1ST SESSION

H. R. 4901

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the brave women who served in World War II as members of the U.S. Army Nurse Corps and U.S. Navy Nurse Corps.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

AUGUST 5, 2025

Ms. STEFANIK (for herself, Mr. DELUZIO, and Mrs. KIGGANS of Virginia) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services, and in addition to the Committee on House Administration, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the brave women who served in World War II as members of the U.S. Army Nurse Corps and U.S. Navy Nurse Corps.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “WWII Nurses Con-5 gressional Gold Medal Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 The Congress finds the following:

3 (1) On December 8, 1941, the United States
4 declared war against the Empire of Japan, followed 5 by declarations of war against Germany and Italy on 6 December 11, 1941. In 1935, there were fewer than 7 600 United States Army nurses and 1,700 United 8 States Navy nurses on active duty. By the time
9 World War II ended, more than 59,000 Army nurses
10 and 14,000 Navy nurses had volunteered to serve.

11 (2) The Act of June 4, 1920 (41 Stat. 759; 12 chapter 227), granted women in the Nurse Corps
13 “relative rank”. This gave them the right to wear 14 the military insignia, but did not confer military sta-
15 tus or privileges. This arrangement meant women 16 serving throughout World War II received 50 per-17 cent of the pay as compared to their male counter-18 parts, and none of the veteran benefits. Because 19 they did not receive military status, they received no 20 orientation or training before being deployed to hos-
21 pitals near the front lines.

22 (3) Nurses served under fire in field hospitals
23 and evacuation hospitals across 6 continents, on hos-
24 pital trains and ships, and as flight nurses on med-25 ical transport planes. Several nurses were killed in 26 action when their ships were torpedoed or field hos-

1 pitals were bombed. Some even entered into combat 2 areas as flight nurses to retrieve the wounded, and 3 2 groups were captured as prisoners of war by the 4 Japanese.

5 (4) General Douglas MacArthur ordered Amer-
6 ican and Filipino Army Corps nurses and other med-
7 ical personnel to the Bataan Peninsula to prepare 2
8 emergency hospitals for United States and Filipino 9 forces. General Hospital #1 received casualties di-
10 rectly from the front lines and occupied an old Army
11 barracks in Limay, Bataan prior to implementation 12 of War Plan Orange 3 on December 24, 1941. The 13 hospital received more than 1,200 battle casualties
14 requiring major surgery within a month. General 15 Hospital #2, a makeshift open ward hospital, was 16 set up in Cabcaben, Bataan to receive discharged
17 patients from Hospital #1. Hospital #2 accepted
18 patients strong enough for evacuation, as it was out 19 in the open, with no tents or buildings, and only tree 20 canopy to conceal them from Japanese aircraft. Due 21 to constant bombing, Hospital #1 was transferred 22 to Little Baguio in Mariveles, Bataan on January 23 25, 1942. Hospital #1 was bombed on March 29, 24 1942, and again on April 7, killing or wounding 25 more than 100 patients, but the nurses carried on

1 with their duties as well as they were able. Fifty-
2 three American and 31 Filipina nurses were ordered
3 to move from Bataan to Corregidor Island on April 4 8. Ten of the American nurses were transferred suc-
5 cessfully to Australia prior to the fall of Corregidor 6 on May 6, 1942. Sixty-seven American nurses were 7 eventually moved to Santo Tomas University Intern-
8 ment Camp where they were liberated in February 9 1945 while 31 Filipina nurses were moved to Bilibid 10 Prison where they were conditionally released in 11 July 1942.

12 (5) On December 10, 1941, Sangley Point
13 Navy Yard was bombed by Japanese planes. Amer-14 ican and Filipino Navy Corps nurses, medical per-15 sonnel and patients of Cañacao Naval Hospital were 16 transferred to the Army Sternberg Hospital in Ma-17 nila. During the first week of January 1942, the 18 Japanese Army occupied Manila and the Navy
19 nurses were transferred to St. Scholastica's College
20 with their patients and eventually to Santo Tomas
21 University Internment Camp on March 12, 1942.
22 Eleven American and Filipino Navy Corps nurses
23 were transferred to Los Baños Prison Camp on May 24 14, 1943, where they stayed until their liberation in 25 February 1945. Following the United States Army

1 surrender of the Philippines to the Japanese on May 2 6, 1942, 67 Army nurses were taken to Santo
3 Tomas Internment Camp in Manila, where they re-
4 mained until February 1945. During the 37 months
5 in captivity, these women endured primitive condi-
6 tions and starvation rations, but continued to care
7 for the ill and injured in the internment camp hos-8 pital.

