A BILL

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to end the tax subsidy for employer efforts to influence their workers' exercise of their rights around labor organizations and engaging in collective action.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “No Tax Breaks for 5       Union Busting (NTBUB) Act”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress makes the following findings:

8               (1) The National Labor Relations Act (29 9       U.S.C. 151 et seq.) declares that it is the right of 10      employees to form, join, or assist labor organiza-
11      tions.

12               (2) The National Labor Relations Act further 13      declares that it is “the policy of the United States
14      to eliminate the causes of certain substantial ob-
15      structions to the free flow of commerce and to miti-16      gate and eliminate these obstructions when they 17      have occurred by encouraging the practice and pro-
18      cedure of collective bargaining and by protecting the

1 exercise by workers of full freedom of association,
2 self-organization, and designation of representatives
3 of their own choosing . . .”.

4 (3) Despite Congress’ intention to give workers
5 full agency in these matters, many employers regu-
6 larly choose to involve themselves, lawfully or unlaw-
7 fully, in the decisions of their employees about 8 whether to avail themselves of their rights under the 9 National Labor Relations Act and the Railway
10 Labor Act (45 U.S.C. 151 et seq.).

11 (4) Employers frequently violate labor laws
12 around organizing and collective action. The Eco-
13 nomic Policy Institute finds that in approximately 4
14 of 10 labor organization elections in 2016–2017 em-
15 ployers were charged with committing an unfair
16 labor practice. Among larger bargaining units of 61
17 employees or more, over 54 percent of elections have 18 an unfair labor practice charge.

19 (5) In practice, these unfair labor practices
20 often include charges such as employees being ille-21 gally fired for labor organization activity, refusal to 22 bargain in good faith with labor organizations, or co-
23 ercion and intimidation. Employers also frequently
24 use captive audience meetings, workplace surveil-

1 lance, and other lawful or unlawful tactics to sway
2 labor organization elections.

3 (6) Whether or not there are charges of unlaw-
4 ful behavior, employers spend millions of dollars to 5 sway the opinions of their employees with respect to 6 whether or how to exercise their rights under the
7 National Labor Relations Act and the Railway
8 Labor Act. According to the Economic Policy Insti-
9 tute, companies spent $340,000,000 yearly on out-
10 side consultants to sway their workers' opinions
11 about labor organization activities. This and other 12 spending interferes with the United States goal of 13 "encouraging the practice and procedure of collective 14 bargaining".

15 (7) The Internal Revenue Code of 1986 has 16 long recognized that spending by businesses with the 17 purpose of influencing the general public with re-
18 spect to elections, while it may be lawful, is not tax 19 deductible. Congress should extend that principle to 20 spending done by employers to influence workers'
21 elections and collective bargaining decisions. These 22 free choices to exercise the rights to engage in collec-
23 tive bargaining, labor organization representation,
24 and other lawful collective activities should be made

1 without taxpayer subsidies of undue outside influence
2 from employers.

3 SEC. 3. DENIAL OF DEDUCTION FOR ATTEMPTING TO IN-
4 FLUENCE EMPLOYEES WITH RESPECT TO 5 LABOR ORGANIZATIONS OR LABOR ORGANI-
6 ZATION ACTIVITIES.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 162(e)(1) of the Internal 8 Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by striking “or” at the 9 end of subparagraph (C), by striking the period at the end
10 of subparagraph (D) and inserting “, or”, and by adding 11 at the end the following new subparagraph:
