards in a technologically-neutral manner for key technology focus areas to—

(I) individual institutions of higher education for work at centers or by individual researchers or research groups; or

(II) not-for-profit entities; and

(III) consortia that—

(aa) shall be led and be led by an institution of higher education, or by a not-for-profit entity designed to support technology development, and may include 1 or more additional institutions of higher education; and

(bb) shall include at least one of the following:

(AA) a historically Black college or university;

(BB) a Tribal College or University;

(CC) another minority-serving institution;

(DD) an institution that participates in the Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research under section 113 of the National Science Foundation Authorization Act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. 1629b); and

(EE) an emerging research institution that is not classified as a very high research intensity and, as appropriate, the heads of other departments and agencies—

(I) shall review the list of key technology focus areas;

(II) shall consider the challenges and recommendations identified in the report required by section 11 of the Endless Frontier Act; and

(III) as part of that review, may add or delete key technology focus areas if societal challenges or the competitive threats to the United States have shifted (whether because the United States or other nations have advanced or fallen behind in a technological area), subject to clause (ii).

(II) LIMIT ON KEY TECHNOLOGY FOCUS AREAS. Not more than 10 key technology focus areas shall be included on the list of key technology focus areas at any time.

(iii) Updating Focus Areas and Distribution. In making decisions under this subparagraph, the Director shall make the list of key technology focus areas for public comment, including, at a minimum, by publishing the list in the Federal Register even if no changes are expected to be made to it.
“(i) any funds provided under paragraph (3)(A)(ii) to other divisions of the Foundation; and

(ii) any funds provided under paragraph (3)(A) to other Federal research agencies.

“(5) PROVIDING SCHOLARSHIPS, FELLOWSHIPS, AND OTHER STUDENT SUPPORT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Director, acting through the Director of the National Institute of Higher Education or consortia described in subsection (b)(1), shall fund scholarships, fellowships, and other student support in order to improve the capacity of the applicant to conduct research and increase the participation of underrepresented populations.

(B) IMPLEMENTATION.—The Director shall implement this paragraph in a manner that will encourage the participation of underrepresented populations.

(C) SELECTION PROCESS.—In selecting recipients under this paragraph, the Director shall consider:

(i) the extent to which the applicant's proposed research will be directed towards increasing the participation of underrepresented populations;

(ii) the extent to which the applicant's proposed research will be directed towards increasing the participation of underrepresented populations in fields related to technology focus areas;

(iii) the extent to which the applicant's proposed research will be directed towards increasing the participation of underrepresented populations in the development of new businesses; and

(iv) the extent to which the applicant's proposed research will be directed towards increasing the participation of underrepresented populations in the development of new businesses.

“(D) INNOVATION.—In carrying out this paragraph, the Director shall encourage the participation of underrepresented populations in fields related to technology focus areas.

“(E) SUPPLEMENT, NOT SUPPLANT.—The Director shall ensure that funds made available under this paragraph shall be used to create additional support for postsecondary students and shall not displace funding for any other comparable support.

“(6) UNIVERSITY TECHNOLOGY CENTERS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—From amounts made available under this paragraph, the Director shall, through a competitive application and selection process, make awards to institutions of higher education or consortia described in paragraph (3)(A)(ii) to establish university technology centers.

(B) USES OF FUNDS.—

(i) any funds provided under this subparagraph shall be used to support provided under such subparagraph—

(aa) to carry out basic and translational research and advance innovation in the key technology focus areas; and

(bb) to further the development and commercialization of innovations, including inventions, in the key technology focus areas, including—

(AA) innovations derived from research carried out under item (aa), through such activities as translational research, proof-of-concept development, and prototyping, in order to reduce the cost, time, and risk of commercializing new technologies;

(BB) promoting patenting and commercialization of inventions derived from research carried out under item (aa); and

(CC) through the use of public-private partnerships; and

(ii) may use support provided under such subparagraph—

(aa) for the costs of equipment;

(bb) for the costs associated with technology transfer and commercialization, including patenting and licensing; or

(cc) for other activities the Director deems necessary to accomplish the purposes of this section, including for operations and staff.

(B) SUPPORT OF REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY INITIATIVES.—Each award made under subparagraph (A) may support and participate in, as appropriate, the activities of any regional technology hub designated under section 2(b)(2)(B) of the Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980.

(C) SELECTION PROCESS.—In selecting recipients under this paragraph, the Director shall consider:

(i) the capacity of the applicant to pursue and advance basic and translational research;

(ii) the extent to which the applicant's proposed research would be likely to advance American competitiveness in 1 or more key technology focus areas;

(iii) the extent to which the applicant's proposed research would broaden participation by underrepresented populations in those areas;

(iv) the extent to which the applicant is likely to engage industry, labor, and other appropriate organizations on any advances;

(v) the quality of the proposal;

(iv) the capacity of the applicant to translate research and technology results, in accordance with relevant export control laws;

(vi) how the applicant will, where applicable, encourage the training and participation of entrepreneurs and the translation of research results to practice, including the development of new businesses;

(vii) how the applicant will, where applicable, encourage the participation of inventors and entrepreneurs and the development of new businesses, where applicable;

(viii) the capacity or ability of the applicant to advance the goals described in subsection (b)(i); and

(ix) the amount of funds from industry organizations described in subparagraph (D)(ii) the applicant would use towards establishing the center under subparagraph (A).

(D) REQUIREMENTS.—The Director shall ensure that any institution of higher education or consortium described in paragraph (3)(A)(ii) establish technology transfer and commercialization, including patenting and licensing, if the use is included in the proposal submitted under subparagraph (B).

(B) PROPOSALS.—An institution of higher education or consortium desiring an award under this paragraph shall submit a proposal to the Director at such time, in such manner, and containing such information as the Director may require. The proposal shall include a description of—

(i) the broader impact of the proposal;

(ii) how the steps the applicant is taking or will take to enable technology transfer to reduce the risks for commercialization for new technologies, including how the applicant will collaborate with firms in the key technology focus areas;

(iii) why such steps are likely to be effective;

(iv) how such steps differ from previous efforts to reduce the risks for commercialization for new technologies;

(v) whether the commercial viability of any new technologies will promote the creation of high-quality jobs in the United States;

(vi) how the applicant will, where applicable, encourage the participation of inventors and entrepreneurs and the development of new businesses; and

(vii) how the applicant will, where applicable, encourage the training and participation of entrepreneurs and the translation of research results to practice, including the development of new businesses.

(C) USE OF FUNDS.—A recipient of an award under this paragraph shall use any funds provided under this paragraph to reduce the risks for commercialization for new technologies, which may include—

(i) creating and funding competitions to allow entrepreneurial ideas from institutions of higher education or consortia described in paragraph (3)(A)(ii) to illustrate their commercialization potential;

(ii) facilitating relationships among local and national business leaders, including inventors, and potential entrepreneurs to encourage successful commercialization;

(iii) creating or supporting entities that could enable researchers to further develop technologies, through capital investment, advice, staff support, or other means;

(iv) providing facilities for start-up companies where technology maturation could occur;

(v) covering legal and other fees associated with technology transfer and commercialization, including patenting and licensing; and

(vi) revising institution policies, including policies related to intellectual property and faculty entrepreneurship, to accomplish the goals of this paragraph.

(D) REPORTING ON COMMERCIALIZATION BASED ON METRICS.—The Director shall establish—

(i) metrics related to commercialization for an award under this paragraph; and “(i) a reporting schedule for recipients of such awards that takes into account both short- and long-term goals of the program under this paragraph.

(B) AUTHORIZATION.

(i) IN GENERAL.—The Director, in coordination with the Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology and in consultation with Heads of the Federal agencies to be established in paragraph (4)(A)(i)(III) to establish and operate test beds and fabrication facilities to advance the operation, integration, development, and, as appropriate, manufacturing of new, innovative technologies in the key technology focus areas, which may include hardware or software. The goal of such test beds and facilities shall be to accelerate the movement of innovative technologies into the commercial market through the private sector.

(ii) COORDINATION.—In establishing the program under clause (i), the Director shall ensure coordination in establishing new test beds under this paragraph with other test beds supported by the Foundation or established under Manufacturing USA to avoid duplication and maximize the use of Federal resources.

(iii) PROPOSALS.—A proposal submitted under this paragraph shall, at a minimum, describe—

(I) the technology or technologies that will be the focus of the test bed or fabrication facility;

(II) the goals of the work to be done at the test bed or facility; and

(III) the expected schedule for completing that work;

(iv) how the applicant will collaborate with firms in the key technology focus areas, including through coordinated research and development and funding, to ensure that work in the test bed or facility will contribute to the commercial viability of any technologies and will include collaboration from industry and labor organizations;

(v) the action the Foundation will encourage the participation of inventors and entrepreneurs and the development of new businesses;

(vi) what will include the participation by underrepresented populations;

(vii) how the applicant will demonstrate that the commercial viability of any new technology will support the creation of high-quality domestic jobs;

(viii) how the test bed or facility will operate after Federal funding has ended; and

(ix) how the test bed will disseminate lessons and other technical information to United States firms or allied or partner country firms in the United States.

(C) Funds made under this paragraph shall be for 7 years, with the possibility of 5-year extensions.

(D) AUTHORIZED USE OF FUNDS.—An awardee under this paragraph may, in order to achieve the purposes described in subparagraph (A)(i), use the award for the purchase of equipment, the support of graduate students and postdoctoral researchers, and the salaries of staff.

(E) RESULTS.—An awardee under this paragraph may publish and share with the public the results of the work conducted under this paragraph.

(F) INTERAGENCY SEMI-ANNUAL MEETINGS.—The Director, the Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology, and the Heads of other Departments and agencies, or their designees, with test bed related equities shall hold an annual meeting to coordinate their respective test bed related investments, future years plans, and other appropriate matters, to avoid conflicts and overlaps. Upon request by Congress, such meetings shall be held.

