A BILL

To preempt State data security vulnerability mandates and decryption requirements.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Ensuring National 5 Constitutional Rights for Your Private Telecommuni-
6 cations Act of 2025” or the “ENCRYPT Act of 2025”.

1 SEC. 2. PREEMPTION OF STATE DATA SECURITY VULNER-
2 ABILITY MANDATES AND DECRYPTION RE-
3 QUIREMENTS.

4 (a) IN GENERAL.—A State or political subdivision of 5 a State may not—

6 (1) mandate or request that a manufacturer,
7 developer, seller, or provider of covered products or 8 services—

9 (A) design or alter the security functions
10 in its product or service to allow the surveil-
11 lance of any user of such product or service, or 12 to allow the physical search of such product, by 13 any agency or instrumentality of a State, a po-
14 litical subdivision of a State, or the United 15 States; or

16 (B) have the ability to decrypt or otherwise
17 render intelligible information that is encrypted
18 or otherwise rendered unintelligible using its 19 product or service; or

20 (2) prohibit the manufacture, sale or lease, of-
21 fering for sale or lease, or provision to the general
22 public of a covered product or service because such 23 product or service uses encryption or a similar secu-
24 rity function.

25 (b) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

1           (1) COVERED PRODUCT OR SERVICE.—The 2           term “covered product or service” means any com-
3           puter hardware, computer software, electronic de-
4           vice, or online service that—

5                   (A) has traveled in interstate or foreign 6                   commerce or otherwise affects interstate or for-7                   eign commerce; and

8                   (B) is made available to the general public.

9           (2) ONLINE SERVICE.—The term “online serv-10          ice” means a service provided over the internet that 11          makes available to users—

12                   (A) the ability to send or receive commu-
13                   nications, such as emails, text messages,
14                   photos, and audio and video communications;

15                   (B) the ability to share data files with 16                   other users; or

17                   (C) remote computer processing or storage.

18          (3) STATE.—The term “State” means each of 19          the several States, the District of Columbia, each 20          commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United 21          States, and each federally recognized Indian Tribe.
