IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 15, 2025

Ms. TITUS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To provide for a review of sanctions with respect to Azerbaijan.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Azerbaijan Sanctions
5 Review Act of 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) On September 19, 2023, Azerbaijan
9 launched a military assault on Nagorno-Karabakh,

1 resulting in the forced displacement of the region's 2 entire Armenian population following a 10-month
3 blockade of the Lachin Corridor, which deprived Ar-4 menian civilians access to food, fuel, medicine and 5 other essential goods.

6 (2) Azerbaijan's blockade and forced displace-
7 ment of Nagorno-Karabakh's Armenians followed a
8 major escalation of the conflict during the 2020
9 Nagorno-Karabakh War, during which Azerbaijani
10 military and government officials named in section 11 3(b) have committed war crimes and serious human 12 rights violations, including the extrajudicial killing of 13 Armenian civilians and prisoners of war; the arbi-
14 trary detention, forced disappearances, and torture
15 of Armenian civilians and prisoners of war and other
16 captives, and the deliberate targeting of civilian pop-17 ulations.

18 (3) Azerbaijan's continued detainment, torture, 19 extrajudicial execution, and other serious human 20 rights violations against prisoners of war and cap-
21 tured civilians calls into serious question their com-22 mitment to human rights and ability to negotiate an 23 equitable, lasting peace settlement.

24 (4) Reporting conducted in September 2022 by 25 the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of

1 Racial Discrimination expressed deep concern over
2 “[a]llegations of severe and grave human rights vio-
3 lations committed during the 2020 hostilities and 4 beyond by Azerbaijani military forces against pris-
5 oners of war and other protected persons of Arme-
6 nian ethnic or national origin—including
7 extrajudicial killings, torture and other ill-treatment
8 and arbitrary detention”.

9 (5) The Department of State’s Country Reports
10 on Human Rights Practices released in August 2025
11 documented “credible reports of: arbitrary or unlaw-
12 ful killings; torture or cruel, inhuman, or degrading
13 treatment or punishment; arbitrary arrest and de-
14 tention; transnational repression against individuals
15 in another country,” and notes that “the govern-
16 ment [of Azerbaijan] did not take credible steps or 17 action to identify and punish officials who committed 18 human rights abuses.”.

19 (6) Human rights organizations have consist-20 ently reported on Azerbaijan’s abuse of prisoners of 21 war and other human rights violations, including a 22 report by Human Rights Watch in March 2021 that 23 found Azerbaijani forces had abused ethnic Arme-
24 nian prisoners of war and subjected them to “cruel 25 and degrading treatment and torture either when

1 they were captured, during their transfer, or while 2 in custody at various detention facilities”.

3 (7) Reporting conducted in 2024 by Freedom
4 House found that the Government of Azerbaijan
5 “acted upon a comprehensive, methodically imple-6 mented strategy to empty Nagorno-Karabakh of its 7 ethnic Armenian population between 2020 and 8 2023” and engaged in a “pattern of arbitrary deten-
9 tion, torture, and ill-treatment of Armenians who fell 10 into Azerbaijani custody.”.

11 (8) In December 2021, an International Court
12 of Justice ruling ordered Azerbaijan to protect from 13 violence and bodily harm Armenians detained during 14 and since the 2020 Nagorno-Karabakh War.

15 (9) At least 23 prisoners of war and hostages
16 are still detained illegally by Azerbaijan as of August 17 2025 according to the Armenian Government, with 18 independent observers noting that the true number 19 of detainees is likely much higher given the many in-20 dividuals still missing, and the limited information 21 available due to Azerbaijan’s misrepresentation of 22 their status in an attempt to justify their continued
23 captivity.

24 (10) Following Azerbaijan’s offensive in 2023, 25 numerous high-ranking Armenian officials in

1 Nagorno-Karabakh were arrested and detained by 2 Azerbaijan, including Ruben Vardanyan, Davit
3 Manukyan, Davit Babayan, Levon Mnatsakanyan,
4 Arkadi Ghukasyan, Bako Sahakyan, Arayik
5 Harutyunyan, and Davit Ishkhanyan.

6 (11) In January 2025, Azerbaijan commenced
7 sham trials of the aforementioned former officials of 8 Nagorno-Karabakh in Baku's military court, where 9 detainees have been denied due process, the right to 10 a fair trial, the right to legal counsel of their own
11 choosing, and have been charged on political grounds
12 without evidence and in the absence of independent 13 observers.

14 (12) In March 2025, Azerbaijan ordered the 15 International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC),
16 the only entity in Azerbaijan with the authorization
17 to visit Armenian prisoners of war and civilian cap-
18 tives, to leave the country.

19 (13) International humanitarian law requires
20 parties to an international armed conflict to treat
21 prisoners of war humanely in all circumstances.

22 (14) It is a war crime to willfully kill, mistreat, 23 or torture prisoners of war, or to willfully cause
24 great suffering or serious injury to body or health.

1 (15) In addition to being bound by customary
2 international law, Azerbaijan is a party to the Geneva
3 Conventions, the International Covenant on Civil 4 and Political Rights (ICCPR), and the European 5 Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) which strictly 6 forbid extrajudicial killings.

7 (16) Despite its international legal obligations
8 under the Geneva Conventions and repeated calls by 9 the United States Government, Azerbaijan has not 10 released all relevant persons and instead continues 11 to detain new prisoners of war, hostages, and captured
12 civilians, nor have those responsible for serious 13 human rights violations and war crimes faced legal 14 consequences.

15 (17) Following the publication of the terms of 16 the initialed peace agreement between Armenia and 17 Azerbaijan in August 2025, it was confirmed the 18 document omits provisions to ensure the release of 19 Armenian prisoners of war or civilian captives, raising 20 concerns as to Azerbaijan's commitment to ensuring 21 a just, durable, and dignified peace in the region.

23 (18) Amid fraught peace talks between Armenia
24 and Azerbaijan, the immediate and unconditional release 25 of Armenian prisoners of war, civilians, and

1 political detainees would represent an important con-
2 fidence building measure.

3 (19) In addition to its arbitrary detention of 4 Armenian prisoners, Azerbaijan also has also unlaw-
5 fully detained over 300 Azerbaijani journalists,
6 human rights defenders, civic activists and opposi-
7 tion figures, with Azerbaijani authorities escalating 8 civil society crackdowns in the months leading up to 9 the COP29 Climate Summit in November 2024.

10 (20) Azerbaijan's brutal repression of domestic 11 political opposition is of grave concern for the 12 human rights of Azerbaijanis.

13 (21) The detention and subsequent torture and 14 ill-treatment of journalists like Radio Free Europe/
15 Radio Liberty reporter Farid Mehralizada, critics of 16 the Aliyev government like Dr. Gubad Ibadoglu,
17 and human rights advocates like Rufat Safarov, 18 raises fundamental concerns about due process and 19 the integrity of the legal proceedings against those 20 who express political dissent in Azerbaijan.

21 (22) Azerbaijan is designated as "Not Free" by 22 Freedom House due to the absence of political 23 rights, civil liberties, and rule of law.