(G) ARES OF FUNDING SUPPORT.—Subject to the availability of funds to carry out this section, the Director shall endeavor, for each fiscal year, to use—

(1) not less than 33 percent of funds provided to the Director for such year to support test beds under this section;

(2) not less than 15 percent of such funds to carry out the purpose of subsection (d)(5);

(A) with the goal of awarding, across the key technology focus areas—

(i) not fewer than 1,000 postdoctoral awards;

(ii) not fewer than 2,000 graduate fellowships and traineeships; and

(iii) not fewer than 1,000 undergraduate scholarships, including scholarships to attend community colleges;

(3) of which not less than 10 percent of the funds designated under this paragraph shall be used to support additional awards to focus on community colleges, education, and teaching programs that increase the participation of underrepresented populations in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics, including technological programs through programs as the Advanced Technological Education program;

(C) of which not less than 20 percent of the funds designated under this paragraph shall be used to support awards for postdoctorate fellowships, graduate fellowships and traineeships, and undergraduate scholarships through institutions of higher education, and other institutions, located in jurisdictions that participate in the Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research under section 113 of the National Science Foundation Act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. 1862g); and

(D) if funds remain after carrying out subparagraph (A), use the award for the purchase of equipment, the support of graduate students and traineeships; and

(4) not fewer than 1,000 postdoctoral awards;

(5) not less than 5 percent of such funds to carry out subsection (d)(7); and

(6) not less than 20 percent of such funds to carry out subsection (d)(8);

(7) not more than 15 percent of such funds to carry out research and related activities pursuant to clauses (I) and (II) of subsection (d)(3)(A)(ii); and

(8) not less than 20 percent of such funds to support research in the key technology focus areas beneficiaries of the Program to Stimulate Competitive Research under section 113 of the National Science Foundation Act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. 1862d).

(1) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR AWARD RECIPIENTS AND APPLICANTS.—The Director may—

(I) coordinate with other Federal agencies to establish interagency and multidisciplinary teams to provide technical assistance to recipients of, and prospective applicants for, awards under this section;

(II) by Federal interagency agreement and notwithstanding any other provision of law, transfer funds available to carry out this section to Federal agencies to provide technical assistance to recipients of, and prospective applicants for, awards under this section;

(3) enter into contracts with third parties to provide such technical assistance.

(H) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS AND LIMITATIONS.

(I) AUTHORIZATION FOR THE OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL.—From any amounts appropriated for the Foundation for a fiscal year, there is authorized to be appropriated for the Fiscal Year 2021, to carry out this Act or any other amendments made to this Act by the Inspector General Act of 1978.

(J) SUPPLEMENT AND NOT SUPPLANT.—The amount so authorized to be appropriated for the Fiscal Year 2021 shall not supplant any amounts already appropriated to the Inspector General under the Inspector General Act of 1978.

(K) TRANSFER OF FUNDS AUTHORITY.—For fiscal years 2022 through 2024, the Director may transfer any funds appropriated to the Inspector General to any other directorate or office in the Foundation or Office of Inspector General of the Foundation, except with respect to transfers described in paragraph (3).

(L) NO FUNDS FOR CONSTRUCTION.—No funds provided under this section shall be used for construction.

(M) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section or any other amendments made to this Act by the Inspector General Act of 1978 shall be construed to alter the mission of any directorate of the Foundation existing prior to the date of enactment of such Act, or to alter the award selection methods or criteria used by such directorates.

(1) CHIEF DIVERSITY OFFICER.—The National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.), as amended by subsection (b), is further amended by inserting after section 8:

SEC. 8b. CHIEF DIVERSITY OFFICER.

(a) CHIEF DIVERSITY OFFICER.—

(1) APPOINTMENT.—The Director shall appoint a Chief Diversity Officer of the National Science Foundation.

(2) QUALIFICATIONS.—The Chief Diversity Officer shall have significant experience with diversity and inclusion, in particular within the Federal Government and science community.

(3) OVERSIGHT.—The Chief Diversity Officer shall report directly to the Director in the performance of the duties of the Chief Diversity Officer under this section.

(c) CHIEF DIVERSITY OFFICER.—The Chief Diversity Officer is responsible for providing advice on policy, oversight, guidance, and coordination with respect to matters of the National Science Foundation related to diversity and inclusion. Other duties may include—

(I) establishing and maintaining a strategic plan that publicly states a diversity definition, vision, and activities directly related to the key technology focus areas.
institutions of higher education, including community colleges, historically Black colleges and universities, Tribal colleges or universities, and other minority-serving institutions. The $5.000,000,000 in each case are defined in section 8(a)(a), and individuals; (ii) advising in the establishment of a strategic plan for outreach to, and recruiting from, underrepresented locations and underrepresented populations; and (v) performing such additional duties and exercising such powers as the Director may prescribe.

(d) ANNUAL REPORT ON UNFUNDED PRIORITIES.—
(1) ANNUAL REPORT.—Not later than 10 days after the date on which the President for a fiscal year is submitted to Congress pursuant to section 1105 of title 31, United States Code, the National Science Board shall submit to the President and to Congress a report on the unfunded priorities of the National Science Foundation.

(2) ELEMENTS.—Each report submitted under paragraph (1) shall provide—
(A) for each directorate of the National Science Foundation for the most recent, fully completed fiscal year—
(i) the percentage and total funding of proposals that were not funded and that met the criteria for funding; and
(ii) a list, in order of priority, of the research areas covered by proposals described in clause (i); and

(B) a list, in order of priority, of the next five activities the National Science Board to be undertaken in the Major Research Equipment and Facilities Construction account.

(e) PILOT PROGRAM.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The Director, acting through the Directorate, shall establish a 5-year pilot program for awarding grants to eligible partnerships to build research and education capacity at emerging research institutions to enable such institutions to contribute to programs run by the Directorate.

(ii) ACTIVITIES.—An eligible partnership seeking a grant under this subsection shall submit an application to the Director at such time, in such manner, and containing such information as the Director may reasonably require, including a statement of how the partnership will use the funds awarded through the grant to achieve a lasting increase in the research and education capacity at emerging research institutions included in the eligible partnership.

(iii) USE OF FUNDS.—Such funds shall be used for construction, faculty salaries and training; and (B) research experiences for undergraduate and graduate students; (C) maintenance and repair of research equipment and instrumentation; and (D) any other activities the Director determines appropriate.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(A) D I R E C T O R .—The term “Director” means the Director of the National Science Foundation.

(B) DIRECTORATE; EMERGING RESEARCH INSTITUTION.—The terms “Directorate” and “emerging research institution” have the meanings given such terms in section 8(a) of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950, except that, with respect to the terms “emerging research institution”, the reference in paragraph (4) of such section to an award under section 8(a) of that Act shall be deemed a reference to a grant under this subsection.

(C) ELIGIBLE PARTNERSHIP.—The term “eligible partnership” means a partnership of—

(i) at least 1 emerging research institution; and

(ii) at least 1 institution classified as a very high research activity by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education.

SEC. 4. ENDLESS FRONTIER FUND.

(a) IN GENERAL.—There is authorized to be appropriated a total of $112,410,000,000 for fiscal years 2022 through 2025 for the implementation of this Act and the amendments made by this Act. Such funds shall be available for awarding through the grant to achieve a last-minute funds awarded through such grant to achieving a grant under this subsection may provide for the purpose of this Act and the amendments made by this Act. Such funds shall be available for awarding through the grant to achieve a last-minute funds awarded through such grant to achieving a grant under this subsection may provide for the purpose of the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy (referred to in this section as the “Director”).

(b) USE OF FUNDS.—

(i) SUBMISSION OF ANNUAL ALLOCATION.—Until the date on which all of the amounts in the Fund described in subsection (a) are expended, the Director shall annually submit to Congress, together with the annual budget of the United States, a list of allocations to agencies and departments to implement this Act and the amendments made by this Act that includes a detailed description of each program proposed to be funded, including the estimated expenditures from the Fund for the program for the fiscal year.

(ii) ALTERNATE ALLOCATION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act for the fiscal year for which the appropriations are made shall provide for the purpose of the Director.

(B) ALLOCATION BY PROGRAM.—

(i) NO ALTERNATE ALLOCATIONS.—If Congress has not enacted legislation establishing alternate allocations as described in subparagraph (A) by the date on which the Act making full-year appropriations for Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies for the applicable fiscal year is enacted into law, amounts made available under this section shall be allocated by the Director.

(ii) INSUFFICIENT ALTERNATE ALLOCATION.—If Congress enacts legislation establishing alternate allocations for amounts made available under this section that are less than the full amount authorized to be appropriated under subsection (a) for the applicable fiscal year, the amount authorized to be appropriated and the alternate allocation shall be allocated by the Director.

(c) LIMITATION.—No funds provided under this section shall be used for construction, except in the case of infrastructure projects described in section 4(a)(2)(D) of the Stevenson-Wygler Technology Innovation Act of 1980 (Public Law 96–480), as added by section 7(a) of this Act.

(d) SENATE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that, during the period of fiscal years 2022 through 2026, the Director shall make available, from amounts made available under this subsection, $9,425,000,000 to the Senate Program for activities described under section 108 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3043).

SEC. 5. STRATEGY AND REPORT ON ECONOMIC SECURITY, SCIENCE, RESEARCH, AND INNOVATION TO SUPPORT THE NATIONAL SECURITY.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS.—The term “appropriate committees of Congress” means—

(7) MANUFACTURING EXTENSION CENTER.—The term ‘manufacturing extension center’ means the term ‘manufacturing extension center’ as defined in section 25(a) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278a).

(8) MANUFACTURING USA INSTITUTE.—The term ‘Manufacturing USA institute’ means an Manufacturing USA institute described in section 34(d) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278d).

(9) SMALL AND RURAL COMMUNITIES.—The term ‘small and rural community’ means a noncore area, a micropolitan area, or a small metropolitan statistical area with a population of not more than 200,000.

(10) VENTURE DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION.—The term ‘venture development organization’ means an organization that the Secretary determines are critical to national and economic security.

(11) VENTURE DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION.—The term ‘venture development organization’ means an organization that the Secretary determines are critical to national and economic security.

(12) TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION SECTORS CRITICAL TO NATIONAL AND ECONOMIC SECURITY.—The term ‘technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security’ means a range of technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security, including to encourage lower-cost but economically viable technology hubs in the United States to reduce technology offshoring.

(B) To encourage new and constructive collaboration among local, State, and Fed-government entities, academia, private industry, and labor organizations to mobilize investment, talent, entrepreneurship, and innovation towards research and development, and manufacturing in a range of tech-

(13) REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY HUB PROGRAM.—

(1) In general.—The Secretary shall carry out a program—

(A) to designate eligible consortia as regional technology hubs that create the conditions within a region, to facilitate activities that—

(i) enable United States leadership in a key technology focus area, complementing the Federal research and development investments under section 8A of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950, or other technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security;

(ii) support regional economic development that diffuses innovation around the United States, enabling better broad-based growth and competitiveness in key techology focus areas; and

(iii) support domestic job creation; and

(iv) to conduct ongoing evaluation, analysis, and dissemination of best practices for regional development and competitiveness in technology and innovation.

(2) PROGRAM.—The purposes of the program carried out under paragraph (1) are as follows:

(A) To designate eligible consortia as regional technology hubs that create the conditions within a region, to facilitate activities that—

(i) enable United States leadership in a key technology focus area, complementing the Federal research and development investments under section 8A of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950, or other technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security;

“(F) industry and industry associations;

“(H) Federal laboratories;

“(I) manufacturing extension centers;

“(J) Manufacturing USA institutes;

“(K) institutions receiving an award under paragraph (6) or (7) of section 8A(d) of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950, and

“(d) DISCISSION OF REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY HUBS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall use a competitive process for the designation of regional technology hubs under subsection (b)(1)(A).

“(2) NUMBER OF REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY HUBS.—During the 5-year period beginning on the date of the enactment of the Endless Frontier Act, the Secretary shall designate not less than 10 and not more than 15 eligible consortia as regional technology hubs under subsection (b)(1)(A), if the Secretary has received a sufficient number of qualified applications and appropriations to carry out this section.

“(3) GEOGRAPHIC DISTRIBUTION.—In conducting the competitive process under paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Secretary shall ensure geographic distribution in the designation of regional technology hubs by—

“(A) aiming to designate regional technology hubs in any regions of the United States as possible; and “(B) focusing on localities that have clear potential and relevant assets for developing a self-sustaining competitive position in a technology or innovation sector but have not yet become leading technology centers.

“(4) ELIGIBLE CONSORTIA THAT SERVE SMALL AND RURAL COMMUNITIES.—Under subsection (b)(1)(A), the Secretary shall designate at least 3 eligible consortia that—

“(A) serve small and rural communities; and “(B) have received a grant under section 29.

“(5) EPSCoR.—The Secretary shall ensure that of the eligible consortium designated as regional technology hubs under subsection (b)(1)(A), not fewer than 5 of such consortia include at least 1 State that is eligible to receive a grant under the Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research of the National Science Foundation.

“(6) RELATION TO CERTAIN GRANT AWARDS.—The Secretary may not require an eligible consortium to receive a grant under section 29 in order to be designated as a regional technology hub under subsection (b)(1)(A) of this section.

“(6) GRANTS AND COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall carry out subsection (b) of this section through grants (b)(1)(A) through the award of grants or cooperative agreements to eligible consortia designated under subparagraph (A) of such subsection.

“(2) TERM.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The term of a grant or cooperative agreement awarded under paragraph (1) shall be 5 years or up to 7 years as the Secretary considers appropriate.

“(B) RENEWAL.—The Secretary may renew a grant or cooperative agreement awarded to an eligible consortium under paragraph (1) as the Secretary considers appropriate if the Secretary determines pursuant to subsection (i) that the performance of the eligible consortium is satisfactory.

“(3) MATCHING REQUIRED.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Except in the case of an eligible consortium described in subparagraph (b)(6)(B) and (C), the Secretary shall ensure that at least 15 percent of the total operating and maintenance costs of the regional technology hub in that fiscal year.

“(B) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may renew a grant or cooperative agreement awarded under paragraph (1) as the Secretary considers appropriate if the Secretary determines pursuant to subsection (i) that the performance of the eligible consortium is satisfactory.

“(4) USE OF GRANT AND COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT FUNDS.—The recipient of a grant or cooperative agreement awarded under paragraph (1) shall use the grant or cooperative agreement for multiple activities determined appropriate by the Secretary, including—

“(A) the permissible activities set forth under section 27(c)(2); and

“(B) activities in support of key technology focus areas and other technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security.
awarded pursuant to section 201 of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3141) and subject to the provisions of such Act, except that subsection (b) of such section, as amended by sections 204 and 301 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 3141, 3161) shall not apply.

(c) APPLICATIONS.—An eligible consortium seeking to establish a regional technology hub under subparagraph (A) of subsection (b)(1) and support under subparagraph (B) of such subsection shall submit to the Secretary an application at such time, in such manner, and containing such information as the Secretary may specify.

(g) CONSIDERATIONS FOR DESIGNATION AND AWARD OF GRANTS AND COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—In selecting an eligible consortium to establish an application under subsection (f) for designation and support under subsection (b)(1), the Secretary shall, at a minimum, the following:

(A) The potential of the eligible consortium to advance the research, development, deployment, and domestic manufacturing of technologies in a key technology sector or other technology or innovation sector critical to national and economic security.

(B) The likelihood of positive regional economic effect, including increasing the number or amount of jobs creating new economic opportunities for economically disadvantaged and underrepresented populations and rural areas.

(C) How the eligible consortium plans to engage across sectors in support of the proposed regional technology hub, including the development of necessary infrastructure improvements and domestic manufacturing of technology products.

(D) How the eligible consortium will ensure that growth in technology and innovation sectors produces broadly shared opportunity across the identified region, including for economically disadvantaged and underrepresented populations and rural areas.

(E) How the eligible consortium will be able to become a self-sustaining globally leading technology hub once Federal support ends.

(F) FINDINGS BASED ON COMPREHENSIVE REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY STRATEGIES.—The Secretary may use a comprehensive regional technology strategy supported by a grant under section 29 as the basis for making findings under paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(G) COORDINATION AND COLLABORATION.—

(i) COORDINATION REQUIRED.—The Secretary shall coordinate the activities of regional technology hubs designated under this title, the Hollings Manufacturing Extension Partnership, and the Manufacturing USA institutes with the activities of regional technology hubs designated under this subsection, if applicable.

(ii) Alignment of activities—The Secretary shall—

(A) coordinate with the Department of Energy and the National Laboratories that were in effect on the date of enactment of the Endless Frontiers Act, to regions served by regional technology hubs designated under subsection (b)(1)(A);

(B) coordinate, to the extent possible, with the interagency advisory committee established under subparagraph (b)(1)(A) of such subsection, if applicable.

(C) the activities of the National Science Foundation, the Department of the Interior, and agencies whose missions contribute to the goals of the regional technology hub; and

(D) may accept funds from other Federal agencies to support grants and activities under this paragraph.

(H) INTERAGENCY COORDINATION.—

(i) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary shall establish an interagency coordinating council to coordinate with the Secretary in the establishment of regional technology hubs under subparagraph (A) of subsection (b)(1) and in the selection of eligible consortia to receive support under subparagraph (B) of such subsection.

(ii) COMPOSITION.—The interagency coordinating council established under clause (i) shall be composed of the following (or their designees):—

(I) The Secretary of Commerce.

(ii) The Secretary of Education.

(iii) The Administrator of the Small Business Administration.

(iv) The Director for Housing and Urban Development.

(v) The Director of the Community Development Financial Institution Fund.

(vi) The Director of the National Science Foundation.

(vii) The Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

(viii) The Director of the National Economic Council.

(ix) The Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Development.

(x) The Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training.

(xi) The Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy.

(xii) The Under Secretary for Defense for Research and Engineering.

(xiii) The Under Secretary for Defense for Acquisition and Sustainment.

(xiv) The Under Secretary for Science of the Department of Energy.

(xv) The Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

(xvi) The Under Secretary for Science and Technology of the Department of Homeland Security.

(xvii) The Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

(xviii) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

(xix) Such other Federal officials as the Secretary of Commerce considers appropriate.

(ii) Chairperson.—The Secretary shall be the chairperson of the interagency coordinating council established under clause (1).

(4) SETTING GOALS FOR FEDERALLY FUNDED REGIONS SERVED BY RESEARCH IN REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY HUBS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In selecting and assisting regional technology hubs designated under subsection (b)(1), the Secretary may use a comprehensive regional technology strategy supported by a grant under section 29 as the basis for making findings under paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(B) ANNUAL REPORTS.—Not less than once each year, the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress an annual report on progress made relating to the goals set under subparagraph (A).

(i) PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT, TRANSPARENCY, AND ACCOUNTABILITY.—

(A) METRICS, STANDARDS, AND ASSESSMENT.—For each grant and cooperative agreement awarded under subsection (e)(1) for a regional technology hub, the Secretary shall—

(A) develop metrics to assess the effectiveness of the activities funded in making progress toward the purposes set forth under section (b)(2), which may include—

(i) research supported in a key technology focus area;

(ii) commercialization activities undertaken by each regional technology hub that is designated and supported under subsection (b)(1);
“(iii) educational and workforce development improvements undertaken by each regional technology hub that is designated and supported under subsection (b)(1); and

(iv) Matching funds for each regional technology hub that is designated and supported under subsection (b)(1); and

(v) domestic job creation, patent awards, and business formation and expansion relating to the activities of the regional technology hub that is designated and supported under subsection (b)(1); and

(b) Standards for awards for the performance of the regional technology hub that are based on the metrics developed under subparagraph (A) and—

(C) 4 years after the initial award under subsection (a)(1) and every 2 years thereafter until Federal financial assistance under this section for the regional technology hub is discontinued, conduct an assessment of the regional technology hub to confirm whether the performance of the regional technology hub is meeting the standards for performance established under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

(2) Final reports by recipients of assistance.

