

119TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 7052

To establish a Center for Conflict Analysis, Planning, and Prevention in the Department of State, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 14, 2026

Ms. JACOBS (for herself and Mr. McCAUL) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To establish a Center for Conflict Analysis, Planning, and Prevention in the Department of State, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Conflict Prevention 5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress that—

8 (1) better understanding and responding to 9 conflict and supporting peace processes and complex

1 political negotiations will further United States na-
2 tional security and foreign policy interests;

3 (2) the Department of State should possess an 4 institutional hub to help regional bureaus and em-
5 bassies efficiently and effectively address violent con-
6 flict, peace processes, and complex political negotia-
7 tions; and

8 (3) such an institutional hub should be staffed
9 by subject matter experts that can equip United 10 States diplomats in conflict analysis and peace nego-
11 tiations.

12 SEC. 3. CENTER FOR CONFLICT ANALYSIS, PLANNING, AND 13 PREVENTION AT THE DEPARTMENT OF 14 STATE.

15 (a) AUTHORIZATION.—There shall be in the Depart-
16 ment of State a Director for Conflict Analysis, Planning,
17 and Prevention, who shall be responsible to the Secretary
18 of State, acting through the Under Secretary for Political 19 Affairs, for matters relating to conflict prevention, mitiga-
20 tion, and negotiations to develop policy options and pro-
21 vide expertise for the Under Secretary of Political Affairs
22 and for the Assistant Secretaries of each regional bureau.

23 (b) RESPONSIBILITIES.—In addition to the respon-24 sibilities described under subsection (a), the Director and

1 the Center established under subsection (c) may carry out
2 the following, as appropriate:

3 (1) Developing advanced analytic methodolo-
4 gies, data, and tools to understand global conflict 5 dynamics, produce conflict trend assessments, and 6 inform the Department's efforts to prevent and miti-7 gate conflict and crises of top priority to the United 8 States.

9 (2) Forecasting potential hotspots of violent 10 conflict in foreign countries to best identify risks to 11 United States national security interests or opportu-
12 nities for advancing United States foreign policy pri-
13 orities.

14 (3) Conducting in-depth analyses of conflict dy-
15 namics in foreign countries to—

16 (A) advise regional bureaus on program
17 goals and approaches to burden-sharing with 18 foreign partners; and

19 (B) provide quantifiable metrics to inform 20 effective use of the Department's resources.

21 (4) Supporting peace processes by providing ex-
22 pertise to the Under Secretary of Political Affairs, 23 regional bureaus, and chiefs of mission, to enable 24 and inform peace negotiation and mediation strate-
25 gies, implementation, and monitoring.

1 (5) At the direction of the Under Secretary, co-
2 ordinating with regional and relevant functional bu-
3 reaus on the implementation of the Global Fragility
4 Act of 2019 (22 U.S.C. 9801 et seq.).

5 (6) Providing strategic gaming, “red team”
6 (contrarian-structured analytic techniques to chal-
7 lenge assumptions and test vulnerabilities), and 8 table-top exercises, to rigorously test foreign policy
9 options and strategies.

10 (7) Supporting the development of training for 11 Foreign Service officers on conflict prevention and 12 mediation skills, including the trainings required
13 under the Elie Wiesel Genocide and Atrocities Pre-14 vention Act of 2018.

15 (8) Such other functions as the Under Sec-
16 retary for Political Affairs may designate from time
17 to time.

18 (c) ESTABLISHMENT.—There shall be in the Depart-
19 ment a Center for Conflict Analysis, Planning, and Pre-20 vention (in this section referred to as the “Center”), led 21 by the Director appointed pursuant to the authorization
22 under subsection (a), which shall perform functions re-
23 lated to data analysis and strategic planning on emerging 24 or ongoing foreign conflicts to develop policy options and 25 provide expertise for the Under Secretary of Political Af-

1 fairs and for the Assistant Secretaries of each regional bu-
2 reau.

3 (d) DISSEMINATION OF ANALYTIC PRODUCTS.—The 4 Under Secretary shall ensure that the Center’s analytic
5 products are disseminated to relevant stakeholders within 6 the Department, as well as other elements of the United 7 States Government, as appropriate.

8 (e) MEMBERSHIP.—The Center shall be comprised of 9 not more than 20 full-time Department employees, includ-
10 ing a contingent capable of temporary deployments to sup-
11 port embassies—

12 (1) in conflict-affected regions; or

13 (2) in regions that the Under Secretary for Po-14 litical Affairs determines to be at risk of conflict or 15 civil strife.
