A BILL

To amend the Federal Reserve Act to require the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to carry out a review of discount window operations and to implement improvements to such operations, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2   tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Bringing the Discount
5   Window into the 21st Century Act”.

6   SEC. 2. REVIEW OF DISCOUNT WINDOW OPERATIONS.

7       Section 10 of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 241
8   et seq.) is amended—

9               (1) by redesignating paragraph (12) as para-
10   graph (11); and

11               (2) by adding at the end the following:

12               “(12) REVIEW OF DISCOUNT WINDOW OPER-
13   ATIONS.—

14               “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 60 days
15   after the date of enactment of this paragraph, the 16   Board of Governors shall commence a review of 17   the discount window lending programs of the 18   Federal reserve banks (the ‘discount window’),
19   and shall complete such review not later than 20   240 days after the date of enactment of this
21   paragraph.

22               “(B) CONTENTS.—The review required by
23   subparagraph (A) shall include a consideration
24   of—

- 1                   “(i) the effectiveness of the discount
2                   window in providing liquidity to financial 3                   institutions, including in times of financial 4                   stress;
- 5                   “(ii) whether the technology infrastruc-
6                   ture, including means of communications,
7                   are sufficient to support the timely provi-
8                   sion of liquidity, including in times of fi-
9                   nancial stress;
- 10                  “(iii) the effectiveness of cybersecurity
11                  measures implemented with respect to dis-
12                  count window operations;
- 13                  “(iv) the effectiveness of communica-
14                  tions between Federal reserve banks, finan-
15                  cial institutions, the Board of Governors,
16                  the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation,
17                  the Comptroller of the Currency, and the 18                  Secretary of the Treasury regarding dis-
19                  count window operations;
- 20                  “(v) the effectiveness of the Board of 21                  Governors in providing oversight of the dis-
22                  count window and in ensuring consistent 23                  access to the discount window across the 24                  Federal Reserve System;

1                   “(vi) how the discount window inter-
2                   acts with other providers of liquidity, in-
3                   cluding the Federal Home Loan Banks, 4                   during both normal operations and times of 5                   financial distress;

6                   “(vii) the effectiveness of existing dis-
7                   count window operating hours and whether 8                   such hours should be expanded, taking into 9                   account the interaction between discount
10                  window operating hours and the operating 11                  hours of payment systems of the Federal re-
12                  serve banks, such as the Fedwire Funds
13                  Service and FedNow Service;

14                  “(viii) the impact of mobile banking
15                  and instant communications technology on 16                  depositor behavior and liquidity risk posed 17                  to financial institutions, including how the 18                  discount window can—

19                  “(I) help financial institutions
20                  better respond to rapid liquidity short-21                  falls; and

22                  “(II) prevent broader financial 23                  instability; and

24                  “(ix) the effectiveness of the discount
25                  window in light of the stigma associated

1           with its usage, ways to reduce such stigma,
2           and ways to improve access, operational ef-
3           ficiency, transparency, and timeliness of the 4           process for financial institutions seeking ad-
5           vances, including on the pricing and other
6           terms of such advances.

7           “(C) REMEDIATION PLAN.—After the Board
8           of Governors completes the review required by 9           subparagraph (A), the Board of Governors, in 10          consultation with the Federal reserve banks, 11          shall—

12           “(i) identify deficiencies with the dis-
13           count window and areas for enhancing dis-
14           count window effectiveness; and

15           “(ii) develop a written plan to reme-
16           diate the identified deficiencies and imple-
17           ment the identified enhancements, which 18           shall include—

19           “(I) an identification of actions
20           that will be taken to enhance discount
21           window effectiveness and remediate
22           identified deficiencies;

23           “(II) timelines and milestones for 24           implementing the plan and measures
25           to demonstrate how the implemented

1                   improvements will be maintained on 2                   an ongoing basis; and

3                   “(III) measures of managing and 4                   controlling any deficiencies and cur-
5                   rent operations until the plan is imple-
6                   mented in full.

7                   “(D) REPORT TO CONGRESS ON REVIEW
8                   AND PLAN.—

9                   “(i) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 365
10                  days after the date of enactment of this
11                  paragraph, the Board of Governors shall 12                  submit a report to the Committee on Financial 13                  Services of the House of Representatives
14                  and the Committee on Banking, Housing,