(A) In general.—The Secretary shall require each eligible consortium that receives a grant or cooperative agreement under subsection (b) or (c) to submit a final report at the end of the term of the grant or cooperative agreement, report on the activities of the regional technology hub supported by the grant or cooperative agreement.

(B) Contents of report.—Each report submitted by an eligible consortium under subparagraph (A) shall include the following:

(i) A discussion of any obstacles encountered by the eligible consortium in the implementation of the regional technology hub and how the eligible entity overcame those obstacles.

(ii) An evaluation of the success of the projects supported by the eligible consortium to implement the regional technology hub using the performance standards and measures established under paragraph (1), including an evaluation of the planning processes and how the project contributes to carrying out the comprehensive strategy for the regional technology hub if the regional technology hub has such a strategy.

(iii) The effectiveness of the eligible consortium in ensuring that, in the region of the eligible consortium’s regional technology hub, growth in technology and innovation sectors produces broadly shared opportunity across the region, including for economic disadvantage, the underrepresented populations and rural areas.

(iv) Information regarding such other matters as the Secretary may require.

(3) Funds for recipients of assistance.—In addition to requiring submittal of final reports under paragraph (2), the Secretary may require an eligible consortium described in such paragraph to submit to the Secretary such interim reports as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(4) Authority to appropriate.—Not less frequently than once each year, the Secretary shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress an annual report on the results of the assessments conducted by the Secretary under paragraph (1)(C) during the period covered by the report.

(5) Authorization of appropriations.—There is authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary to carry out this section $9,425,000,000 for the period of fiscal years 2022 through 2027.

(6) Initial designations and awards.

(1) Competition required.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall commence a competition under subsection (d)(1) of section 23 of the Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-480), as added by subsection (a).

(2) Designation and award.—Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, if the Secretary has received at least 1 proposal application (I) of such section from an eligible consortium whom the Secretary considers suitable for designation under subsection (b)(1)(A) of such section, the Secretary shall—

(A) designate at least 1 regional technology hub under subsection (b)(1)(A) of such section; and

(B) award a grant or cooperative agreement under subsection (a)(1) of such section to each regional technology hub designated pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

SEC. 20. COMPREHENSIVE REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY STRATEGY GRANT PROGRAM.

The Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-480; 15 U.S.C. 3701 et seq.), as amended by section 7, is further amended, by inserting after section 28, as added by such section, the following:

"SEC. 29. COMPREHENSIVE REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY STRATEGY GRANT PROGRAM.

"(a) Definitions.—In this section:

"(1) Labor organization.—The term ‘labor organization’ has the meaning given such term in section 637 of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950.

"(2) Regional technology hub.—The term ‘regional technology hub’ means a consortium designated as a regional technology hub under section 28(b)(1)(A).

"(3) Small and rural communities.—The term ‘small and rural communities’, ‘mid-sized metropolitan communities’, and ‘large metropolitan communities’ have the meanings given such terms in section 28(a).

"(4) Technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security.—The term ‘technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security’ means technology and innovation sectors that the Secretary determines are critical to national and economic security.

"(b) Grant Program Requested.—The Secretary shall establish a program to award grants to eligible consortia to carry out projects—

"(1) to coordinate locally defined planning processes, across jurisdictions and agencies, relating to developing a comprehensive regional technology strategy;

"(2) to identify regional partnerships for developing and implementing a comprehensive regional technology strategy;

"(3) to coordinate assessments to determine regional needs and promote economic and community development related to the resiliency of a domestic supply chain, competitiveness of the region, and domestic job creation in technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security;

"(4) to develop or update goals and strategies to implement an existing comprehensive regional plan related to enhancing the resiliency of domestic supply chains, competitiveness of the region, and domestic job creation in technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security; and

"(5) to identify local zoning and other code changes necessary to implement a comprehensive regional technology strategy, including promoting sustainable development within the identified region.

"(c) Eligible consortia.—For purposes of this section, an eligible consortium is any consortium described by section 28(c).

"(d) Grants.—

"(1) In general.—In awarding grants under this section, the Secretary shall ensure geographic diversity among, and adequate representation from, each of the following:

(A) Small and rural communities.

(B) Mid-sized metropolitan communities.

(C) Large metropolitan communities.

"(2) Awards to small and rural communities.—

(A) In general.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall—

(i) award not less than 25 percent of the funds under this section to eligible consortia that represent all or part of a small and rural community; and

(ii) ensure diversity among the geographic regions and the size of the population of the communities served by recipients of grants that are eligible consortia that represent all or part of a small and rural community.

(B) Insufficient applications.—If the Secretary determines that an insufficient number of sufficient quality applications for grants under this section have been submitted by eligible consortia that represent all or part of a small and rural community, the Secretary may reduce the percentage threshold set forth in subparagraph (A)(i).

"(e) Federal share.—

"(1) In general.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the Federal share of the cost of a project carried out using a grant awarded under this section may not exceed 80 percent.

"(2) Exception.—

(i) Small and rural communities.—In the case of an eligible consortium that represents all or part of a small and rural community, the Federal share of the cost of a project carried out using a grant awarded under this section may be up to 90 percent of the total cost of the project.

(ii) Indian tribes.—In the case of an eligible consortium that is led by a Tribal government, the Federal share of the cost of a project carried out using a grant awarded under this section may be up to 100 percent of the total cost of the project.

"(f) Non-federal share.—

"(1) In general.—For the purposes of this paragraph, in-kind contributions may be used for all or part of the non-Federal share of the cost of a project carried out using a grant awarded under this section.

"(ii) Other Federal funding.—Federal funding from sources other than a grant awarded under this section may not be used for the non-Federal share of the cost of a project carried out using a grant awarded under this section.

"(g) Availability and obligation of grants.—

"(1) In general.—An eligible consortium that receives a grant under this section... shall, as a condition on receipt of grant amounts—

(i) obligate any grant amounts received under this section not later than 1 year after the date on which the number of eligible consortia enters into an agreement under subsection (g); and

(ii) expend any grant amounts received under this section not later than 2 years after the date on which the eligible consortium enters into an agreement under subsection (g).

(B) UNOBLIGATED AMOUNTS.—After the date described in subparagraph (A)(i), any amounts awarded to an eligible consortium under this section that remain unobligated by the eligible consortium shall be submitted to the Secretary and made available to the Secretary for the award of grants to other eligible consortia under this section.

(c) APPLICATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—An eligible consortium seeking a grant under this section shall submit to the Secretary an application therefor at such time and in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe.

(2) CONTENTS.—Each application submitted under paragraph (1) shall include the following:

(A) A description of the boundaries of the region served by the eligible consortium.

(B) A description of the research, technology development, and manufacturing of the region of the consortium uniquely competitive.

(C) A general assessment of the local industrial ecosystem of the region described in subparagraph (A), which may include assessment of workforce and training, including partnerships with labor organizations, supplier network, research and innovation, infrastructure development, trade and international investment, operational improvements, and capital access components needed for manufacturing activities in such region.

(D) A description of how a grant under this section may assist in developing components of such local industrial ecosystem (selected by the consortium), including descriptions of—

(i) investments to address gaps in such ecosystem; and

(ii) how to make the research, technology development, and manufacturing of the region of the consortium uniquely competitive.

(E) A description of the process by which a comprehensive regional technology strategy will be developed by the eligible consortium to address gaps in such local industrial ecosystem and strengthen the resiliency of supply chains, competitiveness of the identified region, and domestic job creation in technology and innovation sectors critical to national and economic security.

(F) A budget for the projects that the eligible consortium plans to carry out using grant amounts awarded under this section, including the anticipated Federal share of the cost of each project and a description of the sources of the non-Federal share.

(G) The designation of a lead agency or organization, which may be the eligible consortium, to receive and manage any funds received by the eligible consortium under this section.

(H) A signed copy of a memorandum of understanding among members of the eligible consortium that demonstrates—

(i) the creation of an eligible consortium;

(ii) the nature and extent of planned collaboration between members of the eligible consortium; and

(iii) a commitment to develop a comprehensive regional strategy.

(I) Such other matters as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(3) EVALUATION OF APPLICATIONS.—The Secretary shall evaluate each application received under paragraph (1) to determine whether the applicant demonstrates—

(A) a significant level of regional cooperation in their proposal;

(B) a focus on building a regional ecosystem to attract and build upon research and technology development and manufacturing that domesticate critically important technologies that improve the resiliency of supply chains, competitiveness of the identified region, and the creation of new jobs.

(C) compliance with all applicable Federal laws, regulations, and policies governing grants, including any other applicable Federal laws, regulations, and policies applicable to grants under this section.

(4) GRANT AMOUNTS.—Each eligible consortium that receives a grant under this section shall, as a condition on receipt of grant amounts, agree to establish, in coordination with the Secretary, performance measures, reporting requirements, and such other requirements as the Secretary determines as necessary, that must be met at the end of each year in which the eligible consortium receives funds under this section.

(5) REPORTS BY RECIPIENTS OF GRANTS.—

(B) FINAL REPORTS.—Not later than 90 days after the date on which a grant agreement into which an eligible consortium entered under subsection (g) expires, the eligible consortium shall submit to the Secretary a final report on the project the eligible consortium carried out under subsection (f) using the amounts of the grant awarded to the eligible consortium under this section.

(6) CONTENTS.—Each report submitted under paragraph (1) shall include the following:

(A) A detailed explanation of the activities undertaken using the grant, including an explanation of how the comprehensive regional technology strategy of the eligible consortium may achieve specific improvements in domestic supply chain resiliency, research, development, and deployment of critical technologies, science, and technology, domestic job creation, and entrepreneurship goals within the region served by the eligible consortium.

(B) A discussion of any obstacles encountered in the planning process of the eligible consortium and how the eligible consortium overcame the obstacles.

(C) An evaluation of the success of the project using the performance standards and measures established under subsection (g), including an evaluation of the planning process, how the project is carrying out the comprehensive regional technology strategy.

(D) The progress of the region identified by the consortium toward becoming a regional technology hub.

(E) The effectiveness of the region identified by the consortium in ensuring that growth in innovation sectors produces broadly shared opportunity in the region.

