A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to prohibit the production or distribution of digital forgeries of intimate visual depictions of identifiable individuals, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Protect Victims of Dig-

5       ital Exploitation and Manipulation Act of 2025”.

1 SEC. 2. DIGITAL FORGERIES OF INTIMATE VISUAL DEPICT- 2 TIONS.

3       (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 88 of title 18, United 4 States Code, is amended by adding at the end the fol-
5 lowing:

6       “§ 1802. Prohibition of production or distribution of 7           digital forgeries of intimate visual depic-
8           tions of identifiable individuals”

9        "(a) OFFENSE.—Except as provided in subsection
10 (b), whoever, in any circumstance described in subsection 11 (c), acts with reckless disregard to produce or distribute,
12 or causes to be produced or distributed, a digital forgery
13 of an identifiable individual, without the consent of the 14 identifiable individual, shall be fined under this title, im-
15 prisoned not more than 5 years, or both.

16           “(b) EXCEPTIONS.—

17               “(1) IN GENERAL.—This section shall not apply
18               with respect to a distribution made in good faith—
19                   “(A) to a law enforcement officer or agen-
20                   cy;

21               “(B) as part of a legal proceeding;

“(C) as part of medical education, diagnosis, or treatment; or

24                   “(D) in the reporting or investigation of—25                   “(i) unlawful content; or

1                         “(ii) unsolicited or unwelcome con-
2                         duct.

3                         “(2) SERVICE PROVIDERS.—This section shall 4                         not apply to any provider of a communications serv-
5                         ice with regard to content provided by another infor-6                         mation content provider unless the provider of the 7                         communications service recklessly distributes content 8                         in violation of this section.

9                         “(c) CIRCUMSTANCES DESCRIBED.—For the pur-
10                         poses of subsection (a), the circumstances described in this 11                         subsection are that the digital forgery is produced or dis-
12                         tributed using a means, channel, facility, or instrumen-13                         tality of interstate or foreign commerce or traveled in or 14                         affected interstate or foreign commerce.

15                         “(d) EXTRATERRITORIAL APPLICATION.—This sec-
16                         tion applies if the individual who has violated subsection 17                         (a) or the identifiable individual who is a victim of the 18                         violation of subsection (a) is a national of the United 19                         States (as such term is defined in section 101(a) of the 20                         Immigration and Nationality Act).

21                         “(e) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

22                         “(1) CONSENT.—The term ‘consent’ means an 23                         affirmative, conscious, competent, and voluntary au-
24                         thorization made by the individual free from force,

1       fraud, misrepresentation, or coercion, whether or not
2       the individual is a public figure.

3                 “(2) DIGITAL FORGERY.—The term ‘digital for-
4       gery’ means any intimate visual depiction of an indi-
5       vidual created through the use of software, machine
6       learning, artificial intelligence, or any other com-
7       puter-generated means, including by adapting, modi-8       fying, manipulating, or altering an authentic visual 9       depiction, to appear to a reasonable person to be an 10      authentic visual depiction of the individual.

11                “(3) IDENTIFIABLE INDIVIDUAL.—The term
12       ‘identifiable individual’ means an individual whose 13       body appears in whole or in part in an intimate vis-14       ual depiction and who is identifiable by virtue of the 15       person’s face, likeness, or other distinguishing char-
16       acteristic, such as a unique birthmark or other rec-17       ognizable feature, or from information displayed in 18       connection with the visual depiction.

19                “(4) INTIMATE VISUAL DEPICTION.—The term
20       ‘intimate visual depiction’ means a visual depiction,
21       as that term is defined in section 2256(5), that de-
22       picts—

23                         “(A) the uncovered genitals, pubic area,
24       anus, or female nipple of an identifiable indi-
25       vidual;

1               “(B) the display or transfer of bodily sex-
2               ual fluids—

3                       “(i) on to any part of the body of an 4               identifiable individual; or

5                       “(ii) from the body of an identifiable 6               individual; or

7               “(C) an identifiable individual engaging in 8               sexually explicit conduct.

9               “(5) SEXUALLY EXPLICIT CONDUCT.—The term
10               ‘sexually explicit conduct’ has the meaning given the 11               term in subparagraph (A) of section 2256(2).

12               “(6) COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE.—The term
13               ‘communications service’ means—

14                       “(A) a service provided by a person that is 15               a common carrier, as that term is defined in 16               section 3 of the Communications Act of 1934,
17               insofar as the person is acting as a common
18               carrier;

19                       “(B) an electronic communication service,
20               as that term is defined in section 2510;

21                       “(C) an information service, as that term
22               is defined in section 3 of the Communications
23               Act of 1934; and

1                 “(D) an interactive computer service, as 2                 that term is defined in section 230(f) of the 3                 Communications Act of 1934.

4                 “(7) INFORMATION CONTENT PROVIDER.—The 5                 term ‘information content provider’ has the meaning
6                 given such term in section 230(f) of the Communica-
7                 tions Act of 1934.”.

8                 (b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections
9                 for chapter 88 of title 18, United States Code, is amended 10          by adding at the end the following:

“1802. Prohibition of production or distribution of digital forgeries of intimate visual depictions of identifiable individuals.”.

11 SEC. 3. SEVERABILITY.

12          The provisions of this Act, or an amendment made 13          by this Act, shall be severable. If any provision of this 14          Act, or any application thereof, is found unconstitutional,
15          that finding shall not affect any provision or application
16          of the Act not so adjudicated.
