Ms. SPANBERGER (for herself, Mr. HUNT, Ms. DEAN of Pennsylvania, and Mr. CRENSHAW) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To require a GAO study on the sale of illicit drugs online, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Targeting Online Sales

5 of Fentanyl Act”.

1 SEC. 2. GAO STUDY ON THE SALE OF ILLICIT DRUGS ON-
2 LINE.

3 (a) STUDY.—The Comptroller General of the United 4 States shall conduct a study on the online sale of fentanyl
5 and methamphetamine, including—

6 (1) business models employed by online sellers
7 of fentanyl and methamphetamine, including an ex-
8 amination of supply chains, logistics, and strategies
9 utilized for customer acquisition, retention, and com-
10 munication within illicit online marketplaces;

11 (2) utilization of online illicit drug markets and 12 providers (as defined in section 2258E of title 18, 13 United States Code) for facilitating financial trans-
14 actions in the online sale of fentanyl and meth-
15 amphetamine, with a particular focus on their im-16 pact on individuals who are 18 years of age and 17 younger;

18 (3) efforts of the Federal Government to com-
19 bat the online sale of fentanyl and methamphe-
20 tamine, including—

21 (A) interagency collaboration, including
22 personnel detailed to other agencies to support 23 efforts to combat the online trafficking of 24 fentanyl and methamphetamine, and related il-
25 licit finance;

(B) intergovernmental collaboration between the Federal Government and State, Tribal, local, and foreign governments;

(C) intersectoral collaboration with the private sector, including businesses and non-governmental organizations;

(D) examination of existing procedures followed by Federal law enforcement agencies in handling cases related to online sales of fentanyl and methamphetamine, encompassing the receipt, investigation, and prosecution processes;

(E) analysis of aggregated outcomes from the past 10 years to identify patterns and areas for improvement; and

(F) identification of gaps or resource deficiencies in coordinating and collaborating activities described in subparagraphs (A) through (E) to combat the online sale of fentanyl and methamphetamine;

(4) models utilized by providers, including machine learning, algorithmic technology, and data analysis techniques, to effectively detect and combat the sale of fentanyl and methamphetamine on their forms;

- 1 (5) enforcement mechanisms and processes em-
2 ployed by providers to penalize users involved in the 3 sale of fentanyl and methamphetamine, including 4 user identification, verification procedures, and sub-
5 sequent actions, such as account suspension, report-
6 ing to law enforcement agencies, and collaboration 7 with legal proceedings; and
- 8 (6) analysis of referrals to the Federal Govern-
9 ment by providers detailing information about online 10 sales of fentanyl and methamphetamine, including—
- 11 (A) the number of referrals from providers
12 to the Federal Government;
- 13 (B) the number of referrals that were in-
14 vestigated by the Federal Government, includ-
15 ing the agencies involved in the investigation
16 and the outcome of the investigation;
- 17 (C) the number of referrals that resulted 18 in an arrest, prosecution, or conviction, includ-
19 ing the offense of the arrest, prosecution, or 20 conviction; and
- 21 (D) the number of referrals that were 22 shared by the Federal Government with a
23 State, Tribal, or local government, including a 24 law enforcement agency or prosecutor's office.

1 (b) REPORT REQUIRED.—Not later than 1 year after 2 the date of enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General
3 of the United States shall submit to Congress a report
4 containing all findings and determinations made in car-
5 rying out the study required under subsection (a).