(F) Such other information as the Secretary may require.

(5) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary shall, as a condition on receipt of a grant under this section, an eligible consortium to submit an interim report, before the date on which a project for which a grant is awarded under this section is completed.

(i) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR GRANT RECIPIENTS AND APPLICANTS.—The Secretary may—

(A) coordinate with other Federal agencies to establish interagency and multidisciplinary teams to provide technical assistance to recipients of, and prospective applicants for, grants under this section;

(B) by Federal interagency agreement, transfer funds to another Federal agency to facilitate and support the provision of such technical assistance; and

(C) enter into contracts with third parties to provide technical assistance to grant recipients and prospective applicants for grants under this section.

(6) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary for the award of grants under this section, to remain available until expended, amounts as follows—

(A) $100,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2022 and 2023.

(B) $125,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2024 through 2026.

(7) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary may use not more than 5 percent of the amounts made available under this subsection for a fiscal year for technical assistance under subsection (1).”.

SEC. 5. MANUFACTURING USA PROGRAM.

(a) In general.--(1) HISTORICALLY BLACK COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.—The term “historically Black college or university” has the meaning given the term “part H institution” in section 825 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1061).

(2) LABOR ORGANIZATION.—The term “labor organization” has the meaning given the term in section 8(a)(1) of the National Labor Relations Act of 1935.

(3) MANUFACTURING USA CENTER.—The term “Manufacturing USA center” means an institution described in section 34(d)(3)(C) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(d)(3)(C)) and recognized by the Secretary under such section for purposes of participation in the Manufacturing USA Network.

(4) MANUFACTURING USA INSTITUTE.—The term “Manufacturing USA institute” means an institution described in section 34(d)(1) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(b)(1)) that is not a Manufacturing USA center.

(5) MANUFACTURING USA NETWORK.—The term “Manufacturing USA Network” means the network established under section 34(b)(5) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(c)).

(6) MANUFACTURING USA PROGRAM.—The term “Manufacturing USA Program” means the program established under section 34(b)(1) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(b)(1)).

(7) MINORITY-SERVING INSTITUTION.—The term “minority-serving institution” means an institution described in section 371(a) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1067a(a)).

(8) NATIONAL PROGRAM OFFICE.—The term “National Program Office” means the National Program Office established under section 34(h)(1) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(b)(1)).

(9) TRIBAL COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.—The term “tribal college or university” has the meaning given the term in section 316(b)(3) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1059c(b)(3)).

(b) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS TO ENHANCE MANUFACTURING USA PROGRAM AND SUPPORT INNOVATION AND GROWTH IN DOMESTIC MANUFACTURING.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—There is authorized to be appropriated for the period of fiscal years 2022 through 2026 for the Secretary of Commerce, acting through the Director and in consultation with the Secretary of Energy, the Secretary of Defense, and the heads of such other Federal agencies as the Secretary of Commerce considers relevant, to recognize additional institutions as Manufacturing USA institutes under subparagraph (A) of section 34(d)(3)(B) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(d)(3)(B)), giving particular consideration to partnerships and coordination with the Manufacturing USA institutes that were already in effect before the date of enactment of this Act, and to allow for continuing support of such Manufacturing USA institutes that were in effect before the date of the enactment of this Act, of which $5,000,000 shall be available (without regard to cost share) to each Manufacturing USA institute each year for on-going operation of the institutes, including operational overhead, workforce training, and supply chain investments.

(2) ADDITIONAL SUPPORT.—(I) IN GENERAL.—Of the amounts appropriated pursuant to subparagraph (A), amounts shall be available for financial assistance awards to conduct projects as follows:

(II) FEDERAL FUNDS MATCHING REQUIREMENT.—A recipient of financial assistance for a project under clause (i) shall agree to make available to carry out the project an amount of non-Federal funds that is equal to or greater than 20 percent of the total cost of the project.

(III) RENEWAL REQUIREMENTS.—Receipt of ongoing support under subparagraph (A) shall be subject to the requirements of section 34(e)(2)(C) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 278c(e)(2)(B)).

(IV) NO COST SHARE REQUIREMENT.—The Secretary shall not impose any cost share or matching requirement on receipt of ongoing support under subparagraph (A).

(c) COORDINATION BETWEEN MANUFACTURING USA PROGRAM AND HOLLINGS MANUFACTURING EXTENSION PARTNERSHIP.—The Secretary shall coordinate the activities of the Manufacturing USA Program with the Hollings Manufacturing Extension Partnership, including the provision of workforce development and technology transfer and adoption assistance to small and medium-sized manufacturers.
A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Commerce shall, in coordination with the Secretary of Labor, the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of Energy, and the Secretary of Education, and in consultation with an advisory committee, establish for the Manufacturing USA Program on the development and dissemination of technologies, policies, and investments for high-road manufacturing and workforce development success with technological change, and increased worker participation across the Manufacturing USA Network.

B) MEMBERSHIP.—The council established under subparagraph (A) shall be composed of not fewer than 15 members appointed by the Secretary of Commerce, of whom—

(i) four shall be from labor organizations;

(ii) four shall be from educational institutions;

(iii) four shall be from industry organizations or manufacturing firms, including small- and medium-sized manufacturers.

C) PERIOD OF APPOINTMENT; VACANCIES.—

(i) INITIAL MEETING.—Not later than 180 days after the date on which the council established under paragraph (1)(A) holds its initial meeting under paragraph (1)(D)(i) and annually thereafter, the council shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress a report containing a detailed statement of the advice and recommendations of the council pursuant to paragraph (2).

(ii) ADDITIONAL MEETINGS.—After the first meeting of the council, the council shall meet upon the call of the Secretary, and at least once every 180 days thereafter.

(iii) QUORUM.—A majority of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number of members may hold hearings.

E) CHAIRPERSON AND VICE CHAIRPERSON.—

The Secretary shall elect 1 member of the council established under subparagraph (A) to serve as chairperson of the council and 1 member of the council to serve as the vice chairperson of the council.

F) MEETINGS.—

(i) INITIAL MEETING.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the council established under subparagraph (A) shall hold the first meeting.

(ii) ADDITIONAL MEETINGS.—After the first meeting of the council, the council shall meet upon the call of the Secretary, and at least once every 180 days thereafter.

G) ASSESSMENTS OF TECHNOLOGY IMPROVEMENTS.—

(A) that is not under foreign ownership, control, or influence (FOCI) as defined in section 847 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (Public Law 116–92; 10 U.S.C. 2364).

(B) whose beneficial owners, as defined in section 847 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (Public Law 116–92; 10 U.S.C. 2364).
SECTION 12. COORDINATION OF ACTIVITIES.

The Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy, the Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, the Director of the Office of Science and Technology, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of Energy shall, as applicable, coordinate with respect to activities of—

(1) the university technology centers established under section 27 of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950;

(2) the regional technology hubs under section 28 of the Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980, as added by section 7;

(3) the Manufacturing USA Program established under section 34(b)(1) of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 3709);

(4) Federally funded research and development centers;

(5) National Laboratories, as defined in section 2 of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 (42 U.S.C. 13581); and

SUBMITTED RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION 165—CALLING ON THE GOVERNMENT OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION TO PROVIDE EVIDENCE OR TO RELEAS€ UNITED STATES CITIZEN PAUL WHELAN

Mr. PETERS (for himself and Ms. STABENOW) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

S. Res. 165

Whereas United States citizen Paul Whelan is a resident of Novi, Michigan, and a United States Marine Corps veteran; and

Whereas Paul Whelan traveled to Moscow for the wedding of a personal friend on December 22, 2018;

Whereas Russia’s Federal Security Service arrested Paul Whelan at the Metropol Hotel in Moscow on December 28, 2018, and charged him with espionage;

Whereas the Federal Security Service has not provided any evidence of supposed wrongdoing;

Whereas Paul Whelan was imprisoned in Lefortovo Prison and was held there for more than 19 months after his arrest in pre-trial detention;

Whereas the Federal Security Service has not provided any evidence of supposed wrongdoing;

Whereas a Moscow court extended Paul Whelan’s pre-trial detention multiple times without publicly presenting justification or evidence of wrongdoing.

Whereas Paul Whelan's Federal Security Service-appointed lawyer, Vladimir Zherebenkov, said on May 24, 2019, "[The Federal Security Service] always roll[s] out what they have, but in this case, we've seen nothing concrete against Whelan in five months. That means there is nothing;"

Whereas the then United States Ambassador to the Russian Federation, Jon Huntsman, responded on April 12, 2019, to a question about the detention of Paul Whelan, "If the Russians have evidence, they should bring it forward. We have seen nothing. If there was a case, I think the evidence would have been brought forward by now;";

Whereas then Secretary of State Mike Pompeo met with Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov on May 14, 2019, and urged him to ensure United States citizens are not unjustly held abroad;

Whereas the Kremlin has refused Paul Whelan full access to his lawyer and the so-called evidence against him, and any evidence he has seen is in Russian, a language Paul does not read or speak;

Whereas Lefortovo pre-trial detention facility and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs refused to provide medical treatment for Paul Whelan's medical condition, despite being aware of its worsening state, resulting in emergency surgery on May 29, 2020;

Whereas Paul Whelan was wrongfully convicted on June 15, 2020, and sentenced to 16 years in a Russian labor camp by a three-judge panel, in a trial witnessed by United States Ambassador John Sullivan, who referred to it as "a mockery of justice" due to the denial of a fair trial and the exclusion of defense witnesses;

Whereas, in August 2020, on an unknown day because he was moved secretly, Paul Whelan was transferred to camp IK-17, a penal labor camp in Mordovia, where he is forced to work 6 days a week in a garment factory;

Whereas Ambassador John Sullivan, while visiting Paul Whelan at the labor camp in Mordovia, stated that "Russian authorities... have never shown the world evidence of his guilt," and reiterated his call that the Russian authorities correct this injustice and release Mr. Whelan; and

Whereas Secretary of State Antony Blinken spoke with Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov on February 4, 2021, and urged him to release Americans detained in Russia, including Paul Whelan and Trevor Reed, so that they are able to return home to their families in the United States: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) implores the Government of the Russian Federation present credible evidence on the allegations against Paul Whelan or immediate and permanent imprisonment;

(2) implores the Government of the Russian Federation comply with its international treaty obligations and provide unrestricted consular access to Paul Whelan while he remains imprisoned in Russia;

(3) calls on the Government of the Russian Federation to provide Paul Whelan and all other political prisoners their constitutionally afforded due process rights and universal recognition of human rights; and

(4) expresses sympathy to the family of Paul Whelan for this travesty to justice and personal hardship, and expresses hope that their ordeal can soon be brought to a just end.

SENATE RESOLUTION 166—RECOGNIZING THE DUTY OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO CREATE A GREEN NEW DEAL

Mr. MARKEY (for himself, Mr. WYDEN, Ms. WARREN, Mr. SANDERS, Mr. PADILLA, Mr. VAN HOLLEN, Mr. BLUMENTHAL, Mrs. GILIBRAND, Mr. HERRERO, Ms. KLOBUCHAR, and Mr. BOOKER) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Environment and Public Works:

S. RES. 166

Whereas the October 2018 report entitled “Special Report on Global Warming of 1.5°C” of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change and the November 2018 Fourth National Climate Assessment report found that—

(1) human activity is the dominant cause of observed climate change over the past century;

(2) a changing climate is causing sea levels to rise and an increase in wildﬁres, severe storms, droughts, and other extreme weather events that impact human life, healthy communities, and critical infrastructure;

(3) global warming at or greater than 2 degrees Celsius beyond preindustrialized levels will cause—

(A) mass migration from the regions most affected by climate change;

(B) more than $500,000,000,000 in lost annual economic output in the United States by the year 2100;

(C) wildfires that, by 2050, will annually burn at least twice as much forest area in the western United States than was typically burned by wildﬁres in the years preceding 2015;

(D) a loss of more than 99 percent of all coral reefs on Earth;

(E) more than 350,000,000 more people to be exposed globally to deadly heat stress by 2050; and

(F) a risk of damage to $1,000,000,000,000 of public infrastructure and coastal real estate in the United States; and

(4) global temperatures must be kept less than 1.5 degrees Celsius above preindustrialized levels to avoid the most severe impacts of a changing climate, which will require—

(A) global reductions in greenhouse gas emissions from human sources of 40 to 60 percent from 2010 levels by 2050;

(B) net-zero global emissions by 2050;

(C) an acceleration of climate action to achieve global reductions in greenhouse gas emissions sufficient to stay under 1.5 degrees Celsius of warming, through a mobilization on a scale not seen since World War II and the New Deal; and

(5) the United States must take a leading role in reducing emissions through economic transformation; Whereas the United States is currently experiencing severe related crises, with—

(A) life expectancy declining while basic needs, such as clean air, clean water, healthy food, and adequate health care, housing, transportation, and education, are inaccessible to a significant portion of the United States population;

(B) a 24-decade trend of wage stagnation, deindustrialization, and antilabor policies that has led to—

(i) hourly wages overall stagnating since the 1970s despite increased worker productivity;

(ii) the third-worst level of socioeconomic mobility in the developed world before the Great Recession;

(iii) the greatest income inequality since the 1920s, with—

(A) the top 1 percent of earners accruing 91 percent of gains in the first few years of economic recovery after the Great Recession;

(B) a large racial wealth divide amounting to a difference of approximately 90 percent between the average White family and the average Black family; and

(C) a gender earnings gap that results in women earning approximately 80 percent as much as men, at the median;

Whereas climate change, pollution, and environmental destruction have exacerbated systemic racial, racial, environmental, and economic injustices (referred to in this preamble as “systemic injustices”) by disproportionately affecting indigenous peoples, communities of color, migrant communities, deindustrialized communities, depopulated rural communities, the poor, low-income women, workers, the elderly, the disabled, people with disabilities, and youth (referred to in this preamble as “frontline and vulnerable communities”);

Whereas, climate change constitutes a direct threat to the national security of the United States—

(1) by impacting the economic, environmental, and social stability of countries and communities around the world; and

(2) by acting as a threat multiplier;

Whereas the Federal Government-led mobilizations during World War II and the New Deal created the greatest middle class that the United States has ever seen, but many members of frontline and vulnerable communities were excluded from the economic and societal benefits of those mobilizations; and

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) it is the duty of the Federal Government to create a Green New Deal—

(A) to achieve the greenhouse gas and toxic emissions reductions needed to stay under 1.5 degrees Celsius of warming, through a fair and just transition for all communities and workers;

(B) to create millions of good, high-wage union jobs and encourage collective bargaining agreements to ensure prosperity and economic security for all people of the United States;

(C) to invest in the infrastructure and industry of the United States to sustainably and gainfully provide the United States with high technological capacity, the United States; and

(D) inadequate resources for public sector workers to confront the challenges of climate change at the Federal, State, and local level; and

(2) the greatest income inequality since the 1920s, with—

(A) the top 1 percent of earners accruing 91 percent of gains in the first few years of economic recovery after the Great Recession;

(B) a large racial wealth divide amounting to a difference of approximately 90 percent between the average White family and the average Black family; and

(C) a gender earnings gap that results in women earning approximately 80 percent as much as men, at the median;

Whereas climate change, pollution, and environmental destruction have exacerbated systemic racial, racial, environmental, and economic injustices (referred to in this preamble as “systemic injustices”) by disproportionately affecting indigenous peoples, communities of color, migrant communities, deindustrialized communities, depopulated rural communities, the poor, low-income women, workers, the elderly, the disabled, people with disabilities, and youth (referred to in this preamble as “frontline and vulnerable communities”);

(2) the goals described in subparagraphs (A) through (K) of paragraph (1) (referred to in this resolution as the “Green New Deal goals”) should be accomplished through a 10-year national mobilization (referred to in this resolution as the “Green New Deal mobilization”) that will require—

(A) building resiliency against climate change-related disasters, such as extreme weather, by leveraging funding and providing investments for community-defined projects and strategies;

(B) repairing and upgrading the infrastructure in the United States, including—

(i) by eliminating pollution and greenhouse gas emissions as much as technologically feasible;

(ii) by guaranteeing universal access to clean water;

(iii) by reducing the risks posed by climate impacts; and

(iv) by ensuring that any infrastructure bill considered by Congress addresses climate change;

(C) meeting 100 percent of the power demand in the United States through clean, renewable, and zero-emission energy sources, including—

(i) by dramatically expanding and upgrading resources; and

(ii) by deploying new capacity;

(D) building or upgrading to energy-efficient, distributed, and “smart” power grids and ensuring affordable access to electricity; and

(E) upgrading all existing buildings in the United States and building new buildings to achieve maximum energy efficiency, water efficiency, beauty, affordability, comfort, and durability, including through electrification;

(F) spurring massive growth in clean manufacturing in the United States and removing pollution and greenhouse gas emissions from manufacturing and industry as much as is technologically feasible, including by expanding renewable energy manufacturing and investing in existing manufacturing and industry;

(G) working collaboratively with farmers and ranchers in the United States to remove pollution and greenhouse gas emissions from the agricultural sector as much as is technologically feasible, including—

(i) by supporting family farming; and

(ii) by ensuring sustainable farming and land use practices that increase soil health; and

(iii) by building a more sustainable food system that ensures universal access to healthy food;

(H) overhauling transportation systems in the United States to remove pollution and greenhouse gas emissions from the transportation sector as much as is technologically feasible, including through investment in—

(i) zero-emission vehicle and non-motorized and public transportation solutions for community-defined projects and strategies;

(ii) clean, affordable, and accessible public transit; and

(iii) high-speed rail;

(I) mitigating and managing the long-term adverse health, economic, and other effects of pollution and climate change, including by preventing and protecting against community-defined projects and strategies;

(J) removing greenhouse gases from the atmosphere and reducing pollution by restoring natural ecosystems through proven low-tech solutions that increase soil carbon storage, such as land preservation and afforestation;

(K) strengthening and protecting threatened, endangered, and fragile ecosystems through locally appropriate and science-based projects that enhance biodiversity and support climate resiliency;

(L) cleaning up existing hazardous waste sites and abandoned sites and ensuring economic development and sustainability on those sites;

(M) identifying other emission and pollution sources and creating solutions to move them;

(N) promoting the international exchange of technology, expertise, products, funding, and services, with the aim of making the United States the international leader on climate action and to help other countries achieve a Green New Deal;

(3) a Green New Deal must be developed through transparent and inclusive consultation, collaboration, and partnership with frontline and vulnerable communities, labor organizations, working cooperatives, civil society groups, academia, and businesses; and

(4) to achieve the Green New Deal goals and mobilization, a Green New Deal will require—

(A) providing and leveraging, in a way that ensures that the public receives appropriate ownership stakes and returns on investment, the capital (including through commie equity capital) needed to meet through community grants, public banks, and other public financing), technical expertise, supporting policies, and other forms of assistance to communities, organizations, Federal, State, and local government agencies, and businesses working on the Green New Deal mobilization;

(B) ensuring that the Federal Government takes into account the complete environmental and social costs and impacts of emissions through—

(i) existing laws;

(ii) new policies and programs; and

(iii) ensuring that frontline and vulnerable communities are not adversely affected;

(C) providing resources, training, and high-quality education, including higher education, to all people of the United States, with a focus on frontline and vulnerable communities, so that all people of the United States may be full and equal participants in the Green New Deal mobilization;

(D) making public investments in the research and development of new clean and renewable energy technologies and industries;

(E) directing investments to spur economic development, 100 percent, energy efficiency; and industrial and business in local and regional economies, and build wealth and community ownership, while providing high-quality jobs that create economic, social, and environmental benefits in frontline and vulnerable communities, and deindustrialized communities, that otherwise struggle with the transition away from greenhouse gas intensive industries;

(F) ensuring the use of democratic and participatory processes that are inclusive of and led by frontline and vulnerable communities and workers to plan, implement, and administer the Green New Deal mobilization at the local level;