9 (6) Chinese, Chinese-American, and Japanese-
10 American nurses served in Army Hospitals in China, 11 Hawaii, and in the mainland United States under 12 the Army and Navy Corps. Despite the internment
13 of many Japanese-American families during World
14 War II, Japanese-American women joined the Nurse 15 Cadet Corps to serve the United States. Chinese and 16 Chinese-American nurses were recruited by the Fly-17 ing Tigers, serving both in dangerous missions over 18 the Himalayas as well as in U.S. Army hospitals.

19 (7) Early in the morning of November 8, 1942,
20 60 nurses attached to the 48th Surgical Hospital
21 landed off the coast of North Africa. The nurses
22 wore helmets and carried full packs containing med-
23 ical equipment. Without weapons, they waded ashore
24 amid enemy sniper fire and ultimately took shelter 25 in an abandoned civilian hospital, where they began

1 caring for invasion casualties. There was no elec-
2 tricity or running water, and the only medical sup-3 plies available were those the nurses had brought 4 themselves.

5 (8) In Anzio, Italy, nurses dug foxholes outside
6 their tents or under their cots and cared for patients 7 under German shellfire. The field hospital tents were 8 marked by large red crosses and were sometimes de-9 liberately hit with artillery shells and bombs. On 10 February 7, 1944, a German pilot being pursued by 11 British fighter planes dropped 5 antipersonnel
12 bombs on the hospital, destroying 29 ward tents,
13 killing 26 and wounding 64. The dead included 3
14 nurses, 2 medical officers, a Red Cross worker, 14
15 enlisted men and 6 patients. Troops came to refer 16 to the hospital area as "Hell's Half-Acre" because it 17 was hit so frequently by enemy fire. At least 200 18 nurses took part in the Anzio campaign, caring for 19 more than 33,000 patients behind enemy lines.

20 (9) Army and Navy nurses acclimated quickly
21 to difficult and dangerous conditions with a min-22 imum of complaints, and were essential members of 23 the field armies.

24 (10) The presence of nurses at the front im-25 proved morale because soldiers realized that they

1 would receive skilled care in the event they were 2 wounded.

3 (11) Thanks largely to the efforts of these 4 nurses, fewer than 4 percent of the American sol-5 diers who received medical care in the field or under-6 went evacuation died from wounds or disease.

7 (12) After the war, broad public health mis-
8 sions required that Army and Navy nurses supervise 9 communicable disease measures as former enemy
10 countries were reorganized. In Hiroshima, these offi-
11 cers cared for victims of the atomic bombs. In Mu-12 nich, they prevented mass epidemic in refugee 13 camps. Army and Navy nurses even provided pre-14 natal, infant, and mental health care in other 15 former-enemy territories.

16 (13) Nurses received 1,619 medals, citations, 17 and commendations during the war, reflecting the 18 courage and dedication of all who served. Sixteen 19 medals were awarded posthumously to nurses who 20 died as a result of enemy fire, including 6 nurses
21 who died at Anzio, 6 who died when the hospital
22 ship Comfort was attacked by a Japanese suicide
23 plane, and 4 flight nurses. Thirteen other flight 24 nurses died in weather-related crashes while on duty.

1 (14) In 1944, Congress passed a bill that 2 granted Army and Navy Nurses actual military rank
3 and benefits, approved for the duration of the war
4 plus 6 months.

5 (15) In 1947, Congress passed legislation estab-
6 lishing a permanent Army and Navy Nursing Corps 7 and gave members permanent officer status with 8 equal pay and the same benefits as those given to 9 male officers.

10 (16) In 1948, all military branches were inte-11 grated and female doctors were finally admitted to 12 the Army Medical Corps.

13 (17) Although African-American nurses were 14 fully qualified and prepared to serve as nurses at the 15 onset of World War II, racial segregation and dis-
16 crimination made it difficult for Black women to join 17 the ranks of the Army Nurse Corps.

18 (18) As the Army Nurse Corps began expand-
19 ing its recruiting process, thousands of Black nurses
20 who wanted to serve their country filled out applica-21 tions.

22 (19) While the Army did eventually integrate 23 African-American nurses in 1941, it did so
24 unwillingly and placed a quota on the number of Af-

1 rican-American nurses that they would accept, cap-
2 ping the number allowed to join at 56.

3 (20) Many of them had hardship tours and 4 were sent to segregated camps to take care of Afri-
5 can-American soldiers and would rotate and allow 6 White nurses reprieve in taking care of German pris-7 oners of war. As the war progressed, the number of 8 Black nurses allowed to enlist remained low, al-
9 though the quota was officially lifted in July 1944.

10 (21) The extraordinary efforts of these women 11 are deserving of belated official recognition.

12 (22) The United States is eternally grateful to 13 the nurses of the Army and Navy Nurse Corps for 14 their bravery and dedication to their patients
15 through World War II, which saved lives and made
16 significant contributions to the defeat of the Axis 17 powers.
