A BILL

To establish the Office of Strategic Currency Diplomacy in the Department of State.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Dollar Dominance Act 5 of 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. OFFICE OF STRATEGIC CURRENCY DIPLOMACY.

7       (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There shall be in the Bureau
8 for Commercial Diplomacy of the Department of State an 9 Office of Strategic Currency Diplomacy, which shall be re-

1 responsible to the Assistant Secretary for Commercial Diplo-
2 macy for all matters pertaining to—

3                 (1) combatting efforts by strategic rivals and 4                 adversaries to undermine the use of the United 5                 States dollar as the world's reserve currency;

6                 (2) partnering with allies to ensure the strength
7                 and integrity of U.S.-dollar denominated payment
8                 and financial systems;

9                 (3) evaluating the implications of virtual assets
10                for United States foreign policy and national secu-
11                rity;

12                (4) aligning United States foreign policy, and in 13                particular the use of sanctions to advance foreign 14                policy and national security objectives, with national 15                monetary security;

16                (5) where appropriate, leading the coordination
17                of programs carried out abroad by Federal depart-18                ments and agencies, including the Department of the 19                Treasury, the Department of Commerce, and the Of-20                fice of the Director of National Intelligence, that re-21                late to the matters for which the Office of Strategic 22                Currency Diplomacy is responsible under this sec-23                tion; and

(6) such other related duties as the Assistant Secretary for Commercial Diplomacy may from time to time designate.

4       (b) RESPONSIBILITIES.—In addition to being respon-5 sible for the matters described under subsection (a), the 6 Office of Strategic Currency Diplomacy shall—

7                   (1) serve as the principal advisor to the Assistant 8                   Secretary for Commercial Diplomacy regarding 9                   the development and implementation of policies to 10                  prevent a reduction in the use of the United States
11                  dollar as the primary reserve currency in inter-
12                  national markets;

(B) programs and policies that expand the percentage of—

24 (i) central bank foreign currency hold-
25 ings in United States dollars; and

(ii) international transactions denominated in United States dollars;

14                         (5) perform each other related duty as the As-15                         sistant Secretary for Commercial Diplomacy may 16                         from time to time designate.
