in the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 26, 2023

Mr. ALFORD introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To state the policy of the United States with respect to religious freedom in the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Combatting the Persecution of Religious Groups in China Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

1 (1) According to estimates included in International Religious Freedom reports issued by the Department of State, Buddhists comprise 18.2 percent of the total population in the People’s Republic of China, Christians, 5.1 percent, Muslims, 1.8 percent, followers of folk religions, 21 percent, and atheists or unaffiliated persons, 52.12 percent, with Hindus, Jews, and Taoists comprising less than 1 percent.

10 (2) The Government of the People’s Republic of China recognizes 5 official religions, Buddhism, Taoism, Islam, Protestantism, and Catholicism (according to an International Religious Freedom report issued by the Department of State), and only religious groups belonging to 1 of the 5 sanctioned “patriotic religious associations” representing those religions are permitted to register with the Government and hold worship service, excluding all other faiths and denying the ability to worship without being registered with the Government.

21 (3) The activities of state-sanctioned religious organizations in the People’s Republic of China are regulated by the Chinese Communist Party, which manages all aspects of religious life in the country.

1 (4) The Chinese Communist Party is actively 2 seeking to control, govern, and manipulate all as-3 pects of faith through the “Sinicization of Religion”, 4 a process intended to shape religious traditions so
5 they conform with the objectives of the Chinese 6 Communist Party.

7 (5) On February 1, 2018, the Government of 8 the People’s Republic of China implemented new re-9 ligious regulations that imposed restrictions on Chi-10 nese contacts with overseas religious organizations, 11 required Government approval for religious schools,
12 websites, and any online religious service, and effec-13 tively banned unauthorized religious gatherings and 14 teachings.

15 (6) There are numerous reports that authorities
16 in the People’s Republic of China have forced clo-
17 sures of Buddhist, Christian, Islamic, and Taoist 18 houses of worship and destroyed public displays of 19 religious symbols throughout the country.

20 (7) Authorities of the People’s Republic of 21 China have arrested and detained religious leaders 22 trying to hold services online.

23 (8) There are credible reports of Chinese au-24 thorities raiding house churches and other places of 25 religious worship, removing and confiscating reli-

1 gious paraphernalia, installing surveillance cameras 2 on religious property, pressuring congregations to 3 sing songs of the Chinese Communist Party and dis-4 play the national flag during worship, forcing 5 churches to replace images of Jesus Christ or the 6 Virgin Mary with pictures of General Secretary Xi 7 Jinping, and banning children and students from at-8 tending religious services.

9 (9) It has been reported that the Government
10 of the People’s Republic of China is rewriting and 11 will issue a version of the Bible with the “correct 12 understanding” of the text according to the Chinese 13 Communist Party. Authorities continue to restrict 14 the printing and distribution of the Bible, Quran,
15 and other religious literature and penalize publishing
16 and copying businesses that handle religious mate-17 rials.

18 (10) According to International Religious Free-19 dom reports issued by the Department of State, the 20 Government of the People’s Republic of China has 21 imprisoned thousands of individuals of all faiths for 22 practicing their religious beliefs and often labels
23 groups of those individuals as “cults”.

24 (11) According to the Department of Labor, the 25 Government of the People’s Republic of China has

1 arbitrarily detained more than 1,000,000 Uyghurs
2 and other mostly Muslim minorities in China's far 3 western Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region.

4 (12) It has been reported that the Government
5 of the People's Republic of China engages in 6 transnational repression activities such as relentlessly
7 intimidating diaspora religious communities
8 and others with ties to China.

9 (13) As of October 11, 2019, the Political Pris-
10 oner Database maintained by the Congressional-Ex-
11 ecutive Commission on China counted 1,598 cases
12 with information on political and religious prisoners 13 known or believed to be detained or imprisoned in 14 China.

15 (14) As of June 30, 2023, the Political Pris-16 oner Database maintained by the human rights non-17 governmental organization Dui Hua Foundation 18 counted 2,897 individuals imprisoned in China for 19 “organizing or using a ‘cult’ to undermine imple-20 mentation of the law”.

21 (15) The United States Commission on Inter-
22 national Religious Freedom (USCIRF) maintains a 23 list of religious prisoners of conscience who were im-24 prisoned in China for their religious belief or non-25 belief, religious activity, religious freedom advocacy,

1 and other related issues. Those prisoners of con-
2 science include—

3 (A) the 11th Panchen Lama, Gedun
4 Choekyi Nyima, who has been held captive
5 along with his parents since May 17, 1995;

6 (B) Pastor Zhang Shaojie, a Three-Self 7 church pastor from Nanle County in central 8 Henan, who was sentenced in July 2014 to 12
9 years in prison for “gathering a crowd to dis-10 rupt the public order”;

11 (C) Pastor John Cao, a United States per-12 manent resident from Greensboro, North Caro-13 lina, who was sentenced to 7 years in prison in 14 March 2018 under contrived charges of orga-15 nizing illegal border crossings; and

16 (D) Pastor Wang Yi of the Early Rain
17 Covenant Church, who was arrested and sen-18 tenced to 9 years in prison for “inciting to sub-19 vert state power” and “illegal business oper-20 ations”.

21 (16) Authorities of the People’s Republic of 22 China continue to detain Falun Gong practitioners 23 and subject them to harsh and inhumane treatment.

24 (17) Since 1999, the Department of State has 25 designated the People’s Republic of China as a coun-

1 try of particular concern for religious freedom under 2 the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998
3 (22 U.S.C. 6401 et seq.).

4 (18) On June 17, 2020, the Uyghur Human 5 Rights Policy Act of 2020 (Public Law 116–145)
6 came into force, requiring reporting on human rights
7 violations and abuses committed by the Government
8 of the People’s Republic of China against Uyghurs
9 and other Muslim minority groups in the Xinjiang
10 Uyghur Autonomous Region and calling for the use 11 of targeted sanctions against officials of the People’s 12 Republic of China found to have engaged in such 13 violations.

14 (19) On June 21, 2022, section 3 of Public
15 Law 117–78 (22 U.S.C. 6901 note) (commonly re-16 ferred to as the “Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention 17 Act”) came into force, blocking products, goods, and 18 material originating from the Xinjiang Uyghur Au-
19 tonomous Region from entering the United States 20 due to the risk that such items were produced using 21 forced labor.

22 (20) The National Security Strategy of the 23 United States, issued in 2017, 2015, 2006, 2002,
24 1999, 1998, and 1997, committed the United States
25 to promoting international religious freedom to ad-

1 vance the security, economic, and other national in-2 terests of the United States.

3 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

4 (a) HOLDING SENIOR OFFICIALS OF THE PEOPLE'S 5 REPUBLIC OF CHINA RESPONSIBLE FOR RELIGIOUS 6 FREEDOM ATROCITIES.—It is the policy of the United 7 States to consider any senior official of the Government 8 of the People's Republic of China who is responsible for 9 or has directly carried out, at any time, atrocities includ-
10 ing arbitrary imprisonment, forced sterilization, torture, 11 forced labor, and draconian restrictions on freedom of reli-
12 gion, expression, and movement against religious minori-13 ties, including Christians, Uyghurs, and Falun Gong, in 14 the People's Republic of China to have committed—

15 (1) a gross violation of internationally recog-
16 nized human rights for purposes of imposing sanc-17 tions with respect to such official under the Global 18 Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act (22 19 U.S.C. 10101 et seq.); and

20 (2) a particularly severe violation of religious 21 freedom for purposes of applying section
22 212(a)(2)(G) of the Immigration and Nationality 23 Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)(G)) with respect to such 24 official.

1 (b) DEPARTMENT OF STATE PROGRAMMING TO PRO-
2 MOTE RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC
3 OF CHINA.—It is the policy of the United States—

4 (1) that the Ambassador at Large for Inter-5 national Religious Freedom should support efforts to 6 protect and promote international religious freedom 7 in the People's Republic of China; and 8 (2) for programs of the Department of State to 9 protect religious minorities in the People's Republic

10 of China and combat transnational repression en-11 gaged in by the People's Republic of China.

12 (c) DESIGNATION OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF 13 CHINA AS A COUNTRY OF PARTICULAR CONCERN FOR RE-
14 LIGIOUS FREEDOM.—It is the policy of the United States
15 to continue to designate the People's Republic of China 16 as a country of particular concern for religious freedom 17 under section 402(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the International Reli-
18 gious Freedom Act of 1998 (22 U.S.C. 6442(b)(1)(A)(ii)) 19 as long as the Government of the People's Republic of 20 China continues to engage in particularly severe violations
21 of religious freedom (as defined in section 3 of such Act 22 (22 U.S.C. 6402)).

1 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING PROMOTION OF 2 RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN THE PEOPLE'S RE-
3 PUBLIC OF CHINA.

4 It is the sense of Congress that the United States
5 should promote religious freedom in the People's Republic 6 of China by—

7 (1) strengthening diplomacy relating to reli-
8 gious freedom on behalf of Christians and other reli-9 gious minorities facing restrictions in the People's 10 Republic of China, including through the widespread 11 engagement of international partners to combat the 12 violations against religious freedom committed by 13 the Government of the People's Republic of China;

14 (2) raising the cases of religious and political 15 prisoners at the highest levels with officials of the 16 People's Republic of China because experience dem-17 onstrates that consistently raising prisoner cases can 18 result in reduced sentences, or in some cases, release 19 from custody, detention, or imprisonment;

20 (3) encouraging Members of Congress to be-21 come advocates for prisoners of conscience in the 22 People's Republic of China through the Defending 23 Freedoms Project of the Tom Lantos Human Rights 24 Commission, raise the cases of those prisoners with 25 officials of the People's Republic of China, and work 26 publicly for their release;

1 (4) calling on the Government of the People's 2 Republic of China to unconditionally release reli-
3 gious and political prisoners and ensure that detainees
4 who have not yet been released are treated hu-5 manely with—

6 (A) access to family, the lawyer of their 7 choice, independent medical care, and interna-8 tional monitoring mechanisms; and

9 (B) the ability to practice their faith while 10 in detention;

11 (5) encouraging the global faith community to 12 speak in solidarity with the persecuted religious 13 groups in the People's Republic of China; and 14 (6) hosting, once every 2 years, the Ministerial 15 to Advance Religious Freedom organized by the De-16 partment of State in order to bring together leaders 17 from around the world to discuss the challenges fac-

18 ing religious freedom, identify means to address reli-19 gious persecution and discrimination worldwide, and 20 promote great respect for and preservation of reli-21 gious liberty.

22 SEC. 5. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING ACTION BY THE 23 UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL.

24 It is the sense of Congress that the United Nations
25 Human Rights Council should issue a formal condemna-

1 tion of the People's Republic of China for the ongoing 2 genocide against Uyghurs and other religious and ethnic 3 minority groups and the persecution of Christians, Falun 4 Gong, and other religious groups.