(G) ensuring that the Green New Deal mobilization creates high-quality union jobs that pay prevailing wages, hires local workers, offers training and advancement opportunities, and guarantees direct replacement of lost wages, health care, retirement, and other benefits for workers affected by the transition;

(H) guaranteeing a job with a family-sustaining wage, adequate family and medical leave, paid vacations, and retirement security to all people of the United States;

(I) strengthening and protecting the right of all workers to organize, unionize, and collectively bargain free of coercion, intimidation, and harassment;

(J) strengthening and enforcing labor, workplace health and safety, antidiscrimination, and wage and hour standards across all employers, industries, and sectors;

(K) enacting and enforcing trade rules, procurement standards, and border adjustments with strong labor and environmental protections—

(i) to stop the transfer of jobs and pollution overseas; and

(ii) to grow domestic manufacturing in the United States;

(L) ensuring that public lands, waters, and oceans are protected and that eminent domain is not abused for purposes to be determined by the Federal Government;

(M) obtaining the free, prior, and informed consent of indigenous peoples for all decisions that affect indigenous peoples and their traditional territories, honoring all treaties and agreements with indigenous peoples, and protecting and enforcing the sovereignty and land rights of indigenous peoples;

(N) ensuring a commercial environment where every businessperson is free from unfair competition and domination by domestic or international monopolies; and

(O) providing all the people of the United States with—

(i) high-quality health care;

(ii) affordable, safe, and adequate housing;

(iii) economic security; and

(iv) clean water, clean air, healthy and affordable food, and access to nature.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Landin Jeffrey for receiving the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award.

Landin Jeffrey is an 11th grader at Eagle Ridge Academy and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Landin Jeffrey is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Landin Jeffrey for winning the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the centennial anniversary of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor. I am proud to celebrate their 100 years of service to the children, youth, and families of our Ann Arbor community.

Kiwanis International was founded in 1915 in Detroit, Michigan. In its early years, members focused on business networking but changed its focus to service, particularly service to children, by 1919. Following this admirable mission of service to local communities, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor was organized on May 13, 1921 and was chartered on June 13, 1921 with 60 members. In 1922, Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor began working with the University of Michigan Hospital to provide recreation and education for children staying there, and later established a Michigan District project that enabled Kiwanis chapters to serve children in hospitals across the state. Beyond their work in hospitals, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor has raised money through their thrift sales that contribute to a variety of local charitable organizations.

A century later, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor continues to be a pillar of our Ann Arbor community. Since their founding, the club has inducted over 1,100 members and remains one of Michigan’s largest Kiwanis Clubs. Throughout the years, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor has made a tremendous difference in our community, completing tens of thousands of volunteer hours, and providing over $6 million in grants and services for children, students, and families in our community. With the help of great leadership and their dedicated members and volunteers, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor has lent its unwavering support to those in need, striving to improve our community and uplift everyone in it.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today in celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor. We are grateful for the club’s century of impactful work and wish the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor continued success in service in the years ahead.

HON. DONALD NORCROSS

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. NORCROSS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of William “Billy” J. Krautwald.

Bill was born in Philadelphia, PA but lived out 30 years of his life in Franklinville, NJ before moving to Ellabell, GA. He then made his home in Richmond Hill, where he settled for the next 4 years.

My union brother, Billy Krautwald, believed, with his heart and soul, the basic principles and core values of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. He was a devoted member of the union who will be dearly missed.

Billy’s career with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers spanned almost five decades holding positions ranging from the executive board to president of the union. When Billy decided to retire, he would go on to train the next generation of union activists and become involved in politics to campaign for Habitat for Humanity.

Billy was a devoted father to his two sons, Jeff Krautwald and Billy Krautwald. He was loving husband to Peggy Krautwald of 47 years, and supportive family member and friend to those around him. He is remembered for all the help, guidance, and direction he offered to the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, blessing my fellow brothers and sisters with the skills of a master electrician and the heart of a lion to make our union one of the greatest in the country.

Madam Speaker, I ask you to join me in honoring the life of William “Billy” J. Krautwald of Philadelphia, PA, the “old guard” union worker, a leader, a friend, and a celebrated member of the New Jersey community.

HON. ANDY KIM

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. KIM of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Eddie Hill’s 100th birthday. Mr. Hill is a loving father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather. Mr. Hill proudly served his country in World War II as part of the 1695th Engineer Combat Battalion in an all-black combat unit. After serving in dangerous combat duty across Europe, Mr. Hill returned home, went to technical school, and went on to become an auto repair specialist. He even owned his own business, a true testament to his contributions to his community.

For his contributions, his community loved him back. For his pre-birthday celebrations, his neighbors, friends, and family came together to honor Mr. Hill in a large drive-by parade. It is clear to everyone that knows Mr. Hill, that he has made the most of each of his one-hundred years. I wish him many more pursuing his passions of following baseball and gardening.

On behalf of my community and our neighbors across Burlington and Ocean Counties, I wish him a happy birthday and thank him for his service to our Nation.

SIERRA LOPEZ

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Sierra Lopez for receiving the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award.

Sierra Lopez is an 11th grader at Mountain Range HS and received this award because her determination and hard work have allowed her to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Sierra Lopez is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Sierra Lopez for winning the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. I have no doubt she will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of her future accomplishments.

IN RECOGNITION OF DIXIE COUNTY’S CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

HON. NEAL P. DUNN
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. DUNN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the centennial celebration of Dixie County, Florida. Dixie County, FL will turn 100 years old on April 25, 2021. Formerly part of Lafayette County, Dixie County was created in 1921 and is home to the incorporated towns of Cross City, Old Town, and Horseshoe Beach.

Dixie County is known for showcasing its rich history and beautiful landscapes. Home of the Lower Suwannee National Wildlife Refuge, Dixie County is a main attraction for the historic Suwannee River, and the unique beaches nestled along the Gulf of Mexico.

Cross City is the county seat of Dixie and is known for its central location along the Old Spanish Trail, running East to West and “crossing” with Old Salt Road that leads to Horseshoe Beach. In and around Cross City, you will find rural small towns that promote a thriving logging industry. South of Cross City you will find a coastal oasis where an abundance of commercial fishermen still exists today. In addition to logging and fishing, there is an array of farming operations that largely contribute to Dixie County’s economy.

Boat, plane, or train, there is no limit in getting to and from Dixie County. The Dixie County Airport has served the community and our nation for many years. The airport was previously used as an advanced fighter base during World War II.

Generations of some of the most hardworking, hospitable, and humble people have called Dixie County, Florida home. Since its inception, the citizens of Dixie County have taken pride in preserving its history and educating our youth. Built in 1910, Old Town Elementary School is the oldest public building in Dixie County and currently houses the Dixie County Historical Society. Year after year, the county has worked hard to promote community engagement by hosting annual festivals to showcase Dixie’s rich cultural history. This year is no exception.

It is my honor to recognize 100 years of growth and prosperity for Dixie County.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Jassmen (Jay) Rozyc for winning the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. I have no doubt she will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of her future accomplishments.

C OST ESTIMATE FOR H. R. 1333 N ATIONAL ORIGIN-BASED ANTI-DISCRIMINATION FOR NON-IMMIGRANTS ACT

HON. ZOE LOFGREN OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Ms. LOFGREN. Madam Speaker, I hereby include in the RECORD the cost estimate prepared by the Congressional Budget Office for H. R. 1333, the National Origin-Based Antidiscrimination for Nonimmigrants Act. The cost estimate was not available at the time of the filing of the Committee Report.

H. R. 1333, NATIONAL ORIGIN-BASED ANTIDISCRIMINATION FOR NONIMMIGRANTS ACT

Statutory pay-as-you-go procedures apply? No.

Increases on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2022? No.

MANDATE EFFECTS

Contains intergovernmental mandate? No.
Contains private-sector mandate? No.

The Immigration and Nationality Act “grants the President broad discretion to suspend the entry of aliens into the United States.” H. R. 1333 would amend that act to narrow the President’s authority to impose entry or visa restrictions on aliens who enter the United States on a non-U.S. national basis, based on their country of birth, country of nationality, and certain other characteristics. By limiting the President’s authority to restrict entry into the United States, the bill could increase the number of aliens who arrive in the country and receive federal benefits. However, the current Administration has not proposed any entry or visa restrictions that would be affected by H.R. 1333; to the contrary, it has revoked several entry and visa restrictions that had been promulgated in the previous Administration: Therefore, CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1333 would have no budgetary effects. (CBO has no basis for predicting whether a future Administration would seek to impose entry or visa restrictions in the absence of this legislation.)

CBO has reviewed sections 1, 3, and 4 of H.R. 1333 and determined that those provisions contain no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA). CBO has not reviewed section 2 of H.R. 1333 for intergovernmental or private-sector mandates. Section 4 of UMRA excludes from the application of that act any legislative provisions that would establish or enforce statutory rights prohibiting discrimination. CBO has determined section 2 of H.R. 1333 fails within that exclusion because it would extend protections against discrimination in the immigration process based on sex, national origin, and religion.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is David Rafferty. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Ms. JOHNSON of Texas. Madam Speaker, today I am pleased to be joined by Ranking Member Lucas in introducing the Combating Sexual Harassment in Science Act.

Sexual harassment in the academic workplace, when compared to the military, private sector, and government, has been recognized as a serious problem, with 58 percent of women in academia experiencing sexual harassment. This behavior undermines career advancement for... women in critical STEM fields. Many women report leaving promising careers in academic research altogether due to sexual harassment. Women of color are even more likely to experience sexual harassment and to feel unsafe at work. We cannot afford—morally, scientifically, or economically—to continue to lose these skilled scientists and engineers, particularly from groups that are already underrepresented in STEM.

As recommended in the landmark report by the National Academies entitled Sexual Harassment of Women: Climate, Culture, and Consequences in Academic Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, this bill establishes a National Science Foundation program to support research into the factors contributing to sexual harassment in the scientific workforce, as well as the collection of data on the prevalence of sexual harassment in STEM. Furthermore, this bill directs the Office of Science and Technology Policy to issue uniform policy guidelines to Federal science agencies to ensure that they develop policies to dedicate resources to prevent and respond to incidents of sexual harassment at academic institutions receiving federal research funding. It also creates an interagency working group to improve coordination and communication among agencies.

It is my hope that this legislation will build upon progress already made by the National Science Foundation and other agencies over the last few years. In 2018, the Foundation updated its award terms and conditions to ensure the agency is alerted of findings of sexual harassment or administrative actions taken against NSF-funded researchers during the course of an investigation. It is vital that agencies and grantees, as stewards of Federal money, take seriously their responsibility to foster a healthy working environment as they train the next generation of scientists. It is encouraging that other agency heads have taken steps to address sexual harassment in research. Following NSF’s lead, the National Institutes of Health have similarly updated grant rules. The approach must be coordinated to minimize confusion and burden for institutions and researchers.

I also credit Dr. Kevin Droegemeier, former OSTP Director, for his commitment to this issue, and to the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology last year, Dr. Droegemeier reported that the Joint Committee on Research Environments (JCORE) Subcommittee on Safe and Inclusive Environments was compiling a comprehensive inventory of Federal agency policies and practices targeted at addressing all forms of harassment in the research environment, with the intent to identify best practices and develop a coordinated Federal action plan. I urge the current administration to make this a priority. These resources are urgently needed.

Scientific societies, universities, national laboratories, and those in leadership positions across the scientific enterprise also play an important role in combating sexual harassment in the sciences. I am pleased that my legislation is endorsed by 23 scientific societies and student organizations. In developing this bill, feedback from university associations and scientific societies has been invaluable, and it is encouraging that so many key players are committed to addressing sexual harassment in science.

This legislation supports a coordinated evidence-based approach to addressing the problem of sexual harassment at research universities and funds research that will serve as the foundation for future initiatives in this area. I urge the rest of my colleagues to join us and help move this legislation forward into law.

JUAN ARREDONDO

HON. ED PERLMUTTER
OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Juan Arredondo for receiving the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. Juan Arredondo is a 12th grader at Vantage Point High School and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Juan Arredondo is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives. I extend my deepest congratulations to Juan Arredondo for winning the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 65TH ANNIVERSARY OF LOREN AND ELOUISE SUTTON

HON. MIKE ROGERS OF ALABAMA

Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 65th wedding anniversary of Loren C. and Eloise Sutton who were married on June 8, 1956.

Rev. Sutton serves as Pastor Emeritus and Senior Pastor at Airview Church of God in Opelika, Alabama.

The Suttons were blessed with four children, two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Madam Speaker, please join me in recognizing Loren and Eloise and wishing them a happy 65th wedding anniversary.

THOMAS JEFFERSON DAY

HON. ED PERLMUTTER
OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud the anniversary of Thomas Jefferson’s birthday.

As our third President, a Founding Father, and the main author of the Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson was a formidable voice in our nascent American democracy. Jefferson championed the ideas of religious tolerance, human rights, and liberty for all. He considered democracy, along with a free press and robust public education system, to be the embodiment of a thriving, successful society. These indelible notions continue to be fundamental to our country today.

On his 278th birthday, I extend my deepest thanks and respect to Thomas Jefferson for his commitment to the ideals of democracy and his stringent belief in the strength of the United States of America.

CONGRATULATING DHWANI KHAREL ON BEING NAMED SOUTH DAKOTA’S 2021 TRUMAN SCHOLAR

HON. DUSTY JOHNSON
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. JOHNSON of South Dakota. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Dhwani Kharel on being named South Dakota’s 2021 Truman Scholar.

The Truman Scholarship was established by Congress in 1975 as a living legacy to President Harry Truman to support and inspire the next generation of public service leaders. Dhwani was one of 62 Scholars selected from a record number of 845 applicants.

As a junior at Dartmouth College, Dhwani has already demonstrated a commitment to public service and leadership. She is actively involved in sexual violence prevention advocacy on Dartmouth’s campus and has interned at both the Congressional Research Service and the Brookings Area United Way.

I commend Dhwani for her outstanding record of service, hard work, and leadership. I have no doubt she will excel in the future as she plans to pursue a career in the legal field to advance women’s rights.

As a Truman Scholar myself, I am honored to congratulate Dhwani on this honor. I look forward to seeing all that she accomplishes.

HOMELAND SECURITY ACQUISITION PROFESSIONAL CAREER PROGRAM ACT

SPEECH OF
HON. DINA TITUS
OF NEVADA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, April 19, 2021

Ms. TITUS. Madam Speaker, the Department of Homeland Security’s staff, like all our government agencies, should reflect the diversity of this country. That is why I rise to offer H.R. 367, the “Homeland Security Acquisition Professional Career Program Act.”

Due in large part to the American Rescue Plan, the United States is well on its way to crushing the virus that has plagued us for over a year. As a result, domestic travel is increasing.

Accordingly, we must ensure that airports, like McCarran International in Las Vegas, have the equipment and trained personnel they need to safely and efficiently welcome travelers.

We can and should fill these frontline jobs, ranging from TSA agents to cyber security analysts, with veterans and graduates of HBCUs and Hispanic-serving institutions. That is exactly what my bill seeks to do.

Each year, the Department spends billions of dollars acquiring the goods and services needed to carry out its many missions. In addition to COVID-19 supplies, this includes everything from Coast Guard ships to the screening technologies that the Transportation Security Administration uses to secure our nation’s travel infrastructure.

Unfortunately, a Government Accountability Office review found that 51 of these DHS major acquisition programs experienced workforce shortfalls. In an effort to address said shortages, DHS established the Acquisition Professional Career Program.

This 3-year development program affords individuals rigorous training and on-the-job experience within DHS. It also provides rotations to other components or offices within the Department, mentorship, and additional career development opportunities.

As a result, program participants graduate as certified acquisition professionals in their respective fields, such as contract specialists, cost estimators, and systems engineers. H.R. 367 will ensure this program remains in place for years to come so that DHS maintains a pipeline for qualified acquisition leaders.

My bill will also require DHS to provide Congress with key information on the program for the next 5 years. H.R. 367, if enacted, would help DHS strengthen and diversify its acquisition workforce by directing recruitment efforts to historically underrepresented individuals.

This will ensure that the Department, specifically including our TSA officials, is more representative and is more sensitive to the needs, cultural differences, and societal expectations of our heterogeneous population, including the traveling public.

With that, I urge my colleagues to vote ‘yes’ on its passage.

URIAH HENRY
HON. ED PERLMUTTER
OF COLORADO
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Uriah Henry for receiving the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. Uriah Henry is a 12th grader at Legacy High School and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Uriah Henry is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Uriah Henry for winning the Adams County Mayors and Commissioners Youth Award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

TRIBUTE TO BISHOP CHARLES E. DAVIS

HON. DANNY K. DAVIS OF ILLINOIS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Mr. DANNY K. DAVIS of Illinois. Madam Speaker, Bishop Charles E. Davis was born in Leland, Mississippi in 1923, graduated from high school in 1940 and migrated to Chicago, Illinois. In 1940 at the age of 19, he joined the military and participated in World War II.

In the military, Charles Edward Davis spent time in France, Holland, and Germany. He was a good soldier and attained the rank of Sergeant. After the war, he returned to Chicago and with his friend James McDonald, they opened an upholstery business and through his friendship with the McDonald Family he was introduced to the Indiana Avenue Pentecostal Church. He was welcomed into Indiana Avenue by Elder Charles Ellis and enjoyed going there and being with the people.

After the passing of Elder Ellis the new Pastor Elder Odee Akins recognized the leadership abilities of the young man and assigned him to leadership roles. He served as Sunday School Superintendent, Young Peoples Leader and President of the Senior Choir, all of the time growing in spirituality and experiencing the call to preach.

In 1970, Elder Charles E. Davis was elected Pastor of the Indiana Avenue Pentecostal Church after the death of Elder Atkins. He soon resigned from his job at Hart, Schaftner and Marx and became a full-time Pastor and the rest became history.

The church grew, new programs were established, community outreach took place, the church acquired property in the area as both Elder Davis and the church rose in religious, social, and political circles.

Elder Charles Davis and his wife of 43 years Geraldine Olivia Davis were actively involved in all aspects of community life and in 1986 he was elevated to Bishop.

After the death of his wife Geraldine he was blessed to wed again in 2004, to his second wife Dr. Jessie Bell Ray and they continued to provide great leadership until his death and being on earth for 98 years Bishop Charles Edwards Davis went home to meet his maker, May He Rest In Peace.

Congressional Record
The Congressional Record (USPS 087-390). The Periodicals postage is paid at Washington, D.C. The public proceedings of each House of Congress, as reported by the Official Reporters thereof, are printed pursuant to directions of the Joint Committee on Printing as authorized by appropriate provisions of Title 44, United States Code, and published for each day that one or both Houses are in session, excepting very infrequent instances when two or more unusually small consecutive issues are printed one time. ¶ Public access to the Congressional Record is available online through the U.S. Government Publishing Office, at www.govinfo.gov, free of charge to the user. The information is updated online each day the Congressional Record is published. For more information, contact the GPO Customer Contact Center, U.S. Government Publishing Office. Phone 202-512-1800, or 866-512-1800 (toll-free). E-Mail, contactcenter@gpo.gov. ¶ To place an order for any of these products, visit the U.S. Government Online Bookstore at: bookstore.gpo.gov. Mail orders to: Superintendent of Documents, P.O. Box 979050, St. Louis, MO 63197-9000, or phone orders to 866-512-1800 (toll-free), 202-512-1800 (D.C. area), or fax to 202-512-2104. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, or use VISA, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, or GPO Deposit Account. ¶ Following each session of Congress, the daily Congressional Record is revised, printed, permanently bound and sold by the Superintendent of Documents in individual parts or by sets. ¶ With the exception of copyrighted articles, there are no restrictions on the republication of material from the Congressional Record.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the Superintendent of Documents, Congressional Record, U.S. Government Publishing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, along with the entire mailing label from the last issue received.
