IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 12, 2024

Ms. JACOBS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

---

A BILL

To authorize the establishment in the Department of State of a Negotiations Support Unit, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH NEGOTIATIONS
4                       SUPPORT UNIT WITHIN DEPARTMENT OF 5                       STATE.

6       (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
7       gress that—

8               (1) there is a need for the United States Gov-
9       ernment to maintain a permanent institutional hub
10      for technical expertise, strategic advice, and knowl-

1 edge management in negotiations, mediation, and 2 peace processes in order to prioritize and invest in 3 diplomacy;

4 (2) the United States plays a unique role in en-
5 abling and supporting peace processes and complex
6 political negotiations, the success of which are essen-
7 tial to stability and democracy around the world;

8 (3) the meaningful engagement of conflict-af-
9 fected communities, particularly women, youth, and 10 other impacted populations, is vital to durable,
11 implementable, and sustainable peace;

12 (4) negotiation requires a specific technical and 13 functional skillset, and thus institutional expertise in 14 this practice area should include trained practi-
15 tioners and subject matter experts;

16 (5) such skills should continue to be employed
17 as the United States advises and contributes to 18 peace processes, including those where the United 19 States plays a supporting role or is led by multilat-20 eral and international partners; and

21 (6) training programs for United States dip-
22 lomats should draw upon this expertise and United 23 States lessons learned to help equip diplomats with 24 skills to respond to peace processes and complex po-
25 litical negotiations, and how to request support.

1 (b) NEGOTIATIONS SUPPORT UNIT.—Section 1 of the 2 State Department Basic Authorities Act is amended by 3 adding at the end the following new subsection:

4 “(n) NEGOTIATIONS SUPPORT UNIT.—

5 “(1) AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH.—The Sec-
6 retary of State may establish within the Department
7 of State a unit to be known as the ‘Negotiations
8 Support Unit’ responsible for carrying out the func-
9 tions described in paragraph (2), as appropriate.

10 “(2) FUNCTIONS.—The functions described in 11 this paragraph are the following:

12 “(A) Serving as a permanent institutional
13 hub and resource for negotiations and peace
14 process expertise and knowledge management.

15 “(B) Advising the Secretary of State, other 16 relevant senior officials, members of the For-
17 eign Service, and employees of the Department
18 of State on the substance, process, and strategy 19 of negotiations, mediation, peace processes, and 20 other complex political negotiations from strat-
21 egy and planning to implementation.

22 “(C) Supporting the development and im-
23 plementation of United States policy related to 24 complex political negotiations and peace proc-

1           esses, including those led by multilateral and 2           international partners.

3           “(D) Advising on mediation and negotia-
4           tions programs to implement United States pol-
5           icy.

6           “(E) Supporting training for Foreign Serv-
7           ices Officers and civil servants on tailored nego-
8           tiation and mediation skills.

9           “(F) Working with other governments,
10          international organizations, and nongovern-
11          mental organizations, as appropriate, to support
12          the development and implementation of United 13          States policy on peace processes and complex
14          political negotiations.

15          “(G) Any additional duties the Secretary
16          of State may prescribe.

17          “(3) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—
18          There is authorized to be appropriated $5,000,000
19          for the establishment of the Negotiations Support
20          Unit under paragraph (1).”.
