IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOVEMBER 20, 2024

Mr. GRAVES of Louisiana (for himself and Mr. CARTER of Louisiana) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources

---

A BILL

To amend the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act and the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act to provide for the delegation of authority to Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama to manage certain expanded submerged lands, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Offshore Parity Act 5       of 2024”.

6       SEC. 2. PURPOSES.

7       The purposes of this Act are—

1                             (1) to provide equity to the States of Louisiana, 2                             Mississippi, and Alabama with respect to the sea-
3                             ward boundaries of the States in the Gulf of Mexico 4                             by delegating management of the submerged lands 5                             from 3 geographical miles to 3 marine leagues if the 6                             States meet certain conditions not later than 5 years 7                             after the date of enactment of this Act;

8                             (2) in delegating the authority to administer 9                             any leases, easements, rights-of-use, and rights-of-10                           way, the States shall ensure that the rights of les-11                           sees, operators, and holders of leases, easements, 12                           rights-of-use, and rights-of-way on the submerged 13                           land are protected; and 14                             (3) to improve the management of fisheries by 15                             allowing the States of Louisiana, Mississippi, and 16                             Alabama to oversee fisheries management in the ex-17                           panded seaward boundaries.

18 SEC. 3. DELEGATION OF THE MANAGEMENT OF OIL, GAS,
19                             AND OTHER ENERGY ACTIVITIES ON THE EX-
20                             PANDED SUBMERGED LAND OF LOUISIANA,
21                             MISSISSIPPI, AND ALABAMA.

22                             (a) DELEGATION.—The Outer Continental Shelf 23 Lands Act (42 U.S.C. 1301 et seq.) is amended by adding 24 at the end the following:

1     “SEC. 34. DELEGATION OF THE MANAGEMENT OF OIL, GAS,
2                 AND OTHER ENERGY ACTIVITIES ON THE EX-
3                 PANDED SUBMERGED LAND OF LOUISIANA,
4                 MISSISSIPPI, AND ALABAMA.

5     “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

6                 “(1) COAST LINE.—The term ‘coast line’ has 7                 the meaning given such term in section 2 of the 8                 Submerged Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1301).

9                 “(2) EXPANDED SUBMERGED LAND.—The term 10                 ‘expanded submerged land’ means the area of the 11                 outer Continental Shelf that is located between 3 12                 geographical miles and 3 marine leagues seaward of 13                 the coast line of the State as of the day before the 14                 date of the enactment of this section.

15                 “(3) SECRETARY.—The term ‘Secretary’ means 16                 the Secretary of the Interior.

17                 “(4) STATE.—The term ‘State’ means Lou-18                 isiana, Mississippi, or Alabama.

19     “(b) DELEGATION.—Upon written request of a State 20                 before the date that is 5 years after the date of enactment 21                 of the Offshore Parity Act of 2024, the Secretary shall, 22                 except as provided in subsection (c), delegate to the State 23                 the relevant authorities of the Secretary under this Act, 24                 except the authority under sections 14 and 20, to grant 25                 and manage leases of the expanded submerged land of the 26                 State if the Secretary finds that—

1           “(1) it is likely the State will provide adequate 2       resources to carry out such authorities;

3           “(2) the State has demonstrated that it will ef-
4       fectively and faithfully administer the applicable
5       rules and regulations of the Secretary under this 6       Act, including the requirements of subsection (c) of 7       this section; and 8           “(3) such delegation will not create an unre-9       sonable burden on any lessee.

10          “(c) REQUIREMENTS.—

11          “(1) NO LEASE OR TRACT DIVIDED.—The Sec-12       retary may not delegate authority under this section 13       with respect to any lease of an area that is not whol-14       ly located within the expanded submerged land of 15       the State.

16          “(2) APPLICABILITY TO EXISTING LEASES.— 17       The delegation of authority under this section shall 18       apply to any lease of the expanded submerged land 19       of the State granted by the Secretary before the 20       date of enactment of the Offshore Parity Act of 21       2024.

22          “(3) NO 5 YEAR PLAN REQUIRED.—A State to 23       which authority is delegated under this section shall 24       not be required to prepare, revise, or maintain an oil 25       and gas leasing program under section 18.

1       “(4) REVENUE.—

2                 “(A) RENTALS, ROYALTIES, AND OTHER 3             SUMS.—A State to which authority is delegated 4             under this section may collect rentals, royalties,
5             and other sums, as determined by the State, 6             from any lease granted after the date of enact-7             ment of the Offshore Parity Act of 2024 by the 8             State under such authority.

9                 “(B) MINIMUM BID AND ROYALTY
10             AMOUNTS.—The minimum bid and royalty 11             amounts under section 8 shall not apply to any 12             lease of the expanded submerged land of the 13             State granted by the State after the date of en-
14             actment of the Offshore Parity Act of 2024.

15        “(C) DISPOSITION OF REVENUE.—

16                 “(i) EXISTING LEASES.—The delega-17             tion of authority under this section shall 18             not affect the disposition of revenue under 19             any other provision of Federal law from 20             any lease of the expanded submerged land
21             of the State granted before the date of en-
22             actment of the Offshore Parity Act of 23             2024.

