A BILL

To conduct a special resource study of Fort Pillow Historic State Park in Henning, Tennessee, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as “Fort Pillow National Bat-
5 tlefield Park Study Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds as follows:

1 (1) Fort Pillow was originally built by Confed-
2 erate troops in 1861 and named after General Gid-
3 eon J. Pillow of Maury County, Tennessee.

4 (2) The battle of Fort Pillow was fought on
5 April 12, 1864, at Fort Pillow in Henning, Ten-
6 nessee, during the American Civil War.

7 (3) At Fort Pillow, Tennessee, Confederate
8 forces never defeated the Union Navy. Instead, they 9 perpetrated a heinous massacre after violating a flag
10 of truce by advantageously repositioning rebel troops
11 and by looting government buildings and private
12 storefronts surrounding the fort.

13 (4) According to the 1864 Report “Fort Pillow
14 Massacre” from the United States Congress Joint
15 Committee on the Conduct of the War, “The officers
16 and men seem to vie with each other in the devilish
17 work; men, women and even children, wherever 18 found, were deliberately shot down, beaten and 19 hacked with sabers. . . .”.

20 (5) The Union garrison consisted of 19 officers
21 and 538 troops of whom 262 were United States
22 Colored Troops (U.S.C.T.).

23 (6) Per the report, “Of the men, from three 24 hundred to four hundred are known to have been
25 killed at Fort Pillow, of whom at least three hundred

1 were murdered in cold blood after the fort was in
2 possession of the rebels and our men had thrown
3 down their arms and ceased to offer resistance.”.

4 (7) The massacre at Fort Pillow demonstrated
5 to all U.S.C.T. that surrender was not an option.
6 The massacre at Fort Pillow became a rallying cry
7 and motivation for the 209,147 U.S.C.T.

8 (8) The 209,147 U.S.C.T. fundamentally con-
9 tributed to the Union’s defeat of the Confederacy.

10 (9) In 1971, Fort Pillow became a State park.

11 (10) In 1973, Fort Pillow was added to the Na-
12 tional Register of Historic Places.

13 (11) The following year, in 1974, Fort Pillow
14 was designated as a National Historic Landmark.

15 (12) Fort Pillow Historic State Park consists of 16 1,642 acres.

17 (13) The Park contains several attraction areas
18 such as a Civil War museum, hiking trail, camping
19 ground, and picnic area.

20 (14) This site deserves to become a National 21 Battlefield Park due to its profound effect on 22 U.S.C.T. and all Union forces in their fight to pre-
23 serve the United States of America.

1 SEC. 3. FORT PILLOW SPECIAL RESOURCE STUDY.

2 The Secretary of the Interior shall conduct a special
3 resource study of Fort Pillow Historic State Park in 4 Henning, Tennessee. Fort Pillow is a State park that fea-
5 tures the American Civil War history and the Massacre
6 at Fort Pillow. The Secretary shall—

7 (1) evaluate the site’s national significance; and

8 (2) determine the suitability and feasibility of 9 designating it as a unit of the National Historic
10 Park System.
