

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3493

To reduce prescription drug prices by aligning U.S. prices with international benchmarks.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 19, 2025

Mr. KHANNA (for himself, Mrs. LUNA, Ms. KAPTUR, and Mr. BIGGS of Arizona) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committees on Ways and Means, and the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To reduce prescription drug prices by aligning U.S. prices with international benchmarks.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Global Fairness in 5 Drug Pricing Act”.

6 SEC. 2. DRUG PRICING.

7 (a) MOST-FAVORED NATION PRICE TARGETS.—Not 8 later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act,

1 the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall, in co-
2 ordination with the Administrator of the Centers for Medi-
3 care & Medicaid Services and other heads of relevant Fed-4 eral agencies—propose a rulemaking plan to impose most-5 favored-nation price targets to pharmaceutical manufac-
6 turers to ensure that prices for pharmaceutical products 7 paid by patients in the United States are comparable to 8 the prices for such products paid by comparably developed 9 countries.

10 (b) IMPORTATION BY INDIVIDUALS.—The Secretary
11 of Health and Human Services shall certify to Congress
12 that importation under section 804(j) of the Federal Food,
13 Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 384(j)) will pose no
14 risk to the health and safety of the public and will result
15 in a significant reduction in the cost of prescription drugs
16 to the American patients in the United States; and the 17 Secretary of Health and Human Services shall take action
18 under section 804(j)(2)(B) of such Act to describe cir-
19 cumstances under which waivers will be consistently grant-
20 ed to individuals to import prescription drugs, on a case-
21 by-case basis, from developed countries with low-cost pre-22 scription drugs.

23 (c) ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS.—The Attorney General
24 and the Chair of the Federal Trade Commission shall, to 25 the extent consistent with law, undertake enforcement ac-

1 tion against any anticompetitive practices by pharma-
2 ceutical manufacturers, including through enforcement of 3 sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 1, 2)
4 and section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15
5 U.S.C. 45), as appropriate.

6 (d) PROGRAMS ENABLING DIRECT-TO-CONSUMER
7 PURCHASES.—To the extent permitted by law, the Sec-
8 retary of Health and Human Services shall facilitate di-9 rect-to-consumer purchasing programs for pharmaceutical 10 manufacturers that sell their pharmaceutical products to 11 patients in the United States at the prices determined 12 through the rulemaking under subsection (a).

13 (e) STUDY OF UNREASONABLE OR DISCRIMINATORY
14 BEHAVIORS OF MANUFACTURERS.—The Secretary of 15 Commerce and the United States Trade Representative
16 shall conduct a study to determine whether any act, policy, 17 or practice by pharmaceutical manufacturers constitutes 18 unreasonable or discriminatory behavior that—

19 (1) impairs national security;

20 (2) forces patients in the United States to sub-
21 sidize global pharmaceutical research and develop-22 ment; or

23 (3) involves suppression of drug prices in for-24 eign markets below fair market value.

- 1 The findings of such a study shall be submitted in a report
- 2 to Congress not later than 180 days after the date of the
- 3 enactment of this Act.