24                 “(ii) NEW LEASES.—Section 9 of this 25             Act and section 105 of the Gulf of Mexico

1           Energy Security Act of 2006 shall not 2           apply with respect to a lease granted after 3           the date of enactment of the Offshore Par-
4           ity Act of 2024 by a State under authority 5           delegated under this section.

6           “(5) CITIZEN SUITS, COURT JURISDICTION, AND 7           JUDICIAL REVIEW.—Section 23 shall not apply with 8           respect to a lease granted after the date of enact-9           ment of the Offshore Parity Act of 2024 by a State 10          under authority delegated under this section.

11          “(6) LIABILITY.—

12           “(A) IN GENERAL.—A State to which au-13           thority is delegated by the Secretary under this 14           section shall indemnify the United States for 15           any liability to any holder of an oil, gas, or 16           other energy lease of the expanded submerged
17           land of the State granted before such delegation 18           of authority from the taking of any property in-19           terest or breach of contract as a result of—

20           “(i) the delegation of such authority;

21           or

22           “(ii) the management of any such 23           lease.

24           “(B) DEDUCTION FROM OIL AND GAS
25           LEASING REVENUES.—The Secretary may de-

1           duct from the amounts otherwise payable to a 2           State under section 8(g)(2) the amount of any 3           final nonappealable judgment for a taking or 4           breach of contract by such State described in 5           subparagraph (A).

6           “(7) TRANSFER OF BONDS.—

7           “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 8           days after delegating authority under this sec-
9           tion, the Secretary shall transfer any surety 10          bonds for oil, gas, or other energy leases of the 11          expanded submerged land of a State granted
12          before the date of enactment of the Offshore 13          Parity Act of 2024 to the applicable State. The 14          applicable State shall ensure that any decom-15          missioning of a facility with respect to such 16          leases is carried out in accordance with applica-17          ble Federal law, including regulations.

18           “(B) FAILURE TO TRANSFER BONDS.—If 19          the Secretary does not transfer a surety bond 20          for a lease under subparagraph (A) by the 21          deadline described in such subparagraph, the 22          Secretary shall ensure that any decommis-
23          sioning of a facility with respect to such lease 24          is carried out in accordance with applicable
25          Federal law, including regulations.”.

1       (b) SEAWARD BOUNDARY OF LOUISIANA, MIS-
2 SISSIPPI, AND ALABAMA.—Section 8(g) of the Outer Con-
3 tinental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1337(g)) is amended
4 by adding at the end the following:

“(8) DEFINITION OF SEAWARD BOUNDARY OF LOUISIANA, MISSISSIPPI, AND ALABAMA.—In this subsection, the term ‘seaward boundary’ means, with respect to each of the States of Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama, 3 marine leagues seaward of the coast line (as that term is defined in section 2 of the Submerged Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1301)) of each such State as each such coast line exists as of the day before the date of the enactment of this paragraph.”.

14 SEC. 4. STATE JURISDICTION UNDER MAGNUSON-STEVENS
15 FISHERY CONSERVATION AND MANAGEMENT
16 ACT.

22 (2) in subparagraph (C)(ii), by striking the pe-23 riod at the end and inserting “, and”

(2) by adding at the end the following:

1                 “(D) with respect to each of the States of 2                 Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi, to 3 ma-3                 rine leagues seaward of the coast line (as that 4                 term is defined in section 2 of the Submerged 5                 Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1301)) of each such 6                 State as each such coast line exists as of the 7                 day before the date of the enactment of this 8                 subparagraph.”.

9                 (b) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—

10                 (1) HIGHLY MIGRATORY SPECIES.—The amend-11                 ments made by this section may not be construed to 12                 limit or otherwise affect the authority of the Federal 13                 Government with respect to highly migratory spe-14                 cies, species listed as a threatened species or an en-15                 dangered species pursuant to the Endangered Spe-
16                 cies Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.), or fishery 17                 resources subject to international agreements as pro-18                 vided under Federal law, including the Magnuson-
19                 Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act
20                 (16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.), the Endangered Species 21                 Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.), and relevant 22                 international treaties.

23                 (2) FEDERAL JURISDICTION.—The amend-
24                 ments made by this section may not be construed to 25                 limit or otherwise affect the authority of the Federal

1       Government under the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery
2       Conservation and Management Act (16 U.S.C. 1801 3       et seq.) with respect to—

(A) the exclusive economic zone beyond the extended State waters of a covered State; or

(B) activities within the extended State waters of a covered State that relate to national security, international obligations, or other matters reserved for Federal authority.

10 (c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(4) EXTENDED STATE WATERS.—The term “extended State waters” means 3 marine leagues seaward of the coast line of a covered State as each

1 such coast line exists as of the day before the date
2 of the enactment of this section.

3 (5) FISHERY RESOURCE.—The term “fishery 4 resource” has the meaning given the term in section 5 3 of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation
6 and Management Act (16 U.S.C. 1802).

7 (6) HIGHLY MIGRATORY SPECIES.—The term
8 “highly migratory species” has the meaning given 9 the term in section 3 of the Magnuson-Stevens Fish-10 ery Conservation and Management Act (16 U.S.C.
11 1802).
